MOUNTAIN FOLKS' PICNIC

Every once in a while the folk on the mountain hold a picnic, and invite their friends, and relatives, who have wandered from the mountain side to reside in other parts.

The picnic or get-together festival this year, was held at Stronach Brook last Wednesday.

Although many were unavoidably absent on account of distance and having operations, the following were present (if perchance no names are omitted):

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stronach and family, Ethel, Ralph and Madeleine; Miss Lucy Spidle; Miss Muriel Harris; Mr. and Mrs. Bela Stronach and family, Mack and Clinton; Mrs. Ruby Parks; Miss Helen Baker; Miss Grace Downey; Mrs. Isaac Coulston and daughter, Mrs. Lamb from Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. Parker Bent and children, Doris, Edna and Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Spencer and family, Mayson, Harold, Frederick and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gates and family, Ernest, George, Malcolm, Ruth and Lawrence Dimock; Mrs. Annie Neely and children, Thomas and Elaine; Mr. Edward McGilvary; Mrs. Ruth Stronach and family, Horace, George, Lorimer, Gordon and Susan; Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Black and family, Charles, Annetta and Edgar; Captain Carter and grandson, and Miss Hunter from Melvern Sq.; Miss Grace Carter; Miss Eva Cox; R. N. Mc. and Mrs. D. L. Cox and daughter, Ruth; and Laura and De-Mill Harris from Weston; Frank Harris; Morton Harris; Joe Harris; Lillie and Sadie Bent.

The weather was just grand, and for the most part, bathing, bathing, gathering duff, conversation, baseball, etc. constituted the days' frivolities. The men folks indulged in a classical game of ball from which plenty of exercise was received, the score being something like 26-35 in favor of the winners of course.

After the customary time had been joyfully spent at the waters' edge, the ladies commenced preparations for eating operations, and it is needless to say this part of the outing was a crowning success: there were eats galore, dairy, delicate, appetizing and wholesome. The ladies of the mountain are culinary artists of the first order, and the eats were well cared for by the hungry throng.

When no more could be tucked away, the folks started for their respective homes, all feeling glad that they had went and were able to rejoice in the reunion.

Let us forget mention of the frozen delicacies contributed by the kind friends of Weston should be made. Mr. and Mrs. Cox bringing a large freezer of ice cream, which was the product of their own farm at Weston. It was delicious—we know.

NORTH SPRINGFIELD

The many friends of Rev. G. C. Durkee and family are glad to have them among them spending a short vacation.

Mr. James Sandford, of Middleton, spent the week-end at A. E. Sandford's.

Mrs. E. Creamer and little Betty went a few days visiting friends in Pineburg.

Mrs. Geo. Durling had the pleasure of entertaining her mother and two sisters of Beach Meadows, July 26th. Mr. Clifford Durling and Miss Inglis, of Halifax, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Jessie Cassidy of Kingston and Mrs. T. Allen and daughter, Betty, of Toronto, visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Vernon and Bessie spent August 2nd in the Valley.

Mrs. I. C. Mason spent a few days at Bear River recently.

Mrs. Geo. Gray and daughters, Gean and Kathleen, were guests of Mrs. W. Lupton last week.

Miss Marjorie McNay has returned home after spending her vacation at Aylesford. She has been successful in obtaining her "B."

MIDDLETON SCHOOLS OPENS

The regularly monthly meeting of the School Commission took place on Monday of last week. Dr. Messenger presiding.

School re-opens on August 21st for the formation of classes, placing of marks, etc. but the commission decided that the formal opening would take place September 8th.

Programme of music and speeches will be given, and the prizes for the past year will be distributed.

The school building has been undergoing extensive repairs, special and general. New floors and ceilings have been put into the halls, the basement renovated and new electric wiring installed.

The staff for the year will comprise Principal H. L. Bastin; Vice-Principal, G. V. Jacques; Grades VII and VIII, Miss Braime of Annapolis Royal; Grades V and VI, Mrs. Poole, Granville Perry; Grades III and IV, Miss Browne of Elmsdale; Grades I and II, Mrs. Bilely, Cambridge Station; Mechanical Science, Ralph Lewis; Truro; Domestic Science, Miss Marion Harlow, Truro.

You have got to hand it to A. W. Allen & Son, our local woodworkers, when it comes to store fixtures. We dropped into the new store of C. A. Mumford in the Morrison Block last Thursday. There we found Mr. Dodge, one of Messrs. Allen's first class woodworkers, busy overseeing and assembling the new fixtures. The finish is all split oak, beautifully finished. Along each side of the store are shelves and drawers. All the shelving is concealed with sliding glass doors, and each drawer has attached a labelled brass pull. At the rear of the store is a handsome partition, in which are two doors, one leading to the dispensary and the other to the office, and between these doors are large plate glass mirrors and further shelving behind sliding glass doors. In the dispensary are numerous shelves and drawers for the hundreds of bottles, powders, etc. that are necessary in a perfectly up-to-date drug store. There is also a large dispensary table covered with plate glass, which means the last thing in cleanliness. In the office a desk and other conveniences are found. The entire fixtures being manufactured and installed by A. W. Allen & Son.

Mr. Mumford, who is a druggist of many years standing, knows exactly what a modern drug store needs, and he has spared nothing in order to give the public the best equipped with furnishings and stock. It will surely be a great pleasure for people to go into this new drug store, where they may be certain of getting any of the thousand and one requisites a drug store furnishes.

20th ANNUAL CONVENTION OF N. S. MUNICIPALITIES TO BE AT ANNAPOLIS ROYAL

To all Nova Scotia Municipalities:

Annapolis Royal, County of Annapolis, Middleton and Bridgetown, appreciate the honour of entertaining the Convention for 1925. One cannot follow this organization year by year and not be impressed with the splendid work which has been accomplished since its inception nineteen years ago.

While each year has added to its usefulness as a public institution its responsibilities are increasing with years, until it is now recognized as a necessity in guarding the welfare of our municipal life. Perhaps in no time during many years has so favourable an opportunity been afforded the Union as the year 1925. With a new administration at Annapolis let us hope for the favourable consummation of some of the projects of the Union which year by year have been presented to the Government.

I desire to express my sincere personal pleasure on behalf of the Council, Officials and Citizens of Annapolis Royal, the Municipality and the Town of Middleton and Bridgetown, and beg also to assure you of a generous welcome, and at the same time to express our best wishes for success in all your undertakings.

Faithfully yours,

George A. Hawksworth,

Mayor of Annapolis Royal.

On Thursday afternoon, August 20th, leaving Annapolis at 5 p.m., a trip to Bear River will be made. All those in Middleton, who can provide automobiles for the delegates, are urgently requested to attend the meeting Thursday afternoon, August 20th. Mr. F. E. Bentley or Mayor Sponagle would appreciate hearing from any who can provide cars. As Middleton is on the entertainment committee for the convention, it is hoped a good number of cars will be provided from this point.

You've noticed that Moir's horses are all black—beauties every one of them. They are groomed twice daily by a special staff under Mr.

Frank Boottler, in ideal quarters. For Example, their feed is all electrically cut, their water provided from special taps which the horses turn on themselves by pressing their nozzles in the bowls. And, by the way, to protect their feed a number of cats are kept, all black, like the horses.

Blemishes of the Skin

Are Proof the Blood is in a Weak and Watery Condition

One of the surest signs that the blood is out of order are the pimples and unsightly eruptions that break out on the face or body. The same condition is indicated by an attack of eczema or scrofula. You cannot get rid of these troubles by the use of purgative medicines, as so many people try to do. Purgatives merely gallop through the system and leave it still weaker. What is needed when the blood is shown to be out of order is a tonic which will restore its missing elements and leave the blood rich and red. For this purpose there is no other tonic can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, every dose of which helps to enrich the blood, drives out impurities, and brings a new feeling of health and energy. Mrs. R. E. Bishop, Hawthorne Ave., Hamilton, Ont., tells for the benefit of others what these pills did for her. She says:—"I was suffering terribly from scrofula. I was doctoring with several doctors, but without success. My complexion was sallow, I had no strength, feeling very weak and languid. My neck was full of lumps called eczema, and at times they were very painful. After trying several so-called blood medicines, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me and I got half a dozen boxes. After taking them I found a decided improvement in my appearance, and to my joy the lumps were disappearing from my neck. I persevered in the treatment, and finally the only sign left of the trouble was a scar on my neck where one of the swellings broke. Since that time I have been in robust health and heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any suffering from impure blood."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ALBANY

August 7th.—Mr. Thomas A. Clark, from Hyde Park, Mass., has his vacation of three weeks which his yearly spends among his Nova Scotia relatives and friends. He is always a welcome visitor. He reports 21 years of continuous service in the car repair business at Hyde Park.

Our former neighbor and relative, Mrs. Lydia Kniffen, together with her two granddaughters are visiting at the home of her son, Harvey Kniffen. She has had the care of the two children of her daughter since the mother died, eight or ten years ago.

Mrs. Alwood Whynot and daughter are welcome visitors at William Whynot's. She comes from Framington, Mass. Her husband is planning to come on later to accompany her on her return.

Seymour Whynot was operated on for appendicitis at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, and is making rapid recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitman have been visiting at Nictaux and Mendon Vale.

Mr. Clyde O. Whitman is spending his vacation, or the large part of it, at Albany and for exercise has been helping his brother, Lyman, gather in the hay.

The Misses Robinson, from Wilnot, visited their sister, Mrs. Lyman A. Whitman and called on others last week.

Mrs. Ingram Oakes and three children, from Bridgewater, are visiting at the home of her son, Lyman Oakes. The sons have been helping gather in the hay.

Alice Whitman, of Nictaux, is a visitor at Lyman Oakes' home.

The upland hay, a good crop, has been gathered in good order in most instances. The grain crop is a heavy one.

We congratulate our young friend, Mervin Oakes, in obtaining his grade B certificate. His average was 74.

We hear that Jan. J. Payne made a brief call on his old home after the funeral of his beloved wife, Almida. We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved; also to the mother of the deceased, Mrs. Robert H. Barnes and family.

A PROMISING SON

Said a distinguished politician to his son: "Look at me! I began as an alderman, and here I am at the top of the tree, and when I die what is my reward? Why, when I die, my son will be the greatest rascal in the United States!"

To this the young hopeful replied: "Yes, dad, when you die; but not till then."

If you are looking for a bargain in stationery drop in at The Outlook office and cast your peepers over the display of REBEL LAWN stationery or display. This stationery comes boxed, containing a quire of Lawn Paper, not size, and twenty-four envelopes to match. On the cover of the box is a beautiful picture, in colors of one of our famous movie actresses. This picture alone is easily worth a dollar. But we are giving things away for a few days, so to the first few customers who breeze this way, we are going to give a box of this Rebel Lawn stationery, containing one of these beautiful pictures; and will print your name and address on each of the sheets and envelopes, in the name of the stationery.

Did you ever hear of such a bargain before? Of course you don't believe it is half as good as we claim. Well, then, we invite you to come and see for yourself. We are always here to show our wares and back up what we advertise. All we want is a chance to do so. Call soon as the supply is not great in numbers.

SEEKING IDEAL ANESTHETIC

Medical science is still seeking the ideal anesthetic. It may be that future improvement, as a writer in the Lancet points out, will lie not in the substitution of other agents of nitrous oxide and for ether, but the discovery of methods and measures by which the use of these two faithful servants may be purged.

If either were never followed by bronchitis or sickness, and "gas" alone could always produce relaxation, we should hardly need another anesthetic. Anesthetics which are gases at ordinary temperature and pressure are of course, as is familiar in the case of nitrous oxide, inconvenient as regards portability and general handling. It is only the paramount excellence of "gas" in certain directions that compensates for its inconvenience, and keeps it in many instances the anesthetic of choice. It does not appear that either acetylene or ethylene provides advantages over nitrous oxide that will compensate for its possession of the same defect of inconvenience. Both these gases suffer the additional disadvantages of small amount of easy inflammability. It is true that in this latter respect they are not much worse than ether, for either, used, cannot be used near an open flame or in contact with the actual cautery. But acetylene and ethylene are rather more easily explosive than ether apart from ignition by flame, and one or two accidents that have occurred in practice show the need for extreme care when these gases are employed in conjunction with nitrous oxide.

The practical question of cost is likely also to militate against wide popularity for ethylene. In many respects, however, this gas appears to be a highly satisfactory anesthetic. At present, except in small quantities, it can hardly be obtained unless from America.

The large percentage of oxygen, which it is found possible and desirable to use in conjunction with ethylene shows its potency as an anesthetic. It is interesting in the connection to recall the importance attributed to small quantities of ethylene as an impurity in ether by the Lancet. Lancet believes mistaken, authorities who declare pure ether to be devoid of anesthetic power.

Propylene has so far been submitted to so little trial that no pronouncement can yet be made on its merits or defects. Nevertheless, it is obviously worthy of further research.—Ex.

HYMENEAL

McLean-Tingley
WINDSOR, Aug. 5th—The marriage of Ruth Beatrice, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Tingley, and son of Charles McLean, son of ... and Mrs. D. A. McLean, North Sydney, took place this afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. L. J. Tingley officiating assisted by Rev. F. B. Spurr, Rector at Liverpool, N. S., and a cousin of the bride. It was a home wedding and the floral color scheme was very effectively carried out in yellow and white in the reception room.

The bride wore a gown of maize georgette, hat of the same shade with touches of pink and orchid, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink and orchid sweet-peas with streamers of maize tulle.

Both were unattended. Miss Edwina Adlington, Bedford, played the wedding marches.

The ceremony over, a repast was partaken of. The out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Dorden Tingley, Halifax; Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Spurr, and Miss Margaret Spurr, Liverpool, N.S.; Mrs. C. E. Spurr, Port George, Annapolis Co.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tingley, Brighton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Reagh, Middleton; Miss Anne Partridge and Miss Bertha McLean, North Sydney; Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Adlington, Bedford.

There were many gifts received, and among these was a dinner set from the Marconi office staff at Montreal. Previous to leaving Montreal, where she had taught for three years in the Maisonneuve School, the bride was presented with nonogrammed silver tea and coffee spoons, cups and saucers by the young lady pupils.

The groom went overseas with a battery corps from Montreal, and is now a wireless operator at the Post Office in M. street and it is in that city that Mr. and Mrs. McLean will make their home.

Tingley is a grand daughter of Mrs. C. E. Spurr, of Port George—Ed.

While at Truro they inspected the Daily News office, plant and machinery. In this place they make their own type and employ about eighty hands. Mr. Dimock, the editor, presented his friend, "Herb" with a nice road map of Nova Scotia.

Rev. W. R. Turner is chairman of the Hospital Board, and as such it was quite natural that he should be called upon to say a few words at the Hoods concert. And in the course of events, he was called upon for the purpose. From our report his remarks were omitted. This was not the worst part of it. Mr. Turner in his everybody that helped the hospital—with one exception. He omitted the magnificent work of the Rebekahs. This certainly was not done intentionally by our good friend. There were many reasons surrounding the episode, which really caused the error that brought forth severe criticisms and necessitated much explanation. Perhaps it would not be too far from the truth to say that someone may have slipped the Hoods pin into Mr. Turner's pocket as he entered upon the duties of telling the people all about it; and of course the hoodoo got in its work, and the reverend gentleman had to bear the consequences. To make a long story short, we can truthfully say that he was molested (not intentionally), and perhaps the glare of the footlights, and perhaps the large audience had some thing to do with it because you know persons do not always have a fun house to speak to. Anyway, Mr. Turner felt just as sorry for omitting the Rebekahs as the Rebekahs did for just a little bit.

How about your fall advertising campaign? Why not line it up now, and start advertising for the business that is here. It's yours for the asking, if you do it right. Don't lay down and let the catalogues get their work in here. This is a day of real hustle in business. Winter's coming right along folks. You may not think so, but it's a cold fact. Have you got your fuel in? Now is the time to fill up the bin and have the wood house stored. It may be a cold winter, and the feel of a nice warm fire is worth considering the Rebekahs did to just a little bit.
