WALTER HERBERT RELATES HIS STORY REGARDING JOSEPH H. SIFTON'S DEATH

Old Man Was Struck on Head Several Times With Axe blows which Gerald dealt to the old man's head. According to Herbert, at Then Thrown From the Barn.

Ten Times.

WITNESS' EVIDENCE

Herbert Gives Details of the Morning's Events on Day That Gerald's Father Met Death.

Crown Prosecutor Clute, in opening the Sifton case, proceeded to outline to the jury the facts of the case in accordance with the crown's theory of the manner in which Joseph H. Sifton came to his death. He went over the events of the night of June 29, and the the crown. He also referred to Herbert's action in pleading guilty at the fall assizes in 1900. He asked the jury to approach the case with unbiassed minds. He said for his part he would endeavor to act dispassionately and fairly, not striving alone for a conviction of the prisoner, but merely en-deavoring to sift the truth.

THE FIRST WITNESS. The first witness caled was Hubert C. McBride, who identified a number of plans and photographs produced as representing the house, barn and various other portions of Joseph Sifton's farm and the surrounding country. Mr. McBride said he had first visited the Sifton property on July 30, 1900, one month after the alleged murder. He found that three boards had been knocked from the upper part of the ton murder trial opened sharp on time

After a long deliberation and further argument, Judge Britton said that in deference to the statements of Mr. Clute, he considered that it was expedient to issue an order that the jury view the scene. The party will go in charge of two constables and Col. Macbeth, the clerk of the court. Mr.J.M.McEvoy, on behalf of the defense, and Mr. J. B. McKillop, on behalf of the crown, will also accompany the party, and any points to which they wish to call the attention of the jury will be communicated by them to the clerk, and he will in turn communicate them to the

Mr. Johnston said he must ask that events of the night of June 29, and the morning and afternoon of June 30, as set forth by the various witnesses for climbing all over the barn. Judge Britton, in dismissing the jury for the evening, said that in the trial of such a case as the one in hand, those connected with it must suffer a certain amount of inconvenience, and the members of the jury, most of all. the members of the jury, most of all. and stopped them, and asked Gerald They would sleep in the court house, what time he would be home for dinand have their meals brought in to them. He asked them not to discuss the case or form any premature judgments about it. He set the hour of 8 a.m. for them to visit the Sifton farm and directed them to try no experiments while there. They were there to observe, not to experiment.

Judge Britton announced that he would sit each day from 9:30 a.m. till 6:30 p.m., half an hour longer than the assize judges generally sit. One hour will be allowed for luncheon. Court adjourned shortly after 5 p.m., to be resumed at 11 a.m. Tuesday. The second day's session of the Sif-least ten blows were given to Joseph Sifton, one by Herbert himself and the rest by Gerald.

Herbert's opening statement that he had worked at Gerald Sifton's house since Dec. 9, 1899. He knew Gerald's father Joseph, who "kept bach" at the place "where the deed was done." Those residing at Gerald's were Gerald, Mary Macfarlane, ious objection to the granting of the application, as he believed it would witness. The night before Jos. Sifton's death witness was working in the cellar at Gerald's. Gerald told him that he (Gerald) was going away, and that "his missus" would help witness with the buttermaking. Witness was awakened next morning by Gerald at 5:30 or 6. While witness was milking the cows Gerald came to him and asked him to go down to Joseph Sifton's house. Gerald said he had to fix the hayfork, and that after it was fixed he meant to do away with his father by knocking him out of the end of the barn. Gerald offered Herbert $1,000 to come along to be a "witness" > cur to make people suspicious about the job. Herbert was to do as he was Witness said he would go with Gerald and help put up the hayfork track. He was not to have anything to do with putting Joseph Sifton out of the fear of "anyone catching on" or of anything happening. Gerald leaned from the cart and spoke to her, but witness could not hear what he said. This statement of Herbert's is entirely new, he having mentioned nothing of it at the last trial.

The job has to be done up quick, as they have got on to it. Someone has told them." Gerald then took a large blacksmith hammer from the bag and went up to knock off boards from the end of the barn. Gerald told witness if Joseph Sifton came up to hit him on the head with the axe.

"I STRUCK HIM." "When his father came up, I struck him; then I caught hold of him and pulled him up. Gerald came over and struck him again, struck him three or four blows on the top of the head. His father's legs seemed to cave in and he fell through the hole. His legs went through the rungs of the ladder and he hung there. Gerald told me to get down and shove him up. I did so, and Gerald pulled him out of the hole, and hit him two or three more blows. "Then we picked him up and carried him to the second bent of the mow, and threw him down on his back. I went back and got his hat and the axe I came back and threw down the axe, and Gerald picked it up and hit him again a couple of times.

"Gerald then wiped the axe off with a bunch of hay, and threw the hay in the north end of the barn. Then Gerald took the axe again and hit him a few more times. Then Gerald caught hold of his shoulders and I took his feet and we carried him over and threw him out the end of the barn When he went out he did not strike on his head, but on his shoulder. Gerald did not like the way he was lying and he told me to straighten his feet to the south, and to get bricks and stones and put them under his head. There was no blood on the bricks and Gerald told me to put some on. Gerald was at the lower hole in the barn when he told me. Gerald threw the axe out of the hole and told me to hurry up and fix it, and then to hurry

"When I came in there was a plot of blood on the hay on the floor. Gerald picked the hay up and threw it all over the heap of hay at the north side of the barn. Then he looked out and said 'Hurry up and get out, Mary is coming.'

Witness advised Gerald to go and tell Mary what had happened. Gerald went to get the harness on the horse and directed witness to go and tell Mary that the old man had fallen out of the barn, and was nearly killed. Witness did as directed and met Mary near the barnyard gate. Mr. Clute asked permission of the judge to ask witness what statement he made to Mary. The judge allowed the question to be asked. "I told her the governor had fallen out of the end of the barn and was nearly killed," was Herbert's answer. Mr. Johnston objected to a question, as to Mary's reply, and the bench upheld the objection.

Witness said he went back to the barn and helped Gerald hitch the horse, then he opened the gate Gerald to drive out. Gerald told witness to go across and tell Job Sinker what had happened. Witness did so, and as he and Sinker came back to the house Alonzo Decker, came along. They went in and carried Joseph Sifton to the house. Mr. Clute then asked witness several questions as to the events immediately preceding the attack in the barn. Witness said that when Joseph Sifton came out to the barn he wore a black suit and hat.

Mr. Clute asked if Joseph Sifton evidence, Mr. Clute renewed his application for the jury to be allowed to visit the scene of Joseph Sifton's death. This ended Mr. Clute's examination of Herbert, which had lasted only about three-quarters of an hour.

HERBERT CROSS-EXAMINED

Mr. Johnston took the witness in hand and in the course of his crossexamination managed to show many small but important discrepencies between Herbert's evidence of a year ago and that now offered. In answer to Mr. Johnston's question the witness said that he had had no word with Gerald Sifton as to the doing away with his father before the morning of June 30, and then it was all arranged in a few minutes' conversation.

Witness said that at Gerald's bidding he went up and knocked off two or three more boards from the end fo the barn. This made five or six knocked off.

told him to hit the old man. He had now changed the statement and said that Gerald dropped the axe on the floor and he picked it up.

Another discrepancy was found in witness' statement that after carrying the old man part way across the barn he went back and got the axe and the old man's hat. Last year he said that while he went down through the trap door for the hat, Gerald came over and got the axe. Witness said that Joseph Sifton might have got up through the barn door. Witness said the doors were shut. Mr. Johnston read his previous statement that he looked through the partly opened south door and saw the old man man coming.

DRUNKEN MAN WITH PISTOL Hamilton Ont. Nov. 4.-James McKin ley, an experienced oil-borer, recently from Alaska, who shot Frederick Braund on Saturday night, while intoxicated, was before the magistrate, when the case was before the magistrate, when the case was adjourned for eight days to await the outcome of Braund's injuries. McKinley was helplessly drunk when he shot at random, thinking he was being robbed and the shot hit Braund, who was across the road from McKinley. The prisoner had over $500 on his person when arrested. If Braund is out of danger in a couple of days, McKinley will be admitted to bail.

SHOT HIS BRIDE.

New York, Nov. 3.—Abraham Scher, a cloak salesman, has shot and fatally wounded the woman who was married to him Oct. 8. The shooting occurred in an east side tenement. Scher declares that his wife resfused to cook his meals and that he had eaten nothing but bananes during the day. Begg ing engaged anas during the day. Becoming enraged from hunger, he told the police, he procured a revolved, and, seeking his wife in the flat occupied by friends in another building, he fired four shots at her, all of which took effect.

THE KORDECK TRAGEDY. Chicago, Nov. 4.—Later accounts of the tragedy in the home of Joseph Kordeck, caused by the explosion of a dynamite bomb, show that Mrs. Lucy Kordeck, whose flesh was blown off her right side, was injured internally and may die. Seven children were injured, but not seriously. The Kordeck boxs. seven children were injured, but not seriously. The Kordeck house and the adjoining building were destroyed by fire. The explosion occurred while the family were asleep. The bomb was placed under the room occupied by the parents, and the impact of the explosion tore a hole in the floor, blew the bed to bridge, of Harvard, with a voltage of 0,000,000, which gave a spark seven pieces, dismembered Kordeck and scattered into fragments the body of Lucy.

Twitchings of the muscles of the face, sensitiveness to light, sound and employes performing contract or piece motion, grinding teeth during sleep, continual movement or tapping of the fingers, neuralgic headache, sparks before the eyes, disorders of sight and hearing and feelings of discouragement, languor and despondency are other indications of a weak and exhausted nervous system.

Plenty of people put up with these symptoms, in the vain hope that they will pass off, and that old-time health and vigor will return. Alas, nervous disorders do not right themselves. a Few Days.

20 PER CT. INCREASE IN WAGES

Reduction of 20 Per Cent in the Hours of Labor-Equitable Method of Weighing Coal.

Hazelton, Pa., Nov. 4. - The statement of the anthracite mine workers' case, which was filed with the strike commission on Sunday night, made public today. Copies of the statement have been furnished to the operators, who will reply in three or four days. The miners' statement in

To the Anthracite Coal Strike Commis-

The mine workers make of the operators the following demands, which were formulated by the Shamokin convention, held March 18 to 24, and for the enforcement of which the strike was inaugurated:

FIRST DEMAND. An increase of 20 per cent upon the prices paid during the year 1901 to work. This demand is made on account of the following reasons: 1. The present rate of wages is much lower than the rate of wages paid in the bituminous coal fields for substantially similar work.

2. The present rate of wages is lower than is paid in other occupations requiring equal skill and training. 3. The average annual earnings in the anthracite coal fields are much less. than the average annual earnings in the bituminous coal fields for substantially similar work.

4. The average annual earnings in the anthracite coal fields are much less than the average annual earnings for occupations requiring equal skill and training. the vital spark of nerve energy which

5. The rate of wages in the anthracite coal fields is insufficient to compensate the mine workers, in view of the dangerous character of the occupation in relation to accidents, the liability to serious and permanent disease, the high death rate and the short average life incident to this employment.

6. The annual earnings of the mine workers are insufficient to maintain the American standard of living. 7. The increased cost of living has made it impossible to maintain a fair standard of life upon the basis of present wages and has not only prevented the mine workers from securing any benefit from increased prosperity, but has made their condition poorer on account of it.

8. The wages of the anthracite mine workers are so low that their children are prematurely forced into the breakers and mills instead of being supported and educated, upon the earnings of their parents. 9. Wages are below the fair and just earnings of mine workers in this indus-

SECOND DEMAND.

A reduction of 20 per cent in hours of labor without any reduction of earnings for all employes paid by the hour, day or week. The second demand is similar to the first, in that it is designed to increase the hourly rate of wages of mine workers employed by the hour, day or week, and all the reasons applicable to the first demand are asked to be applied to the second with repetition. In addition thereto, submit the following:

Operators' Reply Expected in to the health, life, safety and well-being of the mine workers. 11. Shorter hours improve the physical, mental and moral conditions the workers. 12. Shorter hours increase the intensity and efficiency of labor.

13. The tendency of national and state government of organized trade and of production generally is toward shorter hours. 14. A working day of eight hours is sufficiently long for the best interests of the workingmen and of the com-THIRD DEMAND.

The adoption of a system by which coal shall be weighed and paid for by weight wherever practicable; the minimum rate per ton to be 60 cents for a legal ton of 2,240 pounds; the differentials now existing at the various mines to be maintained.

This demand is made on account of the following reasons:

1. Measurement by the legal ton wherever practicable is the only honest and just system of measuring the earnings of mine workers. 2. When the operators sell or transport coal it is on the basis of a legal ton of 2,240 pounds. 3. The excessive ton was originally intended to compensate the operator for the weight of the small sizes of coal which were then discarded, but which are now utilized and sold and therefore there is no present necessity for the use of any other than the legal

4. The adoption of this system would remove an incentive, both to the operator and worker, to cheating and dishonesty, and would allay jealousy among the miners and prevent unjust discrimination and favoritism. 5. The change of the present system to the one asked for would prove a strong factor in allaying suspicion and discontent among the mine workers.

FOURTH DEMAND. The incorporation in an agreement between the United Mine Workers of America and the anthracite coal companies of the wages which shall be paid, and the conditions of employment which shall obtain, together with satisfactory methods for the adjustment of grievances which may arise from time to time to the end that strikes and lockouts may be unnecessary. In support of this demand we submit the following reasons: 4. The anthracite mine workers should not be compelled to make or sign individual agreements, but should have the right to form such organization and choose such agents and offi-cers as they desire, to act collectively, instead of individually, when they deem that their best interests are subserved thereby. 2. Agreements between employers and employes through workingmen's or-ganizations are the ordinary method regulating production and wages in the bituminous coal fields and in other large industries, and are beneficial, successful and in keeping with the spirit of the times. Unions of workingmen tend to the better discipline of the men and to the improvement of their physical, moral and mental condition, and to the preservation of friendly relations between employer and employe.

4. Experience shows that the trade agreement is the only effective method by which it is possible to regulate questions arising between employers and employes in large industries, and that a trade agreement is the only possible way "to establish the relations between employers and the wage workers in the anthracite fields on a just and permanent basis and, as far as possible to do away with any causes for the recurrence of such difficulties as those you (the anthracite coal strike commission) have been called to settle. Respectfully submitted, (Signed) "JOHN MITCHELL "Representative of the Anthracite 10. The ten-hour day is detrimental Mine Workers."

'A FIGHT FOR MILLIONS" PROVES

A GENUINE THRILLER. "A Fight for Millions," one of those melodramas which are a conglomeration of red light, stage money, knives, revolvers, and prison bars, with a locomotive and a submarine boat thrown in, was the presentation at the Grand last night. It seemed to satisfy those present. The show is certainly a "thriller" in every sense of the word, while the cast is of more than ordinary merit as compared with the class of artists who usually work in a melodrama. Several pleasing specialties were introduced.

"SERGEANT JAMES" TONIGHT. "Sergeant James" will be the attraction at the Grand tonight. There are a few characteristic touches to make it stand out from other plays of military life. There are many stage heroes of a military kind, but few authors or managers have had the courage to glorify in this fashion the

A new remedy has recently appeared which so far as tested seems to be remarkably effective in promptly curing catarrh, wherever located. The preparation is sold by druggists generally under name of Stuart's Catarrh Tab lets, and in addition to being vey palatable and convenient, possesses extraordinary merit, in many cases giving immediate relief from the coughing, hawking and constant clearing of the throat and head, those symptoms with which everyone is familiar who has ever suffered from colds in the head and throat.

Catarrh is simply a continuation of these symptoms until the trouble be-comes chronic and grows worse from year to year.

Brooklyn Boys Indulge in Hold-Up-One Shot in the Lung.

New York, Nov. 4. - If a true story has been told by Eugene Steagemann, 10 years old, who is in the Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn in a serious condition, he was the victim of a hold-up in true frontier style in a clump of woods near his home. Young Steagemann, who is the son of a wealthy electrical manufacturer, was gathering mineral specimens in the woods at the rear of his home, according to his story, when he was seized by two boys, carrying small rifles. Pointing their guns at him, Steagemann says the boys threatened to "blow his head off" if he did not leave the neighborhood. Before he could utter a word or get out of the way there were two reports. A bullet whizzed by Steagemann's cheek and a second bullet lodged in his left shoulder. The boy fell to the ground with a groan and the two boys responsible for the injury fled. Steagemann was found by a passerby and carried home, where it was found a bullet had penetrated his left lung and that he was in a serious condition. The boys declare they were shooting at a target.

I do not know of any reason to anticipate injury to anyone except themselves. Every precaution possible is being taken to prevent harm arising from the movement. I see no reason for giving any special guarantee to your Government. I have no opinion to offer as to any action you may take. If you should decide to interfere with the officers whom I have placed in charge of the work, such action will be taken on your own responsibility. (Signed) Clifford Sifton." cannot be persuaded to return to their villages. There are 1,100 aged and infirm under cover, but the accommodation is very limited. A plentiful stock of provisions is to be found in the Doukhobor village of Michalova, twenty miles from Swan River. The Doukhobor residents there are not affected, and intended to meet the women and assist them wherever possible. This would relieve the congested state of affairs at Yorkton and might allure the pilgrims. The question of removing the women from Yorkton will, however, depend largely on their own willingness, as the authorities are determined to deal with them as kindly as possible, hop-ous the Canadian authorities are for their welfare. Yorkton, N. W. T., Nov. 2.-The Doukhober outlook presents a decidedly better appearance today. Several of the men who composed the pilgrimthat they can get excellent land at age have returned. When asked if he intended returning to his village, he replied that that was his intention. Word was brought in that several of the men had played out and were in an exhausted condition on the line of march between here and Saltcoats.

Fright Killed a Woman.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 4.-Mrs. Ida V. Williams, aged 24, died at her home in Utica, near Jeffersonville, of fright. Mrs. Williams had been ill five days of typhoid fever, and last evening heard cries of murder issuing from the home of Mrs. Lucinda Lewis, her neighbor. The cries were occasioned by the bloody work of Harry Morrow, 25 years old, son of the late Judge Mor row. Morrow had been drinking, and it is alleged that he went to the home of Mrs. Katherine Slater, daughter of Mrs. Lewis, and made proposals which resulted in her driving him from the house. Morrow slashed Mrs. Slater on the left elbow, severing the muscles. Mrs. Williams heard the shrieks, and staggering to her window, saw Morrow leaving the house, waving the bloody razor over his head. She fell to the floor in a faint and never regained consciousness.

AN UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCE. Has it ever been your unhappy lot to be told by your physician that you must go to a hospital and submit to an operation? The present day surgeon appears to be possessed by a nania for operating, especially in cases of hemorrhoids or piles, and while the greater number of the profession do ot recommend this "last resort" unless they honestly believe it necessary. the fact remains that much needless operating is done, and the patient put to much expense and suffering, for what? To obtain a possible temporary relief; these words are used advisedly, because in nine cases out of ten the affliction returns and the patient is just where he started from. A Stultified Party. Mr. Borden's lieutenant, Mr. Monk, has thrown off all disguise by coming out flatly against the British preference in a speech to the electors of L'Assomption. Mr. Borden during his Northwest tour equivocated on the subject, and the majority of his followers have been equally uncandid. They are in reality opposed to the preference, they criticise it in a general way, but as a party they have not had the courage to formally demand its repeal. There may be more party advantage in letting the question lie around loose. It need not be openly attacked in the English-speaking provinces, while Mr. Monk may denounce it in Quebec, as a feature of his anti-imperial crusade. The Conservative party of Canada has claimed almost a monopoly of British sentiment in this country. It has been the boasted champion of imperial preferential trade. Now it finds itself arrayed against the imperialistic policy of every self-governing colony in the Empire. The premiers of Australia, New Zealand, Natal and Cape Colony have agreed to recommend to their respective governments preferential into closer trade relations. The Conservative party in this country has placed itself athwart this movement and now scoffs at its old ideals.

Some time ago we published a digest of an article in the London Times, dealing in a very critical spirit with Glasgow's experiments in public ownership. A four-column reply appears in the Times of Oct. 24, from the lord provost of Glasgow, who makes a vigorous defense of the city's policy. "Will your correspondent," he asks, "go on to argue that the water supply should revert to a private company, in order that private traders should get increased profits and investors larger interest, while the citizens should pay 1s 4d per pound on their rental for their prolific source of conversation. entire domestic water supply, as they used to do, instead of 5d, as they do now, and that the gas should be sim- ber for South Wentworth has collapsed. ilarly dealt with, the citizens paying 5s 5d as formerly, instead of 2s 3d, as now? Or. again, would he prefer that the tramways should have been continued in the hands of the old company, giving an unsatisfactory service, paying its servants unsatisfactory wages, working them unsatisfactory hours, while the citizens paid 3d for a ride which they can now get for a penny? If your correspondent wishes these things, let him say so, and, if not, let him cease his wail."

The lord provost admits that the city's debt, chargeable against the rates, has increased from £2,788,297 in 1888, to £4,089,563 in 1901, but points out that the assessable rental has increased in the same time from £3,364,502, to £4.952.964, while the population has grown from 543,995 to 761,709, and the area of the city from 6,111 acres to 12,-688 acres. This shows an actual decrease of the debt per capita. The increase in the debt has been incurred | British Government will not remove by the purchase of public sparks, the extension of infectious diseases hospitals, and the purification of the city's longer necessary as a precaution sewage. The provost also admits that the tax rates have increased from 2s 546d in 1888 to 3s 356d in 1902, but says graziers against foreign competition. the addition consists almost wholly of How do Canadian protectionists like Licrease in the parks, public health, roads and bridges, and sewage purification rates, the last named being entirely new. Six hundred acres of land have been purchased for pleasure grounds, eleven new bridges erected, and eleven open spaces acquired for children's playgrounds. Against its debt the city has assets of £17,388,596, but the provost claims that in addition to this there is the market value of the gas, water, street railway and other franchises, for which private companies would offer millions of pounds. By the extension of the park area and the sewage schemes, the death rate had been reduced from 24.2 per thousand in 1890 to 20.6 in 1901, a saving of 14,620 lives in ten years. The total revenue from the street railway or tramway for the year ending May 81, 1902, was £614,413, and the working expenses £293,147. The sum of £111,956 was set apart for depreciation, leaving a gross balance of £209,310. After paying £96,315 interest and sinking fund and £12,500 to the corporation, for the general good, £100,495 was added to the reserve fund. The provost asserts that the amount set apart for depreciation is ample, and the sinking fund is calculated to wipe out the debt in 31 years. The mileage of track has increased from 30 in 1894 to 681/2 in 1902; the average fare per mile has decreased from .89d to .47d, and the number of passengers annually has Increased from 54,000,000 to 170,000,000. The municipalization of the telephone system has been justified also, the provost claims. Before the corporation entered the field £10 was the minimum cost of a telephone in Glasgow. The city now gives an unlimited service for £5 5s, while the private company has reduced the rate to £3 10s for a limited service, at one penny per call. The model lodging houses erected by the corporation have yielded a ting up of a high standard for other lodging-house keepers to follow. The gas and electricity departments had, in addition to the statutory sinking fund, laid aside a depreciation fund of £58,896.

The provost seems to have made out a strong case for municipal ownership of public utilities. After all, the theory is generally conceded to be sound, but in practice everything depends upon the honesty and efficiency of the administrators. Glasgow has been fortunate in that respect.

The Domestic Help Problem.

The Wisconsin State Labor Bureau has been collecting reasons why girls prefer work in factories and stores to household service. Inquiries were sent to 769 persons. Among the answers

If ladies would only give girls better rooms, kinder treatment and warmer beds and let them live independently more girls would do

I went into the factory because I wished to be treated like a human

The reason I won't do housework is because I will not be treated like half a slave and always a nobody. I love housework, but, like a host of other girls, I refuse to do it under present conditions. None of the girls I know would do housework, because a girl who does it is always looked upon as a kitchen drudge, always on duty and seldom treated justly. I am treated better in the factory in every way, and, besides, I am no longer obliged to entertain in the kitchen or receive my friends at the back door, since I can live at home with my own people.

The conditions of the domestic help problem are the same everywhere in the United States and Canada. The answers given by young women in Wisconsin would be given by young women in Ontario. As long as domestic service is a social disparagement the problem will remain. All the blame cannot be placed on one class. The only remedy is a higher appreciation of the dignity of household work. This appreciation is growing and one result is the introduction of domestic courses in the schools. The girls are being educated to the fact that the care of the home, especially the culinary details, demands skill and intelligence, and is not unattractive or degrading. With this spread of scientific training, domestic work will take as high a place as any other occupation in woman's sphere of labor.

The case against the Liberal mem-The petitioner laid 57 charges and then declined to face the court.

The United States elects a new Congress today. Good times are usually good for the party in power. The prospects are that the Republicans will not lose a great deal.

The Port Stanley public school was very properly dismissed while the lifeboat crew was attempting the rescue of the crew of the Mineral State. What nobler lesson could the children have than this exhibition of heroism?

Why deride the monocle? The Kaiser has adopted it, and Mr. Chamberlain and his eyeglass are never seen apart. Neither Wilhelm nor Pushful Joe is a sybarite. Both are types of the strenuous life. Perhaps the monocle is like long hair-worn only by men who are geniuses or fools.

Mr. Hanbury again asserts that the the embargo on Canadian cattle. There is no pretense that the embargo is any against tuberculosis. It is simply a measure of protection for the British this application of their own theory?

For the first time in the history of Canada, the Postoffice Department shows a surplus. In six years, Hon. William Mulock has been able to convert a deficit of $751,152 into a surplus of $5,000. In addition he has cheapened the English rate of postage from 5 cents to 2 cents, and the domestic and United States rate from 3 cents to 2 cents. His critics said it couldn't be done, and they'll never forgive him for doing it.

At the annual meeting of the second ward Conservative Association, Toronto, last night, speeches were delivered strongly denouncing the ballot frauds alleged to have been committed by wicked Grits. After the speeches, the association proceeded to elect a president, and the scrutineers found 28 bogus ballots had been cast. The delegates understood that the moralizing had been intended only for the Grits.

For the Good of the Navy.

[Toronto Star.] Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways, on his recent Western trip said he sometimes in his dreams saw the Intercolonial Railway extended clear across Canada, giving the people a national highway owned and controlled by themselves, carrying produce at rates that would pay working expenses. He did not believe the country would feel the burden, and did not consider the schele too visionary for fulfillment. Sir William Mulock has declared in favor of nationalizing telegraph lines.

The minds of men everywhere are turning in the same direction. Men in responsible offices and handling large affairs are no longer afraid to confess their faith in principles once called "Socialistic," and hence deemed dangerous by the uninquisitive general run of people. Nor do men of solid parts fear today that they will be thought unpractical by confessing their adhesion to such principles.

Great Little Men. [Marquise de Fonteney.] Most great men have been small. This sounds paradoxical. But an indignant Briton has taken exception to my remarks in these letters the other day about the 5 foot 7 inches of King Edward, and I wish, therefore, to soothe his ruffled feelings by pointing out to him that grandeur of intellect does not always go with greatness of are, or with enormity of bulk Thus, the great Emperor Napoleon was a little bit of a man, about 5 foot inches in height, and Frederick the Great, the most famous of all the rulers of Prussia, boasted of about the same number of inches. Alexander the Great was 5 foot 4. King Charles XII. of Sweden, one of the most heroic figures of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, was 5 foot 3. Prince Eugene of Savoy, the celebrated general and fellow commander of the first Duke of Marlborough, was 5 foot while the duke just mentioned was 5 foot 6. Voltaire, Messonier, Kent, Richard Wagner, Thiers, Mozart and Cavour were all exceptionally small men, and, indeed, one of the only figures in history that I can recall whose grandeur was in keeping with his size was the late Prnce Bismarck, the first chancellor of the German's Empire.

So that there is no reason whatsoever for my English reader and correspondent being offended at my call-ing attention to the fact that King Edward is rather below than above what is called medium stature. Even with his 5 foot 7 he is at least an nch and a half taller than his son, the Prince of Wales, a head taller than the King of Italy, half a head taller than the Emperor of Russia, and about the same size as his nephew, the German Emperor.

The Small American Family. [Harper's Weekly.]

The Americans like children, but they hesitate to become responsible for the welfare and comfort of large families. Four children in a family are an unusual number; six make a big family nowadays, and eight invite the imputation of reckless prodigality. If Europe is safe from an American invasion until American families grow bigger, it can rest easy in its mind. At present the tendency seems to be the other way. They say that the French are growing more peaceable, more thrifty and richer. They are not invaders nowadays in commerce, and they are less and less disposed to aggressive war. They have no spare population. So it may be with us. American families can ill spare their sons for foreign service, either military or commercial. There are too few of them born.

New York New York The transfer of the wattern season. To the rheumatic, this autumn season. To the rheumatic, this truth should prove encouraging and comforting. Men and women suffering intense agonies from a disease that frequently stiffens the joints, cripples the limbs and renders its victims helpless, can be restored to activity, vigor and health if Paine's Celery Compound be used for a few weeks. There is every reason why sufferers should pin their faith to this best of medicines. Your friends and neighbors have used it with success; the honest physician is prescribing it every day in cases where all other means have failed, and they are delighted with the graid results. It is your only hope; your safety and life depend upon its use. Mrs. M. McKillop, Campbellford, Ont., writes about her cure as follows: "I was a sufferer from rheumatism for a long time, and endured great pain. The cords in the palms of my hands were drawn up in knots, and I despaired of getting relief. After using Paine's Celery Compound I have bandard translets. ished all my pains and troubles, and find myself strengthened in every way. ## VISITING THE VILLAGES

Anthracite Commission in the I ehigh Valley.

Spent Day Among the Miners' Homes and in a Colliery.

Hazelton, Pa., Nov. 3.-Midnight.-The anthracite coal strike commission spent the entire day in the Lehigh Valley region, visiting one mine and several of the mining villages. The trip of the commission through this region was an interesting one, the conditions of mining ing somewhat different from those existing in the Lackawanna and Wyoming Valley.

WHERE A STRIKE IS ON. At Drifton, a crowd gathered about the commission as Superintendent Smith, of Coxe Bros.' Company, whose mines are located there, explained the trouble between the company and its men. All the miners employed at these mines are still on strike, because the company insists upon the men re-turning to work as individuals and not in a body. At Jeddo, John Mar-kle, the independent operator, joined the party and escorted the commissioners to the mining village of Oak-dale, near Jeddo. Mr. Markle showed them the club house which he maintains there for the benefit of the men. On the run to Hazelton, where the breaker of No. 40 shaft was inspected, Messrs. Markle, Duffy and Gallahad a spirited discussion over the differences existing at the Markle mines. None of the men at the Marcolliery have returned to work, for the same reasons as those which are keeping the men out of the Coxe mines. Mr. Markle told them he was running the Markle Company and would maintain discipline.

EFFECT OF A BLAST The commissioners were lowered into the workings, 350 feet below, through an 1,100 feet slope. One of the new "physical features" they saw was a vein of coal with a very steep pitch, which was difficult to mine. While they were inspecting this a blast was fired in a near-by chamber, and the lights carried by those who remained in the gangways below were extin-guished by the rush of air. Some of the party were timid for a moment, wondering what had happened, but they were quickly assured that there was no danger.

one of the most important imperial consultations ever held. It discloses the fact that a determined effort was made by Mr. Chamberlain to bring the colonies into a systematized scheme of imperial defense. The contributions of Australia, New Zealand, Cape Colony and Natal to naval defense were inpromising to make arrangements for the support of naval militia for local service, declined to draw Canada into what he described as "the maelstrom of European militarism," and reserved for the Dominion the principle of absolute independence in that respect. AN ACADEMICAL RESOLUTION. The resolution adopted by the conference in favor of preferential trade was purely academical in form. The ence is looked upon as an account of impracticability of absolute free trade between the mother state and the colonies was recognized, and the expediency of the adoption of preferential treatment on Canadian lines by the other colonies was affirmed in general terms. The obligation of Great Britain to reciprocate by giving the colonies special advantages was not, however, formulated by Mr. Chamberlain, with definiteness and precision. As Canada had done far more in this respect than the other colonies, Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in a position to await the issue of events, and hopes for a future recognition from the colonial office of the loyalty and fair play of Canada.

viting correspondence from merchants, importers and others interested in Canadian trade, appears in the London and provincial newspapers. Lord Strathcona states that the Canadian policy of opening the doors to Britain has been followed by a large extension of commerce, though there is still ample room for improvement in an increase of British exports. He suggests that consumers ask for Canadian products among the many kinds offered them.

PREMIER LAURIER'S MODERATION. The Standard today, commenting on the Laurier-Tarte correspondence, says that the Canadian Premier's reply to the letter of resignation of the ex-Minister of Public Works was worded with a moderation which would certainly not have been displayed by a Wellington or Palmerston in a case so plain. The only wonder is adds the Standard that Mr. Tarte made the palpable mistake of laying himself open to rebuke.

The resolution on the subject of preferential trade is the most interesting part of the report to Canada. In that resolution the conference recognizes that preferential trade between the United Kingdom and the colonies would stimulate and facilitate commerce and strengthen the empire, but that in the present circumstances of the colonies it would not be practicable to adopt a general system of free trade.

MINOR BASEBALL LEAGUE MAY YET BE ORGANIZED

in Nine Cities.

The Toronto Telegram broaches the subject of the formation of a purely Canadian league of professional baseball clubs. The idea seems a good one and directly appeals to Londoners whose interest in the game is unquenchable. If the plan suggested by the Telegram should be adopted, there is reason to believe that no trouble would be experienced in getting the local backing for a club to represent this city. The Telegram says:

Ever since Canada has been represented in professional baseball a feeling that the Canadian cities in the circuit should be represented by Canadian players has been prevalent, and it has been growing every year ever since. Canadians naturally do not like the idea of having to import athletes. It has been their lot for many years back to do the exporting, and they have never taken kindly to the importation of American baseball players. They have always felt that material of the right sort is grown right here, and what is wanted is not a wholesale importation of finished players, but rather a development of the talent that is at hand and has no superior in baseball or in any other

"I thought that something must have happened to you—some accident, perhaps," Queen Bess interposed, eager to relieve him, if ever so little, in his embarrassing explanation.
"Did you think that? Thank you for your Christian charity," the young man returned, flashing a grateful glance into her uplifted eyes.
"Yes, Queen Bess insisted that something must have befallen you; she would not believe any ill of you," Alice remarkad, with a smile, but coloring as she retained. -the best of them. From amateur ranks to semi-professional baseball is an easy step, but it is a development, and thus the process goes on, and the players learn and become seasoned as they go. A few years ago there was such a training school in the Canadian League, but unfortunately here, as in the bigger circuits, American players were brought over, to the neglect of Canadian talent, which was quite as good.

CANADA HAS TALENT. The Canadian amateur ball player has no superior anywhere, but he sees no future in the game for him, and quietly leaves the field to his more fortunate American brother, who is given a thorough training and at the same time is given sufficient salary to tempt any young fellow. All our Canadian cities have players in numbers and ability sufficient to form a very formidable team and a very strong circuit. What they need is encouragement, development, and that at home. Baseball is a largely un-known field and young fellows do not care to travel far afield without some guarantee of safe conduct, and there work London seemed to have the betare no such things in the game. You ter of the game. Their scrimmage was must make good or walk home.

FORM CANADIAN LEAGUE. There is now a strong movement on foot to form a Canadian league of professional baseball players, and it has back of it the right kind of men. They are thoroughly familiar with the game in its every business detail, and they feel confident that such a league is what is required. They think that the Canadian cities are ripe for such circuit, and expect a cordial and hearty support for their project from one end of Ontario to the other, and they know that if Canadian cities in the bigger leagues are to be repre-sented by Canadian players they must be developed here, and by means of a minor league such as they are striving to establish.

NO IMPORTED PLAYERS. Keeping before them the object of such a league, the promoters have decided to exclude all players who have not resided in Canada at least a year. This will render the bringing in of men from over the line an impossibility, and will limit the league to Canadian players, pure and simple. They have no fears but that the article of ball will be quite as good as they could get from teams of American players, and with the object of the league before them they could not do less than make provision for the exclusion of all but Canadian players. This is precisely what Canada has needed for many years, and it is expected that next season will see the want satisfied and the hope fulfilled.

CITIES AND SALARIES. It is proposed to have the circuit consist of two groups, so as to reduce the traveling expenses to a minimum. The towns have not yet been definitely chosen, but it has been suggested that Hamilton, London, Woodstock and Guelph form the western circuit while Toronto, Peterboro, Gananoque, Kingston and Ottawa make up the eastern, with both divisions under a single management. The salary limit suggested is $500 or $600 a month. They would give each team eleven playersthree pitchers and two catchers, one of the latter being utilized as an outfielder. Players might be brought from any city or town, provided they lived at least a year in Canada, though the projectors would like to see each represented as much as possible by players living there.

GAMES EVERY DAY. Some suggest that games should be played twice a week—on Wednesdays and Saturdays—but it seems to be the prevalent feeling that the teams play every day. The salaries would e going on in any case, and the men the opinion of Mr. Barrow would be better employed playing the games loafing around. idea is largely to develop players, this every day view seems to be the more rational. The scheme is not, however, a purely philanthropic one, and those who know the position of baseball in Ontario best are firmly of opinion that there is money in the league that there is money in the league for the supporters of the teams throughout the proposed circuit. The country is now ripe, the projectors say, for the introduction of such a league, and they are prepared to enter into the scheme heart and soul.

TEAM FOR TORONTO. To place a team in Toronto would equire the permission of the Eastern League club, since the projectors expect to enter the game 'under protection of the National Association of Professional Leagues, and thus secure their players from being gobbled up by the larger bodies. No diffi-culty, however, is anticipated in this, for it is proposed to run the local team as an offshoot of the Eastern lub and play on the Toronto grounds. A special arrangement would be made with them along these lines.

MACK FOR PRESIDENT. President Ed Mack, of the Toronto

Club, who is mentioned as president of the new organization, will doubtless be chosen as head of the league. He is enthusiastic over the prospects of the circuit, and is prepared to support it through thick and thin. He feels that the country needs such a body, and that it is now in a position to welcome with a hearty support to welcome with a hearty support such a league. He sees nothing but success for it, and looks for the other cities to line up back of the plan. No stronger nor more experienced hand than his could be secured to guide the league, and with him at the helm success is practically assured.

Manager Ed Barrow, of the Toron-team, thinks that this is precisely what baseball in Canada needs, and must have if the Eastern teams are to ever recruit players from here. He is rather doubtful about a team in Toronto, but thinks that the other cities mentioned should make money for the backers.

A meeting of men who are prepared to enter into this plan will be called shortly; and it is expected that the circuit will be in operation next spring.

CONGALTON FOR CINCINNATI. "Jimmie" Congalton, the Guelph out-fielder, who has been with Colorado Springs, in the Western League, during the past season, has received a flattering offer to play right field for Cincinnati next year. He is anxious to break into National League company again, and will join the Reds if he can secure his release from the Springs. It is not likely that the minor league club will let him go without purchase money, but Cincinnati is sparing neither pains nor money to get together a good team, and Congal-ton will, in all probability, be found with the Cincinnatis next spring. He batted .335 in the Western League and sure to make good.

TORONTO'S NEW PITCHER. Brenton C. Woodworth, the wellknown Halifax baseball pitcher, has an offer to go with the Toronto club of the Eastern League. Mr. Woodworth did not do much pitching last season, but did a lot in 1901, and made a splendid showing. Mr. Woodworth may accept the Toronto offer.

FOOTBALL.

LONDON VS. TORONTO.

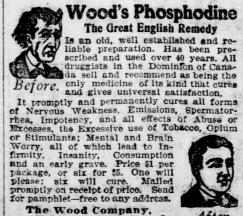

Toronto Telegram: "Saturday's intermediate football game was the best football from a spectator's standpoint that has been seen in Toronto in a year or two. Of course, there was some roughness that might have been eliminated, but there was considerable open work, and both teams handled the ball far more cleverly than any seniors seen here this season. London has a team she can be proud of, even it she didn't win on Saturday. They did a lot of fast, clean work, and fought it out to the last minute. * * It was frequently remarked at Rosedale on Saturday that either Torontos or London could beat 'Varsity McGill without much trouble.

* London's weakness is behind the line, though young McNee did a lot of clever work on Saturday. Their scrimmage is strong and their wings have rather more strength than speed. * * * Apart from Stollery's great stronger than the local one, and their wings were better, but their halves could not begin to return Stollery's punts, though McNee did good work, particularly in the second half. * * * The play was more open than is usual in modern Rugby, though there was quite enough scrimmage work to make the game slow to the spectators at times, particularly as London was invariably the gainer on the downs.

* * * The play in the second half was greatly in favor of London, who stuck to the ball much better than in the first. Their men did much better catching than the home team, who fumbled considerably." WAS LONDON "LUCKY?"

The Toronto Mail and Empire and the Globe publish identical accounts of the Toronto-London football game. Summing up, they say: "The score at the finish was 11 to 7 in favor of the fast local aggregation, but it should have been 11 to 3. Full-back Joyce, of the Torontos, practically presented London with a try in the second half, when after fumbling a punt he essayed to pass to Stollery, but instead handed the ball to Sippi, who did the 30 yards between him and the goal in record time. London had the weight and strength, but lacked the dash and speed of their opponents, whose fol-lowing up of Stollery's fine kicks could not have been improved upon. visitors' scrimmaging was away ahead of that of the Torontos, the ball coming out cleaner and faster, but Mc-Kay at quarter was weak in passing, and London's halves fumbled badly at times. Stollery's superb all-round play gave Toronto the victory. He was responsible for 9 of the points scored. the first half from quarter way in the middle to a mix-up he dropped a goal, the ball grazing the cross-bar and dropping over on the right side. A little while later he received a long pass and dodged five tackles, running 40 yards for a try. The London wings did their best to put him out of business, and after nearly every kick he was left sprawling on the ground from the effects of a charge. Sippi rushed at him a dozen times head on, and considering the punishment he received it is no wonder that he was in bad shape at the finish. Both teams did a lot of unnecessary roughing, and Referee McCollum and Umpire Percy Biggs had their hands full keeping the players in subjection. Every decision was questioned, the Londoners evidently laboring under the impression that the officials were trying to give them the worst of it.'

ROOM TO KICK. In case of Saturday's game, the Londons say that they had real reason for kicking. They say Dr. McCollum gave them about the rawest deal ever heard of. In one instance he robbed London of a try by declaring it was Toronto's ball, though Sippi had it for fully five seconds before a Toronto was near. Other mistakes he made also, though perhaps he was do-

PROTESTS.

Toronto, Nov. 3. - London has pro tested Bert Morrison, who played with the Torontos in the intermediate Rugby game at Rosedale on Saturday. It appears that Morrison, while in the Traders' Bank at Ridgetown, applied to the Ontario Hockey Association to play hockey with Tilbury, and the request was refused. How-ever, he disobeyed the order and played. The Tilbury team and Morrison were suspended. Last year he played in Pittsburg.

This was out of the question, and Billy Ryan's man-ager replied promptly to a telegram, that he was ready and willing to have it out with McClelland. ## What Scott's Emulsion Really Is.

The essence of nourishment-a predigested food. A condensed fat made palatable and acceptable to the most delicate stomach. The first food a baby receives, mother's milk, is an emulsion. Scott's Emulsion is the milk or cream of cod liver oil, and contains the elements needed to supply the nourishment that may be lacking in a mother's milk. If a baby is fat it is comfortable and happy; a thin, scrawny baby is never quite well, never thoroughly comfortable. Its ordinary food may not contain the right nourishment.

For such a baby Scott's Emulsion is intended. It supplies the needed nourishment as well as heat and fat; it makes babies comfortable. Why? Because Scott's Emulsion contains the elements that possess in the highest degree the principles of nourishment. Cod liver oil has for years been known as one of the greatest foods in the world. It st ds at the head of the list as containing, in a given quantity, the most nourishment of any food. But cod liver oil in its raw state is repulsive. Weak stomachs cannot retain it; delicate tastes rebel against it.

It was to overcome these objections and still retain the full value of the oil that Scott's Emulsion was introduced. But it does more than offer the full strength of cod liver oil in a palatable form. It combines with the oil other splendid ingredients - hypophosphites of lime and soda and glycerine. The proper and perfect combination of these, found only in Scott's Emulsion, represents a most valuable food-medicine.

The mission of the oil is to stop waste, supply the loss of flesh and furnish nourishment; the hypophosphites feed and sustain the nerve tissues and nerve centers besides stimulating the action of the blood; the glycerine furnishes bone material and marrow, upon which latter the blood depends.

How are these results secured? By the easy action and mild progress of Scott's Emulsion through the body. Being partly digested it does not tax the stomach; being perfectly blended it is quickly and easily assimilated, that is, distributed with exact regard for the particular need of each part of the body.

On every package of the genuine Scott's Emulsion there is a trade mark label of a man with a fish on his back. We will send a sample free to

THERE ARE CASES of consumption so far advanced that Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES, Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centers and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

STREET RAILWAY COMPANY

This Was Most Important Matter Dealt With by City Council.

MAY REOPEN DISPUTE WITH

The city council had a meeting last night at which very little of importance was done. It is possible, however, that through it, the old dispute with the London Street Railway Company, which has been languishing for some time, will be reopened. At least a new motion, which brings it to the front again, was made, and referred to the city solicitor. Ald. Dreaney moved that the London Street Railway Company be notified to at once carry out their agreements and the instructions of the council in regard to the repair of Rectory street, and the running of their cars thereon; and in default of se doing, that they forfeit all rights and privileges granted them by bylaw No. 916 or any other bylaw relating to the same. He said that it was well known that the company did not intend to run either the Rectory street line nor construct the Hamilton road extension, after they got the Beaconsfield avenue route. He said that the council thought that the company was composed of men who would abide by their mistake. The company had not carried out their agreements with the city, and Ald. Dreaney wanted them forced to do so. The company, he said, don't want to do this and don't

It was agreed to send the motion to No. 1 committee to interview the solicifor to learn what legal right the city has to adopt it.

CITY HALL IN DEMAND. The free use of the city hall was granted to the ladies' advisory board of Victoria Hospital for Wednesday evening. Nov. 12, for a band concert in aid of the hospital. The use of the city hall was much sought after last night. The Painters' Union asked for it for two band practices in preparation for a parade to divine service on Sunday. H. E. Baird & Son wanted it for a convention of the brick and tile makers of Ontario for Nov. 18. The British Methodist Ediscepal Church asked for the use of the hall for a concert for the benefit of the church. These applications also were granted, the city treesurer to see in the latter case that the concert be held on a night which will not conflict with municipal meetings. The hall was granted under the usual conditions to the Metal Polishers' Union for their annual ball on the night of Dec. 5. RUNNING OF STREET CARS.

No. 1 committee recommended that a letter from Coroner McLaren, respecting the verdict of the coroner's, jury in the case of the Campbell boy's death be referred to the council of 1903. It was thought, however, that some action should be taken in this matter. Upon motion of Ald. Winnett it was decided to bring the verdict to the notice of Manager Carr, and that in future the agreement which exists between the city and the company, which should insure slow speed of cars at certain crossings, should be enforced.

W. M. Spencer and other property-owners on Dundas street between Waterloo and Wellington streets, asked that the city remove the trees in front of their premises. A number of owners along the same block asked also for permission to remove the curb on the north side of this block, so that rigs might go freely close up to the sidewalk. Some objection was made to this and both petitions were sent to No. 2 committee. BADGERING ALD. COOPER.

Ald. Douglass asked Ald. Cooper if t is the intention to fix the crossings on Richmond street leading towards St. Paul's and St. Peter's Cathedrals. Ald. Cooper replied that these crossings had been kept as clean as possi-ble, but for any repairs, he referred Ald. Douglass to the city engineer.

Ald. Cooper referred Ald. Pritchard to the same authority for knowledge respecting the reason for the unsatis-factory condition of Talbot and King streets.

Ald. Cooper was asked also by Ald. Stevely why the crossings at the corner of King and Clarence streets were left in an unclean condition. Ald. Ste vely said that the crossings that Ald. Douglass had spoken of were marble halls compared with these.

Ald. Cooper replied to all these questions with the same statement—that the city engineer controlled all this work, and that they could expect nothing else so long as the engineer has the power that has been given him.

Ald. Douglass moved that the city engineer be instructed to repair the crossings on Richmond street at Dufferin avenue, Kent and Albert streets, and at York and Talbot streets. Carried.

IF LIFE LOOKS BLUE

Follow the Advice of Those Who Know by Experience, and Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

One of the saddest moments in life is when you are brought face to face with a square meal and are afraid to eat it—when you know that eating now means suffering later.
That's dyspepsia, the enemy of cheerfulness. It comes into every moment of your life, because you must eat to live, and you must suffer if you eat. And the worst feature of it is that many people go right on suffering year after year under the hopeless conviction that dyspepsia is incurable, and that nothing can be done to help them. There people have probably heard of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, but they have never used them. Other people have both heard of and used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and they know different and tell a different story. Juliana Sandburg of 221 John Street north, Hamilton, is one of the latter. Listen to the story she tells: "For over six years I had been troubled with dyspepsia and headaches," she says, "nothing I ate would agree with me. I tried several medicines, but I could not get any cure till I was advised to try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. "I got one box, and the relief was so great that I continued using them, and I am now completely cured." Hearing of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets won't cure dyspepsia, but using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure dyspepsia. Thousands of people who have used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will tell you

POPULAR PASTOR RESIGNS

Rev. Thomas Wilson, of King Street Church, Gives Up Charge.

Rev. Thomas Wilson, pastor of the King Street Presbyterian Church, has announced his resignation of the pastorate which he has filled so successfully and acceptably for the past seven years. Mr. Wilson gave as his only reason for resigning the fact that he considered the time had come when another paster could do better work in the church than he could. In the interests of the church he wished to give place to a new pastor. He dwelt upon the fact that his relations with every member of the church had been most cordial, and that he was parting with them with deep regret. The congregation was greatly surprised at Mr. Wilson's announcement. After the evening service a meeting of the session was held, when it was decided to strenuously oppose the acceptance by the Presbytery of Mr. Wilson's resignation. The Presbytery meets at Glencoe on Tuesday next. Mr. Wilson will remain a resident of London

The policy that depopulates.

Six millions of people in Canada!

Seventy-six millions in the United States.

Canada immigrates raw labor from Europe, and EMIGRATES Skilled Artisans to the United States

Canada contains altogether, less than 17 times as many people as there are CANADIANS now living in the single State of Massachusetts.

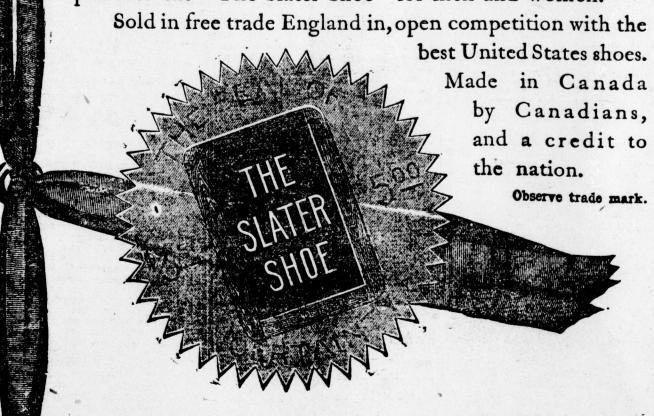

Why this tremendous leak?

Because of the blind purchasing by Canadians, of anything which is made in the United States, regardless of value.

Because of 25% higher wages paid Canadian workmen, in the United States, to make goods which may be sold back to Canada, plus the 25% higher labor cost, and plus the 25% Customs duty.

Canadians who buy UNITED STATES SHOES, merely because they are "not made in Canada," foster that EMIGRATION of skilled labor which is the curse of this country and of home industries.

No United States Shoe, with a 25% higher labor cost, and a 25% Import duty, can have 60% of the solid value put into the "The Slater Shoe" for men and women.
