A Hymn for Christmas.

Almighty framer of the skies,

O let our pure devotion rise

Like incense in thy sight!

Wrapt in impenetrable shade

The texture of our souls was made

Till thy command gave light.

The sun of glory gleamed, the ray

Refined the darkness into day,

And bid the vapors fly;

Impelled by his eternal love,

To cheer our gloomy sky.

How shall we celebrate the day,

When God appeared in mortal clay,

When the archangel's heavenly lays

The mark of worldly scorn ;

Attempted the Redeemer's praise,

And hailed salvation's morn?

A humble form the Godhead wore

The pains of poverty he bore.

In glory all his own.

To gaudy pomp unknown;

Though in a human walk he trod

Still was the man Almighty God,

The torments of this vale of tears ;

He saw the creatures he had made

Revile his power, his peace invade

The Nativity. When Jesus left his throne above The tidings through creation rang. Angels adored his wondrous love And all the Sons of morning sang Far flowed the high exultant sound From sea to sea, from shore to shore, From heavenly hosts assembled round To gaze, and wonder, and adore :--"Glory to God who reigns on high And everlasting peace to all beneath the sky !"

"He comes-He comes-the long foretold--The light and hope of ages past, The joy of all the saints of old, On the sad earth appears at last ; He comes, but not in form Divine. Not in the garb that angels wear-Oh. Son of God! what love is thine The lowliest human form to bear :-Glory to God who reigns on high, And everlasting pear to all beneath the sky !

" For thee no glittering pomp attends. No palace opes its golden gate-No loud rejoicing cry ascends, No eager throngs in reverence wait ; There lies no pleasant place of rest, No hand is there the path to smooth, No power to heal thy stricken breast, No heart to love, no voice to soothe :-Glory to God who reigns on high, And everlasting peace to all beneath the sky!

"But there await thee want and woe. Anguish and tears await thee there, 'Tis thine the depths of grief to know, And the keen pangs of fierce despair Thy crown shall be the woven thorn. Thy throne the cross of agony, Tis thine to wear the robe of scorn In grief to live, in woe to die :-Glory to God who reigns on high, And everlasting peace to all beneath the sky !"

" But thou shalt triumph o'er them all, Till all the lands thy power obey, The vanquished hosts of sin shall fall. And Hell and Death shall flee away. "And every knee to thee shall bend. And every heart thy name adore, And evermore thy power extend From sea to sea, from shore to shore :-Glory to God who reigns on high.

And everlasting peace to all beneath the sky !" speak to God alone. Christ's Advent.
