

AFTERMATH OF BIG TRIAL— WILL THERE BE AN APPEAL?

Case Was Aply Handled By Justice Latchford and Lawyers
On Both Sides Acquitted Themselves Well—Costs
Will Be Heavy—An Appeal is Talked of.

Mr. W. T. Henderson Gives Interview on Simcoe Case

Mr. Henderson, counsel for the defendants in the Holme case, was asked by the COURIER this afternoon if there would be an appeal. He replied:

"There will certainly be an appeal, and there is every probability that the verdict of the jury will be set aside and the action dismissed. You see, this trial is but the preliminary to the battle. You will have noticed that at the close of the plaintiff's case the plaintiff's counsel, when asked by the judge, accepted all the risks incident to proceeding with the trial, and the action as framed, although admitting, on the record, that he had failed to give any evidence of a conspiracy, as charged. The result, in my opinion, is that there was a miscarriage.

"As to the merits of the dispute I have nothing whatever to say, as the entire matter will still remain before the courts."

None of the defendants in the Simcoe trial cared to say anything relative to the case to the press to-day. The result excited the greatest interest throughout the city, and the COURIER all day Wednesday was besieged with inquiries. The trial contained unusual features and many little incidents occurred during the legal battle which was waged. Perhaps the outstanding feature of the trial was the charge of Justice Latchford, which was strongly in favor of the plaintiff. This feature of the trial, so fully reported in the COURIER last night, was particularly satisfactory to the large number of citizens who have recently contended that police affairs in Brantford were not all they should be. At Simcoe considerable interest was evinced, and quite a number of Brantfordites attended the hearing.

FEATURES OF TRIAL

Everything at the Simcoe Court House was splendidly supervised by Dr. Snider, the Sheriff, and his assistants. The gentleman who alone of all others in that burgh is entitled to wear a cocked hat and a sword (the latter, possibly, for pruning purposes) was courteous to the Scribes, and also, by way of remark, to a few Pharisees. There is only one little criticism to be made with regard to the courtroom. When he saw a Brantford crowd come in, he superciliously rebuked them, presumably on the general basis that anyone who enters a burgh can only have one destination, and that destination is well to have them acclimated. The Judge finally manifested his aspirations with regard to a directly located location.

HIS LORDSHIP AND THE COUNSEL

Justice Latchford is manifestly a keen-sighted man and a hard worker. After proceedings commenced he kept them going day and night without any let-up. He showed consideration when it was necessary, and with equal emphasis held up the dignity of the bench when such a course was desirable. His charge was certainly emphatically in favor of the plaintiff.

Mr. Godfrey, who had charge of the prosecution, is a capable man, both with regard to handling witnesses and addressing a jury. Mr. McCarthy, for the defence, was assisted by City Solicitor Henderson. Both of them looked well after the interests of their clients. Mr. McCarthy, while the jury were out, addressed his Lordship at great length. He made all kinds of objections, quoted a lot of previous authorities, and finally told the Judge that his charge had been more on behalf of Gladys Meredith than that of her counsel. His Lordship didn't seem to take much stock in the contentions, although, of course, he listened to them with his usual courtesy.

COSTS OF THE TRIAL

The verdict of $1,500 and costs, of course, involves far more than the figure named. The change of venue from Brantford to Simcoe was at the expense of the four defendants. They will have to pay all the outlays of the plaintiff and her witnesses, and in addition there is likely to be a little bill from Sheriff Snider of some $500. On top of this the lawyers' fees will be heavy.

JURY A LONG TIME OUT

The jury were out for an unexpectedly long time. When at 12 o'clock they were told by the Judge to retire, his Lordship announced that he would order twelve good dinners to be sent to them. Those "in the know" with regard to court proceedings realized that there would be no finding until after grub, and so went out and dined on their own account.

It might be mentioned that the jurymen were never once locked up, but were solemnly warned by the Judge not to talk of the case to others, or among themselves, until all the evidence was in.

Shortly after 1 o'clock there were rumors of a disagreement. So there was, and for three rumored reasons:

- 1. Some wanted to award a greater amount than the $1,500.
- 2. Some favored a smaller sum.
- 3. Some wanted to give a finding and leave Dr. Ashton out.

The above statements are, of course, merely a surmise, but they are the current talk throughout the building. It is understood that there never was at any time any other feeling than a favorable feeling for the girl, and the whole discussion was practically with reference to the amount.

CLOSING SCENES

His Lordship made no comment whatever when entering judgment. The plaintiff, her mother, her aunt and Mr. Kite, who has sponsored the whole case from the start, were speedily surrounded by those offering congratulations. The girl, though manifestly pleased, took matters very quietly. The defendants also received the fitting eulogy and had nothing to say. Most of those concerned in the case returned last evening via Caledonia.

AS TO THE CITY'S LIABILITY

The Courier has been asked the question as to the liability of the city, in view of the fact that three officers have been mulcted in costs for action taken during the time of duty.

"Will the expense fall on the municipality?" one man asks. This paper does not think so. The city, as such, was not named in the pleadings, and to an ordinary lay mind it looks as if the monetary end of the matter will fall individually on the four defendants.

MR. JOHN T. HEWITT BUYS BIG TRACT OF INDUSTRIAL LAND

An important transfer of property was made yesterday, when Mr. John T. Hewitt purchased from Mr. George S. Matthews one of the biggest tracts of industrial land there is on the outskirts of this city. The land includes 75 acres lying between the Burford Road and the river near the Matthews-Laing Packing Company's plant. A big price was paid for the same. Mr. Hewitt stated to the COURIER to-day that his plans were to turn the land over for industrial or railway purposes. The land is excellently situated from a railway point of view, and is regarded as the best possible location there is for new industries. It is more than likely that it will be speedily taken up for this purpose, and there will be a great development in that direction as a result.

SEVEN BURNED TO DEATH IN BAD HOTEL FIRE AT MALONE, NEW YORK

Hotel Was Veritable Death Trap and An Explosion Followed the Blaze--Women Jumped From Upper Storey, Many Sustaining Terrible Injuries.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

MALONE, N.Y., April 17.—Seven or more persons were burned to death, several women sustained injuries from which they may die, and a score of persons were rescued by firemen in a spectacular fire which destroyed the De Wilson Hotel, an old three-storey wooden structure on Catharine street, early to-day.

The building burned like paper, and the firemen had little time to effect rescues. An explosion caused the fire. More bodies are believed to be in the ruins. Most of those injured were hurt by jumping from the third storey.

Caught in their beds, 30 or more guests were shut off from escape, as the flames shot up the stairways. Women jumped from the third floor and suffered serious injuries. Some of the injured may die.

The fire started from an explosion, the cause of which is unknown. It ate up the old wooden building almost like paper. Guests had no time to get out. Some of the guests were overcome in the hallways and some in their rooms.

Firemen managed to save a few by getting them out of windows, but there was little time for rescue work. One woman, whose home is in Montreal, jumped from a third-storey window and struck on a lumber pile. Her shoulder was fractured and she was otherwise injured. She may die.

The building was of wood and three stories high. It was an old structure and a veritable fire trap.

There are believed to be others dead, but all the bodies had not been recovered or identified this morning.

The known dead: Albert Robideaux, Malone; John Timmons, Malone; Fred Truechon, Malone, the hotel bartender; Tony —, a traveling musician; Philip O'Connor, Pierreville, N.Y.; John Moss, Albany; and Michael Cooney, Malone.

Two persons were injured by jumping from the third floor. They are: Mrs. Premo, Eltonburg, N.Y., both legs broken; A. Martin, a vaudeville actor, left arm and ankle broken. The injured were taken to the Ogdensburg City Hospital.

John Rhodes, a clerk in the office of the American Express Company, 150 feet away, was working over his books when the fire started. He heard an explosion outside and, running to the door, saw the hotel in flames. He turned in the alarm. When the department reached the burning building the third storey was a pillar of fire, and rescues were impossible. All who were trapped there perished with the exception of the two who jumped.

Those on the first and second floors, awakened by the fire engines, fled to safety in the street. There were about 15 persons in the hotel. Within a few minutes the entire building was aflame. The work of the firemen was hampered by a coating of sheet iron on the outside walls, put there six years ago when the building was remodeled. With this exception, the entire structure was of wood.

A CHANCE TO GET BUSY

Mr. George W. Morris, of Racine, Wisconsin, the well-known designer and builder of patent gasoline and steam tractors, formerly of Brantford, writes the Courier:

"Just now I am forming a five-million-dollar company. I fancy 60 days will conclude the matter, although the time limit was till Aug. 1st. The financing is being done in England, and will mean a factory here (in the United States) one in Canada and one in England, for the sole purpose of building and marketing my line of engines. I should have liked to have seen the Canadian factory established in Brantford, but I don't suppose the city would do anything for us."

Here is a chance for the Greater Brantford Board to get busy.

Operas in Parks.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Tentative plans for giving grand opera in the public parks and Italian in the public parks have been made by the supervisor of recreation, it was announced to-day. Should Mayor Gaynor approve the plan, famous operas will be sung at six recreation centres beginning next month. An orchestra of thirty pieces, a chorus of forty voices and a ballet of 20 have been tentatively engaged. The admission are to be 50c and 25c.

Bury Their Dead

LONDON, April 17.—According to a news agency despatch from Sofia, the reported armistice between Bulgaria and Turkey was a verbal one by the opposing generals at Tchatjalja to enable both armies to bury their dead.

THE RAILWAY TANGLE

The adjourned meeting of the bondholders' committee of the Grand Valley Railway Company, which was to have been held in Toronto to-morrow, has been further adjourned until May 19th. It is understood the committee is desirous of securing further data before recommending the contemplated suit against the directors of the company.

DEMAND FOR CHIEF TO STEP OUT

Trades and Labor Council
Hold Meeting Last Night

Resolution Will Be Forwarded to Police Commissioners.

There was a large attendance at the Trades and Labor Council held in the Temple last evening when President Pearce called the meeting to order. There was a full house. Outside of general routine business there were three important subjects brought to the attention of the council.—That the resignation of Chief Slemin be asked for at once; that the Council communicate with the Borden Government in reference to the purchasing of the Post Office for a Temple Building; that a committee of the Council hold a joint meeting with the Ministerial Alliance in reference to the female labor question.

Matters of minor importance transpired and a number of accounts were passed and ordered paid.

The Meeting.

Tremblay Marriage

He Will Not Take Part in the Appeal Being Made.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

MONTREAL, April 17.—That Napoleon Tremblay, who was able by an ecclesiastical degree which was rendered civilly effective by the courts to secure a divorce from his wife on the ground that she was his fourth cousin, will not take any part in the appeal against the nullification of the marriage that will be taken to the Privy Council on the wife's behalf, was the announcement made to-day by Tremblay's lawyer, Paul St. Germain, K.C.

"My client cannot afford the expense," was the reason given by Mr. St. Germain for dropping the fight. Arnold Wainwright, counsel for Mrs. Tremblay, said Tremblay's decision would not prevent the case being heard before the Privy Council.

COURIER PROVES WINNER IN REPORTING SIMCOE TRIAL

Complete Edition On Streets With Entire Verdict 12 Minutes after Jury Came in—Splendid Work in Reporting Facts Appreciated By Hundreds of Brantford Citizens.

This "Supreme in Everything" paper yesterday had sixteen columns with reference to the Meredith trial. The matter was all sent by wire, and there is an operator in Simcoe who says he never wants to gaze upon the face of a Brantford newspaper man again.

The verdict was reached at 4 o'clock, and so complete were the COURIER arrangements that at 4:01 the result was received by flash at the Brantford G.N.W. office and then broadcasted to the city.

By 4:12 the paper with the entire outcome of proceedings was on the streets, a good half-hour ahead of all competition.

Two other features: (1) The forecast that there would be a verdict for the plaintiff, and that the only difference would probably be over the sum awarded, proved to be absolutely correct. (2) This paper had the addresses of the two counsel and the summing-up of the Judge complete in all the essential details.

With regard to the telegraphic service, the COURIER wishes to heartily thank Mr. Cameron and Miss Steele of the G.N.W. staff here, and Mr. Wallace of the G.N.W. staff in Simcoe. They co-operated with great zeal and efficiency.

The sale of the paper was a record one, and despite a large extra edition, which was speedily sold out, and a second edition, which met with a like fate, the demands of the public for this Great Family Journal could not be met, and many were either disappointed, or else borrowed copies from others. Many appreciative references on the part of citizens are hereby acknowledged.

All the above reads like the gentle art of "blowing your own horn." Well, so it is—might as well be frank about that, for the very simple reason that those reading this screed will have reached such a conclusion several lines back. When you are found out you might just as well admit it, and then break new ground, with a firm and concentrated intensity of desire to do better.

So much for "shop," and we promise to never do the same again—that is, until we feel like it.

THREAT TO HAVE STRIKE IN TORONTO AND LONDON

New Development To-day in State of 2000 Garment
Workers at Hamilton, 600 Women Are Out
Companies Hard Hit

(Canadian Press Despatch)

HAMILTON, Ont., April 17.—The only new development in the strike of garment workers and allied trades here to-day was the threat to enforce a sympathetic strike in Toronto and London. A. H. Carroll, general Canadian organizer, who is in charge of the local situation, yesterday went to Toronto and succeeded in closing up two of Randall and Johnson's shops, which were turning out work for Hamilton firms. Mr. Carroll declared that unless a settlement was reached by to-night, there would be a general sympathetic walkout of all the shops in Toronto at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. The Green-Swift Company of London was conferred with and agreed to abide by the new wage scale. It also promised not to do work for Hamilton firms.

The Sanford Company, one of the largest clothing firms in Canada, which is probably hardest hit by the strike sent a large quantity of work to Toronto, but the strikers say they succeeded in heading this off.

Margaret Daley, a prominent New York labor leader, is in charge of the women on strike here, who number over 600.

With over 1,600 employees on strike here now, a wage loss of $5,000 daily and a daily loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the big clothing firms who are filled up with orders, the situation is becoming serious. The bosses are still standing pat and have so far refused to meet a committee from the unions. To-day they laid off all their cutters, the only one of the allied trades which did not join in the strike on the first day. The employers said they would have no work for these men until the strike was settled. The strikers have taken up with the immigration department at Ottawa the question of preventing the importation of labor from the other side.

Fire Over Five Miles.

CRAVEN, Sask., April 17.—Big prairie fires raged all day Tuesday in the vicinity of Craven. Last night the breeze, developed into a gale and the front of the fire extended five miles. No damage has yet been reported.

He Resigns.

SASKATOON, Sask., April 17.—James A. Bell, general manager of the Industrial League, has resigned. The league has been severely criticized in some quarters. Bell says his resignation is due to the apparent dissatisfaction shown. He was getting a salary of $7,500 a year.

Prairie Fires.

RALVILLE, Sask., April 17.—Prairie fires which raged through the hills south of Radville burnt a strip 15 to 20 miles wide, destroying thousands of acres of pasture. As a result feed will be scarce. The fire burnt fiercely and the Henrich district stables and granaries with their grain, of George Eldridge were wiped out.

while from other districts come reports of men fighting the flames two days and nights. Three or four other farmers were burned out.

Mr. Blake's Operation

TORONTO, April 17.—Hon. S. H. Blake underwent an operation this morning at 9 o'clock. The operation was successfully performed, and 2 o'clock this afternoon it was stated that for one of his age, 73, the patient was making satisfactory progress.

Wrecked by Bomb.

WALTHAM, Mass., April 17.—The home of Salvatore H. Alberto, a grocer, on Newton Street, was badly wrecked to-day by the explosion of a bomb. Alberto, his wife, and three children were thrown from their beds but were not seriously hurt. Alberto believes the explosion to have been the work of the "Black Hand."

THE SUBJECT OF EUGENICS.

The Courier not long ago had an article on the above subject.

Among other papers it was copied in a U. S. publication which makes these additional remarks.

We hear mostly of two classic cases when we hear eugenic enthusiasts. One is that of an English female criminal, whose upwards of a thousand descendants were criminal.

The other is that of the Edwards family of America which had an also unborn successor of ministers, doctors, professors, literary and public men. From this the conclusion is drawn—not by scientists, but by writers of snap-shot articles, and by lecturers whose chief requisite is a subject to talk upon—that the children of criminals are all criminals and the children of the virtuous always virtuous.

Life smashes this conclusion to smithereens, as it does so many other ready-made notions. Abraham Lincoln's parents were eugenically unfit. Nowad's a score of charges could be urged against their union, and especially against their vast presumption in bringing children into the world. But there stands Abraham Lincoln. Eugenically considered, Abraham Lincoln and his wife were in a fair way of founding a noted family.

As a matter of fact who can say any unusual of Lincoln's descendants, or Beecher's, or Socrates', or Cromwell's, or Wordsworth's, or Burns', or Gladstone's? On the other hand we have Darwin's son, and Henry George's, and old Lyman Beecher's who were worthy sons of worthy sires. The unfit, eugenically considered, rear the fit, and the fit the unfit, and nature seems to play the game to her own liking. Heredity is not the perfect explanation we once thought it; indeed it is rapidly being delimited in its explanatory uses. It is being pretty generally recognized that man is not a physical creation of his parents, but a soul which has sought a body. Though the body may be subject to certain hereditary tendencies, or suffer from certain physical lacks derived from the physical parents, the soul is unbound. But the facts are that parents eugenically unfit have somehow contrived to give the world great souls in their children; which other parents highly fit have failed to do.

Nevertheless, it never does harm, and maybe it does some good, to keep the obvious physical facts before men and women. And this is all that the scientific eugenicist can do as yet. The reduction of eugenics to a mechanical system, a sort of standardization of the human output, is the fancy of those who have caught half the idea and only that. As a serious theory it is non-existent. It has been demonstrated time without number that the modes of breeding practiced by stock raisers are not applicable to the human species. In slavery times slave owners, with an experimental faculty tried to raise a race of superb black people. It failed—failed miserably. Why? Well, the supposition is that in leaving out love; the would-be breeders left out the ingredients with which nature works, and with which she overcomes a host of obstacles, physical, social and economic. Love is the great elevator of the masses, the invincible improver of conditions. The marriage of Robt. Browning and Elizabeth Barrett was, perhaps eugenically indefensible. But because it was a true love marriage, it made enough of difficulties, and the result of that marriage, Robert Barrett Browning, who died the other day was an honor to both his gifted parents. We may trust nature a long way in such matters; it is one of her chief interests to improve the race of men.

Pills for Nervous People—The stomach is the centre of the nervous system, and when the stomach suspends healthy action the result is manifest in disturbances of the nerves. If allowed to persist, nervous debility, a dangerous ailment, may ensue. The first consideration is to restore the stomach to proper action, and there is no readier remedy for this than Parnele's Vegetable Pills. Thousands can attest the virtue of these pills in curing nervous disorders.

ALBERTA.

There is an election to-day in the Province of Alberta.

There are forty-one members in that Legislature who receive a sessional indemnity of $1,500.

In the House recently dissolved, there were only five Conservatives, and at this distance it looks as if the best they can do is to advance on that number.

The campaign has been very strenuous, and to a large extent personal, for the people of the West are still young enough to take their politics very hard, and to substitute abuse for argument.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

Bad for the Consequences

Winnipeg Tribune: Suffragets who tried to blow up ancient Dudley castle left an inscription, "Votes for Women and Damn the Consequences!" If the consequences are to be damned, who votes for women?

No Accounting for Cranks

Ottawa Journal: A steerage passenger on the ocean liner St. Paul, after reading the bible, decided to walk on the sea. They picked him out again but he died from the shock. And that just after a man up country cut off the right hand that offended. Nevertheless, the bible will still be widely read.

The Best Must Be Paid For

Ottawa Citizen: Ontario teachers are leaving the province because of the better salaries being paid out in the west. Without referring to the likelihood that the corresponding high cost of living there will almost surely mean the return of many of the pilgrims, it is necessary for Ontario to realize that the best has to be paid for. The loss of her teachers cannot be allowed at any cost.

Works Both Ways

Ottawa Citizen: The probable effect of the revised tariff in the United States on Canada is exciting large interest and much confused conjecture. It is beginning to dawn upon many people that a wider market for Canadian produce, without a wider market for Canadian purchase, may benefit the few, and not the many. Work it out.

Give the Children a Chance

Toronto News: Environment counts for more than heredity. Nature is ever striving to eradicate in the children the weaknesses of the parents—if she is only given a chance. If the sins of the father are visited upon the child it is largely because the one grows to maturity in the same surroundings as the other. Ninety-nine percent of children taken from the slums sufficiently early and given a chance for a decent healthy development under proper physical material, real and fantastical, familiar into valuable citizens. This is history.

Britain's Influence for Peace

Victoria, B.C. Times: Nothing has been clearer from the first than that British influence has been steadily exerted for peace. Whatever may be desired by the other powers, it is too plain to be questioned that peace is still the chief British interest. Why fight, says Sir Edward Gray, when there is nothing to fight for? The great minister who controls the foreign policy of Great Britain is striving only to prevent the waste of human life, and to damp down flames that are always dangerous.

Told Story

This Girl Didn't Want to Marry Man and Faked Up Story.

[Canadian Press Despatch] NEW YORK, April 17.—Ages Erhart, aged 19, engaged to marry Fager Heinick Saturday, decided at the eleventh hour that she did not really love her affianced, but she was afraid to tell him so. She thought the loss of what money and jewelry she had might chill his intentions. In league with another man friend, she concocted a robbery and turned up at a police station last night with a pitiful tale of how a man had leaped out of a closet in her room, tied a black bag over her head, choked her and bound her and made way with her valuables, including $125 in cash. When the detectives broke down her story after a late night grilling, the girl admitted that she was not really robbed, but "had to do something to keep from marrying Fager." She signed a long written statement and was finally allowed to go.

Was Scalded

FORT WILLIAM, April 17.—P. Lamusja, fireman, was scalded and bruised about the head and shoulders and an engine and four coaches left the track yesterday, when C. P. R. No. 2, struck a spread rail, five miles east of Schriber.

It Opens To-day

NEW YORK, April 17.—Weather conditions were propitious this forenoon for the opening of the International League, postponed yesterday on account of rain. In Newark, where the champion Toronto team opens the season, the mayor has been selected to toss out the first ball. Other scheduled games were: Montreal at Providence; Buffalo at Jersey City, and Rochester at Baltimore.

PRACTICALLY GIVEN UP TO DIE

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Kidneys and Bladder

WILLIAMSTOWN, ONT., July 27th, 1910 "I have much pleasure in testifying to the almost marvellous benefit I have derived from taking "Fruit-a-tives". I was a lifelong sufferer from Chronic Constipation, and the only medicine I ever secured to do me any real good was "Fruit-a-tives". This medicine cured me when everything else failed. Also, last spring, I had a severe attack of Bladder Trouble coupled with Kidney Trouble, and "Fruit-a-tives" cured these complaints for me, when the physicians attending me had practically given me up.

I am now over eighty years of age and I can strongly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" for Chronic Constipation and Bladder and Kidney Troubles.

JAMES DINGWALL. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices—and is the greatest kidney, bladder and liver medicine ever put on the market. See a box, 6 for $2.50 trial size, 50c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

AN INQUIRY IS BEING HELD

Unpleasant Incident Caused By Five Germans in France is Looked Into.

[Canadian Press Despatch] NANCY, France, April 17.—Emile Ogier, representing the French foreign office, is making a thorough investigation of the unpleasant incident on Sunday last when five German visitors, two of the women, are said to have been insulted by a crowd of French students. It is likely that the government official will make his report for another day or two, in order to allow time for the German feeling to subside.

Serious local opinion is that the two policemen on duty in the neighborhood where the incident occurred should have prevented the crowd from following the strangers to the station and from deriding them. The fantastic descriptions attributed to commercial travellers of the Germans being made to kneel before a French officer are asserted here to be dramatic inventions from the other side of the border.

MUSIC and DRAMA

"Passers By."

Mr. Chambers, in his play, "Passers By," which comes to the Grand on Saturday, April 19, has stretched once or twice the long arm of coincidence, pulled it almost from the shoulder, but he has put on the stage some very human characters. His material, real and fantastical, familiar and novel, is well worked. His dialogue is fluent, almost always to the point and aiding in the presentation of character; it is amusing without being flippant, without the aid of paradox. The sociological views and the position taken by Margaret, who has not the slightest desire to pose as forsaken and repentant, might lead to academic discussion, but the expression of these views does not check the course of the play.

HUNGER STRIKE BY SIXTY MEN

Something New Started in Denver Jail By Industrial Prisoners.

DENVER, Col., April 17.—Sixty Industrial Workers of the World, who yesterday began a hunger strike in the city jail here, refused to eat breakfast to-day. When a trusty was sent to their cells with a supply of bread and water, the meal furnished by the city to the hundred or more uninvited guests from the Pacific coast, the militant sixty steadfastly refused to touch the fare. They announce that they will refuse all food until the city furnishes a better variety or until they become so weak from exhaustion that they will have to be removed to a hospital.

Talk of a compromise between the city and the Industrial Workers was current to-day. It was said that the Denver branch of the organization would agree to observe the rules regarding street speaking laid down by the fire and police board, and that the visitors would then be released on the promise that they would leave the city at once.

50 pairs of lace curtains slightly soiled, at Long's, at half price. This is a snap.

BELGIUM STRIKE MORE GENERAL

Men Quietly Leave Their Work and No Trouble Ensues.

Determined to Win the Right to Vote On National Affairs.

[Canadian Press Despatch] BRUSSELS, Belgium, April 17.—The Belgian workers strike for manhood suffrage continues to extend slowly in every part of the country. Small numbers of men have returned to their work here and there, but these are unimportant as compared with the figures of the fresh recruits who have joined the movement. The men as a rule appear to be settling down to a long test of endurance and are determined to achieve victory in the cause for which they are fighting—that of equality.

The Socialist organizations have opened dining halls in convenient locations for the provision of meals to necessitous workmen. The strikers and their families generally are employing their time in working in their gardens or making walking tours to neighboring places of interest, while the strike managers are organizing concerts, dramatic performances, moving picture shows and magic lantern lectures to amuse and instruct the strikers and to keep them out of mischief, or to prevent them becoming tired of idleness and returning to work.

A few arrests of strikers for interfering with men who remained at work, but investigation of the charges shows that the accused were only standing at the factory gates and shouting: "Hurrah for the strike." The photo engravers of Brussels have voted to join the strike tomorrow.

Some Rowdys

SERAING, Belgium, April 17.—Gangs of rowdy youths passed through the workmen's residential district of this city last night breaking windows in the houses of non-strikers on their way. Other parties occupied the roads leading to the city and stopped non-strikers from outlying villages coming in to work. Cavalry patrols have been placed on duty, but the gangs have hitherto always managed to elude them.

Were on Parade

LIEGE, Belgium, April 17.—Strong columns of strikers, with music, flags or insignia of any kind, this morning marched along the country roads visiting the towns and villages in this part of Belgium as a demonstration in favor of equal suffrage. The dingy, silent columns of men now and then met detachments of cavalry in glittering uniforms, but no collision took place as the strikers were quite peaceable.

Stopped Socialist Meeting

ANTWERP, April 17.—The mayor of this city has stopped the Socialist meeting arranged to be held tomorrow in the cemetery where are buried seven men shot by soldiers on April 14, 1893 during the agitation for revision of the suffrage.

An Idle City

HUY, Belgium, April 17.—This is the most idle city of Belgium to-day. Only 34 men out of a total of 3,082 are working.

Its Hurting

SERAING, April 17.—The officials of the Cockerill works here announce to-day that unless the strike ends quickly the works must refuse orders for several million francs. They say they are unable now to send from the works orders from abroad that already have been finished.

Arrested for Forgery

CALGARY, April 17.—Alfred Matheson, a clerk in the city treasurer's department, was arrested on a charge of forging city checks, totalling $506. The checks lithographed with the municipal coat of arms were abstracted from the treasurer's check-book and the signature of the proper officials forged to them. Matheson received a salary of $70 a month. He is an invalid wife and two children. He was formerly a member of the famous Scottish regiment, the Black Watch. He is held without bail for the preliminary hearing.

Humors come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. They don't run themselves all off that way however, but mostly remain in the system. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them, wards off danger, makes good health sure.

BRANT'S OLDEST RESIDENT THOMAS MURRAY AGE 104

A Pioneer of This County Who Has Passed Century Mark.

He Has 16 Grandchildren and 19 Greatgrandchildren. All Living.

The life of Brant County's oldest resident, Thomas Murray of New Durham, is reported to be ebbing away, and one who has seen a century and four years go around, it is feared is about to pass to the Great Beyond after a life of great service and usefulness. Mr. Murray is 104 years old and up to a few months ago he was in excellent health, but recently has failed considerably. Born at Hamilton, five miles from Glasgow, Scotland, Mr. Murray came to Canada in 1844, and has continuously resided in this country for almost 70 years. He now resides on the Eighth Concession, Lot 19, Burford Township.

Mr. Murray married when he was 40 years old, choosing as his bride Ann Mordeu, of Cainsville, who died 21 years ago. There were six children, five of whom survive. The children are Mrs. Patterson, New Durham, who has four children and nine grandchildren; John Murray, Tompkins, Saskatchewan, who has nine children and six grandchildren; Mrs. Carter, Harley, who has two children and four grandchildren; James of the old Homestead, one child, and being an Englishman himself, didn't like it, with the result that Pinnell got a couple of rights to the face. Pinnell reported it to the police and it cost James two dollars and a half a slap or $5 and costs. "You better not lose your temper so easily the next time," said the magistrate.

MR. THOMAS MURRAY, Of Burford Township, Who Has Reached Age of 104 Years.

In the early days of Brant County Mr. Murray drove a stage coach with Shipman's Corners as the destination. Naturally having passed the century mark, Mr. Murray was a man of rugged constitution. His habits of life have always been temperate, and his character was of the sterling, rugged, honest Scotch brand, which fitted him as one of the real pioneers of the early days.

WITH THE POLICE

There was only three cases on the mat this morning at the police court. Two drunks were allowed to go, this being their first appearance in police court circles.

William James forgot himself for the moment and took a slap at a young lad named Fred Pinnell. The lad, in reply to a question of James, as to where the Englishman was who usually drove the rig, on which Pinnell was, said "he had gone to the Old County. James thought he was sarcastic, and being an Englishman himself, didn't like it, with the result that Pinnell got a couple of rights to the face. Pinnell reported it to the police and it cost James two dollars and a half a slap or $5 and costs. "You better not lose your temper so easily the next time," said the magistrate.

At Rest

The late James Dawson, 88 Balfour street, took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence to St. John's church, thence to Mt. Hope cemetery for interment. Rev. Mr. Saunders conducted very impressive services. The pall bearers were four brothers-in-law, Charles, Joseph, William and James Wickson and Mr. A. Miller and Merritt Misonner of the C.O.C.F. The deceased leaves to mourn his loss, besides a sorrowing wife, two sons, three sisters and four brothers. The following floral tributes were received: Pillow, wife and family; gates ajar, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dawson and family; harp, packing department Massey-Harris; cross, Mr and Mrs. Alf. G. Wright, Mr and Mrs. Joe Dawson, Mrs. Hattie and Roy Dawson, Mr and Mrs. R. Friedmann Doesn't Intend to Let His Secret Out of the Bag.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, April 17.—Dr. Friedrich Friedmann, it developed today, has refused a request of the Federal Public Health Service for more of the serum which he claims is a "cure" for tuberculosis. Surgeon-General Rupert Blue, of the service, is reported to have asked Dr. Friedmann for further samples of his serum so that a more careful analysis of the alleged cure could be made. Dr. Friedmann is declared to have said that he had already supplied Surgeon John F. Anderson, director of the Hygienic laboratory, with a little platinum "loopful" and that he could spare no more. The amount furnished by the Berlin scientist, according to Surgeon General Blue, was a mere drop.

Military Notes

A whist drive was held in the Dufferin Rifles men's institute last night under the directorship of Mr. George Casey. Two handsome prizes have been given for the contest. The presentation of these prizes will take place at the coming singing competition on Saturday night. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was brought to a close at midnight.

Private H. Williams of B. Company, took second prize.

The recruit class will be held Friday night.

The cadets held their weekly drill yesterday afternoon at the Armouries.

The Dragoons recruit class will drill at the Armouries to-night.

A meeting of the Sergeants of the Dragoons will also be held this evening at the Armouries.

Big Trip

From Canary Islands to West Indies in a Balloon.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, April 17.—Joseph Brucker failed to start as scheduled to-day on his proposed trans-Atlantic flight to the West Indies in the dirigible balloon Suchard II. Just as all preparations had been completed for the flight at daybreak this morning the gas escaped in some manner through the chief valve and the envelope suddenly became deflated. Urgent telegrams were sent to Germany for a further supply of gas.

Engineer Kruger, who had been engaged to navigate the dirigible at the last moment made some demur about undertaking the hazardous voyage and the promoters of the flight took out $50,000 insurance in his behalf.

Brucker expressed extreme annoyance over the accident. A large crowd which had waited for hours hoping to see the departure of the airship manifested much disgust at the postponement of the voyage.

SERVANT GIRLS MAKE DEMANDS

The Right To Entertain Company in the Parlor One of Them.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
CHICAGO, April 17.—Two afternoons a week off and the right to entertain company in the parlor without interference from the family, are among the demands to be made by domestic servants who have just organized a union to be known as the Household Workers Association. The new union obtained a charter yesterday from the American Federation of Labor. As soon as the organization is of sufficient strength to control the situation, better working conditions will be demanded together with regular hours of work. Wednesday and Sunday afternoons will be the free time demanded.

Three Men Connected With Jewish Paper Arrested—Some Hot Stuff

(Canadian Press Despatch)
MONTREAL, April 17.—On the libel, Conrad Berocovic, M. Ornstein and Isaac Kessler, were arrested yesterday by Deputy High Constable Cyr upon the complaint of Hyman Adler. The three men were later arraigned before Judge Lanctot and remanded on personal bail until Wednesday for preliminary enquiry.

The prosecution, represented by Mr. Bernard Rose, with Mr. M. J. Morrison, K.C., as counsel, alleges that in the Jewish paper, Baneret Zeitung, or the peasant journal, the three accused under the heading, "A Gallery of Fine Persons," printed the names of some fifteen Jews with the comment, "We have not their pictures; they are in the Riquet's Gallery," concluding with the request that their readers watch them.

The issue of the paper is not dated. It is only issued once a year, at Passover.

YES

A few minutes after Zam-Buk is applied to a cut, a burn, a scratch, or any sore place, the pain is stopped. Mothers should never forget this, because it is one reason why Zam-Buk is the best thing for children's injuries. It stops their crying and gives them ease. Right from the instant of application healing begins, and Zam-Buk heals quickly. Note these statements from reliable persons, some of whom you may know.

Baby's Sore Healed. My baby girl had a bad sore on her chin, which was very painful, and caused her to be very restless. We put on some Zam-Buk, and in a wonderfully short time it gave her ease. In a few days the sore was completely healed. Mrs. E. COCKERS, Yorkton, Sask.

Rusty Nail Pierced Finger. I ran a rusty nail under my thumb nail while at work. The pain was terrible as I feared blood poisoning from the dirty, rusty nail. I melted some Zam-Buk and ran it into the wound, and it stopped the pain almost instantly. It kept away inflammation and in a few days the wound was quite healed. Mrs. A. H. ORRIS, Shipley, Ont.

A Bad Burn. In moving some wood in the stove, I burned my thumb very badly. In a few minutes it was covered with a big white blister, and the pain was very bad. Zam-Buk was applied, and in quick time it gave me ease. H. E. JENSEN, Organist, Carman, Man.

Take this Advice! If you have some sore place, some skin disease, some cut, or burn or ulcer, why continue to suffer pain? Every hour you suffer is an hour wasted. You cannot do your best work in pain; you cannot enjoy your leisure. ZAM-BUK saves far more than its cost, by saving you time in this way.

ZAM-BUK is a "short cut" to skin healing. There is nothing which acts so quickly and so surely. Use it for all skin injuries and diseases: Eczema, Ulcers, Blood Poison, etc., and for Piles. All druggists and stores, 50 cents a box, or post free from ZAM-BUK CO., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

Must Take Rest. Rev. H. H. Bingham, pastor of the Talbot Street Baptist church, London, formerly of Paris, was on Tuesday granted a six months' leave of absence by the congregation of the church at its annual meeting. It has been felt for some time that a rest was essential to Mr. Bingham. His duties at Talbot street have been heavy, and although not giving up he has not at all times enjoyed the best of health. Consequently he was Tuesday evening persuaded to take a rest. It will go into effect the first of May. He will leave shortly afterwards to spend the summer months at his old home, Burks Falls.

Important Matters. Panama Hats for Women

are much in vogue. They are exceedingly scarce, as a very stylish article usually is. We are particularly well supplied, as our buyer, while in Europe, correctly anticipated the demand, and bought heavily. That was fortunate enough for us and you. The Panamas are shown in many styles, as are also many other strains of similar appearance, but of much less cost, of which we show many, such as Java, Panama Straw and Canevas. There is a wide choice in the trimming of these, some having folds of leather artfully applied, others are more ornate, with scarfs of printed silks of the Bulgarian tones. For all this week we have arranged a special display of Smartly Trimmed Hats for misses and matrons at a special range of prices. See 5.00 these at 2.50. Worth very much more.

Correct Dress Fabrics

Late arrivals of very stylish materials. Two-tone Whipcords, 54 inches wide, the cutting every 1.50 one wants. Per yard. Full range Navy Serges, the most popular fabric of the season, good heavy weights, widths 42 to 56 inches. Priced from, per yard, 50c to 2.50.

Outing Flannels, with the new hair-line stripes in shades of navy and white, black and white, hunter's green and white, 27 inches wide, suitable for motoring and golf coats. Priced at 60c per yard. Rainy-day Parasols, with full paragon frame, bulb runner, double lock ribs, guaranteed tafatine covers, many styles of handles. Price 98c at 49c.

Lamb Gloves at 49c, in black and tan; also Chamois Gloves, in white and natural. 49c at 25c.

(In this lot there are upwards of 2000 pairs. All are new, having the two-dome fasteners. All sizes.)

Some Good Values in Dress Goods

Navy and Black Serges, a medium weight, a beautiful finish, and a very good weight, fast dye. Sale 59c. Navy and Black Serge, nice fine twill, with Paisley finish, fast dye, 44-inches wide—quite the thing for dresses and suits. Sale 75c.

Corduroy Velvets, 27 inches wide, in all shades, including golden brown, suitable for gresses and children's coats. Special, per yard 69c. Natural Raw Silk, 28 inch, nice clean weave. Per yard 39c.

Black Pilette Silk, 36 inch, a heavy weight, a beautiful finish, a satisfactory quality indeed. Per yard 1.00.

WILL GIVE LIBERALS OPPORTUNITY TO TALK

Premier Borden Provides Opposition With Means to Air Alleged Conservative Scandal After Leading Blockers Have Sought to Bring Up Subject in Violation of Parliamentary Practice.

OTTAWA, April 17.—The Opposition tried again yesterday, and again the effort was weak and half-hearted. It resulted unhappily for the Liberals in that it proved the readiness of the Government to afford every opportunity for the ventilation of "scandals." The case in point is the charge that one Arthur Donaldson, secretary of the Conservative whip in Saskatchewan, was allowed to homestead valuable lands adjoining the city of Prince Albert. This charge has been more or less discussed already. The Government has a complete answer to it.

Hon. Frank Oliver sought yesterday to bring this matter up on a motion, made during the closure debate, that the House adjourn. This manoeuvre was intended to serve the double purpose of airing the charge against the Hon. Robert Rogers and of blocking the closure motion. Mr. Oliver and his friends fell foul of the existing rules governing motions for the adjournment of the House. They were still in difficulties when Premier Borden upset the Liberal calculations by undertaking to move the House into Committee of Supply today in order that the question of the Prince Albert land transfer might be threshed out.

The debate, outside of this incident, was sadly deficient in life. Mr. Alphonse Verville and Hon. Charles Murphy sought to enliven it by proclaiming their refusal to be bound by the new rules, a refusal which appeared to occasion the Government very little concern. In all, eight Liberals talked on the closure, most of them briefly.

Hon. William Pugsley turned up in his accustomed place, and was much in evidence in the discussion of points of procedure. His researches so far seem to have resulted in nothing more formidable than the discovery that the Opposition may come along at intervals with motions to adjourn. If there is anything more than this up the Opposition sleeve, only Messrs. Pugsley & Company know of it. The rank and file have not been told. The whips expect a vote to-night, so that there is very little time left for the fireworks.

Would Censure Minister. Mr. Oliver wished to move the adjournment of the House in order to move a resolution censuring Hon. Robert Rogers in connection with a sale of land at Prince Albert.

Speaker Sproule ruled that this being a resolution could only be moved in the ordinary way, namely, as an amendment to a motion to go into Committee of Supply or after two days' notice. Hon. Mr. Pugsley endeavored to dispute the ruling, but was obliged to subside.

Right Hon. Mr. Borden said an opportunity would be afforded at the earliest possible moment, when he would move the House into Committee of Supply.

"To-morrow" inquired Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "When this debate has been disposed of," was the answer.

Hon. Mr. Doherty referred to a matter which had been brought to the attention of the House on Monday last by the leader of the opposition, namely, the report that three Russian settlers who had returned to Russia had been arrested and exiled to Siberia for life for alleged involvement in military service during the Russo-Japanese War.

Sir Wilfrid said that this episode "brought up in concrete form the effect of naturalization in Canada. The Minister of Justice said that in the first place instructions had been given to have the facts enquired into and their correctness or incorrectness ascertained. He was not in a position at the moment to state anything further as to that.

"But," he continued, "whatever may be the state of the facts, if these men who have been naturalized under our laws have been convicted and sentenced as stated in the article, the rightness of that action on the part of the Russian Government depends in no way upon any naturalization law that Canada could pass, or upon any naturalization law that Great Britain has passed or might pass.

Due to Her Own Laws. "If Russia has proceeded in the manner indicated, and if she has the right to do so, it is because of her own laws applicable to persons who are her own subjects, which determine upon what conditions persons who are her own subjects cease to be subjects."

to order for going outside of the debate. Despite this warning, Dr. Beland continued, and was again called to order. He then said that the Opposition had not resisted any too long that they had fulfilled a great public duty and that freedom of speech had been added to autonomy on the Liberal standard.

"We may succumb," he said, "beneath the majority in this House, but the principle will live, and I survive and ultimately triumph." He then moved the adjournment of the House. Hon. Frank Oliver again rose and announced his intention of discussing the administration of the public domain. Speaker Sproule intervened with the ruling that Mr. Oliver would be in order only in dealing with the question immediately before the House or in giving reasons why the House should adjourn.

Hon. Oliver said that he was about to give his reasons. The matter had been standing for several weeks, and was of great importance to the country at large.

The Speaker's Contention. The Speaker thereupon quoted rule 39. Hon. Oliver was in order, except when made for the discussion of a definite matter of urgent public importance in which case leave must be asked on the orders of the day being taken up. This rule was made for just such cases as the present.

The Institute meeting was held at Mrs. John Hunter's with about 30 in attendance. The music was supplied by Mrs. Herbert Hunter and Misses Early Westbrook and Elva Vanderlip. Miss Dolly Westbrook gave a splendid reading and Mrs. Job Hunter gave a demonstration on making Angel Cake. Regular business was also conducted. After lunch all returned home feeling they had had a good time. The May meeting will be held at Mrs. M. E. Vanderlip's.

Mr. McCraney (Saskatoon) resumed the discussion of the resolution to amend the rules. He said that in 1885 Sir John Macdonald had introduced a tyrannical franchise bill. He had had a large majority, but he had the sense not to bring it in a close resolution. In 1896, the school question had been before the House. On that occasion the Opposition had been fully justified in adopting obstructive tactics by the result.

In 1908 the Prime Minister had withdrawn objectionable features of the Manitoba Voters' List Bill rather than bring in a closure measure. In 1911 the Government had appealed to the people upon the reciprocity agreement. In two instances legislation had been modified or withdrawn in face of obstruction, and in two instances the House had been dissolved and the Government had changed.

Mr. McCraney said that he had no doubt that if Government now went to the country it would be turned out of office.

Hon. Frank Oliver again wished to move the adjournment of the House. Mr. Meighen (Portage la Prairie) took the position that since the member for Edmonton had already spoken in the debate upon the closure resolution, he could not properly intervene. In this view Speaker Sproule concurred, and Mr. Meighen there rose to move the adjournment. In his case also Mr. Speaker decided that the motion was out of order. Mr. Pardee had adjourned the debate.

Hon. Dr. Beland rose and said that he would move the adjournment of the House at the end of some remarks which he wanted to make on the subject of the closure. He ran over the list of former obstructions, and quoted Hon. George E. Foster as having said that the Conservatives had forced the Laurier Government to the country. In the case of the Naval Bill there were three courses open to the Government—to amend the bill, withdraw it, or appeal to the country. Instead they introduced the closure.

An Autocratic Power. "This is the most autocratic power that has ever been conferred to any Government of any civilized country, not exceeding Great Britain," he said. Dr. Beland went on to say that Premier Borden had been willing to refer the rules to a special committee at another session. Why not do it now? "They are overwhelmed with correspondence from all parts of the country asking them to stand pat, to withdraw the bill and wait for another session." (Conservatives laughed.)

Dr. Roland went to Bourinot for evidence that the Northrup motion giving precedence to the Minister of Marine, was irregular. The closure, he said, was an emergency measure. Referring to Mr. Borden's statement in introducing the Naval Bill, he said, "He was like a pagan god, sitting in the clouds, dispensing efficiently thunder and lightning."

Speaker Sproule called Dr. Beland to order. He then said that the Opposition had not resisted any too long that they had fulfilled a great public duty and that freedom of speech had been added to autonomy on the Liberal standard.

He then suggested that the House might rise for dinner and the Speaker could in the meantime consider the point raised.

Square Deal Campaign Offers Great Chance

Opportunity Knocks at Your Door. This Journal Pays Its Way For Every Service Rendered To It.

Anybody taking the Brantford Courier gets full value and running over. No money or effort has been spared on the part of the company to bring each department up to the very top notch of efficiency, and the combined result is a paper in this community which is "Supreme in Everything."

A very interesting meeting was held by the League on Monday night. The music for the day was much enjoyed, especially the quartette, "Remember Me," which was sung in the evening by Mrs. Wilson, Miss Smith and Messrs Smith and Brewer.

Under the latter scheme competitors get paid right off the reel in cash for each new subscriber or renewal brought in. It is not skippy pay, either, but a most liberal allowance.

And in addition to all this there are the many handsome special prizes for the top-notchers. It makes no difference as to when you enter in the matter of cash payments, and should not make any difference, if you hustle, with regard to winning one of the extra inducements.

POPE SAYS HE IS IMPROVING

Reports From Vatican To-as to Pontiff's Illness.

The Pope is Cheerful Himself and Says He is Better

(Canadian Press Despatch)

ROME, April 17.—(10 a.m.)—The pope's condition as set forth in the bulletin issued by Dr. Ettore Marchiafava, and Dr. Andrea Amici was as follows:

"The pontiff spent a calm night. A diminution of his cough has been observed any time. Besides, his temperature was 97 this morning. Slight amelioration in the bronch symptoms was again noted.

(Signed), Marchiafava Amici.

Prof. Marchiafava completed morning's bulletin in Cardinal M. Del Val's apartment which he visited after his usual morning call at the pontiff's bedside. Upon leaving, the vatican Prof. Marchiafava said his patient's condition was more satisfactory to-day. Besides, a diminution of the cough, the general weakness was not so accentuated, the pulse not so frequent and more regular. The pope enjoyed easier breathing and the local conditions of the bronchial trouble seemed improved.

The Italian Government desires to be absolutely sure of the real condition of Pius X. to-day summing those directly responsible for care of his health. The pope's physicians replied to the appeal for direct statement with the frank declaration that it was extremely difficult to say that the pontiff's condition would overcome the crisis. But even if it did so, it explained, the remainder of the pontiff's days would still be considered as precarious and the end might be expected any time.

Says He is Better. The pope himself says he is better when Dr. Andrea Amici visited him to-day and asked him how he felt, the pontiff replied:

"This is the first day since my relapse that I feel really relieved."

Another Report. The pope is so much better, according to reports from the vatican that if present conditions continue the last bulletin about his health published by the physicians forming him that any activity will clear that all fear for existence of the pontiff is excluded.

Advise Complete Rest. Prof. Marchiafava and Dr. Amici to-day again impressed on the pope the necessity of complete rest, forming him that any activity will create obstacles to his recovery.

Your commands shall be obeyed said the pope smilingly with a resignation. Shortly afterwards doctors had left; however, the pope broke through the clouds and declared the pope's bedchamber-its rays. The pontiff thereupon declared that he could endure his no longer. His restlessness increased and he said he would feel more comfortable in an armchair. He stated by raising his arms and felt obliged to give way to his illness. His valet proceeded to assist him to rise, but the pope refused assistance saying that he was not incapacitated and could help himself although he was feeling somewhat weaker.

Maori housewives of New Zealand, have discovered, like their more civilized sisters, the value of the fireless cooker as a labor saver but their cooks have neither to be made or ordered. Nature furnishes them in inexhaustible supply, for they are nothing more nor less than the small geysers of the region. Using a box, a basket, or a bag, depending on what they are cooking, the women sink the receptacle in the moist mud over a steam hole, which makes an admirable oven. They not only cook their meals, but do their washing in these baby volcanoes.—The Argonaut.

A largely attended and most enjoyable Talent tea under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Alexandra Church was held at the residence of Mrs. Andrew L. Baird, Murray St., yesterday afternoon. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Barton and Miss Heamans; instrumental selections by Misses Lorene Corey and Amy Lyle. The proceeds amounted to a substantial sum. The affair was in charge of the members residing north of Colborne street, who with the hostess are to be congratulated on the successful outcome.

Plea for tariff action that would destroy the hook and eye industry and relieve married men of fastening the backs of their wives' gowns, was made in the Democratic caucus to-day at Washington by Representative Thomas, of Kentucky.

"It would be better for the peace and happiness of married men," he said, "if there were no hooks and eyes. If a free list will destroy the industry, I am putting them on the free list."

"Any man who will fumble with the hooks and eyes in buttoning up the back of his wife's dress, is not much of a man," he said.

His appeal was ignored.

Thoroughly enjoyable and very largely attended was the Golf Club Bridge which claimed the Ladies' Match Committee as hostesses yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Frank Leeming, Dufferin Ave. The game commenced shortly after three o'clock and twelve tables were played. The prizes for high score, second and lowest score were won by Miss Lottie Large, Mrs. E. A. Mabon and Mrs. Watson, (Toronto). Light refreshments were served about half past four. Mrs. H. R. Yates and Mrs. F. D. Reville presiding at the tea urns; then the game resumed until six o'clock when the scores were counted up and the prizes given.

The New York Giants look to and ought to be a stronger club than last year. This conclusion is logical not so much from what the team has actually shown this spring, but from what it is capable of doing.

A certain conservative and dead headed member of the squad was talking on the prospects of the team and had no hesitancy in saying that he looked for another championship.

"We ought to win like a breeze," he says, "and I shall be much disappointed if we don't."

"The dope all points to our winning the pennant again. One of our strongest assets is the way we've fortified against accidents. I don't see how anything but a bad accident can keep us from winning, as we have such good players to take the place of any regular who may be incapacitated. The real strength of a ball team and that which wins pennants is the reserve men, and there the Giants are well fixed."

"The Giants are a young team. There isn't regular on it, in the field, outfield or behind the bat, who is not a young man. None of the

Lady Marjorie's Love

"Whoever can she be?" She appealed perplexedly to the prospect in general. "I don't think I ever saw any one so beautiful, and I'm sure I never saw any one so queer. What a stupid I was not to think ask her name. Just like me! Where can she have seen me, I wonder, and why should she be scared at the idea of Mr. Chadburn being here? And, after all, she didn't say what she wanted or whether she meant to see him or not." "Him" did not signify Mr. Chadburn, "And what made her kiss me, of all things? I never saw anything so odd in my life. Poor thing, she must be a little mad. I should think, well, she can't be madder than he is—there would be a nice pair of them—that there would!" She laughed freely and began to put on her hat. "It doesn't matter much as far as she is concerned," she said, with contemptuous indifference, "really it would only be right if some one went and told Mr. Chadburn that he was crazy."

CHAPTER XXII

The evening was as lovely as the day had been, the deep purple-blue sky was cloudless, the full round "hunter's moon" hung in it like a golden ball. Also it was very warm. Had it not been for the fact that the would not have thrown the long window of the oak parlor wide open when he sat down before it to enjoy his after-dinner cigar.

"Perhaps Lady Marjorie was right, and he had not felt her indignation and scornful rejection of him with all its becoming degree of severity. For it must be conceded that he did not look depressed, and he clearly enjoyed his cigar. Had she seen him she would probably have denounced him as disgustingly unromantic, phlegmatic, and unresentful, and would have felt more resentful and injured than ever. And yet he was thinking about her, and of nothing else, but her.

"Poor little thing, she looked miserably pale and down this afternoon," he said. "Half alone, brushing away the cigar smoke as it floated before his eyes. 'Fritzing, I suppose, poor little darling. Little spitefire, if she didn't look such a baby with her big eyes, I should say serve her right!'" He laughed tenderly, the delinquent was very "easy to pardon. "And there's this idea about 'Fritzing' to bother her too. 'Coburn' that old woman. "What did she want to take such a notion into her head for? My lady the Countess has betrayed me, or I'm mistaken! But for that uncommonly lucky slip on the stairs it would have been very awkward—I hardly know what 'Fritzing' have done. Even as it is, I suppose, I've things on. It would be really suicide to have my little girl whisked off to Ireland. And there will be the governor down in a few days to muddle matters further. What is she doing, I wonder? Moping by herself somewhere, no doubt. I've a good mind to find her and write her a long, long letter of this. And if she tries to pay me any more compliments I'll take a lesson from my previous failure—I won't give her a chance. No more check, little lady! Not a word shall you say until you promise to be good to start with. I'll do as I can, I have done the other day if I hadn't been an idiot—stop your mouth!"

He rose and strolled towards the

FREE ADVICE TO SICK WOMEN

Thousands Have Been Helped By Common Sense Suggestions.

Women suffering from any form of female ill are invited to communicate promptly with the woman's private correspondence department of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; this has been established a confidential correspondence which has extended over many years and which has never been broken. Never have they published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to be used in any way, or placed in the hands of thousands of them in this way.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page "Text Book." It is not a book, but a course of instruction, so it is so valuable. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

On Getting Hurt

By RUTH CAMERON

A YOUNG woman was making arrangements to entertain a small group of her college-mates at a house party. "I'd like to invite Margaret," she said, regretfully as she went over the list with her mother, "but there really isn't any man I could invite for her, and it would be awkward to have her without, under the circumstances.

"Won't she be hurt if you leave her out?" asked the mother. "Thank goodness, no!" said the daughter, emphatically. "Most of the girls would, but Margaret is one of those people who don't get hurt. I guess she is too busy."

Doesn't that description make you think you would like to know Margaret, whoever she is? That was the effect it had upon me. I had never met the girl to whom my friends referred, nor even heard her name mentioned, but when I heard that characteristic "I feel my heart warm towards Margaret,"

"One of those people who don't get hurt,"—how many people do you know of whom you could confidently say that? Not many, I reckon.

Permitting one's self to get hurt over fancied slights or real grievances is too much of a luxury to the average person to be willingly dispensed with.

What some people would find to occupy their minds if they did not have grievances to nurse and slight to brood over I cannot imagine. I suppose they would be as unhappy as an unmarried woman I used to know. She had no children, no intellectual interests, and, as she boarded at a hotel, no household cares. She was crying down married life to me one day. "My dear," she said, "you can't imagine how bored I am with the whole thing. Why, Phil and I haven't even had a good quarrel for three months."

I suppose the people who take such pleasure in getting hurt are in much the same state of ennui when they cannot find a grievance.

The sensitiveness which makes its possessors continually fancy themselves slighted or hurt has too long been regarded as a kind of virtue, or at least the hall-mark of an artistic temperament. To me it is nothing but another name for self-centeredness and the hall-mark of an unoccupied mind. It is only people who have nothing to think about but themselves who are super-sensitive. The busy, unselfish people do not have time to wonder if they are being slighted.

Sensitiveness is a fine enough quality so long as you are sensitive to the right thing. Be as sensitive to beauty as you can. There is happiness in that for you. Fortunate indeed is the man who can say, "My heart leaps up when I behold a rainbow in the sky." Be as sensitive to the suffering of others as you can, but as for the palsy, self-pitying, self-centered sensitiveness that is forever "getting hurt," don't consider that a virtue, for it isn't. The virtue lies on the side of those people who, like Margaret, are too busy to feel it.
