

BRITISH TROOPS ARE IN FIGHT

BY SPECIAL WIRE TO THE COURIER

LONDON, Aug. 24, 2:35 p.m.—The official bureau of information to-day gave out the following announcement: "British forces were engaged all day Sunday and until after dark with the enemy in the neighborhood of Mons, Belgium. They held their grounds."

GREAT WAR MYSTERY IS BRITISH ARMY AND WHAT IT IS DOING

Remarkable Secrecy Has Enshrouded All its Movements—Regiments Were Moved Out in the Dead of Night—The Situation.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] LONDON, Aug. 24.—The great mystery of the war to English minds is the British expeditionary army. That a large force of British troops is on the Continent the public has every reason to believe. But the numbers of the field army its present position, which armaments they have, and the points from which they have sailed are points known only to the government. Several days ago the French government gave the papers a statement that 20,000 British troops had landed at Dunkirk and Calais and that the landing was managed by English-speaking French officers.

No English newspaper has printed a word about the movements of the troops. The newspapers are not submitted to any censorship before their publication, but the war office issues an occasional suggestion regarding the class of news that should not be published and the press has followed these instructions faithfully. To-night the watchful censorship over incoming telegrams cut from a Brussels message, passages which, judging from the contents, probably referred to the British forces. One important sentence apparently escaped the censor's eye, a reference to the three allied armies, in Belgium.

The news agency which referred the message, having Lord Kitchener's veto before it, did not send the message to the newspapers. Twenty thousand men of the regular army stationed in Ireland, embarked on transports at the port of Dublin last week. Steamers coming into Liverpool and other ports in the past few days, have encountered other ships going out with soldiers in khaki. It is the belief of experts that the majority of the British expeditionary force has already gone abroad, and that it is in Belgium ready for co-operation with the French and Belgians in the first great battle.

For foreign service the army has something like 150,000 or 160,000 men. Their places in the home line of defence is taken by the territorials, who under the terms of their enlistment, cannot be sent out of the country.

The secrecy with which the army has been sent abroad has led to a cloud of rumors. Circumstantial reports were current in London this week that many wounded British soldiers were being brought across the Channel. One of the most circumstantial in circulation yesterday was that wounded of the Black Watch had arrived in Southampton. The war office puts a quietus on reports of that character to-night by issuing a statement that they were wholly without foundation, and that the government would give to the public promptly the news of any successes or reverses of the British arms.

The war has brought no greater surprise to the British public than the efficiency with which the army has been mobilized. Political critics of the government harped so strongly on the alleged shortcomings of the war office, and the fact of it having had a philosopher of German leanings in the person of Lord Haldane, at the head of the department for a long time, that the public was prepared to see demoralization. They have not seen. Most of the mobilization has been effected by motor buses and has been done at night. The dislocation of the train service has been far less than any one anticipated. Late wayfarers on the London streets in the early hours of the morning have seen long processions of motor trucks packed with soldiers. The motor trucks have the advantage of being able to discharge their passengers at any spot desired and fast as troop trains.

GREAT BATTLE STILL GOES ON, SAYS OFFICIAL BULLETIN

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PARIS, Aug. 24, 10.15 a.m.—The following official announcement was made here to-day: "The great battle between the greater part of the forces of England and France against the bulk of the German army continues to-day."

"The mission of the English and the French is to hold virtually the entire German army in Belgium, while our Russian allies pursue their successes in the east."

"The Russians occupy territory fifty miles wide on the German frontier."

"After a great victory the Servians have made safe Austrian territory to the north of them."

CONFIRMED IN LONDON.

LONDON, Aug. 24, 10.26 a.m.—The French embassy this morning received a telegram from the Minister of Foreign Affairs at Paris, stating that contact had been established between the opposing forces all along the line, and up to the present without advantage to either side. The message confirmed the report that the German airship Zeppelin No. 8 had been destroyed and that there had been great Russian successes.

WAR SUMMARY TODAY

The great battle between the allied forces of Great Britain and France against the bulk of the invading German army continued again to-day, with no word as to whether a decisive result had been reached. Official information given out in London states that the British forces were engaged all day yesterday with the enemy in the neighborhood of Mons, Belgium. The British held their ground, according to an official statement.

The conflict between the allied forces and the Germans in Belgium extends along the complete line of contact, and the French embassy at London has received information that up to the present the battle has been without advantage to either side.

Reports were in circulation in Paris to-day that the Germans have occupied the unfortified town of Nancy, France.

The bombardment of Tsing-Tau, China, by a Japanese fleet has begun, according to the Yomato, which published an extra edition in Tokio to-day. The message giving news of the bombardment was passed by the navy department censor at Tokio.

The German troops, according to reports from Upper Alsace, are making another offensive movement against the French army, which is occupying Muelhausen and vicinity.

The Russians, according to Paris reports, now occupy territory fifty miles wide on the German frontier.

A Vienna report filtering through Udine, Italy, says that the Austrians are about to abandon their operations against the Servians on the Drina River in order to concentrate their forces against the Russian advance.

The agreement of Austria to dismantle her cruiser, the Kaiserin Elizabeth, now at Tsing-Tau, has removed the danger of war between Japan and Austria, according to diplomatic information in Washington to-day.

The Standard Oil Company, United States Steel Corporation, and the United Fruit Company, have notified the United States Government that their fleets will be put under the American flag.

Japanese war moves in the Far East are proceeding under sphinx-like silence of the officers of the army and navy. Communication between Japan and China has been severed for 24 hours and it is believed the cable between Shanghai and Nagasaki has been cut.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States arrived in New York to-day, denounced as false the reports that the German Crown Prince, Frederick William, had been shot either in the streets of Berlin or in the battle at Liege. Only 5,000 or 6,000 German soldiers were engaged in the assault upon Liege, says Count Bernstorff.

A despatch to The Associated Press from Berlin by wireless telegraph has brought startling news of German victories over the French.

Official announcement is made in the German capital that a German army has defeated a French army at Neuchateau, capturing guns and prisoners, including several generals. The Germans are pursuing the French vigorously, in one case beyond Longwy.

Another German army captured 150 French guns in the French department of Meurthe and Moselle.

The Germans are reported west of the River Meuse, advancing against Maubeuge. They have defeated an English brigade of cavalry.

UHLANS AT OSTEND

But the Situation Appears Much Better—Belgians Still Fight.

UHLANS

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

PARIS, Aug. 24.—Three hundred locomotives from the railroads of Belgium were brought to Paris to-day to prevent their being used by the Germans.

A despatch to the Havas Agency from Ostend states that although the presence of Uhlans is reported in many places, the situation appears much better. Communication is being maintained as far as Alost, fifteen miles northwest of Brussels.

A traveller who tried to return to Brussels got to Hombek, nine miles north of the capital, where he reports Belgian cavalry had just annihilated a patrol party of Uhlans who were covering the passage of a body of German troops to Grimberghen, a village of six miles northeast of Brussels. The traveller said that he saw the bodies of five Uhlans at the railway station.

Sir Adam Beck is buying two thousand horses in Ontario for the British Army.

Bertrand C. Dye, an engineer, and Leslie Ede lost their lives in the lake at the foot of Beech avenue, Toronto.

THOUSANDS OF AUSTRIANS WERE LOST

REPORT CONTINUES.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Aug. 24.—An Exchange Telegraph Company despatch from Nish, referring to the Servian victory on the Drina, says the Servian artillery sunk a number of the enemy's boats, including eight transports carrying troops.

The despatch says the Austrians are massing on the banks of the Drina, and preparing for a desperate attempt to regain lost ground.

REPORT CONTINUES.

LONDON, Aug. 24, 4.50 p.m.—Refugees coming from Germany state, according to the Evening Standard, that reports persist there that Crown Prince Frederick William is dead. This is the latest of a series of reports representing that the heir to the throne had been stabbed by a Socialist, had been wounded in battle, and other stories of a similar character.

BRITISH WAR OFFICE ISSUES A WARNING AGAINST OPTIMISM

Nothing Like a Great Battle Has Been Fought Yet and Struggle is Expected to be Long and Tremendously Hard One.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, AUG. 24.—AFTER NEARLY THREE WEEKS OF MOBILIZATION THE BATTLE OF GIANTS HAS BEGUN ROUGHLY SPEAKING THE GERMAN ARMY IS TRYING TO WORK AROUND THE ALLIES' FLANK IN BELGIUM, WHILE THE FRENCH ARE ATTEMPTING TO APPLY THE SAME PROCESS TO THE GERMANS IN ALSACE.

ALMOST ALL THE ENCOUNTERS WHICH HAVE GONE BEFORE HAVE BEEN MERE RECONNAISSANCES. THE DEFEAT OF A REGIMENT HERE AND THERE HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED AS A GREAT VICTORY BUT IN THIS GRAPPLE OF HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS MOST OF THESE AFFAIRS HAVE HAD NO SIGNIFICANCE.

THE OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM BOTH SIDES HAVE BEEN EXTREMELY CANDID THUS FAR. FROM THE STANDPOINT OF THE ALLIES THE IMPORTANT FEATURE IN SATURDAY'S DEVELOPMENTS IS THE GREAT BATTLE WHICH BEGAN IN THE MORNING ON THE NAMUR-CHARLEROI LINE. THIS IS BEING FOUGHT ON THE POSITION CHOSEN BY THE ALLIES.

A GERMAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT SAYS THAT TROOPS UNDER THE COMMAND OF THE CROWN PRINCE OF BAVARIA, FIGHTING BETWEEN METZ AND VOSGES, TOOK 10,000 PRISONERS AND FIFTY GUNS. IT ADDS THAT THE FRENCH TROOPS OPPOSING THE GER-MANS COMPRISED EIGHT ARMY CORPS.

AN OFFICIAL BRITISH STATEMENT EXPLAINS CALMLY THAT NOTHING RESEMBLING A GREAT BATTLE HAS BEEN FOUGHT AS YET, AND WARNS THE PEOPLE AGAINST OPTIMISM.

REPORTS FROM THE AUSTRIAN-SERVIAN BOUNDARY SAYS THE SERVIANS HAVE WON A BATTLE ON THE DRINA WHICH MILITARY EXPERTS CONSIDER HIGHLY PROBABLE, AS THE SERVIANS HAVE A COMPARATIVELY SMALL ARMY, BUT ONE WHICH HAS PASSED THROUGH TWO YEARS OF ACTUAL WAR AND THEREFORE HAS THE ADVANTAGE OF VETERANS FIGHTING AGAINST AMATEURS.

FROM THE RUSSIAN BOUNDARY CONFLICTING REPORTS COME BOTH SIDES CLAIMING SUCCESS.

THE ENGLISH PAPERS ARE WARNING THE PEOPLE THAT THE WAR IS ONLY BEGINNING AND THAT THEY MUST BE PREPARED FOR A LONG STRUGGLE WHICH WILL TAX THE RESOURCES AND MANHOOD OF THE NATION TO THE UTMOST LIMIT. WHILE APPRECIATING ALL THAT THE COLONIES HAVE DONE THEY EXPECT THE COLONIES WITH THE POPULATION OF CANADA AND AUSTRALIA TO CONTRIBUTE MUCH MORE IN MEN AND MONEY TO THE EMPIRE THAN THEY HAVE YET DONE.

FRENCH WOUNDED ARE MERRY LOT, ARE EAGER TO RETURN TO BATTLE

Presidential Palace and all Hotels in Paris are Converted into Hospitals—Thousands Return From the Front.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

VICHEY, via Paris, Aug. 24—6.05 a.m.—The presidential palace and all the hotels have been converted into hospitals and are now filled with wounded. All branches of the service are represented, the patients including artillery, infantrymen, chasseurs, dragons and hussars.

They are a cheerful lot for men who have been carried from the fighting line and delight to tell stories of the battlefield. Many make light of their wounds, joke about their experiences and all are said to be anxious to go back to the field.

"Isn't that hard luck," said one with four bullets in his thighs, "to have hooked all four. Still perhaps that may mean three comrades left in the fighting."

Another was greatly exercised for fear that the fragment of a shell which had struck his arm had obliterated a tattooed butterfly of which he was proud.

A gunner, who was in the battle of the Bonhomme Pass, told this story of a comrade: "He was a marvellous pointer and got the bull's eye every time, but they got him at last. His legs were crushed, but he asked to be carried to another gun point for one last shot."

In the court at one of the hospitals, three infantrymen with their heads swathed in bandages were found with bullets extracted from their wounds. "They don't roll as well as agates," said one with a grin, "but in times of war one must not be too particular."

Local chauffeurs have received a call for fifty men to go to the front. The Queen's Own Rifles, Royal Grenadiers and the Engineers Corps left for Valcartier camp.

Land Fighting Is Very Severe

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Ostend correspondent of The Daily Mail says that the German columns are marching southward toward Valenciennes on the Scheldt, 31 miles southeast of Lille, one proceeding by way of Ninove, Grammont, and Lessines, Belgium and the other going by way of Hal, Braine-Le-Comte and Mons, Belgium. They are moving with great speed. Further northwest advanced parties have appeared and done damage successively at Thiel and Lichtervelde. It is suggested that this means a dash upon Roubaix, one of the wealthiest of French towns, or upon Lille. In that case the movement toward Valenciennes probably would be an encircling one.

CAN'T BEAT THEM LONDON, Aug. 24.—A Times despatch from St. Petersburg says that military observers there have made a careful compilation of the distribution of the German forces on both frontiers, from which they gain the belief that it is not possible for the Germans to overcome the allied forces on the western frontier at vital points. The Russians believe there are no Austrian corps in the west.

Regarding the Austrian forces opposed to the Russian advance, they may be said to comprise the whole army except the units engaged on the Servian and Montenegrin borders.

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 24, via London, 12 noon.—According to the best information obtainable here the disposition of the German forces in Belgium is broadly as follows:

The right flank, occupying the

Paris News

PARIS, August 21.—The funeral of Daisy May Tapp, the beloved wife of Albert Loveys, took place this afternoon, the service being held in St. James church and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Latimer of Brantford. The deceased was born at Ilminster, Somersetshire, England in the year 1882, and was married in 1907 to Albert Loveys. Four years ago they came to Canada and have resided in Paris ever since. About two years ago she was taken with acute pleurisy, and for the last three months has been confined to her bed. Mrs. Loveys was of a bright and lovable disposition and bore her illness with Christian resignation. A husband and little daughter, a Mr. and Mrs. F. Drake, J. Harkness, J. Carter, Sidney Ward, W. Any employee of Penmans Limited enlisting will have his position secured for him on his return from service.

Nearly every day some one is up before Magistrate Patterson for riding on the sidewalk, or for having their dogs unmuzzled. Sinclair Knill was ordered to destroy his dog on account of its troubling the neighbors.

The people at Paris Junction are very anxious to open up a Sunday school in that neighborhood. A meeting will be held Tuesday evening in the Baptist mission house. All interested are cordially invited to attend. It is hoped there will be a good turnout for such a worthy cause.

In February last a man and woman named Garhart of Princeton, were up before Magistrate Elmes for not looking after their children properly. They were later taken over by the Children's Aid Society, and the couple were to pay 75c and 50c a week respectively towards their keep, but failed to do so. They were up again before the magistrate and now have paid up in full, and have given security for future payments.

The following building permits have been issued, John Flanagan, for $167, verandah to be put on his house at Willow street; George Wooler, for a house in West River St. at $300; F. R. AUSTRIA MUST FIGHT RUSSIA FOR EXISTENCE

Troops Against Serbia are Withdrawn for Battle With Russian Forces.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Aug. 24.—According to the Times' Venice correspondent, the official telegraph agency in Vienna publishes the following official notice on the Austro-Serbian situation: "On account of the Russian intervention in the Serbian war, Austria is forced to gather all its forces for the principal struggle in the northeast. Consequently the attack on Serbia is henceforth looked upon as a punitive expedition and not as definite war. The decision therefore has been reached to retire from the offensive and take a waiting attitude, making a fresh attack when opportunity presents itself. The considerable losses sustained by Austria on the banks of the Drina are not surprising in view of the superiority of the numbers of the enemy and the fact that the latter are fighting for their existence."

Artillery of the French is Very Effective

PARIS, Aug. 25, 9.35 a.m.—The Matin to-day quotes a German prisoner at Montpelier as follows: "Your French artillery is admirable. It destroyed in a few minutes entrenchments which we spent three days in making. The greater part of our men were killed, while others rushed to the rear with frightened cries as if some supernatural forces had intervened against them. "I am glad to be a prisoner; it is better than being under the yoke of German officers."

GERMANY SAY THEY GAINED GREAT VICTORY

A Despatch Which Came Through American Wireless Station.

BERLIN Aug. 24 (by wireless telegraph from Nauen Germany to Sayville Long Island)—Official announcement was made here to-day that the German army commanded by Grand Duke Albrecht of Wuertemberg had defeated a French army at Neuchateau.

It captured many guns and prisoners including several generals. German armies under Rupprecht, Crown Prince William and Grand Duke Albrecht are vigorously pursuing the French.

The army under Rupprecht captured 150 guns at Luneville Blamont and Cirey (in the French department of Meurthe and Moselle).

The army commanded by the Crown Prince pursued the French beyond Longwy.

The Germans are west of the river Meuse and advancing against Manbeuge. They have defeated an English brigade of cavalry.

Lawn Tennis

Brantford defaulted to Tillsonburg on Saturday for the championship of this division, which had they won would have entitled them to compete in the Western Ontario championship. As they were one of the most powerful clubs in the group, their action is to be regretted.

Tillsonburg will now have to play off a deciding match with Delhi for the honor of appearing in the championships at London.

The Brantfordites have been badly dealt with by fate lately, for they have lost two of their best men in T. P. Jones, who has gone to fight his country's battles, and F. McArthur, who has taken up his residence in Calgary. E. C. Gould has been out of the city, and did not feel fit for court work on Saturday, and in view of the weakened state of the team it was not deemed advisable to continue the championship contests, and thus Brantford has dropped its zeal in the tourney.

The German forces suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of the Russians in east Prussia.

How Belgians Drove Germans Back at Liege

[By Special Wire to the Courier] PARIS, Aug. 24—9.30 a.m.—The Petit Journal published the following details of the fighting around Liege, obtained by it from a Belgian officer.

German troops rushed on the barbed wire defenses before the forts of Liege in the darkness of night. A very strong current of electricity was being maintained in these wires and as a result the first ranks of the Germans were electrocuted.

Unchecked, the assailants followed in masses, but they were blinded by the glare of powerful searchlights. They hesitated and started to retire. At that moment a heavy fire of rifles and artillery was concentrated on the mass of German troops and they were cut to pieces. The mass of bodies

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 24.—J. T. Lidgow, Canadian trade commissioner at Rotterdam, Holland, has cabled the department of trade and commerce that Holland has seized all the wheat in the warehouses and on ships in Dutch waters. It is believed the seizures include a large amount of Canadian wheat. No explanation is given.

Japan declared war on Germany, the latter having failed to reply to the ultimatum.

THE SITUATION

News thus far from the front has had a reassuring tendency, but it will not do to become too optimistic. There will be much terrible fighting yet and many reverses, of that there need be no doubt. The first authentic description as to the nature of the German forces, has been sent from Brussels by Richard Harding Davis, a well-known author and war correspondent. He states that the uniform of the German soldier is his strongest weapon. It is grey, not green grey, nor blue grey, but the grey of the hour just before daybreak. He states that at one hundred yards, one can see the horses on which the Germans ride, but not the men—in the mass, the detachments look like a moving fog. For seven hours the army passed in such solid column that not once might a taxi cab or trolley car pass through the city. They were still coming when he retired and also when he awoke. He adds, "I have followed in campaigns six armies, but I have not seen one so thoroughly equipped. Like a river of steel it flowed, grey and ghostlike. Then, as dusk came and as thousands of horses' hoofs and thousands of iron boots continued to tramp forward they struck tiny sparks from the stones, but the horses and the men who beat out the sparks were invisible." This reference to what Mr. Davis says, and he is a man of proved reliability, is not to create a feeling of alarm, but to show the enormous task which confronts Great Britain, France and Russia. The job which must be done will not prove any walkover—that is certain.

As far as the Kaiser and his plans are concerned, it is very evident that he miscalculated in these essentials—
 1. That he could depend on the Triple Alliance. Italy still remains out on the basis of neutrality.
 2. That there would be an easy march through Belgium and a speedy investment of Paris.
 3. That internal strife in Great Britain with two well armed opposing forces in Ireland, would bar a solid front on the part of John Bull.
 In each of these instances, he has been mistaken—egregiously mistaken.

DURATION OF THE WAR.

The Courier is not inclined to the belief that the present war will be of long duration, quite possibly not more than three or four months. This is only a lay opinion, of course, but even a layman without regard to military tactics can realize that two of the most important factors in connection with any big general contest are money and food.

How does the German Empire compare in these respects?
 She undoubtedly was well prepared from a monetary standpoint, but certainly not for any long drawn out period. How could she with the daily terrible war drain and with practically all the sources stopped which make for and conserve wealth?

As to food she is in an even more perilous position. Her men have been taken wholesale from the fields as well as the factories, and husbandry there is at a standstill. She is shut off from her domestic products on the one hand and from her large food importations from Russia and other foreign countries on the other hand. Moreover, the British navy has thus far held all her sea route in check, while her own are protected. It takes regular and sufficient sustenance to maintain the strength and the endurance of soldiers subject to long marches and strenuous work. With millions under arms that is going to be a task which cannot be sustained to any extreme extent.

Meanwhile the Kaiser has not only gambled all at one stroke—his army, his navy, his continued possession of Alsace and Lorraine, his possessions in the Far East and the national existence and autonomy of his country, but he has also seriously jeopardized German trade for very many years to come. "Made in Germany" has for a long time been a common imprint on goods sold in the Old Land. How many will there be after this conflict is over?
 Incidentally it might be remarked that the United Kingdom last year was a purchaser of commodities from the Fatherland to no less an amount than $350,000,000.

THE PASSING OF THE WAR CORRESPONDENT.

The day of the war correspondent is practically over—that is the close range correspondent. His class will always be on hand in connection with any hostilities, and they are picked and fearless men all of them, but in these latter times he generally has to remain at a specified distance and then even what he can glean is strictly censored.

It was Japan, in her war with Russia, who first drew the cordon so tightly around the men of the Fourth Estate. The reasons are many and obvious. It is not well in war to let the other fellow know what you are up to, and undesirable divulgence in that regard has, and might wreak much harm.

For many years previously correspondents were right on the firing line, sharing all the hardships and dangers. Many a brave scribe was killed and many others wounded. The most famous pioneer in this class of work was the late Archibald Forbes. Born in 1830, he was educated at Aberdeen University, and then entered the Royal Dragoons. In 1870-71, he went through the Franco-German war as war correspondent for the London Daily News. Thenceforward, whether in Spain with the Carlists, in Cyprus in the Russo-Turkish campaign or in the Zulu war of 1879, he accustomed the British public to expect feats of unexampled audacity, swiftness, tact and pluck in securing and transmitting his vivid first hand notes of events at the front to his newspaper. A memorable exploit was his famous ride over rough ground of 110 miles in fifteen hours, in order to report at once the victory of Ulundi in 1879.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Russians have started in well. Pray heaven that they can keep it up.

Great Britain and France have agreed to advance the Belgians $100,000,000 to help her face war necessities. They gloriously earned every cent of such a recognition.

The Japs have long waited a chance to get the Germans out of China Sea territory, and they'll attend to the job in good shape. Kiau-Chau will be a snap alongside of getting Port Arthur from the Russians.

The imposing scenes at the closing of the Dominion House session were quite in keeping with the splendid and the unanimous spirit with which all the members rose to the necessities of the cause of a great Empire.

U. S. NEUTRAL

A Proclamation Will be Issued Covering War Between Japan and Germany.

[By Special Wire to The Courier.] WASHINGTON, Aug. 24—Administration officials to-day were preparing a proclamation setting forth the neutrality of the United States during hostilities between Japan and Germany in the Far East. Lines of the proclamations issued after the several European powers declared war were to be followed.

Japan's entry into the list of warring nations was not unexpected in Washington and the position of United States had been outlined several days ago in a note by Secretary Bryan. It announced that the United States "noted with satisfaction" that Japan promised to maintain China's integrity and to restore to her Kiaochow, and that Japan pledged herself to the maintenance of the "open door" in China with equal commercial opportunity for all the powers.

Great Britain's assurances to the United States that Japan's martial activities would be confined to Eastern Asia and the China Sea were reiterated by the Ambassador of Japan when he gave formal notice of Japan's declaration of war on Germany.

With the Americans finding an avenue of exit from the European war zone, it appeared unlikely to-day that the German Government's offer of steamers for the use of refugees would be accepted.

ZEPPELINS OF LITTLE USE
 PARIS, Aug. 24.—Zeppelin airships of which the Germans expected great things, appear as yet to have been inoffensive, according to opinion in the French capital. Of the fifteen Zeppelin units one is believed to have been disabled by the fire of the Liege forts on August 6, and another was disabled in a shed at Metz by the French aviator Finck. Two others have been seen by Belgian aviators, apparently wrecked by wind squalls, in the forest between Meaz and Aix-La-Chapelle. Another has been brought down at Badonviller, near Luneville. Of the remainder, two are supposed to be on the Russian frontier and the others at Cologne, Hamburg and Kiel and on the French frontier.

Servians Got 4,500 Prisoners

NISH, Servia, Aug. 24, via London 11.25 a.m.—Servia has issued a reply to the official communication on the Austro-Servian situation issued at Vienna. After repeating the main points of the Austrian note the Servian communication says:

"In order to put matters in their proper light the official press bureau has been authorized by the highest authorities to issue the following:
 "The Servian army captured from the enemy in the engagement at Irina spoils which up to the present time include ten items:
 "Four thousand five hundred prisoners 53 guns, 8 howitzers, 114 caissons, three field ambulances and a medical column with supplies; 14 field kitchens, 15 ammunition wagons, provision and telegraph wagons, railroad trains, quantities of equipment, regimental strong boxes, etc."

FIELD BATTERY AT GRACE CHURCH

Men Awaiting Orders Any Minute for the Front, Attend Devine Service

In a masterly manner the Ven. Archdeacon Mackenzie at Grace Church yesterday morning gave a review of the method of conquering the world, used by our Lord Jesus Christ as compared with that used by the war lords of to-day.

The one was symbolized by meekness and patience and peace, while the other was that of war with all its barbarity, debts, horrors and folly.

Taking for his text the 21st chapter of St. Matthew, 5th verse, the rev. gentleman dwelt upon the entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem, as it was then, representing the Church of Christ. He entered upon an ass, the animal of peace, and with Him were his disciples, bearing palm branches. The whole scene awes one of meekness. This was his chief characteristic, and he brought a message. This was a new kind of king. It was not what the people had been expecting. He did not arrive on a charger with armed warriors. He was not a man of physical strength, and He was not a man of war. Yet He had conquered the world by a means of gentleness and meekness and a patience.

Violence as a means of conquering was brutal, as evidence the examples which we were witnessing every day. It was an un-Christian way of settling a dispute.

Napoleon was one of the greatest war lords of creation, yet where did he end his days? One might think, said the speaker, that there was more sentiment than experience in his words, but war was incompatible with Christianity, and the strength of the Christian religion lay in the observance of Christ's teachings and the following of his examples.

There was only one means of conquering the world, and the evils of covetousness, and that was by the meekness of Christ and Christian churches all over the world stand as a monument to that belief.

War was the home of unconquered lust and unbridled selfishness. It came from the hell of evil passions. Some believe it will leave in its wake an epoch of peace. God grant that this be so. When the end did come the world would learn terrible lessons. It would realize the barbarism, the debt and the folly of war.

The spirit of war was absolutely contrary to that of Christianity. The two were incompatible, and the one could not co-exist with the other. The one destroyed the other preserves in the course of many centuries men were learning so.

He was proud of the British ministers in the capital. They had done all that diplomacy could suggest, and they would make every sacrifice short of dishonor to keep their treaty with neighboring nations, and therefore could pray with confidence and with comfort. The speaker was pleased with the public response to the prayers. It showed their earnestness and desire for peace.

Although we pray for peace, the cause is just, and we may continue to pray with a hope that the conflict soon be ended.

Let us pray that the nations at war be providently delivered from the strife which now proceeds. Let us pray for the friends who have gone to the front, and for the salvation of those who are cut down already.

Let us pray that not only our army but also that of our enemy be delivered by the King of Peace, who will restore peace between the nations.

From One Who Will Co-operate.

WHY JAPAN LAUNCHED IN PRESENT WAR

Imperial Rescript Issued at Tokio Gives Reason for Declaration.

[By Special Wire to The Courier.] TOKIO Aug. 23.—The text of the Imperial rescript is as follows: "Issued at Tokio, August 23rd, 6 p.m.:

"We, by the grace of Heaven Emperor of Japan, seated on the throne occupied by the same dynasty from time immemorial, do hereby make the following proclamation to all our loyal and brave subjects:

"We hereby declare war against Germany and we command our army and navy to carry on hostilities against that empire with their strength and we also command all of our competent authorities to make every effort, in pursuance of their respective duties to attain the national aim by all means within the limits of the law of nations.

"Since the outbreak of the present war in Europe, calamitous effect of which we view with grave concern, we on our part have entertained hopes of preserving peace of the Far East by the maintenance of strict neutrality, but the action of Germany has at length compelled Great Britain, our ally, to open hostilities against that country and Germany is at Kiau-Chow, its leased territory in China, busy with warlike preparations, while its armed vessels cruising the seas of eastern Asia are threatening our commerce and that of our ally. Peace of the Far East is thus in jeopardy.

"Accordingly our government that of his Britannic majesty, after full and frank communication with each other agreed to take such measures as may be necessary for the protection of the general interests contemplated in the agreement of alliance and we on our part being desirous to attain that object by peaceful means commanded our government to offer with sincerity an advice to the Imperial German government. By the last day appointed for the purpose, however, our government failed to receive an answer accepting their advice. It is with profound regret that we, in spite of our ardent devotion to the cause of peace are thus compelled to declare war, especially at this early period of our reign, and while we are still mourning for our lamented mother.

"It is our earnest wish that by the loyalty and valour of our faithful subjects, peace may soon be restored and the glory of the empire be enhanced."

Not a Defeat But a Rout

LONDON Aug. 24, 4.35 a.m.—A despatch to The Times from St. Petersburg which followed the first reports of Russian successes in East Prussia says:

"It is not a defeat, but a rout. Continuing their pursuit of the Germans the Russians occupied Solda, thirteen miles southwest of Neidenburg whence they command the railway to Danzig."

PRIZE COURTS ESTABLISHED.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—5 a.m.—According to the correspondent of Reuters Telegram Company at Melbourne, prize courts have been established in all the states of the Australian commonwealth. The correspondent adds that nearly 800 Germans have been naturalized in Australia, since Aug. 1. The average monthly total of naturalizations, he says, is fewer than 70.

Bear Bravely Says Writer to Nation

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

PARIS Aug. 24, 10.30 a.m.—Alfred Capus, the Academician, writing in The Figaro this morning in a vein which is common in all Paris newspapers says:

"Now that a million men are clashing the ground on the same battlements; now that in a few days time the first knot is going to be cut, public opinion ought to be concentrated on this event and its consequences. It should not allow itself to be influenced by episodes, no matter how thrilling or pathetic may be. All these become of secondary importance in comparison to the prodigious happenings of the battle in Belgium which is now looked for from one moment to another.

"Let us therefore, no longer dissipate our emotion. It might be that at a given time we should no longer be able to control it. During these terrible times, let us force ourselves not to think of our victory in Muelhausen nor of our check in Lorraine.
 "We are told that the Zeppelin Airship No. 8 has been brought down. So much the better, but this means only one engine less in the hands of the barbarians. That is no longer a cause of patriotic exaltation.
 "I should like also to ignore the German atrocities; I do not want to read any more of these heartrending stories in the newspapers.
 "These are the reflections it is our duty to make to-day."

ANARCHY IN ALBANIA

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Venice correspondent of The Daily Mail sends the report that Prince William of Albania, accompanied by his family, has arrived at Brindisi, en route for Germany, and that Albania is in a state of complete anarchy.

A good time was spent in games and contests and the happy event concluded with the oncoming darkness.

An Austrian Fallacy

The Austrians of this city are beginning to feel the pinch of the financial stringency, now that the war has to some extent precipitated matters. These men have a habit of sending all their earnings to their motherland, where it is banked for them and now they find they have nothing left at home. American Doctor Tells of the Wonderful Spirit of the French People.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] PARIS, Aug. 24.—Dr. A. J. Carrel, of the Rockefeller Institute for medical research of New York, was about to leave for the United States, but at the outbreak of war he cancelled his departure and is now in charge of a big hospital, where the French wounded are treated. Writing to a friend of the war, he says: "France has been transformed in miraculous fashion. Individuals themselves have changed. I could never believe it, had I not seen it with my own eyes. Most perfect order prevails and enthusiasm grows daily. I am more and more convinced that the men are animated with that spirit that can never be vanquished. I am seeing men ready literally to give their blood for transfusions to wounded soldiers. Already I have secured a doctor to an attorney and hope soon to have several others."

HORSES POISONED

Pro-Germans Are Suspected of an Outrage Reported at Beaton.

What looks like the dastardly attempt of a certain element among the pro-German foreign sympathizers in the county was brought to light on Saturday, when several horses bought by the Government from farmers for use in the cavalry and artillery were found poisoned in their stables on Saturday morning. The poisoning was not confined to one stable, but farmers coming to the city to-day report that several farms near Beaton where horses had been sold to the Government were visited by the poisoners. The Government has been notified, and the provincial police will investigate.

GROGERS' ACTION

Will Not Stop Credit, But Will Guard Against Any Imposition.

A conference of the local retail grocers and butchers will be held on Tuesday night to consider the question of giving or not giving credit during the present crisis. According to one well known member of the retail association, there will be no such thing done as the stopping of all credit, but every step that can be taken to stop operations of the "deadbeats." In other words a black list will be formed by which deadbeats will be stopped from obtaining goods by jumping from one merchant to another. The man who is known to be honest and is endeavoring to pay his way will be given credit as formerly, stated the retailer.

Now on Display in Brantford for the First Time.

Brought Here Through the Enterprise of a Local Firm. "The Village Blacksmith" was painted in a blacksmith shop at Lyons, France, in 1893, with the brawny smith and his workshop as a model. The reproduction on canvas in all its details, faithfully correct in all its details, standing by his forge amid a blaze of light is the blacksmith, the white heat of the flame reflecting on his pale features and silver locks, his stout arms rosy in the leaping firelight. One mighty hand grasps the handle of the bellows; the anvil and other implements of his craft are grouped about him. The canvas is 7 x 8 feet, and portrays every detail with a lifelike distinctness. When it was brought to America it was first exhibited in Wanamaker's in Philadelphia. It has since been exhibited in that city five times. It has travelled over 70,000 miles and has been seen and enjoyed by over 12,000,000 people. This superb example of artistic skill, the masterpiece of a genius, is now exhibited in the store of Messrs. E. B. Crompton & Company in the same manner as it was shown in the Grand Salon in Paris and other art galleries of the old world. All are invited to share in the enjoyment of the exhibit, which is entirely complimentary.

ALL THREE SONS ARE OFF FOR THE FRONT

Lt. Col. A. J. Wilkes and Mrs. Wilkes of this city, will have all their three sons at the front.

Bertram, now studying medicine, has joined the Army Medical Corps.

Hilton, who was studying law with his father, volunteered with the detachment of Dragoons, which recently left the city.

Now word has been received from Ransom, that he has enlisted for the front. He is a student at Oxford University, England, and writes that he has joined the Motor Cycle corps there for active army service.

Three from one family and neither destined for a military career, is certainly a memorable incident of which not alone the parents, but citizens generally, can feel proud.

Intercessory Prayers

Short Service Every Morning This Week Which is Open to All Denominations.

Archdeacon Mackenzie announced at Grace Church yesterday morning that intercessory services would be held every morning at the church at 10.30. He did not ask for large numbers, but rather for those whose friends had gone to the front. There would be no sermon and no psalms or singing, simply devout prayer. Grace Church would be always open for those who desired to pray. The reverend gentleman announced that he had received a form of intercession service for soldiers of the army and sailors of the navy. It would be used next Sunday at 11 o'clock and there would be no sermon. The form of intercessory service had been sent to all churches of the Empire and would be generally used next Sunday.

The speaker mentioned the fact that St. Paul's Cathedral of London had been packed on the occasion of an intercession day and, although service continued throughout the day, thousands of people were turned away from the Cathedral as they could not obtain a position inside.

entire territory immediately south of Antwerp, is moving southwest in the direction of Lille. A second force is moving on Maubege, 50 miles southwest of Lille, in the department of Nord, and a third is occupied with the reduction of the Namur forts, which consist of nine defences of steel and concrete surrounding the city. It is estimated that these three columns together comprise nearly a quarter of a million men.

The main northern German army is advancing slowly with its front extending from Givet, France, to Diedenhofen, in Lorraine. The French defences from La Fere to Rheims are thought to be the objective of this army, which is believed to number 300,000 men.

The main body to the south is directing its efforts upon the Verdun-Nancy line of defences, and now occupies Strassburg. Travellers returning here from Germany, say that troop movements in the western part of the empire have subsided considerably, and that the mobilization evidently has been achieved. The railroads are now principally occupied with the transportation of munitions of war.

Most of these are passing through Dusseldorf, Coblenz, Mainz and Rastatt.

STILL ATTACK LIEGE. LONDON, Aug. 24, 12.05 p.m.—In a despatch from Rotterdam the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that after many days of quiet, sounds of the vigorous bombardment of Liege reached the frontier near Maescause a certain man evidently believes that he rules by Divine right, but the only Divine right in the world was the divine right of every man to rule himself. By franchise, we extend this right to others who rule by the people's right over a certain section of people.

A comparison might be made between Emperor William and Napoleon. Both evidently believed that they were destined to rule Europe, but there was this much to be said in favor of Emperor William, he was to an extent more human and would not be so impervious to the shedding of blood as was Napoleon.

The second reason we are at war, declared Mr. Gordon, was because the burden of militarism could be borne no longer, and the third reason was because Britain always keeps her word with her allies. The fourth and greatest reason for Britain, being at war was that self government and democracy were at stake. In the midst of all this confusion, we should keep our hearts free from hatred. We are bound to the Germans by industry and literature. We should feel as sorrowful for their devastated homes as for our own. This was no time for panic or jingoism. Jingoism is always the product of the tavern and the product of the tavern is never very strong. Mr. Gordon then pointed out that the German Empire was combatting the the law of human progress and would inevitably fall by his so doing. One good thing the war would do, was to teach us something that we were fast forgetting, the fact that privileges of freedom cost something. We are already paying the price now in the sending of our sons and brothers to the front, and in the industrial depression.

In conclusion, Rev. Mr. Gordon exhorted his congregation to pray the prayer of Gethsemane, "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from us, nevertheless not my will but Thine be done."

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Wood

The death occurred at an early hour Sunday morning of Margaret Jane Kitchen, beloved wife of Wm. A. Wood, 257 Clarence street, in the 63rd year of her age, after a lingering illness. She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Jackson, Sherwood, Oregon, and Luella at home. The funeral will take place Wednesday to Greenwood cemetery.

Great discomfort resulted from the temperature of 83, with excessive humidity.

British in St. Petersburg Toasted

LONDON, August 22.—A correspondent, writing from St. Petersburg on the night when war was declared on the Russian capital.

The writes—"Officers and Reservemen proceeding to their appointed places were everywhere greeted with frantic cheering mingled with cries of 'Down with the Germans!' and waving of caps.

An impressive open-air religious service for victory was held at 10 o'clock last night in front of the Cathedral. The great St. Isaac's Cathedral, with masses of bare-headed people, with clergy and flags grouped before the central altar and a vast crowd stretching down Ludgate-hill to Fleet-street, all cheering, intoning the National Hymn, and at intervals cheering, you will have some idea of what a gathering was like.

Czar's Blessing. This afternoon there were prayers in the Winter Palace at St. Petersburg, in the presence of the Court officers of the army and navy. The Majesties came into the town train at three o'clock.

An immense crowd of probably 20,000 to 30,000 people gathered in wide, open space in front of the palace and remained bare-headed looking up at the Palace windows at the Emperor and Empress, her Majesty being dressed in white, appearing on the balcony.

Tremendous cheering and the waving of hats and handkerchiefs continued for a long time, while the Majesties most graciously bowed acknowledgements. The vast assemblage then went on their knees, and Czar several times made the sign of the Cross.

Within the Palace the ceremony was even more imposing. His Majesty at the end of the church service gave his blessing to all military and naval officers present, and declared that he would not make peace so long as a single enemy remained on Russian soil.

"No Cossacks and No Police." The monster procession carried with it the gorgeously jewelled of Smolensk, which accompanied troops against Napoleon.

There were other processions for the Winter Palace. The hand in hand with the Czarina, greeted the crowd. Their Majesties dined were also on the balcony. There were no Cossacks, no soldiers, gendarmes, and no police.

The press, who were dressed in white, kissed her handkerchief and kissed hands. Among the processions one of poor peasants, headed by portraits of the Empress and the Emperor, with paper flowers.

Hymns were sung by the choir.

BEAVERS WON FROM RED SOX

Took the Final Game of Series by Score of Six to Two.

The Beavers won the final game of the series from Brantford on Saturday by the score of 6 to 2. Kirley keeping the visitors' hits well scattered, while Nichols was hit hard and timely, Trout, with three hits and as many runs to his credit, featured the game outside of Kirley's heating. The score:

A GREAT RACE IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York and Boston Are Now Tied for the Leadership.

The National League is having the closest race in its history, as every one of the clubs, with the possible exception of Brooklyn, have still a chance for the pennant. The Giants have had it fairly easy for the last three years, but in 1910 all fandom was patching the close race between Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York, the latter tossing away the pennant when Merkle pulled his famous 'bone.'

This morning the fan finds New York and Boston tie for the leadership, with St. Louis only a game behind, and the Cubs right on the latter's heels. Cincinnati made it a rock road for the Giants by winning both on Saturday and Sunday, while Boston, after losing a twelve innings game with James twirling against Sullivan, came back and won the second game with Hess doing the flinging, and the result of the latter's victory shows that Stallings does not have to depend altogether on his big right-hand pitcher, James and Tyler. St. Louis had easy picking with Brooklyn both Saturday and yesterday, but the fans of that city are crazy over the chances of yesterday to see the Cardinals play.

This week will likely see a big change in the league race, as to-day New York open up a series at St. Louis, while Boston go to Chicago. With the four leading teams clashing there is bound to be fireworks. In the meantime Connie Mack and his Athletics are figuring which city in the National League would prove the most attractive for a world series standpoint.

Soft Ball

Duffs Defeat G. S. & M.

After a fast game of soft ball on Saturday last at Recreation Park the Duffs defeated G. S. & M. by 16 runs to 12. There was a large crowd present, and they grew excited as the fun waxed warm. Errors were made by both teams at critical times, and runs were slipped across, but eventually with better infield work the Duffs came through four runs ahead. The batteries were: Duffs—Alf Stewart and H. Stewart; G. S. & M.—J. McQuinn and D. Dowling. Herbie Stewart caught a great game behind the bat and looks like the best all-round player picked up this summer. Dick Clawson on third base for the Duffs played well, and with Braggs, Marlatt and Dowling completes the strongest infield in the Soft Ball League. Scans field on first base for the Windmill played a star game. Patterson on second had a very bad day, striking out four times, and also had several errors. Jim Hanley had a bad day in the field for the Duffs, letting a couple of easy chances get away from him. Appell of the G. S. & M. is easily the best fielder in the league, and it is a pleasure to watch him get them. Leonard Mears, a new man picked up by the Duffs, is a fast, dashingly player with a good arm, and is also very fast on bases and will be a great player next season.

Football

Echo Place E. E. Wanderers 2.

The return football match was played on Mohawk Park between the Echo Place Stars and East Ward Wanderers which resulted in a draw 2-2. The line up for the Echos was: McArthur, E. Gould, W. Campbell, F. Box, W. Hinds, E. Adams, J. Treble (capt.), F. Gilbert, H. Gilbert, R. Bennett, S. Carey. For the Wanderers: W. Lambert, Allen, W. Street, J. Rowe, W. Conquer, F. Silver, W. Davey (capt.), W. Ruskin, R. Poores, A. Daiken, A. Daiken, Gould and S. Carey scored for the Echos and R. Poores and W. Conquer for the Wanderers. W. Allen refereed the game satisfactorily.

S.O.E. Smashed Scot Hopes in Hot Contest

Results of Football Games on Saturday—Tutela Beat Holmedale For Courier Cup by Score of 1-0

travel all the way and that P. S. A. scored one goal that they were dangerous at times. Seven hundred spectators witnessed a stirring encounter at Tutela Park on Saturday when the Sons were successful in defeating the Scots by 2 goals to 1. Their brilliant victory was meritorious inasmuch as they started with eight men and had to enlist the services of a fifty year old member to complete their number. He made a real good showing. Playing hard, the Sons and Scots made play at both ends and after 17 minutes the Bulldogs were awarded a penalty. Walter Smith netted from the kick and this considerably toned matters up. The Scots although often dangerous, could not score and the interval found the Sons leading. With the resumption, the Scots rallied finely and forced the Sons to concede a corner, which was netted, tying the score at one all. The Sons retaliated and soon their captain A. Johnson, from good range, shot a beauty, which gave the goalkeeper no chance. Again and again the Scots came back but they were held by a sturdy defence and the Sons found occasion to trouble the opposition. So things went, until the final game, and the Scots retired a beaten team. A Baker of the Sons received a nasty kick in the stomach and had to be carried off the field and Morrison was ordered out of play for the offence.

Notes

W. Short played a great game for the Sons. J. Smith, and W. Johnson played a good defence game for the Bull Dogs. J. Matthew played a great game. Great credit is due to F. Clay. All the boys are to be congratulated on their game. T. Harrington of the Scots United is a good and clean player and a hard worker for his team.

BUST OF WILHELM THROWN INTO LAKE

GERMANS IN BERLIN, ONTARIO, ANNOYED BY CHEAP ACT OF "PATRIOTISM." BERLIN, Ont. Aug. 24.—The bronze bust of Emperor Wilhelm 1. of Germany was removed from its base in Victoria park here early yesterday and thrown into the lake by some unknown persons. The act of vandalism was reported to the police and upon investigation Police Constable Meehan succeeded in recovering the missing statue of the Kaiser. W. J. Near who lives in Roland street near the park informed the authorities that early yesterday morning he heard a loud smash and noise made by unknown persons on the park bridge. He also saw three young men on the park bridge but until he heard of the missing statue later in the morning he was unable to account for their mysterious actions. After the splash they disappeared in the woods of the park. Believing that the statue had been dumped into the lake from the bridge Constable Meehan set out in a boat with the aid of young men in bathing suits brought the bust to the boathouse. The incident attracted hundreds of people to the park and the general opinion was that it would create ill-feeling among the large German population. It is believed to have been perpetrated by young boys merely as a lark and with no malice aforethought. The police have suspicions and hope to apprehend the vandals. The monument to Kaiser Wilhelm I. was erected by German citizens seventeen years ago to commemorate the centennial celebration held here in 1870 at the close of the Franco-German war. The bronze bust measures about four feet and was mounted on a large concrete base. The bust was only slightly damaged. This incident following the tearing down of a German flag in the park a few weeks ago has aroused the indignation of German citizens. It is feared that the Queen Victoria monument may come in for similar treatment and the police have instructions to keep a close watch.

WANTS THE NEWS

Ex-Premier Clemenceau of France Objects to the Strict Censorship.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—A despatch from Paris to The Daily Mail says: "Former Premier Clemenceau continues his campaign against the government's policy of withholding from the public the whole truth in the war news."

"General Pau is the hero of the hour. He is seventy years old and has only one arm, having lost the other in the war of 170. He was recalled to active service in an advisory capacity and appears with the army in Alsace. He seems to have taken personal charge of the operations at Muelhausen."

"The equipment of all the German forces is wonderful. Every detail is perfect. I noticed that of the thousands of carts which passed not one had been requisitioned, but all were built for military service and bore the government mark. All their horses are equipped with an extra set of shoes which hang from the stirrups."

"At Waterloo I saw a part of their artillery being hurried southward toward Mons. I counted 230 guns. The Germans made an interesting change in respect to the colors which had flown from the town hall and flag poles. Previous to the occupation the Belgian flag was in the centre with a French tri-color on the right and a British flag on the left. When the Germans entered they removed the British and French flags and in the centre they flew the arms of the city of Brussels with the colors of Belgium and Germany on the right and left."

"The house and general post office have been turned into dormitories for the troops. None of the regular barracks have been utilized for this purpose. The Germans evidently fearing that they had been mined by the Belgians."

"In their dealings with the shopkeepers the German privates are compelled to pay cash, but the officers are giving cheques which the shopkeepers are required to accept, although they regard the chance of cashing the same very dubious."

"There have been some lively scenes in the city. At evening the German officers gather at the principal hotels."

Local News

THE PROBS

TORONTO, Aug. 24.—A marked cool wave covers the west and the upper lake region. Thunderstorms occurred yesterday in many parts of Ontario and Quebec, while heavy rain has been falling over Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Forecast.

Fresh northwest to northerly winds, fine and quite cool to-day and on Tuesday.

Arrived in London.

Word was received in the city today that Miss Wilhelmina Phair, 94 Nelson street, who was in Italy at the outbreak of the war, has arrived in London. Miss Phair will sail for Canada from Liverpool on Sept. 4 by the Tunisian.

Not Unprepared.

The officers of B company were by no means unprepared as they have been stated and they only acted providently in doing as they did. Every man of the company, before he left was given a sum in cash and the captain was able to give each of the ten men an army pipe, which had to be ordered from Toronto, thus disproving any suggestion that the officers were caught un-awares.

System to be Changed

A change in the cafe at the Y. M. C. A. will soon be apparent. The system in vogue at the present has not proved a great success with the result that it is to be changed. In future the self serving system will be abolished and the experiment of putting up a larger menu and keeping the cafe open from early morning throughout the day will be tried. It is proposed so that any one may at any time procure a good substantial hot meal which will include two or three courses. The method of charging will also be moderated and will tend to make the Y. M. C. A. cafe a favorite rendezvous.

Shot in Foot.

Billy Johnson of 29 Albion street, a youth popularly known about the city, employed at the Grand Truck station, met with a rather nasty mishap yesterday at Lake Couchiching, Orillia. Along with a few others he had been camping for a holiday, and yesterday morning they decided upon a shooting expedition. No sooner had they started than Johnson, who was holding the muzzle of his gun to the ground, received the discharge in his foot. How the gun went off is not exactly known, but it is thought that a jolt caused the accident. Johnson was rendered hors de combat, and was assisted back to the camp by his colleagues, and there he was immediately treated by a doctor. Later he was brought home, where he now lies. Although the wound is not dangerous, it is very painful, as the ankle bone has been scraped, and Billy will have to remain in bed for at least two weeks.

JAP NAVY BOMBARDS GERMANS

Quick Action is Taken When Time Limit Expired on Sunday

(By Special Wire to the Courier) TOKIO, Aug. 24.—The Yamato in an extra expedition today says that the bombardment of Tsing Tau by the Japanese fleet has commenced. This message was passed by the censor of the navy department.

MAY INCITE U.S.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The Daily News, commenting to-day on Japan's declaration of war against Germany, says: "The immediate gravity of Japan's entrance into the war is its moral effect on American public opinion. Assuming that Japanese action is not limited, according to her pledges, no sensible American will hold England to blame for an event she is quite powerless to prevent. The British government ought to use its influence to restrain within strict limits the forward policy of Japan."

PUBLIC APPROVES OF WAR

TOKIO, Aug. 24.—Unanimous approval of the war which is calmly and dispassionately discussed summarizes public opinion. The newspapers express regret over the necessity of hostilities with Germany and urge the public to refrain from exhibiting resentment towards the Germans in Japan.

They print messages of cheer to the army and navy, who they hope will be quickly victorious.

An imperial messenger went to the shrines of Ise to inform the spirits of the Imperial ancestors of Japan's declaration of war. It is announced that a flock of white doves descended on the roof of the imperial sanctuary at the moment of the expiration of the ultimatum to Germany and this is accepted as an omen of speedy victory. The Ladies Patriotic Association, which has a membership of 10,000, is sending to the volunteer nurses comfort packages for the soldiers and will provide for the families of those who have been called to the service. The Red Cross Society is equipping a hospital ship.

Communication between Japan and China has been severed for 24 hours. Except for the very meagre news that has reached here from New York, the entire country is kept in the dark regarding the progress of the war in Europe.

It is believed that the cable between Shanghai and Nagasaki has been cut.

The officers of the army and navy are absolutely sphinx-like regarding the progress of events in the China Sea. Everything is quiet here, the attitude of the public appearing almost indifferent.

ON BIKE TRIP

C. P. R. Messenger Boy Passed Through Brantford Yesterday.

A young fellow of about 18 years clad in a C. P. R. Telegraph Co's uniform, and riding on a bicycle bearing a card with the words, "To Chicago and return in six weeks," attracted quite a bit of interest on the streets yesterday.

The lad is just what his uniform declares him to be, Lemieux, a C. P. R. Telegraph messenger of Montreal, and he is endeavoring to go on his bicycle from Montreal to Chicago and return in six weeks time, working his own way by selling post cards. He left Montreal on August 12th, and arrived in Toronto on Thursday last, and in Brantford yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. In his arrival he registered at once with the local C. P. R. agent, Mr. W. Lahey.

The cause of Mr. Lemieux's trip is rather an amusing one. Some of the newspapers in Montreal were complaining that the C. P. R. messenger service was too slow, and in answer the C. P. R. officials declared on a bet of $300 that they could send one of their messenger boys by bicycle from Montreal to Chicago and return in six weeks' time, the messenger to earn his meals and board on the route.

With the City Police

There was only a moderate list to be dealt with by Magistrate Livingston this morning.

The much adjourned case of Vandusen and MacDonald was settled this morning when the latter as defendant settled up by paying the costs which amounted to $10.75. MacDonald was charged with the theft of the deeds of some property upon which he had an option. He had obtained it from Vandusen upon the pretext of allowing a lawyer to see it. He did not return it and said it was lost. Now it was found, he said, and he was ready to return it, thereupon the case was dismissed upon payment of costs.

William Williams produced a number of witnesses who had attended his restaurant on Market street and they testified that they had not seen him serve Indians with liquor for which he was fined $100 and costs or three months in gaol. The evidence of Josephine Wallace who had worked for him was too conclusive declared the bench. She swore she had seen him serve whiskey in a cup with soft drinks to Austin Bamberry as well as others. Bamberry himself declared that he had not obtained any liquor whatsoever from Williams. The evidence of the girl was supported by that of the police who found whiskey bottles upon the premises and the bench, therefore, decided there was little doubt that Williams was guilty. The fine was $100 or three months in gaol and he could not allow defendant any time to pay the fine.

Tom Poliska and Steve Holladay kicked up a little scene upon Market street on Saturday night and ran away when they saw the officer on their track. He, P. C. Stanley, was inclined to let them go, but they began to hoot at him and he immediately followed them up and brought them to the lock up.
