THE STATE OF THE COLONY.

There is not in the whole field of enquiry connected with the temporal affairs of the colony, a more important topic than the one which heads this article. To a man of integrity, there is no period in his career through life, so intensely overwhelming as when, for the first time, the fact of his inability to satisfy the claims of his creditors, fully meets his view. With a nervous glance he surveys the picture. The loss of credit, children, and position; the degradation of his wife and children, with perhaps extreme poverty; the debtors' cell, and, in addition, the long train of sufferings which it will assuredly bring to many who have reposed in his honesty, make up the scene. The agony of such a moment, has driven many a noble mind to take revenge on his own life, and thus hurry to his dread account. There are, however, some points of difference between an oratorical bankrupt, and a bankrupt British Colony. For we hold, that a colony may become virtually bankrupt, inasmuch as it may not be able to meet one of its numerous creditors, although it may not be gazetted. The creditors of the former can at once arrest his course, and prevent any further loss. But wicked and corrupt colonial government, whose term of office has not expired, may not only plunge the colony in debt, but continue—until its term of office expires, to squander all the available resources of the colony. Nor is our present system of Responsible Government, any guarantee that such shall not be our case. We will therefore, examine for ourselves, what is our present financial position. It is our duty to do so. Godliness first—but godliness has reference to this life, as well as that to come. What is our position?

We understand that this colony possesses now an empty Treasury! Facts are constantly occurring which prove this to be the case. Treasury Warrants are being issued for the towns and country, and offered at 10, 15, and in some cases 20 per cent. discount! Schoolmasters are loudly complaining of the injustice inflicted on them. They can scarcely get their Warrants cashed, even at such a heavy loss! Their little salaries are thus curtailed, when they should be rather increased. The Road Services are in a bad position. The contractor knows he will have to submit to a reduction on his warrant, and values his work accordingly. The tax-payers generally suffer for it. But even the road contractor to the amount of two pounds, in many cases, must take a warrant! The government has also engaged in the traffic of discounting warrants! Those who are doing business with the government, can go to the Government agent and procure them at 10 per cent. discount! And the Government (we are told,) are not unwilling to do the business themselves on a large scale, when an opportunity offers!

We understand that the balance of trade is largely against the colony. Our exports this year have been mostly in cash. So far has this been carried, that the Bank has been almost entirely shut up for want of specie. Up to the present time, we have imported since the spring 8550 bbls. of flour; and the importation still continues. Much business exists through the Island, and many families have not the common necessities of life. Our business men have either closed up or curtailed their operations to a very limited extent. Working men are in abundance, wages low, and but few have any profitable employment. It is at such a season as this that a good government is valued.

We gather from the public accounts, that on the 31st Jan., 1858, the public debt of this colony was about £30,000, being an increase on the previous year of £7,000; (the year before, the increase was £5,000.) It is supposed by those who are competent to form a good opinion, that our revenue for the present year will be about £30,000. The appropriations this year are about £45,000, which will leave a balance against us of £15,000 for this year; making the public debt £45,000, or one year's revenue! Let it be remembered that the taxes are heavier than they have ever been before. To increase them, will only increase the evil; because a much larger and more expensive force will be required around our coasts, to prevent illicit trade. Only another step remains to be taken by the government to complete the general distress; that is, to refuse to take their own paper in payment for duties; then our disgrace and ruin will be complete.

We have no hesitation in saying, that the present financial position of this colony is disgraceful. Let it be understood that we have not entered on this subject, with a view to injure the present party in power. Our motto is measures, not men. We belong to no other party than the lovers of the Bible, and by its blessed principles we desire to be guided. At the same time, we shall be recreant to our position, if we do not raise our warning voice against the powers that be, or any other powers, who we know are leading our people and the colony into debt, taxation, and misery. If, as is generally understood, the supreme authority lies in the people, the government has no right—morally or legally—to ruin the country.

The cause of the present distressing position of our financial affairs is a subject of great interest to the people. What is there to show this lavish waste, of so large a revenue? Where are the monuments of usefulness, skill, or power, reared to the honor of the country, or for the public good? We refer at once to the public accounts for the past year, and there we can find a few specimens of the wisdom and skill of the present government.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes John Ball, Henry Pope Wales, Archd McNeill, W. Swaby, John Armstrong, Silas Bernard, John Doimant, Col. Treasurer, P. M. Power, James Craswell, Joseph Robinson, and We leave these items to the comments of our friends.

We leave these items to the comments of our friends. They will know how to understand them. For the present we shall merely observe, that to us but one course remains, to rescue the colony from its impending degradation and ruin, and that is, Retrenchment.

Such sums as those above must not again disgrace our statute book. Salaries must be given only to men who work, and give quid pro quo. No drones must be supported in the public eye; and every possible saving must be made in the expenditure that can be honorably done. If persons of independence can be obtained to serve as Legislative Councillors without fee, it should be done; or else let the country choose their men. We do not see why they should be paid for a few weeks' service, when many who fill public offices (minus the appellation Honorable) requiring much more application and valuable time, get nothing in the way of remuneration. We are of opinion that the expenses connected with the House of Assembly forms too large an item in the public accounts. The sum of £251 12s 4d for small disbursements by the Sergeant-at-Arms during the last short session is disgraceful. The expenses of the present session exceed £2500 for about five weeks' work, or at the rate of £700 per week—the salaries of many of the members going on in the mean time. The item of printing is considerably beyond proportion with the size of the colony, its requirements, or revenue. By what we can gather from the public accounts, at least £1000 has been spent in printing alone, and above £300 of this has gone into the hands of the Queen's Printer. Salaries have been multiplied during the last five or six years, which, if carried on at the same rate, will soon require more taxation than the colony can endure.

Fellow colonists, we have endeavored to discharge our duty faithfully and fearlessly. We urge you to give this matter your serious consideration. These affairs are yours. If you allow them to be mismanaged any longer, the blame will rest with yourselves. An incubus is now gathering which may gall the neck of this colony for generations to come. You have the power to strike it off at once, and we do not believe you will recklessly abandon your Island home to its fate. Speak out your sentiments in city, town and settlement, and let the tones be unmistakable, so that whoever may be in the government, they will learn in future to guard your interests, as they must give account.

WHAT NEXT?

If there were any thing wanting to show every right thinking and independent minded man the perfect indifference of the present party in power to the real interests of the colony, their total disregard to all that is esteemed honorable among men, and the perfect incompetency to direct aright the vessel of the state in its present difficult position, loaded as it is with debt, and on the verge of bankruptcy, it is abundantly evident by their last act. They have dismissed from office Thomas Owen, Esq., Postmaster General, and Peter DesBrisay, Esq., his Assistant. One of these gentlemen has labored in his department for 16 years, the other for nine years. They have been early and late at work; they have attended to their duties when other men were asleep in their beds, and left their homes at all hours of the night to receive the mails at the Island house; they have fulfilled year after year the trust committed to them with faithfulness, diligence and zeal, and to the satisfaction of the whole community;—and yet, at a moment's notice, without any reasonable grounds of offence, they have been dismissed, and their places filled by men who are perfectly new to the business.—On the 28th inst., the discharge of one of the largest and most Protestant constituencies in the colony; and the other is but lately taken either from the plough or from the district school. Had Mr. Owen become unequal to the duties of his office, he were entitled, from length of faithful service, to a pension, in place of dismissal; but as he was perfectly competent to discharge his several duties, and to the last has been found a diligent, an attentive, and a faithful and zealous officer, and has brought, through a course of years, by means of professional experience, the Post Office department to become one of the best conducted in the colony—though the worst paid in the colony, and as he was perfectly competent to discharge his duties, and the time given to his discharge be taken into consideration, We, therefore, cannot but regard his dismissal, and that of his Assistant, as one of the most dictatorial, high-handed and unjust acts which have been perpetrated by any government; and we trust that the whole community will, by a public demonstration, from one end of the Island to the other, regard it in the same light, and leave no stone unturned till they compel the present office holders and our present unprincipled rulers, from the head to the tail, to retire from office.

Islanders, fellow Protestants, and British subjects, how long will you allow yourselves to be trampled down, and every vestige of honor and principle to be discarded? How long will you tamely submit to see the reins of power held by men who care nothing for the welfare of your country, so that they enrich themselves and strengthen their own party? How long will you be silent, and see every indignity heaped upon your grey-haired sires, and every injustice done to your fathers and your brothers, and bear the burden and heat of the day, and brought credit to the colony by the faithful and honorable discharge of their public duties? How long will you keep back from rising in your might and speaking with a voice of thunder, and telling those men who treat you so, that it shall be so no longer,—that their day is come—that they must, because of their unjust dealings towards you and the Island where you live, give way to better and more honest men? Islanders, speak out,—be afraid of no man! speak out, and make your power felt! speak out, and let your words ring in the ears of your rulers till they totter from their seats! At last speak out, and let those in power know that you would be no longer trifled with—that having found them acting in a manner unworthy of the trust reposed in them, you have determined to discard them.

THE PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND ASSOCIATION.

The Annual Sermon on behalf of this Association was preached by the Moderator, the Rev. Dr. Knox, in the New Glasgow Chapel, on Lord's day the 18th July, at 11 o'clock. The meeting house was densely crowded, and the introductory services were conducted by the venerable John Stevenson, the senior pastor of the church, who is now in the 80th year of his age. The preacher announced as his theme, the Suez; which he considered in the nobleness and variety of its facilities,—the nature, reality and elevation of its happiness; the power, diversity and extent of its development and attainment; and the surpassing grandeur of its destiny. In the afternoon, interesting and instructive addresses were delivered by the Rev. Donald Crawford, of New Glasgow, and Pastor James Sellers, of River John. On Monday, the Association met for business, when Dr. John Knox was re-elected Moderator, Deacon Stephen Boyer Treasurer, and James McLaren, Esq., Secretary. After the usual routine of business, the following gentlemen were chosen as the Officers of the Board of Missions.—Hon. George Bagnall, President; Rev. Dr. Knox, Secretary; Deacon Stephen Boyer, Cont. Treasurer; Deacon Charles Stevenson, Western Treasurer; James McLaren, Esq., Eastern Treasurer. On Monday evening, the Annual Address was delivered to a large congregation by the Rev. Dr. Knox. The subject was—The Influence of Scientific Discovery upon the Interpretation of the Scriptures. It was an able and elaborate production, and riveted the attention of the assembly throughout the whole course of its delivery, which occupied about two hours.

The Association will meet (D.V.) with the First Church at Lot 48, on the second week in July, 1859.

The Rev. Mr. Allen will preach in the Temperance Hall, (opposite D. V. on Sabbath 18th inst., at 6 1/2 p.m.

SUCCESSFUL LAYING OF THE ATLANTIC CABLE

On Thursday last the gratifying intelligence was received here that the Atlantic Telegraph had been successfully laid. On Friday and Saturday the wires through Newfoundland were out of order, and it was the afternoon of that day before any further intelligence was received. The following communication from Cyrus Field, Esq., dated Trinity Bay, August 7th, was received in Halifax and flashed through to the other Provinces and United States: "The Atlantic Telegraph cable was successfully landed here yesterday morning, and is in perfect order. The Agamemnon has landed her end of the cable, and we are receiving electric signals from the telegraph house at Valentia. Due notice will be given when the Atlantic Telegraph will be open for Public business."

There was great rejoicing in all the cities of the Provinces and the United States,—illuminations, firing of salutes, and torch-light processions,—and for the time business seems to have been suspended. The Queen's Message to the President of the United States is hourly expected to be received;—the delay is said to be caused by Her Majesty being at the fites at Cherbourg.

We are glad to observe, that our city council have taken the lead, in publicly welcoming the arrival of the Atlantic cable to our coast; which connects the home of our fathers, by an additional tie, to the land of our adoption. This triumph of science and skill, over the vast difficulties that interposed to prevent its accomplishment, belongs to the 19th century. It is a mighty step toward that period, when one language—Peace on earth, and good will to men—shall permeate every nation and gird the globe. The cost of an illumination is very little, and we hope our citizens generally will heartily respond to the call. We are informed that a wire is to be placed at once between Point and Newfoundland, and that this Island is to be the head quarters of the line in these Provinces.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PROTECTOR.

Sir,—You are probably not aware that a Gambling House, which I fear will prove very demoralizing to the youth of our city, lately has been established in our midst. It is situated in the Skittle Alley, near the Temperance Hall. This place is attended nightly by merchants' clerks, tradesmen's apprentices, and is the constant resort of bad characters. Occasionally employers themselves may be seen participating in their favorite amusement of knocking down these wooden pins with a large ball. One is likely to say he sees no harm in this simple play. But I must inform you, in connection with the Alley there is a Tap Room, in which drinking and betting to a considerable extent is indulged in, generally till near midnight—much to the annoyance of those residing in the vicinity. On this ground alone, let me warn parents and guardians—if they value the souls of those entrusted to their care—from patronizing, even by their presence, such a low scene as the one described. I trust there are many who will witness the proceedings, and endeavor to prevent their workmen from taking the first step to ruin. Knowing, Mr. Editor, that your journal is devoted principally to the dissemination of that religion which teaches the duty of temperance, I feel assured that you will insert these few remarks in your next issue. Yours faithfully, ADOLPHUS.

WE beg to direct attention to advertisement

'Sons of Temperance Demonstration and Tea Party' is another column, to take place to-morrow. We understand the arrangements are excellent; and as the principles of the 'Sons' are philanthropic, we commend their present undertaking to public countenance and support.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Proofs of the great superiority of Dr. Wistar's Balsam, from all parts of the country. Dear Sir: Having witnessed the effects of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, in the case of one of my neighbors, who has been for several years seriously afflicted with the Pithitic, General Pulmonary Weakness, I feel compelled to state, in your issue, that I have used it, and with the most successful results. My neighbor, referred to above, lately had a violent attack of Bleeding at the Lungs, and distress in breathing. He tried the Balsam, and in a few days produced a most salutary and favorable effect. At his instance, and several others laboring under like complaints, I have been induced to make this request. By attending to the above immediately, you will oblige the afflicted, and also me. Yours, HENRY DUNHAM.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Look out for Counterfeits!—This can always be detected by the absence of the Water-mark, which appears in every leaf of the genuine book of directions. Unless the words, "Holloway's Pills and Ointment, London," are visible in semitransparent letters in each page, the medicine they envelope is spurious. To deplete the system by bleeding and violent purging, is to deprive life's machinery of its motive power.
