Beaver Flour

makes more bread to the barrel than any other flour on the market—bread that takes up water readily, "stands up" well in the oven, looks well, tastes well and is light and nutritious.

Being a carefully prepared blend of Manitoba Spring wheat and Ontario Fall wheat, Beaver Flour is also an ideal pastry flour, making the most delicious cakes, pies and biscuits.

Keeping two flours—one for bread and one for pastry—involves unnecessary expense and bother. Beaver Flour is best for both.

Ask your grocer for it.

CHAPTER VIII.

A VISIT AND A QUARREL.

ROBERT only answered with a slight smile, but when Will had closed the door, he began to walk nervously about the room. Ambrosia knew, in some measure, what was troubling him—that is, she knew he was annoyed about Tom Shepherd, and that he probably suspected she had heard from him.

'I will tell Robert the truth, if he asks me any questions,' she said to herself; 'for though truth may be blamed, it never can be shamed.'

So she sat quite silent, apparently absorbed in the new novel she was reading. There might be five minutes of this silent reading and silent waiting, and then Robert passed before his wife and said:

'Ambrosia, my dear, did you have a letter from your brother this morning?'

'Yes, Robert.'

'What did he say?'

'Nothing in particular. He was annoyed at your action last night. That was natural. I was annoyed myself.'

'I have explained to you, my dear. I am sorry if I did not make my conduct satisfactory.'

No answer.

'Were you not satisfied?'

'There is no use in discussing that matter; let it pass.'

'I cannot let anything pass that'

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy

Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir or 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a 16 oz. bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep-seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualic acid and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada, that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equalled.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

annoys you. Have you answered your brother's letter yet?'

She colored vividly, and said, with an air of great worry:

'Cannot you let the subject alone, Robert?'

'Not until we come to some conclusion. I am unhappy about it.'

'I have made no complaint.'

'But you made me feel as if I had been unkind to you. I do not like you to feel anything so untrue and so unjust.'

'Very well; I will forget all about the circumstance. It is not a pleasant one to remember.'

'Yes—but—I do not want you to be troubled with his letters. Whether you answer them or not, they must'

he could forgive all the imprudence for the honesty of her confession. Yet, as often happens, he said perhaps the most imprudent and irritating of words.

'I am astonished at you! And you must promise me never to do such a thing again.'

'I have already promised myself. That is all that is necessary.'

'I am satisfied with the promise to yourself; still, I think you might also make it to your husband.'

'I do not understand why you trouble yourself with the matter at all. I shall do what is right, and you may rely on me no more as later.'

'I confess that I am more ready to do so now than ever before. Amber, my dear, I will tell you something: I saw you at Maillard's, and I was sick with anxiety lest you should deny it to me! Thank God, you rose to my highest hopes!'

As he spoke she grew white and then crimson with anger.

'You watched me!' she cried.

'You did such a shameful thing as to watch your wife! And then you dared I would lie to you! How dare you confess that you offered me such an indignity? I will never forgive you! Never! Never!'

'But, Amber, dear Amber, I did not—You do not understand. It was an accident. I declare to you—'

'I wish no apologies—no excuses. The fact is sufficient. If you saw me, you ought to have come to me. You ought to have spoken both to me and to Tom. You were coward enough to watch me by stealth!'

And refusing to listen to anything her husband would say, she went out of the room in a flame of passion.

Ten minutes later, as she stood in her chamber wringing her hands and trying to persuade herself she had done right, she heard the doctor go heavily down the stairs and clash the street-door after him. And a great weight fell upon her heart. She could not comfort herself, and there was none else to comfort her.

'For I hate to be patronized,' she said softly, 'and more especially by Amber. No, indeed! I prefer going to Texas. And Mr. Will Carter threw at me as a bribe. "Too small for too small!" I think one of the Texas cousins would be better.'

Could she have any better riding-school than Texas? And her cousins James and Alphonse, would be her teachers. Also, it was a little pleasure to reflect that Mrs. Dr. Carter would have no opportunity of patronizing her from the platform of her married superiority. And besides could not avoid a smile of gratification as she made this reflection.

'For I hate to be patronized,' she said softly, 'and more especially by Amber. No, indeed! I prefer going to Texas. And Mr. Will Carter threw at me as a bribe. "Too small for too small!" I think one of the Texas cousins would be better.'

Could she have any better riding-school than Texas? And her cousins James and Alphonse, would be her teachers. Also, it was a little pleasure to reflect that Mrs. Dr. Carter would have no opportunity of patronizing her from the platform of her married superiority. And besides could not avoid a smile of gratification as she made this reflection.

DOCTOR ADVISED OPERATION

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Canifton, Ont.—'I had been a great sufferer for five years. One doctor told me it was cancer of the uterus, and another told me it was a fibroid tumor. No one knows what I suffered. I would always be worse at certain periods, and never was regular. I had regular bearing-down pains, were terrible. I was very ill in bed, and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound has helped me while passing through Change of Life.'—Mrs. LETITIA BLAIR, Canifton, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to suffering women.

SIONALLY omit a loop of the "m" or chop off the last letter in a word? To say nothing of the folks who are guilty of these and similar carelessness continually. Of course there are some people who habitually write clear business-like hands, but a sort of suggestive impressionism, a sort of sketchy leave-you-to-guess-the-rest seems to me to be the prevalent note of the present day chirography. Just as with an indistinct talker one must help out the ears a good deal with the eyes, so with these indistinct writers one must assist the eye with the brain. That is, one cannot read wholly by the characters, but must be helped out by what one expects to find. I am especially impressed with this because of the many letters I get through this column from unknown friends. I can almost always get the context of these letters by using a little common sense when the writing is un-

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at night unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice. Don't be misled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Wellington's Cool Interview With a Murderous Maniac.
One day as the Duke of Wellington sat writing at his library table quite alone his door was suddenly opened without a knock or announcement of any sort, and in stalked a gaunt man, who stood before the commander-in-chief with his hat on and a savage expression of countenance. The duke was of course a little annoyed at such an unceremonious interruption, and, looking up, he asked, "Who are you?" "I am Dionysius," was the singular answer. "Well, what do you want?" "Your life," "My life?" "Yes; I am sent to kill you." "Very odd," said the duke, sitting back and calmly gazing at the intruder. "Not at all, for I am Dionysius," said the stranger, "and I must put you to death." "Are you obliged to perform the duty to-day?" asked the commander-in-chief. "I am very busy just now and have a large number of letters to write. It would be very inconvenient to-day." The visitor looked hard during a moment's pause. "Call again," continued the duke, "or write and make an appointment." "You'll be ready?" "Without fail," was the reply. The maniac, awed doubtless by the stern old soldier, backed out of the room without further words and half an hour later was safe in bedlam.—London Graphic.

Sir Ernest Shackleton Thinks Spitzbergen a Good Health Resort.
Sir Ernest Shackleton, who got nearer to the South Pole than any other explorer, has declared his intention of visiting Spitzbergen this summer. He further voices the opinion that it would be a good thing if a sanatorium for consumptives could be established in the polar regions. A two months' stay amid the ice and snow of Spitzbergen would do wonders for a person suffering from lung and chest troubles, declares Sir Ernest. He points out that Arctic air is absolutely pure and beneficial to all chest complaints.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Messrs. R. D. McRae & Sons, schr. Clara, Capt. W. Tetman, put in to Transbay on Saturday on her way here from the Mediterranean. Capt. Tetman must have had a tough time making the coast with such hard weather. The sudden change of wind from S. W. to N. W. at about 2 p.m. on Friday gave us quite a squall in which several schooners moored in the harbor were driven from their anchors and were only secured after much difficulty. The ferry also received some damage in the squall. The heavy downpour of rain on Saturday night took away nearly all the snow, leaving nothing but a coating of ice on our streets and lanes, making walking very dangerous indeed. The Please U Theatre was well patronized on Saturday night when Grand Falls and other very interesting pictures were shown. This company deserves to be patronized for their endeavors to give us cheap entertainments, at the same time making sure to have them instructive and good in everything particular. We hear they are now making arrangements to get a troupe here to play during Easter week. Their efforts will no doubt be appreciated by the public. Mrs. Jas. D. Munn was very ill yesterday, suffering from an attack of pleurisy, but we are glad to hear she is much improved to-day. Dr. Charles Cron, lately of Broad Coxe, B.D.V. district, has decided to settle down here in his native town to practice his profession. We wish Dr. Cron much success in his practice. Another old and well known citizen passed away this morning in the person of Mr. Denis Shea. Mr. Shea had reached the advanced age of 92 years, and was quite hearty until a couple of weeks ago. A man of very pleasant disposition, Mr. Shea was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. His funeral takes place on Wednesday. Another case of diphtheria has developed at Bristol's Hope in a house already under quarantine. The St. John's train, due at 11 Friday night, did not reach the station till nearly 2 o'clock on Saturday morning. A young man who is compelled to go to Labrador and other places during the summer, thinks much good would result if some thoughtful persons would start a night school during the winter months. In a conversation with us on Water Street a few nights ago, he pointed to the new Public Building and said: "There is a building up there, well heated, with plenty of spare room, and no doubt if Sir Edward Morris was asked he would give permission to use a room for the purpose. There certainly would be some young men in town willing to sacrifice a few hours a week to instruct those who are hungering for knowledge, and who would then be fitted to take better positions on going abroad than they otherwise could." This certainly is worthy of consideration, and possibly some person will take the matter up. CORRESPONDENT. Harbor Grace, Jan. 23, '11.

A Fish Out of Water.

Many people think that fish when taken out of the water die because air has a fatal effect on them. The real reason, however, is that their delicate gill filaments or membranes become dry and stick together, so that no air can pass between them. Thus they lose the power to furnish necessary oxygen, and the circulation of their blood stops. The painful gapping of a fish out of water is nature's effort to free the passages through the filaments.

Clean Up the City.

Whatever citizens may think of the delay in diagnosing the typhus outbreak, there can be but one opinion as to the necessity of a campaign for cleanliness not only on the streets, but also among those who are apparently ignorant of the need of cleanliness.

The Collins house seems to have been a centre of sickness for some months. Rogers was ill there. Mr. Collins was ill there. Mrs. Collins was ill and died there. Dr. Brehm says the two latter had not typhus. The three Collins boys were taken out of the house infected with typhus. Mrs. Reardon died there apparently of old age. Mrs. Whalen, a sister of Mrs. Collins and a visitor there, was stricken with the disease. Father Goff visited the house and was stricken also, as was William McGrath who also visited there.

Referring to the cause of the outbreak Dr. Brehm speaks in no uncertain tone on the danger of dirt. He declares that "as in the case of the present outbreak, the disease sometimes makes its appearance in very insanitary places without being traceable to any pre-existing cause." "Typhus is at the present time a rare disease and outbreaks occur only in the presence of dirt, overcrowding, and poverty, and in unhealthy dwellings; in Pope's Lane houses all these conditions were present in a very marked degree."

"The moral of all this is: Destroy dirt, clean up, and get fresh air. The City Council, the Health Officers and citizens generally are all responsible for permitting such a pest spot to exist."

THE E. M. F. IS HANDSOME CURLIANA.

Yesterday's point games for the Victoria Trophy and Wright Medal, former for old curlers and the latter for two years and under—took place.

It was really surprising to note how the new curlers are taking to the game their scores run from 37 down to 1. H. Donnelly winning the Wright Medal and Thomas Winter carried off the Victoria Trophy by 29 points. If the new beginners continue playing like yesterday some of the "Old Guard" will have to take an extra practice or two. Seventy players participated in yesterday's games. On Wednesday and Thursday the next Inter-Division match takes place for the Greiner Cup, that handsome trophy presented this season, and we can look for much better play. On Monday next another point game for Bonavista Trophy (for old curlers) and Taylor Medal (for curlers of two years and under).

THE E. M. F. IS COMING.

Mrs. Curtis Dead.

The death occurred yesterday at the General Hospital of Mrs. George Curtis, a well-known and respected resident of Trepansey. The deceased went into the institution on Christmas Eve, suffering from an internal ailment. She leaves a husband and several children to mourn her. A sad circumstance in connection with Mrs. Curtis' death is that her husband arrived here by the Portia last night hoping to see her alive but on landing was informed of her demise, the news proving a great blow to him. The remains will be taken by the Portia to-morrow to Trepansey to be interred there.

Every member pays a yearly fee graduated according to the population of his parish. The money so obtained is invested in Government securities and the association will submit a report to the proper authorities.

Salvation Army News.

Adj. and Mrs. Bristow left for Toronto on to-day's train. During the next two weeks quite a revival has broken out at the Citadel, New Gower St., seventy-six seekers having been forward last night the meeting conducted by Capt. Cairnes was no exception and the Salvationists are looking for another good time to-night.

Foxes Very Plentiful.

Foxes are very plentiful along the Southern Shore, especially between Witless Bay and Mobile. A man named Kennedy of the latter place secured two last week, one of which, a superb silver grey, is reputed to be worth between $300 and $400. The fur is of the finest kind.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

There were no prisoners in court to-day.

Several civil cases for rents, debt, etc. were adjudicated upon in the Central District Court.

Don't you believe that experience is better than hearsay? If you suffer from piles, just try Zam-Buk. You can do so at our expense. So assured are we of the result that we will send you a free trial box if you send to our Toronto offices full name and address and a one cent stamp to pay return postage.

Scores of people daily acquaint us with the benefit they have derived from the use of Zam-Buk. Mr. F. Astridge, of 3 St. Paul St., St. Catharines, Ont., says: "For five years I have suffered untold agony with protruding piles. The pain was so great at times I would almost scream."

"I lost weight and had no appetite. I tried everything I ever heard of for piles, as I was willing to take anything to get relief. It was useless, however, and I almost gave up in despair. One day a friend gave me a sample of Zam-Buk, and told me of a friend of his who had been cured. I decided to try Zam-Buk, and the relief I got was encouraging. I used three boxes, and at the end of that time I was completely cured. I wish I could have got Zam-Buk years ago; it would have saved me a great deal of misery."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poison, varicose sores, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld., upon receipt of price. You are warned against harmful imitations and substitutes. See the registered name, "Zam-Buk," on every package.

A Time at Kilbride.

The Kilbride Amusement Club had a grand time there last night at the house of Mr. P. Brien. Twenty young men and women attended. Dancing was the principal feature of the programme and was kept up till five o'clock this morning. The music was furnished by C. Stanley and J. Tobin on the accordion. Songs were rendered during the intervals by Messrs. Dunn and Phillips, Miss Skeans and Miss Murphy. There were twelve guests from town including Mr. S. Walsh, the president, and Mr. Dooly, the secretary-treasurer. The Club proposes to erect a hall there next spring.

Head Peet Returns.

Head Constable Peet who with Officer Lee was up in St. Mary's Bay the past week or more, returned here by the Portia last night. They were engaged, we learn, in making enquiries into the loss of the schooner Isabella, which vessel it was reported in December month struck a portion of wreckage floating about off St. Mary's Bay and went to bottom with over 500 qts. of fish. A thorough enquiry was made and the Officer will submit a report to the proper authorities.

Salvation Army News.

During the next two weeks quite a revival has broken out at the Citadel, New Gower St., seventy-six seekers having been forward last night the meeting conducted by Capt. Cairnes was no exception and the Salvationists are looking for another good time to-night.

Foxes Very Plentiful.

Foxes are very plentiful along the Southern Shore, especially between Witless Bay and Mobile. A man named Kennedy of the latter place secured two last week, one of which, a superb silver grey, is reputed to be worth between $300 and $400. The fur is of the finest kind.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

There were no prisoners in court to-day.

Several civil cases for rents, debt, etc. were adjudicated upon in the Central District Court.

OLINDA WINS RACE.—The Olinda, Capt. Courtney, arrived at Macleod last night after a run of 32 days. The vessel called at Pernambuco and made a good run down. The Lady Napier left one day ahead and the barque Cordelia five, so that she has beaten these vessels by a good margin on the run south.

CHILD KILLED TO DEATH.—Mr. Hutchings, K.C., Deputy Minister of Justice, had a wire from Channel yesterday evening saying that a little boy named John Osborne was burned to death at Mouse Island Saturday while his mother was out of the house for coal. The child was only 3 years old. The message does not give any particulars of the accident.

PROSPERO JAMMED AT SEAL COVE.—Bowring Bros. has a message from Capt. Keen to-day saying that the s.s. Prospero was stopped near Stone Island, at the mouth of Seal Cove. There is a solid sea of ice there and it is impossible for her to get to Herring Neck or Change Islands. There is no getting along, Capt. Keen says, without a down wind.

WRECKED VESSEL FLOATED.—The wrecked schooner Helen Matthews, that was lost in Freshwater Bay last fall and afterwards towed to St. John's by Mr. R. Hopkins, was successfully floated to her normal condition yesterday. She lay off Crosby's wharf all the winter submerged to the deck. Mr. Hopkins will now put her on dock and make an AI schooner out of her. He bought her for $7.

Another Trip North.

It is to be hoped in the interest of the public generally, and the business men now in town from the Northern outports in particular, that the Government will despatch either the Propero or the Fogota north to make another trip provided the ice does not prevent such being done. Besides about twenty business men there are several clergymen now in town waiting to get to their homes. There is also a fair amount of freight offering.

THE E. M. F. IS WONDER.

Dragged Over Hill.

At 12.45 to-day as a boy named Wheeler was driving a horse attached to a slide laden with coal up the steep incline leading to the Methodist College, the animal fell, was dragged over the ice out on Long's Hill, nearly colliding with another team waiting its turn to get up. After detaching the slide from the horse, the slide took charge of the men and went with great speed over the hill, smashed some poles in the park fence, with which it collided, and turning completely round it sheered and going further crashed into the man John Reardon's house and did considerable damage. The horse was badly cut and several people passing near narrowly escaped being hurt.

WONT GO THERE.—The S. S. Portia, this trip, will not go to Bonne Bay as heavy ice is reported there, and it is not believed the ship will get to that place.

FIS HAT CATALINA.—It is estimated that there are 3,000 qts. of fish still held at Catalina waiting to be shipped to St. John's. It will likely remain there now till the spring.

The shore train arrived here from Carbonear at 1.10 p.m. to-day bringing W. Woodford, H. H. Archibald, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Ferguson, W. Crosbie, E. Pippy, R. Dawe, L. Simmons and T. P. Connors.

REPORT NOT CORRECT.—Mr. Norman called at our office yesterday to say that the report published in Friday's paper about the fire at his house on Water Street West was not correct. No man named Williams lives under him and there was no blaze up at all. The report was given by a party who gave his name as Williams.

Dr. Brehm's Report.

(Cops.)
Department of Public Health,
January 21st, 1911.
Dear Sir,—In reply to your letter of the 18th inst., asking for a report on the outbreak of typhus fever in Pope's Lane and vicinity, I beg to submit the following for the information of the Council.
1.—The Cause of the Outbreak.
It is now generally held that typhus fever is, in all probability, caused, like other infectious diseases, by a special germ or microbe. This germ has not yet been discovered, however, and, as in the case of the present outbreak, the disease sometimes makes its appearance in very insanitary places without being traceable to any preëxisting cause. Typhus is at the present time a very rare disease, and outbreaks occur only in the presence of dirt, overcrowding and poverty and in unhealthy dwellings. In the Pope's Lane houses all these conditions were present in a very marked degree. As there had previously been no case of typhus in the city during the past nineteen years, the only discoverable cause of this outbreak is the condition of dirt and squalor in which the families first affected were living. I have investigated in person to the effect that the disease was brought to Pope Street by a fisherman named Rogers, and am satisfied that this report is quite unfounded.
2.—History of the Outbreak.
The number of known cases up to the present date is 13, and the names and dates when they were reported and admitted to hospital are as follows:
John Joseph and Peter Collins, Pope Street; Dec. 26.
John McManus, Central Street; Dec. 28.
Mary Pittman, Central Street; Dec. 31st.
Rose Whalen, Pope Street; Dec. 31.
Rev. Thos. Goff, Patrick Street; Jan. 1st.
Edward Woodfine, Cuddy Street; Jan. 2nd.
William McDevitt, Pope Street; Jan. 3rd.
William Fanning, Barter's Hill; Jan. 3rd.

was removed for observation in a possible case of the same disease. In all these patients the earlier symptoms were ill-defined and such as are usual in typhoid. The case of Mr. Whiting, which I saw with Dr. Scully, was the first in which it was possible to say definitely that the disease was typhus, and a day or two later the other cases also developed the character of this disease.
As it appeared to be assumed as a matter of course that some cases of illness which occurred in the Pope's Lane tenements a short time before those mentioned above were also typhus cases, I will state briefly all the facts relating to the matter which are known to me. On Saturday, the 2nd of December, I was informed by telephone that a man named Collins was ill at 8 Pope Street, and was without medical attendance. It is the duty of the District Surgeon, and not of the Health Officer, to provide attendance and medicine for the sick poor, but thinking that the illness might possibly be of an infectious nature, I visited the house an hour later. I found that Joseph Collins, who had been ill only four or five days, had had an attack of bronchitis; he was then recovering and had no sign or symptoms of fever of any kind. Mrs. Collins was also ill, and on examination I found that she was suffering from a bad attack of pleuro-pneumonia and was too weak to be removed to hospital. There was no symptoms of typhus or other fever. The family appeared to be in destitute circumstances, and I reported the case to the officers of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, who sent some assistance and prescribed for Mrs. Collins on Monday, and instructed her sister to inform me, or to get a district doctor if there was no improvement. I received no further message, but heard a few days later that Mrs. Collins had died. I have since learned that she was visited by another medical man, who certified that her death was due to pneumonia. I heard nothing more of the family until Dec. 24th, as stated above. Two days after the Collins boys had been sent to the hospital I was informed that their grandmother, a Mrs. Reardon, aged 82, had died after an illness of only a few days. I had, no previous knowledge of this case, but the short duration of the illness, is, if correctly stated, not consistent with the supposition of typhus. I saw and examined Collins and his wife, however, and can say positively that neither suffered from typhus.
3.—The Steps That Were Taken to Limit the Outbreak.
As already stated, the patients, with one exception were removed to hospital, and the cases remaining at home were placed in strict quarantine. As soon as the Collins' cases were seen by me at Signal Hill arrangements were made to have the house thoroughly disinfected. This was done by employees of the Health Department, under the supervision of the Health Inspector. As it was thought that the case of Mrs. Reardon might also have been infectious, the house occupied by her was disinfected immediately after the burial. Disinfection was also carried out in each of the other infected houses as soon as the patients were removed. The healthy inmates of the infected houses, as is usual in the case of typhoid, which the case were first quarantined, but were visited by me very frequently. This procedure seems, so far to be justified by the result, as up to the present time no second case has occurred in any of these houses, or in persons who may have come into contact with the inmates after the removal of patients and disinfection of the houses. In the case of the Cheeks family, all three of whom were attacked, the duration of Geo. Cheek's illness shows that he, in all probability, contracted the disease before the first patients were sent to hospital; the second and third cases in this house were undoubtedly infected before Mr. Cheeks was reported to be ill. The disease is not so highly infectious in its early stages as when fully developed, and there is much less danger from infection from patients who are removed early. In these circumstances also the danger of infection through third persons, i.e., persons who are not suffering from the disease, but have been in contact with patients is slight.

As to the Council's question whether there is any danger of the disease spreading, it is still too early to speak confidently, but while a few more cases might be expected among unknown "contacts," and perhaps among those who have been necessarily exposed to infection it is not at all possible, in my opinion, that the disease will spread widely, or extend into other quarters of the town. Typhus is always more difficult to stamp out in winter, for the reason that people spend so much of their time in doors, and in very many cases, do their best to shut out all fresh air. It cannot spread widely where houses are kept clean and properly ventilated. I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) R. A. BREHM,
Medical Health Officer
John L. Slatery, Esq.,
Secy., Municipal Council.

THE E. M. F. IS COMING.
Myriads of Seals
Met by S. S. Fogata in Trinity Bay.
Yesterday afternoon as the S. S. Fogata was coming south, and when about half way across Trinity Bay, a unique sight presented itself to the vision of the captain, crew and passengers all of whom were on deck. The ship suddenly ran in among a great school of old harp seals beating north, and for about 20 minutes she was running through them. The seals were in myriads and could be seen on all sides from the ship as far as the vision could reach. They seemed to be undisturbed by the presence of the ship and gambled and frisked about the bows and hull, and were evidently making for the whelping ice in the far north. (Capt. Barbour says that there were hundreds of thousands of seals in the "school," and neither he nor any of his crew or passengers ever before witnessed such a sight. It is known that these seals go south in the early summer feeding along and generally about this season of the year return north and make for the whelping ice in bodies to bring forth their young, and in years gone by thousands were netted in different bays long before the regular sealing voyage began. Deputy Minister of Mines Turner who was on the ship took several snapshots of the scene.

Shot Down In Cold Blood

Special to Evening Telegram.
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.
David G. Phillips, editor and novelist, was shot six times to-day as he approached Princeton Club by F. C. Goldsborough, a Harvard man, who afterwards committed suicide. Tonight Phillips, who is at Bellevue Hospital, is in a critical condition but has a fighting chance for his life. The body of Goldsborough is in the morgue. He was apparently insane and had a fanatical grudge against the author. Goldsborough was 23 years old, and was a son of D. E. K. Goldsborough, of Washington. Phillips was aged 43 years. "There you go," snapped the assassin, as he opened fire; and "There I go," he exclaimed as he sent a bullet into his own brain.

The mover will make special reference to the charge that Travers, the Manager of the Farmers' Bank, now under sentence in the Penitentiary, contributed $2,500 to the Fielding Fund a year ago.

The fastest trip on record between Washington and New York was made by J. P. Morgan's special in 3 hours, 55 minutes. The distance covered was 224.7 miles. The record made between New York and Washington was played out. And for fear they'd offend the baymen, the papers won't call them baymen but apply what they consider a more refined name—the "outport man." "His friends, the 'outport man' here and the 'outport man' there, and they have as much use for the outport man that they run aside from him when he strikes the town looking for a berth or a help, out to restore a long lost horse." We don't see any of the editors who bleed for the outport man in their mind invite any of them up to tea when they arrive in the spring and fall. Politicians bleed a lot for the outport man when he's well down north or well up west, but as soon as he enters the Narrows they make tracks for some secluded spot or get indisposed. APPOINTED LECTURER.—Mr. W. Edgar was appointed Lecturer for 1911 at the annual meeting of the Tasker Educational Committee held last night. TIM. SHANNAHAN Gives Mrs. Tucker's Views on "Soaking the Baymen."

"Well, I'll tell you, Tim," says Mrs. Tucker, "my relations down in the Bay are getting sick and tired of the idiotic set talk that is doled out to them in our papers. Mind you, the baymen are not as green as some people think, and this 'ready to bleed' for the bayman at a moment's notice is getting played out, and the high time to call halt. Why," Mrs. Tucker says, "you'd swear the St. John's man had a knife sharpened waiting to remove the scalp of the bayman to hear some people talk, and you'd think all the merchants in town were stopping up all night planning an onslaught to rid the bayman of his life upon his arrival in town. This is likely to cause a false impression with an odd horse." "I don't see any of the editors who bleed for the outport man in their mind invite any of them up to tea when they arrive in the spring and fall. Have State Pay All Physicians.

Professor Moore, of Liverpool, proposes to establish a National Medical Service.
To have the State pay all doctors' bills in the United Kingdom is the rather startling idea of Professor Benjamin Moore, of the Liverpool University. He proposes to substitute a national medical service for the present system "whereby a mob of 32,000 swayed and underpaid British doctors in private practice earn on an average less than $1,200 a year. An interesting point is that Professor Moore regards the fore-shadowed legislation for invalidity insurance and Poor Law reform as a step towards his ideal of a national medical service. He estimates that for an expenditure of less than $50,000,000 a year for ten years, the eradication of consumption, pro-

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—The person who has instinct enough to watch the signs of the times, very often benefits by them. My man came in the other day and he said to me—"Mm, I am very much afraid we are going to have a hard spurt of weather; so-and-so is here, and I am afraid we'll see more hard weather this winter than we have had many a year."
"Never mind, Tom," said I, "you know Tory times are hard times, and as you think there is something in the wind we had better prepare for it. We got in some coal and all the necessary, and sure enough the next day was a terribly cold one, and still we by the stove. No need to tell you the editors know everything, that when old age comes on and the blood gets poor, we generally in fact always, feel the cold. Well, as I was saying the next couple of days was very severe, but Uncle Nath came down to the doctor, poor old Aunt Inna was very sick and he had to come for the doctor. He had a good cup of tea before the stove with the cup in one hand and the saucer in the other, just like the old folk used to do in our young days, and that one action of his brought back a lot of things to my old brain." Our conversation drifted to Governments and their doings, but when I asked him how the people in Shanland's Bay were now, politically, he nearly went wild. The way the poor people had been treated by the present apology for a Government in Shanland's Bay was so bad, as he slapped his fist on the table, you can bet your bottom dollar they will get no show again."
Yours sincerely,

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

On Friday evening, January 7th, 1911, at the home of Mrs. Adam Baldwin, 157 Santiago Ave., Rutherford, New Jersey, Mrs. Baldwin gave a dinner in honour of the twentieth anniversary of her marriage. This was followed by a large reception attended by seventy-five couples. The decorations consisted of Mrs. Baldwin's favourite flowers, chrysanthemums, and the American and Newfoundland flags. A very pleasant evening was spent in singing and dancing, and also in listening to recitations by Miss Aletha Baldwin, and musical selections by Miss Annie Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were married in the Church of the Redeemer, Fourth Avenue and Pacific Street, Brooklyn. After five years of happy wedded life in Brooklyn, Mr. Baldwin purchased a detached cottage in Rutherford, New Jersey, where the Baldwins have become very popular. During the evening a toast was given to Mr. Baldwin by Mr. Frank Stedman, Borough Clerk of Rutherford, in which he spoke of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin's sterling qualities.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin's one desire was that they could have had some of their old companions of Newfoundland to participate in celebrating the very happy hours of the evening.

Coasters Hurt Man.

Shortly after 6 p.m. yesterday as Mr. Thos. Kelly, cooper, was returning from work and crossing Cochrane Street on his way along Gower Street, two boys came down the former thoroughfare on a slide at a very rapid rate. They yelled out "clear the road," as boys usually do, but Mr. Kelly, who is very deaf, did not hear them and was unaware of their proximity to him till the slide collided with him and threw him with great force to the ground. He fell in such a manner that his head came in contact with the ice and he was rendered unconscious, while blood flowed freely from an ugly wound in the scalp. Messrs. Kelly and Mullings, of the Customs, who were passing, picked the man up, but the heartless boys did not stop to render assistance and continued on their way. The gentlemen named conveyed him home and calling Dr. Cowperthwaite several stitches were put in the wound. A man named Gerald King, who also saw the accident, thinks he knows the boys, and Inspector Collins and Sergt. Savage are making enquiries into the affair. Kelly was very ill last night, and if the lads who "hurt" him are found they will be prosecuted.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its forms can be cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything. I had a sensation of suffocation, and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as if I were rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sensation of suffocation, and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden." Now, it seems a shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription. This is a cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

Wanted His Pay.

The Husky Jamaican Didn't Care to Work for Nothing. An English naval officer tells of being on a war vessel which took provisions to St. Kitts, one of the British West India Islands. A hurricane had left many of the inhabitants in a destitute or even starving condition. Hungry crowds gathered at the wharf, but refused to help unload the food that was to be given to them unless paid for their work.

A similar story sheds light on the Jamaican negro. Some years ago a hurricane devastated the island, and a large relief sum was raised, much of it in England and the United States. The committee having charge of this fund sent a wagon load of lumber to a husky black man whose house had been scattered over the parish. He and his family were living in a rude shack made out of odds and ends.

"What's that for?" he asked of the men who were unloading the material in front of his patch of ground. "That's for your new house," was the reply. "It's from the relief fund and won't cost you anything."

"Who's going to build mah house?" "You are, if anybody does."

"Who's going to pay me fur mah work?"—Waynesboro Record.

Boy Had Fits For 6 Years

Druggist advised DR. A.W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD—Cure complete and lasting.

Mrs. J. D. Palmer, 38 Park St., Amsterdam, N. Y., writes: "When six years of age my boy began to have fits. They came on in the night. He would make strange noises, stiffen out, froth at mouth, face would twitch and sometimes turned purple. After the fit he could not talk."

"The family physician said all he could do was to keep them down somewhat. The second physician pronounced it trouble Jeffersonian epilepsy; but could not cure him. He suffered for six years and before beginning the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food had three fits in five days. Our druggist recommended Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. He has taken seven boxes and has not had the symptom of a fit since. His color has greatly improved; he is not nervous and irritable like he used to be, and we consider his cure complete."

Such results are only obtained by the use of the genuine Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food—not from imitations or substitutes. 50 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir,—Two young ladies going home from the rink Saturday night got out of the street car at the foot of Patrick St. and proceeded up that thoroughfare. When midway up some rough-looking man stopped them and asked them for money. They told him they had none, but he insisted they had; and being refused again caught hold of one of the girls and handled her pretty roughly. The other girl ran up the street calling for help. A gentleman going down Hamilton Street heard the call and ran to the scene. The scamp seeing the man coming made hasty tracks. On the gentleman coming up to the girl he found her lying upon the snow apparently unconscious, but finding she was in safe hands, soon came round and proceeded to her home. Ladies being insulted has become quite frequent in the West End, and it is not safe for a woman to go out after dark without an escort, more especially on a Saturday night, when so many hard cases are seen "scuffling" their way along the streets and lanes. The practice of some of our young girls going to the rink Saturday night is not commendable, as they are exposed to many temptations during their travel home. It would be far better for them to stay at home and attend to their household duties and not leave them till Sunday morning, or for the old lady. Still, if a policeman would give Patrick Street an occasional visit it would not do any harm.

A Boston paper says: Hans Holmer says he cleaned up $7,000 on his Powderhall Marathon victory, and that the bookies, of whom there were eighteen regulars, doing business in stalls, lost $30,000. Holmer's winnings were mostly made on betting on himself, which rather takes the wind out of the sails of the very readable story current just after his victory, that he went over to Scotland down to hard pan financially, after he had bought his passage over. He got odds at five to one before the race, and had more to bet when he found he was going well, but his handker had hard work to place it.

No sooner was the race won than Holmer prepared to hurry back to dear old New York, turning down all kinds of offers, which meant big money.

forewarning the mill owners of this District of the great risk they would be running at Catalina if they allowed mill owners to price their own coeprage lumber. I wish to inform Messrs. Plaindealer & Co. that out of the two score mill owners that he referred to, there are men of common sense enough who have been in the business long enough to be able to settle their own business without the assistance of Mr. Coaker or any of his associates.

And now to place the saddle on the right horse I would inform the above gentlemen that they must be aware that Mr. Coaker, if they know the gent, was flooding this District, and I hear Bonavista District also, with letters of advice calling for a meeting to be held at Clarendon, October 8th or 12th, for the same purpose, which proved a complete failure. This being the case, a few mill owners being in St. John's on business were captured by Coaker and taken to Renouf's building where the all-important meeting took place, that had to be finalized at Catalina, about 60 miles or so from Clarendon where they failed to attend the meeting previously.

In this we see Plaindealer playing the "white feather," and to screen Bro. Coaker, he says to mill owners, "Don't make a mess of it."

No fear of this, Messrs Plaindealer, if you yourself don't make a mess of it.

"Portia" Had a Very Stormy Trip.

Channel because the weather was too thick. The ship lay off in the Gulf till next morning when it cleared up somewhat and enabled Capt. Fitzpatrick to poke her into Channel at 11.30 p.m. Next evening Ramea was reached. Owing to bad weather—a S. E. snow storm—the Portia was kept here all night. Next morning, the snow storm still raging, the Captain got her out and worked up Hermitage Bay to Puskthrough where the Portia lay till 4 a.m. next day. The ship got to Grand Bank at 8 p.m. The storm was raging so fiercely now that an attempt to land the mails and passengers failed, the boat and those in her came near being driven off to sea, and the passengers were glad to get back to the ship and remain there all night. Next morning the wind moderated and the landing was effected without mishap. From Grand Bank on every port was made without undue delay. The ship brought a small freight.

Leaving St. John's on the 10th inst. Capt. Fitzpatrick had a stormy run to Cape Broyle there being a heavy sea and thick fog. From this port right on to Bonne Bay where she arrived on the 16th, the trip was performed without interruption by weather conditions. Leaving the same evening on the home route the run to Bay of Islands was marked by very cold weather and a terrific gale from the N. W. with snow; the mercury went down to zero. Next morning the ship was off Cape Ray, but Capt. Fitzpatrick could not meddle with the land or try for Hack Beat Ordeman.

Milwaukee, Wis., January 18.—Completely exhausted by terrific strain, Henry Ordeman, American wrestling champion, was defeated this morning in a finish wrestling match by George Hackenschmidt, "Russian Lion." First fall came after 2 hours, 37½ minutes of most desperate struggling, while Ordeman, worn out, lost second fall in 2½ minutes. The bout did not conclude until 2 o'clock. Hackenschmidt won only because he had greater endurance. Twice he picked Ordeman up bodily and slammed him to the mat, but each time the latter rolled away. The third time proved too much and Ordeman's shoulders were pinned to the mat. After ten minutes' intermission, the second fall was wrestled, but Ordeman was "all in" and fell readily.

Channel because the weather was too thick. The ship lay off in the Gulf till next morning when it cleared up somewhat and enabled Capt. Fitzpatrick to poke her into Channel at 11.30 p.m. Next evening Ramea was reached. Owing to bad weather—a S. E. snow storm—the Portia was kept here all night. Next morning, the snow storm still raging, the Captain got her out and worked up Hermitage Bay to Puskthrough where the Portia lay till 4 a.m. next day. The ship got to Grand Bank at 8 p.m. The storm was raging so fiercely now that an attempt to land the mails and passengers failed, the boat and those in her came near being driven off to sea, and the passengers were glad to get back to the ship and remain there all night. Next morning the wind moderated and the landing was effected without mishap. From Grand Bank on every port was made without undue delay. The ship brought a small freight.

H. W. de FOREST TEA CO'Y.

Your money back if Purity Flour does not prove entirely satisfactory in the baking.

DON'T simply buy flour from the dollar and cent side of it. Buy high-quality flour. That means PURITY FLOUR. The first little extra cost is more than made up by the extra number of loaves of bread it makes—by the superiority of the bread and pastry in sweetness of flavor and nourishing qualities. Buying Purity Flour is a safe investment. You get large returns, not only on account of Purity's ability to produce more, but because Purity contains the greater nutriment and the vim of a strong hard wheat flour. Food made from Purity Flour gives the consumer health, snap and force, which cannot be gained from the use of the weaker soft wheat flour.

"MORE BREAD AND BETTER BREAD"

PURITY FLOUR

You can buy as little as a 7 pound cotton bag or in 14, 24, 40, and 98 pound sacks. Also in barrels and half-barrels

Purity may cost a little more than some flours but you'll find its more than worth the difference. To be sure, it must bear the trade mark.

Why was every Coal Dealer allowed to build wooden sheds, covered with iron, and WE were refused? Was it because we lowered the price of COAL?
