MESSAGE FROM THE WEST

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO BOB KAT INGERSOLL

Gambler's Den Raided—Newspaper Entered Sensational Trial—Thanksgiving Day.

[From the World's Correspondent.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Since last I wrote you we have been favored with two visits from the Rev. Robert G. Ingersoll, who undertook to discuss on the Talmagean Theology, Liberty of Man, Woman and Child, and What Must be Done to be Saved.

Of course the gallant and eloquent colonel had large audiences, but somehow he has lost caste a little by reason of his

CRAMPEDNESS STAR ROUTE
SWINDLERS,

for everybody here believes that the men whom Bob so pathetically defended were downright swindlers, and that no one knew 't better than Bob himself. And there is a sort of horse-sense logic amongst the people that suggests that Bob, who is always so meek at the orthodox. God for his injunctive, should have served up a little wrath for the star route gang. In truth, Bob must have a care, or he will lead people to the conclusion that he, too, is mortal and capable of faults, and if he does it will be all over with him. Hitherto he has been regarded as the noblest of fathers, the gentlest of husbands, the purest of patriots, the truest of friends. A son of the POLYGLOT OF HUMAN PERFECTIONS!

And yet last night he revealed that there are five and twenty millions in the United States and three hundred and seventy-five in Toronto alone, just as free-headed and barbaric as Col. Robert Ingersoll, who are debased and barbaric enough to believe in a God, but who couldn't be thought by any few, to defend the great national thieves of their country. Still I said Mr. Ingersoll had crowded audiences as he always is sure to have, for his footing is uncommon good footing after all. It was surprising that he should have been so well received. He was in very good humor and so were his audiences. But with the exception of a little joke about the United States, and angels into Noah's ark, suggesting to him the way in which the democrats were taken to the polls at the recent election, there was nothing new in his three lectures.

He told

"THE OLD, OLD STORY." Two of our city divines attempted to answer him on the following Sunday. Dr. Thomas of the Peoples church answered him in a spirit of christian courtesy. And it may be safely said that Dr. Thomas' answer was about as complete and conclusive as an answer could be given. Of course it is impossible to answer him. Dry cold logic may be answered. But eloquent, impassioned, savage rhetoric cannot be answered. The christian religion is not a demonstration but a hope, and this Col. Ingersoll shows well enough in his country. And it is. The Rev. Dr. Lorrimer also answered the colonel, but it was in a bullying affected manner, which gave Ingersoll a grand advantage, and so on the following Sunday afternoon

THE COLONEL MOVED HIS STAGE WITH THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO BOB
KAT INGERSOLL

He proved his theory of the unconscious action of the brain by the fact that the reverend doctor had unconsciously absorbed a sermon of Dr. Parker's, the unexpected arrival of his own. Of course this brought the house down. But there is very much that this great leader of thought says that might be said and ought to be said from every pulpit in the land. And if it were said with half the real earnestness that Ingersoll uses, there would be no complaint of weary sermons or half empty pews.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO INGERSOLL.
It is a gospel of good health, large and liberal education, the care and culture of the pleasant good, flowers and little children, of brotherly helpfulness here and now, whatever the broader and more living gospel ought not to be monopolized by Ingersoll. But a little less theology and a little more life would give the paper, full of imaginary sketches of the very minds whom Ingersoll influences. It is said the Col. cleared $4000 by the three lectures he gave in Chicago.

VERBALLY INFIDELITY IS PROVING TO BE THE LIFE THAT NOW IS.

It has long been the boast of our most worthy that they may be had crushed gambling in Chicago. If so, it is remarkable to what an extent gambling can stand crushing. The other night a celebrated gambling den was raided, about eighty-five entertaining young gentlemen, comprising clerks, mechanics and professional gamblers were present. About $3000 worth of gambling truck was seized.
And yet the mayor says there is no gambling in Chicago.

ADVENTURE! MONEY-FIVE WHO WAD TO PAY FIVE DOLLARS A PIECE took another view of the matter. Chicago is a great city for gamblers. On the morning last the Chicago Herald published as a supplement the Chicago Herald for November 25, 1882, and it was a really skilful paper, full of imaginary sketches of the Chicago of a century hence. Of course the columbian railway had given place to various air-line lines by which travelers could go from Chicago to Omaha in three minutes, and to Egypt or Russia or Scotland in about an hour and a half. It further reported that

NAGARA WAS DRYING UP, and that Ireland was an independent nation. This and more of the kind made the paper exceedingly interesting, and was a splendid example of a newspaper advertising itself.

A GREAT SENSATIONAL TRIAL is just now in process. Madeline Stiles the celebrated is a young and beautiful Italian, who shot her paramour at the Pater House in July last. The victim of her anger had lived largely on the wages of her shame, and had paid her back in the most ill doing. Her sympathies of the day are largely with the poor girl who in an evil hour blew out the brains of the man from whom she had borne so much.

The trial is creating quite a sensation, more from the bitter conflict of the lawyers than anything beside. The revelations made in court are generally in the sensational opinion is that the girl Stiles will be acquitted. Yesterday was

THANKSGIVING DAY. Secretary Jethro enjoyed the day with Government. He had so much to be thankful for and they so little. Your venerable correspondent kept the day most acredly. The sunset of the dying day now upon his noble brow as he plunged the knife in the slabs of fat. The strawberry ever honored a thanksgiving at Ac river. E.M.C.

TEMPERANCE WORKERS

A BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY.
A Farmer Violently Believed of $40 in Queen's Park.

On Saturday afternoon Thomas McLean, an unoccupied farmer from the township of Callander, county of Peel, came to the city. He struck St. John's ward during his stroll around town and there met Finally the younger of the two men under pretense of taking the farmer to his boarding house in York and putting him to bed, led him to Queen's park and while walking in a secluded spot McLean received an unexpected and stunning blow on the head.
In a minute his pockets were ransacked of $40 in money and a pair of old gloves. It was dark when the affair occurred. The master was reported to the police this morning and Detective Burrows was deputed to look up the case. Not many hours had elapsed before the detective was on his trail, and the highwayman was cleverly run down in a house on Agnes street by the detective and Policeman Clarke. The man's name is Thomas Asher. He was in his pockets found $17 in bills, one of which was identified by McLean. Detective Burrows was also in possession of a pair of gloves which he identified as the pair which had been stolen from McLean. The latter identified the gloves. Detective Burrows thinks he has a clear case against the bold thief.

THE MAYORALTY.
Mr. Withrow Denies the Rumors of His Withdrawal.

(The Editor of The World.) SIR: It has come to my knowledge that some persons are industriously circulating the report that I have retired in favor of Mr. Manning. There is no truth in the report, nor have I been approached by any one with that object in view. I am a candidate for the position of mayor, and I am receiving the most satisfactory assurances of support from all classes. I shall remain a candidate till the close of the poll, when I hope to be the successful one even should there be "sixteen candidates" in the field.

Comments on the President's Message.
LONDON, Dec. 4.—The Telegraph says that President Arthur's message will not rank with the great efforts made by many of his predecessors. If ever a single paper preached the waning influence and the coming downfall of a political party, it is the message delivered yesterday by the president of the United States. The message is no blind to the true interests lying in the mind, and so infirm of purpose as President Arthur. The message says there is now no need of expanding the enormous surplus of the national debt proceeds last year's rate the protective tariff must fall to the ground, because there will be no need of expanding the enormous surplus when the debt is effaced. The Standard says: President Arthur's action in dismissing the officials who tried to interfere with the progress of justice in the star route case is a substantial pledge of his sincerity. The need of the time is not to conciliate principles, but to enforce them, and the succession of instances in which the president will show he can withstand the pressure of a clique and dispense patronage to all alike on the ground of individual fitness, will do more to purify life and rehabilitate his party in the esteem of honest men than the most emphatic repetition of fine phrases. The message is an honest recognition of the evils deeply rooted in the political and social life of the American people. The Times says there is no doubt that President Arthur after a series of cautious tactical movements has been able to bring the star route case to public connection and the reformers and independents who are among the most eminent of our all characters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The Herald says the president's message is an admirable paper.

Witness to Death While Drunk.
PERKY, Dec. 4.—John Little, known as "Ock," Buckley, who lived on 18, 6th con. of Hope, was in Port Hope on Saturday with a load of rye. Before he left town he got very drunk, but got home and had a successful night's sleep. He went to the table when he fell down in a drunken stupor. Mr. Armstrong, a neighbor, went over to his place yesterday morning about 8 o'clock and found the poor man lying at the stable door, frozen stiff, but not yet dead. He was taken into house and the doctor was called, but he died before he was able to get to his feet.
He died early this morning.

A Fight with Desperados.
MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—An attempt was made here today to arrest three desperadoes named Cook, belonging to Mount Sterling, Ill. A fight between them and the citizens ensued and a hundred shots were fired, making the desperados were killed, another mortally wounded, and the third badly hurt.

The Sultan Fears Assassination.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 4.—The sultan did not attend the mosque on Friday. It transpired that an attempt to assassinate him was contemplated. The sultan had completely lost his temper and had ordered his harem to be burned. Dervish Pasha is to be exiled.

Information Laid Against Mr. Redmond.
CORK, Dec. 4.—Informations will be applied for to day against Wm. Redmond on account of his seditious speech November 21, notwithstanding Redmond's absence on the continent.

Miss Deed
JACKSON, Dec. 4.—Tison, speaker of the house of representatives, was shot and killed by one Saunders at Baldwin today.
There are no particulars.

Burglars in Sarina.
SARINA, Dec. 4.—Burglars broke into Blundell & Michael's dry goods store last night, being the safe to pieces and stole the cash box, containing only $25.

THE SPORTING WORLD.
John Day, the well-known horse-trainer, is dead.

Maurice Vignaux intends to visit New York, and will leave France in January, 1883.

Captain James C. Daly and John Mo-Mahon were for the Police Gazette medal for the wresting championship at New York, Dec. 14.

Richard K. Fox has changed his mind in regard to backing Tom Allen to fight John L. Sullivan for $5000. Mr. Fox says there is no chance for Allen, without the least doubt, one of the greatest pugilists living, and he supposed, when he came to this country and asked Mr. Fox to match him that Allen was able to battle as formerly.
Allen's set-to with George Locke proved that Allen was not the same Tom Allen as six years ago, and Mr. P. has decided not to match him against Sullivan, but if the latter had against the $1000 Harry Hill he would have gone on with the match.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.
The queen opened the new courts of justice in London yesterday, with imposing ceremonies.

The remains of the archbishop of Canterbury will be buried in the family vault at Addington.

The mercury along the Hudson valley has fallen to the degree below zero.
Navigation to Albany is considered closed.

It is calculated that the embellishments and robberies, private and official, in Russia during the year amounted to 26,000,000 roubles.

An American coal exporter says that the firm he represents has shipped 200,000 tons of coal this season, and that the quantity increase of 10 per cent. for some years.

THEIR HEADS TOGETHER.

The Series of Meetings by the Church of England Mission—A Good Gathering
Last Night.

The first of the weekly night missions in connection with the church of England temperance mission was held in St.
George's school house last night. Considering the inclemency of the weather the attendance was very good; almost every episcopal church in the city was represented by both the pastor and many lay members. The chair was occupied by Bishop Sweetman, who said the series of meetings to be held during the week had been called at the request of the Anglican synod at its last meeting. It was desired that societies in connection with all the churches in the city would be formed. He then called upon

Rev. Canon Dumoulin, who was glad the work had been undertaken by the church of England as he knew that it would be conducted on a broad basis.
He thought all present could do much to banish the demon of intemperance. There had been a great revulsion during the last few years in the drinking habits and he wished those present to assist in forwarding it. He requested the ladies, at the con-ing festive season, not to give wines to their friends, but a cup of tea or coffee—
"the cup that cheers but not inebriates"— and hoped the movement would go forward and meet with success.

Bishop Bellin of Algoma, thought the move made by the synod of Toronto had been a good one. It had been cast as a stir on the church of England that she was not part in the work. This may have been true, but she has now stepped out and will go forward with enormous stride.
The bishop's remarks were warmly received by the old church of England temperance movement and it has everything connected with it that will bring it to the membership of the church. He had observed that the higher orders in England thinking the movement had emanated from the lower classes took no part in it; but the present movement was calculated to gather in all classes high and low. He referred to the late archbishop of Canterbury and said he had been at the head of the present movement. He hoped that at no very distant day, not only would the bible be read in our schools, but that a book something very similar to Dr. Richardson's "First Lesson in Temperance" would also be placed on the list of text-books. He thought that another good move would be to establish numerous drinking fountains throughout the city.

The final chorus of the evening was sung by the choir and was very well received. The service was closed by a prayer and a benediction.

THEATRE RECEIPTS IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Saturday's receipts at the New York theatres were the greatest of any day heretofore. All the places of amusement were liberally patronized, and the receipts were very large. The entertainment, Patti, Nilsson and Langtry being the attractions, were simply overwhelming. Fourteen thousand dollars were collected at the theatre, and the receipts at all the other places of amusement were also very large. The receipts at the theatres were as follows: Patti, matinee and evening, $10,000; Nilsson, afternoon concert, $6,000; Langtry, matinee and evening, $4,500.

A Brakeman Killed.
OTTAWA, Dec. 4.—An Ottawa man named Wm. McGibney, aged 23 years, a brackeman on the Canadian Pacific railway, was killed in the Renfrew yard on Saturday night. He was struck by a freight train while crossing the tracks. He was hurled into the air and fell into the path of a freight train. After passing the pin in and connecting two of the cars, he proceeded and was struck by the next train. He was killed on the spot. He was a native of Ireland and had been in Ottawa for some time. He was a very good man and was well liked by all who knew him. His family is in Ottawa and they are very grieved by his death.

THE LANGTRY RECEIPTS.
NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Mr. Henry E. Abby made public last evening a statement of the receipts from the "four weeks" performances in this city. It was sworn to by Jas. E. Palmer, treasurer. The receipts of the first night, including the premium obtained by the auction sale of the boxes were $61,742.40, making the receipts for the week $18,765.25. The receipts for the second week were $15,597.88; the third week $14,000.00; and the fourth week $14,000.00, making a total of $61,800.00. The Bernhardt season realized $66,750.

Stratkoeh in Difficulty.
MONTREAL, Dec. 4.—Mar Stratkoeh appears to have become stranded here, as his company are hardly able to fill the bargain with the loss of the theatre. Miss Miles left for New York in a company matter, and the remainder of the company must leave for New York in a day or two. The theatre is in a very bad way and the manager is struggling to get out of the difficulty.

AN UPWARD PROSPECT.
A Sportsman Sank Up to His Knees in Mud.

DETROIT, Dec. 4.—During the slow water in the river a day or two ago Sen Barron, well-known Essex grain buyer, went shooting near the mouth of the Cansar river. As he did not return at dark his friends became alarmed and Thomas Resume of Anderson, and others went in search of him. They found the boat at the mouth of the river, and Mr. Barron stuck in the mud. The water being very low he jumped out of the boat and went ashore when he sank above his knees in the clay, where he had remained. When found he was nearly famished, having been in that position several hours, unable to help himself. He was carried to the nearest house, and with the aid of a physician and considerable medicine was enabled to escape. He had remained a few hours longer he would surely have been drowned by inches, for the water backed up several feet shortly after.

Two Pools.
DETROIT, Dec. 4.—Two men named Leslie and Johnson were in the office of the Canadian river, where he had been constructing a house hotel at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, and became engaged in a discussion of the Frayne-Von Behren case. During the conversation Leslie stated that he was a good shot, and if Johnson would stand by him, he would guarantee to put a ball through his hat. Both parties were considerably under the influence of liquor, and Johnson readily agreed to stand the test. The shot was accordingly fired by Leslie, with the ball entering the centre of Johnson's forehead and passing out at the top of his head. The shot was so foolishly performed that it was not attended with serious result.

A Fatal Quarrel.
BUFFALO, Dec. 4.—This afternoon about 4 o'clock two laborers named Thomas Mahoney and William Greif quarrelled while at work on a bridge, and as they were going into the tool house Mahoney struck Greif on the back of the head with a riveting bar, fracturing his skull, causing almost instant death.

Another Victim to the Fro.
RENFREW, Dec. 4.—At 11 p.m. on Saturday Wm. McGibney had his feet caught in a frog and two wheels passed over his head and arm, mangling him so that he died two hours after. The coroner did not deem an inquest necessary.

Richard K. Fox has changed his mind
L. Sullivan for $5000. Mr. Fox says there is no chance for Allen, without the least
doubt, one of the greatest pugilists living,
and he supposed, when he came to this
that Allen was able to battle as formerly.
six years ago, and Mr. P. has decided not to
he would have gone on with the
match.

temperance mission was held in St.
George's school house last night. Consid-
sented by both the pastor and many lay members. The chair was occupied by
been called at the request of the Anglican
then called upon

Rev. Canon Dumoulin, who was glad
would be conducted on a broad basis.
He thought all present could do much to
few years in the drinking habits and he
wished those present to assist in forwarding
it. He requested the ladies, at the con-
and meet with success.

stir on the church of England that she
was not part in the work. This may have
and will go forward with enormous stride.
The bishop's remarks were warmly received
by the old church of England temperance
had emanated from the lower classes took
no part in it; but the present movement
only would the bible be read in our schools,
but that a book something very similar to
Dr. Richardson's "First Lesson in Temper-
move would be to establish numerous drinking fountains throughout the city.

sung by the choir and was very well re-
and a benediction.

cert, $6,000; Langtry, matinee and evening,

killed in the Renfrew yard on Saturday
