HYAMS TRIAL TO-MORROW

THIRTY-FIVE NEW WITNESSES HAVE BEEN SUMMONED. Of these the Crown has ten, the Defence twenty-five—Mrs. Hyams said to give Evidence—The Trial Likely to Last Three Weeks.

The Criminal Assizes open on Monday to-day before Judge Ferguson and the first case called will be that of the Hyams twins, charged with the murder of Willie Wells. The case is likely to last three weeks.

The Crown has summoned 10 new witnesses in addition to those who appeared at the trial of last May. Three or four of these are reporters called with a view to proving that the death of Wells took place between noon and 12 o'clock on Monday, Nov. 1, 1934.

The defence has subpoenaed 25 new witnesses and a number of these will give evidence with a view to combating the crucial point of the Crown's arrangement, which is the necessity of proving that a murder was actually committed.

Barrister Horn is prepared to combat the testimony as to the attempt to insure Mrs. Hyams' life, should it be admitted, with a full explanation. Mrs. Hyams too will appear.

Mr. Hyams' trial will not testify. There is no obligation on her part to testify against her husband, but the Crown could compel her to testify against the brother, Dallas Hyams. As the date of the trial has been postponed and the defence has a weakness which has prostrated her ever since the previous trial has been given more and more intense, the Temple has some doubts of her recovery. Only intimate friends are allowed to see her and that she should testify in the Assize Court is improbable. The trial will probably commence to-morrow morning.

Second Trials Rare. The second trial of prisoners charged with murder is a matter of rare occurrence, the only previous murder trial of note in which such a measure was taken being that of the Pritchard connection with the Longue Pointe murder. The prisoner was discharged after two disagreements by an Eight county jury.

MANITOBA GRAIN MOVING. Six and a Half Million Bushels Already Shipped. DUFFERIN'S EARLY SETTLEMENT. A Correspondent Says He Is Old and Dead and Tired Out. New York, Nov. 3.—Harold Frederic cables from London: "An intimate friend of the Marquis of Dufferin says that he regrets that he is not successful in his efforts to secure the return of the Marquis of Dufferin to his estate, which he is now, he is old, extremely deaf, wholly tired out and in the most earnest desire for retirement from public life next year."

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW. Necessary for $20,000 Cash by January 1st Causes Special Prices. To a World reporter on Saturday, Mr. Dineen said: "We want by the 1st of January $20,000, and have over $100,000 in stock to sell. It is an immense capital to conduct a fur business properly, as the goods have practically to be bought a year in advance. This $20,000 is to be used to buy skins from London in January and other furs about the same time. It is not needed for as the public is probably aware by this time we are producing what we buy, and are enabled to put prices down on that account, and it is the only true way for the shopping public to get value for what they pay. If it were bought from wholesale houses, as many furs do, we should have to pay from 25 to 30 per cent more for the same quality. The public knows that we manufacture every article we sell; that our styles are the best, and that we know the value of the goods in this country. The cheap prices we are advertising, and which will be paid for by the public, are the result of our seal and Persian lamb jackets, sable, electric seal, Persian and gray mink capes, muffs of every description, fur-lined wraps, fur trimmings, hats and coats for the neck, children's and men's furs, coats, sleigh robes, ruffs and so on, and all our hat stock, which is the largest in the world, is made up here to-day, the result of an accident on the C.P.R. a short distance east of Toronto, which caused the derailment of that car, together with two coaches and a parlor car. The dead are Mr. Hare, no longer in the world, and a child named Barkley, parents live in Wheeling. The injured are not seriously hurt."

"Women Wage Workers." The above was the subject of a lecture delivered by Mr. T. Eaton on Sunday afternoon at the Union for Practical Progress, Forum Hall, Grand and Yonge-streets. There is no better authority on this subject in Toronto than the lecturer. He took a general view of the labor problem as it relates to women, and the rise of the movement in England, and the separate wage-earners, took a discursive survey over this continent, pointing the figures given from the best accredited authorities of the percentage of married and single women employed in shops and factories and their average wages. It was found that in Canada, and Toronto especially, the competition was less keen than in Europe, though a pretty low rate of wages here, 50 to 75 cents a day being a fair wage. The injustice of women cutting under each other in price for pin-money was fully insisted on, and the apathy and indifference to their own interests in this respect was deplored, but from an awakening interest in these important matters a better state of things was predicted, and the ladies were advised to take a more active interest in their own affairs.

South African Values. South Africa, which for the past three months has attracted so many to its famous wealth passages, Johannesburg and Kimberley, still offers the same inducements as is evidenced by the travel which still continues. The route via New York offers special advantages in fast and large steamships, meals and berths furnished, and maintenance while waiting for the connecting Union or Castle Line steamer at Southampton, so that passengers from at no further expense from the time they leave Toronto until they reach Cape Town, which still is taken inland. Berths are reserved on the transatlantic steamer and called for on Cape Town steamer, thus saving the passengers sailing by the first connecting vessel after arrival in England, allowing them, if desired, to take a steamer from London, without extra charge. The rate, which is very reduced, sailing lists, and all particulars can be obtained from Barlow Cumberland's steamship agency, 71 Yonge-street.

WE WANT BACK OUR CHANGE.

When one makes a purchase in a store he always expects to get his change back. If an article costs 70 cents, and the purchaser hands the salesman a dollar bill, it goes without saying that the latter will give back to the customer the 30 cent change. The law of the land lays it down as a fundamental principle that the purchaser is entitled to his change. It would appear to be a waste of time, if not downright silly, to argue or even go through the formality of stating, such a well understood business axiom. Still it may serve a point to keep the axiom clearly before us, in view of the fact that the shopkeeper does not give us back our change when we put him in jail. No honest man ever dreams of keeping back change. When Frank Smith (now Sir Francis) kept the retail grocery store many years ago he was very punctilious in seeing that his customers got full weight, good measure and the correct change. It is to the practice of these and similar fundamental principles of honesty that he owes the distinguished success that has marked his career.

It is therefore with a great deal of surprise and much regret that we witness the same gentleman, in the fullness of years and when honors ennoble his name, becoming a party to the breaking of a sound and honest business principle. We regret the honor, gentlemen's conduct in advising Mr. Pearson not to give back to gas consumers the change to which they are entitled. A disinterested tribunal has decided that each consumer is entitled to 25 cents change out of every dollar he pays into the company. That the consumer is entitled to this change and that the directors of the company are refusing to give it back are facts about which there is no dispute. When the Legislature gave to the Gas Company a monopoly of the sale of a prime necessity of life, it coupled with the gift certain conditions. One of these conditions was that as soon as the consumers paid in more than was necessary to run the business of the company, the directors were to get back the surplus; they were to get back their change. The company, however, hold on to the change and refuse to give it back. The question is, should they be indicted for the same way as the storekeeper would be who refused to give up 33 change out of a ten dollar bill? As a matter of fact, we believe that directors are more culpable than the dishonest storekeeper. And for this reason: Those to whom the Government gave this franchise acquired a possession that has doubled in value. The man who put $1000 into the company now possesses an interest worth $2000. The people who gave the shareholders this franchise surely ought to receive some kind of consideration from the shareholders. They ought at least to be honestly dealt with, even if no positive concession is granted them. Furthermore, the directors who get $5000 a year between them as well as their 10 per cent. dividend ought to have some consideration for those who have granted them such valuable concessions. Therefore, we say that our directors who refuse to give back any change to the public are even more culpable than the dishonest storekeeper. We would like Mr. E. R. Cockburn to tell the public why it is he refuses to give back to the consumers their change. Mr. Cockburn is a member of Parliament and takes part in the making of the laws of the land. Why should he not set a good example to the people by obeying the law himself? If his fellow-directors won't deal honorably with the public, why won't he save his reputation by stepping down and out? The directors of the Gas Company are well-to-do gentlemen and cannot plead poverty as an excuse for their want of generosity. They are rich and as we cannot find a more suitable word, we leave it at that. A couple of years ago The World began an agitation to wake up the public to the fact that they were entitled by law to a reduction in the price of gas. A lawyer who had gumption enough to see that there was a good legal case, won it and now will be paid his bill of costs and add considerably to his reputation. We now point out that the directors of the company are amenable to the criminal law for withholding our change. A judge of the High Court has decided that the directors have violated an important statutory enactment and the crime is stated that for such a violation the directors are amenable to the criminal law. Will any one give us a single reason why the directors should not make themselves answerable in court? If they are not guilty of the charge, they ought to be glad of such an opportunity of freeing themselves from a serious suspicion. If they are guilty of violating a solemn trust reposed in them, and of appropriating money that belongs to the people, it is only right to the people that they should get back their change. Do the directors on their part show any consideration to the people? Do they not resort to all the wiles that the law gives them to make the consumer pay the utmost term of farthing? Do they not force the consumer to pay his bill even though it be manifestly incorrect and exorbitant? Do they not surround the man with the tongue to cut off the supply of gas when the consumer refuses to settle on the company's own terms?

Suppose we retaliate and try on the directors somewhat of the same kind of law they try on the public. Out of all Toronto's young lawyers there is surely one who will see the advantage of winning a reputation as a champion of a good business connection for himself. The World has pointed out the way. If he only has the courage to come out and fight the Gas Company after its own methods, his every move will be watched with the keenest interest by the whole public.

MANITOBA WHEAT. The total receipts of Manitoba wheat at Lake Superior ports from September 1 to October 19 this season were 3,377,825 bushels, as compared with 4,285,462 bushels in same period last year. The shipments from lake ports during that time were 1,941,853 bushels, as compared with 3,669,038 bushels last season. Some reports state that there threatens to be a great accumulation of wheat at the close of navigation at most of the elevators in the interior and at lake ports, owing to the unwillingness of farmers generally to sell at current prices. Such an accumulation may prove a great obstacle to the receipt and shipment of wheat after the close of navigation. While there should not be any obstacle placed in the way of enabling farmers to hold their wheat, it is now so near the time when lake shipments must cease that dealers and farmers ought to consult together to devise some plan by which the wheat can be moved out of the province and farmers enabled to hold for better prices, if so they desire, and even to better advantage than by holding in elevators in Manitoba or Port Arthur. Would it not be well for farmers to arrange with some grain dealers or exporters and some bank, so that the wheat may be shipped to Buffalo or some point west of which it can be transported by canal or railway to the seaboard when holders wish to sell? The farmers might receive advances on their wheat at the rate of, say, 45 to 50 cents per bushel, and No. 1 hard spring wheat at Port Arthur. By this means farmers will be in a better position to take advantage of any good market during the winter than they would be by holding their wheat in Manitoba. A few weeks ago The World said that owing to the immense crops of hard spring wheat in Manitoba and Northwest States, and the comparative failure of winter wheat crops, the high premium paid for hard spring might be expected to disappear. This has happened, and No. 1 hard spring is now quoted in New York at same price as No. 2 red winter. Farmers in Manitoba who feel dissatisfied with the prices now offering for their wheat, because they see that English markets are three to four shillings per quarter higher than last year on general run of wheat, should bear in mind that there has been little or no advance in prices of hard spring wheat.

HOLMES GUILTY. One of the most cold-blooded murderers known to the criminal records of any country was convicted at Philadelphia on Saturday. It is to be hoped the disposal of Holmes to prevent his speedy execution. If ever the murderer of the two little girls in this city in October, 1894, comes into the hands of the Canadian authorities stern justice will certainly come his way. We believe, however, the American courts are equal to saving us this disagreeable duty.

COMMERCIAL NEWS. There was a good demand for Toronto railway shares on Saturday, with sales as high as 70, or an advance of 5 per cent. from low point early in the week. Although prices generally of local securities were firm at the close the tone of the market is not strong, and it would not take much to give prices a set-back. The first sale of Ontario Industrial Loan for a long period was made on Saturday at 30. It is the lowest price stage, wouldn't it be better for the directors of the company to seriously consider their position? For our part we would fearfully hate to see the venerable directors of the company spending their last days behind prison bars over the Don—still we are in earnest. We want back our change.

TORONTO AND TROLLEY EXTENSION. When we consider the advance that the trolley system has made in the American cities we see plainly that Toronto is far behind in the race. Last week in Cleveland a suburban trolley railway 25 miles in extent was opened to the public. The ceremony was the occasion of a great demonstration on the part of the farmers and people living along the route. The line extends from Cleveland to Akron and passes along the ordinary highway. The railway is franchised to carry freight and express matter and it intends to make this a feature of its business. The passenger rate is fixed at $1 for the round-trip, which is at the rate of one and a half cents per mile. There are trains between the two cities every half hour, and they run during eighteen hours in the day, in addition to the low fare service. The route of the line is 25 miles long, and another to Elmira, 25 miles in length. This gives Cleveland 50 miles of suburban trolley railways in actual operation and two more lines, together totalling 45 miles, are prospective and will be constructed next spring. The result of the low fare service and the frequent service they afford has had the effect of taking the business almost completely from the steam railways that cover the same territory.

It is surprising that Toronto does not show more enterprise and render connection with this city easier and cheaper than it is at present to the surrounding district. A trolley line to Hamilton should have been completed this year at the latest and the people should now be enjoying a 31 return rate with a half hourly service. Nothing at all has been done in the extension of the suburban lines this year in any direction except a few miles along Dundas-street. The farmers of all the leading thoroughfares are anxiously waiting the day when they will be able to send their produce to town by railway instead of wagon, and when they will be able to visit the city two or three times as frequently as they now can. If the people of Toronto were enterprising and up-to-date, we would now have trolley connection with Whitby, Newmarket, Hamilton and Brampton.

It is not improbable that on Nov. 19 there will be a further adjournment of the trunk line presidents, the understanding among railroad men is that the presidents look for an amendment to the Interstate Commerce law early in the coming Congress, whereby the stock of the trunk lines will be placed in the hands of the government. It appears that the desired legislation cannot be secured the agreement signed by the regulation of tariffs will be adopted.
