HUERTA MAY ANNOUNCE TODAY HIS RESIGNATION AS PRESIDENT REPORT SPREAD AT VERA CRUZ

Virtual Dictatorship Expected
to End Speedily in Huerta's Departure for Puerta Mexico or Vera Cruz Under British Escort—Peace Protocol Discussed by Senate.

Canadian Press Despatch.
VERA CRUZ, July 11.—The resignation of Provisional President Huerta may be placed before congress on Monday, the general departing immediately thereafter for Puerto Mexico, or Vera Cruz under British escort, according to reports
in circulation here tonight, which originated from a source that is usually well informed. Odolfo de la Lama, minister of finance in Huerta's
cabinet, who arrived here today en route to Europe, while refusing to confirm these reports, said that Huerta's retirement at an early date
was not unlikely, and that from now until Monday was "but a short time
to await developments."

Reports from the Mexican capital
also state that Francisco Carbajal,
the newly appointed foreign minister, replacing Esteva Ruiz, the actually minister who will arrive here tomorrow on his way to Europe, will be named provisional president.

SECRET SENATE SESSION.

Canadian Press Despatch.
MEXICO CITY, July 11.—The senate held a short session this afternoon behind closed doors. It is believed that the Niagara protocol
was discussed, but if the senate took any action with reference to it, this is not known.

Francisco Carbajal, the new minister of foreign affairs, met the members of the diplomatic corps today.

The remnant of the garrison at Guadalajara arrived here today. The officers report that Gen. Jose Maria Mier, the governor of Jalisco and commander-in-chief of the federal forces at Guadalajara, was captured by the constitutionalists and, they fear, was shot. Gen. Lucio Blanco,
one of the constitutionalist chiefs,
they also report, was mortally wounded before entering Guadalajara.

The general belief is that until the chamber of deputies takes action
with reference to the recent elections, no action will be taken toward the establishment of a provisional government. At the same time the people of the capital are optimistic
with regard to a peace settlement.

SYLVIA INCITES SUFFS TO RIOT

Miss Pankhurst, Defying Law,
Headed a Big Procession
in Streets of London.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, July 12.—In spite of the fact that her license of release from Holloway Jail had expired, Sylvia Pankhurst took part today in a procession thru the east end of London to Caning Town public hall. A large number of members of East London
Federation, with a band and banners,
assembled outside of Miss Pank-hurst's residence, and the band played
"The Red Flag" as she entered a waggonette, unmolested by the police.
She was quickly surrounded by a
body guard of friends and supporters.
The militant leader was loudly
cheered when she reached the hall,
and again when she rose to speak.
Referring to the deputation which Premier Asquith received on June 20,
she said the premier needed to be enlightened regarding the conditions
under which women lived in the east end. Seeing the condition of things,
if they had the courage they ought to have, there certainly would be rioting
in the streets.

Heroism Almost Lost Life.
LONDON, July 11.—James E.
Higman, a home boy, 15 years of age,
was drowned in Jackson's Pond about a mile south of here this evening. The lad was learning to swim and ventured beyond his depth.
Mr. Trenwith with whom he lived,
jumped in after him and he in turn
was nearly drowned, having to be pulled out by his wife with a pike pole.

Shots Were Exchanged

LONDON, July 12.—A Belfast
despatch to The Daily Mail says that shots were exchanged in a fight late Saturday night between Nationalists and Unionists at Killes, County Derry. The police succeeded in preventing serious disturbances.

EIGHT BALLOONS ON LONG JAUNT

Start Made in National Elimination Race From St.
Louis—One Balloon
Blew Up.

Canadian Press Despatch.
ST. LOUIS, July 12.—Eight balloons
sailed from here today in the national elimination race, but at midnight little was known here as to the position of any of them.

As the balloons passed out of sight
of the watchers at the starting ground in the south part of St. Louis, they were drifting slowly south by east or south by west.

The balloon "San Francisco, 1915"
crossed the Meramec River, 15 miles southwest of St. Louis, at 7.30 p.m.

The "Uncle Sam" passed over Belleville, Ill., 20 miles southeast of here
at 11.30 tonight, according to a telephone message received here.

At 12.04 o'clock a balloon was sighted
about 500 feet above Mascoutah, ten miles southeast of Belleville.

One accident marred the start which otherwise was as nearly perfect as could be. The balloon "Hoosier," the ninth entrant, burst just 45 minutes
before the hour set for its departure.

Hugo Mueller, supervisor of the inflation of the balloons, and Charles P.
Senter, the official timekeeper, said
the "Hoosier" had lain in water three weeks during the Ohio floods, and that as a result the cloth was not in the best condition. No effort at repairs will be made.

POLICE COWED BY ULSTERMEN

Volunteers Reported to Have Recaptured Consignment
of Ammunition Seized
at Londonderry.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, July 12.—The Londonderry correspondent of The Daily Express sends a sensational story of how 100 Ulster volunteers, on Saturday morning, recaptured at the Enniskillen station a consignment of arms and ammunition which had been seized at Londonderry on Wednesday, by the customs authorities. The consigna-ment was being conveyed from Londonderry to Dublin, under an armed guard of ten policemen.

At the Enniskillen station the volunteers surrounded the guard with drawn revolvers and swiftly removed
the cases and placed them in motor cars. The police were powerless.

NEWFOUNDLAND IS HOSPITABLE TO DUKE OF CONNAUGHT'S PARTY

Royal Visitor Keenly Interested in Viewing Industries at St.
John's—Governor and Lady Davidson Extended Hospitality of Home at Grand Falls.

Canadian Press Despatch.
ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., July 12.—The Duke of Connaught enjoyed yesterday and today. One of the most interesting experiences of the present trip was when he reached Botwood Harbor, at the mouth of Exploits, Notre Dame Bay, early yesterday, and saw the great shipping port created within five years by the activities of the Harmsworth Company. Two steamers, the Parthenia and Cabotia, were loading pulp and paper for England.
On landing the duke was received by Governor and Lady Davidson, act-

DROWNING TOLL INCREASED BY HEAT WAVE

Series of Drowning Accidents Marked Saturday and Sunday in Ontario—Toronto
Boy Lost Life at Woodbine
Beach—Double Fatality
at St. Catharines.

Victims of Drowning
Bert Carr, aged 15, at Woodbine Beach, Toronto.
Galbraith Elmalle, aged nine,
and James Comrie, aged 10, at St.
Catharines.

Thomas Ketcheson, aged 24, in Trent Canal, near Frankford.
Gladys Bongard, aged 15, in Bay
of Quinte, off Mississauga Park.
Unidentified Italian in Bay of Quinte, off Burck's Island.
James Higman, aged 15, in Jackson's Pond, near Uxbridge.

Bert Carr, aged 15, was drowned at Woodbine Beach Slip, Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. A call was put in at the Life-Saving Station at 3.17,
and the crew responded at once.
When they arrived at the spot they recovered the body and began resuscitation, but at 4.15 Dr. Clemens, who had been meanwhile called, pronounced the boy dead.

The lad, who lived at 21 Tomlin
avenue, was bathing in the dangerous
slip with a companion, Cyril Blackwell, aged 15, and he evidently stepped into a hole. Members of the Life-Saving Station gave great credit to Jack O'Connor of No. 2 dredge, City of Toronto, who materially assisted them
in the difficult work of recovering the body.

Three Brothers Drowned.

SPECIAL TO THE TORONTO WORLD.
BELLEVILLE, July 12.—Everett Ketcheson, aged 24 years, son of Thomas Ketcheson, of Sidney Township, was drowned in the Trent Canal near Frankford yesterday. The victim was an assistant to the engineer on that part of the canal and was in bathing
with Fred Harrison and Ross Turley.
Harrison and Turley were brought around about fifteen or twenty minutes after they had been taken from the water, having been overcome in attempting to rescue Ketcheson.

Gladys Bongard, a girl of 15 years
of age whose parents reside in the Bay
of Quinte from off Mississauga Park, where the family were summering, was bathing on a shoal when she slipped from a log into deep water and did not rise. The body was recovered some minutes after.

An Italian whose name could not be learned was this afternoon drowned
while bathing in the Bay of Quinte off Burck's Island. He had been engaged on sewer construction work in this city.

CARRIED AWAY BY CURRENT.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., July 12.—
Galbraith Elmalle, aged nine, and James Comrie, ten years of age, were drowned in the Ten Mile Creek Saturday afternoon while bathing. The current in the stream from the Cataract Power House at Decew Falls carried the lads
off their feet according to the story of a younger brother of the Elmalle
lad who viewed the accident from the bank. The bodies have not been recovered.

The remains of Fred Gauthier, aged 15, who was drowned in the old Welland Canal Friday night, have been found. Gauthier dived from a raft while in an overheated condition.

HAY OVERHEATING CAUSED DESTRUCTION OF BIG BARN

PRESTON, July 12.—The large barn, near Doon, of John Shee caught fire this afternoon thru the heating
of 30 tons of hay, just put in the barn. On account of no fire protection, the barn and the contents were destroyed, with three horses, several cattle and some chickens. The fire ran across the hay field and the pine bush of Louis Binkley is now on fire, the farmers having plowed
around the bush to keep the flames
from spreading any farther, but at the present time it is not known where the fire will stop. The barn and contents are insured for $3500,
which will not nearly cover the loss.

EMPRESS FINDING JUST WHAT WAS ANTICIPATED

Capt. Kendall Said if Stordal
Had Not Altered Course
No Accident Would Have Happened—"Unsinkable
Ship" is a Dream," Declares London Paper.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
LONDON, Monday morning, July 12.—"The fixing of the blame on the Stordal was what I knew from the first must happen," said Captain Kendall, when seen yesterday. As to the suggestion in the report that the Empress of Ireland should have given the Stordal a wider berth, Captain Kendall said that if the Stordal had not altered her course no accident would have happened. It was immaterial
how near together the vessels were.

"If each had kept her course in the upper reaches of the St. Lawrence, the ships would have passed quite close, and so long as they kept their proper course there is no danger. I am satisfied with the finding, for I know that the enquiry was conducted
by a brilliant, able man in a most impartial manner."

"I have no definite plans," said Captain Kendall, when asked as to the future. "I am still with the Canadian Pacific Railway, which I must say,
have acted splendidly and most kindly
all thru."

Altho held only on a charge of vas-
pated, John Bates, of Buffalo, is suspected of being a pickpocket and to have stolen a watch and a sum of money by picking pockets during the Orange parade Saturday afternoon.

To James Edwards, 230 St. Patrick, in the afternoon Edwards says he saw Bates put his hand in an elderly man's pocket near the corner of King and Dufferin. He attempted to arrest him then, but Bates eluded him in the street. Later, while on the back of a street car, Edwards saw the same man
attempt to pull off the same trick on Thomas Laird, 231 Mutual street. When Edwards attempted to arrest the thief,
Laird feeling a hand in his pocket,
grabbed Edwards thinking he was the culprit. Explanations followed and Bates was turned over to Officer Mac-Larty.

STEAMER CANADA IS ON ROCKS ALL PASSENGERS WERE LANDED

Canadian Press Despatch.
RIMOUSKI, Que., July 12.—The steamer Canada of the Gespe and Bale Chaleurs Company, Limited, on her return trip from Montreal to Campbellton, N. B., struck the rocks off Cape Chate last night in a dense fog a half mile east of Cape Chate lighthouse. The Canada carried about 100 passengers for Quebec and Montreal and general cargo. The weather was calm and the grounding caused little excitement on board. All the passengers were placed in boats and landed on shore about half a mile from the stranded steamer.
The steamer Strathcona left Rimouski wharf late today to try to float the Canada. As the Canada went on the rocks at high tide it is anticipated the work will be difficult.
Cape Chate lighthouse is 75 miles east of Rimouski.

BIRRELL LOOKING CONFIDENTLY FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT

Canadian Press Despatch.
BRISTOL, July 12.—Augustine Birrell, secretary for Ireland, yesterday attended a Liberal garden party, where he made an address dealing with home rule. In the course of his address he said that while the situation in Ulster was undoubtedly grave, he never was more sanguine than at the present moment that a reasonable settlement would be reached.

It was admitted on all sides that home rule for Ireland was inevitable, the chief secretary continued. The only question at issue was to bring it about in such a way as to minimize the difficulties while uniting the whole of Ireland.

SERIOUS RIOTING NOT EXPECTED IN BELFAST

City is Stirred to Great Excitement, But Today's Big Demonstration is Not Regarded as Likely to Cause Conflagration in View of Precautions Taken.

Canadian Press Despatch.
BELFAST, July 11.—If the celebration of the battle of the Boyne passes
without a collision between Orangemen and Catholics, the home rulers
of Ulster will have passed another critical danger point. The demonstrations in honor of the day will take place on Monday when a great procession will march to Drumbragh, four miles distant, to hold the customary celebration.

Flags Lavishly Displayed.
The Protestant section of Belfast is decorated more lavishly than in former years. Flags and banners bearing inscriptions defying home rule are displayed everywhere. The presence of Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader,
and armed guards surrounding his headquarters at Captain Craig's house, together with a review
of battalions of volunteers, which several of the leaders held today, causes
much excited talk, but despite such exhibitions of high feeling, men in closest touch with the people of both factions predict that the occasion will pass without any conflagration.

Constitutionary Ready.
The Nationalists assert that the covenanters are working up a purely artificial crisis to frighten the government into accepting the "lord's"
amendments for the exclusion of the whole of Ulster from home rule.

Thousands of members of the con-stitutionary have been brought north to preserve peace on Monday, but this about the number usually mobilized
to repress the feelings of the wearers
of the orange and of the green on the most contentious day of the Irish calendar.

ARREST FOLLOWED POCKET-PICKING
Altho held only on a charge of vas-
pated, John Bates, of Buffalo, is sus-

ALL REMAINS TRANQUIL IN ULSTER NO OUTBREAK ANTICIPATED NOW VOLUNTEERS UNDER CONTROL

Explosion on Gunboat
SHANGHAI, China, July 12.—
A terrible explosion occurred
aboard the Chinese gun-boat Tungchi last night while the vessel was lying abreast of the Kiangnan arsenal. The explosion took place underneath the sleeping quarters of the naval cadets, thirty-five
of whom were killed.
The cause of the explosion
has not been ascertained.

INSPECTION TOUR OVER G. T. P. LINE

Dozen Members of Parliament
to Be Shown Mountain Section of Road.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, July 12.—In addition to the western trip, which it is expected the prime minister, the minister of finance and perhaps a few other members of the cabinet will make this summer, it is learned that arrangements have been made for a trip by about a dozen members of parliament from Winnipeg to Prince Rupert over the G. T. P., as the guests of that company.

The matter was arranged before the close of the session, and the main reason given by the company for extending the invitation was to let them see for themselves the great
engineering difficulty on the mountain section of the line for which the additional sixteen million dollar bond guarantee was voted.

The party will include Messrs. H.
B. Ames, Major Beattie, Major Sam
Sharpe, W. H. Sharpe, Gerald White, W. G. Weichel and probably as many more. They will leave early in August, and after a short visit to Jasper Park will stop at various points in the Rockies where the construction work was particularly difficult. After reaching the Prince Rupert terminus they will return to Fort George and will be taken down
thru the Caribou country in automobiles to the Fraser River. The rest of the trip down to Ashcroft will be made by boat on the Fraser River.

This is the route of the projected branch of the G. T. P. to Vancouver.

BODY OF VICTIM
ARRIVES IN CITY
Funeral of Commissioner Rees
Will Be Held Tuesday Afternoon—Identification Positive.

The body of Commissioner David M.
Rees, of the Salvation Army, one of the victims of the Empress wreck,
arrived at the C.P.R. Station, North Toronto, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. It was removed at once to Miles undertaking rooms, where it will remain until Tuesday, when it will be taken to the Army Temple.

The funeral service will be held at the Army Temple at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon interment will take place in Mount Pleasant Cemtery, where the body will be laid beside that of his wife, whose body was recovered immediately following the wreck.

Commissioner Rees was positively identified by the pyjamas and raincoat
which he wore on the night of the wreck.

GRANDSONS OF ORANGE PIONEERS IN PARADE

The "fathers" of Orangemen in Canada were Arthur McClean, C.E., and Ogle R. Gowen. Both participated in the first "twelfth" demonstration in Canada in 1831. Their grandsons,
George B. Sweetnam, and Harcourt
Ferguson appeared in the parade here
on Saturday, as members of Lansdowne Lodge No. 469.

Many People in Belfast Seem Satisfied Will Have Her Way in End—Military Preparations Still Go on in Glas- gow.

LONDON, July 12.—Attention on Saturday afternoon was directed to the fact that Belfast correspondents of Liberal papers here declared that many stories concerning Ulster's war-
like preparations were grossly exaggerated, while, on the other hand, The Daily Mail and The Evening News allege that the Liberal press is deliberately attempting to conceal the real truth of the feeling in Ulster.

In this connection it is interesting to note what The Sunday Chronicle's Belfast correspondent has to say. The Sunday Chronicle is one of London's most largely read papers, being owned by the Hulton of Manchester, one of the great directors is Earl Derby, the great Unionist statesman. Hulton's papers are almost as all-pervading in the north of England as are The Mail and News in the London area.

"There is no anticipation of immediate trouble," writes The Sunday Chronicle's Belfast representative,
"nor perhaps of any trouble at all, but
on the other hand, a good many people appear to be satisfied that Ulster will have its way in the end.
This morning (Saturday) Royal avon, basking in the sunshine, seemed exactly like the main thoroughfare of any other city.
Women in light summer gowns were shopping, Sandwich men advertised
excursions for next week, and traffic rolled across the river as usual. In the afternoon the military flavor to which Belfast has become accustomed
on Saturday afternoons was again apparent, and men in khaki appeared in the streets. Belfast does not laugh at them or go into hysterics over them.
The city treats them with respect, and they bear themselves in the same dignified spirit."

"This afternoon there was a presentation of colors to the national volunteers, a Belfast regiment, and a good deal of activity on the other side.
Military preparation grows steadily
and has become woven into the life of the town. But while anything in the nature of a prophecy can only be attempted at considerable risk, it seems clear that the casual and unexpected
precipitation of strife steadily becomes a more remote possibility. If trouble comes it will, I think, be well considered and deliberate."

"The Nationalists are holding themselves well in check," continues this correspondent, arguing that the quarrel is between the Carsonites and the government.

"In a similar way, Ulster men seem readily responsive to the advice of leaders. Both sides seem conscious of the danger of an explosion and would probably make a big effort to avoid
it. A feeling of responsibility has been infused into the rank and file.
A feeling of bitterness remains, but it has been disciplined and while this would make for more serious and persistent consequences, once the line
were broken, it militates against any sudden outbreak on Monday when the twelfth will be celebrated. The responsibility of the unheeded class always remains."

HUGE ORANGE PARADE WAS HELD AT BLANTYRE
Canadian Press Despatch.
GLASGOW, July 11.—Twenty-five thousand West Scotland Orangemen
held a demonstration at Blantyre, Lanarkshire, this afternoon. The grand master of Scotland, the Rev.
David Neas, declared that their policy regarding home rule was "no surrender." Great crowds witnessed the procession thru the streets,
and lively skirmishes occurred, but
only four persons were arrested.

Hate Half-Price at Dineen's.
A special inducement is offered today by the Dineen Company, corner Yonge and Temperance streets,
that should appeal to all discriminating buy-
ers. All the straws
and Panama hats
in stock will be offered at half of the regular prices.
An exceptionally fine stock of varied styles shapes and straws are to be chosen from, including all the season's high-class importations. Look half and the difference is that much saved. Better values will not be found anywhere in Toronto this season, and it will pay to look over your headgear
and secure a hat fifty per cent. of original cost today. Take a look at Dineen's window—there are more inside, and a new straw hat at divide 2 in
of the year is pretty nearly every man's need. At half prices it pays to buy for the future, too.

NINE THOUSAND ORANGEMEN CELEBRATED VICTORY OF BOYNE

Toronto Parade Was Largest Ever Held - Ten Hundred Brethren of Hamilton Joined in Demonstration - Many References to Bilingualism and Ulster Crisis.

Toronto Orangemen again crossed the Boyne in memory when they turned out nine thousand strong with the addition of many visiting lodges, including a contingent from Hamilton, 1,400 strong, and marched from Queen's Park to the Exhibition grounds on Saturday. Although the sun was broiling their enthusiasm was not abated.

Streets thru which the march was held were lined with people four and five deep, and at corners were collected big crowds. It is estimated that fully 100,000 people composed of citizens and visitors to the city turned out to see the walk.

Lodges Had Bands. Nearly all the lodges were preceded by a number of military brass bands. It was strong in drums and weak in music instruments. The first new use have-not the shrill shrieks of the wry-necked fife of other days, but a softer, rounder note.

Women True Blues. A noteworthy feature was the presence of many women in their True Blue Leagues, traveling in carriages or automobiles. There were also several children's lodges riding on omnibuses and scattered thru the procession.

Speaking from the text, Psalms cvii-10. "And He saved them from the hands of him that hated them and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy." Mr. Lowe drew a parallel between the words of the psalmist and the sentiments of approval from all parts of the congregation. "But," he said, "Orangemen alone will never save you. What you must have in your hearts is a faith and trust in the living God."

THE SERVICE WAS REMARKABLE FOR THE audible demonstration of sympathy with the sentiments expressed in the sermon, in the form of hand clapping not usually associated with a religious service. However, there was one of deep reverence and close attention.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST TO WOMEN

WAGES OF WOMEN LOW IN ENGLAND

Average Seven Shillings a Week, Suffragettes Tell Premier Asquith.

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, July 12.—The recent meeting between Prime Minister Asquith and the women representing Sylvia Pankhurst's East End Suffrage Club is unique in English history, for never before have women workers of the lowest social class told their wage grievances to so high a personage.

The average wage of women throughout the country, Mrs. Julia Scurr told the prime minister, is but seven shillings a week. Many women, she said, supported children and parents on this, although the Immigration Board has held that a woman cannot live in London on less than seventeen shillings and sixpence per week. To small wages and the severity of the struggle was attributed the large number of suicides among married working women of the city. Mrs. Scurr said the poor law attached harsh and humiliating terms to the relief given and was thereby hated by the indigent.

In justifying the demand of the working women for suffrage, the delegates told the prime minister that there did not seem to be any other way of making their wrongs known to the public. Women are still sent to prison for inability to pay their taxes and a few of those who suffer from drunken and brutal husbands can afford the luxury of a divorce.

One of the suffragettes, Mrs. Hughes, opened her argument by laying on the premier's table a brush that retails at ten shillings.

"For my share in making that I get two pence," said Mrs. Hughes.

Her pay, she explained, was two pence for filling 200 holes with bristles, and her husband two pence and half penny for finishing the brush. To support her home required fourteen hours work a day.

Another delegate said she was rearing a family of six children under the age of thirteen on her husband's pay of 35 shillings a week as a docker.

A pitiable story was related by a woman, who had started work in a jam factory at the age of eleven. When left a widow with two children, she shared her small room with an unfortunate girl whose baby had been born in a workhouse. As the widow's wages could not feed them all, the girl drowned herself and baby in the Thames.

Mr. Asquith in reply said that it would be perhaps difficult to get substantial and intelligent reform in the East End unless the women themselves had a voice in choosing the members of parliament. But their problem was such that could not be solved by any short cut. He promised to consider their case fully.

Although the premier died today, the delegates as non-militants and attacked militancy, the East London Federation, which they represented, has never repudiated militancy, nor have the delegates.

Summer Troubles

The child should be kept quiet during an attack of acute indigestion. If the vomiting and diarrhoea are at all severe he will be better and cooler undressed in bed or on a couch than attempting to move about the house or garden. For about 12 hours give the stomach a complete rest. Give no food at all; but teaspoonful doses of cool, boiled water. If this is not retained, then use the white of egg beaten in cold water.

After 12 hours the stomach will be better able to retain the food. If the action of the oil is not satisfactory, give an enema of salt and water. A teaspoonful of salt to one pint of boiled water, slightly warm. Use a soft rubber catheter on the end of a fountain syringe tube, so that a high injection may be given.

After 24 hours fast, if the stomach seems to be able to retain food, try one or two ounces of clear mutton broth; then thin gruel made from barley rice or wheat; or some chicken broth with thin dry toast; then a well-cooked cereal, and gradually work back to the regular diet.

Milk will sour on the stomach and should be diluted with water or gruel. It is best not to try milk for two or three days. The general rule for diarrhoea or vomiting is, stop all milk at once. Tepid sponge baths with a little soda or alcohol in the water are good to soothe the fever. These may be given frequently and the itching head kept cool with cold cloths.

This Week's Attractions at the Theatres

PERCY HASWELL, PRINCESS THEATRE.

"RAFFLES" AT ALEXANDRA

It is doubtful if any of the "crook" plays which have been given the stage lately, will live as long and retain its great popularity as "Raffles." This gentlemanly scamp has many admirers who never seem to tire of reading of or seeing him portrayed in the theatre. The Bonstelle Players will again present at the Alexandra Theatre, this week, commencing tonight. Horning's stories are always good reading and the clever manner in which he extracts the "crook" hero out of his difficulties, and shows him how to evade the detectives, always delights the audience. Although an audience knows Raffles is the thief, they are always glad to see him escape. This is due no doubt to the nerve and resourcefulness of the man.

SECOND REQUEST WEEK

The second request week at the Royal Alexandra Theatre, which ends Monday evening, has proven more interesting and popular than the first. Over three hundred more requests were received than in the first contest. The plays most asked for, for week of July 20th, are: "Get Rich Quick Wallingford," "Mary Jane's Pa," "Rose of the Rancho," and "The Woman." "Wallingford" and "The Woman" are separated by only ten votes. "Fondler Walk," "The Commuters," "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "Millstones," "Within the Day," received a large number of votes, but not enough to win, unless there is a big change by this evening. The name of the play to be given and the names of the winners will be announced in Thursday's papers. The third and last request week will be week of August 17. This contest will be governed by the same rules as the others. The first nine people sending in the name of the winning play will receive a box containing seven seats for any performance that week.

THE CHORUS LADY TONIGHT

At the Princess Theatre this evening, Percy Haswell will give her legion of local admirers their first chance to see a stock production of "The Chorus Lady," the famous play of stage life in which Rose Stahl starred from one end

MAKE SIMPLE "COOKER."

To make at home the simplest kind of a freeeze cooker, line a large candy pail with two or three thicknesses of paper or of asbestos. If that is not too expensive, pack to a depth of two and one half inches with clean hay; then set a tin pail with straight sides in the centre. This should come four inches below the top and leave a space of two and a half or three inches between the inner pail and the outside for packing. Then pack in all the hay that can be crowded in, bringing it even with the top of the tin and a little higher on the outside. Make a round cushion to fit snugly inside of the candy pail, and fill with hay.

The success of the cooker depends upon the kettle or pail in which the food is cooked; it must be set-right. An aluminium kettle with a cover that clamps on is the best for meats, beans, and boiled dinners, although an enameled kettle will do with a tightly fitting cover. Have the cooker near the stove, so that the kettle may be set into it the second it leaves the fire. Cover with the cushion and put the board cover over that, or if it will not so on, weight the cushion with a flat iron.

This cooker is useful in summer for keeping frozen desserts cool, as well as for cooking.

THE HIPPODROME

The headline attraction at the Hippodrome this week will be Toots Paka and her world-famous Hawaiian troupe. This is the first time that these well-known artists have appeared in Toronto, but they come well recommended. They will offer a number of native dances and songs, while Toots Paka will give her original Hula Hula dance. "Georgette" is billed as the special attraction, and is credited with being vaudeville's cleverest juvenile entertainer. An extra attraction will be the offering of Lewis Burns and Company, in a comedy playlet, "Telling Father." The sketch is said to be one of the best of its kind. The Stan Stanley Trio have quite an original method of introducing their act, which is credited with being full of humor. Page and Newton have a bright little offering, entitled, "A Bit of Vaudeville," while Bernard, Flinberry and Mitchell have a number of pleasing song selections. Kuma, a celebrated Japanese troupe, the Invisible Symphony Orchestra and the latest radio plays, complete the bill.

AD AT SCARBORO BEACH

Adair and Adair, the noted horizontal bar comedians, will be the feature act at Scarborough Beach. Park Theatre will be fresh films for the open-air moving pictures, and D'Urban's Band will continue its entertainment. Today the attraction at the park will be Zeno, Jordan and Zeno, who are recognized as leaders among aerial artists. There will be two concerts by D'Urban's Band and special

The Hollyhocks

From now on till late in the fall the hollyhocks will be in all their glory of tall and lovely stateliness. It is hardly necessary to remind ourselves of the dignity of these old-time blossoms. They speak for themselves.

Like many of our old standbys the hollyhock comes of a large family and an ancient one, namely, the mallows, of crusader fame. History has it that the several members of this family known to us here were brought into Western Europe by the soldiers returning from the Holy Wars. Later, these plants took a longer and more strenuous trip, when the first English settlers came across the Atlantic, bringing specimens and seeds of the plants with them.

The rose mallow, or hibiscus and the marsh mallow, together with the hollyhock or holly mallow, are supposed to be the best and hardiest specimens of the family cultivated here.

The hollyhock is a splendid example of the results obtained and to be obtained among plants by assiduous cultivation, by careful selection and hybridization. A casual observer could recognize with difficulty the original, single-flowered, five-petaled, rose-colored blossom, four to six inches across, as being the parent plant of the many gorgeous and utterly bewildering double pompons and roses that cling lightly to the tapering ten or twelve-foot stalk of the hollyhock of today.

For many years hollyhock has, until very recently, been discarded by amateurs as a plant not to be desired among perennials. This, because of an unfortunate fungus pest that crept into stock, supposedly because of the too excessive vegetative propagation, caused by a demand for named varieties. Gradually this disease died out, and healthy stocks were obtained. The disease is, however, occasionally seen, showing up on the plants as a creeping disfigurement, commencing at the lower leaves and working upward. An early application of Bordeaux mixture is the only and proper remedy and preventive.

Considered a perennial by many, the plant is strictly speaking a biennial, and the seeds should be started every second year to insure satisfactory results. Seeds sown in early summer and the seedlings transplanted in autumn and carefully wintered will insure good plants for next year. Propagation can be managed, with care, by cuttings from the roots in spring and judicious watering. But this is not always a satisfactory plan.

On account of the nature of the plant, namely, a constant looking upwards the sun, shady spots are not at all desirable. The plant will bend and twist and turn, despite stakes, until it sees the sun. A distorted instance of a stately plant is the result.

Double creams planted against a red brick wall make a grand background for the herbaceous border. Deep roses, crimson and even those showing the magentines, look well against a background of dark, say a box hedge, or against a cream brick wall. As sentinels guarding the garden gates, no perennials can take their place, other surroundings being in keeping with the gross nature of the plants. Indeed, a careful planner will utilize the hollyhocks in a variety of ways, bringing out the best points of the plants.

LONDON SUFFRAGETTES TAKE REST FROM LABORS

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, July 12.—While there has been a temporary slackening of militant suffragette activity since the mid-June Buckingham Palace, it seems to be only because the Pankhurst organization needs a little rest from the physical and financial strain.

An extraordinary grocery clerk in a middle-western town has written to an American official offering to come to London and put down the suffragette campaign. He does not say how he expects to accomplish it, but he guarantees success. All he asks is that his expenses be guaranteed, and that he be paid a bonus if he reaches the British officials.

THE NEW HOUSEKEEPING
BY MRS. CHRISTINE FREDERICK

"Careers" Versus the Profession of Home Making.

Is Home Less Stimulating, Less Cultural and Broadening Than "Business?"

OFTEN say in lectures that the greatest enemy of the highest homemaking is not the ignorant woman, not the woman who doesn't know, who is wasteful, or even neglectful—the greatest enemy of the home is the woman with a "career."

"I want to do something stimulating, something broadening, like social service or settlement work," sighed one sweet girl graduate; another woman is devoted to "art," and another is a "business" woman and types ten times twenty letters every day.

Now I have no fault with any one of these or other lines of work now open to women and filled so admirably by them; I rejoice in the "economic freedom" (what a good ring it has!) by which women receive a pay envelope at the end of the week. I have been several different kinds of a professional woman myself, from a demonstrator of the crayfish's circulatory system to unlightened youths to reporting lurid news for a big daily. But now that I have exchanged my M.A. for a plain and commonplace "ma," I have developed some thoughts on the whole subject of "business" versus homemaking.

Let women work at careers, as long as they wish; let them learn business sense (how much they need it!) and how to use a card system and the discipline of being a part of a great organization; let them develop "poise," self-reliance, executive ability; let them train and "find" themselves in the profession of their choice—but I will not have them try to make me believe, or try to impress other homemakers with the idea, that any kind of a "career" is "broadening" and "cultural" and that only homemaking is drudgery!

I have known—and, as I said, been one myself—a professional woman. And if there is any woman more narrow, more in a rut, more of a drudge, it is the average teacher, nurse and business woman. A profession tends naturally to specialization; the more thoro it is the less extensive are the other interests. It is the same with a doctor, who, unless he is exceptional, tends to be steeped in his speciality, to become a "one-idea" man.

Does teaching make a woman necessarily "broad?" I know teachers who know little of philosophy, and less of art; does pounding a typewriter and checking up a balance sheet mean "culture?" I know business women who know nothing of Tolstoy and less of Henry James; does taking the temperature of a patient and being able to differentiate his fibrils from his fibrils presuppose a tolerance for the great truths of life, taking the temperature of the great social pulse, and being able to suggest adequate remedies for its present indispositions?

Or, coming a little nearer, is there no "drudgery" in any profession outside the home? Is washing dishes the only act in all nature to receive the shafts of feminine wrath and dispassion? Think of the time spent in learning to master the technique of teaching, the weary years, the "papers" to be corrected, the spitals of Johnny Jones, and the "exams!" Were there not long, confining hours at a sedentary desk, with rows and rows of figures and dry books and a long apprenticeship to this "broad" business career? Were there, oh nurse, no hours of vigil, no changing patients, no trays and ice bags, no stifling odors, no sickening moments? It is all a matter of the individual. Looking at it from the heights, over distant years, homemaking appeals to me as more varied, more interesting, more cultural and more appealing than any one profession. Because it contains them all—nursing, teaching, domestic science, business sense and a big, generous welding of all possibilities in one. And the emotions!—Why, teaching stifles them, nursing dries them up and business muffles them—if continued over long. But in homemaking is all the sentiment, as well as science, love, the expression of self that homemaking makes possible!

Nor do we need to be married to have the true homemaking spirit—Frances Willard had it, and Jane Addams and Florence Nightingale. It is that will of the wisp which beckons onward, a light upon the dark and untrayed places of our social forest.

LEWIS ZIMMERMAN AT SHEA'S.

Zimmerman is well-known in Toronto as a headliner of distinction. Dick Orolius, the well-known character actor, will appear in his sketch, "The Toot's Temptation," as the second headline act. In it he is assisted by Mabel Warwick and a capable company. Tommy Gray and Nellie Graham present their musical comedy novelty, "The Lady and the Bellboy," while such standard acts as Jean Southern, dainty soubrette; Les Casaros, Spanish acrobats; Three Dixon Sisters, singing and dancing banjoists; Fay and Miss entertainers, the Harmony Four, popular comedians, and others round out an entertainment of unique strength.

THE HIPPODROME

The headline attraction at the Hippodrome this week will be Toots Paka and her world-famous Hawaiian troupe. This is the first time that these well-known artists have appeared in Toronto, but they come well recommended. They will offer a number of native dances and songs, while Toots Paka will give her original Hula Hula dance. "Georgette" is billed as the special attraction, and is credited with being vaudeville's cleverest juvenile entertainer. An extra attraction will be the offering of Lewis Burns and Company, in a comedy playlet, "Telling Father." The sketch is said to be one of the best of its kind. The Stan Stanley Trio have quite an original method of introducing their act, which is credited with being full of humor. Page and Newton have a bright little offering, entitled, "A Bit of Vaudeville," while Bernard, Flinberry and Mitchell have a number of pleasing song selections. Kuma, a celebrated Japanese troupe, the Invisible Symphony Orchestra and the latest radio plays, complete the bill.

AD AT SCARBORO BEACH

Adair and Adair, the noted horizontal bar comedians, will be the feature act at Scarborough Beach. Park Theatre will be fresh films for the open-air moving pictures, and D'Urban's Band will continue its entertainment. Today the attraction at the park will be Zeno, Jordan and Zeno, who are recognized as leaders among aerial artists. There will be two concerts by D'Urban's Band and special

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER—THEN AND NOW * * * * By Michelson

Peter's Adventures in Matrimony
By LEONA DALRYMPLE

No. 120
Dad's Great Gift.

MARY was a staid old woman at our Christmas breakfast. "Peter," she said, "I'm simply dying to know what you have for me." All this pretty display of delightful ignorance in face of the fact that Mary had, at varying intervals, mentioned very concisely what she wanted. I may say right here they were, every one of them, things I couldn't afford. "Well," I began, "I've got a diamond ring, and it isn't a diamond ring. It's a sensible gift."

"Why be sensible on Christmas?" pointed Mary.

"Why, indeed?" I asked. "But I notice just the same that I usually get socks and slippers and ties, and exceedingly sensible things of that sort."

"Nobody knows what to give a man," said Mary petulantly, and she colored guiltily. I thought, "If women would spend one-half the time thinking up some desirable gift for the men of the family that the men spend thinking up things for the women, the sock and tie sales would fall off considerably at Christmas."

"Hum!" said Mary, "that sounds very well, but men don't do their own Christmas thinking. They ask some woman to do it for them. And women can always think better for women."

I glanced over the array of mail at my plate. It was chiefly Christmas cards and Christmas greetings.

"I thoroughly approve of this 'ard stunt,'" I said carelessly to my wife. "You can let your friends know that you think of them, and it's much better than well-wish cushions, for instance."

"That," said Mary, "is just as you look at it."

Which was one of Mary's speeches that doesn't mean anything at all. She has a lot of them that fill in vacant conversational places and don't make anybody think.

I picked up a letter addressed to me in Dad's handwriting. Opening it—I found that it contained a letter written by mother and signed by mother and dad.

"Son, dear," began mother's letter, and somehow that way of beginning always rings so true that I get a choke in my throat and a warm feeling around my heart.

"Dad and I want to give you for Christmas what you need most, and so, after a great deal of talking here nights by the fire—and, son, dear, we do miss you still when the log glows, and Dad's drawing and chatting alternately in his easy chair—we want you to accept the gift that Dad and I give you as a Christmas gift with the love of both of us. Dad says you'd get it some day—what little we have—and, therefore, we'd like to see you have some of it now when you really need it. Drop in some time through the day and wish us Merry Christmas."

And, as I read, I got a little choking back a flood of feeling. Mary seemed very far away from me. I couldn't tell her. I didn't want to tell her. It seemed apart from the sacredness of the moment. There is only one big love in the world that counts, and that is the mother's love for her child. Every other love is sickly and puerile beside it.

Mother and Daughter Fifty Years Ago.

A WAY back in the last century Mother was an elderly person at forty, and being an elderly person she settled down into an elderly person's place and wore an elderly person's clothes. It was easy to know by her bonnet and gown that she was a settled person—just Mother. To Daughter was left the privileges and responsibilities of being fashionable and picturesque. There wasn't the slightest chance in the world that you wouldn't know which was which, even when you couldn't see their faces.

Mother and Daughter Today.

NOWADAYS it is quite different. There are no elderly feminine persons today—this side of seventy. The older Mother grows today, the greater the need for combating facial signs of age by the aid of other outward signs. Mother takes a lot of trouble to keep her youthful figure, and feels discreet enough to take chances on sensational clothes that Daughter is far too young to risk. Probably it is Daughter who is demure. This is MOTHER'S century. And isn't she charming?

The Short Cut to Beauty By the Perspiration Route

By LUCREZIA BORI
Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York.

Special arrangements have been made with Senorita Lucrezia Bori, the famous prima donna soprano, who has created a wonderful impression in Europe and New York on account of her remarkable beauty and artistic attainment, to write for this paper a series of articles on beauty. There is probably no authority her equal in giving the newest and most approved methods of attaining and preserving "the divine right of woman."

If you would be beautiful you must perspire. I never perspire even on the hottest day in summer. I heard a girl say the other day, and I felt like saying, "You look it, my dear, and you will do well if you set yourself about proper perspiration right away. Don't boast about it."

I am not an expert histologist and cannot go into all the details of telling you just how your body is formed, and how much work the skin should do to rid the body of effete matter. I am going to take the word of a dermatologist who says there are 23 miles of pores in the skin of the body, and when the pores do their proper work they discharge two pounds of waste matter every day. Perspiration is the chief aid in this important work. Healthy, open pores will perspire. If you don't perspire, something is wrong with your system. It is clogged. You need medical attention.

Value of Experience.
Bathing is the first step toward starting perspiration. Exercise is next. Walk, run, play tennis, golf, hand ball, skip rope, roll, do something in the form of energetic exercise until you start the glands and the pores of your body working. Hot baths, with some motion-

Rump of Beef à la Mode.
FOR this dish use a piece of beef prepared with six pounds of rump. Lard it with fat pork, and season well with salt, pepper, nutmeg and chopped parsley. Then place the meat in an earthen bowl with sliced carrots and onions, pour over it one-half pint of brandy, and let it macerate for one day in a cool place, turning it over frequently. Drain and dry the surface. Set it in a saucpan with some fat, roast it until brown, add a pint of white wine and enough beef broth to cover the meat. Add some bones and two split calf's feet which are blanched, a bunch of parsley tied up with some celery, thyme and bay leaves; one whole pepper, two carrots, two onions and some garlic. Then add the brandy which was left in the bowl, let it come to a boil, cover and put it in the oven to simmer for two hours, or until well done. Drain the meat. And strain the gravy. When nearly cold cut into slices and spread over an oval dish, range round some braised carrots, glazed onions, the calf's feet bones and cut in small pieces, and some green peas; pour the gravy over it and keep cool in an ice box until set like a jelly.

ADVICE TO GIRLS

By Annie Laurie

Dear Annie Laurie:
I am a girl of almost 18. I read the letter in today's paper and perhaps I, too, have made a mistake. I am engaged to a young man, 25, and am to be married this fall. I fancied I was too young, but as he is a bachelor with no one to help him in any way, living in a strange place, I took pity on him. He has been keeping company with me for almost two years, and I have found no fault of any account in him. And he says the same of me. Do you think it would be wiser and better for us both to wait a couple of years under the circumstances? My father and mother consent. Now please tell me what you think about it.
BLUE EYES.

WHY you funny little girl, you! whatever is the matter with you? You have a sweetheart you love truly, and he loves you the same. Love in the world do you want to go around hunting for some excuse to be miserable for? He's a bachelor, alone in a strange place; he needs you and you need him, and your father and mother consent. What more do you want in the name of love and all love's puzzles? Do you want him to take to drink so you'll have to "marry him"—to "save him"? Must he rob a bank to get you to be his wife on the day he is sentenced to the penitentiary—like the heroine of your favorite book? What or earth do you want, Blue Eyes, and why do you want it? You've found a pearl in the road—a pearl of great price. Don't throw it into the grass just to have the fun of hunting for it again. You might not find it this time. If you have the true love of a good man be thankful for it, and give him your love and make him happy—and stories just now—and a little more sewing on the pretty things you're going to wear at your wedding. You ask your mother if that isn't a good prescription.

Miss Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. They should be addressed to her, care of this office.

Secrets of Health and Happiness.

How Your Nerves Work By Own Electric Power

By Dr. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. A., M. D. (Johns Hopkins).

MOST biologists and physiologists claim that a distinguishing feature of life is the irritability of living tissues. If this were not true animals and plants could not grow, adapt themselves or survive and reproduce offspring.

Irritability of this nature does not in any way partake of the popular meaning of this word. It has nothing to do with petulant ill-humor and huffiness. When any living thing takes food, avoids poison, or otherwise maintains a definite equilibrium with its surroundings, it has a normal, healthful irritability. Brutes as well as vegetables, man no less than animals, must change eternally, and so alter their activities as to preserve a peaceful, progressive balance between their own internal mechanism and the outside surroundings.

A tonic or a stimulant is associated in most opinions with drugs and medications. That is to say, most persons think of alcohol, coffee, broths, tea and pharmaceuticals such as strychnine, as "tonics" and "stimulants." Yet many of these, such as whiskey, wine and beer are so far from being stimulants that they are poisonous sedatives.

Alcohol Not a Stimulant.
Prof. Ralph S. Little of Clark University says that a stimulant or tonic of the living body is anything which arouses a tissue into new activity, or modifies the activity of one already active.

Chemicals are not by any means the most common causes of renewed or altered activity in living things. One of the characteristic features of stimulation is that a very slight tonic may instigate a large series of changes.

When one of your nerves is given a stimulant such as a pinch, a burn, a freeze or a puncture, the disturbance set free or a puncture, no matter what its nature, spreads also to the other nerves in contact with it, until it reaches the brain and spinal cord.

There is no visible or ultra-visible mechanical change in a toned, stimulated or irritated nerve. There is some chem-

The thing which bestirs your body to action, which moves your muscles, spurs your brain and sets your nerves a tingle, is an electrical charge due to a sudden fall in the electric power at the skin or outside portion of the nerve. This difference in electric "potential" between the outer and the innermost parts of the nerve, causes the message hastily to travel along the nerve fiber.

This explains how a ray of light is carried to the other tissues; how movements of the air are finally "heard"; how a pinch is felt; how heat, cold, pain, taste, smell, movement and the other things are registered in your cosmos.

Blue Shirts Were in Great Form and Red Shirts' Defence Failed to Hold Them.

The day was terrifically hot, and the young blood of the Beachers eventually came to the fore. Fleming's coits were coming so strong at every quarter finish except the last that it was a wonder that the Indians scored at all.

YARDMASTERS MEET TONIGHT.

The monthly meeting of the Yardmasters' Club will be held at the Union Station tonight.

Considerable important business is to be discussed.

BOB BARCLAY WON FIRST FEATURE RACE

Denver Speed Merchant Captured Twenty-Five Mile Race of Series.

Saturday night was the occasion for the opening of the series of four long distance motorcycle races at the Troons, and Bob Barclay, the speed demon from Denver, Col., copied first honors with 3 Brownie Carlisle, a close second. The distance was twenty-five miles, and the time of 19 minutes 15 seconds would have been materially lessened had several of the leaders not encountered tire and engine troubles which forced them to retire temporarily.

Some good racing was witnessed in the two mile bicycle race and also a handicap man took first place in the final of the quarter century event, he would have handed a win. Carlisle displayed plenty of pluck, and after two laps he succeeded in finishing in second place. He gained lap after lap after returning to the track and was only a few feet behind Barclay at the finish.

Two mile bicycle handicap—1, Spencer, scratch; 2, Gross, 45 yards; 3, Ford, 228 yards; 4, Rice; 5, Watson, 80 yards; 6, Morton, 175 yards.
Four mile sweepstakes, first heat, 4 miles—Herbert Ayrault, Henkman, Jack Harding, Time 1:30 4-5.
Second heat—Leonard, Joslin, Bob Barclay, Time 1:22 2-3.
Final heat, four miles—Leonard, Henkman, Ayrault, Time 2:46. New record.
Three mile consolation race—Don Barclay, Joe Barbeau, Time 2:28 4-5.

That "look" is due to the design; and it's a marked feature of the clothes we make. Our designing staff is a group of specialists, each an artist in his line.

FORT ERIE CLOSE MANY FEATURES

Niagara Racing Association Provide Attractive Card for Closing Day

FORT ERIE, Ont., July 11.—(Special to The Sunday World)—The most successful meeting ever held at Fort Erie came to a close with the running of today's program. The runners will return here Aug. 8 for the final meeting. The Niagara Jockey Club furnished a splendid program for the occasion. The card simply teemed with features. Besides the Fort Erie stakes a dash of six furlongs, to which a purse of $100 was added, there were three handicaps, one at a mile and the other a mile and a half, and a steeplechase over the short course. The weather was extremely warm, but the race was made the horses run at their best and the track in perfect condition. The Schorr entry, Star Shooter, and L'Amontail, were scratched out of the opening event. Both colts were taken down with fever. William Walker purchased the contract on Jockey Frank that was held by the Kentucky jockey, but the horse was not run. FIRST RACE—Purse $800, two-year-olds, 5 furlongs: 1. Mies Fox, 109 (Connolly), 2 to 1, 2 to 1 and out. 2. Keshan, 111 (Ambrose), 6 to 1, even and out. 3. Eban Allen, 103 (Goldstein), 18 to 1, 2 to 1 and out. SECOND RACE—Purse $600, steeplechase, 1 1/2 miles: 1. Dorothy Webb, 141 (Duce), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and even. 2. ANOTHER BREAK IN NEW HAVEN

Other Issues Touched Low Points in New York Market.

TRADING PROFESSIONAL

Advance in Price of Steel Wire Products One Cheering Feature.

NEW YORK, July 11.—More low records were scored in the course of today's two-hour session of the stock market. New Haven was again the most prominent feature, declining precipitately, on moderate offerings, to 55 1/2, against yesterday's low price of 68 7/8.

Gold issues, notably Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas and Texas, likewise descended to new levels, and Chesapeake and Ohio, whose future dividend policy is under discussion, again yielded to what looked like bear pressure.

Investment issues steady. Investment shares held their ground, except New York Central, in which recurrent heaviness was manifested. Trading was wholly professional, the decline gaining some force from a decision of the interstate commerce commission directing the St. Paul road to reduce rates from Minnesota to points in the Dakotas for distances of 500 miles.

The day was not without its bright prospects, which included announcement of an advance of 1 to 2 in steel wire products, and greater optimism respecting general trade prospects. Crop news helped to confirm the week's earlier advices.

In the later dealings full recoveries were made by the issues in which initial weakness was shown, but unexplained declines in American Telephone and Telegraph, and Western Union created uneasiness, with an irregular close.

MONTREAL STOCKS WERE REACTIONARY

C. P. R. and Brazilian Which Scored Small Gains, Only Exceptions.

MONTREAL, July 11.—With the exception of C. P. R. and Brazilian, which closed with fractional gains, the balance of the few issues traded locally on Saturday finished the day with losses. C. P. R. opened 1/2 better at 100 1/2, and after sagging to 100 1/4, finished 1/2 better on the day at 101 1/2. The opening sale of Brazilian was 1 1/2 lower at 7 1/2, but last sale at 7 1/4 reported a gain of 1/4.

Trading was light. Transactions in C. P. R. and Brazilian accounted for over half the day's business.

RAILWAYS PREPARE FOR EXPECTED RUSH

NEW YORK, July 11.—Trunk line railroads are generally increasing the time of their shop repairs because of the anticipated big crops. Practically all big roads fell somewhat behind in car repairs after the first of the year and still have more bad order cars than their rivals at this time last year.

Now these roads are following the example of western roads in preparing for service all cars available for movement of grain. Officers of several trunk lines have made it clear that it is the prospect rather than any actual increase in present traffic that is responsible for their increasing their shop work.

RAILWAY EARNINGS

The Duluth-Superior Traction Company comparative weekly statement of gross passenger earnings for month of July: last week, $114,230.85; this week, $118,230.85; increase, $3,999.99, or 3.5 per cent. Year to date, 1914, $685,028.57; 1913, $615,387.26; increase, $69,641.31, or 11.2 per cent.

OTHER WELLS ARE TO BE UNDERTAKEN

Herron-Elder to Drill in Other Places—Contracts Let.

GENERAL PROGRESS

Monarch Going to Greater Depth—Segur Going Further.

CALGARY, July 11.—Herron-Elder stock has gone up lately. It was wondered why. Today the explanation is given by the managing director, W. D. Oatman, who says that it is the intention of the company to drill four new wells. This will be done as quickly as possible. The contract for three of the wells has been let to T. M. Fyvie of the Northwest Drilling Company.

Will Not Be Shot. It has been decided by the Monarch people to continue drilling and not to "shoot" the well for the present. The president states that a greater depth will be gained first. It is now at a depth of 1430 feet. The utmost confidence is placed in B. W. Dunn, the supervising engineer. It is his opinion that there will be a productive well in the near future.

Drillers Are Optimistic. Those in charge of the operations of the various companies express confidence in the immediate future and complete satisfaction with the work as far as it has gone. The United oil well is now down 1860 feet. It is expected that the oil bearing sands will be reached within a few days.

At the McDougall-Segur well, a depth of about 2800 feet has been reached. It is expected that a rate of forty feet a day will be maintained. "While we may strike oil at any time," said Mr. Segur, "we do not look for crude oil results until we reach 3300 feet."

WILL OPEN UP A BIG TERRITORY

WEXBURN, Sask., July 11.—Thru trains from Winnipeg and St. Paul, to be operated over the C. P. R. cut-off to Vancouver within the coming year are now definitely promised and will mark an important epoch in the development of Weyburn's transportation facilities.

At the McDougall-Segur well, a depth of about 2800 feet has been reached. It is expected that a rate of forty feet a day will be maintained. "While we may strike oil at any time," said Mr. Segur, "we do not look for crude oil results until we reach 3300 feet."

FARMER

Experiments Adding to Farming

One of the most ways by which the farmer can improve his land is by means of experiments. The cash return from the total yield of the crops raised is the surest test of the value of all the experiments which the farmer will have to make. All eggs will be valued at the market price. Each flock etc.

CABBAGE

Club Root to Profit

By practicing cabbage club root disease, growers may be growing a foothold in this crop. The club root disease is a disease of the roots of the cabbage. It is caused by a fungus which attacks the roots of the plant. The disease is characterized by the formation of a club-like growth on the roots. The plant will not grow properly and will eventually die. The disease can be prevented by using a fungicide and by planting in a well-drained soil.

SHelter

Thru the action committee. Growers who have been hampered by the late season of the fruit growers' strike on their fruit crops, should be in a position to get their fruit to market.
