RECIPROCY STRIKES AT ROOT OF OUR NATIONAL LIFE

Hon. Clifford Sifton Opens His Campaign at Ingersoll—Liberal Arguments Dissected—For the Sake of Problematic Advantage to 15 Per Cent. of Our Trade Government Would Jeopardize the Whole.

WOULD WORK HAVOC WITH CANADIAN RAILWAYS

INGERSOLL, Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Hon. Clifford Sifton, former minister of the interior, now chairman of the conservation commission of Canada, dealt a smashing blow to the reciprocity cause in a speech delivered before an audience of fifteen hundred people here to-night in the interest of Donald Sutherland, Conservative candidate for the South Riding of Oxford County. It was a speech that will be remembered long by those who heard it. Not for flamboyant oratory or jingoistic sentiments, but for the cool dispassionate arguments of a man who spoke from knowledge, from experience, from convictions.

The speaker was enthusiastically received. He quickly caught the ear of his audience and held their attention riveted for over an hour and a half. It did not take Mr. Sifton long to expose the inequalities of the reciprocity agreement. He at once characterized it as class legislation and showed the farmers how in recent years the average price of farm products had increased 25 per cent, and the price of what the farmer wanted to buy 14 per cent. He made it clear that the Canadian commission went to Washington under protest from many Liberals as well as himself.

Treated Canada With Contempt. "The United States treated Canada for forty years with a sort of indifferent contempt," he declared. "And," he added, "in view of the progress of the negotiations, the Canadian commission is about to be treated in the same manner."

Mr. Sifton quoted from an article by President Taft in Leslie's Weekly on the subject of "Pulpwood," which pointed out that the Canadian provinces controlled their own lands and sought to promote the pulp industry and placed an export duty on pulpwood. The article went on to say that the duty on crown lands pulp had been retained, "in order to induce the Canadian provinces over which the Dominion can exercise no control to lift the restriction on the exportation of their pulpwood."

"What do you think of that?" asked Mr. Sifton vehemently. "A Policy of Coercion. "What do you think of the Government of Canada entering into a combination with the Government of the United States to make a treaty for the purpose of forcing the hands of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec and compelling them to let the United States have our forests, whether they will or not. That is the position," (Hear, hear, and applause.)

"There is not an intelligent man in Canada who does not know that the Province of Ontario is right. There is no justification, there can be no justification for the present arrangement when the facts are known, there will be many men in Canada who will have the loyalty and determination to assist the party alliance and destroy this iniquitous act."

A large number of Liberals were in the audience. The platform was filled with prominent Conservatives from all parts of western Ontario and a large deputation came over from West Oxford. Dr. J. B. Coleridge, Ingersoll, was in the front row.

The meeting was eminently satisfactory from the standpoint of the candidature of Donald Sutherland, and the meeting at Tilsonburg on Wednesday night should likewise make Mr. Sutherland's chances of redeeming the riding doubly sure, whether they be or not.

Nothing was wanting in the cordiality of Mr. Sifton's reception. Dr. Coleridge had scarcely mentioned the name of the chairman of the conservation commission, when people rose in all parts of the audience and began to cheer, arms were raised and there were shouts of welcome.

Mr. Sifton began quietly and with some deliberation. It had not been the practice for years to have a clearly defined issue in a general election, asserted by one of the parties to the contest, and then the other party to follow. It had been a matter of comment by political observers that the lines of demarcation between the parties were not clearly defined by their great question. It could not be said that that was the case in the present general election.

As One Citizen to Another. "I have been asked to come here and give the reason why I am opposed to this reciprocity treaty. I do so not as a public man, but as a member of a public body, not a candidate for any public office, but as one Canadian citizen speaking to another, about what I believe to be in the interest of our common country." (Hear, hear.)

A HARD NUT TO CRACK.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 22.—Fruit growers of Niagara district are up against a worse proposition than the importation of Lewiston plants, which after paying a duty of half a cent a pound, can undersell the local product at district canning factories. To-day a prominent canner received a quotation from Wyoming, Delaware, offering to supply Kiefer pears in any quantity at fifty cents a hundred pounds, with duty at fifty cents a hundred and freight to this city forty cents a hundred.

It would be hard to realize the meaning of this quotation without understanding that Niagara district growers, many of them at the very doors of the factories, find it impossible to sell pears for $1.75 a hundred pounds. The result is that factories are enabled to buy pears in Delaware, pay duty and freight, have them delivered in any quantity at the factories and still make a saving of at least thirty-five cents on every hundred pounds; this, too, with the duty.

Yet growers are being told that the destruction of the present tariff wall will give them unknown and untold advantages. Growers cannot see things in that light, already being up against the influx of American fruit.

KEIR-HARDIE MAKES AN ATTACK ON LLOYD-GEORGE

Accused the Government of Taking the Side of Railway Directors in the Strike.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—There was a lively passage between James Keir-Hardie, the Socialist, and David Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, during today's session of the house of commons. Mr. Hardie accused the government of taking the side of the railway directors in the strike and said if the government had brought the same pressure to bear on the directors as it has on the men there would have been no strike. He declared vehemently that the men who had been shot down by troops during the strike "were murdered in the interest of the capitalist system. As a protest against the conduct of the government he moved as an amendment to the motion for adjournment that the house of commons adjourn to August 29 instead of to October 24."

SIR WILFRID IS BITTER

Galls Bourassa a Falsifier and a Deceiver.

MONTREAL, Aug. 22.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier at St. Eustache this afternoon, in dealing with the Nationalists adopted a bitter vein than he has yet used. Mr. Bourassa addressed a meeting at that village last year and created a very favorable impression and it was evident that the premier intended to make some hurried remarks to counteract the influence of the address. With vehement gestures and stinging phrases Sir Wilfrid characterized Mr. Bourassa as a falsifier and a deceiver. Mr. Bourassa had tried to persuade the people that conscription would follow the navy. In this he had been wrong, he said. Mr. Bourassa did not know his own mind on the question of reciprocity, but Mr. Bourassa could be quoted to show that he had once, and that very day, been an advocate of reciprocity with the United States.

The premier also referred to Clifford Sifton, saying that he differed with that gentleman only on the reciprocity question. He said he was amply avenged by the turning against him by seeing him forced to occupy the same bed as Bourassa and watching the pains which both took to lie as far apart as possible.

BRISTOL IN "THE WARD"

Hebrew Voters Protest Against Reciprocity Policy.

Hebrew voters of Centre Toronto gathered in force last night at a rousing rally held in the interests of Edmund Bristol, K.C., at the Lyric Theatre. Many ladies were present with their escorts in the galleries. The chair was occupied by Hon. J. J. Foy, and on the platform were Jacob Cohen, J. P. S. Levinter, J.P., president of the Hebrew Association, Charles Garmunkel, H. Zivitz and Arthur Vankoughnet.

In opening the meeting, commended Mr. Bristol for his diligence, faithfulness and success as a representative of Centre Toronto. Mr. Bristol, in an address which was followed with closest attention, dealt at length with the reciprocity issue. He sketched the prosperity which Canada had enjoyed for the past thirty years, contrasted it with the present depression in the United States, pointing out the benefit to the latter country, and the consequent injury to Canada of opening the home markets to a deluge of imports. "Go to Buffalo," said Mr. Bristol, "and you will find the people there, irrespective of politics, crazy for reciprocity. That is enough to show that every citizen of Toronto should be as strongly opposed to the pact." He closed by declaring that the reciprocity pact was a personal fight for whoever was nominated against him, his only real opponent was reciprocity. Charles Garmunkel and H. Zivitz delivered speeches in Yiddish.

BILL AND DAN.

The first meeting and partnership between Mackenzie and Mann in the early days of railway construction in B. C. is thus reported in Munsey's Magazine for September: "Where's the Bank of Commerce, pard? I'm looking for it myself, pard. Let's look together, pard. Sure, Mike."

NO SENTIMENT IN LONDON.

Hon. Adam returned to the city yesterday and was in the hydro-electric commission's office. Asked regarding the political sentiment in London, Mr. Beck remarked: "Why have no sentiment. We just elect our candidates."

FURIOUS TROLLEY HASTE CAUSES FATAL ACCIDENT

Edward Nicolson Has Skull Fractured by Street Car, Motor-man Refusing to Stop.

A westbound King-street car at the corner of Parliament and King-streets had, owing to the crowds, been impatiently waiting to be carried to Scarborough Beach Park, struck Edward Nicolson as he stepped from behind another car, and hurled him to the ground with such force that his skull was fractured, and as a result he may die within a day or two.

Nicolson had been talking to some friends at the southwest corner, and after bidding them good-bye walked behind a car facing east. He was quite aware that there was a car coming from the east, but thought it would stop and pick up a number of people waiting at the opposite corner. The motor-man, however, was in a great hurry and traveled over the crossing at a high rate of speed, striking Nicolson on the head and throwing him some distance. The car did not stop, but continued on at its runaway speed.

Three other cars came from the same direction at an excessive rate of speed, and the only reason given by the motor-man for such reckless driving is that it is necessary in order to carry all the people.

Inspector Duncan was on the car behind which Nicolson stepped. The inspector said the motor-man was undoubtedly to blame and should have stopped before crossing Parliament-street to the show grounds.

Ninety cars of railway equipment arrived at 1 o'clock this morning via the G. T. E. from Hamilton. Unloading began about 3 o'clock at the Cherry-street crossing, and the huge paraphernalia was all quietly moved to the circus lot opposite the Woodbine race track. Performances are at 2 and 3.

SEEKS THE POINT.

Christian Guardian: Whether we agree with its policy or do not agree with it, we are not just now saying, but at least we can heartily commend The Toronto World for sticking to the question at issue and really discussing the reciprocity matter from day to day. And in this it is an oasis in a very widespread and a very arid political newspaper desert.

WHAT IT MEANS.

What does reciprocity mean? Do you want to know? Yes. It means to Blazes with the N. P. and the Farmers' kind of it first.

CONCILIATION ON FRIDAY.

Mayor Geary and the controllers decided yesterday to call a meeting of the city council for Friday next.

FAMOUS TRIOS.

There were the Three Wise Men. The Three Musketeers. And the Three Great Canadians who made the Deal in the Dark with Taft.

Dakota Horses Displace Ontario's.

Mr. Farmer, here is further confirmation of what The World has been telling you about your horses and the effect of reciprocity on their value:

Toronto, Aug. 21, 1911.—We enclose copy of a letter which we have just received from a shipper of horses from Ontario to the west. This man is clever in his way, and has made quite a little money. He is well-known to all the horsemen around the Toronto stables and in the province.—Burns & Sheppard, The Repository, Toronto.

Milestone, Sask., Aug. 14, 1911.—A few lines to let you know why I am so long in selling this load. Horses are not wanted here just now. The farmers never had such crops, but the weather has been so cold and wet that they are very slow in ripening. This last few days the grain has been ripening fast. Ten days more and all will be good if sunshine.

There has been a poor crop in the Dakotas, and there is little feed there and the farmers are selling off their stock. The hot weather burned things up. Feed is scarce in St. Paul and Milwaukee, and the northwestern railroads are carrying hay free of freight. THEY ARE SENDING HORSES OVER HERE, AND CAN LAND THEM, DUTY PAID, FOR LESS THAN I CAN GET THEM IN ONTARIO. They are sending up bronchos in carloads for from $60 to $160 per head. IF THAT BILL (RECIPROcity) CARRIES I WILL SHIP NO MORE HORSES FROM ONTARIO HERE, NOR CAN ANYONE ELSE. THE WESTERN STATES ARE FULL OF HORSES, AND WAITING TO LAND THEM OVER.

That is, the splendid market for $10,000,000 worth of horses every year that Ontario now has in the Canadian west will go in one crack to the western states, and all the farm work horses in this province—whether for sale or for home work or for breeding—fall in price at least fifty dollars a head!

American horses from the west and southwest will chase yours, oh you Ontario Farmer, out of your own market!

CIRQUE PARADE

Barnum and Bailey Tent at Queen-street and Kingston-Road.

"Greatest show on earth" is still the boast of the big circus which will parade at ten o'clock this morning from the show grounds at East Queen-st. and the Kingston-road, moving along Queen-street to Logan-avenue, to Gerrard-street, to Jarvis-street, to Queen-street, to Sakville-street, to Gerrard-street, to Bolton-avenue, to Queen-street to the show grounds.

WHITE FROST IN MANITOBA

No Serious Damage Done to the Crop, However.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 22.—While the Dominion government's meteorological readings for the past 24 hours show no traces of actual frost, special despatches from western points show that a white frost has fallen at four or five points. It was in no case very severe, and most of the cutting was already finished in the districts visited. Official reports have been issued from the office of agriculture for Saskatchewan stating that the damage done Sunday and last night will not seriously affect the general yield. Five thousand harvesters arrive to-night and to-morrow. Harvesting will be general in Southern Manitoba by the end of the week.

JUMPED INTO LIME.

KINGSTON, Aug. 22.—(Special.)—While playing with a number of companions, Marjory Lehigh, aged eight, daughter of John Lehigh, jumped into a box of lime which men had ready for building purposes, and was badly burned about her feet and legs. Sand was sprinkled over the lime, as is the custom, and the child thought it was all the same. She will recover.

PREMIER WHITNEY'S PLANS.

Sir James Whitney may go to Western Ontario and speak in Walkerton on Friday evening.

3000 QUEER FOR MR. BORDEN AT THE SOUND

Audience Enthusiastic From Start to Finish—Reciprocity Would Be Death Blow to Industries of Thriving Georgian Bay Port.

OWEN SOUND, Aug. 22.—(Special.)

Owen Sound set a new fashion for the tour of the Conservative leader. For the first time since the campaign began, a special civic reception was held. At Berlin an address of welcome was made by the mayor at the evening meeting, but here the civic reception was distinct and was tendered on Mr. Borden's arrival.

Mr. Borden was met at the station by the mayor and by the Conservative of the town. A procession was at once formed and proceeded to the market square. Here Mayor Lemon read the address of welcome, which was entirely non-partisan, the very cordial. Mr. Borden in reply expressed his sincere appreciation of the welcome.

"You deserve it," came from one of the crowd. The meeting in the evening was held in the capacious roller rink, where three thousand people gave Mr. Borden a spontaneous and enthusiastic reception, which lasted while he walked up the aisle and took his seat. The enthusiasm did not cease at the opening, either. It was an enthusiastic audience from start to finish. James Macaulan, Mr. Borden's host, was here, was in the chair and on the platform were Dr. Sprule, ex-M.P. for East Grey; W. S. Middlebro, ex-M.P. for North Grey; George M. Bond, ex-M.P.A. for North Grey; and Mayor Lemon. The civic welcome was not the only unusual feature of the reception here. Another unusual element was the presence on the platform of a considerable number of ladies, and the meeting was opened by the singing of a patriotic song by G. B. Cummins, choir leader of Knox Presbyterian Church.

The chairman made a brief speech, expressing his sense of the gravity of the issue before the nation, and then introduced W. S. Middlebro, the candidate in North Grey. Mr. Middlebro began by expressing his pleasure at being on the platform with four members of the Conservative Association, and then introduced W. S. Middlebro, the candidate in North Grey. Mr. Middlebro began by expressing his pleasure at being on the platform with four members of the Conservative Association, and then introduced W. S. Middlebro, the candidate in North Grey.

"Never!" came a voice from the audience. "The Parting of the Ways. "I believe that this you would," said Mr. Middlebro, "that when you cast your ballot on Sept. 21 the country will be at the parting of the ways. There are only two alternatives, a prosperous one under the protection of the British flag," (Cheers.)

"This proposal reminds me of the stunts of a notorious young man with a revolver at his temple. Mr. Borden advises him to withhold his hand and let well enough alone. Sir Wilfrid comes along and says it is time that you are prosperous, but I advise you to try the experiment," (Laughter and cheers.)

The chairman, as president of the Conservative Association of North Grey, read an address of welcome to the Conservative leader, and then Mr. Borden opened his address, amid the sounding applause. Mr. Borden began by renewing his protests against the affront to the decency of Canadian public life by the sudden shutting off of the enquiry into the charges against Hon. Frank Oliver. Turning to discuss reciprocity, he declared his faith in the denunciation of the Elgin treaty. It had brought about the confederation of Canada.

"Sir Wilfrid Laurier," he continued, "says that we have made reciprocity with the United States for the last 40 years, and that, therefore, we want it now. Are we to measure ourselves by the standards of 1867, or by the standards of 1911? Are we to be guided by the ideals and aspirations of 30 years ago, or by the ideals and aspirations of 1911? The Sir Wilfrid says that we have wanted reciprocity for the past 40 years, that it has been sought for by all the leading statesmen of that period."

"I take absolute and direct issue with that statement by the premier. I can quote from the public records four utterances in which Sir Wilfrid has said that the Canadian people did not want it. Therefore the alternative is clear. Either Sir Wilfrid has disproved his own statement, or else he cannot count himself among the leading statesmen of Canada during the last 40 years." (Laughter.)

"Sir Wilfrid quotes Sir John Macdonald in support of his argument. Sir Wilfrid has learned a very great admiration for Sir John since he was a child." (Laughter.) Well, Sir John did not have the same admiration for Sir Wilfrid in 1891 when he called the policy which Sir Wilfrid advocated 'wicked treason'."

Not an Open Market.

Mr. Borden next dealt with Sir Wilfrid's statement that the reciprocity treaty would open the market for American goods.

Investigations and attacks upon these corporations, in vain. Their wealth is so great, their organization so perfect, their resources so long and so effectively entrenched that the efforts seem to be of no effect.

It has been shown that storage warehouses have grown with the produce of the farm, and tons have been kept there for years, and while the farmer on the one hand was being squeezed down to low prices the produce was being holed out too slowly to the consumer in order to enhance the selling price.

Position of the Manufacturer. There are a few considerations which I address to the manufacturers and the manufacturers' operatives who are called upon to decide what their attitude will be in the present contest.

What is Pledge Worth? Political circumstances and exigencies have been too strong for him and have forced him to break what was regarded as a pledge upon a matter of great public importance.

But the prime minister's statement is to the effect that he does not propose to hurt the manufacturers. That is, he does not propose seriously to interfere with the duty upon the manufactured goods coming into Canada from the United States.

Regardless of all national and political considerations, regardless of the interests of Canada, or of the British Empire, and expect that when your turn comes one-half of the community is going to put itself in the breach for the purpose of saving you.

No Stopping Then. You can rely upon this when the protection of the farmer is buried, and when the principles of national development are buried, and when the hope for the development of imperial consolidation in the empire is buried, you can get ready to see the duties on your manufactures buried also.

A Blessing in Disguise. The campaign of education which has been carried on in the past few years in Ontario is now bearing fruit. Mr. James, deputy minister of agriculture, the best authority on the subject in the Province of Ontario, declares the McKinley Bill to have been a blessing in disguise.

Free Trade in Manufactures. But I do not propose to push my argument so far as that or to put it upon that basis. I am content to point out that the United States has offered free trade in manufactures and will undoubtedly continue to offer it from time to time.

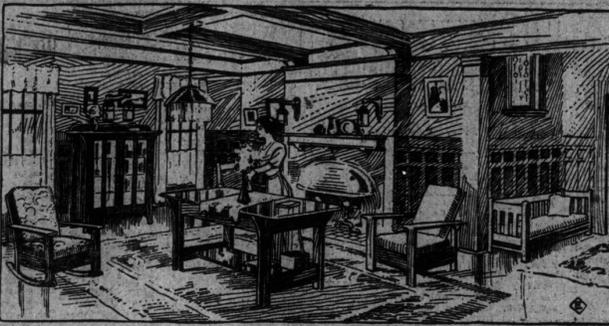

Taft's Words. "I will read you the exact words in which President Taft speaks of the relation of the treaty to the interests of the United States to secure access to our forests.

Coercing the Provinces. In other words we have a statement that the principal object and contention of this treaty on the part of the United States was to get access to our forests, and that the government of the Dominion has entered into a deliberate combination with the government of the United States by the provisions of the treaty to bring about a condition of affairs that will force the hand of the provinces and compel them to abolish their restrictions of manufacture, and permit the manufacturers of the United States to have free access to our pulpwood, so that it can be taken in its raw state from Canada and imported into the United States.

constructed in Canadian shipyards, we have expended an immense sum of money in harbors and in the deepening of the St. Lawrence, all for the one purpose of carrying the traffic of Canada from east to west and whom west to east, to serve the trade between people of the different provinces—that interprovincial trade which binds them together and in so far as circumstances allow, carries that surplus by our own channels to the east, and from thence to the markets of the world.
Sir Wilfrid's Own Words. "Let me quote to you as a definite proof of the concentration of all the efforts of the Canadian people upon this point the words of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, when introducing the bill for the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. He said: 'Our duty is immediate and imperative. It is not to-morrow, but of this day, of this hour, of this minute. Heaven grant that it be not already too late. Heaven grant that while we tarry and dispute, the trade of Canada is not diverted to other channels, and that an ever vigilant competitor does not take to himself the trade that properly belongs to those who acknowledge Canada as their native or their adopted land. It will not only force Canadian trade into Canadian channels, it will not only promote business between old Canada and new Canada, but it will secure us our commercial independence, and it will forever make us free from the bondage of the bonding privilege. For that reason alone, in my estimation, it would be worth all the sacrifices and far more than we are called upon to make.'
Hauling Down the Flag. This declaration was followed by legislation—legislation which provided for the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway as the summation of the great policy followed by all parties in Canada since confederation. Has this policy been a success? Have we succeeded in carrying out that which we had in view in the vast expenditure of public money which has been made? We have succeeded beyond all anticipation. The hopes and the aspirations of the last 40 years are not only on the eve of fulfillment, but are in full process of fulfillment now. And yet, in the full flush of life of prosperity, when every anticipation of success is being realized, the government suddenly turns to the people of Canada, hauls down the flag and invites us to declare that all the efforts of the past have been a failure and a mistake. They have not been a failure or a mistake. They have been a magnificent success, and if our Canadian people will but manifest the same steadfast hope which has heretofore been characteristic of the Canadian people, they will reap still more magnificent results in future than they have in the past.
Eastern Section of N. T. R. "What are we to say in respect to the eastern section of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway? I have referred to the words spoken by the prime minister when he said that it was immediately, urgently necessary that this great work should be constructed for the purpose of preserving Canadian trade in Canadian channels, when he called heaven to witness the urgency of the situation.

The Telegram has the same sources of information available as other people, but it apparently does not avail. Mayor Brown has given his views of the inaccuracy of the "daily misstatements and garbled reports" of The Telegram on this matter.

Every possible sidewalk that can be laid in the town is laid. The street pavements will not require any renewing for years if North Toronto is to take post-lock with the city, as East and West Toronto have done. North Toronto is better off in the matter of paving than the city.

The Telegram's argument is that the city will have to pay immediately about $20,000 for paving. The facts are quite the reverse of this. North Toronto will have to pay her share if the annexation takes place of the city's improvements for next year. They will be considerably more than last year, for which the following figures are available to The Telegram: In 1910 the engineer's department laid 23 miles of roadway, 35 miles of sidewalks, 15 miles of sewers and 23 miles of water mains. About the same amount of work will be done this year, and more next year. North Toronto's debt is less than that of the city's per head of the population, so that North Toronto will really be helping to pay The Telegram's taxes if the annexation takes place. Why then does The Telegram object? We confess we do not know, unless the desire to complete the well-known and valuable "Landmarks of Toronto" furnishes a reason.

When a new volume of the "Landmarks" has to be issued it will not look well to have the historical record carry the opposition of The Telegram to the annexation of North Toronto. The city is bound to expand to the north and it is only a matter of a few years before the union becomes compulsory. Mayor Brown lays emphasis once more on the importance of the hydro-electric contract. The matter is by no means settled, he says, and nobody knows who will get it. The legal situation ought to be as well known to The Telegram as to other people, and why The Telegram jeopardizes the interests of the city on this point will probably never be discovered even in "Landmarks of Toronto." We trust our contemporary will look at the matter as disinterested citizens are looking at it, and advocate the settlement now of a question, delay about which can only make the ultimate settlement more difficult and less advantageous.

COLD STORAGE RECIPROcity.

Those of the Canadian public who may have been impressed by the argument that reciprocity will improve the home standard of living, should make themselves acquainted with the workings of the cold storage system in the United States. The legislature of New York, at its last session, passed a law regulating the time during which food may be kept in storage, providing that if once exposed to sale it cannot be re-stored, and conferring extensive powers of inspection and supervision. Enquiries recently prosecuted under this law have uncovered the fact that millions of pounds of butter, poultry and fish, and thousands of cases of eggs are now in cold storage. Not this alone, but that in many instances the cold storage plants were in a condition far from satisfactory. The reports show, says The New York Herald, that in these places, floors were not in good condition and the rooms in which meats were stored were filled with dirty barrels and rubbish. Still more revolting conditions were found in other places. The inspection also ascertained that much higher temperatures were maintained than those acknowledged by experts for the proper protection of food.

An examination of the books, especially in the warehouses storing poultry, showed that the contents were largely placed in storage at times when they were low in price. Assemblyman Brennan, to whom the New York cold storage law owed its existence, is of opinion that the enormous quantities of food products held in cold storage accounts in great measure for the high cost of living. Since reciprocity, as proposed, means free trade in food products, Canada will necessarily come within the field of operation of the cold storage companies, both for purchase and sale, and the prospect, looking to the discoveries made by the New York Government inspectors, is far from alluring. The investigations covered New York, Albany, Utica, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, and prosecutions have been ordered in many counties. With Canada and United States commercially identified it will be impossible to protect the Canadian consumer from United States cold storage companies, and their malpractices. Present conditions in that country are not desirable enough to justify the removal of the only barrier that prevents their extension to the Dominion.

MODERATE DUTIES AND TARIFF STABILITY.

In an editorial on the contrast drawn by The News between Britain, the United States and Canada, greatly to the advantage of the last, The Globe asks—Why should Canadians not be the happiest and most prosperous people on earth? Answering its own question, it says: "They have had fifteen years of good government, of moderate duties and of tariff stability." The first of these postulates is open to question, but, letting it go at that, The World heartily agrees that the other two cannot be challenged. Moderate duties, tariff stability, have undoubtedly been the chief factors in the promotion of Canadian prosperity.

Yet The Globe, which makes this damaging editorial concession—damaging, that is, to the reciprocity pact it so strongly and unscrupulously supports—cannot find terms strong enough to describe the action of the upholders of the national policy. To that policy was due the moderate duties, which have helped in their measure to make and keep Canada prosperous, and who is the distributor of tariff stability but Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with his reciprocity compact? The opponents of reciprocity will thank The Globe for admitting that "moderate duties and tariff stability" have been efficient agencies in creating the happy conditions now ruling in Canada. Why, then, upset them by a reciprocity agreement?

CALLING FOR ANNEXATION.

Reciprocity has unquestionably revived the annexation sentiment in the United States. From the president downward it has been welcomed as certain to weaken the tie that keeps Canada within the British Empire. Not only this, but a distinct movement has started to bring the Dominion within the sphere of influence of the United States. Thus Mr. E. W. Thompson, in close touch with the Dominion Government, tells the Canadian people that they dare not reject reciprocity, otherwise they will get the powerful United States press after them with direful results to their independence. Influential newspapers declare that after congress has boiled and perished during the dog days to pass reciprocity, stirring speeches will be forthcoming next session favoring forcible annexation.

Now comes The Ohio Farmer calling special attention to an article by a Herbert Williams, hailing from Astoria, Ore., in that State, displaying more than ordinary ignorance of the Canadian situation. That no doubt encourages him to urge the beginning of a campaign for complete annexation of the Dominion. But that excuse cannot be pleaded by The Ohio Farmer, which endorses his proposal and says: "If our markets are to be opened free to Canadian farm products, it is surely desirable that the country should be annexed and share in all our affairs of government and expense. This may," it adds, "have been the expressed object in view of our president and statesmen in the negotiation of the reciprocity treaty." No doubt it was and for that reason alone reciprocity should be turned down. The annexation movement in the United States will develop unless it is checked. And the most effectual check is the rejection of reciprocity by a majority decisive enough to be beyond cavil.

Laurier and larger trusts.

Laurier and Taft and larger markets for the United States farmer. Admiral Togo says he never saw anything like Toronto Union Station. He stayed there all the time he was in Toronto, and only left because the train would not wait any longer. He does not think they could build anything like it in Japan. It is a marvelous place.

On Saturday The Globe published on its front page and in its editorial columns a virulent attack on Mr. Arthur Hawkes because he did not publish his letter vindicating his position, but printed in a corner of its sporting page an extremely abbreviated report of an address he delivered at Hamilton on Saturday containing a passing reference to its issue of that day. Conduct so contrary to British ideals of fair play suffices to explain The Globe's support of President Taft in his endeavor to detach Canada from the band of imperial states that inherit and cultivate these ideals.

Pioneer Man on Holiday. Rev. Ben. H. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, is expected to return on Saturday from Waterville, Maine, where he has been working in the interests of the local option campaign in that state. He reports the greatest enthusiasm in the temperance cause, and predicts a sweeping victory for the local optionists in their campaign.

THE FOUNDATION OF SUCCESS

"The difference between the clerk who spends all of his salary and the clerk who saves part of it is the difference in ten years—between the owner of a business and the man out of a job." —JOHN WANAMAKER. Most of the fortunes have been accumulated by men who began life without capital. Anyone who is willing to practice a little self-denial for a few years in order to save can eventually have a business which will produce a largely increased income.

RECIPROcity STAKES AT ROPE OF OUR NATIONAL LIFE

of the situation, and trusted and hoped that the delay which had already taken place would not cause the deviation of trade to other channels. "By the mouth of the prime minister we ask the people of Canada to authorize an expenditure of $50,000,000 for the construction of the eastern section for the express and only purpose of providing a method for carrying the products of the Northwest to the seaboard through Canadian channels. What are we doing now? The government has made a treaty, the sole and only purpose of which is to divert the trade not only of the west, but of all the east, from the same Canadian channels and render it dependable upon the whims of foreign nations. If reciprocity had any effect at all, it is to nullify directly and specifically that which has been the chief support of all parties of Canada for forty years. It is a denial and reversal of the whole principle of our policy.

Why the tariff in Policy? "We have asked the prime minister to explain the reasons for this here, unpardonable change of policy. If there is any reason why we should now abandon that mighty work which we have carried on for the last thirty or forty years, we would like to hear some to explain to an awaiting public what the reason is.

Turning to the national and imperial effect of this treaty, I have to say that I believe there is no hostility to the United States in the mind of the average Canadian. We regard the United States as a great nation, confronted, it is true, by serious problems, by problems of unemployment, of exhaustion of her resources, by monopolistic control of her commerce, but we wish our great neighbors well in the solution of these difficult questions. We do not desire to mingle their problems with ours. We object to this treaty because it binds the provinces of Canada in their economic and social and commercial life with the United States, and because we know that our neighbors are entering into this arrangement exclusively for the purpose of bringing to the aid of their own policy to cut off some millions of dollars of Great Britain's export trade with us.

Turning Our Backs on Britain. "Sun it is up one side and what does it come to? It comes to this, that we turn our backs on Great Britain and set ourselves up with the United States. "Do our material necessities require that we should adopt such a course? No. We are at the present time the greatest self-governing dominion in the empire. We are absolutely autonomous, received as an equal by Great Britain, and are in the highest of nations gathered round the crown. If imperial consolidation is in any way a consolidation which will in any respect diminish our responsibilities and a fuller scope for our own initiative, we will not support it. We hold to-day the product position of any nation on the globe. By this treaty we are asked to turn from the path which has made us a nation, and to make ourselves into a commercial appendage, a commercial dependency of the United States.

Such is not the course which it may be expected the Canadian people will accept as in accordance with our national idea of development. That ideal is to be a free citizen-ship, in a country not free theoretically, but practically free, free to foster resources, not to develop its natural resources, but to develop the resources of its own people. It is a citizenship which carries with it actual freedom of action, and which is a citizenship which carries with it an empire that is strong and which is every day growing, and which stands wherever its flag is planted, order, civilization and good government.

An Ideal Worth Fighting For.

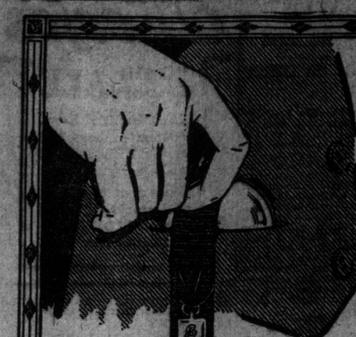

This ideal I hope and trust is in the minds and hearts of the young men of Canada, and is an ideal that is worth fighting for, and it is an ideal which will form the destiny and motive of young Canadians who are thousands in number, and who are in the process of doing so, and who are in the process of deciding upon the destiny, not only of Canada, their native or adopted country, but of the whole of the British Empire.

Donald Sutherland Speaks.

There was no question about the popularity of Donald Sutherland, Conservative member for South Oxford, when he was greeted with rounds of cheers and some minutes his remarks were lost in a storm of applause.

After commenting briefly upon the questions at issue before the country, Mr. Sutherland, pointing out that Canada was really a democratic country, asked if it was right that the government should enter into an agreement of this kind without consulting the people. Sir Wilfrid Laurier forgot the rebuffs his overtures had received on former occasions when his cheery came back from Washington without any encouragement whatever. At the same time President Taft's recent veto of the free list bill was designed to furnish a club against reciprocity. "Is it for your sake that Canada if reciprocity did not exist against the people?" he asked. "No, no," was the answering response from the audience.

Mr. Sutherland then went on to say that the prospective gain to be made by reciprocity was a small matter. "If I had the time I could show you where the prospective gain was much more than they will gain by anything of the kind." He declared that the immediate results would be that Canadian products would take their identity, western wheat would feed millions of people, and that the immediate results would be that Canadian products would take their identity, western wheat would feed millions of people, and that the immediate results would be that Canadian products would take their identity, western wheat would feed millions of people.

Short Traders Severely Punished in Mining Markets

Sharp Bulge in Porcupines When Shorts Attempt To Cover

Turn in the Mining Market Under Extensive Buying—Sharp Advances Throughout the List—Cobalts Unchanged.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Aug. 22.

Porcupine stocks experienced a sharp upward movement in the local mining exchanges today, a covering movement on the part of the short interest bringing in an entire change of sentiment, and values responding with sharp advances without a moment's respite.

It has been the gossip among mining brokers of late that the reaction in the prices of the gold mining stocks has built up an extensive short interest in the market, and consequently the bulge in values to-day occasioned no surprise, since it had been felt that the shorts would find a considerable difficulty in picking up sufficient stocks at anything like prevailing prices to cover their extensive commitments.

This idea was thoroughly justified, the active Porcupine issues making a sharp sprint as soon as the buying movement made itself felt. Advances running into three and four points were common, while in special instances even more extensive gains were recorded.

Dome Extension led in the upward movement, these shares moving up 3 1/2 points under buying for shorts. Transactions in this issue were very large, and the idea was expressed that a good sized interest had been left uncovered up to the close, while in all probability further commitments had been assumed on the bulge.

The advance in this issue found its reflection throughout the whole list. Vipond Crown Quarried, Swastika and several others of the usually active issues were in strong demand, and advanced sharply without any apparent difficulty.

Active trading in Preston East Dome was accepted as an indicator on the part of the shorts to buy in etc., to their contracts, of which an extensive volume is known to have been assumed. The price moved up 2 1/2 with good buying in evidence right up to the close.

The higher priced Porcupines were stronger, with Hollinger up to $10 at the close, and Rea bid for at $12 1/2, which was also the high point for the day.

The bulge was viewed with a good deal of satisfaction by the trading fraternity, who saw in the movement the inception of a good all-round recovery. An extensive short interest still remains to be covered, and this can only be done with considerable difficulty.

INSPECTED PORCUPINE CLAIMS.

Mr. W. J. Sutherland of Markham street has returned from the Porcupine district, where he has been making a general inspection of a large group of claims in Bristol Township. It was accompanied by a mining engineer from Duluth, Minn., who was making an examination of two of the properties for a party of Duluth people, who contemplate the purchase of two or more of the lots.

Mr. Sutherland has had a number of men employed on the property since the staking in June, and is well pleased with the results obtained.

B. C. COPPER WILL NOT PAY DIVIDEND.

Directors of British Columbia Copper Co. met to-day in view of the uncertain conditions brought about by coal strike in British Columbia, took no action on the dividend. This means that quarterly dividend which was due September 1 will not be paid.

Good Gold Finds In Matatchewan

Newly Prospected Gold Belt is Proving Rich—Haentzschel Claims Solid.

ELK LAKE, Aug. 21.—During the last fall and this year considerable prospecting for gold has been going on in this district and Gowganda, with varying success, but it seems that the so-called Matatchewan district is the most likely to prove a winner, as free gold not alone is found in places, but occurs pretty nearly all over in the dirt, and can be recovered by panning.

The gold-bearing belt, which apparently has a width of about six miles, and strikes east and west, lies down the course of Swastika. A millionaire mining man who was very conspicuous in the early days of Porcupine has taken an option on the Craig group for $200,000, and has sent a gang of men in there to work.

The route of the new gold fields is not the easiest, as they occur north of Indian Chutes a series of rapids seven miles long, but they are not difficult nor dangerous to navigate. The dryness of this summer has curtailed the flow and mosquito nuisance, so that traveling in the woods is delightful.

A deal has been concluded for the Haentzschel claims at Hubert Lake. The price is not known, but the purchaser is a well-known Cobalt mine owner. These claims have a most spectacular surface showing.

THREATENING LETTERS

To Miss Annie Black Lead to Arrest of Bernie Goodall.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Charged with writing letters threatening to kill Miss Annie Black of Beauville, Bernie Goodall, of the same place, is now lodged in the county jail on demand for a week. It is alleged that Goodall and Miss Black were formerly intimate friends, but for some reason became hostile to one another. Goodall is reported to have then sent some very improper things to the girl and was forced to apologize. Letters then began to appear addressed to the girl, in which some filthy and obscene language was contained. A letter was received on the tenth, in which it was stated that unless she apologized to Goodall within ten days she would meet an unexpected death. Nothing happened, however. Goodall was then arrested on the charge of being the author of the letters.

Methodist Mission Income.

A statistical report of the income of the General Missions Society of the Methodist Church in Canada shows the total income from ordinary sources for the year ending June 30, 1911, to be $848,708.18, an increase of $34,486.12 over the figures for the preceding year.

Of that amount $20,225.60 came from subscriptions and collections in the various conferences, which is an increase of $42,549.25 over the figures from this source for the year previous.

TIMMINS

IMPORTANT AUCTION SALE

Of Choice Business and Residential Lots at the Terminal of the Porcupine Branch of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway

The Timmins Townsite Company announces the sale by public auction of choice business and residential lots in the Town of Timmins, laid out on the Campbell Veteran Claim near the centre of the Pearl Lake Mining District, and a short distance west of the Hollinger Mine.

The location is an ideal one for a townsite, soil being sandy and capable of perfect drainage, and has been selected after careful consideration as the best available spot for industrial and residential purposes for this new mining centre. The Porcupine branch of the T. & N. O. Railway will be extended to and station and terminals erected on the townsite as rapidly as possible.

Lots will be offered for sale by auction on the site on Labor Day, Monday, September 4th, 1911. Special railroad rates will be arranged.

To the Investing Public

WE wish at this time to call your attention to the Porcupine situation. For two weeks there has been a severe decline in the price of the Porcupine securities. This has taken place in the face of the most favorable, and even sensational, developments on nearly all of the Porcupine mines, where serious mining operations are being carried out. The messages we have received from our special correspondent in the field state that the recent developments have been such as WOULD SET ANY OTHER MINING CAMP WILD WITH EXCITEMENT.

DOMESTIC EXTENSION

We received last night a despatch that on the DOMESTIC EXTENSION MINE a rich vein had been uncovered close to the Foley-O'Brien boundary.

FLURRY IN C.P.R. IN MONTREAL MARKET
 Early Decline Followed by Rally
 —General List Unchanged.

MONTREAL, Aug. 22.—The tone of the local stock market continues easy, trading today being in restricted volume and with further recessions through the list. Canadian Pacific was conspicuously weak, declining to 233 1/2, but improved with 235 at the close yesterday, but subsequently rallying to 235 1/2, with the last sale at 234 1/2, the closing bid being 234 and 235 being asked. Montreal Street was steady at 100, with 228 bid at the close. Montreal Power weakened to 161 3/4, recovering to 162. Richelleu was fractionally stronger, selling at 318 1/2, but was offered at 317 1/2 at the close. Toronto R.A.S. weakened to 156 3/4, with the closing bid 156 1/2. Steel Corporation, after selling off to 50 3/4, advanced in the late market to 51 1/2, with what figure 1 1/2 and 3/4 asked at the close. Under further liquidation Crown Reserve declined to 228 1/2 compared with 230 at the close yesterday, 2 1/2 being bid and 2 3/4 asked at the close.

RAILWAYS AND LABOR
 The Railroad Offices of the United States and the Labor Problem.

It is announced at the offices of the Southern Pacific that 6000 men will be dropped from the payroll of the Hawaiian roads before the end of September. Two thousand will be let go and the balance of 4000 will be let go in October, in order of their seniority, if conditions warrant.

In connection with the rumors that the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. contemplates laying off 4000 men, it is stated that the road's retrenchment policy is virtually over and the company is now employing as many men as it can get. An official of the company says: "Instead of laying off men we are taking them on."

The officials of federal railway employees report that two-thirds of union members employed by the Illinois Central Railroad have so far approved strike proposition.

Working schedule in freight houses and shops of Union Pacific in Kansas City, Kansas, reduced to eight hours a day for five days a week; machinists, boiler-makers and carmen at La Crosse, Wis., shops placed on 40-hour week basis.

British railway strikers returning to work and it is expected that minor points of differences will be amicably adjusted.

WALL STREET TRADING.
 NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Detailed recap of today's operations on the stock exchange would hardly be warranted, in view of the general financial situation, and even less on the recent severe declines in the market, particularly with a number of substantial recessions, in which Union Pacific took its now familiar place as leader. In its early losses the list simply followed the course of London, where all American stocks sold under yesterday, and the market was under pressure.

After the market's first slump, in which many stocks sold under yesterday, the list crawled slowly upward on a very moderate volume of business, Union Pacific leading the advance to 234 1/2. By midday prices were substantially away with trading at a standstill. In this way the list continued to move to the greater part of the session, even the professional element refraining from making any commitments, save in the smallest way. In speculative circles sentiment has undergone little change, although traders inclined to the idea that the present level market is a further advance, rather than continued declines.

Weakness in Canadian Pacific, which had its origin in Berlin, and was followed by a loss of almost five points, here precipitated an impatient selling movement in the latter session, which threatened to make further inroads upon the entire list. The earnest support accorded Union Pacific, however, resulted in a rally, but prices were not fully restored, and the market took on its accustomed languor. Baltimore and Ohio was distinctly weak, selling off to par, as was of two points, notwithstanding a rally. Statement of earnings for July, reading a consistent steadiness was accompanied by intimations that its earnings for July, soon to be issued, would be quite satisfactory. And the firmness of Pennsylvania followed an announcement that no retrenchment is contemplated on that system.

There was more animation in the late hour, and the list denoted a considerable degree of underlying strength, with absorption of Steel and Union Pacific, the former mounting to its best price of the day.

Stock Market Rallies Sharply After Early Break in Values

Support Rendered in Wall Street and Shorts Find it Difficult to Cover—Toronto Market in Rat of Quiet Trading.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Aug. 22.—The Toronto stock market gave no signs of breaking away from its chronic apathetic state in today's dealings, trading continuing of a dull character and price changes being of the most restricted nature.

There was nothing in the day's news to inspire trading operations of either a bullish or bearish character, and with sentiment among brokers decidedly apathetic, trading naturally simmered down to small volume.

Local brokers looked to Wall Street to furnish a key to the speculative position, but the action of the big market viewed with considerable apprehension just now on account of the recent semi-demoralization which characterized the American exchange, and in view of this the higher prices in New York did not attract any speculation to the exchanges this side of the boundary line.

Trading on the local exchange in the speculative issues was narrow, and with the exception of a few fractional declines, nothing new was evolved. No was traded in early in the day around 113, and lost only a quarter of a point when liquidation came into play. London was reported to be a seller of the security, but this idea has been abandoned, and it is now expected that it will receive little or no attention from close market followers.

A decline of half a point in Toronto Rails was taken as indicative of a tendency to realize on the part of speculators who own small holdings. The announcement that shorts will not be split up in the allotment of new stock has inspired some liquidation, but will of course, not prove of any importance as a market factor.

There was practically nothing doing in the other speculative issues, and price changes in each instance were too insignificant to cause comment. A few small lots of the banks changed hands on investment buying, but valuable Sept. 1, to shareholders of record June 30.

Canadian Machinery Dividend.
 Canada Machinery Corporation has declared the half yearly dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. on the preferred stock, payable Sept. 1, to shareholders of record June 30.

North Toronto Debentures.
 The Town of North Toronto has just awarded the $265,000 4 1/2 per cent. debentures, maturing in 30 years to Messrs. Wood, Gundy & Co. of this city. These debentures are being issued for sewerage purposes.

WALL STREET POINTERS.
 Americans in London irregular, unchanged to 1 1/2 lower.
 B. & C. earnings—July gross dec. $226,576; net increase—$121,856.
 Nevada Cons. Copper Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of 3 1/2 cents a share.

PARIS, Aug. 22.—Transactions were limited and prices closed lower on the bourse today. The market was unfavorably affected by the indefiniteness of the Moroccan negotiations.

BERLIN, Aug. 22.—Rumors that a breaking off of the negotiations between Germany and France regarding Morocco was impending were circulated on the bourse after the close of the official trading today, and caused a heavy drop in prices. Enquiries here show that there is no foundation for the rumors, which appear to have originated at Vienna.

Cotton Gossip.
 Erickson Perkins & Co. (J. G. Beatty), had the following price movements in the local cotton market today: The market was dead-locked. News of the day was generally favorable to lower prices, and the stubborn resistance displayed caused some speculation as to the extent of the short interest. Heavy receipts, a reported poor demand for spot, a weekly weather report rather better than expected, and indications of weakness over the southwestern district encouraged bearish sentiment. The September condition report indicates Aug. 25. Conditions continue unfavorable, and a conservative estimate of the deterioration is at least 3 per cent. under. We do not believe that these figures bear any discount, and look for some upturn.

The Lace Curtain Sale

(Fourth Floor.)
Wages in Nottingham factories are rising, and the price of lace curtains is bound to go up this fall. The "saving" to be effected by buying at this curtain sale is apparent now, but it will strike those who put off much more forcibly when they come to add the reduction offered at the sale to the increase in regular prices later on. It practically means two pairs now for the price of one pair later.

The Furniture Sale Shows a New Phase of Its Helpfulness To-morrow

Many a young couple will be glad of the news they read here; the modest furnishings of the house they moved into a couple of months back did not include a good brass bedstead, because good brass bedsteads cost more money than they cared to spend---last June.

But now! Whoever heard of such prices as these on good brass bedsteads! No one, madam, for they've never been sold at these prices before. And these are the guaranteed kind of bedsteads that'll look as well years hence as they do now.

Not so long ago a brass bedstead was regarded as a luxury; now it is the sine qua non of nearly every modern home. At any rate, there will be fewer homes without them after these prices are published.

When we found manufacturers willing to waive profits on dull-season work, we took advantage of the opportunity to buy a stock of metal beds, brass and iron, at prices quite unheard of before. Good brass beds were never before sold at such low prices as these.
