$500 FORWARD FOR SERVICES AS MAYOR?

Proposal is Made in Council, and Referred to the Controllers — Ald. McBride Thinks That the Honor Should Be Enough.

"It's a vicious principle." "I must protest. I object to heaping a bonus on great honors." These remarks by Ald. McBride and Controller Foster respectively at the close of yesterday's city council meeting were inspired by a motion introduced by Ald. McCarthy, with Ald. Hamblin as seconder, that, in recognition of Controller Ward's services as acting mayor during the five weeks' absence of Mayor Geary, he should be granted $500 "for charitable and other disbursements" made as a sequel to a resolution by Controller Church laudatory of the gracious reign of Controller Ward as president of council, his said resolution to be suitably engrossed. This carried without demur, but a warm debate on the propriety of a cash grant was only cut short by Controller Spencer's motion suggesting that the matter be referred to the board of control.

Honor is Enough. Ald. McBride said Controller Ward had made a capable mayor, but that the honor should be enough recompense, and to give him $500 "would cause an uproar." Controller Foster thought likewise that the honor should be sufficient. "I am surprised at the liberality of some members," he said. "I am sure that if they were liberal in such matters as in civil matters, they must be recognized as generous."

Controller Ward retired before the discussion began, but his return had been referred earlier in the day with a Rooseveltian demonstration, expressed his satisfaction with the fact that no one would grudge him a ten days' holiday taken at his own expense.

Danforth Road Widening. Ald. McCarthy's motion was submitted to the ratifiers next January for the widening of St. Clair-avenue from Toronto street as far as the intersection of Danforth-road from Don Mills-road to the eastern limit, in each case to a width of 86 feet, and as a public improvement, it is referred to the works committee. The former is a familiar subject of debate in the committee, which has tackled it many times, but has never been able to settle the issue.

"If it's delayed much longer, it will cost three or four times as much," declared Ald. McCarthy, who has the opposition of the residents to its being charged up as a local improvement effectively blocked that plan. He proposed that the city merely buy the necessary land and make the property owners pay their share for the pavement.

Controller Church viewed with dismay the prospect of waiting six months to determine the destiny of the thoroughfare. Why not prepare the way for future widening by passing a bylaw to compel all new houses on the avenue to be built back 25 feet from the street line?

There was no noticeable eagerness to clutch at this proposal.

That Chairmanship. Ald. McBride rose to a question of privilege. A newspaper, he said, had suggested that Controller Spencer be elected chairman of the harbor committee on a party vote. The alderman denied that he had been so swayed, and also challenged the correctness of the assertion that Ald. Graham and Baird had not received notices to attend the meeting.

Ald. Baird admitted having been officially made aware of the meeting, but Controller Church said he had not received his until a few hours before, and he also challenged the correctness of the assertion that Ald. Graham and Baird had not received notices to attend the meeting.

Ald. David Spence thinks the city can save money by appointing a veterinary surgeon at $1000 a year to look after his horses, as last year's veterinary bill exceeded that amount. His motion to this effect went to the board.

Ald. McCarthy wished to have his curiosity satisfied on several points before agreeing to vote and estimated amount of money to be expended on the waterworks tunnel under the bay. The board should furnish an analysis of the water at both ends of the tunnel for ten consecutive days so as to show whether there was any contamination from bay water, and should make clear also whether, in the event of a leakage being found, the city could collect a penalty from the contractors, Haney & Miller.

What the City Council Did.

Referred to the board of control motion to grant $500 to Controller Ward for services as acting mayor. Referred proposed widening of St. Clair-avenue and Danforth-road to the works committee. Decided to call for tenders for test of waterworks tunnel. Voted to send Ald. Maguire to convention at Sandusky, Ohio. Referred back lumber contract and criticized alleged high prices. Referred back paving contract for College-street from Manning-avenue to Dovercourt-road.

FRENCH-CANADIANS DO MOUNTAIN SERVICE

Conduct Manoeuvres in the Laurentides—Regiment Will go to the Coronation

MONTREAL, June 20.—(Special.)—The 65th, a French-Canadian battalion, have been doing very active service during the last few days in the almost inaccessible mountain districts of Charlevoix Co., where the lofty Laurentide range arises thousands of feet above the sea level, marching 14 miles at one stretch over these mountain roads, including in sham fight, which was followed by the announcement by Honorable Col. Rodolphe Perre, M.P., that on June 21, the regiment, 400 strong, with 24 officers, would start for the coronation of King George V. The expense of the trip is being paid by the Government.

DEFENDED THE KING

Dean of Norwich Brands as Untruthful Scandalous Rumors. LONDON, June 20.—The dean of Norwich made a remarkable address in a church near Norwich, in which he referred to King George as "a man to my personal knowledge of intense self-sacrifice and of high character." He then mentioned "two accusations brought, as I think, by that part of society which is not society at all." He went on: "Firstly, that the King is sometimes accused of insubordination. You may take me on undoubted authority that it is a libel. So far as his close friends have noticed him he has never been insubordinate through his life. On the contrary he is a man who, even from the point of view of health has to be abstemious. He does not desire to be anything else."

WINNIPEG SIZZLES.

WINNIPEG, June 20.—With the thermometer touching 96 in the shade, many people were prostrated in Winnipeg today. The excessive heat, accompanied by a hard dry southern wind, adding much to the distress. It is feared that a continuance of this torrid weather will seriously damage crops in this district.

WHITNEY PLACES HIS TRUST IN BORDEN

Provincial Premier's Warm Eulogy of Opposition Leader at the Falls Also Commends His Own Government.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 20.—(Special.)—Sir James Whitney, premier of Ontario, and R. L. Borden, M.P., leader of the opposition at Ottawa, were the guests of honor at the big political picnic in Queen-Victoria Park here to-day, under the auspices of the Niagara Falls and Welland County Conservative Associations. About 3000 enjoyed the oratory of the day and the music of the Thorsold brass band.

Sir James Whitney paid a graceful compliment to the work of Hon. Mr. Doherty, who, he said, had been called to the bench at an early age, and after having served the allotted time had retired into private life, and was giving his energy and experience to the cause of good government.

"While I am not here this afternoon to take advantage of the occasion to address you upon the merits of the Ontario Government, yet I am prepared to say to you as an Australian, and as a guarantee of what Mr. Borden and his followers will do. I am inclined to touch upon some provincial questions which have been carried thru by the present government."

Sir James then referred to the remark, often passed, that the Conservative party had no capacity for administration. "That was said," declared the premier, "when after two occasions, they approached me and endeavored to get me to join with them in the government of the country."

The premier spoke of the abolition of that monstrous thing called the numbered ballot, the increase in the revenues of the province, and the distribution of the railway tax to the municipalities, the establishment of agricultural schools and enlarged grants to educational purposes, the enforcement of the license law, the establishment of the Department of Municipal Board, "which has already repaid its cost ten times over to the people of Ontario," and the placing of the finances upon sound basis.

"And," he said, "we have every reason to believe to-day, and I am prepared to state the here with confidence, that we see no reason to anticipate anything in the future—no provincial finance other than continued surplus for the people and for the advantage of the province."

Respect for Vested Rights. "One more point I should have mentioned," continued Sir James. "It has been said that the Government has been repeated by men who know better, that we prepared a scheme interfering with vested rights, that it interfered with the rights of property, and that it interfered with the rights of a man to go to the courts."

"Every one of these three statements is an absolute falsehood. The only man who ever brought an action, which they say was stopped, from going forward with it."

And added Sir James, during the last parliament of Great Britain in 34 instances of substantive affirmative legislation the house of commons voted that there should be appeal to the courts by the man who owned the property, after government officials had given decision in relation thereto, that there should be no interference with the legislative power of the Government at Ottawa. That has been settled forever.

Confidence in Borden. "I have great confidence in Mr. Borden," added Sir James. "I prepared to sign a bond that he will not go to Boston and say that he values the American dollar above the British shilling, he never will say that he looks for the separation of the tie which binds the Dominion of Canada to the British Empire; he never would oppose and he never will oppose the sending of a contingent of Canadian soldiers—when they want to go—to the aid of the British Empire across the seas; he never would go to England and declare in high sounding language the great merit of British institutions, how he lived and prayed for the success of everything relating to Great Britain, and then come back, and a week afterwards, out in the country where he could not be heard except by a few demagogues, the imperialistic, as one that desired to get the sons of the people into the regiments of the British Army, and forthwith send them off to be killed, thousands of miles away from home."

"Mr. Borden will never describe the King-Zimperor as our overlord," continued Sir James. "Sir Wilfrid Laurier and President Kruger are the only two men that history records who described the King of Great Britain and Ireland as 'our overlord.'"

YOUTHFUL LUNCH NOT SKIPPED SAID MRS. COOPER

Cooper and Logan Admit Ignorance of Rules of Navigation — May be Held Responsible for Drowning of Two Women.

"I suppose that there is no doubt that there is already enough evidence to show that these two young men are responsible for the death of these two young women."

This was the utterance of Chief Coroner Arthur Johns when at the close of last night's sitting of the inquest into the death of Emma Carlaw, one of the two young sisters drowned in the bay on Friday night, when the gasoline launch, Cecilia, collided with the island ferry, and Frank Logan, the inquest was adjourned till to-morrow night, when the evidence of the crew of the ferry and passengers who saw the accident will be taken.

Amazing ignorance of the operation of a boat and of the rules of navigation was shown by Reginald Cooper, 374 Dundas-street, and Frank Logan, 105 O'Hara-avenue, the two young men who took Miss Carlaw and Mrs. Melrick for the ill-fated trip and returned leaving the women safe in the water. For instance, here is some of the nautical knowledge of the rescued escorts:

Tried to Save One. Cooper is an undersized young man, slight and with wavy blonde hair. They had met the girls at the Baymead slip by appointment, he said. They went out the western wharf, but turned right around, and went to Hamilton's Point. They landed and went on the roller dip, saw the loop-the-loop and high dive, and left at 10.30. They decided to take a spin around the bay before going home. They were heading northeast, with Mrs. Melrick sitting in the bow with him, while Miss Carlaw was sitting in the stern with Logan, who was attending to the engine. Suddenly Mrs. Melrick observed a dark object that a big boat was running them down. They all looked and saw the John Hanson almost upon them. He was a boat full of people, and they thought they were struck and all thrown into the water.

"I saw a life buoy near me and I jumped for it, made a desperate effort to get to the boat, and finally reached it," he said. Then he had been pulled aboard the ferry.

Mr. Cooper was asked by a jurymen if he had seen anything that he told of making an effort to save Mrs. Melrick, with whom he then said, he had sunk twice and then given up.

In his closing remarks to Dr. Johnson, Cooper declared that it seemed as if the big boat, was following them, and he was sure that it was a boat from behind and was almost upon them when it was seen.

To County Crown Attorney Baird he said that he did not see the ferry until Mrs. Melrick cried out, and that he was too late to do anything. He could not tell how far they were from the city when they were struck. They were going at full speed ahead, about seven miles an hour. He had run a boat all last season and all this season to date, without any accident. He had never studied about the right of way, but had been told by other launch owners that gasoline launches had the right of way, and that it was the duty of ferry boats to keep out of their way.

"We have never stopped or backed with that understanding of the rules of navigation?" asked Mr. Baird. "I always looked where I was going, and I always looked ahead, and I thought that the ferry boats must look for us," he replied.

He declared that the engine never faltered until they were struck, and that they had never stopped or backed. The young man bowed his head and was silent all last season and all this season to date, without any accident. He had never studied about the right of way, but had been told by other launch owners that gasoline launches had the right of way, and that it was the duty of ferry boats to keep out of their way.

"I would like an answer?" persisted Mr. Baird. "We certainly did," murmured the witness. "Hadm't you any regard for their lives?" demanded Mr. Baird. "We certainly had," Cooper replied, mopping his brow.

MISFORTUNES COME NOT SINGLY.

Government's Policy is Endorsed After a Most Exciting Campaign and One of Biggest Votes.

WINDSOR, June 20.—(Special.)—Windsor to-day put its stamp of approval on the Whitney government's Niagara power project, when a by-law to contract for a supply of power from the hydro-electric commission was carried by a majority of four votes, the vote being 624 to 620.

The first returns gave a tie vote, but later on these were turned to a majority of two for the by-law, and the final returns gave a lead of four. The opposition will not, however, admit defeat, and say they will insist on a recount.

Windsor never before saw such a vote. The fight put up by the Electrical Distributing Company, which had been organized by the power business, was one of the most bitter and determined in the history of Western Ontario. Automobiles and vehicles of every description were used, and the vote of property owners was the largest ever polled in Windsor.

CAPT. ROLAND FOUND

Octogenarian Subsidized 31 Days on Poplar Leaves and Water. PORT ARTHUR, June 20.—(Special.)—Captain Walpole Roland, the 81-year-old mining engineer, who strayed from a prospecting party one night ago in the Lake Manitowishago district, has been found. After subsisting on poplar leaves and water for 31 days, the marvelously strong will and constitution of the aged man, who declined to interfere, there is little likelihood of Vetricini escaping the gallows, his cable appeal to King George for mercy having been referred to the governor-general.

Robert Henderson, aged 71, will be hanged at Peterboro to-morrow, for killing an aged woman with an ax, while bent on robbery. Yesterday his counsel, F. D. Kerr, pleaded before the court that Henderson must prove insanity—his defence—"beyond a reasonable doubt," which his lordship had erred in the judgment.

"The law," declared counsel, "on humanitarian principles, takes cognizance of a man committing a crime in a heat of passion, and reduces the charge from murder to manslaughter. Yet madness is surely more justifiable than anger. Madness is penalized by having the expression 'beyond a reasonable doubt' attached to it."

The testimony of the doctors at the trial was called in question, on the ground that they may not have fully understood the condition fairly. "We do not think it would be merciful to the prisoner to direct a further trial," decided Chief Justice Moss, in pronouncing the judgment.

The court confirmed the conviction of Luther Smith, found guilty by Judge Denton of lending money at a rate greater than that authorized by the Money Lenders' Act, and also the conviction of Barber, alias Neilson, a Cobalt saloonkeeper found guilty of selling ore to him who was not a mine owner or agent of a mine owner.

The result of this judgment will be that the small army of other alleged "high graders" whose cases were allowed to stand pending the judgment will come before Judge Winchester Wednesday morning. Among those who came up is J. E. Wilkinson, charged with illegal buying. The evidence has been heard and judgment was reserved until the Barber appeal was heard. The penalty for both buying and selling ore outside the provision of the statute is a fine of not more than $1000 and a term of imprisonment of not more than one year.

Summer Comforts. How much more comfortable you would have been had you taken my steamer ten days ago, and bought a two-piece suit. I told you we were going to have hot weather, and there is more of it in sight. The Oak-Hall's big new store is the largest this big store has ever carried. There is a splendid variety in colors and materials with styles right up to the minute. If you want summer comfort you can get it with a two-piece suit and you will never be quite comfortable without it.

COURT WON'T INTERFERE WITH TWO EXECUTIONS

Vetricini and Henderson Appeals for New Trial Are Refused—Decision in Cobalt Ore Case.

The court of appeal yesterday sealed the fate of two men condemned to the gallows, for whom new trials had been sought on allegations of improper instructions to the jury by Justice Riddell.

Paquale Vetricini will be hanged next week in Toronto Jail for stabbing a fellow-countryman. In giving judgment, the court said: "A judge is not obliged to refrain from comments upon the evidence, but is at liberty to state his own impression of the evidence, provided that he make the jury understand that in deciding the sentence to be pronounced by the trial judge, and doubtless they believed it would receive proper consideration in the proper quarter."

In refusing to interfere, Justice Garrow says: "Altho we cannot within the scope of our powers interfere, the prisoner may still, if he chooses, apply for executive clemency upon the jury's recommendation and the other circumstances in the case, which it is urged with force and with some show of reason, would have justified a verdict of acquittal if the full knowledge and trial judge, and doubtless they believed it would receive proper consideration in the proper quarter."

WINDSOR BY FOUR VOTES FAVORS NIAGARA POWER

QUEEN'S OWN PAGEANT.

A mistaken impression seems to have got abroad in connection with the Queen's Own pageant at Exhibition Place. It is the whole four epochs in Ontario's history are not presented on the same evening. They are. Another possible misunderstanding is in regard to the admission fee and the committee wishes it to be understood that there are 400 seats at 25c and 600 seats at 50c every night and that the same presentation seen almost equally well from any part of the immense grand stand.

Go and see the pageant! Also take your opera glasses. You will enjoy yourself fully without them, but with them you will see a good deal better what those multitudinous and dazzling costumes look like in detail. They create a splendid picture in massed effects, and altogether the most wonderful spectacle Toronto has yet seen within her borders.

Notables Pictured. Be sure and take your United States friend with you; he will need to learn a little history, too. He does not know that in 1497 when Henry VIII set on the throne, Sebastian Cabot came over the sea and discovered Canada, or something just as good. And since then we had Henry VIII, Edward VI., Mary I., Elizabeth, James I., Charles I., Oliver Cromwell, Charles II., James II., William III., Anne, the four Georges, William IV., and three other monarchs to rule over us and make us the patriotic people we are.

All these royalties were in the pageant, and scores of others, from Captain Wolsey to the earls of Arches and Raleigh, and Drake, and Shakespeare (or was it Bacon?), and Marlborough, and Nelson, and Wellington, and Roberts, and Kitchener and others, more than you could keep tab on, of the British of the North Sea. And of the British beyond the seas there were the gallant men and wise who are more particularly associated with our own Province of Ontario—men like Governor Simcoe, and Grant and Van Alstine, and McDonnell, and Johnstone and Haldimand. Prince William Henry, afterwards William IV., had something to do with early Ontario, and the pageant stamps that into your consciousness. You get your memory stimulated also about Joseph Brant and Earl Selkirk, and Colonel Talbot in the vivid scenes that compose the first epoch.

There are four epochs, and the last lasts 10.45, you wish it was twice as long, or that the pageant was taken in slower time and the trooping of the colors hastened up a bit. Not that the military parade was not excellent, and that Lieut.-Col. Robertson magnificent, but we can only have a pageant rarely, and the colors are trooped more frequently.

The scenery is a glorious piece of lake and woodland, with heights rising above the water, and the discovered picture serves for background to all the stirring incidents. The band is in front, and plays delightfully throat, a medley of old favorites. As the air glides from one to another the dusk is lightened and the shadowy figures of the century before troop in and kindle the camp fires. The red men follow under the great Brant and give their war dance. Then Simcoe himself, the sturdy lad of Devon, plants his flag, while the band played "The Garb of Old Gaul" and his surveyors laid out the marks for Yonge-street and Dundas. That was nearly six score years ago, but the

SOLD HIS DAUGHTER Said to Have Collected $50 as Price of Her Hand. OTTAWA, June 20.—High Constable Groulx of Hull, who has been on a tour of the Gastown district, brought down a curious story of a father's bartering with the highest bidder for the hand of his daughter. The man is Joe Meard. He is said to have told his daughter's lover that he could have her only on the payment of $100, but the offer was turned down, whereupon he is said to have reduced the figure to $50, which was accepted by another young man, and the pair were married.

NEW ISSUE OF SIX PER CENT. BONDS.

An issue of $500,000, first mortgage 6 per cent. sinking fund gold bonds of the International Milling Company is now being offered to the public by Messrs. W. A. Mackenzie & Co. This is an amalgamation of several companies which have been in successful operation for a number of years and long since established an international reputation for the quality of their flour in Canada, United States and Great Britain. The company at present has a daily capacity of 6000 barrels of flour, and it is the intention to largely increase this capacity and take advantage of the great and rapid development of the Canadian west. It is for this purpose that the bonds are now being offered. The financing of this company has been of a most conservative nature, the capital stock and bonds represent actual cash investment and there has been no capitalization or issue of securities for good will or organization. This asset alone has been conservatively estimated to be worth $1,000,000. The advantages of conservative capitalization and financing are borne out in the excellent statement of earnings of the company certified to by Messrs. Marwick, Mitchell & Co., of London, England, which for the six months ending February 28, 1910, were $204,684.10, which is at the rate of 80 per cent. of the present issue of $500,000 of bonds, or nearly 14 times the interest charges. The net profits as above are after payment of interest on all borrowings. This is a statement that has not been equalled by any other milling company in Canada. The present issue is being offered at par and accrued interest and should appeal to conservative investors as an absolutely safe and desirable investment.

WALL ST. ON UP GRADE STOCKS STRONG AT CLOSE

New York Market Drags a Little, But Moves Up Under Steady Buying.

World Office, Monday Evening, June 20. Black Lake Asbestos was the only issue to show any outstanding tendency on the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day. These shares made a new record at 29 1/8 under good speculative demand, but did not hold at the close, when the best bid was 28 3/4. The preferred sold around 67, tho on the afternoon board a sale was registered at 66 1/8. The market in general was quiet and transactions of small volume. The traction issues were dealt in moderately, but prices showed little change from last week. Sao Paulo made a fractional advance; Twin City was a little easier; Mackay held unchanged. Porto Rico was in somewhat better demand than during the past few days, but there was no alteration in prices for this issue. The market closed dull, but generally steady. Speculation was apathetic and the outstanding trend was, if anything, a little easier than at the close on Saturday.

WALL STREET POINTERS.

Tatt signs railroad bill. Congress is practically certain to adjourn Saturday. Southern Pacific settles with telegraphers on a 7 per cent. increase in wages. General market in London firmer, with improvement in consols and copper stocks. Foreign commerce for fiscal year now concluding shows larger figures than in any previous year, with possible exception of 1907. Large gain in cash and moderate increase in loans features of bank statement. Nine banks reported less than 25 per cent. reserve in Saturday's statement, against 6 per cent. last week, and 5 in corresponding week last year. Traffic on western railroads is averaging a little ahead of that of the same period last year. Traffic on southern lines is about normal and fairly well balanced. Joseph says: Bull M. K. and T., as experience has taught, are paved with uncertainties, but at times like the present risks are reduced to a minimum, especially if purchases of the Pacific, Reading, Steels and Coppers be judiciously made. Railroad accidents and others will cheer up now that the rate bill is a law. Chesapeake is a 5 per cent. dividend payer, earning more than twice as much.

The stock market seems to us to display a more pronounced improving tendency, and we believe bullish operations will be witnessed in the leading active securities. There may be a special policy pursued. Purchases on this recession or upon activity, following quiet should give turns to daily operators. The technical position is good, with shortage large.—Financial Bulletin.

The market has every indication of doing somewhat better than for some time past. We expect some advances in the active railroad issues, accompanied by a corresponding indication of strength in the leading industrials. This advance, however, if it comes, must not be taken as evidence that there has been a great restoration of confidence, as there is every reason to believe that the time has not yet come for any permanent advance or sustained better feeling.—Town Topics.

Dividends Declared. The Canada Southern declared a semi-annual dividend of 1 1/2 per cent. This is an increase of 1/4 to 1 per cent. Erie Four declared regular dividend of 1 1/4 per cent. on preferred stock. Vanderbilt lines declared regular semi-annual dividends on Lake Shore, Michigan Central and Canada Southern.

Lack of Confidence, But—During the week the completion of the sale of twenty-five million Southern Pacific bonds to Berlin was announced, and there is evidence that the European market is still favorable to our best issues. There is prospect of the adjournment of congress soon, and the harvest outlook will then largely determine the prospects of business and securities. There is still lack of confidence in the situation in high financial circles and also among investors, who a somewhat better feeling prevails in these two directions. The date for argument of the supreme court cases has been requested to be set further along to January. If crop prospects continue good, between now and the time when the threat of the Sherman law decisions begins to loom again, the market should have a good rise on the volume of business which must be done before the beginning of the year.—J. S. Bache & Co.

Westinghouse Earnings. Westinghouse Electric Co. and its subsidary companies report for year ended March 31, increase in net income of $3,978,846 over previous year.

On Wall Street, Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: Stocks became quiet early in the afternoon, then receded moderately, rallying a little later on. Trading became narrow and it looks as if prominent interests wanted to put a curb on. We look to see prices back for a time, which suggests that the wisest course is to buy only on drives for moderate turns. The short interest is not all out and unless we get unfavorable news, prices may work somewhat higher on the technical position. However, the unfavorable spring wheat situation will tend to check advances in stocks at least until a general rain relieves the drought there.

Chas. Head & Co. to R.R. Bondage: The leading railroads and industrials after dragging a little in the first part of the hour became stronger and closing close, many of them moving to new high figures for the day. Reading led the market on this upturn, making a further gain of about a point and closing two points over Saturday's close. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific followed with fractional gains, and the other leading railroads, including New York Central and Baltimore & Ohio were in better demand at advancing prices. The range of prices at the end of the session was not material above the best level reached on June 7. J. P. Bickell & Co. had the following: Signature of the president to the railroad bill is accepted as a strong argument for higher prices. We believe that the low price of wheat, the new stability in the large part of the railroad security market, and the settlement of several labor disputes now in sight will give the market renewed energy and put it materially higher before there is reaction of importance.

NEW ISSUE OF C. N. R. BONDS EXTENDED. LONDON, June 20.—An issue of £2,000,000, 5 per cent. convertible bonds of the Canadian Northern Railway, is anticipated, and £770,000 of 5 per cent. bonds of the Lake Superior Corporation to finance the extension of the Algoma Central and Hudson Bay Railway to the C. P. R. The North of Scotland and Canadian Mortgage Company has decided to increase its capital by £500,000. The Canada Company announces a dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. for the half year. At a Marconi meeting it was stated that arrangements were being made to enable the Canadian Company to repay its debt to the Marconi Co. for the whole of its indebtedness of £144,373.

Will Double the Output. WINNIPEG, June 20.—William Mackenzie, president of the C. N. R., states that under the new management, the output of the Dunsmuir Collieries—at present three and one half million tons per year—would be doubled. The C. P. R. will take 25,000 tons. Mr. Mackenzie announced that he had accepted a seat on the Canadian advisory board of the Hudson Bay Co.

MARKET IS PRACTICALLY FEATURELESS.

World Office Monday Evening, June 20. With the exception of strength in the Black Lake Asbestos shares, the Toronto Stock Exchange was practically featureless to-day. There was an entire absence of speculative enthusiasm in the market, and trading was even more limited than during last week. Wall-street is passing thru a period of semi-stagnation, and the smaller exchanges are feeling the effect of the general apathy which prevails in speculative circles. Domestic securities offer opportunities for narrow trading only, and until the speculative movement broadens, no characteristic change is likely to occur.

subsidary companies report for year ended March 31, increase in net income of $3,978,846 over previous year.

On Wall Street, Erickson Perkins & Co. had the following: Stocks became quiet early in the afternoon, then receded moderately, rallying a little later on. Trading became narrow and it looks as if prominent interests wanted to put a curb on. We look to see prices back for a time, which suggests that the wisest course is to buy only on drives for moderate turns. The short interest is not all out and unless we get unfavorable news, prices may work somewhat higher on the technical position. However, the unfavorable spring wheat situation will tend to check advances in stocks at least until a general rain relieves the drought there.

Chas. Head & Co. to R.R. Bondage: The leading railroads and industrials after dragging a little in the first part of the hour became stronger and closing close, many of them moving to new high figures for the day. Reading led the market on this upturn, making a further gain of about a point and closing two points over Saturday's close. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific followed with fractional gains, and the other leading railroads, including New York Central and Baltimore & Ohio were in better demand at advancing prices. The range of prices at the end of the session was not material above the best level reached on June 7. J. P. Bickell & Co. had the following: Signature of the president to the railroad bill is accepted as a strong argument for higher prices. We believe that the low price of wheat, the new stability in the large part of the railroad security market, and the settlement of several labor disputes now in sight will give the market renewed energy and put it materially higher before there is reaction of importance.
