STORMY SESSION OF COUNTY COUNCIL

Straight Voting, The County Against City THERE WERE LIVELY TILTS

Trouble Over Bills for Legislation — Legislation to Cut Down Police Court Fines for Drunkenness to $2—The Road Act That Does Not Work

A rather stormy session of the Municipal Council was held this morning and although there was in session for over three hours the amount of business transacted did not correspond to the length of time consumed in getting it through.

The session was marked by some very lively tilts between members of the council and, on one occasion between a councillor and the county secretary.

An unusual feature was the even division of the city and county members on several votes, and this continued until the city members threatened to withdraw from the session unless the county members would agree to a quorum to make their annual appointments.

The division was caused chiefly by the desire of the county members to have the city members make their annual appointments.

STIR THINGS UP OVER HOME RULE

LANGUAGE BOTHERS OPIUM CONFERENCE

Chairman and Official Stenographer Not Expert in French and Things go Slowly

London, Jan. 17.—Little has been heard so far of the doings of the international opium conference which resumed its sitting at the Hague a week ago.

The special correspondent of the Times, the press of the delegates is not stirred with rage.

Among other difficulties that of language is conspicuous for the president of the conference himself, Bishop Brent of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the States, is not familiar with French and the great majority of the speeches and reports have been made in English, and subsequently rendered into the official French by way of the Dutch language.

The results of these conditions are necessarily reflected in the official records and translation work which leave a good deal to be desired.

The diplomatic world is conservative in its ways, says the correspondent, "but the time must surely be approaching when an international conference on a commercial question will be conducted in the language most familiar to the commercial world, or at least about two o'clock in the afternoon, reserving French for purely political and diplomatic work."

Primate of Ireland Calls Meeting Of Synod

GETS LIVELY IN BELFAST

Ulster Threat to Prevent Church and Redmond Speaking Draws Caustic Comment From Nationalists—Latter Handicapped by Illness of Redmond and Devlin

(Canadian Press) Dublin, Jan. 17.—In connection with the campaign of resistance to home rule, the Primate of All Ireland, (Church of Ireland), the Most Rev. John Baptist Crotty, after consulting with the Archbishop of Dublin, the Most Rev. Joseph Ferganese Pascoale, and other bishops, has resolved to call a special meeting of the general synod of the Church of Ireland in Dublin on March 21, to consider the crisis.

The general belief is that before this date the government will have presented the home rule bill in parliament, so that its outlines will be in the hands of the synod.

The Primate said that the prospect of another home rule bill was a deplorable injury and has practically divided Ireland into two hostile camps. It has also accentuated religious differences, he said, to an extent unknown in recent years.

The threat of the Ulster Unionists to prevent the holding of a meeting in Belfast on Feb. 5, at which Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, and John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists in the House of Commons, are announced to speak in behalf of home rule, has caused somewhat of a sensation in political circles.

The Nationalist newspapers generally make caustic comment on the Unionist threat. The Dublin Independent Unionist says that the Unionists are allowed to speak in Dublin without fear of molestation, while the Freeman's Journal says that the Belfast Unionists are not to be taken into consideration.

The Primate of All Ireland, who presides over the synod, is a man of high standing in the church, and his views are of great weight.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 17.—(Special)—The York municipal council this morning was taken up with matters in connection with the recent smallpox outbreak in St. Mary's Indian reserve. Chairman Smith of the board of health was heard in explanation of an account of $987 for supplies furnished by P. S. Watson. Discussion was lively. There is still a balance of about $200 due Watson and he declines to settle for less than the full amount.

It is understood that the majority of the council are not in favor of reappointing Scott Act Inspector McFarlane. The position is likely to go to Councilor Sims of Quacombary.

Mr. Wess, of Colong, Ont., has arrived here to accept the appointment of district engineer on the Valley Railway.

The department of state is seeking information concerning relatives of James Crockett, who left Ireland in 1831 with the intention of settling on a farm near Fredericton.

Councillor Potts—"We are conducting affairs in an unbusinesslike manner. Very few can say that they voted intelligently on that motion."

Councillor Potts—"That is an insult because they did not have the bill before them. It is a dangerous method if the city and county councillors are to line up and vote against each other."

Alderman Hayes—"If matters are going on this way the members might as well go home and allow the county members to continue to run affairs."

In reply to Councilor P. Jones, the secretary said that the bill came up as a recommendation from the bills committee. He made reference to the lack of funds for stenographic work and Councilor Hayes said that this was no reason why the business should be slighted. If the money is not sufficient that was a matter for the finance committee.

The last session, providing for the license form, was adopted.

Things Get Lively

Councillor Hayes made a strong protest against the division of city and county members and noted that the bills list over one month to give them time to consider the bills before them.

Councilor Potts in speaking the motion said that this was the first time he had ever seen the members divide this way. He was independent of the members led with the new council."

Ex. Com. Donahue—"Pretty nearly."

Com. Potts—"It looks like it when one member claps his hands and says 'Get up and vote' and the county members suggest that the county members have not sufficient intelligence to vote for them selves."

Com. Potts—"Far from it, but if they do not attempt to do so, I will move that a bill be prepared to provide for the government of the county by a commission of four members."

The question was called but Com. Potts replied: "I know my rights and I can't vote on my own motion."

As a general expression of the city members' opinion the secretary announced that the motion was carried and the council agreed to defer the bills and adjourn.

Com. Potts—"Then we may as well withdraw."

The county secretary—"Gentlemen, please do not block the county business in this way. We have to deal with a loan of $100,000 from the Bank of New Brunswick on the Lancaster sewerage. The bonds to cover this loan were authorized at the last meeting and the best offer we could get was 82 or 83, not enough to cover the loan. It is a matter of $100,000 and it is a matter of $100,000."

An explanation of the fact that the secretary had proposed for the council be made to so many committees on Friday that it was a physical impossibility to get the report out in time for a meeting on Tuesday. As it was his assistant had worked all day on Sunday to get matters in shape.

Com. Hayes said he had no objection to the secretary but the committee or an adjournment be made to give time to consider these important matters. If business matters like this are continued it is no wonder that bonds did not command a better price.

There was some discussion as to whether the bills should be left over until the next meeting or a special meeting be called at a cost of over $200, and it was suggested that it be left to the warden and secretary to decide whether a special meeting is necessary.

All bills submitted today were read and the bill submitted today was read over until the next meeting except the bill for the amendment of the Statute Book concerning the Lancaster sewerage and the latter bill was passed.

The Chain Gang

The secretary presented the report of the prison labor committee, prepared by C. H. Brown, including abolishing the chain gang and the establishing of a prison farm.

Com. Hayes moved the adoption of the report coupled with an expression of appreciation of the services of Ex-Com. Donahue in connection with the work carried.

Mrs. Crown of Toronto arrived in the city today and will be the guest of Mrs. John McAvity for a few days.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 17, 1912

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., company incorporated in the Province of New Brunswick...

TIME IS PASSING

We are within three months of the civic elections. In April the city is to try a new system of government. The success of the experiment must very largely depend upon the men who are elected members of the commission. The new system will in any case yield better results than the old, because it will fix responsibility. But it cannot endow the men elected with ability and capacity, and the faculty of dealing promptly and in the public interest with the matters of great importance which must be dealt with during the next few years. Men of ability and capacity must be elected members of the commission. It is not too soon to give attention to this question. Time passes all too rapidly when important work is to be done. There are already in the field, in a quiet way, candidates who desire to be elected. They are canvassing for support. The Citizens' Committee has not put forward any man or group of men, but if it wants its past work to produce the best possible results it must see that strong and able candidates are nominated. In the meantime the electors should refuse to pledge their support to this or that candidate, who seeks election on his own account. The issue is far more important than any ordinary administrative election. St. John during the next few years will need its best men at the helm, not only to inaugurate the new system, but to deal with large questions affecting the city's growth and development. These questions will arise and will demand prompt action. Only men of business ability can establish the civic administration on a strictly business basis. The board of trade, the real estate men, the merchants, the mechanics, the writers of all classes are interested in this subject, and should exert their combined forces any attempt to perpetuate old methods, or to place in power men who would represent sectional aims and interests rather than the interests of all the people. There is no politics in this contest. It is a business matter.

SHOWING THE FARMS

To many Canadian farmers are "showing" their farms. Dr. W. J. Robertson says that 40 per cent. of the farms examined by a committee in the west show a substantial decrease in production, and that in all the provinces of Canada the like is to a greater or less extent true. The remedy is systematic rotation of crops, and the application of scientific methods in farming. This statement has been made so often that it is quite familiar to us all, but has it begun as yet to make the needed impression and produce the needed results? So far as the province of New Brunswick is concerned, some progress has been made and is being made in the introduction of better methods; but much remains to be done. The province needs an experimental farm and a corps of trained men to be located in the agricultural districts, demonstrating at the simplest or indifferent farmer's own door what can be done by right methods of drainage, crop rotation, seed selection, soil cultivation and proper choice and care of stock.

Did anybody make a remark about "an old-fashioned January"?

Perhaps the members of the municipal council expect prohibition to be adopted, and a prison farm in that way made unnecessary. But they neglected to say so.

Sweden has adopted woman suffrage, giving women a full and equal share with men in the franchise. This is a notable gain for the cause.

There is some danger of a general miners' strike in England on March 1st. Such a strike would cause an industrial crisis of the most serious character.

A number of men are reported to be coming back from the west to take up farms in the St. John valley. These are wise men, for the valley is at the beginning of a great development.

Guard Beckett appears to give it as his matured conviction that daily intercourse with the guards does not improve the moral status of the chain gang. Which appears to be a little hard on Guard Beckett.

If the United States congress should remove the duty on wheat from Canada, would the Canadian flag flappers shout for an export duty on wheat to preserve our east and west trade?

A recent Ottawa despatch says: "Mr. Monk's early retirement from the government is accepted here as practically certain. It is an open secret that he would prefer the Bench to the constant worries of his Ministerial position."

An exchange says: "The poorhouse is an institution which is being abolished in the State of Illinois. Already six counties have put the new plan into operation, and others are to follow. The new plan is to keep destitute families together, mothers who need assistance being pensioned and taking care of their own children, instead of sending them to an institution. Each case is investigated, to determine whether the mother is in need, is of good character, and is qualified to bring up the children. As and is conscientiously observed, it is a plan to hire the mother, instead of a stranger, to bring up the child, transforming her from a pauper into a paid employe of society. It remains to be seen how the plan will work out."

The Borden government has not yet dismissed any official for offensive partisanship in favor of the Conservative party. Why this discrimination by the champions of civil service reform?

Twelve thousand people in pious Toronto went tobogganing last Sunday. The Ministerial Association had protested, and this was the answer. It pays to advertise, although in this case the profit was not to the Ministerial Association.

Dairy Commissioner Ruddick says that "on the whole, the outlook for dairying in Canada is as good as, if not better than, it ever was, and it seems to be particularly bright for the coming season."

The Toronto Globe says: "The condition of the distributive service that forces the Toronto citizen to pay sixty cents for new-laid eggs that the poultry-keeper in the country sells for thirty cents is a scandal and a shame to our civilization. It is such things that make people Socialists."

Hon. Martin Burrell, the new minister of agriculture, told the farmers at Campbellford, Ont., recently that the new government would give more aid to agriculture than the preceding one. This should encourage Premier Manning to demand the experimental farm for New Brunswick.

A Belfast cable says the Unionists promise that they will prevent a Home Rule meeting at which John Redmond and Winston Spencer Churchill are to be the speakers. This is a remarkable statement. Any such attempt would result in bloodshed, for there is no lack of Home Rulers in Belfast. Moreover, an attempt to prevent free speech is never popular.

The majority of the members of the municipal council are evidently opposed to the plan of providing a prison farm for this municipality. Perhaps they would all favor a provincial institution, but the very least attention given to the subject yesterday leaves the public in doubt on that point. This is a source of keen disappointment to those who feel and know that the present jail system is a scandal and a disgrace. The whole question has been shelved for a time, but it must come up again, and it will not be so easily shelved. The committee's conscientious treatment of its committee's report is not a reflection upon the committee. Whether its scheme were practicable or not, the question should be seriously faced and freely discussed.

Sir Max Aitken is alleged to have told his English constituents that provincial home rule causes trouble in Canada. Would Sir Max abolish the provincial legislatures and establish a beneficent despotism at Ottawa? This curiously ill-informed young man is also alleged to have stated that Canadians would rejoice if home rule for Ireland were defeated. He should look into the records of the parliament of Canada, and learn what Canada has really said on this question. As a matter of fact, while Canadians are quite content to let the United Kingdom deal with its own local affairs, the great majority of them believe home rule would have good results rather than evil results.

DAUGHTER OF M. J. BUTLER MARRIED IN SYDNEY Sydney, C. B., Jan. 16.—In the Sacred Heart church last evening, Miss E. Florence Butler, daughter of M. J. Butler, C.M.P., general manager of the steel company, and R. P. Dore, of Montreal, were married. The bride, given away by her father, was dressed in cream silk, and assisted as bridesmaid, Doctor Lynch, was groomsmen after the ceremony a wedding supper was partaken of in the Sydney Hotel private dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Dore left by last night's train for an extended trip to the upper provinces.

THE LIT OF THE SONG

To walk in the woods in the calm of the day. With the lit of a song in your heart. The crisp of the autumn to unison your way.

With waters murmuring all pits. With cracking of twigs, and the crackle of leaf. The songs of the breeze in the bough and the sheet.

Oh, who can think trouble, and who can think grief. Or who can think wrong. In tune to the lit of that song?

The whirr of the bird in the bushes ahead. With the lit of a song in her wing. The yell of the moose wherever you tread.

As soft as the air of the spring. The green of the pine and the blue of the sky. The joy of the rivulet tripping by— Oh, who can think sorrow, and pain, and sigh. While stepping along. In tune to the lit of that song?

The shimmer of sun in the depths of the glade. What the lit of a song in its glance? The fanciful figures in shadows portrayed. In stately and dignified dance. The quiet of evening, yet everywhere life. With spirit of growth and the spirit of life.

Oh, who can think trial, and who can think strife. Or fetter, or throng. In tune to the lit of that song? John Kendrick Bangs.

IN LIGHTER VEN EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES Somebody said that money talks. And yet when an investigation comes up we find it sometimes balks at ordinary conversation. —Washington Evening Star.

CIRCULAR MOTION Rivers—"What is it that ails you when you have a bumping in your head?" Brooks—"Wheel."

A THOROUGH TEXT "Inspector, that woman I said was always listening on my party line must have quit." "What makes you think so?" "Why, my wife has been listening for three weeks and hasn't caught her yet." —Chicago Tribune.

HOW IT TURNED OUT My friend said he was foolish to be coming so many girls. "How did it turn out?" "As you might expect. His expenses were so heavy that he got behind with his board and had to marry his landlady." —Washington Herald.

THE BREED May—"Is that Frank's hank?" Fay—"No, Podunk mutton."

WOULD LIKE TO KNOW "Some philosopher says there is always a right way and a wrong way of doing a thing." "I wonder if he ever tried to fall down stairs the right way?"

"Well, I stood there for a moment, looking out over the audience and framing my first sentence, and I am sure that I should just before I had got ready to utter my first word, some fool in the back end of the hall yelled, 'Loud!'"—Judge's Library.

TIRED OF TEDDY. I am so weary of Teddy. Today, the steateman on wheels. Tired, and my poor brain aches. Under the incense trees. Tired of the cowboys that roared him. Tired of the lions that chased him— Oh, I can smell him and taste him. When I sit down to my meals.

I am so tired of his chronos. Tired of his magazine curves. Tired of his living on bromo. Trying to make up my nerves. Tired of the yams he's indicted. Tired of the frogs he has righted. Tired of his chestnut, "doo-lighted." Tired of the drops that he serves.

The discussion opened by the recent petition for the re-organization of the province of New Brunswick, the Minister of Justice, and probable similar action in the case of C. V. T. Richeson, led Dudley A. Holman, secretary to Governor Foss, to make a statement outlining his views and authority in the matter of pardoning acts.

The following members of the cabinet were present: Mr. Foss, Mr. Holman, Mr. G. E. H. ...

The only duty of the executive upon receiving petitions for pardon and, if these appear to raise any reasonable doubt of guilt, or to show that the ends of justice have been fully met, is to transmit them for the consideration of the council. An affirmative vote of this body is the only condition on which any pardon can be granted.

"The great majority of such petitions for pardon are denied by the chief executive, without being referred to the council because of the failure to set forth any adequate reason for the exercise of clemency. Those that reach the council, are either approved or rejected after a full hearing by vote of that body, of which the governor is not a member and in which he has no voice."

"The governor personally does not believe in capital punishment; nevertheless, the death sentence is imposed by the courts of this commonwealth in conformity with law. Such being the case, Governor Foss has never sought to go beyond the clearly defined duty of his office, and he directs me to state that under no conditions whatever will either seek to evade the responsibility placed upon him by the constitution and statutes of the commonwealth."

"In order to ascertain more clearly what these responsibilities are, he has recently asked the Supreme Court of Massachusetts to set forth the exact meaning of the constitution in Chapter 2, relating to the advice of the council in relation to pardons. The communication from the supreme court places this matter in a very clear light, and sustains Governor Foss in his views."

WINNED BUSINESS MEN TO BRITAIN AND CONTINENT

C. F. McPherson, general trade manager for the C.I.E. Co., with offices at Winnipeg, says that next June 100 of Winnipeg's prominent business and financial men will visit Great Britain and the continent. In previous years the city has sent these men into the western states to obtain information, but this year they will go abroad. Speaking of the passenger traffic during the past year, Mr. McPherson, said that the year had been a most successful one.

IMMIGRATION FIGURES

Immigrant settlers to the number of 292,210 arrived in Canada during the first nine months of the current fiscal year, April 1 to January 1. Of this number, 185,131 arrived at ocean ports, and 107,079 from the United States.

These figures show an increase of 10 per cent as compared with those of the corresponding months of the last fiscal year, which were 185,924 at ocean ports and 97,702 from the United States, making a total for the nine months, April 1 to January 1, of the previous fiscal year, of 283,626.

During the month of December this year, there were 10,634 arrivals, 4,645 of them having been at ocean ports and 5,989 from the United States, as against 10,153 for December last year, 4,593 of whom were at ocean ports, and 5,560 from the United States.

During the calendar year 1911, there were 260,274 arrivals, made up of 144,757 British, 103,184 European and other countries, and 131,114 Americans. During the calendar year 1910 there were 263,249 arrivals, 118,575 of whom were British, 65,881 European and other countries, and 124,972 Americans.

MORSE DECLINES TO GO

Banker Prisoner, Suffering From Three Diseases, Objects to Hot Springs Plan

Washington, Jan. 17--Charles W. Morse, the convicted New York banker, may not accept the privilege of treatment at Hot Springs, Ark., as a prisoner-patient, in accordance with the authority granted by President Taft Saturday. It is understood that Morse has declined to leave the hospital at Fort McPherson, Ga., at present, possibly because he believes himself physically unable to take the trip to Arkansas.

Officials here are reticent in regard to the matter. Warden William H. Meyer of the Atlanta penitentiary and Major David Baker of the Fort McPherson hospital have sent telegrams explaining the situation. These were laid before President Taft, but not made public. All details for making the transfer, so far as the prison authorities were concerned, has been pending only upon Mr. Morse's readiness. Physicians in close touch with Morse and authority for the government in removing him to Hot Springs for treatment will result in little good to the prisoner-patient. Morse is suffering from valvular heart trouble, Bright's disease and arterio sclerosis.

Portland's Grain Shipments

Portland, Jan. 17--The shipments of grain by trans-Atlantic liners from this port amounted to 4,277,000 bushels for the year just closed, a decrease of 285,000 bushels from the 1910 shipments. From present indications more grain will be sent from Portland this year than for any previous year since 1908.

Had Boils On Neck and Arms.

Had Them Lanced But Got No Relief Until He Used Burdock Blood Bitters.

Boils in themselves are not a dangerous trouble, but still, as the same time are very painful. They are caused entirely by bad blood, and for you to get rid of them it is absolutely necessary to put the blood into good condition. For this purpose there is no remedy that can compare with Burdock Blood Bitters. This preparation has been on the market for about 30 years, and has a reputation unequalled by any other for the making of pure, rich, red blood. Mr. H. J. Batten, Stratford, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled for several weeks with boils on my neck and arms. I tried all kinds of so-called remedies, but could get no relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I am pleased to say I am now quite free from those most painful clumps, and feel much better in every respect."

"My boy, of nine years, had a rash come over his back and legs, so we gave him a few doses and now he is all right again."

ON AN OLD FRENCH AIR

(Andrew Lang, in January Canada Monthly.)

There is an air for which I would discover Mozart's, Rossini's, Weber's melodies-- A sweet, sad air, that languishes and sighs,
 And lingers its secret charm for me alone.

Whence? I hear that music vague and old,
 Two hundred years are mist that rolls away;
 The Thirteenth Louis reigns, and I behold,
 A green land golden in the dying day.
 An old red castle, strong with stony towers,
 The windows gay with many-colored glass;
 Wide plains, and rivers flowing among flowers,
 That bathe the castle basement as they pass.

NO BILL IN HAVELOCK BOMB CASE

The Kings county court yesterday afternoon adjourned sine die.

It is understood that the case of L. H. Thorne against the A. J. Williams Machine Co. of St. John, N. B., Ltd., in the county court for alleged breach of contract, has been withdrawn and the case settled out of court.

The civil docket in Canadian Oil vs. W. H. Colburn—Action on account, W. D. Turner for plaintiff, J. M. McIntyre for defendant.

Walter B. Campbell vs. John A. Papp—Action for damages. G. W. Forster for plaintiff, J. D. P. Leveson and J. McIntyre for defendant.

Frank W. McKel vs. Arthur E. Cranall—Action on account. H. H. P. Leveson for plaintiff, G. W. Forster for defendant. John D. Frazar vs. Samuel B. Freeman—Action for account. R. J. Proulx for plaintiff.

G. O. Dickson City moved for and secured the discharge from custody of the court of George Dimeson held on his own recognizance to appear when called for. All the civil cases on the docket were remanded and adjourned to the April court.

The grand jury after a long and close examination of witnesses in the Havelock bomb case was unable to find anything directly connecting the young men charged with the offence committed, and so reported to the court that they found no bill against them.

The jury called attention to the very inefficient heating appliances in the hall, and in view of the large influx of foreign railway laborers expected in the country, and the possibility of an increase in the fall winter, recommended that a new and up-to-date system of heating be provided for the cells and corridors.

His honor pronounced to have the matter brought before the proper authorities. When the four young men, charged with the Havelock outrage were brought before the bench to receive their discharge, J. M. McIntyre urged upon the judge to let it be known through the length and breadth of the county that it was simply because of the absence of sufficient evidence connecting these young men with the offence that the law against such outrages had not been vindicated, and that such failure was no reflection on the competency of the jury.

His honor concurred in Mr. McIntyre's contention and pronounced that in any case coming before him, if evidence was produced sufficient to convict he would enforce the full penalty of the law.

One of the young men was discharged from the custody of the court, which adjourned sine die.

The Asepto Contest Was a Huge Success

There were a great number of letters, all of which came very close to answering the questions, but the one that the judges decided to be the nearest correct was sent in by Jack Tomlinson, 291-1-2 Rockland Road, St. John, N. B., which, together with questions, is as follows:

FIRST QUESTION—What in your judgment is the feature in the Asepto plan that has made our store do a volume of business in less than six months that other stores have not been able to get in years.

ANSWER—Your Premium Plan has secured for your store its ever increasing trade.

SECOND QUESTION—What was the most important feature that first induced you to buy at the Asepto store.

ANSWER—The most important feature that first induced me to buy at the Asepto Store was the Premium Plan because you may get any article as a premium.

THIRD QUESTION—Which of these four vital points—ASEPTO QUALITY, ASEPTO SERVICE, ASEPTO STORE LOCATION OR ASEPTO PREMIUMS—would you advertise with the conviction that when people know that fact they would go to our store and take advantage of our whole plan.

QUEBEC'S IMPORTANT STEP TO HAVE GOOD ROADS FOR PROVINCE

Guarantee Loans of Municipalities for This Purpose up to $10,000,000

(Montreal Witness) The Quebec government seems to have concluded that only very large help will avail to produce good roads. Its offer of very substantial aid during the last two years, to every rural municipality which would undertake a certain amount of permanent work each year, and substitute a cash tax for statute labor, have not been taken up as readily as expected.

In case of macadamizing, contracts had to be made each year for two or three miles of road at a time. There would also be many questionnaires as to which roads, or parts of roads, should be made first. Let us hope then that the hesitation of the municipalities to accept the government offer, even in those cases where the change from statute labor tax to cash tax was acknowledged to be reasonable, has been due to an instinct that a still larger policy was called for—one that would mean, in fact, a general transformation from bad roads to good roads, and that the very large policy announced by Sir Lomer Gouin will meet the situation.

Until the details of the measure are announced it is impossible to form a full judgment, but the general principle that the province will guarantee the loans to the municipalities for this purpose up to ten millions of dollars, pay one-half of the interest and provide one-half of the sinking fund, should surely set against a lively transformation. The premier happily announces, moreover, that owing to the nullification now established in the provincial finances, and the increase in the dominion subsidy, this large charge may be met from the annual income without recourse to a provincial loan.

The business men of the province, who contribute so heavily to the provincial revenues in the commercial corporations have, will hail this movement, for they know that good roads create business, but they will certainly look for the fulfillment of the promise to meet the obligations of the annual revenue. That good roads are not only makers of civilization, but makers of trade and industry, and mean to the farmer a saving in wear and tear, and a less expenditure of physical energy for his horses, and the carrying of larger loads of produce in less time. The actual gain on these points alone has been estimated at $10,000,000 in the carrying of some of the states of the United States, and has had to be expressed in millions of dollars annually.

Councillors present were as follows: Lancaster, James E. Bryant, William Gilling, J. W. Long, Simonds, Thomas C. Case, Henry Shillington, Fred. Stephenson, St. Martin, William Smith, C. Fred. Black, John A. Howard, Manning, J. J. Dean, J. J. Cavanaugh, city, Elites, Hayes, Smith, Potts, Russell, Codner, Sully, Christie, G. E. Jones, McLeod, Wigmore and Green.

The New Wardens Election of a warden was the first business and was conducted with the retiring Council, in the chair, by the Hon. Mr. Dean. The subject was illustrated by seventy lantern slides. The lecture began with a new map of the province, showing the location of the various towns in that region and views of the principal lakes such as Buffalo and Cleveland were shown.

The lecture described how the lakes were formed and there was a fine description of the iron ore deposits around these lakes. There was a discussion on the lecture in which F. A. Dykman and Dr. Matthew took part. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Fisher.

These lectures are free and are open to the public. The following National Park is the subject of the lecture next week.

SEND PRISON FARM MATTER TO COMMITTEE

Municipal Council Did Not Even Hear the Report on Project Road ESTIMATES INCREASED

More Than $9,000 in Excess of Last Year's—Tuberculosis Institute Matters—Some General Matters

After adopting the estimates for 1912 and sanctioning an increase of nearly $10,000 in the total amount, the new municipal council yesterday leaned so far towards economy that they refused to accept the report of the prison farm committee and the bill which had been prepared to carry out its recommendations, and, instead, appointed a committee to interview the provincial government to see if that body would not undertake the prison farm work.

Until the details of the measure are announced it is impossible to form a full judgment, but the general principle that the province will guarantee the loans to the municipalities for this purpose up to ten millions of dollars, pay one-half of the interest and provide one-half of the sinking fund, should surely set against a lively transformation.

The estimates for 1912 show an increase of $9,000 over last year's. The increase is due to the fact that the council has decided to increase the salaries of the members of the council and the salaries of the various departments.

The committee on the prison farm matter has reported that the provincial government has agreed to undertake the prison farm work, but the council has decided to refer the matter to a committee to interview the provincial government.

The committee on the tuberculosis institute matter has reported that the provincial government has agreed to contribute $10,000 towards the cost of the institute, but the council has decided to refer the matter to a committee to interview the provincial government.

CHECK WHICH FLITTED FROM EQUITABLE FIRE AND LANDED ON ROOF

One of the incidents of the Equitable Building fire in New York was the rescue of an old check from the Belmont office. The check, possibly the only copy of paper in that section of the Equitable Building, floated across Cedar street and landed on top of the Chamber of Commerce Building.

The check is drawn on the Bank of New York for $2,000.00, in favor of William O. Eggleston. It is dated October 11, 1912, and is signed by August Belmont & Co. The ink of the signature is somewhat faded from its twenty-nine years rest in the Belmont vaults but it is readily legible.

Mr. Burdett reported that the sum of $700 had been transferred from the hospital account, making the total increase on the account over last year of $2,500. The remainder of the estimates were adopted without discussion and in addition a special assessment of $3,000 on Lancaster parish for fire, police, streets and sewerage was ordered.

A petition to assess the parish of St. Martin, for a police court building and lock-up was left to the highway board of that parish. The matter of recovering the books in the registry office was left to the incoming finance committee.

On motion, W. P. Burdett was heard to present a resolution on the board of trade urging the desirability of controlling the laying out of lots in Simonds and Lancaster where the light, expensive building with a view to having a comprehensive plan of town planning carried out when the building begins to go up.

Mr. Burdett said that some provision for the future was necessary on account of the difficulty in getting in a proper system of streets, sewers and water pipes. He suggested that the county council act authoritatively from the legislature to have a proper road plan prepared.

Mr. Burdett also reported that the county council had decided to refer the matter to a committee to interview the provincial government.

CHECKING A DANGER TO YOUNG

New York in Line Against Evils of the General Delivery Window

GOTHAM POLITICS AND CRAFT

Speaker Holds Upper Classes Responsible—Fighting Infantile Paralysis—Alarming Use of Opium By the People of the United States Metropolis

(Times Special Correspondence) New York, Jan. 15.—Alarmed at the growing number of young women calling for mail matter at the general delivery window of the post office, or having it forwarded to them at private letter boxes throughout the city, Postmaster Morgan has given orders to hold up for inspection the investigations of such matter addressed in future in this way. Most of the correspondence coming under the ban is said by the post master to be of a surreptitious character, with young men unknown to the families of the girls and to one of the most sinister and dangerous practices has been detected here by the discovery of a young woman engaged in a letter-writing business, who has "picked up" acquaintances with designing strangers, and later herself as having won a beau.

We have cleared the mails of get-rich-quick literature, says Mr. Morgan, largely of suggestive matter, and we purpose to clear the mails of the letters of young girls called for mail at the general delivery window of the post office, without showing us the reason for doing so. Many letters were sent to young girls by men who had made their acquaintance through a chance flirtation.

Very often these men were of immoral character, and not infrequently we found that the letters were quite as immoral as the men. Something had to be done to stop it. I assigned several of our inspectors to the general delivery. When a young girl called for mail at the general delivery window, the inspectors would stop her and ask her to show them the letters which she was carrying.

Not long ago, I went on the post master's office and discovered that many girls were receiving mail under fictitious names at private letter boxes in easy streets, in the city, near their homes or schools. We soon put up to the post master letter boxes in easy streets. Why we found that thirty girls attending a certain high school, up-town had received letters in easy street near the school, for which they had paid fifty cents a month each, and were receiving scores of letters from young men. Many of them were improper letters. They may not have appeared so to the school girls, but they were, nevertheless, indecent.

It did not take long to settle that matter. Mail carriers now report any instance of this kind of which they become informed. Then an inspector is sent out and the matter is soon ended. The general delivery is not intended for residents of New York, anyhow. If you have a business address or a home address, that is the proper place for your mail to be sent. The general delivery was intended for transients.

Politics and graft. In a striking address the other night, Raymond Fosberg, commissioner of accounts and the nemesis of Gotham's grafters, charged that the upper and not the lower classes were responsible for the widespread prevalence of bad politics throughout the city.

"Today municipal politics is a matter of graft; there is not a man in the community who is not affected by it," Mr. Fosberg arraigned the clergyman whose indignant opinion prompted him, after discussing city righteousness, to ask if it were not possible to "find an easy job for his son."

"I say it is this kind of man who is an insidious thing in community like New York," said the speaker. "Before we start out to save our brethren, let's look at our own conduct. It is fundamentally a problem of better citizens. I am surprised at the attitude of the average citizen toward his government. It is almost always an attitude of indifference, as if his interests were not related to it. In this struggle for good government we are getting anywhere." The last two years seem to have brought us such examples of city government and such a shameful administration of state government that it all seems to have brought us no nearer the goal.

My experience in New York has brought the conclusion that it is among the upper class—we are to draw lines of class distinction—but most of the difficulty lies. It seems an improbable thing that from virtuous sources the men trying to clean up our city government find the greatest opposition. As Governor Hughes said: "If the college bred man could be eliminated from the legislature, politics would be cleaner." It is against the man of invidious opinions in our community that we have the most to contend. Many Hall plays an open game in comparison. The cards are laid down and you wonder how you have to face it. "I would not like to leave the impression that I am pessimistic about the quality of our citizenship in this country. In fact, I believe it is improving. I have seen about every form of public dishonesty and public betrayal, but we are one of the up-bird road, not only in — city but in all the cities.

Dr. Simon Flexner, head of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research here, believes that the discovery of the use of a drug, known to science as urotropin, in treating infantile paralysis will result in saving every year the lives of tens of thousands of babies.

Dr. Flexner advances a peculiar theory regarding this disease that attacks only the very young, and is so contagious among them. He believes that it is a germ disease, but that the germ is so small it cannot be discovered by any microscope yet invented. He practically asks that human ingenuity set to work to find some instrument that will allow men of science to see and study the producer of this death-dealing disease.

MESSIAH WELL SUNG

St. John Choral Society Scores Great Success in its First Performance

The Opera House was crowded last night with an appreciative audience to listen to the Messiah, sung at the first performance of the St. John Choral Society. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed and the singing scores a distinct success. The soloists were Miss Ella Courtney of Halifax, Mrs. Annie Estelle Hollis of Boston; Charles A. Munro, tenor, and G. S. Hayes, bass, of this city. The accompanists were Miss Bertha Woodson and Dr. Arnold Fox. Besides the soloists there was a chorus of 100 voices under the leadership of E. S. Peacock. All of the solos were particularly well rendered and the choruses were well done, and were heartily applauded. The proceeds were for the Society for Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Mr. Hollis is a soprano singer of rare sweetness who takes the high notes with not a trace of the slightest effort or questionable in any solo singing. She was especially good in the singing of the first movement, the "Agnus Dei," and in other selections during the evening, including her duet with Miss Courtney, "O Death Where is thy sting," which was one of the most heartily applauded numbers.

Miss Courtney's singing was a real treat and her rich contralto voice was heard to great advantage in every solo she attempted. She showed more of the depth and power of her voice in "The Shall I Die," which was one of the most impressive numbers.

Mr. Munro, although a youthful singer, possesses a great tenor voice, and his voice was never better shown than in the singing of the first movement, "Compassion, O Compassion," and in other selections during the evening, including his duet with Miss Courtney, "O Death Where is thy sting," which was one of the most heartily applauded numbers.

Keep your liver organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the system, and keep the system free from the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

Cascarets tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never grip, seldom and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and never have Headache, Biliousness or Constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

THE NEW LEADERSHIP

The new leadership of the weaver is much like the leadership that is thrusting itself into control in English trades unionism generally. TO BE MARRIED IN WEST

Montreal Transcript.—Miss Elizabeth McBeath left last night by Maritime Express for Winnipeg, where on arrival she is to be married to Fred L. Irvine, manager of the Central Garage Co., Calgary. Many of her friends were at the depot to bid her adieu. Miss McBeath has occupied a prominent place socially among the young set of the city and her removal from their midst will create a vacancy not soon easily filled. As an active member of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. and of the Open Air Club, she will be greatly missed at the outings and functions during the winter. Miss McBeath resigned from the teaching staff of a local school.

C. N. BEAL DIED TODAY

For Many Years in Business in This City—A Native of Sackville

Many people in this city and throughout the province will hear with regret of the death of Charles N. Beal, wholesale liquor dealer of this city, who died this morning at three o'clock at the home of W. Tremaine Gard in German street, where he had apartments. Mr. Beal was born in Sackville, N. B., and was fifty-eight years of age. He came to St. John when quite young and entered the employ of the late Thomas L. Bourke and later went into business with W. D. Foster under the firm name of C. N. Beal & Co. For many years they conducted a wholesale liquor store on the North Wharf, and a little while before Mr. Foster's death, Mr. Beal bought out his interest and took over the entire business.

Mr. Beal was widely known in business circles. He was a man of sterling character, and was well liked by all who knew him. He was greatly interested in sporting matters, particularly in fishing, hunting and shooting, and spent considerable time at these sports.

Charles N. Beal is survived by two young children. Although he practically resided in this city, he still maintained his home in Sackville. Two sisters, Mrs. McConkey of St. John's, Quebec, and Mrs. A. W. Clement of Sackville, also survive. The funeral will be held at ten o'clock this evening and will be cremated. The ashes will be interred at Sackville.

ST. JOHN'S FIRST TAXI IS HERE

Forerunner of Service to be Started After the Snow Goes

Another sign of the advancement of St. John in the appearance in the streets this week, of an up-to-date taxicab such as are seen in the streets of New York, Boston and other big centers. The new car has been imported from New York by the Popley Garage Company, and it is said to be altogether likely that it will be put into commission at once. It is the intention of the importer to organize taxicab service in this city, and to import about a dozen cars in the spring for use here.

The matter was talked of last season, but nothing definite was done. The prospects are now, however, that the arrangement is a handsome one, finished and in maroon and grey. The tonneau is elaborately fitted and is equipped with electric lights. There is room in the car for five people, besides the driver, four inside and one out.

GAVE DRAMA WELL IN ST. ROSE'S HALL

In St. Rose's Hall, in Fairville, last evening, the members of the St. Rose's Dramatic Society celebrated their fourteenth anniversary by the presentation of a rural drama in five acts, entitled "East Folds" which they enacted to the satisfaction and pleasure of a well-filled house. The proceeds were in aid of the church.

The drama calls for some clever acting and the members of the society who took part are deserving of praise for the capable manner in which they handled their roles.

The cast was as follows: Tom Manly, a sailor, J. C. Callan; Bill Long, a fisherman, V. J. Quinn; Rev. John Thorncliffe; H. U. Quinn; Ben Jordan, the light keeper; H. Hamilton; Doctor Carlsson; J. Thibodeau; Joseph Winslow, a fisherman; J. J. O'Toole; Daniel Crane, his chum; Theo. Conway; Joan Long, old Bill's daughter; Miss Mac Broude; Faith, a cripple; Miss Tessie McQuinn; Mrs. Priscilla Winslow; Joe's wife, Miss George Whalen; Eliza Long, Bill's wife; Miss Nellie Avery; Jan, Long's servant; Miss Blanche O'Brien.

FALLING OFF IN EXPORTS TO STATES

American Consul's Figures of Shipments From St. John During 1911 With Particulars of Last Quarter

To H. S. Culver, the American consul at this port, the Times is indebted for an interesting statement of exports to the United States from St. John for the three months ended December 31, and a statement for the year. As compared with the last period of the old year, in addition to the fact that there is quite a falling off in the total of exports to the United States, the most notable change being in the export of the product of American logs, as will be observed in the tabulated statement. This is owing to the duty being placed on these logs about the first of August last, causing a decline of a large amount in the last period of the old year. In addition to this the markets were not too good and this also affected the results.

The following is the statement of the totals for 1910 and 1911:

Sheeler on the Tramp to Wilkesbarre—A Liquor Case

In the police court this morning Winn O'Brien, charged with using profane and obscene language in Mill street, and also with resisting the police, was remanded. Policeman Briggs took of arresting O'Brien and the language used by him. O'Brien was told that he was liable to one year's imprisonment in the jail. He pleaded not guilty.

Edward Sheeler, a tramp, was charged with wandering around in the I. C. R. yards last night and not giving a satisfactory account of himself. He told the court that he was heading his way to Wilkesbarre, Pa., and that if allowed to go he would continue his journey. His wish was complied with.

Three prisoners charged with drunkenness and who had been in jail on remand, were brought into court and fined.

The case of Francis Yairs, charged with keeping a disorderly house in Carmarthen street, was dismissed, as there was very little evidence submitted. The defendant said that Gilbert Lauchler had gone into her house on the night in question and that she had only put him out as she did not want him there.

Hearing in the case of W. B. Daley, charged with selling liquor to George Drey, stated as a minor, was further postponed until Friday morning at ten o'clock.
