FORTY-SECOND
ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Committee of Management
OF THE
St. George's Society of Toronto,
FOR THE YEAR 1876.

According to the requirements of the Constitution of the Society, the Committee of Management beg to present their report for the past year, which has been one of continued commercial depression, yet the applications for assistance have not been as numerous as the preceding year, probably owing to the decrease of the immigration of destitute people, and to the circumstance of many families leaving the city for other parts.

The balance in the hands of the Treasurer in the beginning of the year was, $168.11. The receipts during the year amount to $1936.34, making a total of $2104.45.

The expenditure of the Society for the relief of the destitute, payment on burial lots, and other necessary purposes, has amounted to $1623.66, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $480.79.

RELIEF.

Relief has been given during 1876 to 880 families and individuals, numbering in all about 4,400 persons, to the amount of $716.86. This sum has been expended in bread, meat, money payments, and railway passes. One funeral has been furnished, and permission to bury in the lots of the Society has been granted in three cases.

Every care that has been practicable has been used to supply the wants of suitable objects of the Society's benevolence, and to reject the unsuitable.

Your Committee have deemed it necessary, on account of the continued number of fresh applications, to pass a resolution "that relief should not be given to families who have been relieved by the Society during the past two years, except in cases of severe illness, or some very special circumstances."

MEMBERSHIP.

There have been 8 life members and 36 ordinary members elected during the past year, the number of members on the books being as follows: honorary, 17; life, 85; annual, 256.

The Committee regrets the removal by death of Mr. William Avann, a generous contributor to the Society; Mr. Joseph Stovel, a highly respected life-member; Mr. G. Chanter, one of the stewards, and for a long time a very active and useful member; Mr. H. P. Brumell, a life-member; and Mr. S. G. Ridout, an ordinary member.

ANNUAL RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The annual religious services were held in the St. James's Cathedral, on the 23rd of April, and in the Metropolitan Methodist Church, on the 30th. The sermon in St. James's Cathedral was preached by Archdeacon Whitaker, and in the Metropolitan by the Rev. T. Guttery, both gentlemen being chaplains of the Society, the collections amounting to $252.75.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

UNION OF ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETIES OF NORTH AMERICA, AND EXCURSION TO HAMILTON.

On the 5th of September the delegates appointed by the Committee to ascertain the objects of the St. George's Society of North America, attended a meeting of that body in Hamilton, and having reported favourably, it has been decided to unite therewith.

In connection with the above, on the 6th of September, an excursion on the Great Western Railway to Hamilton of members and friends was given, but little advantage resulted therefrom.

CHRISTMAS DISTRIBUTION.

The annual Christmas collection was made in December by the Committee and other members of the society. The total amount received in cash was $7873.05. Besides the donations of meat and bread there were purchased 4368 lbs of meat, 767 loaves of bread, 121 lbs of tea, and 554 lbs of sugar.

The distribution took place in one of Mr. Manning's stores under the Grand Opera House, kindly lent by that gentleman for the purpose.

Relief was given to about 600 families, including nearly 3000 persons.

ST. JAMES'S CEMETERY LOTS.

The last instalment of $50 has been paid on these lots, and the Society now holds the deed therefor.

TENT.

The rent from the tent has amounted to $35, and the expenditure to $3, leaving a profit of $32, and $15 yet due. Your Committee have not been able to dispose of it.

LECTURE BY THE REV. CHARLES CLARK.

Upon the application of your Committee, the Rev. C. Clark kindly consented to deliver a lecture on "Oliver Goldsmith," the profits to be equally divided between that gentleman and the Society, which resulted in the addition of $21.65 to the funds of the Society.

OFFICES.

The lease of the offices expired on the 12th of last July, and your Committee obtained a renewal of the lease for one year at a reduction of $50 per annum.

It will thus be seen that the Society is in a substantial, healthy condition, and from its usefulness to the English residents, and new comers who need its aid, commends itself to the support of such of our fellow countrymen as are possessed of the means wherewith to do so.

T. HERBERT MARSH,

President.

NOTE.—The above List of Members includes those elected at the Annual Meeting on the 19th of January, 1877.

BY-LAWS.

I. The Society shall consist of such persons of English or Welsh birth or descent, in the male line, as shall be elected members thereof according to the regulations hereinafter made.

II. The objects of the Society are to unite Englishmen and Welshmen, and their descendants, in a social compact for the promotion of mutual and friendly intercourse, and for affording to persons of English or Welsh birth or descent who may be in distress, their advice and counsel, and if necessary, such pecuniary assistance as the funds of the Society will admit of.

III. In addition to the Officers named in the Act of Incorporation, six Stewards shall be elected, who shall co-operate with the Committee in all celebrations to be held by the Society; also a Marshal and Standard Bearers shall be appointed by the President.

IV. The Officers of the Society shall be elected as follows: any member may nominate a Candidate for each office, in succession; and in the event of more than one nomination for any one Office, the decision shall be by ballot.

V. The President and Vice-Presidents shall not be eligible for re-election to the offices respectively filled by them for the next succeeding year.

VI. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be holden on the third Friday in January in each year. In each year there shall be holden four Quarterly General Meetings, viz.: 1st. The Annual General Meeting, and one each on the first Friday of the months of April, July, and October. Monthly Ordinary Meetings shall be held on the first Friday of each month throughout the year, excepting in January, April, July, and October, as otherwise provided.

VII. Any gentlemen desirous of joining the Society shall, at a General or Ordinary Meeting, be proposed and seconded by members, and may be elected by a majority of such meeting, on payment of the first year's subscription.

VIII. The Annual Subscription of Members shall be Two Dollars. The subscription year shall be from 1st January to 31st December. Any new Member elected between the 1st of January and 30th of September, shall pay the full subscription for the current year; any elected on or after 1st October, may be admitted on paying for the current quarter only.

IX. A subscription of $10 shall be a life-subscription, and the same, together with all donations of $10 and upwards, unless such donations are made for a specific purpose, shall be invested by the Managing Committee, and form a portion of the permanent fund, the interest on which shall be applied to the charitable purposes and ordinary expenditure of the Society. No ordinary member shall be eligible to life membership until he has paid all arrears of subscription as such ordinary member.

X. The Annual Meeting shall order the investment of such proportion of the surplus fund as may appear desirable, and in such manner as may be then determined, and the annual subscriptions, with the interest of investments shall constitute the ordinary funds applicable to the charitable purposes and ordinary expenses of the Society.

XI. The Treasurer shall be authorized to advance to a distressed individual a sum not exceeding two dollars, upon the written recommendation of the President or either of the Vice-Presidents, or of any member of the Managing Committee by them appointed to grant such relief; provided always, that such recommendation does not involve the payment of more than two dollars to any one person or family. In cases demanding more than the ordinary relief thus afforded, the same shall be referred for further enquiry and action to the Managing Committee as hereinafter set forth.

XII. The Managing Committee shall meet weekly, and any five members thereof shall form a quorum. It shall be their business to direct the affairs of the Society generally, under this Constitution; to determine all matters referred to them by the Society, and to prepare for each Annual Meeting a report of the proceedings of the Society for the year, to be submitted previous to the election of Officers.

XIII. The Managing Committee may make loans (not exceeding twenty dollars to one person or family), from the ordinary funds of the Society, to persons in temporary distress or trouble, upon receiving such reasonable security as they may deem expedient, provided the period of such loans does not exceed six months. It shall have power to grant extended relief, in particular cases at discretion, the orders upon the Treasurer being in all such cases signed by two or more of the Members of the Committee.

XIV. The Committee assisted by the Stewards shall arrange for the Annual Celebration of St. George's Day, and report such arrangements at the Monthly Meeting in March. No expense of any celebration or social entertainment whatever, shall be charged against the funds of the Society.

XV. The President (or in his absence, the Senior Vice-President,) shall direct the Secretary to convene a Special General Meeting of the Society, upon requisition (stating the purpose thereof) from any five members, and the Secretary shall call a Special Meeting of the Managing Committee, either by direction of the President (or in his absence the Senior Vice-President), or upon the requisition of any two members of the Committee.

XVI. The chair shall be taken thirty minutes precisely after the hour appointed for meeting, and if there be not then a quorum of at least ten members present, the meeting shall be forthwith adjourned.

XVII. Any member in arrear of subscription for two years may be considered as having withdrawn from the Society, and his name shall be erased from the list of members, after due notice being given him. No member shall be entitled to vote at the annual election of Officers or at any subsequent meeting, neither shall he be eligible for election to any office of the Society, if he shall not have paid his previous year's subscription.

XVIII. The annual subscription shall be considered due and payable in advance, on or before the 23rd day of April in every year.

XIX. The duty of the President shall be, to preside and preserve order at all the meetings of the Society, and to protect and further its interests to the best of his ability. In his absence the Senior Vice President present shall exercise the authority and duty of the President. In case of the absence of the first four officers from any meeting, the members present shall be empowered to elect a Chairman out of their number.

XX. The Secretary shall have charge of the Seal, Banners, and other Insignia of the Society. He shall keep a fair register of all proceedings, orders, rules, and regulations, and manage the correspondence. He shall, when applied to, and on payment of such fees as may be determined on by the Committee, issue certificates of admission to each member (on his having signed the Constitution,) to which he shall affix the Seal of the Society. He shall, when necessary, summon the Society to its various meetings, and shall sign such cards of Invitation to all Celebrations as may be required of him by the Committee and Stewards. He shall also, at all meetings of the Society, and of the Managing Committee, enter into the respective Minute Books the names of the members present at such meetings.

XXI. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the funds. He shall countersign such certificates of admission as may be issued by the Secretary. His accounts shall be fairly kept, and exhibited to the President and the Managing Committee, whenever called for, and shall also be laid before the Society at its January meeting. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to open an account with such one of the Chartered Banks in the City as may be approved of by the President and Managing Committee of the Society, and there deposit the securities of the Society in the joint names of the President and of himself; and when directed by the Committee, all funds belonging to the Society, and paid to the Treasurer, shall be deposited in such Bank.

XXII. All vacancies in the offices of the Society, happening in the interim between two succeeding Annual Meetings may be filled by election in the usual way at the Quarterly Meeting next after the same shall have occurred.

XXIII. To preserve order, and to expedite the business of the Society, any member who may have proposals to make, or observations to offer upon any propositions, shall rise and address the President; and no person shall interrupt another when speaking, if the speaker be in order.

XXIV. The introduction of political or religious subjects, or their discussion shall never be allowed at any meeting of the Society.

XXV. The members of this Society shall faithfully observe and conform to all the rules and regulations that shall be made by the Society, and entered in the books thereof, on pain of being dismissed from it, and having their names erased from the list of members.

XXVI. If the majority of all the members present at any General Meeting shall vote for the expulsion of a member, his name shall be erased; and he shall never afterwards be admitted to any meeting of the Society, unless again elected by ballot, as in the first instance: provided always, that no proposition for the expulsion of a member shall be in order, unless one month's notice has been given of an intention to submit it at the then next ensuing Quarterly Meeting.

XXVII. The Banners and Flags of the Society shall not be used except on occasions when the Society as a body takes part in the proceedings, or where the Society is represented by its officers.

XXVIII. At any Quarterly or Annual Meeting the members present may, on one month's notice previously given, elect any one of its members an honorary life member, in consideration of services rendered the Society; and also may elect any distinguished person eligible to become a member, in like manner for services rendered either to the Society or the country, and such honorary member shall be entitled to all the privileges of an ordinary member.

XXIX. An Obituary Record shall be kept by the Secretary of any member of this Society who may hereafter die, stating his birth and parentage, if known, date of admission as a member, his position, general character, and such other facts in regard to him as may be interesting to chronicle. Such record to be published with the Annual Reports.
