R E P O R T.

Your Committee again come forward to render an account of the manner in which they have performed the duties entrusted to them by this Society. The meeting of this evening cannot, strictly speaking, be called the annual meeting of the Toronto Auxiliary Bible Society: it is now fifteen months since the Society held its last stated anniversary. Why, it may be asked, has the annual meeting been delayed so long beyond the usual and stated time? We answer, in the words of a resolution, adopted by the Committee at its meeting of February 6th, 1836,—“Resolved, That in consequence of the unsettled state of affairs, the annual meeting be postponed to the second Tuesday of May ensuing, and that the present office-bearers do continue in office until that time.” It is hoped that this meeting will fully justify the Committee in taking that liberty upon themselves, and in thereby extending, without your authority, the period of their service. And surely we cannot but rejoice, that through the good providence of God, we have now fallen on more peaceful times than we witnessed when the Society would, had nothing disturbed our progress, have observed its stated meeting. And knowing that the Bible is truly a book of peace,—that it is designed by its great and holy Author to bring peace to the conscience—to bring peace into the family—to bring peace into Societies and into kingdoms, your Committee cannot but hope, that all who love order and tranquillity will find an argument in the lamentable occurrences of the past season, impelling them forward to increased exertion in promoting the distribution of the Bible; for it is through its influence on the judgment and on the passions that man becomes really a contented, a peaceful, and a happy being.

Your Committee feel persuaded that you will not be greatly disappointed, when they tell you that the Society has not prospered the last year as it has done in former years. In addition to the unhappy cause just alluded to, may be noticed, the unusual embarrassment of trade, and the general neglect of the friends of the Bible. This last, your Committee regard as the chief cause why this Society does not move onward with greater rapidity. Were the friends of the Bible Society to give it more of their money, more of their time, more of their hearts, and more of their prayers, soon would this Auxiliary, through the blessing of the Almighty, deepen its roots, and extend its branches to every town and hamlet in our country. Your Committee are willing to take a share of the blame upon themselves; for, though they believe that you will acquit them of wilful neglect, they know they are responsible to another tribunal. Looking to that, we, as a Committee, say, "we are unprofitable servants."

It has been customary with this Society, since its commencement, to notice in its yearly Report the state of the Parent Institution.

The Report of the British and Foreign Bible Society for 1837 states, that "after removing from the list the names of such Societies as have ceased to exist, there remain, in the United Kingdom,

Making the total issues from the commencement of the Society 10,293,645. And it is stated, that whilst the past year was more productive in its receipts than any that has gone before, it closed with prospects of future usefulness more extended than ever. We say of that noble Institution, in the words of Moses, "The Lord God make you a thousand times so many more than ye are, and bless you as he hath promised."

We shall now present to you a view of our own Auxiliary.

Such is an outline of the state of the Toronto Auxiliary Bible Society. Though feeble, it shows the symptoms of health. If it languishes, if it decays, it will be through our neglect. But no, it will not languish, it will not decay: good men, to whatever Christian denomination they belong, will not look on and see it trodden in the dust; they will come up to its help.

We do expect that the Committee for the ensuing year will be more active and efficient than we, who are this evening giving up our trust, have been.

We also hope that the Ladies' Association will be revived, and that the Ladies will go forward in the exercise of that charity and goodness of heart which constitute the brightest ornament of the female character,—examining into the wants of the poor and the unsupplied, and distributing the Word of God among them.

Should it not be practicable to revive the Ladies' Association, this Committee warmly recommend the appointment of an Agent, for a limited period, to visit and distribute the Bible among the destitute throughout the City and its Liberties. In addition to the direct amount of good which a truly devoted man would be instrumental in producing, it may not be entirely overlooked that the communications such Agent would make of the result of his labours, would be furnishing materials for rendering the Annual Report a rich treat to all the friends of the Society. These matters we leave to the wisdom and prudence of our successors.

Your Committee are not in possession of any definite information as to the state of the Branches of this Society generally. Remittances have been received from the Branches in Peterborough, Guelph, Simcoe, Colborne, Brantford, and London, which show that they are in a prosperous condition. The Secretary of the London Branch, in a letter lately come to hand, and which contained the full balance of their account, writes thus:—"The Society here is doing exceedingly well at present; we have distributed more copies of the Scriptures during the past winter than we have ever done before."

A very interesting communication has just been received from the Committee of the Peterboro' Society. The following extracts will be read with much pleasure by all who love the Bible:—

"The interest which the friends of the Bible cause in this neighbourhood have taken in the exertions of the Peterboro' Auxiliary Bible Society, calls not only for gratitude to the Author of all good, but affords them also ample encouragement to persevere in their labours.

"In pursuance of a Resolution adopted by the Committee, March 16th, 1838, persons were appointed to ascertain the Bible destitution in the upper part of the Townships of Monaghan and Otonabee, and in the Townships of Smith and Douro. The visitors, in general, met with a cordial reception,—found a great destitution to exist,—and obtained a number of handsome donations and subscriptions to aid in supplying the poor and destitute.

"To us, it is true, may be assigned the most arduous and least gratifying part of the labour, viz. to sow,—to others the more pleasing employment, to reap; but the mutual share both shall have in the awards and enjoyments of the eternal world, renders it a matter of small moment to which service the Head of the Church allots us, for 'he that reapeth receiveth wages and gathereth fruit unto eternal life, that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.'"

The other Branches of the Society, it is believed, are in a languishing state. It will require the visit of an efficient Agent to revive them, and give a new impulse to their labours.

It is with regret your Committee are called upon to announce to this meeting the loss the Society is about to sustain in the removal from this City and Province of the Rev. Dr. Harris, one of its Vice-Presidents. That gentleman has been, for a number of years, a zealous, consistent friend of this Society. He presided at two of its anniversaries; and rarely was he absent from the stated meetings of the Committee. And whether he was seen on the platform, advocating the claims of the Bible Society to public patronage and support; or in the Committee room, assisting in the business of the Society; he uniformly sustained the character of the humble and unassuming Christian,—always willing to acknowledge the services of others,—always unwilling to receive acknowledgement. Whilst, however, he was in the land, he was an able and active advocate of the cause of the Bible Society, and his residence in the

In the present state of the Society, it is a noble and a God-given opportunity to cover the ground, and must labour with the labours, may say either in the community were the tongue, would live to of such until the individual the work hasten acknowledgment or thanks for services which he himself rendered. Whilst, however, we shall sustain a loss by the removal of so devoted and able a friend, his talents, his energy and his meekness will not, we are persuaded, be lost to the cause. They will be employed in its advocacy wherever the Providence of God may lead to as his future residence.

This meeting will sincerely rejoice to be informed that His Excellency Sir George Arthur, our worthy Lieutenant Governor, with expressions of cordial approbation of the objects of this Society, has, in accordance with the request of your Committee, become its Patron.

In drawing to a close we would remind you, that the grand object of the Society is, to co-operate with the British and Foreign Bible Society in supplying a fallen and guilty world with the Word of Life. That is a noble object—the noblest that ever entered the mind of man. Nor is it an idle or visionary one: it will be effected. “The knowledge of God,” that knowledge which the volume of revelation imparts, “will cover the earth.” In effecting this object, we must begin at home; we must labour to supply our countrymen, and the aborigines of our soil, with the Holy Scriptures. Here we behold a wide field inviting our labours, and much of it yet unexplored. The fearful and the faithless may say, “There is no need for such a Society; Bibles are not scarce, either in this city or throughout the country.” Were the whole reading community of the Province put in possession of the Bible, and were the entire Volume of Inspiration translated into the Indian tongue, and each Indian supplied with a copy, then the objection would be somewhat specious; but even then, and should any of us live to witness such a state of things,—even then, we say, the labours of such a Society as this would be called for, imperiously called for, until the Scriptures should be translated into every dialect, and every individual of our race enjoy the privilege of reading in his own language the wonderful works of God. Such an era will come. May the Lord hasten it in his time!

In the concluding words of the last Report of the Parent Institution, we say, “Go forward in the spirit of prayer, in the spirit of dependance upon God; cherishing in your own souls an intenser love of Divine truth; adorning it more and more in all the fruits of personal holiness: and thus be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might; be steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.” Then, when your term of labour is ended, when your day of rest is come, you shall have your part in that song, sung by ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands, 'Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.'"
