

GATES AND SIGNALMEN WANTED FOR TWO RAILWAY CROSSINGS.

Municipal Council Will Appeal to the Railway Commission re Fairville and Milford Crossings—Will Also Seek a Law to Regulate Speed of Automobiles in City and County—Deaf and Dumb School Wants Exemption—Discount on Taxes.

The municipal council met Tuesday afternoon and decided to appeal if necessary to the railway commission to compel the Canadian Pacific Railway to provide gates and signal men at the Fairville and Milford railway crossings. The question of exempting the Deaf and Dumb School property from taxation was referred to a committee to report in October. The bills and by-laws committee were instructed to prepare a bill regulating the speed of automobiles and to consider the question of hearing them. The time for granting five per cent discount on taxes was extended to October 15. The accounts were passed.

DOG-FISH PEST MUST BE FOUGHT

M. P.'s Urge the Government to Take Prompt Action.

REDUCTION WORKS.

Establishment of Such and Placing of Fouly on the Pests Are Urged

—Discussion of Interest to the Maritime Provinces.

Ottawa, July 19.—(Special)—In the commons today there was a further discussion of the dogfish pest. R. L. Borden, Mr. Copp, Digby; Mr. Sinclair, of Gaspereau; Hon. Wm. Ross and Mr. Roche, all urged action to destroy this pest, and suggestions were made relative to the commercial use of the fish and a bounty for catching them. The minister of marine said the department was seeking to solve the problem.

Ministry Giving Matter Attention.

Mr. Fielding said the matter was a serious one for the people of the maritime provinces and all Canada. He received many communications from persons interested and he had given them his attention and brought them before the minister of marine. He had the greatest interest and had given the matter his closest attention. However, the difficulty seemed to be lack of agreement as to the best method of attack. However, the minister of marine had asked him to include a sum in the supplementary estimates for investigating the dogfish problem, along the lines suggested today. This investigation would include the use of the dogfish as food and its oil and as fertilizer.

Mr. Fielding said that there had been a beginning in the cold storage service for the shipping of fish. He had the honor to inform the members of the committee that the I. C. R. However, that was but a beginning, and there were vast possibilities in the Ontario markets for the frozen fish.

Mr. Turgeon Urges Immediate Campaign.

Mr. Turgeon, for the Acadia Campaign, said that the pest had fallen heavily upon his constituents. They wanted the dogfish destroyed, but did not want to turn into fisherman themselves. They thought the government should undertake a campaign of destruction. Before the Halifax award, the American fishermen, with heavy and large boats, had depleted the Canadian market for fish. He thought if this could be done by Americans with mackerel, the Canadian government could do the same thing. He hoped the photograph will be a success. The evidence was most convincing and the jury was given a most interesting trial.

NERVY WORK OF THIEVES AT HAMPTON.

Broke Into Post Office and Two Shops Monday Night.

Hampton, N. B., July 19.—Quite a lot of comment is being made around town today about the breaking and entering of H. H. Smith's store last night. The thieves, after trying to enter through the hall above the store, broke into W. H. March's blacksmith shop and procured some tools which they left on Mr. Smith's platform. They entered Mr. Smith's store from the front door from which they broke a glass pane, and carried off a card of watch chain and other jewelry, razors, pocket knives, cigars, cigarettes, also some change left in the till, beer, cakes, cheese, lunch tongs and other groceries and fruit. They entered the post office pilfering and ransacking the mails but the valuables being in the safe, they procured little. Some things were found near the freight shed showing they had been having a lunch. The authorities have been notified and are working on the case.

LIGHTSHIP DAMAGED

By a Barge En Route from Windsor, N. S., to New York.

Pollock lightship was found to be so seriously damaged as a result of being run into Sunday morning, that she was towed to New Bedford on Tuesday by the light-house tender Azalea, and relief lightship No. 58 has been substituted pending repairs on the regular lightship. The report that the tugboat Concord with the barges Winthrop and Sagua were responsible for the damage to the lightship appears to have been an error, although the lightship officials were so informed on Monday. The vessel which inflicted the damage to the lightship was the tugboat Concord with the barges Winthrop and Sagua. The damage to the lightship was a most serious one and the authorities are working on the case.

FOR A HORSE SHOW.

Favorable Reception of Exhibition Association's Plan.

The idea of a horse show on the exhibition grounds each afternoon during the St. John fall show is meeting with a very favorable reception. Thursday afternoon, on invitation of the exhibition management, a number of prominent horsemen met to pass their opinion on the proposition as worked out. This is to have the horse show in front of the grand stand each afternoon, and to conduct the show somewhat on the lines of the very successful one held during the recent summer carnival. The horsemen, who met Thursday, were unanimously in favor of the plan. Definite decision has been deferred until next Thursday night when a meeting of all others also competent to judge will be held.
