THIS BLACKMAIL ARREST CAUSES A BIG SENSATION

Labat, a Brewers Agent is Held on Serious Charge.

EMMERSON IN IT.

It is Alleged He Wrote Ex-Minister
Demanding
$1500

OTTAWA, Tuesday.—The sensational arrest of John R. Labatt, Ottawa manager of the Labatt Brewery Company, of London, Ont., evidently is the beginning of a serious charge of blackmail against a heretofore respectable business man. Little will develop until he appears at Saturday's police court, but it is alleged his schemes were cleverly concocted and carefully worked out except in the case of Hon. H. R. Emmerson, where he used the mails direct. The arrest was effected through the combined efforts of the Dominion Secret Service and the Stiel Agency. On July 18, 1907, Hon. Mr. Emmerson received a letter written, it is charged, by Labatt under an assumed name, demanding the sum of $1,500 under pain of exposure of certain alleged facts. The matter was put into the hands of detectives, and for months the work has been quietly prosecuted. The whole story when told will reflect credit on the work of the Dominion police.

Object of the Novel Organization is to Prevent Getting
"Stung" Again.

CHICAGO, Tuesday.—Miss Mary Hulen is the originator of Chicago's most novel and in many ways most exclusive club. She is forming a divorce society. Up to date 289 men and women who have been divorced have applied to her for membership. She desires at the most only thirty. "How we may prosper by our mistakes and not get lemonized next time," is the fundamental idea underlying the club, according to Mrs. Hulen. She proposes that the members talk over "in friendly chat" their wedded experiences, so that "next time," if there is a next time, they will know better. "It was handed a whole crate of lemons in my last experience," said Mrs. Hulen yesterday, "and I want to help start a club where those of us who have suffered may meet in a social way and help each other so that we may not be shipped again."

COREY FAMILY WON AWAY FROM WIFE 1.

PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday.—That the mother and sister of William Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, have become completely reconciled to his marriage with Mabelle Gilman was manifested yesterday, when Mr. and Mrs. Corey spent the day and ate Sunday dinner with the two women. Although the mother, Mrs. A. A. Corey, attended the wedding in New York, and announced her satisfaction with her son's choice, so far as is known, the sister, Miss Ada Corey, had never met her actress sister-in-law prior to yesterday or showed her allegiance to the steel man's first wife. Mr. and Mrs. Corey left the Bellevue-Stratford, where they have occupied a large suite of apartments since Friday, as early as 9 o'clock yesterday morning for Broad Street Station, taking the train a few minutes after for Thorsdale, where the mother and sister live quietly in a home purchased for them by Mr. Corey. They returned to the hotel shortly after 6 o'clock and left at 8 o'clock for New York.

FLEET'S PACIFIC CRUISE IS FOR PRACTICE ONLY

American Navy Secretary Gives Official Reason In His Annual Report.

(Special to the Morning Graphic.)
WASHINGTON, Tuesday.—That the coming cruise of the big battleship fleet of the United States Navy to Pacific waters is intended "as a substitute for the comparatively short cruising and the harbor work which the fleet has engaged in for the winter season of the past six or more years," is the official explanation of the much-discussed movement, as given in the annual report of Secretary of the Navy Metcalf, issued to-day.

Says the report: "Shortage of officers and men made it necessary some time ago to discontinue all training-ship cruises; so that recruits now pass to general service with only a few months' training, all given on shore. Although by this system the recruits may not so soon become familiar with their sea duties, their development will be sounder and better, their sea experience being acquired by long cruises in regular service, as in the coming voyage to the Pacific."

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheer-fully recommend.

DESCENDANT OF THE QUEEN OF SHERA
Menelik II, emperor of Abyssinia, has sent to the court of Italy a number of delegates on a twelfth diplomatic mission. His majesty was born in 1864 and claims to be a direct descendant of Solomon by the queen of Sheba. He had a severe struggle to get his place on the throne, the famous Theodore, overthrown by Great Britain in 1891, having long stood in his way. Menelik came to his own in 1890, after he defeated the Emperor John. He has had a varied experience with the powers, extracting from the Italians the appalling capitulation of Adowa. After a period of pro-French sympathies he favorably received the British mission under Sir Rennell Rodd in 1898, and since that time he has been very friendly with Great Britain. Menelik has no direct heir, so we shall see what we shall see when he dies. The diamond solitaire on the wrist, adorns the lobe of his left ear signifies that he has killed an elephant and that he is of royal birth. Political institutions in his country are essentially of a feudal character, being analogous to those of medieval Europe.

HARVARD'S COLLEGE.

It was in 1836 that the Massachusetts General Court voted 200 pounds to establish a "school of divinity" in the colony, the next year choosing Newtown, the present Cambridge, for a site; and it was in 1838 that John Harvard, a minister, died and left a legacy that completed the establishment of what is now Harvard University. The tercentenary of the birth of the man from whom Harvard has taken its name is now being celebrated by the University. Harvard, as one of its historians has told us, was fundamentally a religious establishment. The study of divinity was one of the chief marks of the curriculum. "Prayer and religious consecration," says one commentator, "were prescribed academic duties. Bible reading twice a day and the faithful reporting of sermons were enjoined. The test for the first degree was a student's ability to render the Old and New Testaments out of Hebrew and Greek into Latin and to resolve them logically. For the second degree a summary knowledge of logic, natural and moral philosophy, arithmetic, geometry and astronomy were added." Says Eggleston: "In 1866, after no little travail, Harvard succeeded in graduating an Indian." And in 1907, again after no little trouble, the Indians succeeded in downing Harvard at football. Thus has the historical connection between Harvard and the aborigines been maintained. Even well up to the end of the seventeenth century Harvard was a Latin and divinity school. Financially, the slacking has ever been hard. A few years after the college was founded it received 150 pounds through the sale of indigent children sent over from England to serve as apprentices. Then the colonial authorities found it necessary to tax each family in those days of the earth a peck of corn, the purpose being to maintain supply of preachers. But there was a slump, nevertheless, and in 1647 Massachusetts passed to meet this exigency the school law, out of which has been evolved the general school system of the country and through which, according to candid historians, the Puritan government made its greatest contribution to the future importance of the country. Notwithstanding the stiff-necked disposition of the Puritan, Harvard was in the beginning, as it is now, liberal in the matter of opinions, and even while it catalogued students according to the social position of their parents, it gave heed to Harvey's revolutionary discovery of the circulation of the blood. In recent decades the university across the Charles has prospered extensively by reason of the wise administration of its president, and to maintain the admirable executive standard which he has set is one of the grave problems that some day—some very distant day, we hope—will surely confront it.

George Raymond, the chief of the first department in Blinn River, Ont., has been committed for trial on the charge of incontinence. A fine kind of firmness, surely.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER

"There is one member of our modern society who has always come in for a fair share of public sympathy. That personage is the bank clerk. Everybody knows that he has not been very generally appreciated although we have admitted the kind of neckties he has worn, and wondered betimes at the position he has taken in society, we have given him our commiseration because of the meanness of his salary and when he has asked for a raise we have wished that he might get it. But a Montreal banker puts a different face on the thing and incidentally brings in a charge against the Canadian educational system. 'It must be understood,' he said, 'that for four years a junior clerk is of very little use. In fact he is worth little while serving his apprenticeship. After he has been at the work for about four years, he becomes of some value to the institution, and then his advancement comes rapidly. We do find difficulty in securing young men of ability. It is really amazing to discover the ignorance of youths who want to enter the bank service. I really cannot understand what is wrong with the educational system of Canada. When I was young and I made a mistake in spelling, the correct way was beaten into me, but now things seem to be different. For that reason we find youths in the old country far more serviceable and they are all better grounded in English principles than Canadian boys. We brought a number of youths from Scotland and they are proving useful young men.'—Edmonton News.

The Edmonton News raises a very important question. The immigration of families from the old country in which there are children who have been attending school for some years affords the teachers of the public schools of the west an opportunity of comparing what is accomplished in English in Canada, age for age. No exact date have been obtained but we understand that it is not an uncommon verdict that the immigrant children are generally speaking better in reading, writing and spelling than Canadian children of the same years, but are behind them in other respects. In arithmetic it is impossible to make a fair comparison, since, owing to the cumbersome system of currency, the English children go straight from the simple rules to the application of those rules to dreary calculations in pounds, shillings and pence, the whole order of instruction being quite different from the order employed in Canada. What stands out, therefore, is that the teaching of the three R's is more thorough in Great Britain than it is here. And this is what might be expected, for promotion in the elementary schools of the country is based almost entirely on efficiency in these fundamental subjects. Here, on the other hand, mere study, history and many other studies rank equally with the three R's when the fitness of a pupil for promotion is under consideration and there is consequently a tendency to give time and attention to them, part of which might be better spent in sharpening the three tools which, if in proper condition, will enable the master thereof to remedy his own deficiencies to things less essential. We would not limit the curriculum of the public school, but we insist that the educational system should have for its basic principle that, whatever else a child learned or did not learn, he must learn to write, read, spell and cipher with ease and accuracy, and that no master what his attainments in other branches, failure to reach a high standard in these should bar promotion. The schools might then produce less children who knew the boundaries of Persia but who would produce more who could write an ordinary letter correct as to spelling and neat as to handwriting; less who could work out an intricate problem in arithmetic and more who could add up a column of figures without an error.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts." These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention. Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some derangement of the organs. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years and the ablest judges agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for women's life known to medicine.

Read the convincing testimonials of Mrs. Oakes and Mrs. MacNamee.
Mrs. J. P. Oakes of Prince of Wales Hotel, Head of St. Margaret's Bay, near Halifax, Halifax County, Nova Scotia, Canada, writes:

"After what your Vegetable Compound did for me, I am a firm believer that it is a wonderful medicine, and that any woman who is troubled with any of the ills we suffer from should try it and she will soon be convinced of its worth. Six bottles changed me from a nervous, dependent, sickly, ailing woman to a sweet-tempered, healthy one, who rarely ever has a pain now, and who before was rarely without a tonic, I think I have no superior and I certainly endorse it."

Mrs. Anna R. MacNamee of corner Queen and Wellington Streets, Kingston, Ont., writes:

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done all the good in the world for me. I am now a healthy, happy woman, and I can't say enough for it. I have been a sufferer from backache and 'the blues' for many years, and I have tried every remedy I could get, but nothing has done me so much good as your Compound. I feel like a new woman now, and I can't say enough for it. Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women
—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

For me, I suffered with irregularities, backache and severe pains all through my body, and was very nervous and blue. I think I used a dozen different kinds of medicines, some prescribed by the doctor and some recommended by friends, but one bottle of Vegetable Compound was worth more to me than all the other medicines put together. My general health began to improve as soon as I began to use the Compound, and in three weeks I was a perfectly well woman. When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacements or ulceration, the bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the female organs, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. No other medicine in the world has received this widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse to buy any substitute.

BOUND FOR ST JOHN

Six Hundred Passengers 'On Board Offered up Prayers For Their Safety.

BRIDGEWATER, N.S., Monday — Between eleven and twelve o'clock last night, in a blinding snowstorm, with a gale blowing from the southeast, the C. P. R. steamship Mount Temple, Captain Boothby, bound for St. John from Aitover, struck North Head of Iron-bound at the eastern side of the mouth of LaHave River. The Mount Temple had 625 immigrant passengers with a crew of 99 all told. The steamer had been for several hours in shoal water, and when she struck went down in a few minutes. The sea swept over her, and when the passengers rushed on deck they were waist deep in water. There was quite a panic and a pandemonium of cries, prayers, etc., in many different languages were offered up. The captain and crew, however, were quickly on the alert, restoring order, and soon had communication with the light house on the island. There are about 100 women and many children on the list. It is not likely that the 450 passengers and crew who are yet on the island will be moved to the mainland before the morning. It is feared the steamer will be a total loss. Further details will be received in the morning which will be furnished to your correspondent.

Committee Appointed To Secure
A Teacher To Take Charge
Of Grade V

At the regular monthly meeting of the School Board held last evening, a resolution of condolence in reference to the late Principal Lewis was passed and ordered to be sent to Mrs. Lewis, and a suitable minute thereof entered upon the records of the board.

It was also ordered that the salary of the late principal be paid in full to the end of the present term. Mr. James B. Carr, C.A., (Dal.) was appointed principal of the Public Schools and teacher in the Grammar School Department for the balance of the present term, the appointment taking effect at once. This department includes grades 9, 10 and 11.

The resignation of Miss C. Gertrude Welling, teacher in grade 5, was accepted to take effect at the Christmas holidays.

A committee was appointed to secure a teacher to take immediate charge of grade 5, now rendered vacant by the appointment of Mr. Carr to the Grammar School Department, and adding this engagement, grade 5 will remain closed.

A case of insubordination was dealt with by the suspension of the offending pupil until after the Christmas vacation.

Several accounts were passed and further improvements reported respecting the fire alarm and exits, which have been recently very much simplified.

The matter of a new flag pole was also discussed and further consideration postponed.

THREE AMERICANS WILL BE SHOT DEAD

Were Charged With Murdering People in Order to Collect the Life Insurance.

CITY OF MEXICO, Monday.—Unless the governor of the Mexican state of Chihuahua intervenes with executive clemency, three Americans will be executed by shooting in the capital of that state next Friday. For five years the case has been fought out in the Mexican courts, the defendants, C. T. Richardson, William Mason and Dr. S. C. Harle, taking advantage of every possible legal expedient to secure delay.

The three men were convicted of conspiracy to murder in order that they might collect the life insurance of their victims. The arrest, trials and conviction form one of the most sensational chapters in the history of Mexican criminality.

It is alleged that of the several men insured by Richardson, strychnine was found in the viscera of one and a bottle of mercury in that of others. Richardson was identified later as Leslie E. Hulbert, who had at one time practiced law in Rochester, N.Y., was the leader in the plot. He first appeared in Chihuahua with his wife, in June, 1901, and gave his name as Charles T. Richardson. Under this name he was appointed agent of the New York Life Insurance Company at Chihuahua. Associated with him was William Mitchell, the brother of Richardson's wife, who was known in Mexico as William Mason. At the request of Richardson, Dr. C. S. Harle, of El Paso, was appointed medical examiner for the life insurance company of Chihuahua.

The three men were convicted of a close corporation which had murder for its object. Many large policies were written for mine owners and other men of wealth in Chihuahua and vicinity. Such a policy in most cases, was the death warrant of the holders. So frequent did these mysterious deaths become that the suspicions of the insurance company were aroused and a detective was sent to Chihuahua to conduct secret investigations. The detective, W. J. Gray, by posing as an outlawed criminal who was ready for any deed of violence, obtained the confidence of the members of the "murder trust," and to him they outlined their plans for making a fortune by assassination and in the insurance of invalids and persons who had no real existence. After completing his case, the detective brought about the arrest of the three men.

SAYABEC, Monday.—The store of the John Fenderson & Company was broken into last night and rings and watches to the value of five hundred dollars were taken away. Not contented with that the robbers tried to obtain cash by breaking the cash register. Luckily all cash is taken out of it every night and placed in the vault. They entered by the main entrance by means of a bar, bursting the lock. Passers-by heard a noise in the store about half past eleven o'clock and the robbery is supposed to have been done at that time. This is not the first time that this same store has been robbed. This same register was once before taken away, but recovered. The robbers are supposed to be acquainted with the premises.

HOLY WAR'S MENACE

Alive To The Danger, General
Lyautey Rushes Reinforcements To The Front

(Special to the Morning Graphic.) PARIS, Monday—Official advices received here to-day from Oran, Algeria, leave little doubt that France has another serious Moorish problem to face.

A large body of Moors of the Beni Hassen tribe, said to have formed part of the Sultan's army, suddenly invaded Algeria yesterday, attacked a French outpost at Bab-el-Aassa, about six miles from the frontier, compelled the garrison of sixty men to retreat, with the loss of Lieutenant-Saint-Hilaire and six men, and occupied the post. The French, who also had Captain Deville and fifteen men wounded, lacked ammunition, which compelled them to fight way before the repeated onrushes of the fanatic tribesmen.

Later, however, the French were reinforced, and succeeded in driving the Moors back across the frontier. The French military authorities are hurrying reinforcements to the front and immediate steps will be taken to chastise the Sultan's warriors. Following closely upon the recent attack on the French post near Lalla Marna, when the Moor loss was very heavy, this latest act of aggression has caused surprise and uneasiness in official circles and fears of the possibility of a holy war being declared against the French are expressed on all sides.

STEPS MUST BE TAKEN TO HOLD TIMBER AREAS

Lumberman Says If This Is Not Done They Will Soon
Be Depleted

TALKS AT LENGTH

Strongly In Favor Of Insisting
That Pulp Be Manufactured
In This Province

CHATHAM, Monday.—A lumberman who read the article on the pulpwood question in Quebec in the Graphic, said that it applied to New Brunswick as well as to Quebec. In this province the question was even more pressing, for our lumber areas were much smaller than those of Quebec, and were in danger of being wiped out with little return to the people unless some means were devised to protect them. He was strongly in favor of insisting on having the pulp manufactured in the province.

To show the advantage of the pulp mill over the roasting mill, to the country, we may state that a local roasting mill with an output of 200,000 superficial feet per day employs only 60 men, while a pulp mill with an output of 50 tons of paper per day, equal to 50,000 superficial feet of lumber, employs 375 men. That is a certain amount of lumber going out of the country in the form of pulp gives employment to six times as many men as four times the amount of lumber going out in the form of blocks.

According to the Graphic article, the small farmer of Quebec is in favor of the roasting mills, and would object to the export duty, but the small farmer of New Brunswick finds that the pulp mills pay him a better price for his lumber than the roasting mills, for the former are anxious to preserve their own areas, getting the latter seem desirous of getting all the lumber of their areas within the eleven years of their lease.

It has been said that paper cannot be made in this province on account of the absence of water power, but the pulp mill here is considering the manufacture of at least the coarser grades of paper by the sulphite process. The pulp mill people have opened up almost a new industry of using poplar and hemlock, of which there is a great supply on the granite lands along the Miramichi. So far they are the only people taking these kinds of woods.

BURNS DEFEATS "GUNNER" MOIR,

Knocks English Champion Out in Tenth Round and Wins Championship of the World.

(Special to the Morning Graphic.) LONDON, Monday.—The fight for the heavyweight championship of the world, between the English heavyweight champion, "Gunner" Moir, and the American champion, Tommy Burns (Noah Bruso), of Hanover, Ont., was won to-night by Burns by a knock out blow in the 10th round. The fight was distinctly in favor of Burns all the way. Moir was much inferior to Burns both in science and pushing ability. Moir forced the fighting in the 4th and 5th rounds, but his blows lacked steam and Burns was never in difficulty. In the 10th round Moir was all in and was felled twice, the second time taking the count.

PRINCESS LOUISE ACCUSES CREDITORS OF WRONGDOING

BRUSSELS, Monday.—The courts recently granted Princess Louise, daughter of King Leopold, an extension of three weeks in which to find money to prevent her creditors from selling the jewels bequeathed to her by her mother. The creditors appealed, and the hearing of the appeal began Saturday.

A letter from Princess Louise was read, in which she said: "I have almost killed myself in making efforts to avoid a scandal affecting the venerated memory of my mother. These people have, nevertheless, provoked a scandal, and they shall have it. All my rights in this matter and all justice have been trodden under foot."

"If my creditors had surely wished it, they could have been in possession of their money since 1885, because my marriage contract stipulates that my husband, Prince Philipp of Saxe-Coburg, must provide for my personal needs and allow me an establishment suitable to my rank."

It is understood that the princess demands that her guardian and her husband furnish accounts of their guardianship. Her debts are $45,000. She raised $40,000, but her creditors refused to accept it.

NEW YORK, Monday.—On motion of District Attorney Jerome, the second trial of Harry K. Thaw, for the killing of Stanford White, in June, 1906, to-day was postponed until Monday, January 6. A special panel of 300 talesmen will report that day for jury duty. Thaw was not brought into the court room, but was allowed to stand in the corridor leading from the prisoners' room at the rear and had an unobstructed view of the proceedings. His wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, was the only member of the prisoner's family present. She looked at the proceedings with a look of intense interest, but her face was pale and there is a touch of healthy color in her cheeks. She seemed to be in high spirits to-day.

Chamber of Deputies Is Upheld Against Socialist Attack.

(Special to the Morning Graphic.) PARIS, Monday.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day the government was interpellated on the subject of the Moroccan outbreak, and received a vote of confidence from the Chamber on the steps the Cabinet intended to take in order to put down the revolt and secure redress for the indignity to which the French flag had been subjected.

The deputies also insisted that General Lyautey, the French commander-in-chief on the Algerian frontier, be given full liberty of action in the steps to be taken in order to chastise the Moors.

General Picquart, the Minister of War, replying for the government, said that General Lyautey would be given the fullest power possible in the military operations which would immediately begin in Algeria with the object of preventing the possibility of any recurrence of such incidents as those recorded on the Algerian frontier during the past week. All the instructions necessary had already been cabled to the French commander, who would receive all the reinforcements required.

They commenced their use about a year ago, and have met with very good success.

The strictest possible enforcing of the laws in reference to the size of lumber to be taken out for any purpose would, according to your correspondent's informant, also have a good effect in preserving our forest wealth.

CHATHAM WOMAN WAS FAMED CHEF.

Miss Catherine Connell,
Dead In Chatham, Cooked For Vanderbilts

BEEN ILL LONG

Chatham Got Its First Big Snow
Storm Of The Season
Sunday

CHATHAM, Monday.—The death took place yesterday at the Hotel Dieu of Miss Catherine Connell, in the 46th year of her age. Miss Connell had been in the hospital for some time suffering from heart trouble, and her death was not unexpected. She came home in August from the United States, where she had worked as a chef for a number of years. She had been remarkably successful in her business, and was frequently called on to take charge of dinners and banquets for the Vanderbilts and other millionaire families of New York. She was possessed of considerable money, which she left chiefly to her nephews and nieces. Her nearest relatives were her brothers and sisters, James and Bart, of Bart Bogue; John, of Chatham; Dennis, of Calais, Maine, and Mrs. Osgood, of Philadelphia. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning from Hotel Dieu to Bart Bogue, where Miss Connell expressed a wish to be buried.

The first big snow storm of the season is on to-day. It commenced in earnest at an early hour this morning, although there was a little snow falling all night. The wind was east last night, but it is north to-day, and every thing points to the storm continuing all day.

The fire alarm was sounded this morning for a slight fire in the house of Mrs. Jenkins. The fire was in the room of a boarder named Cooper and was put out before the firemen arrived. Cooper, it appears, has been experimenting for a number of years, in a noiseless powder, and is still experimenting. It is supposed that the fire was caused by one of these experiments going astray. About a year ago Cooper had to change his boarding house on account of one of his experiments resulting in an explosion which blew the windows and doors out of the house.

Miss Wood, of Halifax, sister of Rev. Mr. Wood, the new pastor of St. Andrews, sang a solo at the evening service yesterday. Mr. Wood preached an able sermon on "character."

The steamer, which is loading for Snowball & Co., for the old country, is expected to be finished at noon to-day. The storm will probably delay her sailing until to-morrow. It is said that another steamer will attempt to get a cargo before the ice comes.

LITTLE HOPE OF SAVING MEN'S LIVES.

Frightful Disaster in a Mine of the United Coal
Co., Ltd.

EXPLOSION THE CAUSE.

Thousands Flocking to Mines
Mouth in Effort to Save Entombment Men.

FAYETTE CITY, Pa., Monday.—Between twenty-five and thirty miners possibly more, are entombed in the Naami mine of the United Coal Company, located three miles west of this city, and there is practically no hope that any of them are alive. Their imprisonment is due to an explosion of black damp at 8 o'clock last night, soon after the night force went to work. It is said a miner entered an old working with an open lamp and caused the explosion. Had the disaster occurred on any other night except Sunday, the number of victims would have been twice as large.

Only small Force At Work. The mine employs from 275 to 300 regularly, about one fourth of them driving entry at night, but on Sunday night only about half the regular force go to work. The shafts and the concrete sides are broken down so as to completely close the passage back a considerable distance. About 100 feet from the entrance is located the first air shaft, and from this deadly gas is pouring in in great volumes. The gas found in the mines in this territory is so poisonous that no human being can live in it for more than a few minutes, and for this reason it is not believed a single one of the entombed men are still alive. One man, an unidentified foreigner, managed to climb to the top of the first air shaft, but dropped dead there.

No Sign of Life. No sign of life has come from the others. Just after the night force entered the shaft there was a flash which lighted up the mine and all around it, there was a roar as stones and coal and slate crashed down into the entries crowded with workmen. Then utter darkness followed the explosion, putting out of business the lighting and air facilities of the mine. The mine immediately filled with gas, and several not hurt by the explosion perished while running to get into the fresh air. The shock of the explosion shook buildings in Fayette City, and could be heard for miles. In the homes of miners the explosion felt like a death signal and emptied every miner's cottage in the vicinity.

Women and Children Sob. The occupants of these men women and children gathered around the mine this morning. The women and children cry continually, and stare with horror at the seemingly fruitless work of rescue. The explosion completely wrecked the air system, and that alone means that nothing can live long in the mine. Thousands are flocking to the mine's mouth, where every means known to mine operation is being exerted to reach the men. Aid has been secured from nearby towns. While some hold torches others are pegging away with pick and shovel to reach their fellow workmen. What seems an almost insurmountable mountain of debris is between the struggling workmen and the imprisoned men. Some rescuers are trying to tunnel this, while strenuous efforts to reach the imprisoned men by other means are being made.

OTTAWA, Monday.—When Sir Frederick Borden was informed to-day of the press dispatch from London announcing that the 19th Century Magazine had published a complete retraction and apology in connection with the article in its number of October, he said that until he had heard formally from his London solicitors he did not wish to make any statement on the subject. Sir Frederick, however, did not appear to be surprised at the result.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

It has been said that the present may be the last session of parliament before an appeal is made to the people. If this be the case, then the people would do well to reflect upon the record of the two political parties. Governments cannot proceed in the dark. Everything done is in the light of day and duly incorporated in blue books. For many years Canada maintained an adverse struggle against hard conditions set up by a Conservative government. It was not a government for one year, but for many years. In 1896 the Conservative had been in power eighteen years. Eighteen miserable trying years to the people of Canada, during which there was every kind of political chicanery known to a corrupt party. Their money had been squandered, their birthright given away, their franchise stolen, their trade ruined, and after all this the people were left with a burden of millions of debt that discounted the future for years yet to come. Will Canada again trust the Conservative party after such bitter experiences? A burnt child dreads the fire, so will the people of Canada think twice before putting in power the party that was responsible for so much adversity and so many iniquities during eighteen dark years. Much rather will reasonable men compare the last eleven years with the eighteen that went before. It hardly seems the same country, one is almost disposed to think that figures don't reflect the truth when comparing them year by year with Conservative times. What would have happened had the Conservatives been allowed to have their way the past ten years? Every enactment for the benefit of the people has been opposed tooth and nail. The Grand Trunk Pacific would never have been built had the Conservative ideas prevailed. The farmers of the West would be trying in vain for transportation facilities had the Conservatives gained their point. The great West would still remain a desolate wilderness had the Conservatives been successful in their opposition to the government policy. The coal lands of the West would be divided among the capitalists and monopolists had the Conservative policy been continued. The timber lands would be going to political favorites for nothing, as heretofore had the Liberals not been in power, and inaugurated a system of public competition. Contracts would be given to the highest instead of the lowest tenderer had not the people placed the Liberals in power, thus protecting their own interests. The treasury would be looted, as of old, grafters would flourish, middle men would be working the big racket off, political heifers would be piling up a corruption fund at the expense of the people had this not all been stopped by the advent into power of a Liberal government. The finger can scarcely be placed upon one spot on the commercial map of Canada and not find progress, substantial, permanent prosperity, and healthy vigorous growth. The cause is not far to seek. The government of the country has been all that could be desired, and the results prove this contention. What have the Conservatives done during the past few sessions to justify any claim they may put forward to be entrusted with the government of the country.

W. C. T. U. ASKS GOV'T TO STOP CIGARETTE MFG.

OTTAWA, Tuesday.—A deputation of thirty ladies of the Dominion W. C. T. U., representing Quebec, Maritime Provinces and Ontario, and the West, to-day asked the government for legislation prohibiting the manufacture, sale or importation of cigarettes, or at least an act modeled after the Scott Act, and of local application.

Mrs. Watters, of Hamilton; Mrs. Wright, of London, and Mrs. Stephens of Toronto were the principal speakers. Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed his personal sympathy with the movement, but said the government had not yet seen its way to enact such drastic legislation. The suggestion, however, for an act like the Scott Act was a new one and would be fully considered.

One often hears a statement, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria." FREDERICTON, Tuesday.—The local government met in session here this evening, the full executive being present. The only matter considered was the fixing of the bond for the undertaking entered into by the Grand Falls Power Company. Mr. Sanford accompanied by Messrs. Canger and McLaughlin asked that the bond be placed at a reasonable amount. Col. McLean on behalf of the Grand Falls Power Company argued that the amount be placed at $300,000 in order to protect his clients. Further consideration of the whole matter was adjourned until to-morrow morning, when the town of Grand Falls has asked to be heard in connection with the question. It is understood that the matter of dissolving the house was not referred to.

LARGE AMOUNT REMOVED.
(Special to the Morning Graphic.)
MONTREAL, Wednesday.—Advices were received this morning by the C. P. R. Steamship Company officials to the effect that a large part of the cargo of the S. S. Mount Temple had already been removed safely. It is likely that the damage will not be nearly as heavy as was anticipated.

W. C. T. U. ASKS GOV'T TO STOP CIGARETTE MFG.

OTTAWA, Tuesday.—A deputation of thirty ladies of the Dominion W. C. T. U., representing Quebec, Maritime Provinces and Ontario, and the West, to-day asked the government for legislation prohibiting the manufacture, sale or importation of cigarettes, or at least an act modeled after the Scott Act, and of local application. Mrs. Watters, of Hamilton; Mrs. Wright, of London, and Mrs. Stephens of Toronto were the principal speakers. Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed his personal sympathy with the movement, but said the government had not yet seen its way to enact such drastic legislation. The suggestion, however, for an act like the Scott Act was a new one and would be fully considered.

About Digestion.
It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and enable them to perform their functions. This results in a relief for your food increased strength and weight, greater endurance and a clear head. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by all druggists.

THREE RIVERS, Tuesday.—Last night Mrs. Dupon, living on St. Marguerite Road, some three miles out of town, noticed that the house was on fire. She ran out, clad in her night dress to get assistance from neighbors, leaving six children sleeping in the house, with the result that four of the children were burned to death. The woman is in a very critical condition from her exposure in the cold. The origin of the fire is unknown.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.
One often hears a statement, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria." The cold was not the cause, but the child had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by all druggists.

Doctors Say Beauty Will Wake up, But She Puzzles Them.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Tuesday.—Adele Garetzky, 19 years old, a mill girl, who lives in West Grove, lies in a state of coma. She has been asleep since a week ago yesterday. She opened her eyes early this morning, but could not speak and did not recognize any member of her family.

The condition followed a heavy cold contracted a week before she dropped asleep. She had a high fever. The case is puzzling to the physicians, who say, however, that the young woman will eventually come out of her unnatural sleep and be fully restored.

The sleeper is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Garetzky and is remarkable for her beauty.

A Home made Happy by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but at last we obtained Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to get a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and I was told to get it when one of the keepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today. Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by all druggists.

WOMEN SWEAR THAT HORSEMAN CHOKED HIS WIFE.

SALISBURY, N.B., Tuesday.—The jury empaneled to inquire into the death of Mrs. Charlotte Horseman, who was drowned under peculiar circumstances Saturday in a well at the rear of her home near here, after hearing the evidence to-day, returned a verdict of death by drowning. The verdict was as follows: "We, the jury, empaneled, do say that Charlotte Horseman came to her death on November 30 by drowning in a well at her home. Dr. D. B. MacDonald, Petitioner, was coroner. Some sensational evidence was adduced at the inquest, which took place at the home of Thos. Johnson, Lewis Mountain, a few rods from the house where the unfortunate woman met her untimely death. Three female witnesses, Mrs. Wentworth Steeves, Mrs. Thos. Johnson and Mrs. Wellington Milton, testified that Horseman choked his dying wife as she lay on a couch after being carried into the house, and also that her husband would not permit the removal of the wet clothing from the woman's body until after the arrival of Dr. Jones, several hours after the woman had fallen into the well. Horseman was present and was the first witness, saying he had stepped out from the barn, seen his wife in the well, which is but five feet deep, and pulled her out. He held her on edge with her face above the water until help was summoned, when she was placed on a sled and carried into the house. She was still living then, about ten o'clock, and died about three o'clock in the afternoon. He and his wife, he said, had lived together fairly agreeably, having one or two occasional spats.

Mrs. Wentworth Steeves, who was the first person to reach the house after the woman had been pulled out of the well, said after reaching the house, Horseman would not allow her to be removed from the sled for some time. She was not on the sled when Horseman got down on his knees beside the lounge and took the woman by the throat. He kept his hand on her throat all the time. Some quilts were placed over the woman's head, and when the witness moved them away Horseman put them back.

She asked him to take his hand away from her throat. He refused to do so until Mrs. Thos. Johnson came, and when she ordered him to go away, he did. He seemed to be working his fingers on the woman's throat. Mrs. Johnson took the sled and cut the neck of the woman's dress as the latter appeared to be choking. Mr. Horseman would not remove the quilts to refresh the wet clothing from his wife until Dr. Jones came, when deceased was, by his order, wrapped in blankets. Witness said that Mrs. Horseman was able to speak. She was asked if she fell in to the well, and she said no. She was asked if she wanted to die, and she said no. She did not seem to be rational. The woman's face was purple, and the tongue protruded.

Mrs. Johnson corroborated this, and also Mrs. Milton, who added that while the doctor was working over Mrs. Horseman, Horseman was standing in the door of the room and said: "If you ever come round I guess you will mind me now." She also said that one of Horseman's little girls had told her that her father and mother had been fighting.

Dr. Jones' evidence discredited the story of choking. He said death had been caused by water in the lungs. He said that if there had been any violent choking, discoloration or bruises would remain on the neck.

J. J. Drummond, of Londonderry, N. S., was in the city yesterday in company with Mrs. Drummond, who was here to bid good-bye to her sister, who is married to the Empress of Britain, says Saturday's St. John Sun. Next week Mr. Drummond will go to Gloucester County and look over the iron deposits recently acquired by the Drummond Brothers Mining Company. Mr. Drummond will also confer with Premier Robinson and T. M. Burns of Bathurst.

Speaking of the Gloucester deposits, Mr. Drummond last night said that he regarded them to be the richest in Canada, with the exception of the Helens mine at Michipicoten. The most remarkable thing about the deposit, in Mr. Drummond's mind, was that it had remained undiscovered for such a length of time. New Brunswick has been considered to be practically unexplored, as far as its mineral wealth was considered.

The exploitation of the iron deposits will be carried on during the winter. Next summer the construction of the branch railway from Bathurst will be begun by the government.

NEW CARLISLE, Tuesday.—A heavy snowstorm came down Sunday night and continued Monday morning, making a winter appearance, which will make the roads better, as there was hardly any snow and the ground was frozen so hard after the few days' rain that we had last week that the roads were in a dreadful condition, making it unpleasant for walking and driving.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by legal applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube and restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; and as deafness is often caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

NEW YORK, Tuesday.—Consuelo, duchess of Marlborough, brought her American visit to a close today by sailing back to her English home on the Canada liner, Maple Leaf.

The duchess looked radiant and happy as she went aboard the liner, but her looks belied her feelings.

"I do not want to go back just yet," she said, "but I find it time to go back. I am returning to see my children."

The duchess was asked if the report were true that she intended to write a book or a series of magazine articles on her investigations in England and this country into conditions of the prisons and slums. She smiled, and said that she might do so.

When to go home. Banner: "When I find out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your wife get acquainted with the fact. MAY BE ABLE TO SAVE BOTH SHIP AND CARGO.

C. P. R. at Montreal Has Encouraging Advices From The Mount Temple.

MONTREAL, Tuesday.—Advices to the C. P. R. say that the Mount Temple cargo can be saved, and perhaps the ship as well. The six hundred passengers on the Mount Temple were all steered, mostly of the laboring class, the majority being Italian. The ship was bound for Montreal, the remainder for Chicago and the West. Many of them were going for railway construction work. They are to leave Halifax to-night for Montreal. Captain Boothby was regarded by the C. P. R. as an unusually careful navigator, and his story is eagerly awaited.

INTERNAL PREFERRED. She—Do you go to the opera much? He—Never.

She—But I understood your wife to say you were passionately fond of Italian productions?

He—So I am; I love macaroni.

CONGRESS WON'T BE ALLOWED TO FIX CURRENCY.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday.—Congress, at its sixtieth session, which began yesterday, promises to be a do-nothing body, if the leaders can control the two houses.

Currency legislation is to be given the right of way, and when that has been disposed of, the appropriation bills and the legislation incidental to the expenditure of the nation's income will virtually occupy all the remainder of the time.

The purpose of the mere politicians, who still form the majority in both houses, is to defer everything of real consequence until after the presidential election. Thus the question of tariff revision will be postponed. It is doubtful if there will be even any currency legislation calculated to make more than temporary improvement in the present system.

Trust and corporation restriction will also go over, while measures suggested to equalize taxation or place restrictions upon predatory wealth will hardly receive even decent consideration.

Looking Beyond Roosevelt.—It has always been the case in American politics that upon the eve of a Presidential campaign, the politicians who advocate a course of inaction are given their way. This arises from two causes. In the first place a President who is nearing the end of his term, who has distributed all the offices and conferred all the favors he can, looses influence steadily.

Congress is looking beyond his term of office to his successor, and thinking more of the choosing of his successor than of achievements upon its own account. So it is presumed that in this Congress the President's recommendations concerning new and needed legislation will have less weight than formerly, while the delegates of the political situation will tend constantly to draw the attention of members from their legislative duties to the active operations of those who have taken the political field.

It can, therefore, be presumed that the Sixtieth Congress will not maintain the pace in actual achievements which the country set for the fifty-ninth, and that its record will be made up more of promises than of actual accomplishments.

Flight on Forest Policy. It is expected that a bitter fight will be made in the Senate, and that the supporters of the President will emphasize their determination to stand with him in preserving for the people the lands and forests that belong to the public.

Following and connected with this will be the suggestions of the inland waterways commission for a general improvement of rivers and harbors, so as to bring them to the highest state of efficiency as avenues of transportation.

ROOSEVELT IS AFTER CRITICS WITHOUT DELAY.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Tuesday.—President Roosevelt to-day presented his annual message to Congress. It is a voluminous document, making about thirty thousand words. The President's opening words are an answer to criticism of his policy towards large corporations, which his critics have sort to show are responsible for the recent financial flurry in the country. There should be additional legislation looking to the proper control of the great business concerns engaged in interstate business, this control to be exercised for the benefit and prosperity no less than for the protection of investors and of the general public.

(From yesterday's Graphic.)
Principal E. W. Lewis, of the grammar school, died yesterday afternoon at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, where he had gone the day previous to undergo a surgical operation, as stated in the Graphic yesterday. The operation was performed as soon as it was possible to do so after his arrival there, and a telegram was received here shortly afterwards announcing that fact, and further adding that recovery was considered almost impossible.

Mr. Lewis had been at his post on Monday, and although not feeling well, did not consider his condition serious until Tuesday, when he was obliged to give up work and call in a doctor, who at once informed him of the seriousness of his condition, with the result that he started immediately for Montreal, where the best surgical skill obtainable was placed at his disposal.

Ernest W. Lewis, B.A., was born in Westmorland County, near the city of Moncton, where he received his early education. He subsequently entered Dalhousie College, where, after a brilliant career of 4 years he graduated B.A. in the year 1890, carrying off first class honors in classics. After obtaining a superior class license, he taught for one year in his native county, and in the summer of 1891 he was engaged by the school board of this town to succeed Mr. C. P. Steeves as principal of the Campbellton Superior School. In the year 1894, Mr. Lewis obtained a grammar school license, and on the opening of the County Grammar School here on January 1, 1895, he became principal, which position he has ever since filled with credit and distinction, and will be long and gratefully remembered by a large number of our young people who have had the privilege of being ranked among his pupils.

Mr. Lewis leaves a widow and three children, all of whom have the deep sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

The public schools are closed to-day by order of the school board, and the school flag is flying at half-mast out of respect to his memory.

LATER.

The remains arrived from Montreal this morning, and the funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock from his late residence on Andrew street to the Rural cemetery. The several clergy men of the town will conduct the funeral service, and the equities of the higher grade of the school teaching staff and the members of the school board will line up in procession and follow the remains to the cemetery.

KILLS HIMSELF, WITH DETECTIVES AT DOOR

NEW YORK, Thursday — Louis Straus, a mining stock broker, who was to be indicted to-morrow morning for forgery, committed suicide to-night at his home, 15 West Eighty-third street, while two detectives from the district attorney's office were telling his brother at the door that they were there to arrest him.

Straus was accused of forging bills of lading for $25,000 and $50,000, and of having been instructed to arrest him was made by William A. Davis & Co., of 79 Front Street, who charged that they loaned him $5,000 on a forged bill of lading for $2,500.

Straus had warning that he was being watched and in danger of being arrested. Private detectives have been at his house for three days. A day or so ago, Straus is said to have told a representative of Davis & Co. that they would never get him. To-night he took cyanide of potassium.

INQUIRY CONCLUDED.

The police investigation into charges of insubordination against Policeman Duncan was resumed yesterday afternoon. The police committee was addressed by Mr. Albert Mott, acting for Mr. Duncan, and by W. Alder Trueman, for the town, after which the committee adjourned until such time as it will make its report to the Town Council.

Crippled With Rheumatism CURED BY GIN PILLS

Mr. Derragh certainly did have a hard time of it, winter before last. Caught cold, and it settled in his kidneys. First thing he knew, he was in bed with Rheumatism. He nearly went mad, the pain was so intense. The doctors gave him the usual treatment—and pretty nearly burnt his legs off with liniments and blisters—but the Rheumatism went right on aching.

Then a friend stepped in and said, "Why don't you try GIN PILLS?" After a great deal of persuasion, Mr. Derragh did try GIN PILLS. You never such a happy man in your life, after he had taken two boxes. Pain all gone—stiffness and lameness completely left—that ache in back and legs disappeared—and he was well in no time. That was two years ago and he has had in two years.

Contracted a severe cold. Rheumatism followed and the sharp pains took me so often and were so bad, I could get no relief, until I started to take "Gin Pills." In five days I was up and around the house. My joints are loose, and I have not had a return of the old trouble since. I wish also to say that "Gin Pills" gave me the first painless passage of urine I have had in two years.

ROSE DERRAGH, Winnipeg.

How about you? Haven't you suffered enough without going all over it again this winter? Get Gin Pills now—and cure yourself at home. Mention this paper and we will send you a free sample to try. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg. Only 50¢ a box—6 boxes for $2.50.

WRETCHED SERVICE ON I C R BRANCH

And They Are Said To Be Due To Large Amount Of Shunting At Millerton

CHATHAM, Friday.—Several passengers who travel a good deal on the Indian town branch of the I. C. R. line have drawn the attention of your correspondent to the wretched passenger service on that branch.

The Indian town branch runs from Indian town to Newcastle and is 15 miles long. The train from Indian town to Newcastle is scheduled to leave Indian town at 10.15 a.m., and arrive at Newcastle at 11.15 a.m., but as a matter of fact it does not leave Indian town until noon or later, and passengers from Indian town or stations along the line bound for Chatham frequently miss the boat leaving Newcastle at 12.15.

The delay is caused by the great amount of shunting which has to be done at Millerton and Derby Junction, for the train is a combination freight and passenger. There has been a big increase of freight traffic over the road this year on account of the building of new mills by the Vanderberg Company and the Renous Bridge Company, near Millerton station. These new industries have added to the passenger as well as to the freight traffic and the passenger car on the train, half first class and half second class, is utterly inadequate to give accommodation to the people who use it. Day after day passengers are forced to stand in the aisles and on the platform.

The remedy would seem to be to start the train from Indian town at an earlier hour.

NEWCASTLE, Thursday.

In the police court to-day the case of Bellos Stephanos vs. R. G. Hood came up. Stephanos, who is a Bulgarian, was brought from Toronto to the Renous Bridge quarries in September by an employment agency to work for Hood. He complained that his wages for work from September 17th to November 11th had not been paid. Hood claimed that he had been overpaid, by charging Stephanos $25.50 for transportation and hiring, $3.50 per week for board, etc. He brought Stephanos into debt. According to Stephanos' story he was told on November 11th that there was no work for him. When he asked for his pay he was told it would be forthcoming on the 15th. Not receiving any on the 15th he came to Newcastle for law against Hood. For a time he could not make himself understood, but finally met with Constantine Vassiliou, an employee of the Andersen Company, who, knowing Russian and six other languages, could interpret for him. On the 24th Vassiliou went up to Renous Bridge, and next day brought down 14 other Bulgarian laborers, each of whom were prepared to give evidence on behalf of Stephanos and also to prefer charges against Hood. Mr. Vassiliou communicated with the Russian Consul at Montreal, who looks after the Bulgarian interests in this country, and the consul secured the intervention of the Dominion Government, who sent down J. H. St. John, of the Interior Department, to see that justice was done the foreigners. This case was called this morning, E. P. Williston appearing for the plaintiff, and A. A. Davidson for the defendant. Mr. Vassiliou was sworn in as interpreter, the judge over-ruling Mr. Davidson's objection to him as prejudiced. Mr. Hood's counsel allowed Stephanos $15 cents an hour, but Stephanos produced a contract unsigned, but nevertheless the one he had been engaged upon, stating $1.75 per day as wages. Court adjourned at one. In the meantime St. John and Hood went over the 15 cents of accounts and made some progress to the settlement. The men were willing to take their money in September and October, and their November pay next month.

SAN FRANCISCO, Wednesday.—May Yoh, the once comic opera singer, creator of the famous Hope diamonds and of an international scandal, by eloping with Captain Putnam Bradlee Strong, of New York, is now playing in a cheap, 10, 20 and 30 cent vaudeville show at Sacramento. She is billed as "Miss May Yoh, formerly Lady Francis Hope," and her voice and old tricks are a hit, but it was at the old Palace Hotel in this city that May Yoh was identified by the famous Hope diamonds as the eloping wife of Lord Francis. May Yoh is now fair and 40, so, perhaps 10, 20, 30 is a fair price, after all. She had a rocket-like career, except that it has taken the stick a long time to come down. She was born in one of the Bethlehems of Pennsylvania Dutch ancestry, that it has taken the stick a long time to come down. She still pronounced it Bes-s-lehem. May's mother was a dressmaker and went to Philadelphia to work, getting considerable sewing to do on theatrical costumes. The child was pretty, and learned to dance. This was noticed, and so May Yoh was on the stage at 10 years of age—just thirty years ago. When May Yoh got in a chorus to travel and went to the land, "mother" left dressmaking and travelled with the child. May early developed musical genius of a high order, and deserving friends, hearing her voice, sent her to Europe to study. She returned, joined one of Edward E. Rice's extravaganzas, scoring her first real success. It was in Chicago that she won extensive newspaper notice. She was the star of a Davidson production, "The Chrystal Slipper" at the Chicago Opera House. Success seemed to turn her head, and it was not long before she was starring also in too many after-theatre suppers. She appeared at London, Lederer's companies, wandered to Australia, then to London, and there, in

"LITTLE MINISTER" SHOWS UP GREAT.

Leading Lady of the Company Keeps up With Pace Set By Miss Adams.

Presented under the direction of Mr. H. O. Stubbs, J. M. Barrie's famous play "The Little Minister" was the offering of the W. S. Harkins Company at the Opera House last evening. Campbellton theatregoers have witnessed many good plays since Mr. Dimock opened his new theatre, but it may safely be said that "The Little Minister" made the deepest impression on the audience of any.

Almost every seat in the capacious auditorium was filled when the curtain went up, and before the first act was over standing room was at a premium.

To speak of the play is simply to retell a great story familiar to most people in Campbellton. Suffice it to say it is Barrie's best—and that is saying a tremendous lot. Miss Susan Van Duser, in the part of Lady Babbie—a part made famous by Maude Adams, America's greatest actress in parts of this kind, showed herself to be an actress capable of coping with the part such as only Miss Adams can cope with it. Miss Van Duser has won the hearts of Campbellton choicesters, and whenever she returns—and we trust she surely will return—will be accorded a most enthusiastic welcome.

Mr. Bernard was capital last evening as Gavin Dishart. All the other members were also splendid in their respective parts.

There will be a matinee to-day at 2.30. The world-famous comedy, "The Private Secretary," will be presented. In the evening, for the first farewell performance, the thrilling Russian drama "For Her Sake" is the bill. The company go from here to St. John's, Halifax, Sydney, and sail on January 11 from Halifax for their annual tour of the West Indies, Bermuda, Barbados, Trinidad and Demerara. It is to be hoped they will bring bumper houses this afternoon and evening.

PHILADELPHIA, Thursday.—Early

reception of cash payments by the banks throughout the country is now declared probable by the Treasury Department.

It was said in Washington yesterday that the banks of New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and other cities might reach an agreement to this effect before the end of the week.

Cash paid by individual investors for the government debt certificates is being returned. Secretary Cortelyou does not want these to fall into the hands of private persons. His idea is that the banks should have them, and issue more circulars against them, even if the banks' profits are large.

As the opening of Congress draws near, interest grows in the proposals of legislation to prevent a recurrence of money stringency. The establishment of a central bank, under government control, meets with most favor.

Speaker Cannon and other Republican leaders are strongly opposed to this remedy.

BREAKS ENGAGEMENT BUT DEFENDS FIANCE

WASHINGTON, Thursday — Miss Helen Squiers, youngest daughter of Herbert G. Squiers, American minister to Guatemala, has broken her engagement to Joseph W. Lee, United States minister to Guatemala, now on sick leave in this country.

Miss Squiers, who is now in Washington, and is about to return to Panama, says that personal reasons led to her decision.

"Stories that Mr. Lee was engaged to some one else, who was to make trouble, have absolutely nothing to do with this matter," she said to-night. "We all hold Mr. Lee in high respect, but he and myself have come to an understanding without consideration of any outside circumstances."

The statement virtually shows that Miss Squiers doesn't believe Countess Petestics, divorced wife of Count Rudolph Petestics, who said that Mr. Lee was engaged to her, and that she had not and would not release him.

Mr. Lee, Miss Squiers says, is now in New York, recovering from the attack of fever which he contracted nearly a year ago. Formerly of the Rough Riders, now United States minister to Guatemala.

SCOTS MAKE MERRY AT ANNUAL DINNER

Songs And Toasts Help To Make Up A Most Enjoyable Evening

The annual dinner of the Caledonian Society of Restigouche, in honor of Scotland's patron saint, took place last night at the Royal Hotel. This is an event of more than usual interest to Auld Scotia's sons and, needless to say, is eagerly looked forward to. On this occasion the function was perhaps more enjoyable than any previously held, the gathering seeming to be imbued with the good feeling and jollity which is ever present in Scottish gatherings.

Previous to the dinner the following officers of the society were installed: F. M. Murray, president; Geo. G. McKenzie, vice-president; A. E. G. McKenzie, secretary; H. M. McEwan, treasurer; Chas. Alexander, marshal; J. M. McEwan, chaplain.

Those present, to the number of about fifty repaired to the spacious dining room where mine host Sproul and a bounteous spread prepared. As they gathered around the festive board Piper McLennan played "Happy we be a' together," in his usual fine style, and gave a zest to the on-lookers on a splendid meal.

As the haggis, without which no Scottish dinner would be complete, was brought in by Host Sproul, Piper McLennan played the selection "Highland Laddie."

When the bill of fare had been gone through and enjoyed to the full, there was a round of toast-making and speeches. The proceedings were made more enjoyable by the fact that the toast, "The Highlandman's Toast," also a solo by Prof. Williamson, "Angus McDonald," and a violin and piano duet by Messrs. McLymont and Hope.

The dining room was tastefully decorated with clan tartans and presented a pleasing appearance.

The president F. M. Murray delivered a short address after which he proposed the health of the King. After this the following toasts were proposed and responded to: Former President of the Society, Our Own Country, George G. McKenzie and A. E. G. McKenzie, Parliament and the Legislature, M. M. Mowat, Wm. Currie, M. P., Our Burg and Shire, Charles Alexander, Ald. Mowat, and "Ladies," Thos. McDevitt, H. M. Miller and N. E. Shepherd.

The affair closed with the singing "Loch Lomond" and "Auld Lang Syne."

Following is a list of telegrams sent to the other Caledonian Societies and replies received:

I. C. R. WILL BENEFIT.
Indications are that the I. C. R. will share to a greater extent than ever before in the winter port business. Already considerable freight has come over the government road, including large quantities of apples, and there is every prospect that the business in all lines will steadily increase. The recent decision of the Railway Commission with reference to Grand Trunk routes by the I. C. R. is believed to be in a measure responsible for the coming of this business.

BARN DESTROYED.
About 11.30 o'clock yesterday morning a fire was discovered in the barn of George Duncan on Gerard Street, West End. An alarm was quickly sent in and the fire department responded promptly, but the barn being full of hay was a mass of flames in no time. The firemen devoted their efforts chiefly to saving adjoining buildings. The origin of the blaze is at present unknown. It was first detected by some men who had just been paid off at the I. N. R. office. They at once started to render what assistance they could, and succeeded in removing the cattle and some of the farm machinery before the fire had made much headway. Mr. Duncan's loss will be quite heavy, as practically his summer's hay was stored in the barn, which is of considerable loss, along with numerous other articles.
