> The line of the Austrian defence as it appears today runs from Berestech through Shezurovitz and Stanistavezyk along the head waters of the Styr, northwest of Brody; and through Olesko-Zboroff to Brzezany, forming a zig-zag to the upper Zlota Lipa; along that stream to Korzov, at the mouth of the Bystritza-Maidan, ten miles northwest of Stanislau, south to Solotvina, ten miles northwest of Nadvorna.

In other words, the Austrians, contracting the circle about Lemberg, are withdrawing to a line between the Carpathians and the Pinsk marshes, the shorter length of which will compensate them in some measure for the tremendous losses they have suffered since the beginning of the Russian advance. Public Opinion

The first taste of New Post Toasties reveals the fact that something different

The secret is in the flavor—a self-developed flavor of pearly white Indian corn-not the flavor of cream and sugar upon which other flakes have to depend. And notice, too, the appearance of New Post Toasties, particularly the tiny "bubbles" on the surface of each flake. These bubbles are a distinguishing feature

-something better-has arrived for the breakfast table

-produced by the quick, intense heat of a new patented process of manufacture. New Post Toasties do not "chaff" nor crumble in the package, and they don't mush down in cream like other flakes. They're more substantial and are altogether more satisfactory than any flakes that have preceded them.

The proof is in the eating—have your grocer send you a package.

ontario farmer went to sell his No. 2 soft winter wheat he would be offered for a carload about $1.15 per bushel. 30 cents a bushel less than No. 3 red in Chicago, and this year's crop of winter wheat in Ontario is the finest quality raised in 25 years or more. You will see No. 1 northern quoted in Toronto market at $1.59. For years on an average Ontario winter wheat has brought within 10 or 15 cents of the price quoted in Chicago, and if No. 3 red winter is worth in Chicago $1.43 to $1.46, why is not No. 3 red winter in Ontario worth $1. A Suggestion for Berlin. To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Id. Asspiant's asking that the city suggests that there was a German in price of $12 a cwt., live weight, and insolicitor be requested to furnish that portion of the act by which he informed the council, that Ald. Palmer, being a resident of the annexed district, had a resident of the annexed district, had a right to vote on street railway extensions, or any other question affecting his district. right to vote on street railway extensions, or any other question affecting his district.

Ald. Ashplant took the ground that Ald. Palmer was not entitled to a seat, and he wanted Mr. Meredith to quote his authority for saying that he could sit in the council. Ald. Wilson seconded the motion, and in doing so paid his respects to Ald. Palmer.

He attacked me at the last meeting of the council when I was not present, declared Ald. Wilson. "He referred to some letters written by me as "lousy letters." I tell you that it was a cowardly attack. No man would use such language behind a man's back unless he was a croward. I know he is, for I have seen him abuse other men. I want to tell him that I never was a strike-breaker in a shop. I never was a scab," "I want that taken back." should Ald. Palmer.

Mayor Stevenson vainly shouted for order.

"I tell you that you were a scab in altersted from them, and as I am an interested from them, and as I am an interested from them, and as I am an interested party, perhaps a word from me will not be taken amiss. There was confusion in a minute. Ald. Palmer picked up the glass on his desk, and turning towards Ald. Wilson, let it go straight at his head. It struck him on the side near the crown, and Ald. Wilson's legs sagged as a result of the clip.
