

THE WEATHER:
MODERATE WINDS, FAIR, COOLER.
TUESDAY—COOL.

London Evening Advertiser

GOOD NEWS
IN THE WANT ADS TODAY
ON PAGES 14-15.

THREE CENTS.

51ST YEAR, NO. 24086

LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1924. —SIXTEEN PAGES.

SETTELL REFUSED BAIL IN HAMILTON COURT

Gasoline Price Drops To 24 Cents In London District

BAIL APPEAL FOR SETTELL IS REFUSED

Former Secretary to Sir Adam Beck Remanded to Jail For Week.

ILL ON SUNDAY

Broken in Spirit, Prisoner Assumes Sole Responsibility For His Trouble.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Hamilton, Oct. 6.—(Clarence) Settell, former secretary to Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario hydro-electric power commission, accused of fraudulently obtaining $29,925 on a check purporting to have been signed by Sir Adam and W. W. Pope, secretary of the commission, was before Magistrate Jeffs this morning and at the request of the crown was remanded for one week.

The magistrate refused to grant bail, though assured by J. D. Sullivan, acting for Settell, that prominent officials at Toronto were prepared to put up bonds by application to a county judge.

Settell, who was quite ill on Sunday, was better today. A doctor was called when he suffered a nervous breakdown.

SUFFERS BREAKDOWN.
Special to The Advertiser.
Hamilton, Oct. 6.—Realizing the blunder he has made, E. Clarence Settell, one of Sir Adam Beck's private secretaries, in jail here on a charge of securing $29,925 in cash from the Ontario hydro-electric power commission, is a broken man on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

Brought here from Niagara Falls Saturday afternoon, Settell has realized his mistake in carrying out his hasty action that landed him behind prison bars.

So-called friends have a short memory when a man is in trouble. Settell has hundreds of friends in Toronto who were always ready to accept his generous hospitality and generosity. He has a 32-year-old son, who has remembered him beyond two newspapermen and Joseph D. Sullivan, young Hamilton barrister, who is looking after his interests. Mr. Sullivan has looked after Settell and seen that he secured good meals, while his aged mother sent her boy touching telegram last night, his boy knowing that she has not forgotten him in his hour of trouble and still believes in him.

Feels Positive Keenly.
None of the hydro officials have called to see him. In his cell, Settell has a newspaperman and his solicitor, no person has come forward to help him, and Settell feels it, yet, as he told the reporter last night, he is loath to ask any friend to help him.

After the strain of the past two days, Settell collapsed in his cell Saturday night and medical aid had to be secured. He took a weak spell, his heart went back on him, and Dr. George Greenway had to be rushed to his cell at police headquarters, to quiet his nerves and let him have a good night's sleep he was given sleeping powders. He was weak again on Sunday and had to be given further medical aid. His only company were three "drunks."

When the reporter called on Settell yesterday he was feeling blue, his magnetic smile and carefree attitude had disappeared.

Please See Page 6, Column 2.

The Weather

FORECASTS.

Moderate to north west winds; fair and a little cooler Tuesday.

The pressure is high to the west and south of the great lakes, and low on the Pacific coast and over northern Quebec. Showers have occurred from Manitoba to Quebec, while in the Maritime Provinces and in Saskatchewan and Alberta the weather has been fair.

Temperatures.

The highest and lowest temperatures during the 24 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were:

Sitons. High. Low. Weather.

Victoria. 64. 44. Clear.

Vancouver. 64. 44. Clear.

Winnipeg. 64. 44. Clear.

Port Arthur. 59. 34. Clear.

Park Sound. 72. 50. Fair.

Toronto. 72. 48. Clear.

Kingston. 70. 36. Clear.

Ottawa. 76. 52. Fair.

Montreal. 68. 60. Clear.

Quebec. 68. 56. Fair.

St. John. 56. 30. Foggy.

Halifax. 70. 42. Cloudy.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

The highest and lowest temperatures recorded in London during the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night were: Highest, 74; lowest, 52.

The official temperatures for the 12 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 66; lowest, 45.

Barometric Readings.

Sunday, 8 p.m.—29.29.

Today, 8 a.m.—29.45.

Street Railway Ballot Must Have 4 Questions

Proposal to vote only on purchase at company's price of $1,295,000 or new 20-year franchise is dangerous and unfair—four courses are open.

When the city council meets tonight there is probability that a letter from President Charles Currie will introduce consideration of the street railway situation.

There appears to be possibility that the council may be asked to approve a ballot to go to the ratepayers of London in December bearing only two questions:

1. Are you in favor of purchasing the London street railway at a price of $1,295,000 plus inventory and the value of improvements made during 1924?

2. Are you in favor of granting the company a new franchise for 20 years with a minimum five-cent fare?

Against council's approval of such ballot and against precipitate action of any kind, The Advertiser wishes to offer warning. The two-question ballot described above is both dangerous and unfair. It would operate entirely to the company's advantage and give no opportunity for expression of opinion on other courses.

Voters would be obliged to accept either purchase at $1,295,000 or the new franchise, or else refrain from voting.

In the present situation there are five courses open to the city. These are, in brief form:

(a) Purchase at $1,295,000—the price offered by the company.

(b) Arbitrate on the price.

(c) Stand pat, i.e., do nothing and permit the present franchise to renew for five years next March.

(d) Cancel the franchise on grounds of failure to fulfil contracts.

(e) Grant a new 20-year franchise by negotiation.

Of these courses, the fourth may be eliminated because inquiry has indicated that cancellation of franchise would be so involved and so drawn out in the courts as to be legally impractical.

Of the remaining four, the railway company quite naturally favors either purchase at its own price of $1,295,000 or a new 20-year franchise and these, strangely enough, are the two questions which council appears to be considering as the basis of a ballot.

The two courses which the company least desires are the continuance of the present franchise (bylaw 916) for five years and, to a less extent, arbitration on the purchase price. Obviously, then, these two courses are more favorable to the city and if there is to be a ballot there must be opportunity for the voters to consider them.

The Advertiser urges that any ballot dealing with the street railway question ask expression of opinion on all four courses. Anything else would be unfair to the city in one case, or to the company in the other case.

The Advertiser suggests that the street railway ballot must include the following four questions, with one cross to be marked against the course favored by the voter. The two-question ballot described at the beginning of this article must be condemned.

1. Are you in favor of purchasing the London street railway at a cost of $1,295,000 plus inventory and the value of improvements made during 1924?

2. Are you in favor of purchasing the London street railway at the value of its physical properties as determined by arbitration?

3. Are you in favor of granting the company a new franchise for twenty years with a minimum five-cent fare?

4. Are you in favor of continuing under bylaw 916 for another five-year period?

(Please see Page 6, Col. 1)

WOMEN ARE ALARMED AT MEN'S PRESENCE

Hammer Now Believed To Have Left District Around Byron.

Several women in the vicinity of Byron are on the verge of a nervous breakdown as a result of the presence in the neighborhood of two men one believed to be John Hammer, wanted in Elgin county for robbery and assault.

One woman is under the care of the doctor, and an extremely nervous condition, a resident of the village stated this morning.

County police again combed Byron and district over the week-end in the hope of finding some trace of the men, but their efforts were without avail.

It is now believed in county circles that the man hoped a freight train near Hyde Park and made for the border.

FRENCH MINISTER SCORES ANTI-CLERICAL MEASURES

Associated Press Despatch.
Tours, France, Oct. 6.—The growing agitation in France against strict application of anti-clerical legislation was denounced by Minister of the Interior Chautemps, in a speech last night at a local political association banquet.

"The government is responsible for the maintenance of peace in the interior, and its duty is to invite agitators to reflect and to warn them solemnly that, however highly placed they may be, they will not be allowed to disturb the public order with impunity," he said.

Continuing he charged that under the cover of the sacred union congregations were being reconstituted in France with an amplitude recalling that of 1900, and notwithstanding the formal assurance of the Holy See to the French ambassador.

COUNTY COURT SITTINGS DELAYED UNTIL OCT. 27

County court sittings scheduled for tomorrow at the court house have been postponed until Oct. 27, Judge Talbot Macbeth announced this morning.

Both Judge Macbeth and Judge Judd have been extremely busy with revision courts as members of the election board have still considerable work to accomplish. For this reason it was decided to postpone the court until the 27th of the month.

Ten cases in all were set down for trial at this court, the entries closed last Friday afternoon.

BRIDGE STILL CLOSED.

Wellington street bridge over the Thames, between Wellington street and Wellington road, is still closed, but will be opened within a few days.

Paving operations on Wellington street south have kept the bridge closed for some days.

ESTATE OF $700,000 LEFT
BY ELLA BEATTY HARRISS

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, Oct. 5.—An estate of approximately $700,000, about one-third of which is situated in the province of Ontario, has been left by the late Ella Beatty Harriess, wife of Dr. Charles A. E. Harriess, director of the Empire choir at Wembley Exhibition, England, according to the will probated yesterday.

Mrs. Harriess died on May 12 last and bequeathed approximately one-fifth to her husband and family residence at Earncliffe, formerly the residence of Sir John A. Macdonald, first Canadian premier. A number of beneficiaries reside in Canada, the United States and Great Britain.

ST. THOMAS CITIZEN DIES IN DETROIT HOSPITAL

Special to The Advertiser.
Detroit, Oct. 6.—Edward Anderson, age 30, of 2147 Second boulevard, who came here recently from St. Thomas, where he was employed in the hydro-electric plant, died early this morning at the receiving hospital after the amputation of his left arm.

His two legs were severed below the knee when the wheels of a five-ton motor truck passed over him early Saturday. John Ling, 2881 Central avenue, is held pending an inquest.

He has relatives near London and they can communicate with Ernest Laing, 5752 Wabash avenue, Detroit, for particulars.

Canada Will Have Direct Exchange With Germany

Amount Will Be Converted Into Sterling at Ottawa.

FULL AMOUNT

Commission Will Not Be Deducted as in the Past.

A direct exchange of money orders has been established between Canada and Germany. The announcement by the postal department says that the new exchange will replace the indirect one which has been conducted since 1920 through the agency of the British postoffice.

The amount of money paid by the remitter will now be converted into sterling money by the exchange office at Ottawa. It will subsequently be converted into German money by the German exchange office in Cologne at the rate in effect at Berlin on the day the last containing the entry is received.

The advantage of direct exchange is that the payer in Germany will receive the full amount of their remittances. Under the old method which has been replaced, a commission was deducted by the British office from the amount of each order for its services in revalidating the order upon Germany.

ONLY THREE CASES.

Three cases of scarlet fever were reported to the city medical authorities over the week-end. The contagion, however, has at no time during the past few months reached serious proportions, and there are few cases at the isolation hospital.

GREENWOOD DECLINES
LIBERAL NOMINATION

Declares His Candidature Would Only Accentuate Present Differences.

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 5.—Sir Hamar Greenwood has written to the Central Cardiff Liberal Association, declining to become the Liberal candidate in that constituency in the next election on the ground that Conservative and Liberal candidates are already in the field, and consequently his candidature would only accentuate the differences among the anti-Socialist parties which differences "are inimical to the best interests of the empire."

Sir Hamar considers that the best way to defeat Socialism is for a common policy of opposing attacks on constitutional liberty and of developing the resources of the British commonwealth.

SENATORS
CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Washington Players Invade Polo Grounds With High Hopes.

45,000 PRESENT

Ideal Weather Conditions Greet Fans For Third Game.

Associated Press Despatch.
Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 6.—The Washington Senators invaded the stronghold of the New York Giants here this afternoon intent on smiting the proud champions of the National League.

The brilliant victory of the American League yesterday at the national capital has made them a host of friends in the alien Polo grounds, and today, though each club has captured a game in the "world series" struggle, New Yorkers have made the Washington club a favorite in the betting.

Some forty thousand or more spectators swarmed into the concrete reaches of the historic ball yard this afternoon to cheer the Senators and the Giants. A few stood around the bleacher gates all night, but it wasn't necessary, for there was still room at noon in the unreserved sections.

The reserve sections did not fill until game time.

Another clear and warm day was furnished for the sport, and the groundkeepers had the inner and outer gardens of the playing field in fine condition.

"That right field stand is just my dish," said "Goose" Goslin, cleanup hitter of the Senators, commenting on the short right field. "They must have built it for me."

The Giants took the diamond for their batting practice shortly after 1 o'clock, with Virgil Barnes pitching them up to the batters, Nick Altrock, Washington's baseball commodore, on first base. Al Schacht was busy leading the band, which had been blowing itself since 11:30 o'clock. The Washington team went in for its batting practice with Zahnizer, a right hander, pitching them over.

The line-ups are as follows:

WASHINGTON: NEW YORK:
Leibold, cf. Lindstrom, 3b.
Harris, 2b. Frisch, 1b.
Rice, rf. Young, rf.
Goslin, lf. Kelly, cf.
Judge, lb. Terry, lb.
Bludge, 3b. Wilson, cf.
Peckinpaugh, ss. Jackson, ss.
Ruel, c. Gowdy, c.
Marberry, p. McQuillan, p.
Umpires—Dineen, plate; Quigley, first; Connolly, second; and Klem, third base.

FIRST INNING.

SENATORS—Leibold up. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Strike two. Leibold went out. Struck out.

Harris up. The big crowd gave Harris a cheer. The game was held up by the photographers to be sent off the field. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Foul, strike two. Harris sent a long fly to Young.

Rice up. Ball one. Strike one. Ball two. Strike two. Foul. Ball three. Ball four. Rice was given a base on balls. Goslin up. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Strike two. Rice did not go down. Goslin was thrown out at first by Frisch.

NO RUNS, 0 HITS, 0 ERRORS.

GIANTS—Lindstrom up. Ball one, two, three. Strike one. Frisch struck out, taking a third called strike.

Frisch up. Ball one, two. Strike one. Goslin took Frisch's first fly.

Young up. Ball one, strike one. Ball one. Young got a line single into left field.

Kelly up. Strike one. Two. Kelly was out at first. Strike two. Judge.

NO RUNS, 1 HIT, NO ERRORS.

SENATORS—Judge up. Strike one. Foul, strike two. Ball one, two. Judge singled sharply over the middle bag.

Bludge up. Ball one. Bludge hit into a double play. McQuillan to Frisch to Terry.

Peck up. Strike one. Lindstrom took Peckinpaugh's grounder and threw him out.

NO RUNS, 1 HIT, NO ERRORS.

GIANTS—Terry up. Terry cracked a single into right field. Frisch.

Wilson up. Strike one. Foul, strike two. Foul. Ball one. Wilson fanned.

Jackson up. Bludge took Jackson's grounder and threw to Harris, who dropped the ball.

Gowdy up. Terry scored on Gowdy's single to left, Jackson going to third, and Goslin went out stretching the hit. Goslin to Harris.

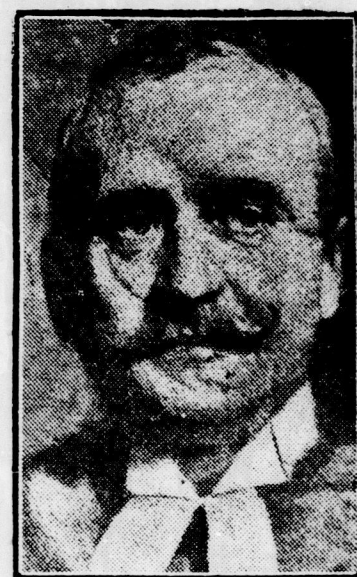

McQuillan up. Ball one, two. Jackson scored on a wild pitch by Marberry. Ball three. McQuillan walked.

Lindstrom up. Ball one. Ball two. Strike one. Ball three. Strike two. Lindstrom also walked.

Frisch up. Ball one, two. Strike one. Foul, strike two. Frisch was hit by a pitched ball and the bags were loaded.

Young up. Ball one, ball two. Strike one, two. Strike three. Young fanned.

TWO RUNS, 2 HITS, 1 ERROR.

MR. JUSTICE RIDDELL

judge of the supreme court of Ontario, who will preside at the fall assizes in London which opens at the court house on October 13.

JUSTICE RIDDELL TO PRESIDE HERE

Sheriff Donald Graham Receives Definite Assurance of Judge to Preside.

Sheriff Donald Graham has received definite assurance from His Lordship Mr. Justice Riddell that he will preside at the fall assizes of the supreme court, which open at the court house on Oct. 13.

There are four criminal cases set down for trial, two of manslaughter, one of attempted rape and one of indecent assault.

Five jury and eleven non-jury cases are also listed, the last day that cases may be set down for trial being tomorrow.

It was stated on god authority this morning that six of the non-jury cases scheduled for hearing will be traversed to the next court.

PERPETUAL MOTION IS NOW THOUGHT SOLVED

French Inventor Finishes Clock After 36 Years of Toil.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The search of that which fortune has been spent on and for which great minds have been sapped of their sanity—"perpetual motion"—may be ended.

Monsieur Monnier, a French inventor of some repute, has completed a perpetual motion clock, entailing the labor of 28 years, the gathering together of 12,000 pieces of mechanism and metals and others substances weighing a thousand pounds.

M. Monnier has passed his 62nd birthday and has spent half his life on the wonder of the clock world.

Two other inventions of his, one for royalties from his other inventions, are now in use in some foreign countries.

He is a poor man, having no royalties from his other inventions, and his only income is the one franc fee which he charges of those who wish to see his great clock. A movement is under way to have the government inspect the invention.

SEEKS MORE LAND.

F. J. Pinder has offered to buy eight feet from the easterly side of lot 71 on the south side of Windsor avenue, now city property. City Engineer Near has indicated the sale of the property, which will give greater breadth to Mr. Pinder's holdings.

MANAGER LEAVES.

Leonard Tait, general manager and secretary-treasurer of the London Street Railway Company, has left for Atlantic City. He will attend the sessions of the American Electrical Railway Association, now holding an annual convention.

W. Hamner Found in Side Street of Woodstock With His Throat Slashed.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Woodstock, Oct. 6.—Willoughby Hamner, a well-known farmer of North Norwich, committed suicide Saturday night by cutting his throat.

Hamner was 53 years of age, had been in poor health for some time and was forced to give up farming three months ago.

Hamner walked into a barber shop Saturday afternoon and after having a shave visited a hardware store close by where he purchased a razor.

He then walked down a side street where he was found shortly afterward with his throat cut. He was taken home and died a few hours later.

ADOLF HITLER

has been released from jail after serving a term for his share in the Bavarian beer-cellar putch.

ONLY THREE CASES.

Three cases of scarlet fever were reported to the city medical authorities over the week-end. The contagion, however, has at no time during the past few months reached serious proportions, and there are few cases at the isolation hospital.

GREENWOOD DECLINES
LIBERAL NOMINATION

Declares His Candidature Would Only Accentuate Present Differences.

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 5.—Sir Hamar Greenwood has written to the Central Cardiff Liberal Association, declining to become the Liberal candidate in that constituency in the next election on the ground that Conservative and Liberal candidates are already in the field, and consequently his candidature would only accentuate the differences among the anti-Socialist parties which differences "are inimical to the best interests of the empire."

Sir Hamar considers that the best way to defeat Socialism is for a common policy of opposing attacks on constitutional liberty and of developing the resources of the British commonwealth.

SENATORS
CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Washington Players Invade Polo Grounds With High Hopes.

45,000 PRESENT

Ideal Weather Conditions Greet Fans For Third Game.

Associated Press Despatch.
Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 6.—The Washington Senators invaded the stronghold of the New York Giants here this afternoon intent on smiting the proud champions of the National League.

The brilliant victory of the American League yesterday at the national capital has made them a host of friends in the alien Polo grounds, and today, though each club has captured a game in the "world series" struggle, New Yorkers have made the Washington club a favorite in the betting.

Some forty thousand or more spectators swarmed into the concrete reaches of the historic ball yard this afternoon to cheer the Senators and the Giants. A few stood around the bleacher gates all night, but it wasn't necessary, for there was still room at noon in the unreserved sections.

The reserve sections did not fill until game time.

Another clear and warm day was furnished for the sport, and the groundkeepers had the inner and outer gardens of the playing field in fine condition.

"That right field stand is just my dish," said "Goose" Goslin, cleanup hitter of the Senators, commenting on the short right field. "They must have built it for me."

The Giants took the diamond for their batting practice shortly after 1 o'clock, with Virgil Barnes pitching them up to the batters, Nick Altrock, Washington's baseball commodore, on first base. Al Schacht was busy leading the band, which had been blowing itself since 11:30 o'clock. The Washington team went in for its batting practice with Zahnizer, a right hander, pitching them over.

The line-ups are as follows:

WASHINGTON: NEW YORK:
Leibold, cf. Lindstrom, 3b.
Harris, 2b. Frisch, 1b.
Rice, rf. Young, rf.
Goslin, lf. Kelly, cf.
Judge, lb. Terry, lb.
Bludge, 3b. Wilson, cf.
Peckinpaugh, ss. Jackson, ss.
Ruel, c. Gowdy, c.
Marberry, p. McQuillan, p.
Umpires—Dineen, plate; Quigley, first; Connolly, second; and Klem, third base.

FIRST INNING.

SENATORS—Leibold up. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Strike two. Leibold went out. Struck out.

Harris up. The big crowd gave Harris a cheer. The game was held up by the photographers to be sent off the field. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Foul, strike two. Harris sent a long fly to Young.

Rice up. Ball one. Strike one. Ball two. Strike two. Foul. Ball three. Ball four. Rice was given a base on balls. Goslin up. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Strike two. Rice did not go down. Goslin was thrown out at first by Frisch.

NO RUNS, 0 HITS, 0 ERRORS.

GIANTS—Lindstrom up. Ball one, two, three. Strike one. Frisch struck out, taking a third called strike.

Frisch up. Ball one, two. Strike one. Goslin took Frisch's first fly.

Young up. Ball one, strike one. Ball one. Young got a line single into left field.

Kelly up. Strike one. Two. Kelly was out at first. Strike two. Judge.

NO

HOW GOVERNMENT SALE WORKS IN ALBERTA

(One of a series of twenty articles following impartial investigation of government sale of liquor as practised in Manitoba, Alberta, British Columbia and Quebec.)

ADVERTISING BY DISTILLERS AIDS ALBERTA GOVERNMENT TO INCREASE SALE OF LIQUOR

Provincial Board Enters Into a Virtual Partnership Arrangement With Manufacturers To Increase Consumption of Liquor—One Sells, the Other Looks After Publicity.

BEER SOLD OVER TABLES INSTEAD OF BARS

ARTICLE NO. 8.
Alberta has a system of government control very different from that of Manitoba. The latter province has no sale of beer or whiskey in hotels, legally, and there are no hotel licenses that the control board may cancel. Alberta hotels are permitted to sell beer of 4½ per cent, alcohol weight, and the province is without a limit to the quantity that may be purchased by an individual such as the control board in Manitoba has put on because of the amount of bootlegging there. The Alberta government keeps for itself a monopoly of the sale of whiskey and other spirits and strong beer.

There is little difficulty getting a permit to sell 4½ per cent beer. An advertisement has to appear in the press over a four weeks' period of the intention to apply for a license. The accommodation has to get the approval of the control board. But unless there is strenuous protest from local residents the application is granted almost as a matter of course.

Applications For License.
When I was in Edmonton one day's paper carried two advertisements giving notice of application for the right to sell beer. Here is one of them:

"Government Liquor Control Act of Alberta.
"Application For Beer License.
"PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned intends applying to the ALBERTA LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD for a license to sell beer by the glass, or open bottle, for consumption in conformity with the provisions of the Government Liquor Control Act of Alberta, and regulations made thereunder, with respect to the following premises: Lot 3, Block 1, in the Hamlet of Waskateneau, being part of the S.E. 1-4, Sec. 16, Twp. 59, R. 19, W. 4, and being situated on the Southwest corner of the Victory Hotel.

"DATED at Waskateneau, Alberta, this 21st day of August, 1924.
"GEORGE CHERRINGTON,
"Applicant."

The other advertisement also called for sale of beer by the glass or open bottle, the applicant being a woman. The premises to be used were described as "The Northeast room, 17 x 8, of the Commercial Hotel, situated on the southwest quarter of 12, Township 62, Range 27, west of the 4th Meridian, Block 1, Railway street, Plan number 596 C. L. Township of Dapp, Alberta."

Government Sells the Whiskey.
The hard stuff is sold by the government through the stores managed by the control board, which are in charge of "vendors." As to beer or tavern licenses, the hotels may lease part of their premises to someone for the sale of beer. The license is issued to the lessee and not to the hotel.

Only 220 Varieties.
The Alberta government control board does not offer the public nearly as extensive a choice as is given in Manitoba, only 220 different varieties of whiskeys, champagnes, wines, cocktails, etc., being on the list as against 400 in Manitoba. Still, the range is fairly choice and Chinese wine and whiskey are not overlooked. The prices are mostly a little lower than those in Manitoba, as the following samples will show:

Alta. Man. price. price.
Begg's Gold Cap.....$5.00 $5.25
Dawson's Curio.....5.50 5.80
Dawson's Special.....4.75 4.90
Haig's Dimple.....5.25 5.35
Hudson Bay's B. F.....5.00 5.15
Mackinlay's M. L.....5.00 5.25
Sandy Macdonald.....4.75 4.90
Walker's Black Label.....5.50 5.60
Maraschino ¾ litre.....4.00 4.30
Orange Curacao ¾ litre.....4.00 4.50

Official Information.
Under the heading of "General Information" the Alberta price list says:
"Applicants for permits are required to be of the full age of 21 years and to make written application on the forms provided, which forms may be obtained from the nearest vendor. Applications for permits by mail should be addressed to the vendor nearest to the residence of the applicant. The vendor will forward the proper form of application."

"Government liquor vendors may be addressed at the following points: Banff, Blainmore, Calgary, Calgary hotel. Every license must be held by an individual. A company is not eligible.

Alberta has not the bar system. The people did not want it and voted it down emphatically. In place of the bar the government control act permits liquor to be served at tables. The main difference is that instead of standing up the customer sits comfortably and drinks. He can treat as much as ever. No government control province goes so far as to forbid the treating system. Quebec tried that some years ago under the old law. The law was ignored and is no longer on the statute book.

Began to Sell in May.
The government control powers in Alberta are vested in one man, Mr. R. J. Dinning, a former bank manager, who gets a salary of $9,000. This one-man board may be an improvement on Manitoba's three-man board, only one of whom gives all his time to the job. Mr. Dinning has very wide powers, and may cancel, without giving the reason, the license of any hotelkeeper. The fact that he purchases for the government all beer stronger than 4½ per cent gives him another grip on the hotelmen that Manitoba lacks.

Making Rapid Progress.
The control board began to sell liquor on May 10 and ever since has been steadily extending the facilities for drinking. Whereas Manitoba, after a year's operation, has only government offices for the sale of whiskey, Alberta, with a slightly smaller population, after three months' operation has 26 such places. Manitoba having no sale of beer by the glass, its breweries deliver beer direct to residences without the order going through the government. There is no legal sale of beer in that province by restaurants and hotels, nor drinking in public places. Alberta, on the other hand, through its control board, is rapidly promoting the drinking of beer in public places. It has issued 259 hotel licenses as well as 45 club licenses and 10 can- teen licenses, which are under the control of the militia, mounted police or garrisons. These are in addition to the 26 government offices for the sale of whiskey and strong beer.

Any club that was in existence before the first of June, 1923, can get a license to sell beer. There are a dozen such in Calgary and Edmonton. As with beer, so with hard stuff, there is no limit whatever to what a man may buy. In Manitoba the limit is supposed to be 12 bottles of spirits a week per individual.

The Alberta government has two warehouses, one in Calgary and one in Edmonton, from which its 26 liquor stores are supplied. The profits of the government liquor stores are not to be shared up with the municipalities as in B. C. and Manitoba. Government officials intimate that the revenue is disappointingly small owing to the heavy patronage of taverns.

Such evidence as came to me indicated that the brewers of Alberta have been kept fairly well in hand, which may be due to the fact that the law makes provision for the sale of beer by the glass. Some infractions of the law by brewers have been checked up and several have been fined.

Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

What the Law Provides.
The act says that any liquor containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirits shall be deemed intoxicating. Purchases of strong drink from the government vendor must be indorsed on the back of permits. Brewers must report the amount of their sales. Government stores may remain open until 8 p.m. Hotels may sell beer until 10 p.m. on ordinary days and 9 p.m. on Saturdays. Clubs may sell until 11 p.m. Hotel licenses cost from $250 to $350 and club licenses from $100 to $200. Brewers must pay $1,500 for the right to sell. They may sell to individuals as well as hotels, but must collect a tax on beer and malt liquor from the citizens. Hotel guests may have liquor in their rooms for their own use.
By getting up a petition signed by 25 per cent of the electors, any district can force a local option vote by which the district may go dry if a majority of those voting wish the local sale prohibited. In Manitoba the drys must poll a majority of the names on the lists.
Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

What the Law Provides.
The act says that any liquor containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirits shall be deemed intoxicating. Purchases of strong drink from the government vendor must be indorsed on the back of permits. Brewers must report the amount of their sales. Government stores may remain open until 8 p.m. Hotels may sell beer until 10 p.m. on ordinary days and 9 p.m. on Saturdays. Clubs may sell until 11 p.m. Hotel licenses cost from $250 to $350 and club licenses from $100 to $200. Brewers must pay $1,500 for the right to sell. They may sell to individuals as well as hotels, but must collect a tax on beer and malt liquor from the citizens. Hotel guests may have liquor in their rooms for their own use.
By getting up a petition signed by 25 per cent of the electors, any district can force a local option vote by which the district may go dry if a majority of those voting wish the local sale prohibited. In Manitoba the drys must poll a majority of the names on the lists.
Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

What the Law Provides.
The act says that any liquor containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirits shall be deemed intoxicating. Purchases of strong drink from the government vendor must be indorsed on the back of permits. Brewers must report the amount of their sales. Government stores may remain open until 8 p.m. Hotels may sell beer until 10 p.m. on ordinary days and 9 p.m. on Saturdays. Clubs may sell until 11 p.m. Hotel licenses cost from $250 to $350 and club licenses from $100 to $200. Brewers must pay $1,500 for the right to sell. They may sell to individuals as well as hotels, but must collect a tax on beer and malt liquor from the citizens. Hotel guests may have liquor in their rooms for their own use.
By getting up a petition signed by 25 per cent of the electors, any district can force a local option vote by which the district may go dry if a majority of those voting wish the local sale prohibited. In Manitoba the drys must poll a majority of the names on the lists.
Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

What the Law Provides.
The act says that any liquor containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirits shall be deemed intoxicating. Purchases of strong drink from the government vendor must be indorsed on the back of permits. Brewers must report the amount of their sales. Government stores may remain open until 8 p.m. Hotels may sell beer until 10 p.m. on ordinary days and 9 p.m. on Saturdays. Clubs may sell until 11 p.m. Hotel licenses cost from $250 to $350 and club licenses from $100 to $200. Brewers must pay $1,500 for the right to sell. They may sell to individuals as well as hotels, but must collect a tax on beer and malt liquor from the citizens. Hotel guests may have liquor in their rooms for their own use.
By getting up a petition signed by 25 per cent of the electors, any district can force a local option vote by which the district may go dry if a majority of those voting wish the local sale prohibited. In Manitoba the drys must poll a majority of the names on the lists.
Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

What the Law Provides.
The act says that any liquor containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirits shall be deemed intoxicating. Purchases of strong drink from the government vendor must be indorsed on the back of permits. Brewers must report the amount of their sales. Government stores may remain open until 8 p.m. Hotels may sell beer until 10 p.m. on ordinary days and 9 p.m. on Saturdays. Clubs may sell until 11 p.m. Hotel licenses cost from $250 to $350 and club licenses from $100 to $200. Brewers must pay $1,500 for the right to sell. They may sell to individuals as well as hotels, but must collect a tax on beer and malt liquor from the citizens. Hotel guests may have liquor in their rooms for their own use.
By getting up a petition signed by 25 per cent of the electors, any district can force a local option vote by which the district may go dry if a majority of those voting wish the local sale prohibited. In Manitoba the drys must poll a majority of the names on the lists.
Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

What the Law Provides.
The act says that any liquor containing more than 2½ per cent proof spirits shall be deemed intoxicating. Purchases of strong drink from the government vendor must be indorsed on the back of permits. Brewers must report the amount of their sales. Government stores may remain open until 8 p.m. Hotels may sell beer until 10 p.m. on ordinary days and 9 p.m. on Saturdays. Clubs may sell until 11 p.m. Hotel licenses cost from $250 to $350 and club licenses from $100 to $200. Brewers must pay $1,500 for the right to sell. They may sell to individuals as well as hotels, but must collect a tax on beer and malt liquor from the citizens. Hotel guests may have liquor in their rooms for their own use.
By getting up a petition signed by 25 per cent of the electors, any district can force a local option vote by which the district may go dry if a majority of those voting wish the local sale prohibited. In Manitoba the drys must poll a majority of the names on the lists.
Persons who sell liquor illegally may be fined from $100 to $1,000 for the first offence or be given a three months' term of imprisonment with hard labor in default of payment, or they may be given six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. Unspecified offences may be punished with fines from $20 to $200 for the first offence, from $200 to $500 for second offences and to imprisonment from three to six months for third offences.

Onus of Proof.
Like the O. T. A., the Alberta government control law puts the onus of proof on the defendant in prosecutions for illegal sale, saying that "the justice trying the case, as soon as it appears to him that the circumstances in evidence sufficiently establish the offence complained of, shall put the defendant on his defence, and in default of his rebuttal of such evidence to the satisfaction of the justice, convict him accordingly." Another clause says that if prima facie proof is given then "unless such person proves that he did not commit the offence with which he is so charged, he may be convicted of the offence."

PLEADS GUILTY TO THEFT OF RAILROAD MATERIAL
Special to The Advertiser.
Galt, Oct. 5.—Pleading guilty in the police court Saturday morning to stealing a quantity of railroad ties, George Dimmock was remanded for sentence until Thursday next, and in the meantime is out on $2,000 bail. Dimmock, a C. P. R. sectionman, lives on a farm east of Galt. He was arrested by Chief Gorman and two C. P. R. detectives Friday night, who claim they recovered a large number of new ties. They asked for a remand Saturday, and secured a search warrant, hoping to unearth more missing material.

East, Camrose, Coleman, Coronation, Drumheller, Edmonton, Edmonton South, Edson, Grande Prairie, Jasper, Lethbridge, Macleod, Medicine Hat, Peace River, Pincher Creek, Red Deer, Stettler, St. Paul de Metis, Taber, Vegreville, Vermilion, Wainwright, Wetaskiwin.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who has resided in the province of Alberta for at least one month prior to the date of the application, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor: Fee $2.00. To purchase beer only: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents.
"Individual permits may be issued to an applicant who is temporarily resident or sojourning in the province of Alberta, entitling him to purchase spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor during one month from the date of issue: Fee $1.00. To a single purchase of spirits, wine, beer or malt liquor: Fee 50 cents."

Jazzy Advertisements.
The government sells the hard stuff for the distillers and brewers and in return the brewers and distillers wage an advertising campaign. The wares the government has to sell, in a ten-page paper in Edmonton the day I arrived there were three and a half columns of liquor advertising. All the ads. declare: "This advertisement is not inserted by the Alberta liquor control board or by the government of the province of Alberta."
The "ads." are a little more jazzy than those appearing in Manitoba. One before me at the moment of writing runs like this:
"Exhilarating. Satisfying. Cocktails, Whiskey, Gin, Martini, Brandy, Manhattan. Full of Pep and Life. $2.25 at all government liquor stores. Most economical. Cost only half as much as other liquors—far superior to any. Here's a full-flavored, full-powered liquor, delightful to drink, exhilarating to a degree, that gives satisfaction every time. A guaranteed 100 per cent concentration of Europe's choicest liquors and liqueurs, blended by an expert, ready to drink. There's as much satisfaction in a bottle of Silk Hat Cocktails as you'd get from any liquor selling at double the price. Try a bottle today. Ask for Silk Hat Cocktails. Five different kinds."
This advertisement, we may assume, was not put in for love of the government who sells the liquor, or in order that the government might make a profit. It was put in because the government buys the brands from the distiller that people ask for. The arrangement gives both government and distiller a profit. In other words, the government and the distiller have a sort of partnership arrangement. Which is all right if no harm comes thereby to the community.

</

Hunting Trip Arranged For Prince In British Columbia Before Departure East

PRINCE TO VISIT CHICAGO PACKER

Accepts Invitation of Long Standing From Louis Swift—Route Changed.

COMING TO TORONTO

Canadian Press Despatch.
Victoria, B. C., Oct. 6.—Captain Allen Lascelles, private secretary to the Prince of Wales, on the arrival of the royal party here last night, announced officially that arrangements had been made for the prince to visit Chicago, Detroit and Massachusetts, as well as Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal, before sailing for England.

Arriving in Winnipeg on Friday, Oct. 10, he will leave Winnipeg over Canadian National Railways on the morning of Oct. 12, travelling by way of Duluth to Chicago, arriving there Oct. 13.

The visit of the prince to Chicago is in response to a long standing invitation from Louis Swift, and his stay in that city will be entirely of a private nature. His Royal Highness having entrusted arrangements for his day's sight-seeing to Mr. Swift, Detroit will be visited on Oct. 14, and the prince will arrive in Toronto Oct. 15, and in Ottawa the day after. His arrival in Montreal is planned for Oct. 19, and after a two-day stay there the prince will proceed to Massachusetts to be the guest of Bayard Tuckerman, Jun., and to hunt with the Mopla club.

The prince will sail from New York on the White Star liner Olympic on Oct. 25.

Victoria's citizens by the thousands greeted the prince when he and his suite arrived on the steamship Princess Louise.

As the Princess Louise warped alongside the pier, the thousands of his first welcome by bowing repeatedly. He was met at the gangplank by Mayor Reginald Hayward and members of the city council. His first visit to Victoria, and the suite reserved for the prince has been newly painted and decorated, the work being carried on day and night in order to complete it by the time His Royal Highness arrived. His rooms have a charming view over the harbor and long lines of hills.

It is expected that the prince will devote some time during his stay to hunting. Deer and game are very plentiful this season.

VISITING CLERGYMEN PREACH ON SUNDAY

Interesting Sermons Heard at Anglican Churches Here Yesterday.

Visiting clergymen were heard at services in several Anglican churches yesterday. At St. David's in London East harvest thanksgiving sermon was preached. At evening service, the special preacher was the Very Rev. Dean Norman Tucker of St. Paul's Cathedral, Rev. A. E. Pas, missionary, preached last evening at St. James' church in South London.

An interesting visitor at the church of St. John the Evangelist was Rev. J. W. Cunningham of St. George's church, Halifax, Nova Scotia, who preached at morning service. Rev. Mark Tumbull of London was in charge during the evening.

Rev. Dr. Waller, M.A., principal of Huron college, directed morning prayer and choral communion at All Saints' church yesterday morning. Mr. W. Crump preached at the evening service.

London Girl Guides were present at the morning service in Crayon Memorial church when Rev. Quintin Warner preached.

YOUTHFUL TEMPERANCE WORKERS ORGANIZE

South London Churches Take Lead in Move to Bring Young Men to Fold.

The churches of London South are organizing a young men's temperance group. A meeting was held in Knox Church yesterday afternoon at 4:30 for the purpose of getting the support of the young men and enlisting their aid as scrutineers for the coming campaign.

There was a large attendance. Addresses were given by V. K. Greer, school inspector; Hartley Upshall, mayor of the boys' council; and Hiles Temple, city clerk of the boys' council.

Mr. Pack and S. R. White also spoke.

The young men appointed an executive composed of the following members: Norman Wichtman, chairman; Lloyd Dalgleish, vice chairman; Ross Werner, secretary.

Another meeting will be held Sunday in Knox church auditorium to report on the work accomplished.

CYCLIST HAS CLOSE CALL WHEN HIT BY MOTOR CAR

Struck by a large touring car just opposite a gasoline-filling station at the corner of Wortley-road and Stanley street at 11 o'clock yesterday morning a youthful cyclist had a miraculous escape from serious injury.

The youngster was out with a party of others on a Sunday morning hike. He came racing across York street bridge, cut across the corner on the gasoline station right-of-way and hurled himself and his machine right in the pathway of a motor car. He was thrown some distance, but fortunately landed on his feet. He was badly shaken up, and his wheel was damaged somewhat.

Snapshots Of A Man When The Lights Go Out

McClure Newspaper Syndicate

CALLS TO FAMILY NOT TO GET EXCITED BECAUSE THE LIGHTS HAVE GONE OUT—THEY'LL GO RIGHT ON AGAIN.

AFTER WAITING FIVE MINUTES IN TOTAL DARKNESS ADMITS THEY'D BETTER DO SOMETHING, AND WANTS TO KNOW WHO'S TAKEN ALL THE MATCHES OFF THE MANTLEPIECE.

CONTINUES SEARCH MUTTERING HE DOESN'T SEE WHERE ALL THE MATCHES GO TO IN THIS HOUSE—WHY DON'T PEOPLE LEAVE THEM WHERE THEY BELONG.

FINALLY FINDS AND LIGHTS ONE. SAYS THERE THAT'S BETTER. NOW SOMEBODY HURRY UP WITH A CANDLE.

FOLLOWS AN ANXIOUS HALF MINUTE IN WHICH WIFE IS SURE THERE WAS A BOX OF CANDLES IN PANTRY DRAWER, MYRTLE REMEMBERS SEEING ONE ON SHELF, AND HE SHOUTS TO HURRY UP—MATCH IS GOING OUT.

SILENCE FILLS ROOM, BROKEN ONLY BY HEAVY BREATHING OF FAMILY GROPING FOR ANOTHER MATCH, AND AN OCCASIONAL CRASH INTO PIANO STOOL OR AN OPEN DOOR.

REPORTS HE'S FOUND ONE. HE DIDN'T KNOW HE HAD IN VEST POCKET—BRINGS THE CANDLE BEFORE HE LIGHTS IT. THIS STARTS NEW SEARCH, BECAUSE WIFE'S FORTUNATE WHERE SHE PUT.

CANDLE DOWN—AT LAST BY UNIFIED EFFORTS OF FAMILY FAIR DEGREE OF CANDID ILLUMINATION IS PROVIDED, JUST AS THE ELECTRIC LIGHT COMES ON AGAIN.

GOLF COURSE BOASTS OF VARIED PATRONAGE

Thirty-Three Canadians and 23 Golfers From Foreign Points Play in Summer.

Among the nearly 8,000 golfers who have played on the Thames Valley course during the present season have been citizens of 33 Canadian towns and cities and 23 cities of the United States and England.

The Canadian list includes: Toronto, Border Cities, Winnipeg, Montreal, Chatham, Brantford, St. Thomas, Hull, Guelph, Collingwood, Port Stanley, Lambeth, Sarnia, Galt, Windsor, Thorold, Hamilton, Ingersoll, Edmonston, Kitchener, St. Catharines, Spainsburg, Grimsby, Walkerville, Quebec, Medicine Hat, Victoria, Halifax, Rigsby, Port Arthur, Goderich, Mildred, Sask., and Weyburn, Sask.

The out-of-Canada list includes: London, England, New York, Ann Arbor, Mich., Tecumseh, Mich., Detroit, Terre Haute, Ind., Saginaw, Chicago, Akron, Tremont, Ohio, Flint, Buffalo, Elmira, N. Y., Nashua, N. H., Grand Rapids, Lansing, La. Porte, Ind., Dayton, Airbridge, Pa., Boston, Highland Park, Little Rock, Ark., Los Angeles, South Benton, Mich., St. Joseph, Mo., and Huntington, W. Va.

W. BOLER SUPPORTS POLICE COMMISSION

Westminster Deputy Reeve Urges Change Be Made in County.

County Councillor Wm. Boler of Byron is greatly in favor of a police commission for Middlesex county, and will support such a move when it comes before the county council at the December session.

"We certainly should have a police commission for the county," declared the deputy reeve of Westminster township, "the whole thing is run now Wardville is without police protection, and a man cannot be appointed until December."

"That state of affairs is all wrong as far as I am concerned," he said, "I would like to see a commission, composed of Crown Attorney, Albert Judd, the warden of the county and the chairman of the jail committee. These three men could look after our county police force and keep things in line. I'm strong for a commission, and you can tell the people I said so," concluded Mr. Boler.

REGISTER FOR STUDY.
Mr. Macdonald, 754 William street, an active member of Adelaide street Baptist church has registered for study at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Ill., where she will prepare for definite Christian work.

Vandal Smashes Stones Jewish Cemetery Graves

Someone who bears the Jewish people a malice, or else a fanatic, is wrecking the headstones in the Jewish cemetery, just west of the city limits on Oxford street.

Investigation by High Constable Wharton shows someone has been breaking the headstones on a number of the graves at the cemetery, with what believed to be a sledge hammer. It is stated by the constable that there are more than a dozen broken. He can find no other reason for the depredations other than it may be the work is either malicious or that of a fanatic. A boy, in his opinion, could not commit the crime in the way it has been done. In

ATOMIC ENERGY CONTROL NEAR, PROFESSOR SAYS

University of Sheffield Savant Furthers "Death Ray" Experiments.

Following is the list of closing dates of mails for Great Britain: Monday, Oct. 6—10 p.m.—Letters and registered matter via steamship Aquitania from New York Oct. 3.

Tuesday, Oct. 7—3 p.m.—Letters and newspapers via steamship Empress of France from Quebec Oct. 8.

Thursday, Oct. 9—10 a.m.—Letters and registered matter, 3 p.m. parcel post and newspapers via steamship Montclair from Montreal Oct. 10.

Friday, Oct. 10—10 a.m. letters and newspapers via steamship Astoria from Montreal Oct. 11 and 3 p.m. parcel post via steamship Regina from Montreal Oct. 11.

British Mails TELLS OF CAUTION

Famous Scientist Doubts Success Possible in Present Age.

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 6.—Discussion of the subject of the "death ray" has broken out anew with the declaration by Professor T. F. Wall, of the electrical research department of the University of Sheffield, that he believes he will be able soon to break up the atom and control its energy.

In a work of such importance, Professor Wall explains, one has to proceed with the greatest caution, and progress is necessarily slow. If the experiments he is now trying result in the release of atomic energy, the question of the possibility of directing such energy in any desired way would become of supreme importance, he added.

Professor Wall has been employed in his researches for the last four months. They originated out of an investigation into the death ray and its possibilities, which he carried out earlier in the year. His work has been exacting, exciting and dangerous.

Professor A. M. Low, a famous scientist, commenting on the attempt to release atomic energy, said: "It is a thing that is not impossible, but it strikes me as being not a little way in advance of human knowledge as it stands at present."

IMPROVED SERVICE TO PORT ARTHUR VIA CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS.

Effective Sept. 28 last, the Canadian National Railways inaugurated much improved service between Toronto and Port Arthur.

Instead of tri-weekly passenger service between Longlac and Port Arthur, service is now daily, except Monday westbound, and daily except Tuesday eastbound.

Passengers may leave Toronto on train No. 2, "The National," at 10:45 p.m., daily except Sunday, arriving Port Arthur 6:50 a.m., daily except Tuesday.

Returning, train leaves Port Arthur at 11:15 a.m., daily except Sunday, arriving Toronto 7:20 a.m., daily except Tuesday.

In addition to this improved schedule, the sleeping car operating formerly between Longlac and Port Arthur, service is now daily, except Monday westbound and Tuesday eastbound, leaving Port Arthur at 7:30 p.m., and arriving Longlac eastbound 10:15 a.m. for a month since the summer vacation very little contact has been reported in the city.

A few cases of diphtheria, scarlet fever, mumps and chickenpox have been reported, and adults have been affected almost as much as children.

SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE IN HEALTHY CONDITION

Health conditions among pupils of London schools are reported to be good by Dr. Downham, medical officer of health. Though schools have been open for a month since the summer vacation very little contagion has been reported in the city.

A few cases of diphtheria, scarlet fever, mumps and chickenpox have been reported, and adults have been affected almost as much as children.

RECEIVE INVITATIONS.

Invitations have been received here at the local representation of the American public health association convention in Detroit during the week of October 20. The board of health at its monthly session next Monday will name representatives.

MEASURE LAW IS BEING BROKEN

Inspector Warns Market Vendors Must Abide by Government Ruling.

Following complaints that no uniformity was being made in regard to the use of measures on the local market, district inspector of weights and measures, A. L. Lunt, has a visit to the square on Saturday.

Inspector Lunt's visit being unknown to the general public, many offenders were found using the fluid measure for solids and vice versa.

"This practice must stop," said the inspector this morning, "but we don't want to take any action until we convey to the innocent offenders that they are in the wrong."

Mr. Lunt will make further inspections of the square in the near future.

Pointing out the difference between the dry and fluid measure, Inspector Lunt states that the cubical contents of each are exactly the same, but the dry measure is capable of containing about five per cent more dry material. They are slightly different in height, the other and of a wider diameter.

Mr. Lunt stated that oyster and ice cream containers were not holding the correct measure.

"The law must be obeyed and we have heard of several dealers who are eluding it and we intend to take action on the offenders," he concluded.

City Churches

REDEEMER GUILD.
The Women's Guild of the Church of Redeemer held the regular monthly meeting, Sunday, Oct. 5, at 2 p.m. in the church. Arrangements were made for a rummage sale, which will be held Thursday, Oct. 9.

Plans were made for the annual bazaar on Nov. 27, and the following conveners were appointed: Home cooking, Mrs. Ferguson, candy, Mrs. E. Oshro, sewing, Mrs. J. C. Wade and Mrs. E. Aiken; general conveners, Mrs. B. Kennedy.

ANNIVERSARY AT ST. ANDREW'S.
St. Andrew's Presbyterian church will hold anniversary services on Sunday, October 19, when Dr. Clarence McKinnon, moderator of the general assembly will be the speaker. Next Sunday, Dr. J. A. Cormie, superintendent of missions in Manitoba, will preach at the morning service, showing the effect of government sale in that province. Dr. Cormie will also address the Sunday school of the church at 10 o'clock. His subject being "Facts About the Liquor Situation in Manitoba."

CRONIN MEMORIAL BROTHERS.
The Mother's Union of the Cronin Memorial church will meet at the home of Mrs. Ellison on Tuesday afternoon to make arrangements for a rummage sale to be held on Friday night.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FEDERATION.
The Young People's Federation of St. Andrew's church opened the season last night with a large gathering, following the Sunday school service. St. Andrew's, first vice-chairman, presided. About 60 young people were present.

According to the plan of this year's working program, the division into three parts, devotional, discursive, and the friendly hour. During the devotional period, which was in charge of the St. Andrew's club, Miss Madeline Roddick, Miss Audrey Webster, Miss Dorothy Silverwood, and Miss Alice Dargh gave brief addresses. The singing of hymns, following this discussion on "Jesus and the Present Day World" was led by Stanley Gennell and Gerald Howard. During the friendly hour, Rev. Dr. C. MacGregor gave a brief address of welcome to the young people and Miss Argo contributed a voice solo. The service was closed with a prayer by Rev. Dr. C. MacGregor.

TALBOT STREET M. C.
At the annual meeting of the Mission Circle of Talbot street Baptist church, held in the schoolroom of the church on Friday, it was reported that the sum of $842.50 had been raised by the church for missions during the year beginning on October 1, 1923 and ending September 3, 1924.

After the annual reports had been presented, the election of officers for the coming year was held resulting as follows: Honorary presidents, Mrs. E. Griffith and Mrs. Bowley Greene; president, Mrs. Arthur Greenwood; first vice-president, Mrs. John Douglass; second vice-president, Mrs. H. McDermid; third vice-president, Mrs. L. J. Peel; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. G. McCormick; Affleck; foreign missionary treasurer, Mrs. Menhennick; home missionary treasurer, Miss C. M. Jeffrey; Laura Allryn, fund-raising secretary; Mrs. Frank Wilson; agent for the link, Mrs. Tye; agent for the visitor, Mrs. R. G. Wilson; associated M. E. leader, Miss Etha Lamb; Little Leaf Mission Band leader, Mrs. P. Schott; pianist, Mrs. W. Chalcraft; assistant pianist, Mrs. N. Glenn.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.
After a recent rehearsal of the last festival choir, the annual election of officers took place. Col. E. G. Shannon was made chairman and the following officers elected: President, W. G. McCormick; first vice-president, W. M. Spencer; president, A. H. Aitken; first vice-president, Mrs. H. Chown; second vice-president, Mrs. Allan Barr; treasurer, Mrs. G. C. McCormick; secretary, Miss Marie Hornby; social convener, Mrs. J. Collier; entertainment convener, Miss Carrie Fitchett; press reporter, Mrs. Beatrice Clarke.

After the election of officers the members were the guests of the social committee at a delightful luncheon. Plans were discussed for the season's work, and the members are anticipating a busy year under the leadership of George Carrie.

SEVENTEEN NAMES ADDED.

County Judge Talbot Macbeth, who presided at the courts of revision in Glencoe and Ekfrid last week, reports that 17 names were added to the voters' list at Glencoe and 35 names were added to Ekfrid township at the village of Appin.

DOESN'T MIND BEING ROBBED, PAT RILEY TELLS GRAYDON

Appears For Fifteenth Time This Year To Answer Drunk Charge.

FOUND IN GUTTER

Keeping Money in Circulation Is Important Thing, He Philosophizes.

As long as his money is kept in circulation, Pat Riley doesn't mind being robbed. He rather fancies it, in fact, for it relieves him of the necessity of having to spend it himself.

That's what Pat told Magistrate Graydon in police court. He appeared in the prisoner's box this morning for the fifteenth time this year to answer a charge of having been intoxicated.

And while in a disgustingly drunk condition, he was robbed of $42 by a friend, explained Chief Birrell.

"Every time you get drunk your money is stolen from you," said the court. "You must have lost more than $300 in this way."

"Well, I don't care so long as my money keeps going round," returned Pat. "The fellow who robs me keeps my money in circulation, and I haven't got any kick coming. That's the sort of thing that makes the country prosperous."

"Why shouldn't I get robbed if I don't mind it?" Pat added, melodramatically.

Being Pat's fifteenth appearance this year, the court decided to remand Riley a day and warned him that he might be forced to spend the winter months in a reformatory.

"That will be a dirty trick," Pat mumbled, "because then I won't be doing any good to nobody. If you let me go I can work for a living. The government don't want to keep me in prison, do they?"

The magistrate, however, had told Pat on his fourteenth appearance that he was to remain in custody until he was sober again. He would go to the reformatory.

The prisoner was found by a constable lying in the gutter. He had been attacked by one of his friends while he was drunk. Chief Birrell says he knows who the thief is.

"I don't know," Pat said. "I didn't know anybody at the time." Was Pat's parting remark as an officer escorted him to the cells.

DEAN TUCKER HEADS ANGLICAN CLERGY

Association Reorganized For Year at Enthusiastic Meeting This Morning.

The Anglican Clerical Association was reorganized for the ensuing year at an enthusiastic meeting held this morning at Crayon Hall. There was a full attendance of the Anglican clergy of the city to the number of over twenty.

Rev. W. L. Ambridge, rural dean, rector of St. James' church, South London, announced that the rural deanery of East London, which was held in St. James' church on Monday and Tuesday, October 20 and 21.

Very Rev. Dean N. L. Tucker made a full and satisfactory report on the work of the association during the past year. The report was accepted and the committee complimented upon its good work.

At the close of the meeting, the following officers were elected: president, Very Rev. Dean Norman L. Tucker, rector of St. Paul's cathedral; vice-president, Rev. Canon C. R. Gunne, rector of St. George's church; secretary, Rev. Horace E. Bray.

A program committee, consisting of Dean Tucker, rector of St. George's church, and Prof. Frank Anderson of Huron College was appointed to prepare a program for the ensuing month and distribute it as soon as possible.

SARNIA MASONS TO FETE LONDON COMPANIONS

Grand Superintendent of District Will Visit Lodge October 10.

The regular meeting of Wawanosh Chapter, No. 15, Sarnia, Royal Arch Masons, on Oct. 10, will be the date of the official visit of the grand superintendent of the grand superintendence of the National Council of the Right Excellent Companion Henry Clifton Lives.

Right Excellent Companion Edwin Smith, grand third principal of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Canada, will be the principal speaker at the meeting.

The party will leave London at 5:50 p.m. via C. N. R., in a special car, and will include Excellent Companion Edgley Webb and McRoy, the Excellent Council of St. John's Chapter and many other companions of the London district.

The Sarnia brethren have made arrangements to entertain the companions from London most royally, and will meet them with cars at the tunnel depot, and escort them downtown.

FOURSONE FINALS WILL BE PLAYED SATURDAY

The semi-finals of the two-ball foursome at the Thames Valley golf course were played off Saturday afternoon. W. Evans and J. Evans defeated D. Collier and J. Collier one up. Alex. Watson and J. Gemmel scored an impressive victory over J. H. Cameron and B. S. Scott, 7 up and 6 to play.

The finals will be played next Saturday afternoon. The match will consist of 27 holes match play.

BOUNDARY LAW COMING TO DAIL

Irish Senate Will Be Asked to Pass Measure Now Before British Lords.

Associated Press Despatch.
Dublin, Oct. 6.—The Daily Eireann, which meets Oct. 21, will be asked to pass a measure identical with that now before the British House of Lords, providing for the constitution of an Irish boundary commission without the participation of which Ulster has refused to give.

The Free State government expects that the bill's passage through the Irish senate will be speedy, and that there will be no serious opposition, though the Labor party leaders may make some speeches against it along the lines of those delivered before the daily adjournment.

Resentment is expressed here over declarations attributed to W. P. Crawford Greene, Conservative member of the Imperial parliament for Worcester, in a speech at Enniskillen. Addressing the British House of Commons as saying: "If they use force to you, I say strike, and I will add to that by saying, 'He who hits first hits best.'"

The Irish Times devotes a leading article to deprecating this utterance and states that a remonstrance will be addressed by President at the administration to the British premier or the speaker of the House of Commons.

SHUNS SMOKES, DRINK, LIVES TO 104 YEARS

John Stedwell, Grey County's Oldest Resident, Dies This Morning.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Owen Sound, Oct. 4.—John Stedwell, recognized as Grey county's oldest resident, died this morning at his home at Markdale at the age of one hundred and four and a half years. Had he lived till next February 7 he would have been 105 years of age.

Born in Devonshire, England, he came to Canada and settled on a farm east of Markdale, 76 years ago. He has lived in the village for the past 25 years. He enjoyed good health up to two months ago, and attributed his longevity to the fact that he never used tobacco in any form and was also a total abstainer.

His exact age was established a short time ago by communication with the church at his old home in England.

Wembley Fair Loses $5,000,000

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 6.—With reference to the reports of enormous loss incurred through the exhibition at Wembley, a high official of the exhibition expresses the opinion that the excess of expenditure over receipts, so far as can be estimated at the present time, will not amount to more than $5,000,000. This official says the call on the guarantors of the exhibition, which was held in June, 1923, was the statement made by W. D. Bailey, independent Labor M. P. for Winnipeg, at a temperance rally held in the Presbyterian church this afternoon. He urged the people to uphold the temperance act of Ontario. He declared that there was no difference between the Labor and government sale at their convention held in London a few weeks ago, and claimed that the brewery workers were responsible for the passing of the resolution. "Labor is not on the side of the wets," he stated.

LABOR BODY ATTACKED FOR STAND ON LIQUOR

Winnipeg Labor Member Makes Charge at Meeting in Petrolia.

Special To The Advertiser.
Petrolia, Oct. 5.—That bootlegging has increased threefold in Manitoba, despite reports to the contrary, since the passing of government sale in June, 1923, was the statement made by W. D. Bailey, independent Labor M. P. for Winnipeg, at a temperance rally held in the Presbyterian church this afternoon. He urged the people to uphold the temperance act of Ontario. He declared that there was no difference between the Labor and government sale at their convention held in London a few weeks ago, and claimed that the brewery workers were responsible for the passing of the resolution. "Labor is not on the side of the wets," he stated.

"HIGH COST OF BASEBALL" MAY BE SAD FAN'S BOOK

"The high cost of baseball" is the title of a little book that a well-known St. Thomas baseball fan is thinking of writing.

The well-known roster for this season's team, "The Tomcats," journeyed to London recently and proceeded to lose a large bunch of cash to a trio of Galt fans. He paid his bets and journeyed sadly home.

His trip to London was made at 45 miles an hour and as luck happened a speed cop was on the job.

This morning he appeared before County Magistrate H. W. Shaw and was fined $10 and costs.

"It was an expensive game," he told the magistrate, who is also an ardent fan.

"It was for me, too," sympathized the court.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Shipley spent Sunday with friends at Coyne's Corners. The tobacco growers around here have about completed harvesting their crops.

Lizard Family Is Very Large.

Lizards are the most flourishing group of living reptiles. There are about two thousand different species of them, ranging in size from fearsome-looking creatures seven feet long to minute inhabitants of underground caves.

GIRL GUIDES HOLD CHURCH PARADE

Rev. Quintin Warner Scores Blasé Spirit of Young People of Today.

The Girl Guides of the city turned out in large numbers for the annual church parade yesterday. Occupying the south transept of the Cronyn Memorial Church, they presented a trim appearance in their blue and white uniforms. Mrs. C. H. Hill, local commissioner, was in charge, while Miss Helen d'Avignon, the staff captain, and other local officers were in attendance.

"The whole social order, bar no part of it, is in the keeping of the women," declared Rev. Quintin Warner, rector of the church, preaching to the guides at the morning service. "The power they exercise can determine the good or ill of the community."

Referring to the recent attitude of the synd in barring women from that body, he said: "The right attitude for men to take in assemblies and synods is that they must not stand on women more than their share of the work. It is not a question of equality. If men will do well in their evolution, but if the time should come when men will fall in the handling of temporal things of the church, then they may ask the help of women, and when that time comes women will be ready. But until it does come, let us not make their burdens heavier."

The preacher paid high tribute to the guide movement. Taking the letters G U I D E, he gave a little sermon on them: G for Goodness and suggested God; U meant usefulness; I stood for Individuality; D for Duty, and E for Enthusiasm. "One of the worst things about the young life today," he said, "is the blasé spirit, the silly, disgusting pose of the overeducated young people of the time."

"Given a sense of goodness, usefulness, individuality, dutifulness and enthusiasm, our daughters may grow up as the corner stones of a temple in which it shall please God to dwell." The speaker paid an eloquent tribute to the work of Mrs. Hill, retiring commissioner.

TRAFALGAR CHAPTER. Mrs. G. Hutchinson, Florence street, is lending her home for a meeting of the Trafalgar Chapter, L. O. E., on Tuesday afternoon. The chapter was recently divided into three teams, the reds, whites and blues, for the purpose of a money-raising contest. The chapter has still something to pay on its $2,500 endowment for a room in the War Memorial Hospital for sick children. Mrs. Anscombe, the convener, recently arranged a New Kind of Girdle Reduces Waist and Hips —almost while you wait!

The instant you put on this new girdle — worn in place of your ordinary corset — the bulky fat on waist and hips seems to vanish, the waistline lengthens and your body becomes erect and graceful, youthfully slender! And — then with every step, with every breath, with every little motion it gently massages away the useless disfiguring fat and you look and feel many years younger!

Lose Weight Every Day—And Look Well While Doing It!

Now women can have the youthful, boyish-looking figure that present day fashions call for, without worrying about a clumsy waistline and bulging hips. For this new kind of girdle not merely instantly represses the useless fat, making your figure appear wonderfully slender, youthful and attractive—but it actually burns about the fat, enabling you to lose weight every day, without any effort at all on your part!

And you need not make a single change in your present mode of living to secure these amazing results.

Produces Same Results As An Expert Masseuse

The Madame X Reducing Girdle is built upon scientific massage principles. It is made of the most resilient steam-cured Para rubber, especially designed for reducing purposes and is worn over the undergarment. It is so constructed that it touches and gently massages every portion of the surface continually. The constant massage causes a more vigorous circulation of the blood, not only through the parts, but throughout the entire body. Particularly around the abdomen and hips this gentle massage is so effective that it often brings about a remarkable reduction in weight in the first few days.

Look Slender While Getting Slender

Improve your appearance instantly—work for you constantly every second of the day to reduce your excess fat.

Open Front Insures Perfect Comfort While You Sit, Work or Play. And the Special Lacing Makes the Girdle Easy to Adjust as You Become More Slender.

Madame X Reducing Girdle
Makes You Look Thin While Getting Thin.
(Patent Applied for)

Girdle, $11.50.

Brassiere, $6.50.

ASK TO SEE THEM, AND ALSO THE REDUCING BRASSIERE

Now on sale in London by

Gray's Limited

R. J. Young & Co., Ltd.

Y. P. S. CONDUCTS CHURCH SERVICE

Rev. W. R. McIntosh Advocates Freedom for Young People of the Church.

The young people of the King street Presbyterian church conducted the evening service at that church yesterday.

"There will never be a great civilization without complete freedom of the individual, but freedom ordered and controlled by the individual," declared Rev. W. R. McIntosh in his sermon to the young people. The speaker advocated that young people should be allowed freedom, as only through the exercise of their freedom could their character develop.

Rev. Mr. McIntosh showed how immeasurably greater in many ways was the freedom of the youth in this country when compared with that of the youth of their civilization of England and France.

This freedom, however, brought its own perils and temptations, which can only be avoided by the exercise of a growing consciousness of the power of self-control within.

"Fashion, positively a tyrannical force in the lives of men and women of our time, has aspects that make for courtesy, chivalry and delicacy," he said, "and yet it has other aspects, too, irresistible to the young people, the appearance of wrong is produced, but which is, in fact, only an affection."

But Fashion's Whim. In the opinion of Rev. Mr. McIntosh, smoking among girls was a blind following of fashion and not the real enjoyment of a wasteful habit. Care should be used to avoid the danger of following such extremes, in which the strict following of fashion always lead.

"Fun and pleasure, the open-air games of the soul of man, are indisputably good for people," he said.

College students were more than justified in having their hours of pleasure, but they should at the same time be being put, and apply themselves diligently. Too many had as their aim in life to avoid time, which freedom was ever modified by the self-control and consideration for the needs of society. Youth has a right to its freedom, he said, but at the same time a duty to society which should direct all its actions.

WEDDINGS
CORNISH—TOMKINS. A quiet wedding took place at the Adelaide street Baptist parsonage on Saturday, when Miss Winifred Tomkins was united in marriage to Mr. H. Cornish, both of this city. The Rev. Floyd Holland performed the ceremony. The bride, who was gowned in navy canton crepe with hat to match, was escorted by Miss Pearl Smith, who also wore navy canton crepe. Both carried bouquets. Mr. E. Tomkins acted as best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Cornish and Cornish, who were spending their honeymoon in the United States.

WILLIAMS—LOWE. A very quiet and pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilson, 216 Richmond street, at 6 p.m. Saturday, when Kathleen Lowe was united in marriage to William J. Williams, both of this city. Rev. Mr. A. G. Doner of the Christian missionary alliance, officiated.

The bride entered the drawing-room leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Henry Lowe, and looked very pretty in a white gown of crepe, carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. She was attended by Miss Evelyn Hulbert, while Charles Nobles acted as best man.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of snow berries and asters, flowers and ferns decorating the rooms. After congratulations the company adjourned to the dining-room, where a wedding dinner was served. The tables were prettily decorated with roses and asters.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will be at home to their friends after Nov. 1 at 974 Princess avenue.

BROUGHTON—DUCKWORTH. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Duckworth, Adelaide street south, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Saturday at 2:30 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Effie Duckworth, became the bride of Gordon Howard Broughton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Broughton, Piccadilly street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Floyd Holland of the Adelaide street Baptist church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white georgette, with ribbon trimmings. She wore the conventional veil of tulle arranged over a coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Miss Ada Duckworth, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid wore a modish gown of honeydew crystal crepe, with trimmings of ermine and brilliants. Mr. Kenneth Cooke acted as best man. Little Miss Marion Sweeney made a lovely flower girl in a pale green French frock. She carried a basket of roses and valley lilies. During the signing of the register Mrs. Jack Duckworth of Sarnia sang sweetly "Because," while the wedding music was played by Miss Helen Crothers.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. Only the immediate relatives were present, owing to a recent bereavement in the bridegroom's family.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Broughton left to spend their honeymoon in Buffalo, Cleveland and at other points, the bride travelling in a smart gown of midnight blue satin faced crepe, with wrap of black marvell, trimmed with sable and small black hat. Mr. and Mrs. Broughton will reside on the Pipe Line road.

CHARLTON—MARTIN. A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. George's Anglican church, London township, on Saturday morning, Oct. 4, at 10:30 o'clock, when Carrie Marguerite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

MISS LILLIAN MOSS of this city, secretary of the Dominion Y. P. S. Council, who will attend the annual sessions of that body in Kingston on Oct. 15, 17 and 18.

"U" STUDENTS HOLD SUNDAY CONFERENCE

Dr. Sharman, Distinguished Bible Student of Toronto, Visits London.

It was a most successful and inspirational conference held by the Students' Christian Movement, University of Western Ontario, at the Y. W. C. A. residence, King street, yesterday. Dr. Sharman of Toronto, distinguished Bible student, was the special guest of the occasion, conferring with the London leaders in reference to their work for the coming term. At the morning session he gave a most enlightening talk, the keynote of which was "God might be revealed through us."

Christ was always young, but he led and taught a life for man in which freedom was ever modified by the self-control and consideration for the needs of society. Youth has a right to its freedom, he said, but at the same time a duty to society which should direct all its actions.

The conference, which opened in the morning at 9:30 with a devotional period, led by Miss Eunice Moorehouse, continued throughout the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon the session took the form of a hike, followed by a Bible study period at the Y. W. C. A., led by Dr. Sharman. The sessions throughout were quite informal, being conducted in the Y. W. C. A. clubroom before a glowing grate fire.

Following the evening session, which included a merry sing-song, the group leaders repaired to the home of Miss Louise Garbutt, president of the Students' Christian Movement here, where they discussed plans for the coming year with Dr. Sharman. On Saturday night, Miss Isabel Griffiths entertained several of the leaders at her home, when Dr. Sharman was the guest of honor.

CLUB NEWS
WELLS ACADEMY PICNIC. The first social event of Wells Academy, London's new school of business, was held Friday night last. The students and staff journeyed in trucks and cars from the academy to Sage's farm.

The large group of 70 odd hiked across the flats to the river beach. A large fire had been prepared there, and around it the program was given, consisting of the academy yell, and sing-song of popular songs.

The group games were heartily entered into by teachers and pupils alike. All students took part, some contributing songs, others poetry, speeches, stories, and one student contributing very picturesque gypsy fireside dances. An arranged trio contributed whistling solos.

GOLDEN LINK CLUB. The Golden Link club met for the first time this autumn at the home of Mrs. C. H. Brown, Regent street.

The chief feature of the meeting was the election of officers, Mrs. L. Kindree being re-elected president and Mrs. E. Shildrick secretary. The members remembered the birthdays of Mrs. J. Steel and Mrs. C. Perrin, and both were pleasantly surprised when they were presented with handsome hand-made buffet sets.

The address was read by Mrs. J. Gray and the presentation made by Mrs. R. Brown. At the close of the business part of the meeting the time was spent in progressive euchre.

Mrs. S. S. Steel carried off the first prize for high score and Mrs. J. Steel the second prize. Mrs. C. Perrin was awarded the consolation prize. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. Steel and Mrs. A. Bennit.

Thomas H. Martin, Lobo township, became the bride of Clarence Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Charlton, also of Lobo township. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Arthur Shore, of Linton.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore her traveling suit of navy blue prettily trimmed with black velvet hat, and a mink collar. Her bouquet was a shower of roses and valley lilies. Miss Elva Matthews of London presided at the organ. During the signing of the register, Mr. Clarence Teifer sang "All Joy Be Thine."

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton left for Toronto and Montreal. On their return they will make their home in Linton.

ENGAGEMENTS
A charge of 75 cents for one insertion, or $1 for two insertions, is made for notices under this heading. Orders for insertion of engagement notices must bear the name and address of sender, and will not be taken over the telephone.

THE SEA HAWK

By RAFAEL SABATINI.

CHAPTER XVII (continued)

For a moment his glance was held by a lovely black-haired Spanish girl, who sat with her locked hands held fast between her knees, in an attitude of intense despair and suffering—the glory of her eyes increased and magnified by the dark brown stains of sleeplessness surrounding them. Leaning on Tsamanni's arm, he stood considering her for a little while, then his glance traveled on. Suddenly he tightened his grasp of Tsamanni's arm, and a quick interest leaped into his sallow face.

On the uppermost tier of the pen that he was facing sat a very young womanhood, such a woman as he had heard tell existed but the like of which he had never yet beheld. She was tall and graceful as a cypress tree; her skin was white as milk, her eyes two darkest sapphires, her head of a coppery golden that seemed to glow like metal as she looked in a close gown of white, the bodice cut low and revealing the immaculate loveliness of her neck.

"What pearl is this that hath been cast upon this dung-heap?" he asked.

"She is the woman our lord Sak-el-Bahr carried off from England," he said. "Slowly the Basha's eyes returned to consider her, and insensibly though she had deemed herself by now, he saw her cheeks slowly reddened under the cold insult of his steady, insistent glance. The glow heightened her beauty, effacing the weariness which the face had worn."

"Bring her forth," said the Basha shortly. She was seized by two of the negroes, and to avoid being roughly handled by them she came at once bracing herself to bear with dignity whatever might await her. A golden-haired young man beside her, his face haggard and stubbled with a beard of some growth, looked up in alarm as she was taken from his side.

Then, with a groan, he made as if to clutch her, but a red fell upon his raised arms and beat them down. Asad was thoughtful. It was Fenzileh who had hidden him come look at the infidel maid whom Sak-el-Bahr had risked so much to snatch from England, suggesting that in her he would behold some proof of the bad faith which she was forever urging against the corsair leader. Out of curiosity he obeyed her prompting. But that and all else were forgotten now in the contemplation of this noble ensample of northern womanhood, statuesque almost in her terrible restraint.

He put forth a hand to touch her arm, and she drew it back as if his fingers were of fire.

"How inscrutable are the ways of Allah, that he should suffer so luscious a fruit to hand from the foul tree of infidelity!"

Tsamanni, watching craftily, a master-sycophant profoundly learned in the art of playing upon his master's moods, made answer: "Even so perchance that a Faithful of the Prophet's House may pluck it. Verily all things are possible to the One!"

"He is it not set down in the Book to be Read that the daughters of the infidel are not for True-Believers?"

But Tsamanni, knowing full well how the Basha would like to be answered, trimmed his reply to that desire.

"Allah is great, and what hath befallen once may well befall again, my lord."

Asad's kindling eyes flashed a glance at his wazir.

"Thou meanest Fenzileh. But then, by the mercy of Allah, I was lightened!"

"It may well be written that thou shalt be the same again, my lord," murmured the insidious Tsamanni.

There was more stirring in his mind than the mere desire to play the courier now. Twice Fenzileh and himself there had long been a feud begotten of the jealousy which each inspired the other where Asad was concerned. Were Fenzileh removed the wazir's influence must grow and spread to his own profit. It was a thing of which he had often dreamed, but a dream he feared that was never like to be realized, for Asad was ageing, and the fires that had burned so fiercely in his earlier years seemed now to have consumed in him all thought of women. Yet here was one as by a miracle, of a beauty so amazing and so diverse from any that ever yet had feasted the Basha's sight, that plainly she had acted as a charm upon his senses.

"She is white as the snows upon the Atlas, luscious as the dates of Tafilah," he murmured fondly, his gleaming eyes considering her what time she stood immovable before him.

Suddenly he looked about him, and wheeled upon Tsamanni, his manner swiftly becoming charged with anger.

"Her face has been bared to a thousand eyes and more," he cried. "Even that has been so before," replied Tsamanni.

And then quite suddenly at their elbow a voice that was naturally soft and musical of accent but now rendered by Asad, she had been borne thither. Beside the litter stood her wazir Ayoub-el-Samin.

Asad scowled down upon her, for he had not yet recovered from the resentment she and Marzak had provoked in him. Moreover, that in private she should be looking in the respect which was his due was evil enough, though he had tolerated it. But that she should make so bold as to thrust in and question him in this peremptory fashion before all the world was more than his dignity could suffer.

Never yet had she dared so much, nor would she have dared it now but that her sudden anxiety had effaced all caution from her mind. Her hold upon Asad was growing tenuous. To snap it utterly by no more was necessary than that the who of late years had scarce bestowed a thought or glance upon a woman should be taken with the fancy to bring some new recruit to his harem.

Hence her desperate, reckless side. Then, with a groan, he made as if to clutch her, but a red fell upon his raised arms and beat them down. Asad was thoughtful. It was Fenzileh who had hidden him come look at the infidel maid whom Sak-el-Bahr had risked so much to snatch from England, suggesting that in her he would behold some proof of the bad faith which she was forever urging against the corsair leader. Out of curiosity he obeyed her prompting. But that and all else were forgotten now in the contemplation of this noble ensample of northern womanhood, statuesque almost in her terrible restraint.

He put forth a hand to touch her arm, and she drew it back as if his fingers were of fire.

"How inscrutable are the ways of Allah, that he should suffer so luscious a fruit to hand from the foul tree of infidelity!"

Tsamanni, watching craftily, a master-sycophant profoundly learned in the art of playing upon his master's moods, made answer: "Even so perchance that a Faithful of the Prophet's House may pluck it. Verily all things are possible to the One!"

"He is it not set down in the Book to be Read that the daughters of the infidel are not for True-Believers?"

But Tsamanni, knowing full well how the Basha would like to be answered, trimmed his reply to that desire.

"Allah is great, and what hath befallen once may well befall again, my lord."

Asad's kindling eyes flashed a glance at his wazir.

"Thou meanest Fenzileh. But then, by the mercy of Allah, I was lightened!"

"It may well be written that thou shalt be the same again, my lord," murmured the insidious Tsamanni.

There was more stirring in his mind than the mere desire to play the courier now. Twice Fenzileh and himself there had long been a feud begotten of the jealousy which each inspired the other where Asad was concerned. Were Fenzileh removed the wazir's influence must grow and spread to his own profit. It was a thing of which he had often dreamed, but a dream he feared that was never like to be realized, for Asad was ageing, and the fires that had burned so fiercely in his earlier years seemed now to have consumed in him all thought of women. Yet here was one as by a miracle, of a beauty so amazing and so diverse from any that ever yet had feasted the Basha's sight, that plainly she had acted as a charm upon his senses.

"She is white as the snows upon the Atlas, luscious as the dates of Tafilah," he murmured fondly, his gleaming eyes considering her what time she stood immovable before him.

Suddenly he looked about him, and wheeled upon Tsamanni, his manner swiftly becoming charged with anger.

"Her face has been bared to a thousand eyes and more," he cried. "Even that has been so before," replied Tsamanni.

And then quite suddenly at their elbow a voice that was naturally soft and musical of accent but now rendered by Asad, she had been borne thither. Beside the litter stood her wazir Ayoub-el-Samin.

Asad scowled down upon her, for he had not yet recovered from the resentment she and Marzak had provoked in him. Moreover, that in private she should be looking in the respect which was his due was evil enough, though he had tolerated it. But that she should make so bold as to thrust in and question him in this peremptory fashion before all the world was more than his dignity could suffer.

Never yet had she dared so much, nor would she have dared it now but that her sudden anxiety had effaced all caution from her mind. Her hold upon Asad was growing tenuous. To snap it utterly by no more was necessary than that the who of late years had scarce bestowed a thought or glance upon a woman should be taken with the fancy to bring some new recruit to his harem.

Hence her desperate, reckless side. Then, with a groan, he made as if to clutch her, but a red fell upon his raised arms and beat them down. Asad was thoughtful. It was Fenzileh who had hidden him come look at the infidel maid whom Sak-el-Bahr had risked so much to snatch from England, suggesting that in her he would behold some proof of the bad faith which she was forever urging against the corsair leader. Out of curiosity he obeyed her prompting. But that and all else were forgotten now in the contemplation of this noble ensample of northern womanhood, statuesque almost in her terrible restraint.

He put forth a hand to touch her arm, and she drew it back as if his fingers were of fire.

"How inscrutable are the ways of Allah, that he should suffer so luscious a fruit to hand from the foul tree of infidelity!"

Tsamanni, watching craftily, a master-sycophant profoundly learned in the art of playing upon his master's moods, made answer: "Even so perchance that a Faithful of the Prophet's House may pluck it. Verily all things are possible to the One!"

World's Largest Model Ship.

The world's largest model ship is in the New Bedford whaling museum. It is a half-size model of the Lagoda, a whaling bark of old New England sailing days.

each inspired the other where Asad was concerned. Were Fenzileh removed the wazir's influence must grow and spread to his own profit. It was a thing of which he had often dreamed, but a dream he feared that was never like to be realized, for Asad was ageing, and the fires that had burned so fiercely in his earlier years seemed now to have consumed in him all thought of women. Yet here was one as by a miracle, of a beauty so amazing and so diverse from any that ever yet had feasted the Basha's sight, that plainly she had acted as a charm upon his senses.

"She is white as the snows upon the Atlas, luscious as the dates of Tafilah," he murmured fondly, his gleaming eyes considering her what time she stood immovable before him.

Suddenly he looked about him, and wheeled upon Tsamanni, his manner swiftly becoming charged with anger.

"Her face has been bared to a thousand eyes and more," he cried. "Even that has been so before," replied Tsamanni.

And then quite suddenly at their elbow a voice that was naturally soft and musical of accent but now rendered by Asad, she had been borne thither. Beside the litter stood her wazir Ayoub-el-Samin.

Asad scowled down upon her, for he had not yet recovered from the resentment she and Marzak had provoked in him. Moreover, that in private she should be looking in the respect which was his due was evil enough, though he had tolerated it. But that she should make so bold as to thrust in and question him in this peremptory fashion before all the world was more than his dignity could suffer.

Never yet had she dared so much, nor would she have dared it now but that her sudden anxiety had effaced all caution from her mind. Her hold upon Asad was growing tenuous. To snap it utterly by no more was necessary than that the who of late years had scarce bestowed a thought or glance upon a woman should be taken with the fancy to bring some new recruit to his harem.

Hence her desperate, reckless side. Then, with a groan, he made as if to clutch her, but a red fell upon his raised arms and beat them down. Asad was thoughtful. It was Fenzileh who had hidden him come look at the infidel maid whom Sak-el-Bahr had risked so much to snatch from England, suggesting that in her he would behold some proof of the bad faith which she was forever urging against the corsair leader. Out of curiosity he obeyed her prompting. But that and all else were forgotten now in the contemplation of this noble ensample of northern womanhood, statuesque almost in her terrible restraint.

He put forth a hand to touch her arm, and she drew it back as if his fingers were of fire.

"How inscrutable are the ways of Allah, that he should suffer so luscious a fruit to hand from the foul tree of infidelity!"

Tsamanni, watching craftily, a master-sycophant profoundly learned in the art of playing upon his master's moods, made answer: "Even so perchance that a Faithful of the Prophet's House may pluck it. Verily all things are possible to the One!"

"He is it not set down in the Book to be Read that the daughters of the infidel are not for True-Believers?"

But Tsamanni, knowing full well how the Basha would like to be answered, trimmed his reply to that desire.

"Allah is great, and what hath befallen once may well befall again, my lord."

Asad's kindling eyes flashed a glance at his wazir.

"Thou meanest Fenzileh. But then, by the mercy of Allah, I was lightened!"

"It may well be written that thou shalt be the same again, my lord," murmured the insidious Tsamanni.

There was more stirring in his mind than the mere desire to play the courier now. Twice Fenzileh and himself there had long been a feud begotten of the jealousy which each inspired the other where Asad was concerned. Were Fenzileh removed the wazir's influence must grow and spread to his own profit. It was a thing of which he had often dreamed, but a dream he feared that was never like to be realized, for Asad was ageing, and the fires that had burned so fiercely in his earlier years seemed now to have consumed in him all thought of women. Yet here was one as by a miracle, of a beauty so amazing and so diverse from any that ever yet had feasted the Basha's sight, that plainly she had acted as a charm upon his senses.

"She is white as the snows upon the Atlas, luscious as the dates of Tafilah," he murmured fondly, his gleaming eyes considering her what time she stood immovable before him.

Suddenly he looked about him, and wheeled upon Tsamanni, his manner swiftly becoming charged with anger.

"Her face has been bared to a thousand eyes and more," he cried. "Even that has been so before," replied Tsamanni.

And then quite suddenly at their elbow a voice that was naturally soft and musical of accent but now rendered by Asad, she had been borne thither. Beside the litter stood her wazir Ayoub-el-Samin.

Asad scowled down upon her, for he had not yet recovered from the resentment she and Marzak had provoked in him. Moreover, that in private she should be looking in the respect which was his due was evil enough, though he had tolerated it. But that she should make so bold as to thrust in and question him in this peremptory fashion before all the world was more than his dignity could suffer.

Never yet had she dared so much, nor would she have dared it now but that her sudden anxiety had effaced all caution from her mind. Her hold upon Asad was growing tenuous. To snap it utterly by no more was necessary than that the who of late years had scarce bestowed a thought or glance upon a woman should be taken with the fancy to bring some new recruit to his harem.

Hence her desperate, reckless courage to stand thus before

Elephant Is No Hurdler.

The best way to make yourself safe if you ever happen to be chased by an elephant is to place yourself on the other side of a six-foot ravine or gulley. An elephant cannot jump.

Shows How Three's a Crowd After Marriage, Also

Dorothy Dix

The Riddle of Dependent Parents

If Parents Who Live With Their Married Children Would Only Withdraw From the Family Circle Occasionally, They'd Be More Popular, for the Secret of Popularity Is Not to Let People Get Fed Up On Your Society.

The most unguessable riddle in the world is the dependent parents' problem. Good, kindly, right-thinking men and women want to do their duty not only to their own fathers and mothers, but to their wives' and husbands' fathers and mothers. They desire to cherish the old people and make their last days happy and comfortable, yet the presence of an in-law in a home almost invariably disturbs its harmony even when it does not precipitate civil warfare.

The art of living in other people's houses is an art too fine and subtle for old men and women to acquire, and it demands a diplomacy that they do not possess. They have been at the head of their own homes too long, and have been too much accustomed to running things to be able to step aside gracefully and keep their hands off of the affairs of others.

Moreover, they have the self-conceit of age which makes all old people believe themselves to be oracles, whose advice, suggestions and opinions should be blindly followed by the young. Also, to fathers and mothers, their sons and daughters are still small children even after they are fifty years old, and they feel under no obligation to treat them with any particular deference or politeness or show any appreciation of what their children do for them.

None of this pours oil on the troubled domestic waters. On the contrary, the fathers and mothers are so often the stormy petrels on the matrimonial sea that the Legal Aid Society asserts that the presence of an in-law in the home breaks up more homes than all other causes combined. Leaving out of the question the quarrelsome, meddlesome, jealous, catty, trouble-making in-laws, it is a fact that any third party in a household tends to break up its solidarity.

Speaking of this a few days ago, a man said to me:

"Do you know that in all the fifteen years that I have been married my wife and I have never had a single meal alone in our own house? We have never had a single evening in that solitude of two which we crave. We can never discuss any matter that pertains to ourselves until after we go to our room at night. There are a thousand little things that we would love to do if we could do them alone together, but which we never do because there is no fun in doing them with an outsider."

"Yet, to get a woman off to herself where she can be alone with her, to have the privacy of his own home, to be able to pat with the one woman, just the two of them, and no more, is what a man marries for."

"When we were married, my wife's mother came to live with us. She met us at the train after our honeymoon, and escorted us to our new home, where she had already established herself, and she has never let us out of her sight when she could help it from that day to this. I am not complaining. My wife was an only child and her mother was a widow, and it seemed the right and proper thing for her to live with us, but I never dreamed that she wouldn't have enough sense to realize that a husband and wife who love each other as we do would not sometimes like to be alone, and that she would not have tact enough occasionally to efface herself. But she doesn't."

"We can't get her to go off on a visit. We can't get her to take a walk by herself. We can't get her to go to the movies by herself. She won't even go to bed at night until we go. She tags us every step we take. She is an old woman of the sea always on our shoulders. She is our constant reminder that we cannot get an inch away from her. We have to tug her along when we go to the theatre. She occupies the back seat of the car every time we take a ride. We have to be chaperoned by her every time we go to a restaurant, and it takes all the zip and fun out of everything."

"And there is no remedy for the situation from our standpoint, because in taking care of her we are only doing the decent thing and paying back the debt of gratitude that my wife owes her for a wife as any man ever had. We want her to do everything we can to make things pleasant and comfortable for her, but there is no denying that we buy her happiness largely at the price of our own."

"I would be glad to establish her in a little home of her own, or to pay her board in a jolly little family hotel, but she would be perfectly miserable away from my wife. She is one of those mothers who live on their daughters and who have no interest on earth apart from them. She is the clinging-vine mother who smothers her child and saps its strength with the tendrils of her affection."

"Now, as I said before, I want my wife to take care of her mother, and I am willing that she should have her mother in our home, but it does seem to me that mother might make things a little easier for us."

"She might realize that we would like to be alone sometimes, that we would like to have our home to ourselves sometimes, and that she might cultivate a taste for travel or for winter resorts or summer resorts that would give us a holiday now and then. She might even have an occasional headache that would necessitate her staying in her room if she was a real sport. But she never does."

"The secret of popularity," I said, "is not to let people get fed up on your society."

"And that goes double for in-laws," he replied.

DOROTHY DIX.

Farmer Brown's Boy Grows Prize Melon, Delays Picking It

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

There was one corner of Farmer Brown's garden over which Farmer Brown's boy kept constant watch. He visited it every day. Sometimes he visited it two or three times a day. Guess what was growing there. A prize watermelon. Yes, sir, a prize watermelon. There were other watermelons, but this particular one was bigger and handsomer than any of the others. Farmer Brown's boy was sure that it was the biggest and handsomest watermelon anywhere around. He was sure it would take first prize when it was shown at the agricultural fair.

He had given the vine on which this melon grew the greatest care all through the summer. No other melons were allowed to grow on that particular vine, so that all the strength of the vine might go into making that melon big and handsome. Every time he looked at it Farmer Brown's boy's heart beat faster with pride. He visited the melon patches of his neighbors, but in none could he find a watermelon to compare with this one of his.

Most of the people of the Green Meadows and the Green Forest knew about that melon. You see, some of the little people keep a pretty sharp watch on the doings of Farmer Brown's boy. Of course they soon had discovered that he visited that particular corner of the garden every day and spent considerable time there. Sammy Jay had spied on him often, and had noticed the special care he was giving that particular melon. He had told others, and so the news had spread. Unknown to Farmer Brown's boy many sharp and curious eyes had watched him working in the melon patch.

Now that the melon was almost ready pick, Farmer Brown's boy was sure that it was the biggest and handsomest melon ever grown in that part of the country. It was the pride of his heart. "It can't help taking first prize," said he, as he stood looking at it one afternoon. "No, sir, it can't help taking first prize. I've never seen a more perfect melon." He stooped over and rapped it gently with his knuckles. "It is all ready to pick now. Tomorrow morning I will take it up to the house. My, won't some of the neighbors be surprised when they see this fellow! It is a whopper. Yes, sir; it is a whopper. I've given it a lot of care this summer, but it is worth all the time and attention I have given it. I've lain awake nights worrying for fear somebody would steal it. But, after tonight there will be nothing to worry about on that score."

Sammy Jay had spied on him often.

Just before dark Farmer Brown's boy again went down to the garden just to make sure that the big melon was safe. Of course nothing had happened to it. "I've a notion to take it up to the house now," said Farmer Brown's boy, talking to the melon. "However, I guess I won't. I will leave you here just one night more. My, but you are a prize beauty!"

(Copyright, 1924, by T. W. Burgess.)

The next story: "Why Farmer Brown's Boy's Melon Took No Prize."

PERSONALS

Mr. Samuel Stevely was a guest in Sarnia on Friday, Oct. 3.

Mrs. Hodge, Woodstock, is spending a few days in London.

Miss Isabel Langley of this city is visiting friends in Woodstock.

Mr. Arthur Nuttall of London was a visitor in Sarnia on Friday last.

Mr. F. Hamlin of London was a Wednesday visitor in Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Madden are visiting friends in Chicago and St. Louis.

Mr. William J. McGregor, Chatham, was a visitor in London last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fordyce motored here Thursday afternoon from Woodstock.

Mr. Ernest Lindsell and Mr. Harry Cowley, Woodstock, were Saturday visitors in London.

Mrs. Roy Dagneau and family of Chatham were guests with friends in London on Friday.

Fred Howell of the United Paper Mills, London, was a guest in Woodstock on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Coles of Woodstock attended the Jeanne Gordon recital here last week.

Mrs. Taylor has returned to her home on Edward street after having spent the summer in England.

Miss Bryden of London was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smithers of Woodstock on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith, Woodstock, were in London last week, attending the Jeanne Gordon recital.

Miss Lucy Cook, who has been spending the past week with her sister here, has returned to her home in Sarnia.

Mrs. J. J. Goodman has returned from St. Catharines to her home in London after attending the W. C. T. U. convention in that town.

Major and Mrs. Harcourt Webb and Mr. and Mrs. E. McCallum were among the week-end guests at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto.

Mrs. John Garvey, Elmwood avenue, entertained at a jolly birthday party on Saturday afternoon, given in honor of her small daughter, Miss Agnes Garvey.

Rev. R. J. Bowen of this city has returned from Watford, where he addressed the annual meeting of the Oxford branch of the Upper Canada Bible society.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Tait left on Sunday for Atlantic City, N. J. Mr. Tait is attending the American electric railway convention being held in that city next week.

Mrs. Coupland of London, wife of a former pastor of the Dover Methodist church, is visiting in Chatham at the home of Mrs. H. P. Montgomery, Selkirk street.

The many friends of Miss M. Hemsworth, who has been seriously ill at her home in Ridout street south, will be pleased to know that she is slightly improved.

Miss Margaret McCrimmon of Toronto, formerly of this city, paid a brief visit to London before going on to Stratford, where she spent the week-end as a guest of Miss Helen Gordon.

Mrs. Harvey Skey of Winnipeg and a former resident of London, who has been visiting Mrs. Jack Stewart in Oshawa, is to arrive in town tonight to be the guest of Mrs. W. C. Allan of South London.

Miss Katherine McTeer, recently appointed parish visitor at St. Paul's Cathedral, has taken up her residence in the deanery. Miss McTeer, with Miss Matthews, is conducting the St. Paul's Preparatory School.

Miss Nellie M. Laycock of London left last Thursday for Vancouver, where she will be associated with the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses. While in Victoria, Miss Laycock was the guest of Miss H. Rumball.

Mrs. Robert McKay and her small son, Robert Neil, of Ashcroft, B.C., who have been visiting the former parents, Col. and Mrs. D. McCrimmon, Oxford street, are leaving for their home in the west on Wednesday.

Mrs. (Judge) Dyre of Owen Sound has been a recent guest of her niece, Mrs. J. S. Rankin, and Captain Rankin of South London, before leaving for Toronto, accompanied by Mr. Rankin, who spent the week-end in Owen Sound.

Miss Barbara Dickinson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Dickinson, Central avenue, has left for the Pine River, Chatham, where she is to give gymnasium instruction. At the same time she will carry on her matriculation studies.

His Excellency Lord Byng of Vimy, governor-general of Canada, spent a few days a week ago at the Government House, Winnipeg, with the lieutenant-governor, Sir James Aikens, and his family.

Early in the week with Mr. George Galt to enjoy a few days' shooting at Mr. Galt's lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Sheldon apartments, Waterloo street, returned to the city on Saturday after spending the past few weeks abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller, besides visiting the former's old home in Scotland, spent some time in England and had the unique privilege of flying from London to Paris and back again.

Mrs. Frank Barrett of Elmwood avenue was the hostess of a charmingly arranged shower last week in honor of Miss Flora Minihinnick, whose marriage to Gordon Hill of Cleveland takes place this week.

Other hostesses entertaining for Miss Minihinnick were Miss Marie Partridge, Grand avenue, and Miss Laura Woolverton, Grand avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Robson of Mount Forest were recent guests with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robson of this city on their way to Ilberton to attend the wedding of Miss Carrie Martin to Mr. Clarence Charlton, which took place Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robson left with them today by motor to pay a brief visit at their home in Mount Forest.

Among those who motored from Woodstock to hear the Jeanne Gordon recital last week were: Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Kathleen Marshman, Miss Hazel Cocker, Mrs. A. W. Irving, Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. T. L. Hay, Miss Marion Miller, Miss Kathleen McGachie, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Ingersoll, and the Misses Millicent, Irene and Louise Huffman, Miss Jessie Inging.

Miss Marie Thomson and Mrs. Ben Parker and daughter Lily.

Princess Mary's second son, born Aug. 21 at Goldborough hall, Yorkshire, will be named Ulick David Lascelles. The child was christened at Goldborough on Sunday. King George and Queen Mary attended the ceremony. Princess Mary's first son was born on Feb. 7, 1922. The boys will bear no royal titles and will be classed as commoners, although they are children of a princess. Viscount Lascelles' title is one of courtesy and cannot be passed on to his heirs.

A number of St. Thomas music lovers journeyed to London to attend the Jeanne Gordon concert. Among those noticed at the concert were: Mrs. R. M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Carlie, Miss Lewis, Miss Love, Miss Foss, Mr. and Mrs. Laorne, Miss Combe, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. D. Ball, Mrs. Elliott, W. K. Elliott, Miss M. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. Green, Mrs. J. M. Green, Miss Louise Doherty, Miss Edna Marlett, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Fennell and Miss Baisden, also Mrs. Arnold and Miss McCue of Aylmer.

Miss Alice Merrett, assisted by her sister, Miss Rose and Miss Lillian Merrett, entertained recently in honor of Miss Margaret Patterson, an October bride. The evening was spent in music and games, after which the guests were invited to the dining-room where a dainty supper was served at an attractively decorated table. Gifts of cut glass for the bride were concealed most effectively in the decorations. Those present were the Misses Margaret Patterson, Adele Moller, Frances Brown, Edith Colquhoun, Mable Gidley, Gwyneth Gower and Velma Dale.

A marriage of interest to many Londoners has been arranged to take place on Nov. 10. The bride will be Miss Helen (Nellie) Mickle, daughter of Mrs. Saxon Weld of Dublin, Ireland, and the late John Mickle of this city. The bridegroom is Mr. E. B. Smith and Mr. J. Harley Brown of this city. Rev. R. W. Norwood, formerly rector of the Croydon Memorial Church, is to be the officiating minister at this quietly arranged marriage. The bride, who is a popular former Londoner, served with an overseas nursing unit during the war. Miss Mickle was a guest this summer with Mrs. J. I. A. Hunt of London.

The Highland Golf Club was the scene of a most enjoyable party on Saturday night, following the play for the Pringle cup. The hosts of the occasion were the successful men players. The evening was followed by an evening of dancing, the clubhouse being attractively decorated with autumn flowers. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gunn, Mrs. George Liddle, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Calder, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Macpherson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Vining, Kent Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. George McLachlan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Serepian, Mrs. Jasper Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turville, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Heiman, Miss Amy Bartram, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dawson, Glennie Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Kennedy, Miss Doris Massey, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hunt, Mrs. Malcolm Rowland, Dr. and Mrs. George M. Ross, Mrs. Ross Johnston, Miss Raymond, Dr. and Mrs. Angus Graham, Mrs. W. J. Anderson, Mrs. J. G. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tennant, Miss Jean Macfie, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. S. Amey, Mrs. Stapleton, Dr. Spencer, Miss A. Ross, Dr. Ross, Basil Stirling, Miss Keene, Miss Isabel Ross, Miss Pope, W. Davidson, Miss I. Davidson, Dr. Duncan, K. D. Brock, Miss Pauline Fitzgerald, J. C. Seybold, G. J. Boydell, Mr. and Mrs. William Gough, Miss Marjorie Dawson, Miss Ailey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Langridge, Miss Thomas, Miss Hattie, W. E. Pope, T. G. MacFarland, J. J. McHale, Mr. Roberts, Jack McLaughlin, T. A. Kern, W. J. Lappin, and J. G. Steven.

Fashions by Wire

Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

Paris, Oct. 6.—Though frocks today are short, they sometimes permit themselves an edging of silk fringe. This fringe, swinging downward from the knees, has a decidedly hula girl effect.

Chinese Influence Still.

London, Oct. 6.—Still the Chinese mode persists, lingering in peacock trimming. Many frocks today have bits of embroidery reproducing the tips of peacock feathers.

Picture Hat Comes Back.

New York, Oct. 6.—The large felt hat is coming more and more into favor today. It is of the "picture" variety, usually with a brim rolling slightly, and often is trimmed with ribbon.

Return of the Muff.

New York, Oct. 6.—A return of the muff is imminent. It seems likely to make its appearance in the form of the little, tight, round muff carried in great-grandmother's day. Naturally, it will match the winter coat.

ST. JOHN'S MOTHERS' UNIT.

There is to be a meeting of St. John's mothers' unit tomorrow in the school room. Plans for a winter roast are to be discussed along with the usual business.

Don't hesitate

Dress burns, bruises, wounds and cuts, rashes and sores with soothing "Vaseline" Petroleum Jelly. It keeps out tetter, soothes and hastens healing. For coughs or sore throat, take a teaspoonful several times a day. It is tasteless, odorless and absolutely harmless.

CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO. (Canada) Ltd. Montreal.

Beautiful home dyeing and tinting is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes. Just dip in cold water to tint soft delicate shades, or boil to dye rich, permanent colors. Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can dye.

Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.—Adv.

Don't hesitate

Dress burns, bruises, wounds and cuts, rashes and sores with soothing "Vaseline" Petroleum Jelly. It keeps out tetter, soothes and hastens healing. For coughs or sore throat, take a teaspoonful several times a day. It is tasteless, odorless and absolutely harmless.

CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO. (Canada) Ltd. Montreal.

Beautiful home dyeing and tinting is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes. Just dip in cold water to tint soft delicate shades, or boil to dye rich, permanent colors. Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can dye.

Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.—Adv.

Don't hesitate

Dress burns, bruises, wounds and cuts, rashes and sores with soothing "Vaseline" Petroleum Jelly. It keeps out tetter, soothes and hastens healing. For coughs or sore throat, take a teaspoonful several times a day. It is tasteless, odorless and absolutely harmless.

CHESEBROUGH MFG. CO. (Canada) Ltd. Montreal.

Beautiful home dyeing and tinting is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes. Just dip in cold water to tint soft delicate shades, or boil to dye rich, permanent colors. Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can dye.

Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.—Adv.

WOMEN and THE HOME

PLEASE ACCEPT A packet FREE to try. Simply use the coupon

Other Men's Wives

Thank mine for this new convenience which she helped me to perfect—will you try it, please?

By V. K. CASSADY, Chief Chemist

DEAR MADAM:

You know about me and my work.

I am chief chemist at The Palmolive Company. I have perfected your favorite toilet soap—and your husband's favorite shaving cream.

Now I've turned my hand to soap flakes. And I have something that thousands of women say is beyond compare.

A flake that cleans the most precious of fabrics—beautifully, wonderfully, harmlessly. That is guaranteed not to run color or injure any fabric clear water alone will not injure.

Yet that does the family washing—the roughest of rough laundry—just as well. That has no superior among flakes and powders made for that purpose—and is economical!

That cleans glass and china exquisitely. Yet is equally as effective on cooking utensils and heavy work. On floors and woodwork—in all household cleaning.

OUR GUARANTEE

We Guarantee to replace any washable garment, which by reason of its having been washed with Princess Soap Flakes has been damaged in texture or its color made to run, provided such garment has been washed in accordance with our instructions.

Princess Soap Flakes are economical. Because they are PURE soap—undiluted—less is required to do the work.

MADE IN CANADA

WEAR-EVER

MADE IN CANADA

ALUMINUM

TRADE MARK

MADE IN CANADA

Look for this mark of Quality. It assures safety, a saving and service, and identifies

Genuine

"Wear-Ever"

Aluminum THICK Kitchen Utensils

New Reduced Prices on Most Utensils Now in Effect.

Replace utensils that wear out with utensils that "Wear-Ever"

FOR SALE AT

W. A. O'DELL HARDWARE

MARKET SQUARE, LONDON.

FOR SALE AT

PURDOM HARDWARE CO., LTD.

124 DUNDAS ST.

FOR SALE AT

COWAN HARDWARE, LTD.

125 DUNDAS ST.

Subscribe For The Advertiser

RED ROSE

TEA "is good tea"

Next time try the finest grade—

RED ROSE ORANGE PEKOE

STREET RAILWAY FAVORS VOTE ON TWO QUESTIONS

Presentation of Price to Council Expected to Force Immediate Decision.

READY TO FOLLOW

Existing Franchise Agreement Does Not Expire in March, 1925.

Presentation to the city council tonight of the letter of President Charles Currie, naming $1,295,000, plus inventory and improvement expenditures of 1924, as the price at which the street railway company is willing to sell its system to the people, is expected to force an immediate decision as to what form of ballot will be submitted to the ratepayers at the December municipal elections.

Information at the city hall indicates that pressure is being brought to bear on the city council to have a ballot framed with two alternatives, in some such form as the following:

1. Are you in favor of the purchase of the London street railway for the sum of $1,295,000, plus the value of repair parts on hand and improvements made since Jan. 1, 1924?

2. Are you in favor of granting the company an extension of franchise for twenty years from March 8, 1925?

An important section of the council has indicated its readiness to follow such a course, despite the fact that it affords the ratepayers no alternative other than the company's made route shown. Attention has been called to the fact that if a ratepayer believes that the company's price is excessive, and that it will be better to wait, he will be unable to record his view, and will be "pitchforked" into voting for a new franchise.

Extension of Franchise. "The company does not want to sell unless it gets a price named by the council," said a member of the council. "The price named is a straw man intended to be voted down. What the company does want is a guarantee that the company's extension of franchise that will eliminate for the next twenty years any possibility of purchase, either by negotiation or by arbitration. The company has indicated that if given a twenty-year franchise, it will minimum be prepared to purchase certain new equipment, and to renew its track on a fairly large scale of rehabilitation. As the matter now stands, the people are in a corner of these alternatives:

1. They may purchase the street railway system under the conditions by arbitration, under the conditions of the present franchise, or under the prospect of reversion to the public at the end of the first franchise period next March, there is little doubt of the ability of the city council to purchase the system, and no provisions for a year's notice.

2. They may purchase the system at a price to be decided by arbitration. The price of $1,295,000 named in Mr. Currie's letter is not a negotiated price, but the first price asked by the company. The effort has been made to make the price, with its "plus clause" becomes approximately $1,400,000, when the $75,000 inventory and 1924 improvements are added.

3. They may grant the company a new franchise for twenty years, rely upon the ability of the city council to purchase the system at the end of the first franchise period, or to purchase the property at the end of each five-year period. And in any event, the company would be bound to the old sale of low fares.

The view is generally held among the citizens that the city is not seeking any pound of flesh exaction from the company; but it is equally unlikely that a complete surrender of the rights above cited on the company's own terms would satisfy the ratepayers.

Manager L. H. Taft, addressing the members of the city council at the banquet given by Vice-President R. G. Levy at the Tecumseh House last Friday night, made clear the company's idea of the proper aldermanic course.

IMPROVEMENTS IN TAX OFFICE NOW PLANNED

There is a likelihood that Assessment Commissioner H. J. Bennett and Ed. Houghton, city collector of taxes, will confer this week in an effort to draft suitable recommendations for improvements in the tax office. Mr. Houghton is enthusiastic over getting greater efficiency in the collection of taxes and wants all notices sent out through the mails.

At present income tax assessment notices are sent out under cover, while receipts for payment of taxes on the same are sent out to homes without any degree of privacy.

POLICE STATION REPORT WILL BE SUBMITTED

At tonight's session of the city council, No. 1 committee will bring in a report on the proposed new police station. Members of the committee inspected the present police quarters on Friday evening and are agreed that conditions there are antiquated, though just how far they are ready to go in erecting a new station at this time is unknown.

With long reports from committees coming up, a fairly lengthy session is promised for the councillors tonight.

Tug Crew Saves 86 Passengers

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Oct. 6.—The ocean-going tug Marie Olsen rescued 86 passengers, 22 of whom were women, from the fishing boat Mistletoe, which was destroyed by a fire of unknown origin off the Amherst lightship yesterday afternoon. Shortly after the fishing boat had been deserted it sank.

BAIL APPEAL REFUSED IN CASE OF SETTLE

Concluded From Page 1.

tude had vanished, but he was interested in what had been written and said of his downfall.

Denies "Fast Living" Reports.

"See where they say in the papers that the signature of Mr. Pope and Sir Adam are forgeries," he said. "That is not so. I told you before that the signatures are genuine. They signed the check I admit I put a blotter over the face of the check, but they signed their names and I don't care what anyone says." Settle declined to say how he secured possession of the check.

"I have also read in the papers that I have been leading a fast life and running around with bad company and gambling and speculating. That is a slander against me. I have not been doing that at all and I defy any person to say I have been gambling or speculating. I made up my mind to take the money that was coming to me. My hours at the hydro have been long and arduous, and my health has been bad of late, and I just wanted to get away from it all. I was fed up. I wanted to get finished with the whole business and get on with my life. I planned to go to the States and see how I did it figured out."

STEPMOTHER HEARTBROKEN.

Special to The Advertiser. By a Staff Correspondent. Port Stanley, Oct. 6.—A mother with grief over the circumstances in which her stepson has found himself, Mrs. Francis Settle, of the village of St. Thomas, has been informed that her stepson, Harry Settle, secretary of Sir Adam Beck, in Hamilton last Friday.

When reporting that young Settle had been taken away from the village through false promises, Mrs. Settle and the popularity of her stepson here and in London made reports hard to believe.

Mrs. Settle is staying at the home of Mrs. Mothersill, her niece, where she came some years ago, after the death of her husband, Mr. Settle. Through Mrs. Mothersill, young Settle's stepmother was interviewed.

Sympathy Expressed. Reported that high living, addition to the drink habit and gambling on race horses were probably the cause of Settle's downfall, Mrs. Mothersill acquiesces him of all these charges. She knew of no grounds whatever for such suggestion. Her boy had a pleasant disposition, and was a good worker. He was a good athlete and popular among the young men of London and wherever he had business.

Mrs. Settle as a regular attendant of the Port Stanley Methodist church and through her kindly ways to all has earned the respect of villagers, and deep sympathy is felt for her in her present trouble.

Always Industrious. Clarence Settle, another died when he was a young boy, leaving him and a daughter with Mr. Settle. The father re-married while the children were still young. The daughter, who was in Brandon for some years, throughout the years a strong affection grew between the Settle children and their stepmother. Clarence was known as an industrious and big-hearted youth, ambitious to be independent, and to do everything for himself out of his pocket.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

His close attachment to his stepmother was a source of pride to her. She appeared very thoughtful for her welfare. Although Mrs. Settle has means of her own, her stepson always has been comfortable in her declining years.

DISTRICT SAINTS HOLD CONCLAVE

William Harrison, London, Ordained Elder of Latter Day Saints' Church.

St. Thomas, Oct. 5.—The London district Latter Day Saints held one of the best conferences in the church at St. Thomas Saturday and Sunday that has ever been held in the district. Over 200 delegates from all over the district were present and declared that in educational, spiritual and fraternal way the conference was the best.

Saturday was given over to business sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. An inspiring opening address was given by Elder H. A. Koehler of London, in charge of the London district. Much business was done in the three sessions.

Three new elders were ordained on Sunday afternoon following the services. They are Richard Mills of Delhi, William Harrison of London and David Schlautzner of Stratford. The ordination was made by Elders Koehler, Dent and Burger.

The principal speaker for Sunday was Elder J. A. Gillen of Kansas City, Missouri.

Elder Koehler, speaking during the evening service, stated that the Latter Day Saints had a position in the prophecy and scientific discovery of the world, and that the principle of the organization.

The conference met on Sunday morning for prayer and testimony. The sacrament of the Lord's supper, being dispensed by Elders Koehler, Dent and Burger. The morning service was in charge of Elder J. C. Tomlinson, newly-elected president, and the evening service in charge of Elder H. A. Koehler.

The officers are: President, George C. Tomlinson of St. Marys; vice-president, David Withrow of Stratford; district secretary, Miss Lucy Yorks of Watford, and financial agent, J. L. Burger of St. Thomas.

The special music for the occasion was given by a choir composed of the choirs of the churches in the district. Elder Koehler sang a solo, and the afternoon and evening services were also given by the choir.

A special orchestra from Stratford also provided some of the music.

Several resolutions were passed thanking the congregation of the St. Thomas church, the president, Dr. Beeth, president of the district, and the delegates were also hearty in their thanks to Elder Gillen for his splendid efforts during the conference.

Speeches Shortened This Year and Observation Tour Is Enlarged.

The Rotary club lunched at Byron Sanatorium at 12:30 noon today, over 100 strong.

The members of the club assembled at the chamber of commerce rooms at 12 o'clock and motored out to the sanatorium in parade style.

The Rotarians divided themselves up into small groups, which were shown about the building by members of the staff detailed as guides.

Last year when the club paid its first visit to the sanatorium it was felt that too much time had been taken up in speech-making rather than an actual observation tour of the hospital itself.

Hence, this year, all speeches were cut out and the party subdivided in order that each and every member present could have a first-hand glimpse of the work being done and the actual operation of the hospital.

Sixty Names Added In Annexed Area

Scores More Are Expected To Attend Evening Session of Court.

Sixty names were added to the voters list in the annexed district by County Judge Talbot Macbeth, who presided at the court of revision at the courthouse this evening.

The court heard 31 appeals in the annexed area, and business will have to be pretty brisk if all the names are added to the list.

It is pointed out, however, that the majority of voters in this district are at work all day and will probably attend the court at the evening session.

SEVEN DIE AS BANDITS DERAIL MEXICAN TRAIN

Associated Press Despatch. Mexico City, Oct. 6.—Five soldiers and two women, one the mother of a young girl, were killed by bandits who yesterday derailed and attacked a passenger train on the Isthmus line between Juarez and Piedras Negras.

The bandits overturned the engine and sacked the train, after killing the soldiers and taking prisoner the remaining escort of eighteen men. The passengers were forced to strip to their underclothing. The bandits carried off 15,000 pesos from the express, and also took with them three young women from among the prisoners.

Farmer Severely Cut When Car Hits Wagon

George Blakie, a farmer residing on the third concession of Westminster township, was severely cut about the head when an automobile struck his car yesterday afternoon on the Lambeth highway near McDonald's hill.

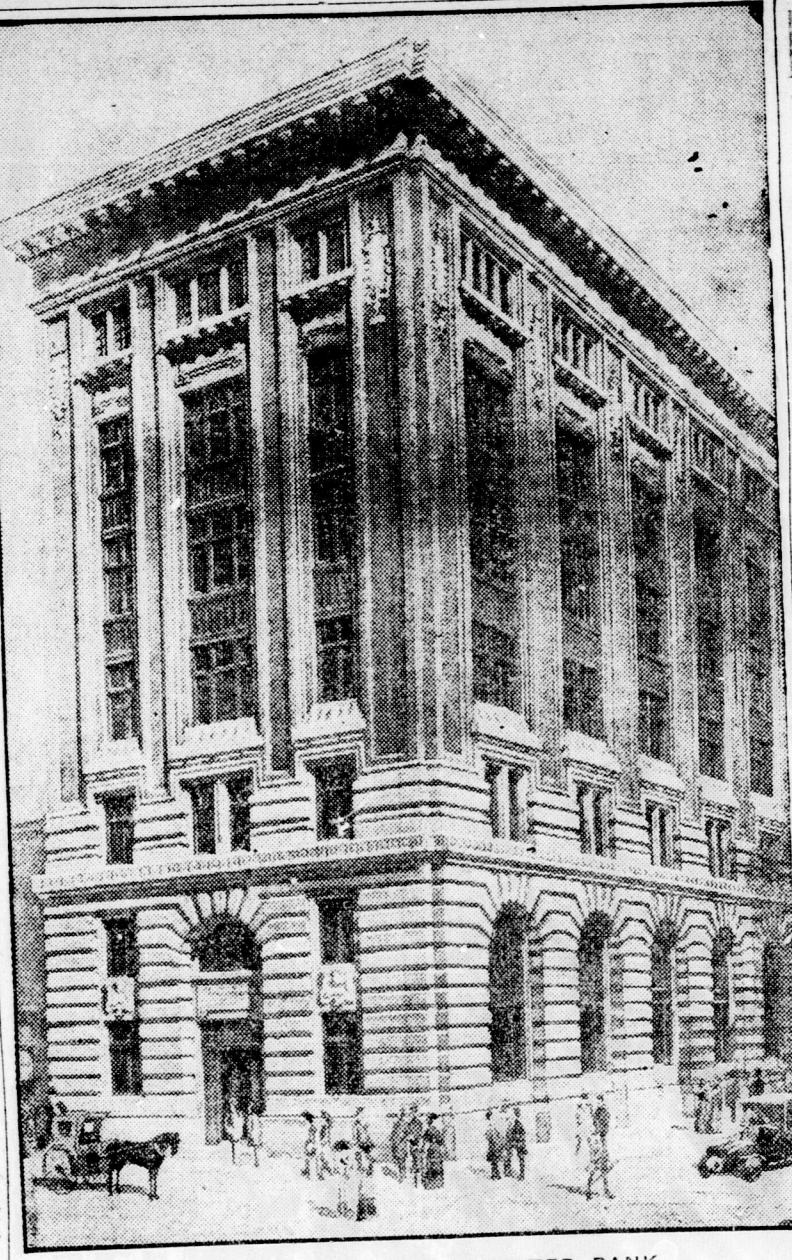

Mr. Blakie was thrown from the car and ran away. It is understood that Mr. Blakie has the number of the car that caused all the damage.

EXTRA POLL BOOKS WILL BE ASKED FOR PLEBISCITE

The Ontario government has been very careful in apportioning poll books to the various returning officers, especially in the counties.

One poll book has been doled out for each division, and there is room for but 263 names in each book.

There are, however, over 400 names on the lists in some of the divisions in Middlesex county, and so far there has been no provision made for extra books, should they be needed. The matter is being taken up with the government at Toronto, and it is hoped that more books will arrive before the plebiscite votes are taken on Oct. 23.

HEAD OFFICE OF AMALGAMATED BANK.

Head office of the Standard bank, Toronto, which will be headquarters of the new Standard-Sterling. This building is considered the best of its kind in Toronto.

ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEONS AT THE SANATORIUM

Speeches Shortened This Year and Observation Tour Is Enlarged.

The Rotary club lunched at Byron Sanatorium at 12:30 noon today, over 100 strong.

The members of the club assembled at the chamber of commerce rooms at 12 o'clock and motored out to the sanatorium in parade style.

The Rotarians divided themselves up into small groups, which were shown about the building by members of the staff detailed as guides.

Last year when the club paid its first visit to the sanatorium it was felt that too much time had been taken up in speech-making rather than an actual observation tour of the hospital itself.

Hence, this year, all speeches were cut out and the party subdivided in order that each and every member present could have a first-hand glimpse of the work being done and the actual operation of the hospital.

Sixty Names Added In Annexed Area

Scores More Are Expected To Attend Evening Session of Court.

Sixty names were added to the voters list in the annexed district by County Judge Talbot Macbeth, who presided at the court of revision at the courthouse this evening.

The court heard 31 appeals in the annexed area, and business will have to be pretty brisk if all the names are added to the list.

It is pointed out, however, that the majority of voters in this district are at work all day and will probably attend the court at the evening session.

SEVEN DIE AS BANDITS DERAIL MEXICAN TRAIN

Associated Press Despatch. Mexico City, Oct. 6.—Five soldiers and two women, one the mother of a young girl, were killed by bandits who yesterday derailed and attacked a passenger train on the Isthmus line between Juarez and Piedras Negras.

The bandits overturned the engine and sacked the train, after killing the soldiers and taking prisoner the remaining escort of eighteen men. The passengers were forced to strip to their underclothing. The bandits carried off 15,000 pesos from the express, and also took with them three young women from among the prisoners.

Farmer Severely Cut When Car Hits Wagon

George Blakie, a farmer residing on the third concession of Westminster township, was severely cut about the head when an automobile struck his car yesterday afternoon on the Lambeth highway near McDonald's hill.

Mr. Blakie was thrown from the car and ran away. It is understood that Mr. Blakie has the number of the car that caused all the damage.

EXTRA POLL BOOKS WILL BE ASKED FOR PLEBISCITE

The Ontario government has been very careful in apportioning poll books to the various returning officers, especially in the counties.

One poll book has been doled out for each division, and there is room for but 263 names in each book.

There are, however, over 400 names on the lists in some of the divisions in Middlesex county, and so far there has been no provision made for extra books, should they be needed. The matter is being taken up with the government at Toronto, and it is hoped that more books will arrive before the plebiscite votes are taken on Oct. 23.

IRISH-AMERICAN LOYALTY WAVERS

Free State Losing Supporters in U. S. Assessment Commissioner Finds.

Support for the Irish free state is lessening amongst Irish Americans of New York city, according to Assessment Commissioner H. J. Bennett who has just returned from a visit to the American metropolis.

"People who have just come back from Ireland are fed up with conditions in some parts of the country," Mr. Bennett told the Advertiser today. "They have subscribed for Liberty bonds and other Irish free state loans. But in Ireland they found much more than they expected to find. It's a good thing to have the light over with, but the people are lazy now."

Mr. Bennett found great astonishment amongst members of New York Irish organizations when he told of the Irish Benevolent Society of London and of similar societies throughout Canada. New Yorkers expressed great wonderment that orangemen and Irish Catholics could get along amicably and work together in one organization.

New York politics have their amusing side, as an incident recounted to the assessment commissioner indicates. In a section of the city where the population is one-third Irish and the remainder Jewish, an Irish political parade was organized.

In order to gain the sympathies of the Hebrew element, some broad-minded Irish leader hit upon a bright idea and persuaded a great crowd of Jewish school children to parade with the band and in front of the Irish.

The sons of Erin were outstoken in their chagrin. They didn't like the move at all and revenge was sought.

Revenge came when the refreshment booth was reached. Long tables groaned beneath platters of sandwiches for the Jewish and the Irish police men that had marched in the parade. So up to these counters the Jewish children were directed, and told to pile in and refresh themselves. Their action is not recorded.

Rotary Club Luncheons at the Sanatorium

Speeches Shortened This Year and Observation Tour Is Enlarged.

The Rotary club lunched at Byron Sanatorium at 12:30 noon today, over 100 strong.

The members of the club assembled at the chamber of commerce rooms at 12 o'clock and motored out to the sanatorium in parade style.

The Rotarians divided themselves up into small groups, which were shown about the building by members of the staff detailed as guides.

Last year when the club paid its first visit to the sanatorium it was felt that too much time had been taken up in speech-making rather than an actual observation tour of the hospital itself.

Hence, this year, all speeches were cut out and the party subdivided in order that each and every member present could have a first-hand glimpse of the work being done and the actual operation of the hospital.

Sixty Names Added In Annexed Area

Scores More Are Expected To Attend Evening Session of Court.

Sixty names were added to the voters list in the annexed district by County Judge Talbot Macbeth, who presided at the court of revision at the courthouse this evening.

The court heard 31 appeals in the annexed area, and business will have to be pretty brisk if all the names are added to the list.

It is pointed out, however, that the majority of voters in this district are at work all day and will probably attend the court at the evening session.

SEVEN DIE AS BANDITS DERAIL MEXICAN TRAIN

Associated Press Despatch. Mexico City, Oct. 6.—Five soldiers and two women, one the mother of a young girl, were killed by bandits who yesterday derailed and attacked a passenger train on the Isthmus line between Juarez and Piedras Negras.

The bandits overturned the engine and sacked the train, after killing the soldiers and taking prisoner the remaining escort of eighteen men. The passengers were forced to strip to their underclothing. The bandits carried off 15,000 pesos from the express, and also took with them three young women from among the prisoners.

Farmer Severely Cut When Car Hits Wagon

George Blakie, a farmer residing on the third concession of Westminster township, was severely cut about the head when an automobile struck his car yesterday afternoon on the Lambeth highway near McDonald's hill.

Mr. Blakie was thrown from the car and ran away. It is understood that Mr. Blakie has the number of the car that caused all the damage.

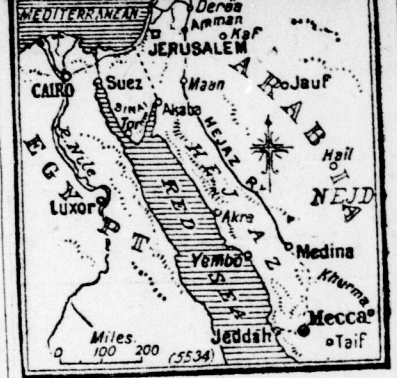

EXTRA POLL BOOKS WILL BE ASKED FOR PLEBISCITE

The Ontario government has been very careful in apportioning poll books to the various returning officers, especially in the counties.

One poll book has been doled out for each division, and there is room for but 263 names in each book.

There are, however, over 400 names on the lists in some of the divisions in Middlesex county, and so far there has been no provision made for extra books, should they be needed. The matter is being taken up with the government at Toronto, and it is hoped that more books will arrive before the plebiscite votes are taken on Oct. 23.

Rotary Club Luncheons at the Sanatorium

The above map shows the town of Mecca, the residence of King Hussein, of the Hedjaz, self-appointed caliph of all the Moslem world, which has fallen into the hands of the Wahabites. The Wahabites are now beleaguering the holy city of Mecca.

HOME ATHLETES HIGH AT WATFORD MEET

Last Year's Senior Winners Duplicate Performance.

Special to The Advertiser. Watford, Oct. 3.—The annual field day sports of the Watford high school was run off yesterday. Strathroy and Forest high school athletes competed. The Watford athletes experienced no difficulty in winning the majority of the events, the final standing being: Watford 105 points, Strathroy 52, Forest 22.

The events and winners were as follows: 100-yard dash, boys—Wright, Strathroy; Sexton, Strathroy; Gilroy, Watford. Time, 12 seconds.

150-yard dash, girls—D. Delmage, Watford; B. Crinnian, Forest; F. Lovell, Watford.

220-yard dash, boys—O. Shug, Watford; A. Gilroy, Watford; Thompson, Strathroy. Time, 23 seconds.

Standing broad jump, girls—D. Delmage, Watford; B. Crinnian, Forest, and Miss Lane, Forest, tie, Distance, 6 feet 2 inches.

Standard broad jump, boys—O. Shug, Watford; Sexton, Strathroy; C. Wright, Strathroy. Distance, 8 feet 10 inches.

Running broad jump, boys—D. Delmage, Watford; B. Crinnian, Forest. Distance, 13 feet 2 inches.

Running broad jump, girls—D. Delmage, Watford; B. Crinnian, Forest. Distance, 17 feet 10 inches.

Running hot, step and jump, girls—D. Delmage, Watford; B. Crinnian, Forest. Distance, 33 feet 10 inches.

Running hot, step and jump, boys—O. Shug, Watford; A. Gilroy, Watford; O. Shug, Watford. Height, 4 feet 2 inches.

Running high jump, girls—D. Delmage, Watford; B. Crinnian, Forest; Miss Gregory, Strathroy.

Running high jump, boys—O. Shug, Watford; A. Gilroy, Watford; D. Wright, Strathroy. Height, 5 feet 2 inches.

Shot put—A. Heaton, Watford; O. Shug, Watford; J. Wat, Strathroy. Distance, 33 feet 10 inches.

Shot put, girls—Watford, Forest, Strathroy.

Relay race, boys—Strathroy, Watford, Forest.

Tug-of-war, girls—Forest won from Strathroy; Watford won from Forest.

Tug-of-war, boys—Watford won from Strathroy; Watford won from Forest.

Half mile, boys—Shug, Watford; Watford; A. Heaton, Watford.

Basketball (girls)—Strathroy beat Watford, 33 to 22.

Basketball (boys)—Strathroy 24, Watford 7.

Visiting athletes and students from Strathroy and Forest were entertained at a banquet in the town hall, after the games, by the Watford students.

The basketball games were played in the gymnasium following the banquet.

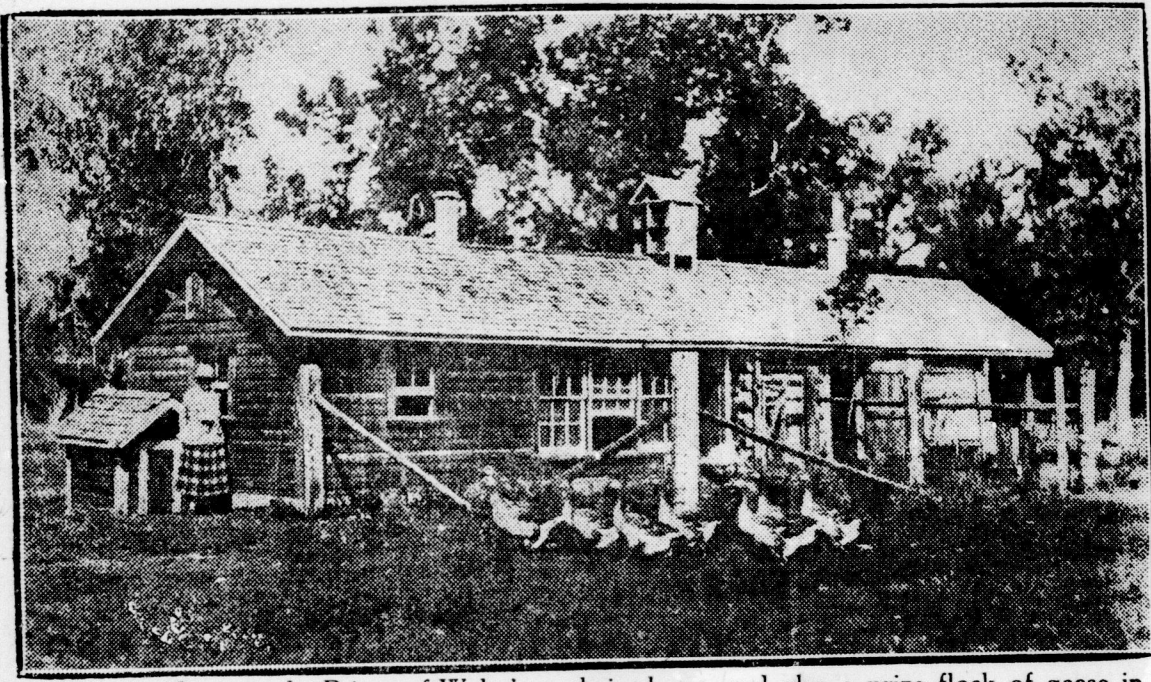

O. Shug, Watford, won the boys' senior championship on points, but as he held the last point, he was awarded to A. Gilroy, Watford, the runner-up.

D. Delmage, Watford, won the girls' senior championship on points, but as she held the last point, she was awarded to F. Lovell, Watford, the runner-up.

Mr. Warren of Deleware township received severe injuries to his back when he was thrown from a democrat into the ditch on the Town line between Westminster and Delaware at twilight Saturday.

Mr. Warren was returning from London market when a motor car, driven by a democrat, cut across the road at this point, but

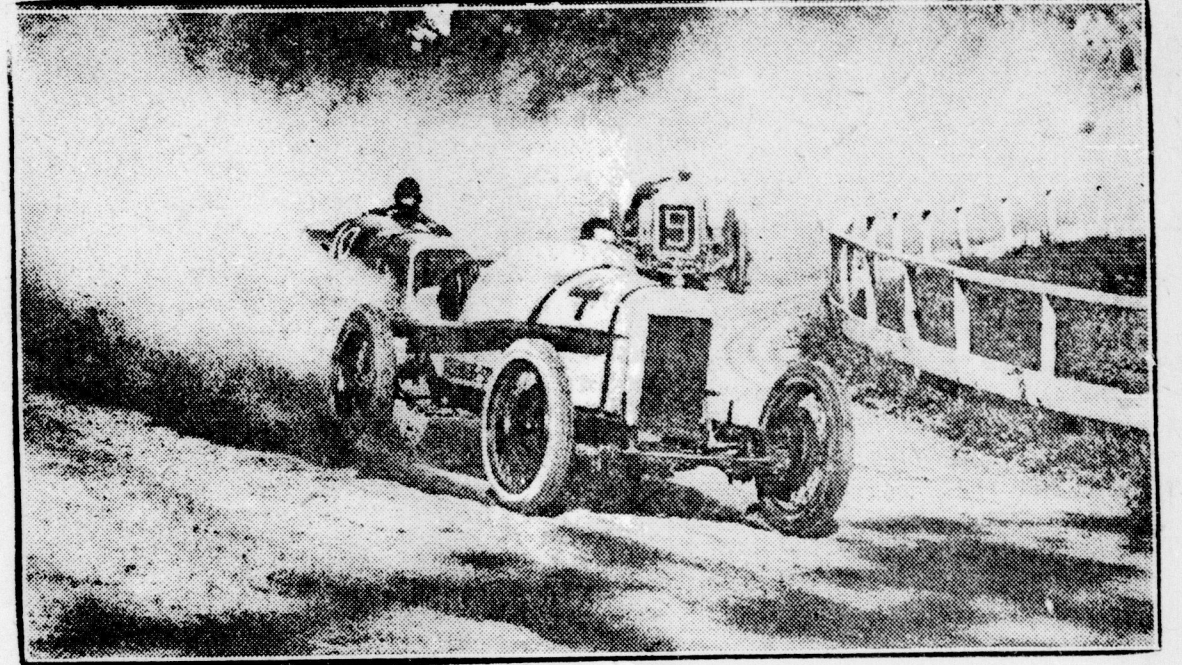

Indian Girl Beauty; Champion Cowboy; Leading Goal Getter

One of the buildings on the Prince of Wales' ranch is shown and also a prize flock of geese in which H.R.H. takes great pride

This striking autumn hat is trimmed with a drapery of plume feathers in every shade of deepest green and is worn with a pale grey moire satin coat and sable collar

Speed and lots of it was shown by Charles Ganung as he turned the corners in the thrilling ten-mile motor race at Riverhead, Long Island, recently. The rest of the field trailed in the dust of his machine

Little Virginia Loomis, California youngster, was recently proclaimed by Jewett Burbar, well-known artist and traveler, as the most beautiful child in her state

These two Chicago lassies, photographed on their return to New York from Paris, wearing the latest in style from the French capital, demonstrate that fashion has turned to short skirts again

The Canadian Pacific constables at the company's exhibit at Wembley were frequently called upon to exercise their first aid knowledge on behalf of visitors to the grounds

Paddy Ryan of Miles City, Mont., won the title of the world's champion cowboy at the Pendleton, Ore., round-up. With the championship went the Roosevelt Trophy, the symbol of the peak of cowboy achievement

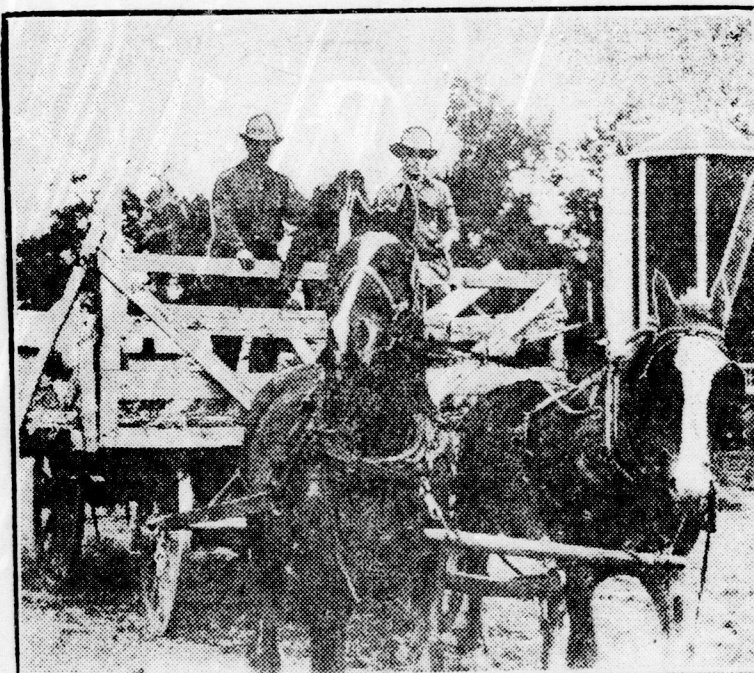

President Coolidge is shown leaving a church in Washington, where he attended the rites that were held for Robert Imbrie, vice-consul to Persia, who was killed by religious fanatics

Miss Melissa Parr was selected as one of the three most beautiful Indian girls in a contest at the Pendleton round-up, by Wallace Smith, well-known author

Harry Bedford, Blackpool centre forward, is the leading goal scorer in all England during the past two seasons, his record being sixty-six goals in seventy-nine second division matches

Here is the Prince of Wales, photographed as a real farmer on his "E.P." ranch, being shown driving one of his prize teams of work horses

The disappearance of little Franklin James Roshek, who is believed to have been kidnapped by a sailor, has New York wondering if it will lead to a repetition of the Bobby Franks case. He is the only child of wealthy parents

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, first president of the Republic of Turkey, is pictured, with his wife, leaving Doumlou Pinar following the ceremonies attending the dedication of the memorial to Turkey's "Unknown Soldier"

These shops of the curb are rarely met with on the streets of London these days, but these ex-service men, cane chair and mat repairers, still carry-on in their dying trade

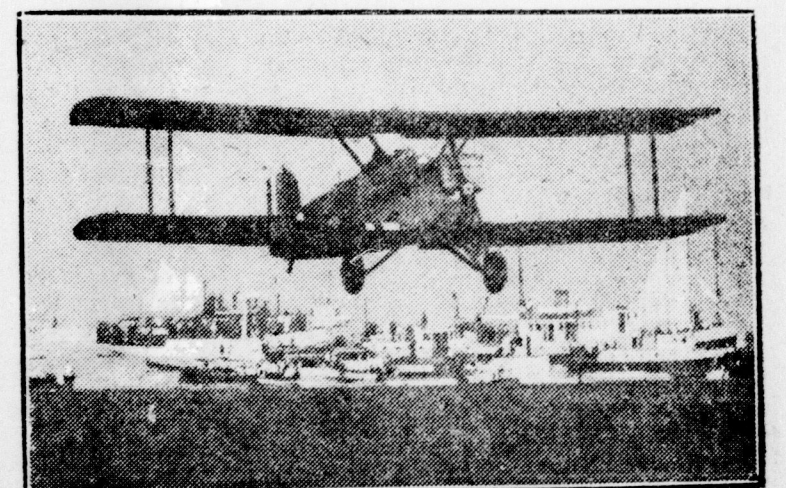

Miss Olmerova of Czecho-Slovakia was the winner of the javelin throw, when other competitors from her country met French women athletes in contest in Paris. Many records were broken in the events

Here is a view of the recent surfboard swimming championships at Waikiki Beach, Honolulu, where Duke Kahanamoku, the champion of this event, defended his laurels

"Bobby" Jones, one of the world's greatest golfers, is shown putting on the 18th green in the final match with George Von Elm of Los Angeles, whom the Atlantan defeated 10 up and 8 to play at Ardmore, Pa.

Lieut. Lowell Smith, world-flight commander, is shown swooping down on Seattle in the flagship Chicago, the official ending point of the world tour

The London Advertiser

Founded 1862.
London Advertiser Company, Limited.
Publisher and Proprietor, London, Ont.
JOSEPH E. ATKINSON, President.
H. B. MUIR, Managing Director.
C. A. M. VINING, Managing Editor.
Morning and Evening Editions.
Subscription rates: Delivered 15 cents weekly; 65 cents monthly. By mail: In Canada, $5.00 yearly; in the United States, $6.00 yearly.
Special Representatives:
J. B. RATHBONE, Toronto, 95 King Street East.
Montreal, 1013 Transportation Building.
C. H. EDDY COMPANY, New York, Park Lexington Building.
Chicago, Wrigley Building.
Boston, Old South Building.
The Advertiser is a Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1924.

Those Closed Factories.

The Ottawa Journal is convinced that the King government is "perhaps the worst ministry which Canada has had since confederation." To prove its point the Journal claims:

"Over 2,000 Canadian factories have closed their doors since Mr. King took office."

Has the Journal had a chance to look over this list? Does it know where these factories are, and all about the circumstances of their closing? Mr. Meighen, when speaking in Stratford, said that 1,000 had closed. Has the list been revised again and doubled?

When Mr. Meighen made that statement there were many, even on his own side of politics, who failed to see the wisdom of such statements. There were newspapers in this part of the country who rather doubted the truth of the record, and they went so far as to ask Mr. Meighen to forward a list so that his record might be verified. The list was not forthcoming then, nor has it been produced since. The reason given was that newspapers should not get hold of that kind of material because it might hurt business. Of course it does not hurt business for Mr. Meighen to make such statements.

How is it that the Ottawa Journal has knowledge of 2,000 factories, twice the number Mr. Meighen mentioned at Stratford? Was the Journal called into Mr. Meighen's office, and with closed doors and shaded windows, led through the alleged graveyard of Canadian industry? And was it told just to give round figures of 2,000, and not under any circumstances to mention names? And does the Journal consider that it is performing a useful and helpful public service by continuing to give expression to such statements? It sounds as though it were finding a certain amount of political joy in telling the world that industry in Canada is in a very bad way.

For the moment, grant that the 2,000 closed-factory story is correct. How can it be laid to the door of the King government? The Liberals did not take office until 1922, and the budget of that year contained nothing at all in the way of tariff changes; in 1923 the changes were very few. Does the Journal consider that there was anything in the budgets of those two years to close Canadian factories? Can it tell what factories were closed, and just which of the slight changes in the 1922 and 1923 tariffs brought about such a widespread decision to close up shop?

It was not until the 1924 tariff that there were any changes of importance made. Can the Journal say how many factories have closed since then, and why?

Unless the Journal is prepared to go the whole distance and follow up its statement of 2,000 factories closing because the King government was chosen by the Canadian electors to administer the affairs of this country, it is hard to follow its logic in using the statement at all.

In Memory of Sir Wilfrid.

A design has at last been accepted for a statue of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and when completed it will be given a place of prominence on the grounds of the federal parliament buildings.

It differs, according to pictures and specifications, from those that adorn the grounds of our provincial and dominion parliament buildings. It reflects more the advanced idea of sculpture, and will be a distinct addition to the points of interest in Ottawa.

It is fitting that the memory of Sir Wilfrid should be thus honored. It is a matter of interest to the Canadian people, regardless of political affiliation. Sir Wilfrid's contribution to life was not alone to the Liberal party, but to the advancement of the whole dominion and to the drawing together of the various races of people into one united whole.

Crime and Press Reports.

Two despatches, one from Illinois, the other from Los Angeles, appear on the same day, dealing with the same subject. The Illinois despatch deals with a resolution passed by the retail merchants bureau of the chamber of commerce, and objects to the detail with which crime stories of southern Illinois are written, claiming that it "reflects unduly upon the integrity of a vast majority of the law-abiding people of the state." The other, from Los Angeles, was passed by the municipal league of that city. The purpose of the protest is that the amount of space devoted to crime stories is a reflection on the integrity of the Los Angeles crime commission, and that important world news has been crowded out of the papers by such an extended review of the crimes of the community.

This is not the first time that the point has been raised. It is a fact that there are readers of newspapers whose finer instincts are shocked by the amount of space devoted to stories where crime has been committed. Only a short time ago the Chicago Tribune, when the Loeb and Leopold case was at its height, made a vigorous protest about the publicity that was being thrust upon it, claiming that in this way the case was being prejudiced. At best it was a poor plea to save the reputation of the American system of justice in dealing with such situations. The verdict of the press, which discussed the point in an impartial way, was that the fault lay primarily with the authorities, and with the national conscience of the United States, which would permit an unpunished crime record to exist. The amount of publicity given to the case came after the crime had been committed, and not before.

It is easy to understand the view taken by the merchants' bureau in regard to crime stories in southern Illinois. There are many crimes there, and as a result there are many crime stories. It may be that they are written with too great attention given to detail. Looking over them in the aggregate the merchants feel that they are being given a black eye; that others on the outside may consider it is a very lawless community, not a desirable section, and therefore not an attractive place in which to transact business.

Allowing, for the sake of argument, that the papers decided tomorrow to cut down the space devoted to crime. There would still be the same number of crimes and the same number of stories about them. It might have the effect of not calling so much attention to them, of making the situation a little less hideous, but in the end what would be accomplished? Would it not amount to throwing a veneer of respectability over a condition that is not respectable?

The real way in which to have less stories of crime in a paper, with all their miserable details, is, in the last analysis, to have laws that will protect the citizens and see that they are adequately enforced. All the regulation of newspaper publicity that can be devised cannot possibly achieve that desirable and imperative purpose. The fault is primarily with the law and its enforcement, and also in the conscience of the community, and there the responsibility must rest in its entirety.

One of Russia's Problems.

The Communist party of Russia has a method of its own to keep the revolution in active control of the situation. Before the death of Lenin it was feared that the movement was slipping from the grasp of the workers, and figures show that the fear was well founded. In 1916 59 per cent of the party were workers; in 1917 it was 56.7 per cent, in 1918 40 per cent, in 1919 38 per cent, in 1920 33 per cent and in 1921 but 30 per cent.

The leaders of the Communist party saw the danger, so they remedied it by the simple, yet effective, process of weeding out those who did not come from the working class, and filling up the ranks by the influx of 200,000 from the people who were opposed to a return to old methods.

The movement is not going in the direction planned by Lenin, who never intended to make it an anti-intellectual one, and this it stands in danger of becoming today. With all his faults, Lenin had a fixed purpose, and his idea was that the learned should come to the help of the revolution to give it effective leadership. At present it is travelling in the opposite direction. Although the educated are in many cases ready to lend their aid, they find that the ranks are closed against them; they can fall in and walk in the rear, but that is as close as they can get. There is always the fear that the movement shall pass from the hands of those who know no other occupation than that of manual labor.

That is the factor that makes it difficult for Russia to come to terms with other nations of the world in regard to trade and business negotiations. Those who are fitted to give guidance in this matter, who are educated and experienced, find it difficult to get a seat close up to the center of power. They are looked upon as being graduates of the old school that the revolution overthrew. Russia is in the position of having a great national engine, but the people fear that those competent to run the thing may start it off in the wrong direction.

Wise and Foolish Debts.

Julia Hoyt says she knows a man and wife who are very happy. The wife is not particularly attractive, perhaps not quite up to the average, and Miss Hoyt was puzzled to know what was at the bottom of their happiness.

Her discovery was that they were out of debt and intended to stay out. There are two features here just as there are when people go in debt and stay in debt.

Julia Hoyt is partly right. Being out of debt would not in itself account for domestic happiness. There are times when financial obligations, intelligently contracted, are no bar to happiness. There are many people who would never have owned a home if they had not gone in debt for it. The fact that they were in debt and had obligations to meet gave them something worth while to work for, and every time they cut down their obligations they felt the thrill of satisfaction that comes from worthy accomplishment.

Of course there is the other kind of debt, the product of a desire to have things because other people have them. That variety of debt is harmful; it is one sure way to go stumbling along the path to trouble and disagreement. Debt is not injurious as long as those who contract it are in control of the situation; it is a miserable thing when it controls the family and dictates the terms.

Note and Comment.

Gas has come down another cent in London, but the dentists, who also run filling stations, have announced no reduction.

The clerk of the juvenile court in Montreal says: "I have seen 15,000 boys pass through the juvenile court. Drink was the cause of nine-tenths of the crime."

A bar in a Winnipeg hotel was doing a good business until broken into by the officers. A car stood outside with a warning button to the hotel to tell of the coming of officers, but it did not work quickly enough. That is in a province that has government selling.

Toronto man, aged 63, married and with a grown-up family, spends the next three years in penitentiary for stealing $3,100 from his employers. Facts coming out showed him to be the victim of a "vamp" in Niagara Falls, N.Y. He started to pay visits to her, and later to send her money. His three score and three years had failed to convince him that there is no fool like an old fool.

Rarebits By Rex

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS.

Lilies, carnations and roses galore
Nodded their heads from a flower-man's store;
"Gracious," cried Bess, "I am sure I would be Wonderfully glad if you bought some for me."

None can resist her intriguing way
And so I procured her a gorgeous bouquet.
But I was so poor and the bunch was so large it Took more than I had, so the flower-man charged it.

"Oh, this is a perfect poem of a rose,"
Cried Bess as she put a red bloom to her nose;
And I, fifteen dollars in debt, blithely chorused:
"A poem we may rightly call 'Owed to a Florist.'"

The office poet says he's given up trying to set a word to rhyme with coiffure because he's come to the conclusion that anything pertaining to the head of woman has neither rhyme nor reason.

If the moving pictures really want to give the public a square deal they should let men with only one eye in for half price.

The Washington team are using hickory bats for the series, says a sport writer. And we suppose the Giants are using scandalwood.

When the Giants came on the field Saturday it must have been an awful temptation for the orchestra to play "Here Comes the Bride."

One editor referred to McGraw's men as "wizards of diamond craft. But he really meant graft."

Coming so close on the heels of the Teapot Dome revelations it seems most appropriate that when the baseball scandal became known another writer should call the Giants "A well-oiled machine."

A New York man wants a divorce claiming that his wife never kissed him unless she wanted money. He was kissed so often he nearly smothered.

Bow-legged men, says Prof. Hollingworth, the psychologist, are attractive to women. It's probably because of the arch look.

We are convinced that the habit of calling a boat "she" was started by the first man that tried to steer one.

The enterprise of some restaurant owners is remarkable. On a trip to Hamilton recently we saw one of them dusting his sandwiches.

"To be a good barber a man must be a flatterer," Tonsorial Journal. That explains why so many barbers ask bald-headed men if they want their hair cut.

The reason the modern mother does not stay at home with her children is that her children are never home.

We learned yesterday why our next-door neighbor wears whiskers. His wife buys his ties.
Obscurity is the place where a good many candidates go after elections.

Honesty is the best policy, but we know several people whose policies have expired.

An optimist is a man who doesn't care a rap what happens so long as it doesn't happen to him.

Timothy Hay's Ten

"Timothy Hay," an Irish character with strong Conservative leanings, writes original letters to the Wingham Advance-Times. In the last issue, Timothy gives his view on prohibition, although he admits that "in the old days av" the bar rooms I cud stand up an swally me pison wid the resht av' the byes." Timothy's ten are as follows:

Rayson wan—'Tis in the interest av clane polityicks an the Tory party.

Rayson two—Fer the sake of me grandchilder.

Rayson tree—To plaze the missus; (This is a shtrong wan.)

Rayson four—To make a lot av them brewers an distillers go to the wurk lik the resht av us.

Rayson five—To save the money that wud be shpint in liquor fer boots, an shoes, an bread, an butter, an mate, an coal, an clothes for the childer.

Rayson six—Becaws if the O.T.A. is sustained the government has promised to make some much nayed amendment to it.

Rayson seven—Becaws ye can't make a counthry droier be shtrartin out to make it wettter.
'Tisn't raysonable.

Rayson eight—Becaws in these days av shtrong competition in thrade that country will go ahead fastest that has a sober indushtrious payple.

Rayson nine—Becaws a lot av us old fellahs are larin to git along fursh rate widout our glass, an it wud be a mishake to shtrart us up agin.

Rayson tin—Becaws I loike to be on the winnin side.

I cud give ye a lot moore raysons, but these will do fer the presint.

Yours till nixt wake,
Timothy Hay.

Lloyd George on Drink

Speaking at a meeting in connection with the annual assembly of the National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches of Britain, Mr. Lloyd George spoke out strongly regarding his observations and experiences in America. He is reported by the Daily Chronicle as saying:

"The country that got most out of the war was the United States of America. How? I am not talking of the gold they got. It is not very much use to them.

The United States of America got prohibition out of the war. (Loud and prolonged cheers.)

"I saw a little of it. I went there with the usual European prejudice against it, hearing that it was demoralizing America, and that there was more liquor than ever. It is not true, not in the least. There are some men who get it,
I believe, thank God, it is very bad. (Laughter.)
Some of them have been poisoned already, and the others are getting frightened for fear it will be their turn next.

"Some are drinking from swaggar, some because they are not going to be interfered with, and some because they like it. (Laughter.) But that generation will disappear.

"The vast majority are not drinking. What is still more, the others are getting less than they ever did, and wherever I went, I found that the great majority of the people were observing the law."

Safer to Move Out.

If the epidemic of murders in Illinois continues, it may be found necessary to declare a closed season. Ducks are afforded this protection, but the only protection humans have, it seems, is to duck.—Hamilton Spectator.

Dr. Frank Crane

REST.

A man's recreation and rest should be planned for as intelligently as his more forth-putting moments. Otherwise he will find himself swamped by his leisure time.

One should look ahead for his moments of recreation, as he knows that all life is but movement, and all movement is but rhythmical. The strength of a man's blow which he puts out is in proportion to the length and quality of the rest that he puts behind it.

The best rest, always, is a change of occupation. Those who are of sedentary habits should plan for a rest of physical activity and those of active physical occupation should plan more for a rest of quietude.

The subject goes deeper and there is a spiritual rest as well as a mental and physical rest. The wise man of old said: "He went away from God in order to find God."

Unless there be some low in our spiritual activities there can be no high tide. Unless there be a time when we snailly lie fallow and let the waves of idleness overcome us there can be no time of full time when we put forth the last increment of strength.

The sun, in its daily journey, is the teacher of mankind.
It sinks to rest once every twenty-four hours. So mankind has each day portioned out to him, one at a time. These days can only remain full as they are filled with nights of repose and duly alternated by them.

Perfect rest is a sign of strength and not of weakness. One who can sleep well is, as a usual thing, stronger than one who sleeps fitfully. All of us know that a condition of nerves which prevents us from sleeping is also a condition which prevents our full activities when awake.

The only foundation of the life of action, therefore, is a life that is duly interpreted by periods of rest.

He therefore who knows how to rest well has learned the first lesson of efficiency.

To the Editor

Get It Fixed Right.

Mortgages and Discharges Behave Better When They Are Done in the Right Way.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—Will you kindly answer the following "legit" questions through your valuable paper.

A. hold a mortgage on B's property. B. pays in full at expiration of mortgage.

1. Does A. have to give release for same?

2. If not does B. have to get release? Yes.

3. Is there any charge, if so what?
Yes, drawing discharge, usually $3.

4. What is the proper procedure?
Consult a lawyer.

SUBSCRIBER.

More About Liberty.

Reader Points Out That We Are Not Even Allowed To Purchase
Oleo as a Food.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—Your editorial on prohibitory laws in Wednesday's issue was timely and instructive. Particularly to those people who talk so glibly of personal freedom, inalienable rights, and so forth. But there is one you missed, and the latest.

A short time ago the parliament of Canada enacted that no one, or rather the poor man of this country, who cannot afford to buy expensive butter, shall eat a simple, nutritious and inexpensive article of food called margarine. En passant, I may as well state the fact that this is the only country in the world with a like law in its statutes. This law was not enacted to preserve life, health or morality, but in the interest of a certain class—a purely pecuniary interest. I am convinced that if margarine had a "kick" in it, certain persons would have something to say about their personal liberty being interfered with.

R. W. R.

Can Take No Chance.

Government in Quebec Selling Millions of Dollars Worth of Liquor to Their People.

Editor of The Advertiser:

Sir,—Government control, as we have it, and as they had many trials of it in the United States, has turned out, in every case, to be a great disappointment. The words "government control" would lead one to expect some reasonable measures to lessen the drink evil. But it does the very opposite. It turns on a flood of liquor worse than we ever had.

It multiplies the number of places where it can be bought and increases the number of bootleggers who go round peddling it.

The worst evils of the traffic are that it causes insanity, degeneracy, and increases disease. Men are getting weaker, smaller, and more subject to disease. Both French and English commissions agree that a man may never be really drunk and yet injure his brain and leave behind him a delicate nervous, complaining family. It is plain to be seen that the white race is doomed unless the drink evil can be conquered. Prohibition has been doing great work along that line, but we must have the patience. No other law on the statute books has ever done one-half as much good as prohibition.

Government control in Quebec and Montreal seems to have gone mad.
Think of a government, in a small country like Quebec, selling fifteen million dollars worth of such death-dealing stuff to their people. Drunken drinking people cannot compete with sober people. No use blaming the government. They will do what the people demand. The responsibility rests on the voters. If they won't come out and vote we will have to suffer for years for their neglect. Hold on to what we have till we get something better.

H. ARNOTT, Sen.

18 Ontario avenue, Hamilton, Ont.

For the ambitious Advertiser Classified "Want" ads carry a message of hope realized.

GAS PRICES IN CANADA ARE REDUCED 2 CENTS

Follows Slump in Cost of Crude Oil in the States.

Canadian Press Despatch

Toronto, Oct. 5.—Announcement was made tonight by S. R. Parsons, president of the British-American Oil Company, that there will be another cut in the prices of gasoline and kerosene tomorrow. The official statement is as follows:

"The oil companies, as foreshadowed in their statement last week, are putting into effect Monday declines in gasoline and kerosene applying all over Canada, in harmony with reductions of crude oil and products in the United States since October 1. The wholesale price of gasoline in Toronto will now be 20½ cents, and it is expected that the service station price will likely be 24 cents. The reduction announced will be a cut of two cents per gallon in the price of gasoline.

Insist on BAYER TABLETS OF ASPIRIN

Unless you see the "Bayer Cross" on tablets you are not getting the genuine Bayer product proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians 24 years for

Colds Headache Neuralgia Lumbago
Pain Toothache Neuritis Rheumatism

Safe Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions.
Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets
Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monocet-acidester of Salicylicacid (Acetyl Salicylic Acid, "A. S. A."). While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

There are mountains of fuel available to the owner of McClary's SUNSHINE FURNACE

The Exclusive McClary's Air Blast Ring introduces warmed air over the burning coal. This warmed air mixes with the volatile (burnable) carbon gases released by heat from soft coal insures proper combustion.

Be equipped to burn Hard or SOFT COAL or Coke

Consult McClary's dealer and have him show you the furnace that ensures winter comfort and burns any kind of coal.

THOROUGH PROBE PROMISED BY BECK

Sir Adam Declares He Will Investigate All Reports of Wrongdoing.

DENIES FORGERY

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Oct. 5.—Sir Adam Beck's comment on the arrest of Clarence Settell was that, while he did not wish to say anything about the matter until he learned more of the circumstances, he intended to probe to the bottom any lead Settell might give of alleged wrongdoing in connection with any department of the provincial hydro system.

"It is said that the threat has been made that if he goes down others will go down with him," said Sir Adam. "That is all right. I'll accept that. If he knew anything going on he should have told us long ago. I won't let a statement like that pass."

Chief of Police Dickson denied that he had given a letter of introduction to any man named Dell, under whose name Settell proposed travelling to South America, and W. W. Pope of the hydro repeated he was quite certain he had not signed any check for Settell under any circumstances.

ACCEPTS FULL BLAME.

Hamilton, Oct. 5.—No one else is implicated in the trouble. The check for $29,990 was not a forgery. The signatures were genuine.

This statement was given to the press tonight by Clarence Settell, Ontario hydro commission secretary, through J. D. Sullivan, his counsel. Mr. Sullivan was in the cell with Settell until after 10 o'clock tonight. Settell was taken ill with an attack of heart trouble late last night, and Dr. Greenway was called. He has completely recovered, but is still considerably worried and very nervous.

Settell heard that newspaper reports were to the effect that he was heavily in debt, and that poor speculation and bad company had practically forced him to get out. This he asked to have denied.

"It is not the case," Settell told Mr. Sullivan. "I took the money because my health is bad. I worked long hours and was often at my desk until after midnight. I felt that I simply must get away from everything, and I intended going away for a while."

Settell will appear in police court in the morning and a remand will be asked for. Senator George Lynch-Staunton, K.C., has declined to defend him, and it is likely that R. H. Greer, K.C., Toronto, will be retained. The adjournment of the case is being asked for until a definite answer is received from Mr. Greer. Settell declared tonight that he would plead not guilty to the charge of false pretences.

No further attempts to have bail granted were made today, but an application will likely be made in the morning. Friends of Settell have been in Hamilton, and are willing to give in cash or bonds any amount the court asks for his release.

EXPLAINS METHOD.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Hamilton, Oct. 5.—Clarence Settell is reported to have made a frank disclosure as to how he procured the hydro commission check which he cashed. He explains that he found a blank check with Mr. Pope's signature attached and that he took it to Sir Adam Beck with other documents awaiting the chairman's signature, waiting till the latter was rushed for time. Settell says he held a blotter over the body of the check when Sir Adam signed. He then filled it out in his own favor.

SON OF PRINCESS MARY CHRISTENED SATURDAY

Baptismal Was Unexpected
Owing To Many Postponements.

Goldborough, England, Oct. 5.—Yesterday, to the surprise of the whole village of Goldborough, Princess Mary's second child was christened in St. Mary's Church. The Lascelles family had announced the christening, after several postponements, for today. Late Friday it was said that the christening would not occur on Sunday, and the villagers supposed it had been postponed to a later date.

On Saturday the christening party was seen entering St. Mary's church. The church was closed to everybody, including newspapermen, and only Viscount Lascelles, Princess Mary, the Earl and Countess of Harewood, and immediate attendants were admitted. Local police kept out the would-be intruders.

It was learned that the child was given the names Gerald David. The official sponsors included the Prince of Wales and the Duchess of York, both being represented by proxies.

LIVE WIRES CLUB NAMES OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

The Live Wires club, organized by the pupils of St. George's public school, has elected the following officers and chosen the following committees for the ensuing year: President, Agnes Foster; vice-president, Tom Dalkes; secretary, Margaret Holliday; treasurer, Evelyn Frisford; reporters, Sam Lackay, James Wallico; charity committee, Helen Routledge (convenor), Molly Goldstein, Albert Fay, John Davis; room committee, R. Legg (convenor), P. Faw, J. Mitchell, F. Dennett; program committee, R. Curnoe (convenor), B. Tichbourne, M. Warren, D. Smart.

LABOR PARTY IS PREPARING FOR EARLY ELECTION FIGHT

Announcement of Policy May Follow Meeting of Laborites On Tuesday.

OPINIONS DIFFER

Defeat May Come Wednesday as Premier Favors Early Contest.

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 5.—Inquiry at Labor party headquarters reveals great activity on the assumption that a general election is imminent. It happens conveniently that the meeting of the Labor organizers which was convened a month ago is now being held, and the discussions naturally center on the subject of an election.

There has been an unprecedented demand from the general public for tickets for the Labor party conference opening in London next Tuesday. For the first time in Labor's political history, it has been necessary to charge an admission to the public balcony. An election lead is expected from Premier MacDonald when he delivers the inaugural address, but official Labor circles consider that the political prophets have gone far astray in attaching such importance to the Workers Weekly incident and the proceedings incidental to anti-government motions to be proposed in the House of Commons on Wednesday. The general belief of Labor leaders is that Premier MacDonald's defeat and dissolution will come on the Liberal motion as regards the Russian treaty.

On Russian Treaty.
"We shall fight on the Russian treaty," said an official of Labor headquarters today, "and on the general record of the government since it has been in office as well as on the party's program, but we do not consider the Workers Weekly business of sufficient importance to become an election issue."

Labor leaders anticipate that the election campaign will be in full swing by the beginning of November, and that polling day will probably come in the first or second week of December. On the other hand inquiries in circles close to the cabinet indicate a distinct strengthening of the opinion among the ministers that the government's best course is to court defeat and get a verdict from the country at the soonest possible date. Premier MacDonald is said to strongly hold this view as he considers the Liberal demand for an inquiry into the circumstances attending the dropping of the sedition charge against the editor of the Workers Weekly is an intolerable implication against the attorney-general. A small group of the premier's supporters, however, are against an appeal to the country on this subject. They consider that the situation can only be met by the removal of the attorney-general himself. This matter will be in suspense until the meeting of the cabinet on Monday, but the crucial stage is expected late Wednesday evening, assuming that the Liberals intend to adhere to their demand for the appointment of a select committee.

Ready For Challenge.
J. R. Clynes, deputy leader of the House, when interviewed today, said: "Labor never shirked a challenge from either of the two parties, and is ready to meet one now if it comes from both. These political leaders who have had to swallow all their brave words in abuse of Ireland and Germany will later on have to face the same ordeal about Russia."

Today's issue of the Democrat contains a message from Stanley Baldwin, the Conservative leader, as follows: "I have profound faith in the British worker, whether he toils by hand or brain. He is my friend and I trust—indeed, I know—I am his friend. Stand steadfast to the constitution that in the past has made of Britons what we are today."

SMALL DOG ATTACKS AND KILLS PUFF ADDER

Central Avenue Lads Now Proud Possessor of Unique Animal.

Tom Baker and Douglas Switzer, both residents of Central avenue, are the proud possessors of a large puff adder, which they killed in the Oxbow river at Kilworth.

Both boys went on a hike Saturday afternoon to Kilworth, and while eating their lunch by the river bank were interrupted by the barking of a friend's dog.

On investigating the boys were amazed to find the dauntless little terrier bravely shaking the adder by the neck. After the dog had disposed of the reptile, one of the boys skinned it, and on measuring the skin found that it reached nearly five feet, and was three inches in diameter. It was a light brown color. Puff-adders are uncommon in this country and the specimen is regarded as a unique one.

Mr. F. Steele, optometrist, wishes to express his sincere regret on the occasion of the death of Mr. W. R. Brown, optician.

Guelph Woman 101 Years of Age Asks For Vote

Special to The Advertiser.

Guelph, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Mary Carruthers, who celebrated her 101st birthday on Friday, Sept. 26, still retains a keen interest in the welfare of the country. She is especially interested in the coming plebiscite on Oct. 23, and was one of the several hundred citizens who appeared personally before the revising officer at the courthouse yesterday to have her name placed on the voters list. Mrs. Carruthers was driven from her home to the court of revision and apparently took a keen interest in the proceedings. She would not say how she intended to cast her ballot.

PRINCE OF WALES QUITS VANCOUVER

Boards S. S. Princess Louise En Route To Victoria—To Hunt Game.

Vancouver, Oct. 5.—H. R. H. the Prince of Wales concluded his short stay in Vancouver today, sailing at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Victoria on the Princess Louise, which the Canadian Pacific Railway Company had placed at the disposal of the royal party.

Thousands of throats sent up cheers as they swung away from the pier, every point of vantage being crowded with persons anxious to glimpse at the prince and to assure him of their loyalty.

Looking tired but debonair, the future king stepped from the elevator at his hotel, his afternoon in the midst of a crowd that had been waiting there for hours. Neatly dressed in a light gray suit with a felt hat to match, blue shirt and soft collar, he smiled when "atta boy" rang out from many male voices, while one pushed forward and cried "God bless you, lad."

In the case, "Doesn't he look tired?" was frequently heard. As a matter of fact the prince had spent Saturday at a party in the Cardero street home of his friend, Colonel J. G. Fordham, and had not got to bed at the hotel until 6 o'clock this morning. When he arrived he was laughingly suggested to turn on the golf course instead. He retired, however.

The prince spent Saturday without families of any kind. He played squash racquets for an hour in the Fordham home. Lunching at the Jericho country club, he played 18 holes of golf there, and spent the evening at the home of Colonel Fordham.

MRS. ARTHUR KENNEDY INJURED IN CAR CRASH

London Woman Cut About Face and Wrist by Windshield Glass.

While going north on Waterloo street on Sunday evening a car driven by Arthur R. Kennedy crashed into the rear of one standing on the side of the road.

Mrs. Kennedy, who was sitting in the front seat, was thrown against the windshield, and cut about the face and on the wrist. Through the kindness of neighbors who were taken in another car to receive medical attention at St. Joseph's hospital, and later removed to her home.

This afternoon Mrs. Kennedy was reported to be greatly improved, but is suffering considerably from the severe cuts about her face.

Both cars were badly smashed, and were towed to a local garage.

THOUSANDS OF FANS ENJOY GAME THROUGH PLAYOGRAPH

Thousands of excited baseball fans thronged Richmond and York streets on Saturday afternoon to see The Advertiser playograph record the first clash in the 1924 world's series. The sidewalks leading to the Dickson-Nicholson building and south to the London Shoe company were packed with enthusiastic men and women. A thousand bleachers blocked off York street, while the windows and balconies of the Grigg house made highly-prized box seats for a large number of people.

By popular edict there was no parking of cars within a radius of half a block. The one or two motorists who attempted to see the game from the motors were quickly shooed away by the crowds. Four traffic policemen kept a narrow artery open for vehicular and street car movements, which were slowed down to the minimum.

Just as the Senators tied the count in the last half of the ninth a Springfield car, howling into view, the insatiable curiosity of the motor-man held him to see the result. The crowd would not have it, and hurried him on his way before he saw the result.

Interest Survives.
All afternoon the crowds cheered or wept over their favorite teams or favorites. It was one of the longest world's series games on record but the crowd waited, tensely interested until the last Goslin was thrown out at first to complete the struggle in the last half of the twelfth.

The game lasted three hours and seven minutes. At 5:10 the last play was recorded in front of The Advertiser office, a few seconds after the game ended in Washington.

With the last movement of the playograph the shrill cries of the cheering.

BEACH SLOWLY DISAPPEARING

Orchard Property Owners at Port Worry Over Alarming Situation.

SCHEMES MANY

The erosion of the shore at Orchard beach, Port Stanley, continues. Although at one time a 100-acre farm stretched for three miles into what is now water, this farm has long sunk into the deep. The gradual disappearance of the east Orchard beach property was increased in 1913-14 when the breakwater was built. This breakwater, if completed, would have saved the beach from collapse, but the summer residents have suffered at different times.

The original breakwater plans called for a "V" shaped concrete structure, which would shield both east and west Orchard beach, but when the Great War broke out the dominion government altered its plans, and the protection for east Orchard beach was never completed.

In a storm, the water, hitting the one breakwater, was sent directly against the beach, tearing down the cliffs and in two or three instances washing houses into the lake.

A stone wall ten feet high and six inches in diameter was constructed by J. C. Duffield of this city, in front of his summer residence at Port Stanley, but the waves broke the wall in several places.

Seeing that this was of no practical use, the summer residents built wooden piers of spiles out into the water about every sixty feet. This had the desired effect of changing the waters course and thus saving the land.

Farther down the shore where the piers are lacking the land continues to give way with alarming rapidity, twenty feet of land rolling down the 100-foot cliff being a common occurrence.

BODIES OF TWO WOMEN FOUND ON LAKE SHORE

Met Death Last Week When Motorboat Hit Rock in River.

Special to The Advertiser.
Windsor, Oct. 5.—The waters of Lake Erie today gave up the bodies of two women, who were found when the motor launch in which they were crossing from Canada struck a rock and sank in the river.

The first body recovered was that of Mrs. John Gorsuch of Rockwood, Michigan. It was found about a mile from Amherstburg. At 9 o'clock Sunday night, Coroner W. F. Park of Amherstburg was notified by telephone that the body of Mrs. Dorothy Craine of Detroit had been found on the beach near Colchester. Both bodies were in a good state of preservation, although they had been in the water a week.

The man who accompanied the women, a Michigan state trooper named Jarr, saved his life by clinging to a mooring stake.

MAYOR WENIGER REACHES HALF CENTURY MARK

Wonder What a Man Feels Like at 50? What does he think about at the half-century mark?

Ask George A. Weniger, mayor of London. His worship passed his fiftieth milestone on Sunday. He wouldn't admit that really was his age; until a couple of reporters, who must have seemed ridiculously inaccurate to the chief magistrate.

"Yes, boys, 50 years old, and I don't feel a day older," he confided. "I might be still under the 40 mark if it weren't for proof to the contrary."

Getting up at 6 in the morning, riding a bicycle before breakfast, getting down to work early, is the secret. But these late committee sessions are a bugbear. You need a strong constitution to stand them."

DRY FORCES AT BORDER FEAR PLOT TO UPSET PROHIBITION

Thirty-Seven Thousand at Windsor Register For Coming Plebiscite.

POPULATION 52,000

Mile of Pennies To Aid Hospital

Special to The Advertiser.

Ingersoll, Oct. 5.—A mile of pennies was the contribution asked from the citizens on Saturday by the women's auxiliary to Alexandra hospital. White spaces were placed on the sidewalks in which the pennies were to be placed.

Although rain fell during part of the day, the campaign was highly successful, the splendid sum of $514.53 being received. In a number of cases substantial contributions were made by the manufacturing firms.

FAIR DIRECTORS CONSIDER CHANGE

West Lambton Organization Will Discuss Two-Day Exhibit.

Sarnia, Oct. 5.—The directors of the West Lambton fair are likely to consider the advisability of curtailing the fair to a two-day event in the future. Mr. A. Sanders, secretary of the fair board, said Saturday. Last week a substantial profit was made on the second day, but the attendance on the concluding day was small, and with the expenses of horse racing and vaudeville for the day the second day margin was swallowed up. It is expected that there will be about an even break in receipts and expenditures this year.

Although it exceeded the record for August of this year, Sarnia's total for the month of September was less than the total for the corresponding month of 1923. The register of City Building Inspector Harry Walton shows, last month, fifty-six permits were issued to the value of $65,010.

At the weekly meeting of the lunching club of the chamber of commerce on Monday, Dr. W. J. Bell, chief of the child welfare department of the provincial board of health, will speak on the subject of public health.

The first members of the blue water motor hiking party returned home Saturday. The outing was an unqualified success, and will probably be made an annual affair, according to H. A. Coussé, an official of the party.

Large congregations were the order in the Sarnia churches today for prohibition field day when special speakers included Rev. Dr. Cherrington, secretary of the World League Against Alcohol, and Rev. W. E. Millson of London, secretary of the social service department of the Methodist church. County churches were also served by special prohibition speakers.

PORT STANLEY GETS LARGE WHEAT CARGO

The "Glenlinnie" Now Unloading Great Part of 50,000 Bushels.

The "Glenlinnie," with 50,000 bushels of wheat, is unloading the greater part of the cargo at Port Stanley today. The grain is of excellent quality and is consigned to the Empire Flour Mills, St. Thomas.

About twenty men were sent to Port Stanley this morning from the St. Thomas mill to unload the boat. The "Glenlinnie" comes from Fort William, and will sail on down the lake, unloading the remainder of the cargo at scheduled points.

The boat made the Port Stanley harbor about 12:30 last night, but owing to adverse winds and high seas was two hours late. The lake was rough this morning, and it is doubtful if she will leave the shelter of the harbor today.

GREEKS FORCED TO QUIT TURKEY DURING MONTH

Thirty-Six Thousand Leaving Constantinople Under Officials' Order.

By A. R. DECKER.
Special Cable to The Advertiser and the Chicago Daily News. Copying but Constantinople, Oct. 4.—Thirty-six thousand Greeks must leave Constantinople this month, says Teufel Ruchdi Bey, a retiring member of the Turkish delegation on the populations exchange commission. Sixteen thousand and passports have been issued and another 20,000 are in preparation. There are also left in Constantinople 150,000 Greeks to wonder what fate will bring.

A Turkish official sent to Salonika to embark the immigrants for Turkey met with a strike on the part of the immigrants, most of whom are artisans and would prefer to go to Constantinople rather than the cities of Asia Minor, where the government wishes to send them, owing to a business depression in Constantinople, and the fact that there are already too many artisans there unemployed.

All widowed immigrants will be installed in Ouchak, Sparta and Kuthia, where they will be taught rug making, in the effort to hold the rug business, which has been lost with the emigrated Greeks.

GALT REVISING OFFICER RECEIVES MANY APPEALS

Galt, Oct. 5.—Practically 1,300 names were submitted to Revising Officer Cecil Simpson on Saturday to be added to the voters' list to be used in the referendum on Oct. 23.

Will take the officer a few days to go through these applications. Of the 1,300 names, about 800 were submitted by the moderates, and the balance by the prohibitionists.

The Empire Medicine

—the preparation which has won the confidence of every country under the British Flag—the remedy which has brought health and happiness to millions of men and women in every part of the Empire—the treatment which is resorted to everywhere for ailments such as Sick Headache, Biliousness, Indigestion and Constipation—often considered insignificant; yet, decidedly inconvenient—ailments which have their origin in a dyspeptic condition of the stomach and a torpid action of the liver—

is

Beecham's Pills

RED BLOOD MAKES ALL OUR STRENGTH

WHAT gives every man his strength? Red blood. What makes the vibrant beauty of woman? Red blood.

Red blood is the driving force of life. If we lack strength we should think first of our blood. We should create more red blood. Then, through the new vitality that comes with rich, red blood, we quickly regain lost strength and vital nerve power.

Weak men and women can find an easy, safe way to create red blood. Then, as the blood is nourished, they will find strength quickly returning.

Wincarnis gives to the blood the very elements from which red blood is created. For fifty years this blood builder has restored exhausted, nervous, pale, thin sufferers.

If your body vitality is at a low ebb go to your druggist today and begin the safe Wincarnis treatment. A sixteen ounce bottle, which is a fourteen day Wincarnis treatment, is sold by all leading druggists for $1.50.

Wincarnis is so effective that only three table-spoonfuls a day need be taken. Try Wincarnis at once and realize the new strength just a few days will bring.

WINCARNIS

Coleman & Company Ltd. 67 Portland St., Toronto

WASHINGTON SURE BELCOURT NAMED

Friends Feel Senator Will Not Accept Because of Senate Post.

Associated Press Despatch.
Washington, Oct. 5.—Reports that Senator Napoleon Antoine Belcourt has been offered the post of Canadian ambassador to the United States are said, on good authority, to be well founded.

Information as to whether Senator Belcourt will accept is lacking. Some doubt as to whether he will accept the post, in view of his position as senator is expressed by those who know him.

It is said, unofficially, that Senator Belcourt would be agreeable to the American government, which would gladly welcome an exchange of ambassadorships between the United States and Canada.

Carnation Milk

"From Contented Cows"

Safe for Baby's Bottle

HOW fortunate that, when wean-milk time arrives or mother's milk fails, there is such a safe, pure, uniform and highly nutritive food supply as Carnation Milk. Baby's health is doubly guarded by the quality of the milk at its source and by the immaculate Carnation cleanliness and the scientific Carnation sterilization.

Full instructions and charts on infant feeding are given in a special folder gladly sent on request. Or ask your physician.

Your grocer sells Carnation Milk in tall (16 oz.) cans or cases of 48 cans.

Produced in Canada by CARNATION MILK PRODUCTS COMPANY, LIMITED
Aylmer Ontario

The Label is Red and White

119

119

119

119

119

119

119

119

119

119

119

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY
EVENINGS AT 8:15, AND SATURDAY
MATTINEE AT 2:15.

Special Engagement of the Distinguished Tragedian
ROBERT BRUCE AND GENEVIEVE HAMPER

In an Impressive Series of the World's Matchless Plays.

Thursday "Richard III" Sat. Matinee "As You Like It"
Friday "King Lear" Sat. Night "Merchant of Venice"

NOTE—Friday and Saturday night programs changed at request of school principals.

A Complete Production for Each Play.

PRICES: EVENINGS 50c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00
MATTINEE 50c, $1.00, $1.50
BOX OFFICE SEAT SALE NOW OPEN

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC

TODAY

THE WHIRLY GIRLY REVUE

THE KANDY KIDS

A Frolicsome Funfest of Mirth and Melody

JOHNNY WEBER and SAMMY SPEARS

CANDY GIVEN AWAY TO THE LADIES AT EACH PERFORMANCE.

MATS. 25c and 50c
EVGS. 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.

Ladies' Daily Bargain Mats. 25c

WORLD'S SERIES BASEBALL RESULTS ANNOUNCED FROM STAGE.

AMUSEMENTS

LOEW'S

Clean, Wholesome Entertainment.

TONIGHT

That Snappy Musical Comedy,

THE CAMEO GIRL

Starring Lady King-Tenison, Marion Beck and Stanley Meredith

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

MON., TUES., WED.

Tickets 75c, $1.00
Gallery Seats = 50c

LAURETTE TAYLOR

in "One Night in Rome"

by J. Hartley Manners

VAUDEVILLE

27th Division Boys in "GETTING IT OVER" and TWO OTHER BIG ACTS.

AMUSEMENTS

LOEW'S

Clean, Wholesome Entertainment.

TONIGHT

That Snappy Musical Comedy,

THE CAMEO GIRL

Starring Lady King-Tenison, Marion Beck and Stanley Meredith

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

MON., TUES., WED.

Tickets 75c, $1.00
Gallery Seats = 50c

LAURETTE TAYLOR

in "One Night in Rome"

by J. Hartley Manners

VAUDEVILLE

27th Division Boys in "GETTING IT OVER" and TWO OTHER BIG ACTS.

AMUSEMENTS

LOEW'S

Clean, Wholesome Entertainment.

TONIGHT

That Snappy Musical Comedy,

THE CAMEO GIRL

Starring Lady King-Tenison, Marion Beck and Stanley Meredith

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

MON., TUES., WED.

Tickets 75c, $1.00
Gallery Seats = 50c

LAURETTE TAYLOR

in "One Night in Rome"

by J. Hartley Manners

VAUDEVILLE

27th Division Boys in "GETTING IT OVER" and TWO OTHER BIG ACTS.

AMUSEMENTS

LOEW'S

Clean, Wholesome Entertainment.

TONIGHT

That Snappy Musical Comedy,

THE CAMEO GIRL

Starring Lady King-Tenison, Marion Beck and Stanley Meredith

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

MON., TUES., WED.

Tickets 75c, $1.00
Gallery Seats = 50c

LAURETTE TAYLOR

in "One Night in Rome"

by J. Hartley Manners

VAUDEVILLE

27th Division Boys in "GETTING IT OVER" and TWO OTHER BIG ACTS.

MALE HELP WANTED

EARN upwards of $25 weekly, growing mushrooms for us in cellars. Illustrated booklet and particulars sent for 3c stamp. Dominion Mushroom Co., Toronto.

FEMALE HELP WANTED

AMBITIOUS reliable woman to train as caretaker for position with Spirella Co. outdoor work, good pay. Phone 2244 for interview.

WANTED at once, an experienced saleslady for ready-to-wear department. Apply J. H. Gould, care J. H. Gould, Limited, St. Thomas.

WANTED—Experienced cook general. Apply 78 Albert St.

WANTED—Men and women to earn $5 to $25 weekly at home; no canvassing; experience unnecessary; distance immaterial; particulars 3c stamp. Address: T. W. Chadburn, Dept. C-15, Station D, Toronto.

HELP WANTED

LEARN BARBER TRADE at Canada's best and oldest established school; we pay you while learning and give you most graduate course free; position secured when course completed; write for catalogue. Mular Barber College, 138 East Queen St., Toronto.

MAKE MONEY at home writing show cards for us; we instruct and provide work, particulars free. K. W. Showcard System, Bond Street, Toronto.

SELL Greeting Cards—Unusual opportunity to earn $150 to $300 monthly, selling personal greeting cards; side line or full time. Weekly payment. Samples free. Selling experience unnecessary. Get details from J. M. Kraft Greeting Card Co., Toronto.

SITUATIONS WANTED

CAPABLE young lady desires position in dentist's or doctor's office. Apply Box 125, Advertiser.

C. W. LONG, A.T.S.C., Eng., baritone, seeks choir training, large experience. 411 Ontario St., Stratford.

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND—On York St., bunch of keys, on Saturday morning. Owner may have same by paying ad and proving property. 12 Bathurst St.

LOST—A large brown leather purse on Richmond St. or Normal car, 12 Evergreen Ave.

LEGAL CARDS

BARTMAN, W. G. R.—Barrister, notary, etc. 59 Dundas St.

BUCHNER & RAMSAY—Barristers, solicitors, etc. 220 Dundas St. W.

CARROLL, CECIL C.—Barrister, solicitor, notary, etc. 220 Dundas St. W.

CRONIN & BETTS & BLACK—Frederick P. Betts, K.C., F. C. Betts and J. D. Black, Barristers and Solicitors, 100 Dundas St. W., Toronto.

CURRAN, FRANK H.—Barrister, solicitor, notary, Bank Montreal, etc. 141 Dundas St. W., Toronto.

DOUGLAS, A. R.—Barrister, solicitor, notary public, Oak Hall Building, 119 Dundas St. W.

FITZGERALD, W. C.—Barrister, notary, 119 Dundas St. W.

GIBSON, HARTER & BRADEN—Barristers, etc. Imperial Bank Bldg. F. E. Harper, J. A. Braden.

GLADMAN & STANBURY—Barristers, solicitors, etc. 100 Dundas St. W.

GRAYDON & GRAYDON—Barristers, Market Sq. north, Bank of Montreal Building.

GREENLEAF, F. HARRY—Barrister, solicitor, 100 Dundas St. W.

MACPHERSON & FERRIN—Barristers, 57 Dundas St. W.

MAJOR G. N. WICKES, Barrister and Solicitor, 100 Dundas St. W.

MEVVOY, JUDG & HENDERSON—Barristers and solicitors. Money to loan. Bank of Toronto Chambers.

MENZIES & CLUFF—Barristers, solicitors, etc. 404 Talbot St. Tel. 874.

MURPHY, GUNN & MURPHY—Bank Toronto Chambers, 100 Dundas St. W.

RIDOUT & MAYBEE—159 Yonge St., Toronto, solicitors of patents and experts in patent law. Send for our latest.

SCANDRETT, T. W.—Barrister, solicitor, notary, money loaned, 95 Dundas St. W.

SPENCER & BRAND—Barristers, solicitors, 211 Dundas St. W.

TENNENT—Barristers, notaries, etc. 75 Dundas St.

OSTEOPATHY

CATON, DR. H. V., has removed to 330 Adelaide St. between Dundas and King Sts. Phone 1512.

MEETINGS

Second Machine Gun Battalion

Will parade at 8 p.m. WEDNESDAY the 8th October and each Wednesday thereafter until further notice.

Adjutant 2nd Bn. C.M.G.C. 8c

Canadian Fusiliers

(City of London Regt.) The Battalion will parade at the armories, Monday night, Oct. 6, at 8 p.m. Buglers, drummers and fifers welcome.

M. W. MINCHIN, Lieut. Adjutant The Canadian Fusiliers, 81c

A REGULAR monthly meeting of the Tuscany Lodge, No. 195, A. F. and M. G. R. C., will be held in their lodge rooms, Masonic Temple, Queen Ave., Monday evening, Oct. 6, 1924, at 7:30 o'clock. First degree. Visitors cordially welcome. Thos. G. Benson, W. M.; B. H. Higgins, Secretary.

MAY QUEEN Rebekah Lodge, No. 5, will meet tonight, Mrs. Nellie Dunlop, N. G.; Mrs. Betty Dunlop, R. S. Visitors welcome.

ORANGE Carpathian League—The meeting will be held in the T. S. hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 8. All members interested please attend.

ROOMS TO LET

A COMFORTABLE room, suitable for business man, at 49 Stanley St. Phone 8276.

FURNISHED rooms and bachelor apartments. Apply 275 Wellington St.

LARGE furnished rooms, all conveniences. Apply 528 Talbot St. or phone 6212.

BORN, MARRIED, DIED

DIED.

CARTER—At his late residence, 175 Albert St., on Saturday, Oct. 4, 1924, Henry James Carter, in his 75th year. Funeral will leave the above address on Tuesday, Oct. 7, Service at 2:30. Friends and acquaintances please accept this intimation. Interment in Woodland Cemetery.

JARVIS—At her late residence, 63 Elmwood Ave., on Sunday, Oct. 5, 1924, Emma Wilson, dearly beloved wife of Dr. Roland Jarvis. Funeral services private at the above address on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. Interment in Woodland Cemetery.

LADLAW—At Fenton, B. C., Oct. 5, Wm. G. Ladlaw, husband of Jane Ladlaw, in his 83rd year. Funeral at Fenton, Monday, Oct. 6.

MURRAY—Passed into rest, Sunday, Oct. 5, 1924, Stuart Alan, dearly beloved son of John and Mabel Murray, aged 8 years. Services on Tuesday at 7:30 at the home of his parents, 451 King St. Friends and acquaintances kindly accept this intimation.

WESTLAKE—At his late residence, 1824 George St., on Sunday, Oct. 5, 1924, George Westlake, aged 81 years. Funeral services at the above address on Wednesday, 2 p.m. Interment in Woodland Cemetery.

REAL ESTATE

BAINARD & COATES, LTD., LOCATORS.

South—$7,000, rug brick, square plan, 2 1/2 stories, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric water heater, electric range, wired for stove, 4 bedrooms and bath, attractive, modern, with French doors, casement windows, etc. Lot 42x155. $6,000, 6000 cash and $40 a month, new rug brick, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric range, wired for stove, choice veranda, reception hall, French doors, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric range, wired for stove, dining-room, swinging door to kitchen, oak floors down, 3 bedrooms and bath and 4 closets. Closest to street, close to grade door, cement walks. If it's a home you want see this. Phone 7041W. Residences, 348W and 2202J. Office, Moore Building, King and Bait.

MODERN residence, north end, hardwood finish throughout, hot water heating, slate roof, garage, in splendid situation, 135 Bridport St. Easy terms.

RED brick cottage, 6 rooms, modern, Arundel St., south Hamilton Rd.; $4,000, $500 down balance $20 a month. J. W. G. Winnet.

THAT STONE HOUSE, 926 Waterbury St., now nearly finished and for sale; nothing like it in the city; go and see. Phone 6956W for appointment to inspect interior. G. N. Weekes.

UNIVERSITY students or teachers; attention! $6,000 terms. I will sell my new rug brick bungalow for $6,000, with terms to suit. It is modern in every detail, has three large bedrooms, kitchen with many built-in features, dining-room and large bright living-room with fireplace, 3 W.C.s and chestnut woodwork throughout, large veranda, full basement, hot water, 3-piece bath, modern kitchen, garage, taxes only $25, within walking distance of university. For further particulars phone 2611.

1 1/2-STORY BRICK HOUSE, fully modern, newly decorated, lovely exterior, garage, etc. Law for cash or quick sale. Apply 125 Advertiser.

$200 cash and $20 per month buys eight-room, frame, hydro, water, garage, large lot, low balance $2,700. J. C. Alexander, 119 King St.

REAL ESTATE

BAINARD & COATES, LTD., LOCATORS.

South—$7,000, rug brick, square plan, 2 1/2 stories, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric water heater, electric range, wired for stove, 4 bedrooms and bath, attractive, modern, with French doors, casement windows, etc. Lot 42x155. $6,000, 6000 cash and $40 a month, new rug brick, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric range, wired for stove, choice veranda, reception hall, French doors, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric range, wired for stove, dining-room, swinging door to kitchen, oak floors down, 3 bedrooms and bath and 4 closets. Closest to street, close to grade door, cement walks. If it's a home you want see this. Phone 7041W. Residences, 348W and 2202J. Office, Moore Building, King and Bait.

MODERN residence, north end, hardwood finish throughout, hot water heating, slate roof, garage, in splendid situation, 135 Bridport St. Easy terms.

RED brick cottage, 6 rooms, modern, Arundel St., south Hamilton Rd.; $4,000, $500 down balance $20 a month. J. W. G. Winnet.

THAT STONE HOUSE, 926 Waterbury St., now nearly finished and for sale; nothing like it in the city; go and see. Phone 6956W for appointment to inspect interior. G. N. Weekes.

UNIVERSITY students or teachers; attention! $6,000 terms. I will sell my new rug brick bungalow for $6,000, with terms to suit. It is modern in every detail, has three large bedrooms, kitchen with many built-in features, dining-room and large bright living-room with fireplace, 3 W.C.s and chestnut woodwork throughout, large veranda, full basement, hot water, 3-piece bath, modern kitchen, garage, taxes only $25, within walking distance of university. For further particulars phone 2611.

1 1/2-STORY BRICK HOUSE, fully modern, newly decorated, lovely exterior, garage, etc. Law for cash or quick sale. Apply 125 Advertiser.

$200 cash and $20 per month buys eight-room, frame, hydro, water, garage, large lot, low balance $2,700. J. C. Alexander, 119 King St.

FOR SALE

ALE, real stock, Burton and Stout, Tel. 5345W. Delivered free. Victory Products, 75 Dundas St.

A—NEW preparation discovered to especially remove paint, varnish and grease, for sale only by Professor Swan, 534 Dundas St.

APEN—ACUTY cleaners, regular $60 for $40. L. Electric Company, 316 Grey St. Phone 4262W.

BRITANNICA, ninth edition; set Balmace, Harvard classics, Kinastore's History of Canada, the electrical and medical books. Hamilton's, 20 King St.

CHAMBERLIN Metal Weather Strip Agency, C. McDonald. Phone 5573J.

ELECTRIC WIRING, fixtures and appliances. Bowley Electric, the Store with the Stock, 306 Dundas St. Tel. 2203.

FLOYD the woven cream wicker baby buggy, cheap for quick sale. Phone 676W.

FULL LINE Pedal perfect product, including metal lath, shingles, corrugated iron and galvanized. Brick and Supply Co., 609 William, Phone 4244.

FURNITURE bought and sold, also auctioned on commission. G. H. Ralph, 411 Ridout St. Tel. 6844W. Residence 3576W.

IT'S CHEAPER to wash with a Sunbys electric washer, sold on easy terms. 609 William, Phone 4244.

LARGE assortment fall and winter hats, moderately priced. Miss Blackmore, 700 Dundas St. We venture NO LEAK roofing paint, $2 gallon; just the thing to stop all leaks. London Wrecking Company, 500 Bathurst St. Phone 634W.

PHONOGRAPHS

$1 DOWN, $1 weekly 19 selections free 10th every phonograph, 14 months to choose from.

ASHTON'S MUSIC STORE

Open Every Evening.
627 DUNDAS ST. W. PHONE 955M.

LET me single your buildings with asphalt shingles. Make it look like slate at moderate prices. N. Noel, 200 St. Julien St.

WELSH, A.—Builder, contractor, jobbing a specialty. 558 Colborne St.

PLUMBING AND HEATING.

DON'T HESITATE, but send for H. R. Dixon the plumber, 300 Cheapside, Tel. 174W.

LET US attend to your plumbing and steamfitting; all work guaranteed. Allen & Pope, 553 Chealey. Phone 2234V and 2350W.

PLUMBING and repairs—W. O. Elliott, 69 Becher St. Phone 4348W.

R. MILNE, plumbing and heating. Repair work, a specialty. 649 Talbot St. Phone 3965.

WILLIAMS & ROBERTS—Plumbing and heating. 237 Clarence St. Phone 1724W, all work guaranteed, estimates free.

WRIGHT-LEALE CO., plumbers and steamfitters, 60 York St. Tel. 793.

PRINTING.

THE HOLLIS PRESS for fine printing, stationery, etc. Call or phone 7812W. 761 Dundas St.

TAILORING AND REPAIRING.

NOW is the time to have your overcoat re-lined and pressed. South Garment Care, 100 King St. W.

SUITS CLEANED, pressed and repaired; tailoring to measure; custom-made suits; alterations; repairs; etc. Lastman, corner Lorne and Elizabeth St. Phone 2573J.

THE MATTILAND—Dry-cleaning and pressing, alterations, suits, etc., made to order. 100 King St. W. Phone 4348W.

READY-MADE GARGLES, $2.50. complete Examination free. F. Steele, otolaryngist, opposite Loew's Theatre. W. H. Munday, market pavilion.

REINE CLAUDE PLUMS now ready. W. H. Munday, market pavilion.

ROSE BUSHES, bulbs, shrubs. London Floral Exchange, 5 Windsor Ave. Phone 5685P.

SEE QUICK the Upholsterer about your furniture when in need of re-covering. 424 Adelaide St. W. Phone 3882J.

SINGER machines and other makes. $10 up; cheap for quick sale. C. H. Robinson, 709 Dundas St. W., upstairs.

SLIGHTLY used upright piano. This piano is in A1 condition, and is a real buy at $350 with cash terms. ASHTON'S MUSIC STORE, 627 Dundas St. W. Phone 955M.

SOD finest quality lawn, in any quantity. George and John, 1150 Gileas 209 Talbot St. Phone 5631J.

$65 BUYS an eight-piece dining-room suite, buffet, table and six slip-seat chairs. In excellent condition. Take your old furniture in exchange on new goods. Collett Furniture, 97 King St. W. Phone 3513W.

BUY WITH CONFIDENCE AT THE LONDON MOTOMART

Where courteous salesmen will be glad to explain our method of selling cars.

FORD Coupe, 1920.
FORD Coupe, 1921.
FORD Coupe, 1924.
FORD Sedan, 1921.
FORD Sedan, 1923.
FORD Light Delivery, 1921.
FORD Roadster, 1921.
FORD Touring, 1920.
FORD Touring, 1921.
FORD Touring, 1922.
FORD Touring, 1923.
CHEVROLET Sedan, 1922.
CHEVROLET Special Touring, 1922.
DODGE Coupe, 1922.
PAIGE Touring, 1921.
CADILLAC Touring, model V-57.
McLAUGHLIN 4-cyl. Touring, 1918.
GRANT Touring, 1919.

LONDON MOTOMART
127-129 QUEEN'S AVE. W.
PHONE 7031.

CAR BARGAINS

McLaughlin Sedan, 1919 model. This car is in A1 condition. A snap at $750.00. Call or write to Mr. J. C. McLaughlin, 127-129 Queen's Ave. W. This car is a wonderful buy at $625.00. Come and see it.

307 Talbot St.

CITY CAR LAUNDRY—Cars washed, etc., by experts. 381 Wellington St. Tel. 765.

DR. H. A. STEVENSON, X-ray, Dr. C. R. Blackall, rep.

FORD TOURING, best buy in London; good condition and cheap. 48 Becher St.

AUTO ACCESSORIES

FORD BUMPERS, regular $15 line for $5.50, only a few left at these prices. London Auto Wreckers, 264 Horton St. Phone 350J.

AUTO REPAIRS

AUTOMOBILES PAINTED, $15 a month. Hueston's Garage, 350 Wellington St.

AUTO tops, body trimming and slip-covers. M. Wilson & Sons, 237 Talbot St. Tel. 5320.

HAVE your repair work done at the Windsor Highway Garage. Carbon burnt out while you wait. 405 poplar. Phone 4251P.

HIGH-CLASS auto painting at low prices. Ed. E. Fuller, 231 Queen's St. over Morrison's Garage.

TAXI SERVICE.

BLUE BONNET TAXI—Tel. 6262. Baggage transfer. We never sleep.

DAVIS TAXI Service—Heated sedans, Specialized porters. X-232, 331 Queen's St. W. Tel. 7670.

DOLLAR TAXI—Phone 931; 50c fare, $1. any part of city, night or day.

HENRY TAXI—Phone 289 (formerly Mackay-Hexter). 42 Richmond St.

MARLEY TAXI—Reliable drivers and cars at reasonable rates. Phone 2322.

ROOM AND BOARD.

SOUTH—Nice furnished rooms, with board; private home. Phone 7392, after 6:30 p.m.

MONUMENTS

WHEN it's occasion arises, consult your family funeral director or regard the automatic concrete sealing burial vault.

BICYCLES, lawn mowers, etc., repaired and sharpened by an expert, J. Grossman, 413 Richmond St. Phone 1133J.

CHEST mixer and mangle for hire, by specialist. Boyd, 56 King St. 229J.

FARMERS' ATTENTION.

We repair all makes of implements. Superior Machinery Company, Ltd., 140 Tecumseh House, York St.

FEATHER pillows and mattresses renovated at Hunt & Sons, 933 Richmond St. Phone 4252.

GEORGE C. TELFER—Horse-shoeing a specialty. Blacksmith and general repairs promptly attended to. Corner Adelaide and Pail Mall.

H. WOODHOUSE—Floors scrubbed, waxed and general office cleaning; Windows a specialty. Phone 7450.

HAVE your chairs, couches, etc., sent to 89 Wharncliffe Rd. to be upholstered. Phone Mr. Fughe, 3654.

MAKINELLO system for faces, scalp, chopdye. Removal of superfluous hair permanently. Miss Beattie, Talbot and Fullerton, Phone 627W.

ONTARIO SHOE REPAIR—All work guaranteed; only best Ladies' materials used. $1.00. Ladies' nailed sole, 75c. Men's rubber heels, 40c. Men's nailed sole, $1.00. Men's rubber heels, 50c. Work called for and delivered the same day. 203 Wellington St. Phone 8012W.

PIANO tuning and repairing. Joseph Smith, 1076 Trafalgar St. Phone 2077J.

SLATE roofing—Our specialty is slate shingles. J. Whitaker, 551 King St.

WARREN BROS., machinists—Machine work of all kinds, cylinder blocks ground, welding, etc. and used nail block grinding. 109 Rectory St.

BUILDERS AND CONTRACTORS.

ARTHUR MOULD—Roofing contractor. Phone 7351W. Asphalt and gravel roads, asphalt shingles, expert repairs.

CEMENT foundations, cisterns, sewers, etc. F. Smith, 258 Elgin St. Phone 712J.

IF IT IS carpenter work, phone 2419. John H. Nichols, house specialist, 214 Edward St.

LET me single your buildings with asphalt shingles. Make it look like slate at moderate prices. N. Noel, 200 St. Julien St.

WELSH, A.—Builder, contractor, jobbing a specialty. 558 Colborne St.

PLUMBING AND HEATING.

DON'T HESITATE, but send for H. R. Dixon the plumber, 300 Cheapside, Tel. 174W.

LET US attend to your plumbing and steamfitting; all work guaranteed. Allen & Pope, 553 Chealey. Phone 2234V and 2350W.

PLUMBING and repairs—W. O. Elliott, 69 Becher St. Phone 4348W.

R. MILNE, plumbing and heating. Repair work, a specialty. 649 Talbot St. Phone 3965.

WILLIAMS & ROBERTS—Plumbing and heating. 237 Clarence St. Phone 1724W, all work guaranteed, estimates free.

WRIGHT-LEALE CO., plumbers and steamfitters, 60 York St. Tel. 793.

PRINTING.

THE HOLLIS PRESS for fine printing, stationery, etc. Call or phone 7812W. 761 Dundas St.

TAILORING AND REPAIRING.

NOW is the time to have your overcoat re-lined and pressed. South Garment Care, 100 King St. W.

SUITS CLEANED, pressed and repaired; tailoring to measure; custom-made suits; alterations; repairs; etc. Lastman, corner Lorne and Elizabeth St. Phone 2573J.

THE MATTILAND—Dry-cleaning and pressing, alterations, suits, etc., made to order. 100 King St. W. Phone 4348W.

DENTAL CARDS

BLAIR, DR. JOHN F.—Office, 241 Queen's Ave. W. Phone 1400.

FRASER, DR. A. G.—Dentist; practice limited to X-ray and extraction. 238 Queen's Ave. W. Phone 224W.

WINDRIM, DR. HAROLD L.—General practice. 241 Queen's Ave. W. Phone 1827W-1827J.

FREZZELL, DR. M. J.—359 1/2 Richmond St. over Taylor's Drug Store.

KELLY, DR. V.—Fixed and removable bridge work. 211 Queen's Ave. Tel. 1400.

MOORE, DR. S. A.—Orthodontist, 241 Queen's Ave. Practice limited to straightening teeth. Dewey graduate, N. Y.

POSS, DR. J. V.—Corner Dundas and Richmond, over C. N. R. office. Tel. 271.

TAYLOR, DR. H. D.—532 Dundas St. Evening appointments. Phone 4813.

THOMAS, DR. ROSS—General practice, Specialized porters. X-232, 331 Queen's St. W. Tel. 7670.

WESTLAND, DR. W. S.—Dentist, post-graduate crown and bridge work, etc. Practicing at 331 Queen's St. W. Tel. 7670.

WILKEY, DR. W. J.—163 Wortley Rd. Tel. 417. Evening appointments.

ARCHITECTS & SURVEYORS

FARNCOCK, F. W.—Civil engineer, surveyor. 207 Dom. Savings. Tel. 552.

MURRAY, H. C.—Architect, Malson Building. Phone 223W.

MURRAY, WILLIAM H.—Architect, Dom. Savings Building. Phone 1557W.

MOORE & CO., JOHN M.—Architects and engineers. 489 Richmond St.

REAL ESTATE

BAINARD & COATES, LTD., LOCATORS.

South—$7,000, rug brick, square plan, 2 1/2 stories, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric water heater, electric range, wired for stove, 4 bedrooms and bath, attractive, modern, with French doors, casement windows, etc. Lot 42x155. $6,000, 6000 cash and $40 a month, new rug brick, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric range, wired for stove, choice veranda, reception hall, French doors, 12 rooms, 1200 sq. ft. base, electric range, wired for stove, dining-room, swinging door to kitchen, oak floors down, 3 bedrooms and bath and 4 closets. Closest to street, close to grade door, cement walks. If it's a home you want see this. Phone 7041W. Residences, 348W and 2202J. Office, Moore Building, King and Bait.

MODERN residence, north end, hardwood finish throughout, hot water heating, slate roof, garage, in splendid situation, 135 Bridport St. Easy terms.

RED brick cottage, 6 rooms, modern, Arundel St., south Hamilton Rd.; $4,000, $500 down balance $20 a month. J. W. G. Winnet.

THAT STONE HOUSE, 926 Waterbury St., now nearly finished and for sale; nothing like it in the city; go and see. Phone 6956W for appointment to inspect interior. G. N. Weekes.

UNIVERSITY students or teachers; attention! $6,000 terms. I will sell my new rug brick bungalow for $6,000, with terms to suit. It is modern in every detail, has three large bedrooms, kitchen with many built-in features, dining-room and large bright living-room with fireplace, 3 W.C.s and chestnut woodwork throughout, large veranda, full basement, hot water, 3-piece bath, modern kitchen, garage, taxes only $25, within walking distance of university. For further particulars phone 2611.

1 1/2-STORY BRICK HOUSE, fully modern, newly decorated, lovely exterior, garage, etc. Law for cash or quick sale. Apply 125 Advertiser.

$200 cash and $20 per month buys eight-room, frame, hydro, water, garage, large lot, low balance $2,700. J. C. Alexander, 119 King St.

BUSINESS CARDS

BICYCLES, lawn mowers, etc., repaired and sharpened by an expert, J. Grossman, 413 Richmond St. Phone 1133J.

CHEST mixer and mangle for hire, by specialist. Boyd, 56 King St. 229J.

FARMERS' ATTENTION.

We repair all makes of implements. Superior Machinery Company, Ltd., 140 Tecumseh House, York St.

FEATHER pillows and mattresses renovated at Hunt & Sons, 933 Richmond St. Phone 4252.

GEORGE C. TELFER—Horse-shoeing a specialty. Blacksmith and general repairs promptly attended to. Corner Adelaide and Pail Mall.

H. WOODHOUSE—Floors scrubbed, waxed and general office cleaning; Windows a specialty. Phone 7450.

HAVE your chairs, couches, etc., sent to 89 Wharncliffe Rd. to be upholstered. Phone Mr. Fughe, 3654.

MAKINELLO system for faces, scalp, chopdye. Removal of superfluous hair permanently. Miss Beattie, Talbot and Fullerton, Phone 627W.

ONTARIO SHOE REPAIR—All work guaranteed; only best Ladies' materials used. $1.00. Ladies' nailed sole, 75c. Men's rubber heels, 40c. Men's nailed sole, $1.00. Men's rubber heels, 50c. Work called for and delivered the same day. 203 Wellington St. Phone 8012W.

PIANO tuning and repairing. Joseph Smith, 1076 Trafalgar St. Phone 2077J.

SLATE roofing—Our specialty is slate shingles. J. Whitaker, 551 King St.

WARREN BROS., machinists—Machine work of all kinds, cylinder blocks ground, welding, etc. and used nail block grinding. 109 Rectory St.

BUILDERS AND CONTRACTORS.

ARTHUR MOULD—Roofing contractor. Phone 7351W. Asphalt and gravel roads, asphalt shingles, expert repairs.

CEMENT foundations, cisterns, sewers, etc. F. Smith, 258 Elgin St. Phone 712J.

IF IT IS carpenter work, phone 2419. John H. Nichols, house specialist, 214 Edward St.

LET me single your buildings with asphalt shingles. Make it look like slate at moderate prices. N. Noel, 200 St. Julien St.

WELSH, A.—Builder, contractor, jobbing a specialty. 558 Colborne St.

PLUMBING AND HEATING.

DON'T HESITATE, but send for H. R. Dixon the plumber, 300 Cheapside, Tel. 174W.

LET US attend to your plumbing and steamfitting; all work guaranteed. Allen & Pope, 553 Chealey. Phone 2234V and 2350W.

PLUMBING and repairs—W. O. Elliott, 69 Becher St. Phone 4348W.

R. MILNE, plumbing and heating. Repair work, a specialty. 649 Talbot St. Phone 3965.

WILLIAMS & ROBERTS—Plumbing and heating. 237 Clarence St. Phone 1724W, all work guaranteed, estimates free.

WRIGHT-LEALE CO., plumbers and steamfitters, 60 York St. Tel. 793.

PRINTING.

THE HOLLIS PRESS for fine printing, stationery, etc. Call or phone 7812W. 761 Dundas St.

TAILORING AND REPAIRING.

NOW is the time to have your overcoat re-lined and pressed. South Garment Care, 100 King St. W.

SUITS CLEANED, pressed and repaired; tailoring to measure; custom-made suits; alterations; repairs; etc. Lastman, corner Lorne and Elizabeth St. Phone 2573J.

THE MATTILAND—Dry-cleaning and pressing, alterations, suits, etc., made to order. 100 King St. W. Phone 4348W.

PERSONAL

ALL KINDS of scissors, knives, etc., sharpened. London Ken Edge, 698 Dundas St. Phone 3166.

ARCHES raised for $1.00 by a foot specialist. Boyd, 56 King St. 229J.

BEYON Private Nursing Home, 518 King St. Phone 4163W.

COMB to Earl Arnold's Barber Shop and get high-class work at popular prices. 91 King St.

DRESSMAKING, latest styles, price moderate. Miss Marshall, 922 Dufferin St. Phone 4252.

DR. LE ROY HILES specialist in all throat ailments. 202 Dundas St. Phone 7308.

DR. M. W. EDGAR—Nervous, circulatory and organic diseases permanently cured by electro-therapeutics. 516 Richmond. Phone 1009M.

GENINE—old antiques at Lessee's Antique Shoppe, 71 Dundas St.

GET YOUR SKIRT pleated for $1 at The London Pleating Company, 21-260 service, free delivery. 413 Dundas St. Phone 6970.

HEMSTITCHING cotton, per linen 7c; silk, 8c per yard; mail orders filled. Sylvia Williams, 129 Hamilton Rd. Phone 4232P.

IF YOU try our home-made cooking once, we know you will become a steady customer. The Blue Bird Bakery, 252 Talbot St. Phone 4270.

LADIES' ATTENTION.

VERY latest fashions in hats, shingle and boyish bob done by experts. Marcelling, shampooing and massaging. Appointment to call Miss Woodall, our expert lady manager, Tecumseh House Barber Shop, Phone 3000F.

LEVITT, M. J. (successor to Henry Edwards)—Cancers cured with plaster. Advice free. 350 Ridout St. Phone 4270.

LOOK YOUR BEST—Have a permanent wave. Grey Beauty Shop, 221 1/2 Dundas St. W. Tel. 2623W. Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. Eady.

MARCELLING A SPECIALTY—LADY attendant, also five barbers. Banner Barber Shop, 417 Talbot St. Tel. 1760. Hair cut, 25c; shave, 15c.

MATERNITY HOME, private—Mrs. T. White, 1009 Maitland St. Phone 1642J.

MOLDS, warts, superfluous hair permanently removed by electrolysis. Mrs. May McCall, 19 Cynthia St. 3000F.

NOTICE—Madam Melva, Canada's foremost plastic and psychologist, at 423 Clarence, opposite Patricia Theatre. Tel. 174W. her own matters.

PRACTICAL NURSE—Experienced, country calls accepted, will assist with

Use MURINE
NIGHT & MORNING &
KEEP YOUR EYES
CLEAN CLEAR AND HEALTHY
SEE YOUR EYE DOCTOR MURINE CO., CHICAGO

Rowat's Teas

Our Special Blends Please People Who Are Particular. 70c, 80c, 90c, $1.00, $1.10 and $2.00 a Pound.

T.A. Rowat & Co.
250 Dundas St. Phone 3051-3052.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

Thousands of people drug themselves for headache when eye-strain really is the trouble. Care for the eyes that care for you.

Brown Optical Co.

Quality Beyond Question.
223 Dundas St. — Phone 1877.
Branches: Hamilton, Montreal and Windsor.

PEEL'S Removed To 10 MARKET LANE

COAL

Egg, Stove, Nut and Pea coal, the best obtainable.

Prompt delivery to all parts of the city.

Orchard's

45 York St. Phone 384.

Dr. J. W. Hutchison

OPTOMETRIST.
EXPERT EYE EXAMINATION
Office in Johnston Bros. Jewelry Store.
Next to Allen Theatre. 6-17

WEGNER'S

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Overalls, Sweaters, Coats, Hats,
Mittens and Raincoats.
LONDON'S LARGEST HIGH-CLASS
WORKINGMEN'S OUTFITTERS.
Exclusive Manufacturers' Agent for the Best Canadian Makes of Overalls.
WEGNER, "The Heart of London."
371 Talbot St. Phone 1849.
OPEN EVENINGS.

Smallpox Hits
County of Kent

Authorities Moves To Curb Spread—Six New Cases.

Special to The Advertiser.
Chatham, Oct. 5.—Steps to prevent a spread of smallpox in Chatham township were taken at a meeting of the township health authorities held Saturday afternoon. Six cases were reported to the health officer last week.

SWEABURG FARMER LOSES
CATTLE AND BARN IN BLAZE

Special to The Advertiser.
Woodstock, Oct. 5.—A fine new barn on the farm of Ben Dickson, three miles south of the village of Sweaburg, was totally destroyed by fire of unknown origin Saturday afternoon. The season's crop, including grain, hay, etc., and some livestock was destroyed. The neighboring farmers gathered, but their efforts to save the barn and the silo which adjoined were futile. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Owing to the death of Mr. W. Randall Brown,
the Brown Optical Co.,
223 Dundas Street, will be closed on Monday,
October 6, 1924.

Coal, Coke
and Wood

CHANTLER BROS.
PHONE 547. 263 BATHURST.

LONDON
OPTICAL CO.

HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED.
A. M. DAMBRA, Optometrist.
Dominion Savings Building, Richmond
Street. Phone 6150. 22V

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS are Tipless

This Feature Increases their Ruggedness by Over 25 per cent

THE familiar and bothersome little tip on the end of an electric lamp is no longer necessary. Our engineers have developed some remarkable new equipment which exhausts the air from the neck of the lamp, eliminating the necessity of the tip. This feature increases the ruggedness of Edison Mazda Lamps by over twenty-five per cent.

EDISON
MAZDA LAMPS

Edison Lamp Works of Canadian General Electric Co. Limited

Awnings Taken Down and Stored

Carter Tent and Awning Co.
619 Dundas St. Phone 6197.
W-030

FRIEND OF THOUSANDS DIES
AFTER 52 YEARS IN LONDON

James Carter Had Been Employed at Tecumseh House Nearly 50 Years.

DEATH IS SUDDEN

Henry James (Jimmy) Carter, friend of thousands, and who was one of London's few remaining links with the stirring events of its pioneer days, is dead.

Saturday morning he prepared, as was his custom, to go to market. Members of his family objected, because they didn't think "Dad" should go out that morning. He appeared weaker than usual. A physician was called but didn't regard his condition as serious. "Jimmy" said he would rest a few minutes before leaving. Ten minutes passed and life was extinct.

Death coming suddenly fulfilled a wish often expressed. In his declining years only one concern clouded his radiant spirit. His active life had always given him a little feeling of pride that he could take care of himself. But he feared that some day he would find himself helpless, and have to be waited upon. The end came swiftly.

In January, "Jimmy" would have marked 50 years of service at the Tecumseh House. At home, members of the family noted that then he would be 52 years old. A physician was called but didn't regard his condition as serious. "Jimmy" said he would rest a few minutes before leaving. Ten minutes passed and life was extinct.

Of late months his physical strength had been gradually yielding to the weight of years, and he reluctantly went to his check room a little later in the morning. He came home earlier in the afternoon. But he persevered and withstood the pleas of his family that he "call it a day."

The Tecumseh House was built in 1859. It was just 16 years later that Mr. Carter began his duties. The history then was in the heyday of its glory. It was one of the few pretentious hotels in Eastern Canada, and many were the notables who sought its hospitality. "Jimmy" knew them all. They were his friends.

George Primrose, London lad who heralded a new era in black face minstrelsy, was a buddy of "Jimmy" in the old days, and George invariably found a place in his reminiscences of progression in the latter part of the nineteenth century.

He was ever a favorite with commercial travellers. The efficiency of his check-room was faultless, but it was the bright, jovial nature, ever present that drew men to him.

Humming tunes was a hobby of "Jimmy's" that will be recalled by thousands. Many a spirit has been cheered by the soft, even croon that denoted the check-room man was pursuing his tasks.

Hearing an overture or an instrumental selection at a theatre or concert, "Jimmy" would come home and render the tune perfectly.

His memory raced his intellect for clearness and accuracy. "Jimmy's" chronology of events since he left London, England, for Canada 52 years ago was truly remarkable. Tecumseh House officials leaned on him when his memories of the past were concerned. When a person wanted to know when the hotel was built "Jimmy" was sought, so that the information would be accurate.

His boyhood days in the city of his birth, Old London, were oftentimes vividly recalled, as were events that surrounded his marriage in England a year before he sailed on to the new land.

Floral tributes surrounded the remains at the family home on Albert street, with an arbor of fragile loveliness.

His wife predeceased him two years ago. Surviving now are two sons, H. A. and F. A. Carter, both linotype operators on the Washington, D. C. Journal, and four daughters, Mrs. W. J. D. White of Toronto, Mrs. E. Read of Albert street, city, Mrs. John S. Read of Detroit and Mrs. A. E. Sands of Sandwich, Ont., and one brother, Lou Carter, of Talbot street, city.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery.

W. T. MOSSOP & CO.
Have completed the redecoration of Appin Methodist church.—Adv't.

W. RANDALL BROWN IS CALLED BY DEATH

Former Londoner, Head of Optical Company, Dies at Hamilton.

After an illness of nearly a year, W. Randall Brown, of the Brown Optical Company, London, died in Hamilton on Saturday afternoon. He was stricken with paralysis in Hamilton last winter, and had been confined to the Hamilton General hospital ever since. With three little children surviving, Mr. Brown's death comes as a particularly sad loss. Mrs. Brown passed away last spring, and the children are left with their grandparents, A. T. and Mrs. King, Ontario street, Stratford.

Mr. Brown, after coming from the Old Country, was in business for 18 years in London. During recent years he made the headquarters for his optical business in Hamilton, and moved his family from 25, Mayfield street, this city, to Hamilton. After Mrs. Brown's death the children were sent to their grandparents in Stratford.

Mr. Brown was a member of the Church of England, and while in London was a member of St. Paul's Cathedral parish.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at Stratford, the remains having been removed there from Hamilton.

CONSERVATIVE MINISTER
PREDICTS LABOR'S FALL

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 5.—Sir William Joynson-Hicks, who has held portfolios in different Conservative cabinets, speaking at a Norfolk yesterday, described the Labor government as organized hypocrisy which was rapidly falling to its inevitable doom. "Its squirming and wriggling reekers the Workers' Weekly case, ill-befits ministers of the crown," he declared.

"JIMMY" CARTER,
veteran Tecumseh house employee and one of London's most colorful citizens who passed away at his home on Albert street Saturday morning.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL
ENDS IRISH STRIFE

Rev. R. J. Murphy States
Special Services Stopped
Destructiveness.

A religious revival is working wonders in Ireland, according to Rev. Richard J. Murphy, pastor of Worley road Baptist church, who has just returned from a visit of nearly five months in Ireland and England. He told his congregation of the great Irish revival when he preached at last evening's service.

While in Ulster Mr. Murphy was offered a pastorate, but preferred to come back to Canada after living here for so long. He spoke well of the Irish churches, and said he had never seen them in better condition. A religious revival during the last two or three years had put an end to the shooting and destruction in the country.

While lauding the stability of the Ulster government, Rev. Mr. Murphy declared that the Free State is split by factions and has difficulty in governing itself.

ACACIA LODGE.
Officers and brethren of Acacia lodge, No. 580, G. R. C., A. F. and A. M., yesterday entered into a lodge service at the Church of the Redeemer, North London.

Service commenced at 3 o'clock, and the rectory of the church, Rev. A. Stanley H. Cree, preached a special sermon. His text was taken from the first epistle to the Corinthians, chapter 13.

Leading Masonic officials present included J. Birnie Smith, Laurel Boss and Edward Smith. Lessons were read by Bro. E. A. Bradshaw and Bro. E. Chamberlain.

Music was in charge of Bro. H. T. Dickinson, organist and choir leader at St. Paul's cathedral. The cathedral choir was in full number, and added appreciably to the service.

The church of the Redeemer was decorated especially for the occasion and the service was made deeply impressive and memorable.

CENTENNIAL METHODIST.
Rev. W. E. Millson, London, field secretary of evangelistic work for the Methodist church, was the visiting preacher at Centennial Methodist church yesterday morning. He spoke on the work of his department in the harbor today the twin-screw British steamer Frederick, with its crew of 28 men and two women under armed guard and with a $500,000 liquor cargo aboard.

Five special government agents, under the leadership of William A. Walker of Washington, general field superintendent of the dry forces, made the capture after they had, according to Mr. Walker, dickered for the purchase of 25,000 cases of whiskey from the vessel's master, paying $100,000.

KING STREET CHURCH.
"Perils of Youth" was the subject discussed by Rev. W. R. McIntosh, minister at King street Presbyterian church, during a short address at the young people's service last evening. He recited experiences while overseas with about 150 young Canadians, who formed a students' party, for which he acted as chaplain.

The evening service was given over to the charge of young people of the church. Jack Handley, president of the young people's society led the service and the choir and the Walter Skinner assisted. Many parents, as well as children, were present.

At the evening communion service in the morning some 15 new members were received into the church.

$10,000,000 RUM PLOT
IS THOUGHT BROKEN

N. Y. Prohibition Agents Capture British Vessel and $500,000 Cargo.

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, Oct. 4.—Prohibition officials charged to have uncovered a gigantic Anglo-American rum-running conspiracy, with $10,000,000 involved, when they towed into the harbor today the twin-screw British steamer Frederick, with its crew of 28 men and two women under armed guard and with a $500,000 liquor cargo aboard.

WHITEMAN MAKES HIT AT MAJESTIC

Celebrated Band Delights London With New Presentation of Jazz.

NOVELTIES SCORE

Jazz modified and given a definite classical flavor was what Paul Whiteman purveyed to an uproariously demonstrative house at the Majestic theatre, Saturday evening. The program included an amazing variety of compositions rendered in the intimate Whiteman style by twenty-three jazz musicians, each one a technician of rare skill and experience.

To many the brand of harmony distilled by Whiteman proved likable and sometimes irritating. But these were in an almost negligible minority to judge by the voluble reception given each number. Whiteman is unquestionably a past master in his particular line, a pioneer in the field of new jazz. What the new jazz is, is hard to define. Whiteman terms it: "A modified treatment of popular composition arranged in accordance with the best musical traditions." That's a fairly apt and very convenient description. But in several respects it is misleading.

Standard is improved. Ten years ago a blind method of treating music was introduced to the public. It has been Whiteman's task to improve this standard by inculcating the classical and lifting jazz above the level of mere discordance. How successful he has been is shown by his meteoric rise to popular favor. Although his music is a long way removed from the classical type, it is infinitely superior to the old jazz, and the famed leader deserves great credit for elevating the public taste.

It was obvious that Whiteman, in his program, aimed to illustrate the evolution of jazz from its crude, ill-formed beginnings to its present more or less meritorious state. The first number, "Dixieland," was jazz in the program points out. The second was a similar tune made less blatant by clever scoring. This was followed by an appropriation of themes from Handel's "Messiah," modified to an even greater degree. This was a comedy selection with the part object of inducing by musical instruments sounds that depict emotions or noises as old as music itself.

"Afro-American" elaborations were included in the following numbers, all of which were variations from some well-known selections. The orchestra's adaptation of these standard pieces to jazz rhythm was perfect and the unison extraordinary.

Downey Well Received.
Perhaps the most enjoyable feature of the whole concert was Morton Downey's singing of an Irish fantasy scored for the modern American orchestra. Downey's voice is probably the sweetest of any on this continent, and what it lacks in volume is made up for in remarkable intonation and clarity. The audience applauded him vigorously, and were evidently when time did not permit him giving an encore after the second song.

Some one has said that what comes out of a trombone is anything but music. One of Whiteman's players demonstrated, however, that if the trombone is a musical instrument, a bicycle pump is no less so. Even this versatile musician actually played a tune on a bicycle pump by pumping with the handle and holding the nozzle in a certain manner. The result was an exhibition of trick violin playing that kept the audience in chuckles for ten minutes.

Another worth-while feature was the "Rhapsody in Blue" with Milton Lettens on piano. The latter displayed clever technique, although the vehicle for his endeavors was of the impressionistic sort with little or no harmony.

It has been said that Paul Whiteman has made the first serious effort at musical composition in the American idiom. And if his Saturday evening renditions are to be accepted as typically American, Londoners will certainly welcome the new music with open arms. It may not be pure symphony, but its popular appeal cannot be disputed.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS ARE BEING PREVENTED.

If such a misfortune should happen to you—phone 556 and we will have an ambulance on the spot without delay. A. L. Oatman, Reliable Ambulance Service, Phone 556.—Adv't.

AUTO AND HORSE CRASH
TWO PEOPLE ARE HURT

Animal Instantly Killed at Brick St. and Wharncliffe Road Sunday Night.

A horse was killed and two people were painfully injured when a buggy was struck head-on by an automobile last night on Brick street near Wharncliffe road. The auto was going west on Brick street and the buggy was going east. It is alleged that the rig was on the wrong side of the road and that it carried no light.

The horse was killed instantly, its neck being broken. A woman riding in the front seat of the car was thrown through the windshield and severely cut about the face and arms. The driver of the car was painfully injured when the car was thrown against the steering gear. It is not known whether he broke any bones, but it is thought that several of the ribs were fractured.

The occupants of the buggy were badly shaken up, but were not injured outside of a few scratches. The auto was completely wrecked, but the shots on the buggy were all that was broken, for when the car hit the horse, it careened off to one side of the road and into the ditch.

Obituary

ALONZO WISMER.
Alonzo Wismer of Rodney passed away in Victoria hospital on Saturday, following a short illness. He had been in the hospital one week. He was well known throughout Western Ontario as a cattle buyer. He was survived by one son, Russell, of Chatham, and two daughters, Mrs.

Afternoon and Evening Dresses
Illustrate the Very Smartest of Autumn Modes

From "The Breath of the Avenue" comes up-to-the-minute information on fashion openings, which are just now holding Fifth avenue and its exclusive shops enthralled.

Of afternoon and evening dresses it says: "Afternoon dresses are sometimes corded silks, clinging velvet, brocade velvet; but often—very often—they are two-surfaced and simple in soft crepe satin. Dinner dresses make the crepes, velvet and velvet brocade chiffon particularly their own. Evening dresses especially accent metal lace, metal brocades, satin, velvet, and, of course, softly shaded chiffon.

And it adds: "Studied simplicity is the key phrase of the modes. It is the first principle of all fall fashions."

This principle, and the correct materials combine in recent arrivals in afternoon and evening dresses. And it is only to be expected, for they have their origin in the leading New York dress establishments.

The vogue for Crepes—a youthful model in shrimp georgette with apron tunic and back drape. Ostrich, the newest of all trimmings, featured in the edging of tunic and drape and the corsage ornament; sleeveless, at $35.00

Evening gown of eut velvet and chiffon, combined with ostrich trimming $59.00

The vogue for frills and tucks—an afternoon dress of pink georgette with half sleeve. Clusters of pin tucks on the bodice and the skirt formed of narrow frills, picoté edged in silver $35.00

The vogue for lace—model of tan georgette, combined with all-over lace; sleeves, girdle and skirt of lace over georgette; bodice shirred over shoulder and at waist, at $30.00

Second Floor.

Fashion's Sleeve Has Buttons Up It

Up her sleeve, Fashion has been keeping the button to present as a whimsical little surprise for her followers of 1924-25. To be fashion-right—

For the tailored frock—use bone buttons, row upon row, or the crystal accent of round glass buttons. In black and all the new shades of tan and brown, 15c to 50c a dozen

For the directoire frock—a military line of gilt, old gold, frosted or nickel buttons 10c to 35c dozen

For formal frocks—the deep-hued richness of embroidered banding; bold patterns with hints of gold; 1/2 inch to 3 inches wide 25c to $4.00

For dancing frocks—silken fringe, shaded and glimmering 85c to $2.00 yard. Or bands of curling ostrich flues, 35c yd.

Main Floor.

ORIENTAL RUGS
Exhibition and Sale
This Week—Third Floor.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM

DRINK MILK
A glass of milk at
THE MILK BAR is a tonic worth the taking.

Flower Pots
All Sizes
Potting Soil

Prompt delivery to any part of the city. Phone us your next order. No order too small.

Dominion Seeds
LIMITED
119 Dundas St.—Phone 550w
"Feed Do-Se-Co. Feeds"

RALLY DAY SERVICES HELD IN MIDLAND UNITED CHURCH

Midland, Oct. 5.—The rally day services held in the United church were well attended. In the morning the pastor delivered an address, and recitations were given by Innes Johnston, Gordon Scott and Eileen Taylor. Scripture passages were recited by Dorothy Jasper and Stephen Hickling.

The young people's league had charge of the evening services, which were conducted by the president, H. Ballagh. Miss Margaret Stewart read the scripture lesson, and addresses were given by Miss Trent Harper and H. Ballagh on "How Can Young People Help to Bring About Racial Goodwill?" Special music was supplied by the young people. The church was beautifully decorated.

Our fitters are experts. $1.50 to $10.00. We have trusses to fit
all needs.
ANDERSON &
SONS
Cut shows one of our many lines. 269 Dundas St.