A PLEASANT VISIT

St. Thomas Times Pays A Glowing Tribute To The Central School Teachers

The Central School teachers recently visited the Made-in-St. Thomas Exhibition. This is what the St. Thomas Times says of the visit: Principal J. W. Plewes headed the deputation from Chatham, and made himself popular with all with whom he came in contact. He had no less than thirteen pretty school teachers with him, the pick of the Maple City's supply, and when the thirteen sat down to dinner at one table at the Grand Central Hotel last evening, he became the fourteenth and prevented disaster. The ladies from Chatham included Misses L. M. Hillman, A. J. Birch, L. Ryan, E. M. Tackaberry, S. Barassin, A. F. Monteer, A. Hall, M. Turner, I. M. Tobey, E. McKinnon, M. McCormick, E. Ryeffer, O. Birch, N. Leake, L. Gordon, E. Park, A. B. Angus.

The pupils who in June last had reached an interesting epoch in their lives by passing the entrance examination from the public schools to the Collegiate Institute, were called to the platform and presented with their certificates by Principal Plewes, of the Chatham Public Schools. Mr. Plewes prefaced this action with a neat address, paying a decided compliment to the St. Thomas schools for their interesting exhibit. "I visited the Detroit exhibit just recently," said Mr. Plewes, "but I consider the St. Thomas exhibit far ahead of it." Mr. Plewes made a few humorous remarks, which delighted the scholars immensely.

THE COUNTY WILL PAY UP

Warden Sturgis Says There Will Be No Trouble Over Improvements

HARRISON HALL MATTER

"There is no need for the city to get after the county, to make them pay for part of the expense of improving Harrison Hall and the surroundings," was Warden Sturgis' comment to a Planet representative. "The county is willing to pay their part of the cost of this work, although rightly they have no right whatever to pay a cent towards fixing up the boulevards around the building."

At the present time according to the arrangements the county owns two-thirds of the building and has to pay for three-fourths of the maintenance. The county's interests go only to the limits of the building. When these improvements were talked of Mr. Clinch promised to pay half the cost, and owing to that agreement the county is now willing to stand by the promise and will pay half the cost of the work.

"So when the aldermen talk of getting after the county, they can tell them that it is not necessary. As soon as the work is paid for and a bill for half the amount is presented to the county, it will be paid and that will be all there will be to it. Some of the members of the Council knew this when the matter came up at their last meeting."

STRUCK GAS

The well being drilled by Jas. Peat & Son on lot 18, concession 13, Range 18, near Gurd Gusher, for the Lowery, Fraser & Johnston syndicate, created a big excitement in the neighborhood a few days ago by the striking of a large supply of gas in the soap stone. It blew top off derrick and threw stuff out of the hole three hundred feet in the air, and the uproar was so great that a farmer's team on the roadway nearby got frightened and ran away, smashing wagon and everything to pieces. In a short time the derrick outfit was covered with debris. Of course this is only a top show, but it may be a forerunner of bigger things lower down. The drillers have the flow sufficiently shut off now to proceed with their work.

OIL PROSPECTS BRIGHT

The Tilbury oil fields are full of activity these days, and several new wells are being drilled in. Two new wells are being drilled in on the Stevenson farm, and both are showing up very satisfactorily. Gas has been found in both these wells.

The drilling of new wells has been started on both the Cooper farms, and other new wells have been started on the Matt. Campbell and Sinclair farms.

A well was shot on the William Barry farm, Sunday, by the Eagan-Patterson Co. This well is reported to be showing up very satisfactorily. Mr. Eagan, who returned from the oil fields this morning, says that the prospects now look brighter than ever.

PRIZE FIGHT

CALLER OFF

"Kid" Mitchell Says Local Man Completely Lost His Nerve

MITCHELL'S HARD LUCK

The Planet editorial rooms had quite an important visitor yesterday afternoon, who announced himself as "Kid" Mitchell, of Detroit, prize-fighter and all-around sport. The "Kid" had a grievance and he wanted it published. He was quite disappointed with the treatment he had received at the hands of the Chatham sporting element.

"You know, I suppose, that a prize fight was to have been pulled off in this town," was the way he broke the ice. "Well, I am Van Valkenberg's trainer, and Valkenberg was the man who was to fight Woods of this city, if Woods hadn't got scared and refused to do the stunt. The arrangements for the fight were made about three weeks ago, and the understanding was that the stakes were to be $100 a side, and both parties were to be trained down to 125 pounds. The effort money to be $100 if either failed to weigh in. There were no articles signed, but it was understood that the fight was to come off here to-night, and the location at which it was to be held was to be decided on after Valkenberg arrived. The fight was to be pulled off according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules, and the hitting must be done with one hand free. I understood that everything was all O. K. for the fight over here until I came over then I found that the Woods party wasn't game. He only thought he wanted to fight, and I found after my arrival that he had drawn his money in."

"After I got here I was told that the authorities were 'on' and that there was a heavy penalty for prize-fighting in this country, so I went up to your Crown Attorney. He is quite a decent chap, but he told me that if a prize-fight was put on here, he would prosecute me, and that the penalty was a heavy one. I then asked him if I couldn't get a permit to have a friendly bout between Woods and Valkenberg in the Opera House after the show was over, but he told me that he had no power to give me a permit, and if he had he wouldn't give me one anyway."

"Then I went down and seen Chief of Police John Holmes. He was right on the job. Do you know what he wanted to do? Why as soon as I announced myself, he says, 'Why sure, you're the very man we have been looking for.' He wanted to pinch me, as he had been told that we had pulled off the fight on Sunday. But he said he was right. If those tin horns among the Woods backers had been half the sport that he is, we would have got along nicely. He told me that he couldn't give me a permit to fight either. He said that there was nothing he would enjoy more than to see a nice friendly boxing match, but he said he wouldn't stand for anyone being hurt. He said that he liked boxing, but he had no use for prize-fighting, and that if he was in charge of any fight of that kind in the city, he would have to pinch us."

"Well, after putting in several weeks training my man down to the limit, not to speak of the expenses, etc., and that was pretty hard luck to land into. I went around then to see the Woods party to see if we couldn't have the fight pulled off in the country some place, but they wouldn't agree to anything of that kind. Then I tried to arrange to have the fight pulled off in Detroit, giving them the option of choosing their referee, who in compliance to their request was also to be stakeholder. They also had the option of having eight men there with me, but to only have six. But it was no go. "From all this I came to the conclusion that the Woods party was all bluff and that he didn't really want to fight at all. I had my man skinned down so that he just balanced the beam at exactly the 122 limit, stripped. The fight is all off now, but it was no fault of ours. We were right here with the goods on the appointed time, and we were going to pull off the fight under any reasonable conditions the other party would name. I don't care what you say about it in your paper as long as you give us a fair shake. We didn't know that the laws against prize-fighting were so strict over here, but that wouldn't have cut any ice with us—we were game anyway, even if it had cost us something."

"Kid" Mitchell says that he has won 43 battles himself in the lightweight class, and that he is billed to fight a bout with Battling Nelson as an exhibition in one of the Detroit theatres this week.

AUTO ACCIDENT

An auto collided with a horse and buggy in front of Dr. McKeough's residence on Head street about 9.30 Sunday evening. The horse ran away and the buggy was badly smashed. The two young ladies who were in the buggy had a narrow escape from serious injury, but fortunately were not hurt beyond a bad scare and a shaking up.

The auto stopped his machine for about a minute, and then made off without further inquiries as to what damage he had done.

LAKE EXTENSION

It Is Announced To Come Up At The Adjourned Meeting Of The Railway Shareholders

The adjourned meeting of the shareholders of the Chatham, Wallaceburg and Lake Erie Electric Railway Company will be held in the course of a couple of weeks, when the matter of the extension to Lake Erie will come up for definite consideration. Mr. Kizer, the General Manager of the road, in a conversation with a Planet representative this morning, said that Mr. Kipp, president of the company, would arrive in the city soon and the matter would be immediately taken up.

The question of a level crossing at the Grand Trunk has been the chief drawback, and now that this has been settled there is nothing to prevent the company from going on with the extension.

Mr. Kizer announces that the special Saturday schedule will be put on between Wallaceburg and Chatham during the fair days, Wednesday and Thursday, single fare for return trip to all points along the line.

VENUS AND ITS BRILLIANCY

Expert Information On Strange Light In The Sky

TO CEASE NOVEMBER 27

The Stratford Herald, on the 10th of September, at the time when discussion was rife as to whether the planet Venus might be an airship sent up from Detroit, wrote Director R. F. Stupart, of the Meteorological Service, Toronto, on the subject and also enquiring as to the cause of the great brilliancy of the planet. A letter has been received from Mr. Stupart, dated Sept. 20, in which he says:

"Dear Sir,—Referring to your letter on the 10th instant, I would say that the planet Venus has been shining in the western sky during August and September. It is very brilliant just now but sets soon after the sun. On Sept. 26th it reaches its greatest brilliancy and sets about 1 hr. 26 min. after the sun. There is no doubt that it has been mistaken for an airship, but a little thought would show the absurdity of it as an airship would not remain as steadily in the sky even if anchored. Being rather low down naturally show larger by refraction and more red on account of the smoky horizon. Venus will remain an evening star until November 27, when it afterwards for a time rises before the sun. "Any popular elementary work on astronomy will explain the motions of Venus and Mercury as morning and evening stars."

NASTY RUMORS

ARE AFLOAT

It Is Hinted That There May Be Reasons For Rushing Gas Matters

MORE TIME IS NEEDED

There was a report on the streets this morning that an attempt may be made at the Council meeting to-night to rush through the acceptance of a franchise from one of the natural gas companies applying to pipe the city.

If any such action is taken it will be strongly resented, as public opinion favors thorough consideration of the matter before any of the franchises are accepted. It is understood that one of the companies whose capital is believed to be supplied by the Standard Oil Company has been working the wires to have their franchise rushed through at to-night's meeting.

Some nasty rumors are afloat to the effect that this company has offered free gas to certain parties if their franchise is put through immediately. Such action would be highly unfair to the other companies applying for a franchise, and who have been given to understand that the Council were not going to accept any tender until a later date.

Mr. Seaward, chairman of the special committee on franchises, has announced himself as strongly against accepting any franchise till the matter is thoroughly considered, and the Council has some knowledge of what price will be charged by the various companies applying.

Though there may or may not be great grounds for the rumors in circulation, to-night's meeting of the Council will be watched with interest, as will also the votes of the various aldermen when the matter comes up to be passed upon.

PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Mary Vanotian, wife of O. A. Vanotian, Lorne avenue, passed away at the General Hospital Sunday. She is survived by a husband but no children.

The deceased has been a resident of Chatham for the past 14 or 15 years, and her husband who is at present engaged in the carpentering trade, was formerly a traveller for the Gray Carriage Co.

She was a good Christian woman, highly esteemed by all who knew her, and her death will be deeply mourned by a large circle of friends.

THE ASSIZES

The date for the Fall Assizes has been fixed for Oct. 12. There are only two cases coming up as far as is at present known. There are two criminal cases against Sam Kovinski and Futural for receiving stolen goods. This is an echo of the famous fur stealing case.

There are no civil cases so far, but some may be entered before the assizes come on.

Hume Elliott, of London, has been officially appointed crown prosecutor.

TRADE THROWN AWAY.

The Laurier Government appears to be wholly responsible for any loss this country will sustain by the increase in the Australian tariff on imports from Canada to that country. In July of this year the tariff of Australia was changed to the great injury of Canadian trade. Duties on farm machinery were much increased, and those on nearly all articles which Canada sends to the Commonwealth were made higher. This is a heavy blow to Canadian trade with the sister colony, and is a set back to the general plan of tariff preference within the Empire. It is an aggravation of the trouble that the Australian tariff gives a preference to Great Britain and to New Zealand, but allows no such advantage to Canada. This appeared at first to be an unfriendly proceeding. When announcement was made of the Australian legislation in July it occasioned great surprise among Canadians who thought that the attitude of this country toward Australia deserved a better reward. But now it is learned that the fault is all on the Canadian side. When the Australian Government took up the question of tariff revision a communication was sent to Canada by way of opening negotiations for mutual tariff preference. The Laurier Government took no action in the matter and does not seem to even have replied to the communication. Yet the Australian Prime Minister did not allow the matter to drop there.

A second request was sent to Canada inviting an exchange of views. To that message no response was given. It is not surprising that after this double discourtesy the Australian Ministry went on with its work of tariff revision without regard to Canadian interests. Great Britain and New Zealand have therefore the tariff preference in Australia, while Canada is on the footing of a foreign nation. Great Britain and New Zealand gave a civil and friendly reply to the Australian invitation.

One would suppose from this indifference that our trade with Australia was of no consequence. Yet without any preference Canada has shipped as much as $3,000,000 worth of goods in a year to the Australian Commonwealth. The government of Canada has thought the Australian business of sufficient consequence to justify the payment of large steamship subsidies for the Australian service. The Pacific cable, established mainly for the Australian connection, is costing Canada over $100,000 a year to make good its deficits. Canada keeps two commercial agents in Australia at a cost of over $8,000 a year, all for the purpose of assisting and extending our trade with that country. Still the Canadian Ministers did not think it worth while to give even a civil reply to Australian advances proposing a Canadian preference in the Australian market. The result is that the Canadian goods have no advantage in that country over those from United States and are handicapped in comparison with those of Great Britain and New Zealand. If Sir Richard Cartwright, Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, had been half as anxious to take care of Canadian trade interests as he has been to provide offices and salaries for the gang of rascals who have been convicted of various crimes in election campaigns, he would have saved our trade with Australia instead of smothering it.

Ever since the Police Magistrate has occupied the new Police Station he has remonstrated with different members of the Council, for better accommodation for the female prisoners, as the present arrangements are simply disgraceful. The attention of the chairman of the Property committee is again called to the matter, in the hope that, for his own credit, and for the credit of the city, the alterations so badly needed will be made at once.

The Liberals are having a tough time of it in the East Elgin by-election. Mr. Hepburn, the Liberal standard bearer, and the defeated candidate in the last general election, has resigned, and a man named Haight has been appointed to succeed him, without even the formality of calling a convention. The resignation of Mr. Hepburn is looked upon as an acknowledgment of defeat, and the Liberal workers were affected with despondency and chronic Rheumatism which I contracted years ago. The disease had a great hold in my blood, and it was hard to make any impression on it. Reading of Ferrozze I was convinced of its merit and it certainly the best I have ever tried. Why, it just drove away the Rheumatism. Even stiffened old sufferers will experience quick results. The reason is that Ferrozze acts through the blood and thereby destroys the cause of the disease. ANOTHER GREAT DISCOVERY.

A well known gentleman in Black Bay, Ont., Mr. John Cowan, has discovered an absolute specific for Rheumatism, and writes: "I was afflicted with Sciatica and chronic Rheumatism which I contracted years ago. Why, it just drove away the Rheumatism. Even stiffened old sufferers will experience quick results. The reason is that Ferrozze acts through the blood and thereby destroys the cause of the disease. Deafness, because usually due to Catarrh, is quite curable. In a thousand cases this is proved absolutely true. Success invariably attends the use of Catarrhoxone, which has cured catarrhal deafness of twenty-five years' standing. Penetrating through the passages of the ear, the soothing vapor of Catarrhoxone relieves the inflammation, destroys the seeds of Catarrh, and thereby allows nature to re-assist herself. A Big Household.
The missionary was at once pale and yellow—pale, he explained, from an avoidance of the deadly Indian sun, yellow from a disordered liver.

"Nevertheless," he said gayly, "India for me first, last and all the time. On the money you and your family are paying at this hotel do you know how you would live in India?"
He lighted a cigarette and resumed: "You would live in a beautiful house set in a lovely garden, with a list of servants that would include a khamseh, or butler; a khitmutgar, or table servant; a chokra, or page; a musalchee, or light bearer; a mug, or cook; two syces, or grooms; a bheestee, or water carrier; a sanah, or house cooly; a moli, or gardener; a dholie, or washerman; a durzee, or private tailor; an ayah, or nurse; a sirdar, or valet; a furash bearer, or lamp man; three punkah coolies to work the fans; a duman, or lodge porter; a jamadar, a footman and several chuprassies, or messengers."

Japanese Art Symbols.
If a Japanese artist wishes to describe in color and design the anticipation of happiness he draws a picture which is a combination of an April evening, a moon, a nightingale and a plum tree or two. Victory is symbolized by the iris, grace and quietness by the willow tree and the swallow for symbols. Patriotism is some times indicated by a spray of cherry blossoms. The almond flower is the flower of spring and symbolizes beauty. The dragon twines and writhes an artistic course through all Japanese art, root and branch. His name is Tatsu, and when you see him pictured as fighting with a tiger it is the symbol of religion fighting against power. A dragon floating about in the clouds means success in life. Tori, the cock, perched upon a drum, signifies good government. Both the Greeks and the Japs use the butterfly to symbolize immortality.

Both Suspicious.
Baron Hubner went one evening to call upon President Thiers, who was then at the head of the French republic. The baron found the door of the house open and walked upstairs. In the dim light a man crept stealthily toward him. Knowing that the president went in fear of his life and, unwilling to die a martyr in a cause not his own, the baron hurriedly explained, "I am not M. Thiers." "I know that you are not M. Thiers," answered the mysterious stranger, "but I want to know who you are." Insisted upon knowing the identity of his companion. "Oh, I am M. Thiers' butler," was the answer. Hubner declared himself. "Ah," said the butler, with a sigh of relief, "I have your name first on the list of visitors." Each had taken the other for an assassin.

Worked the Tigers.
Near Perak, in the Malay peninsula, is a prosperous rubber factory run by a long-headed Scotchman. In order to obtain the sap from which the rubber is made it is necessary to puncture the bark of the trees. Laborers are scarce in that district, but there is an abundance of tigers. There were not enough men to "tap" the trees, but the Scotch proprietor hit on a brilliant idea. He knew that tigers are fond of valerian, so he gave orders that all the trees should be rubbed with this stuff. The tigers came up and carelessly scratched the bark in the most approved herringbone fashion, after which all that the coolies had to do was to walk around once a day and collect the rubber.

Aromatic Pettit Larceny.
"I hope you notice how sweet I am," smiled the girl when they were out on the street again. "While the man was wrapping up the toothbrush I was trying all the perfume on the counter. He looked at me awfully hard."
"I should think he would have had you arrested," remarked her companion severely. "What if everybody tried all the perfumes like that? How much would he have left to sell?"

Like a Dog Watch.
Mamma had not noticed the clock striking during all of the afternoon and, thinking perhaps it had stopped, she asked little Rita to go into the hall and see if it was running. After a hasty survey of the long pendulum swinging back and forth, Rita ran back and announced: "Why, no, mamma, it isn't running. It's standing still and wagging its tail."

A Helpful Wife.
"Ladies and gentlemen," said the after dinner orator, "unaccustomed as I am to public speaking, and having been suddenly called upon without the slightest notice, I am—er—exceedingly—er—"
"Why, John," said his wife from the other end of the table, "have you forgotten the rest? You said it all right this morning."

Nature's Methods.
Nature is no spendthrift, but takes the shortest way to her ends. As the general says to his soldiers, "If you want a fort, build a fort," so nature makes every creature do its own work and get its living, be it planet, animal or tree.—Emerson.

Chance and Accident.
It is a mortifying truth, and ought to teach the wisest of us humility, that many of the most valuable discoveries have been the result of chance rather than of contemplation and of accident rather than of design.

It was a son of Erin who asked the meeting to excuse him from serving on a committee because he expected to be unexpectedly called away.

LITERARY

ROD AND GUN.

The opening article in the September number of Rod & Gun is "A Royal Fisherman in Canada," an account of a fishing expedition which was taken by Prince Arthur of Connaught and party whilst on their Canadian tour. This, as well as many other of the papers in this number, is profusely illustrated. "Game and Fur Preservation in Northwestern Canada" and "Game Protection in Nova Scotia" tells of the steps that are being taken to preserve Canadian game. "Alaskan Cave Dwellers and Their Lives" is another article of more than usual interest.

The September number is undoubtedly the best number of this fine magazine which has been found by the Colorado River, caused by the publisher, W. J. Taylor, of Woodstock, Ontario, is to be congratulated on the perfection to which he has brought this high class sporting magazine.

There are six short stories and many articles of a heavier character to suit all classes of readers.

Some of the principal papers in the September number of Review of Reviews are "Alfred Beit, Empire Builder," "Raising Tea in South Carolina," "The Irishman Who was Dictator in China," "Schools for the Out of School" and "Investigating Municipal Ownership at Home and Abroad." The title of the latter will show how widespread and far reaching is the field covered by this single copy of this world renowned magazine.

The September number of The Girls' Own Paper has two complete stories and "Betty Trevor," "The Marriage," and "The Marriage." Under Home and Nursing, "Fits and how to treat them" are dealt with.

There are recipes and lessons in connection with the campaign against child labor, Jack London's story, "The Apostate," amply deserves the place of honor that it occupies in the September number of the Woman's Home Companion. Other good summer reading in this magazine includes another of William Melrod Raine's dashing cowboy stories, "Pete Sanderson Inevitably," and "The Price of Victory," a thrilling little sketch by Robert Aiken, in connection with a sketch of the Woman's Home Companion has taken a step unusual in a magazine of its character by enlisting the services of the cartoonist, and two full-page drawings by Homer Davenport entitled "An Industrial Success," serve to bring home to everyone the truth as to a national evil. Among the household topics treated are, "Some Appealing Pickles and Condiments," "Rug-Making as a Home Industry," "Free Alcohol: What Means to the Household," "Practical Fashions," and "Bags of Beauty and Usefulness."

A DRAMATIC MOMENT.
The illness of Sir John Macdonald in the spring of 1870 has been almost forgotten, but for about six weeks Canada held her breath. Early one afternoon he walked up to his department in apparent good health, and was suddenly stricken in his room. The hurriedly called doctors gave no hope. The papers set up their wailing and wailing, and the obituary notices. For six weeks the nation lay in the room in which he fell, too weak to be moved. At length he was strong enough to be removed to the Speaker's Chamber in the Parliament Buildings and later to Prince Edward Island. This is one of the incidents described in the reminiscences of J. E. E. McCord, now being published in The Canadian Magazine. The fifth of his six articles appears in the September issue.

RARE MAP OF LONDON.

Only Two Copies, One At Paris, Other At British Museum—Engraved At Fithorne in 1658.

It does not appear to be widely known that the second copy of the celebrated map of London, engraved at Fithorne in 1658, which was accidentally discovered half a century ago, can now be seen in the print room of the British Museum. There is only one other original copy in existence, and that is in the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris. There are at least two pieces of internal evidence by which the date of the survey can be definitely determined as having been made between the years 1643 and 1647. Chesapeake cross, which was demolished in the former year, does not appear in the map, but that long known as Charing cross, which was cleared away in 1647, is depicted as standing in all its glory.

The engraving of the map was not completed until 1658, and advantage was taken of the delay to introduce the new buildings and improvements up to that date, as, for example, the new buildings on the west side of Lincoln's Inn Fields and Chancery Lane, which was opened by John Holles, Earl of Clare, in 1656. Pall Mall is represented as a pleasant walk, with a double row of trees on the north side.

A windmill marks the site and origin of the name of the present Windmill Street. The gaming house that existed at that period at the top of the Haymarket is also represented. From Stepney to London is open country, the only water shown in St. James' park runs from north to south across the present parade ground, and in the middle of the roadway of Holborn, near the top of Chancery Lane, is shown a row of small houses that completely obstructed the view along that thoroughfare.

It is considered questionable, it may be added, whether the map was ever published, for the period was one of considerable turmoil, and there seems little doubt that the plates and the impressions perished in the great fire in 1666.—Pall Mall Gazette.

MAKING THE MATCH.

Newly Invented Process Can Turn Out Seven Hundred and Fifty Thousand An Hour.

Sir Isaac Holden, who was born in 1807 and died in 1897, invented matches in England about 1832. Since that time great strides have been made in the industry, but none so great as a new process recently put in operation making square matches. The machine lights the work of so many hands and does such wondrous things that its use may be regarded as the beginning of a revolution in the art of match manufacture.

The output of this machine is ordinarily operated is 12,500 matches a minute, or 750,000 per hour.

For years machines have been in use for the rapid manufacture of the square sticks or splints, but the dipping and drying have been done by an extremely laborious process known as the German method, which has long been unsatisfactory. Many skilled hands are required, and in copying the racks large quantities of matches are destroyed by accidentally setting fire to them.

In the new process the machinery sets the pace for all the workmen. The splints are prepared in the old way, by cutting the material in the form of a broad sheet of wood from a round log in a veneer cutting machine. The sheets are laid in piles, many thick-nesses together, and the piles are fed into a chopper that delivers the splints just the size of a match. The splints pass next to a kiln of large capacity, where they are thoroughly dried, paralleled and taken to the dipping room.

The new machine is an evolution. The most conspicuous part of it is a great chain or belt composed of perforated iron plates. In these perforations the matches are held during the drying process. There are 900 of these plates in the chain, each plate forming a link. In each plate are twelve rows of perforations, fifty holes in each row, or 600 in all. In the chain are 540,000 holes, so that at all times there are more than half a million matches in each machine in the process of drying. The new part is the setting head. This consists of two magazines or hoppers, one above the other, the lower having a transverse motion, and below it a grooved plate in two sections. The splints fall into the grooves, or, rather, are forced into them by the moving hopper and are then thrust into the holes in the perforated plates. Fifty matches are stuck into the plates with each forward movement of the setting head.

The dipping processes are comparatively simple. First the splints are heated over a steam table to prepare them to absorb the hot paraffin; then they pass through the paraffin bath. A fan cools them slightly, and they pass over a roller on which the head composition is automatically spread in the form of a thick paste to an even depth. A set of punches pushes the matches into boxes, covered and packed into a carrier, whence they are put into boxes, covered and packed into cases. The material is in progress of manufacture from the green log to the finished match less than two hours.

Dainty Bits of Lingerie For the Smart Girl's Wardrobe.

One of the new empire designs in nightdresses is shown in the illustration. It is made with a small square yoke, both front and back, which is arranged to fasten over on the left side of the front. Into this the material is set in gathers or tucks, while a touch of novelty is given in the pretty empire bolero which surmounts it.

The corset cover is an extremely pretty model, fullness over the bust being

Information For Amateur Launderers.

With the numberless stocks, collars, cuffs, bits of lace, white gloves and belts, to say nothing of dainty lingerie and silk waists now being worn, where is the woman, unless she is able to keep a personal maid, who does not find more or less laundry work for herself?

A recent invention for making such work easy, therefore, should be of general interest. The new washer is a simple arrangement, consisting of a fluted roller pierced by many holes. For use with it there comes a little washboard that has slight projections over the surface, although an ordinary washboard will answer the purpose just as well.

These rollers come in all sizes, from the tiny ones like a child's toy—just the thing to wash out stocks, handkerchiefs and stockings in a basin or stationary washstand—to those for a full family wash.

The process is very simple. Soak the clothes overnight, then put a piece at a time, folded in several thicknesses, on the board. Soap it well and run the roller over it in short, quick strokes, as if making pastry. The dirt is quickly removed without half the wear and tear of the ordinary rubbing.

No boiling is necessary. Merely rinse through several waters, the final slightly blue, and the clothes are ready for the line.

"French" Handkerchiefs.

The prettiest handkerchiefs are being made as fancy work out of plaid and corded handkerchief linens which came out in the spring for blouses and shirt waists and morning dresses. French handkerchiefs exactly like them have been popular for several years, but if you hemstitch duplicates of the French ones may be yours for the merest fraction of the cost, for a yard of the stuff costs less than a single made up handkerchief, and a yard makes a good many handkerchiefs.

Make them up with a narrow hem and, if you can, embroider one or all three of your initials in the middle of one of the squares, setting the initial across on a slant.

Or, if you've a short first name, write it out with a soft pencil and embroider it over a thread. It's a pretty, characteristic little touch that carries with it the charm of individuality.

The long, narrow strips of linen may be left over in cutting off the handkerchiefs will make pretty collar and cuff sets or lingerie ties to wear with stiff embroidered collars.

THE SOLE DRUG CO. - WINNIPEG, MAN.

A Lesson in Economy.

The son was about to enter upon the sea of matrimony. The father called him to his side and for the last time gave him a lesson in economy.

"Economy," said the father, "is the source of all wealth, and extravagance is the ruin of the genius."

"Now," continued the parent, "a woman can take a piece of straw, trim it, and it will be a ten dollar hat. On the woman's part that is—"

"Genius," the son answered.

"A wealthy man can spend $10,000 a year and live no better than the man that spends only $400. On the wealthy man's part that is—"

"Extravagance."

"Now to the point. A married man can live on one half the money that a single man requires. On the married man's part that is—"

"Compulsory."

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in curing chronic or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, or in other cases where glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the lungs, it is in the agency of cure. FORTUNES IN CHINA

MARKS THAT MEAN WEALTH TO THE POSSESSOR.

Distinguishing Traits of Crown Derby, Chelsea and Worcester Wares—Only an Expert Can Tell Forged From Genuine.

Antiquities lend themselves to forgery, china and porcelain, perhaps, more so than anything else. Consequently it does not necessarily follow that because you possess a cup or saucer, a plate or vase, bearing one of the accompanying marks, it is of great value. It may be a piece of inferior china or porcelain on which the mark of a famous maker has been forged, and only an expert can tell whether it is genuine or not.

These hints, however, will help you to learn whether among your bric-

bric and family heirlooms there is something which may be worth a fortune to you. Early Crown Derby china, for instance, dating back to between 1780 and 1830, is so valuable that it is doubtful if a single cup or saucer of genuine make could be bought for less than $50. There is still a good deal of old Crown Derby in existence, and this may be distinguished by either of the following three trademarks: A capital letter D, in ordinary longhand, over which are placed two cross swords, which in turn are surmounted by a crown. (If this sign is marked in violet on the bottom of any plate in your possession it may be worth $50 or $100.)

The mark may be stamped in blue, or possibly in puce or gold, the latter two colors being very rare. The letter D is the initial of Duesbury, the founder of the great porcelain works of Derby, and the crown was added to the initial on the occasion of the visit of the king and queen in 1773 to Duesbury's works.

The letter D, by the way, also figures in the mark to be found upon another famous make of china—namely, the Chelsea Derby, which was manufactured by a long extinct factory. The complete mark used was a letter D crossed by an anchor, and say cup or saucer bearing this mark, if genuine, is worth even more than old Crown Derby.

There are many imitations of the Dresden china, but the real article, which is of immense value, bears the "hall mark" of a couple of crossed electoral swords, between the handles of which is either a round O or a star. As an illustration of the present day price of Dresden china it might be mentioned that a little clock was bought by one of the Rothschilds some years ago for $700, and is now probably worth twice that sum, while a couple of candlesticks of Dresden china were sold some time ago for $1,000.

The Worcester ware is almost as valuable as the Dresden. An imperfect dinner service, for instance, fetched more than $2,000 a short time ago, while two plates which were discovered in a cottage, the occupier of which had no idea as to their value, were sold for $45 each.

The Worcester potteries have changed hands a number of times since the factory was founded, 150 years ago, and the trademarks have changed accordingly. But in nearly all of them can be traced the letter W. The two crossed swords, for instance, with the figures 91 between the blades, will be noticed to have been so arranged that the letter W is formed at the top.

Helps to Health. Hold the body erect if standing, sitting or walking. Fill the lungs full of breath at constant intervals, which improves the circulation. Masticate all food thoroughly and slowly.

When you are tired you are apt to shrink from the very exercise you need. A warm bath will do much to restore worried muscles. A tired girl is not a tired girl. It will not hurt you to get tired, but do not trespass further on your vitality.

A very simple remedy for the purpose of removing tan and freckles is prepared from two gallons of strong soapuds, to which are added one pint of spirits of wine and a quarter of a pound of rosemary. Apply this mixture with a linen rag and allow it to dry on the face.

Gemelli Rings.

A quaint custom of the long ago was that of breaking a ring for betrothal. Such rings were fashioned for the purpose, being made of two twin circles, and were called gemelli rings, from the word gemelli, meaning twins.

A ring of pure gold she from her finger took.
And just in the middle the same there she broke.
Quoth she, "As a token of love you this take."
And this as a pledge I will keep for your sake."

The geminal was also a favorite wedding ring for many years.

Really a Vegetarian.

"I hope the Bible I gave you last week," said the missionary, "will teach you something."

"It has taught me something already," replied the cannibal chief. "I find that I'm really a vegetarian."

"Er—how's that?"

"Why, you know, it says 'all flesh is grass.'"

ONCE PREACHER:
NOW MURDERER

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—A mother and her daughter are lying in the Protestant Hospital in a precarious condition. They were shot late yesterday afternoon by the husband of the daughter.

Joseph C. Savignac has been running a Turkish bath establishment in Ottawa, but the profits have been for the most part spent in liquor. Finding, after the unproductive summer months, his resources at an end, he announced to his wife that he was going to Florida to claim the estate of his father, who was recently killed, and left no will.

The wife objected, and her parents refused to allow her to go. He insisted, however, that Mrs. Savignac accompany him and last night they were to travel.

Buys Revolver.

About midday Savignac left their pretty little home near Cummings' Bridge, and after visiting one or two saloons in Ottawa, purchased a revolver, 32 calibre, and returned to Cummings' Bridge. David Mitchell, his father-in-law, was there with a rig to take away some of the unsold furniture. Mrs. Mitchell was also there.

While he was upstairs, Mr. Mitchell says he heard sounds as of the breaking of furniture and he rushed down stairs to see what was wrong. In the dining room he saw his wife and daughter lying apparently dead and Savignac with a smoking revolver in his hand.

This Savignac pointed at Mitchell, saying: "I may as well finish the business." He pressed the trigger, but it snapped and Mitchell was saved.

Savignac produced another revolver, and leveled it at his father-in-law, but apparently changing his mind did not fire.

Feign Death to Escape.

Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Savignac were not dead, but it seems had agreed to feign death to escape. Seeing her husband leave the room the latter made a dash for the cellar with her 20 months old child in her arms. Fearing that her husband would discover her there she scrambled through the narrow window and rushed down the roadway towards the toll house, where friends lived, but after proceeding a quarter of a mile she fell unconscious.

She was shot through both shoulders just below the shoulder blades. A neighbor took care of her.

Mrs. Mitchell was also shot in two places. Her left arm was splintered and a bullet entered her back.

Murderer Escaped leisurely.

Meanwhile Savignac walked leisurely and had at least half an hour's start of the police, who were summoned by telephone.

Both wounded women may recover. One of Mrs. Savignac's lungs was slightly pierced, but the other wound is not so dangerous. One bullet was extracted.

Ordained to Ministry.

About fifteen years ago Savignac and Miss Mitchell were students at the French Presbyterian College, Pointe aux Trembles, Quebec.

Savignac was a native of France and a Roman Catholic, but had become converted to Protestantism. Savignac went to the Presbyterian College in Montreal, and eventually was licensed to preach. He was ordained to the Presbyterian Church of Canada at Thurso, Que., a little later.

Eleven years ago the young couple were married in Ottawa, and with every bright prospect Rev. J. C. Savignac accepted a call to Lowell, Mass.

There he ministered with success and conducted evangelistic missions among the French-speaking people of the state.

BILEANS THEN CURED HER.

Canadians suffer more from biliousness, headache, indigestion, constipation and liver troubles than any other people. For these ailments Bileans, the great vegetable remedy, beats all other known preparations. Bileans were recently tested in a remarkable Norfolk case. The subject was Mrs. James Dixon, of Crosswagait. This is what she says: "All my life I have suffered from biliousness, headache and indigestion. I frequently had a pain at my heart and palpitation. A dryness used to come in my throat at night and nearly choked me. I have attended me, and, apart from what they gave me, I tried seventeen different special medicines. The medicines brought no relief, and the doctors said they could do me little good as my weakness was constitutional. Yet I am well now, free from pain, at last—thanks entirely to coming to know about Bileans. My daughter persuaded me to commence taking them, and I underwent a thorough course. I improved after the first few doses, and gradually but surely they made this great change in me, and restored me to perfect health. I am never without them in the house now."

If you suffer from headache, indigestion, wind, biliousness, summer and fall, biliousness, blood impurities, liver complaint, piles or any stomach or intestinal trouble, you will find a cure in Bileans. Of all druggists at 50 cents a box, or from Bilean Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price (6 boxes, $2.50).

THE RED FEATHER

"Red Feather" drew a big audience at the Casino Opera House last evening, and considering the class of the production and the prices charged, Chatham certainly owes nothing to the show. Those who went expecting to see a production equal to the original, were disappointed. There was nothing about the standard seen in the usual comic opera. The comedy was good and kept the audience in the best of humor. A number of the solos were well rendered, but the chorus singing was weak. Taken all in all the show pleased the audience, and was worth seeing. Since the first year out, it has been reduced to two acts instead of three, and many of the best scenes have been entirely omitted, partly owing to the difficult stage settings and the expense involved in carrying the scenery. In order to accomplish this, the plot has been sacrificed to a great extent. The feature of the show seemed to be the rendition of the song "Ghosts," which was dramatically well executed by Richard Karl as Fitzpatrick. The singing of Wheeler and MacGahan was thoroughly enjoyed. Baron Bulver Strause was the centre of the humor and his appearance on the stage was the cause for laughter. Miss Simpson as "Red Feather" sang well and acted badly. Something struck her as being humorous early in the evening and she seemingly could not completely regain her self-possession. The audience succumbed to the contagion when the directions called for her stage business. Better shows have been seen here, but the "Red Feather" may be classed as one of the good events of the season. There was no complaint from the audience, the most of whom say "Red Feather" for the first time. The applause was spirited throughout, and repeated encores were called for. The madrigal given in the second act was excellent and was called back several times. A specimen in verse, another quartette was much appreciated. The "Prince of Good Fellows" by the Crown Prince was given in good style. The "Garden of Dreams" by Miss Simpson, elicited much deserved applause. The song is perfectly adapted to her magnificent full soprano voice, and the ovation she received showed that the audience was not unappreciative.

One could not help but notice the similarity to Robin Hood in the music, although the two productions cannot be compared, Robin Hood being a much superior opera.

One unfortunate feature of the evening was the wretched electric light service experienced at the conclusion of the evening. The lights went out and the most of the people had to grope their way out of the house in the dark.

POLICE COURT

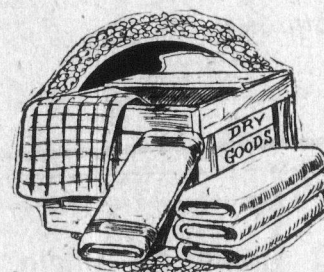

Yesterday was the day for drunks at the city Police Court. There were a lot of them, and they all had to suffer alike. As a result the city coffers benefited considerably. Harry Stinson and Israel Hammil were the first two. They got drunk Saturday night, and went home to raise a row. Chief Holmes was passing the house, which is situated on Wellington street, when he heard the noise. He went in and came out with a man on each arm. It cost Stinson $5 and Hammil $6. Fred Luzo was another offender and he got off with a fine of $5 in all. Another young man was fined $5 in all for the same kind of an offense. A young boy was up for smoking. As he is under age, the Judge gave him a severe lecture and allowed him to go after the offender had promised not to do it again.

NO. 10. MASTER MINDS ON MUSIC

Being the 10th of a series of ten talks introducing sayings of great men, applicable to the Nordheimer Piano, the symbol to perfect music.

The man that has no music in himself, Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds, Is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils. —Shakespeare

In this last of our series of what the master writers have said about music we have quoted the familiar words of the greatest English poet. Many times Shakespeare has credited music with being the greatest of arts, and in his day music had not reached the summit of its magnificence that it has today with such instruments as

THE NORDHEIMER PIANO

The "concord of sweet sounds" is but another name for the NORDHEIMER TONE, only the concord is ismore perfect than can be realized in any other instrument, for the Nordheimer is now accepted by the Canadian people almost as a whole as the leader. Certainly it is the favorite among the most refined music lovers. If you are a music lover we would like to have you visit our ware-room and see the magnificent display.

LIKE A PEACE IN CUBA

But Whether Inside or Outside United States Is Uncertain.

"Business Interests" Openly Favor Intervention and Annexation, But Secretary Taft Is Disposed to Give the Government Party and Insurgents Another Chance and a Meeting to That End Will Be Held.

Havana, Sept. 4.—All classes are now waiting for the conditions under which tranquility will be restored in Cuba, and keen disappointment is expressed on every side because of the likelihood of peace being brought about with armed American intervention.

That differences of the opposing factions could be reconciled was not believed to be possible until yesterday, when it was announced that the Liberals and the insurgents had empowered a committee to represent them before the American mediators.

It is evident that business interests of the island have no confidence in the ability of the Cubans to rule themselves and now, when it appears too late, they are openly favoring forcible intervention and possibly annexation.

Secretary Taft is cognizant of this general opinion that peace cannot last unless it is enforced by an American army, but he considers that it is the duty of the United States to give the republic another chance, and he believes that it would be bad policy for the United States to keep a force in Cuba longer than was required to supervise the laying down of arms. He said yesterday that if the Liberals and Moderates harmonize their differences the United States must regard the compact as made in good faith.

That peace will come as the result of the mediation of the United States is now believed by Cubans, regardless of party affiliation, whether it will be on terms which will insure permanent tranquility is questioned.

Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon spent Sunday quietly, receiving few persons, regardless of the American legation and arranged for their first meeting with the insurgents and Liberals' committee this morning.

Will Attack All Property.
New Orleans, Sept. 24.—A despatch from Havana to The Playmate gives a signed statement by the insurgent leader, Gen. Ernesto Asbert, in which he says that if peace is not made by the Palma administration, the revolutionists propose to "attack all property" in order to precipitate intervention.

HEPBURN RESIGNS.

Liberals in East Elgin Swap Horses While Crossing Stream.

Aylmer, Sept. 24.—W. F. Hephburn, Liberal candidate for the vacancy in the House of Commons for East Elgin, caused by the resignation of A. B. Ingram, has dropped out of the contest.

At a meeting of the executive of the party here on Saturday night, Granville Haight, a retired farmer of Sparta, was chosen to carry the Government standard, and a convention will be held on Thursday to ratify the selection. Mr. Haight has agreed to run.

The dropping out of Mr. Hephburn has utterly demoralized the Liberals, and the feeling is that their chances, never bright, are about gone.

The campaign has been in full swing for more than a week, and several meetings have been addressed by Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Hon. C. S. Hyman and some of the local stumpers.

STRIKE AT COAL CREEK.

800 Miners Refuse to Work Chief Crow's Nest Colliery.

Fernie, B. C., Sept. 24.—Saturday morning the mines at Coal Creek, the chief colliery of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Co., were closed, as no men applied for work. This action was agreed upon at a meeting of the Fernie Miners' Union last night and is the result of a notice posted in conspicuous places some days ago, which read as follows: "Acting under instructions of President Mitchell, we hereby give all non-union miners notice that seven days after this date we will cease to work with non-union miners."

General Manager Lindsay, in a signed statement, claims that the strike violates a union agreement.

RACE RIOT IN ATLANTA.

Sixteen Negroes Dead—The Militia in Control of Streets.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 24.—In a riot arising out of assaults on white women, sixteen negroes and one white man were killed Saturday night.
The riot occurred on Decatur street, a street especially frequented by negroes. Many of the killed were pulled off street cars and beaten to death.
The force of militia on duty is something more than 1,000 men, besides a battery of light artillery held in reserve.

Seat For C. R. Devlin.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—One of the topics of discussion here is the constituency which will be given to Chas. R. Devlin, the late member for Galway, who has forwarded his resignation to the Speaker of the British House of Commons. It is expected that he will go to St. Anne's, Montreal, Dan Gallagher's old seat. Fresh from the Emerald Isle, Mr. Devlin might be expected to carry the seat.

Damage by Lightning.

Brockville, Sept. 24.—One of the fiercest electric storms in the history of Brockville broke between 7 and 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Two of the public schools, Trinity Church and the residence of Edward Fitzpatrick, were damaged by lightning. The occupants of the Fitzpatrick house had a narrow escape.

Earl Grey Has an Adventure.
Victoria, B. C., Sept. 24.—A despatch from Alert says that Governor Dunsmuir's yacht, with Earl Grey aboard, is stranded high and dry at that point. Earl Grey and party were taken off in a launch and sent on board the steamer Oldra, on which Lady Grey is traveling.

Pandora Range

A Ventilating Oven that Ventilates.

There is only one practical way of ventilating a range oven and that way has been adopted in the Pandora—is an actual, positive, working feature and not a mere talking point.

Fresh air is drawn from the outside through small vents into the oven while the odors and cooking fumes are forced by the fresh air out through small vents into the smoke flues, and up the chimney.

Roasts cooked in a Pandora oven retain their sweet, natural flavor, entirely free from cooking odors, absolutely unminged with any foreign flavor. Puddings, cakes, bread, meats, etc., are always light, fresh and free from mixed odors or flavors.

In the Pandora range you get all that scientific study, practical experience, skilled workmanship and an immense and finely equipped plant combined, can produce—the highest possible attainment in range perfection.

Ask your local dealer to show you the Pandora range, or write to us for free catalogue before buying any other.

CATARH CAN NOT BE CURED

With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease, Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

JEWELRY STORE LOOTED.

Burglars Make a $1,600 Haul at Durham, Ontario.

Durham, Sept. 24.—Saturday morning Webster's jewelry store was looted by burglars. Over $700 worth of diamonds, 100 watches that were left for repair, other watches, bracelets, brooches and trinkets were stolen.

The loss will amount to about $1,500. The Attorney-General's department has been notified.

The diamonds were purchased from Ellis & Co. of Toronto. Webster has offered a reward of $100.

There's a story of a farmer and his son driving a load to market. Of the team they were driving one was a steady, reliable old gray mare, the other a fractious, balky black horse. On the way the wagon was stalled and the black horse balked and refused to pull. "What'll we do, father?" said the younger man. "Well," said the father, "I guess we'll have to lay the load on the old gray." That homely compliment to women, "The gray mare is the better horse," suggests how often when there's an extra strain to be borne it is laid on the woman's back. How often she breaks down at last under the added weight of some "last straw." Women who are dragging along wearily through life can gain real strength by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

put back in concentrated form the strength-taking material which working women use up more rapidly than it can be restored by nature in the ordinary processes of nourishment and rest. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are universal favorites with women because they are easy to take and thoroughly effective in curing the consequences of constipation.

We are all apt to forgive those who do a mean thing when it counts to our own advantage.

Dear Sirs.—While in the country last summer I was badly bitten by ticks, so badly that I thought I would be disfigured for a couple of weeks. I was advised to try your Liniment to allay the irritation, and did so. The effect was more than I expected, a few applications completely curing the irritation, and preventing the bites from becoming sore. MINARD'S LINIMENT is a good article to keep off the mosquitoes.

CHEAP POWER SOURCES

Opportunities in Lake Huron and Georgian Bay Districts.

Hydro-Electric Commission Locates Numerous Places For the Development of Cheap Power For the People—Five Have Appeared to Be Worthy of Serious Consideration—Estimate of Cost Made by Test.

Toronto, Sept. 24.—The third report of the Hydro-Electric Commission deals with the Lake Huron and Georgian Bay districts. The province is divided into eight divisions, and the two reports and the first and second reports dealt with the Niagara and the Trent Valley districts, respectively.

In the Georgian Bay and Lake Huron districts the Commission report the demand for power at over 16,000 horsepower.

A careful study has been made of the present probable demands for electric power in relation to possible water-power developments capable of supplying these demands, and five developments have appeared to be worthy of serious consideration, namely:

Maitland River Development.

(1) Some four miles east of Goderich on the Maitland River at the Ox Bow a development of 80 feet head can be obtained by the construction of a rather expensive dam, which will provide storage sufficient to take care of any reasonable daily peak load within the limit of the temporary overload capacity.

Saugen River Development.

(2) At Southampton there is at present a small development made by the Saugen Light and Power Co. under 13 feet head, amounting to some 200 horsepower, and it is proposed to construct a dam below the Indian Reserve creating a development under 40 feet head, which would drop down the present one above mentioned.

Beaver River (Eugenia Falls).

(3) The development proposed at this point, as an independent plant, would probably be for about 1,000 horsepower, which is the estimated 24-hour low water capacity, but by combining this development with that on the Severn River, about to be described, the feasible installation at Eugenia Falls, an equipment of 2,267 horse-power, with a spare unit of 1,133 added. By this combination, making use of storage capacity, which can easily be created, the above installation can be employed for carrying all the excess of total load in the district dependent on these two plants above 4,000 horse-power, containing power to be drawn from the Severn River development. It will readily be seen that this will reduce operating expenses for the combined system by allowing complete shutting down of the plant for at least twelve hours per day and over Sunday.

Severn River (Big Chute).

(4) A development at this point will be less expensive than ordinary, owing to the small investment necessary for head works and canal. Although the power available during an occasional low water period may fall slightly below 4,000 horse-power, the amount can be safely depended upon during ordinary years, and the estimate for works of this capacity, with the usual reserve unit.

Undeveloped Locations.

Among the possible undeveloped locations are mentioned the Maitland River, Eugenia Falls, the Big Chute of the Severn River, the Sturgeon River and Falls, the Moon, Muskoka River, Magnetawan, French and Wahnapitae Rivers.

An estimate of cost of development has been made by a test at Collingwood, and the saving on the present steam operation noted. The capital cost is illustrated by undertakings now operating at Sudbury, $120,000; Bracebridge, $75,000; Orillia, $250,000.

No Healy Falls Leases.

"It is imperative," says the report, "that the waters of the Severn, Muskoka and other rivers not yet leased by the crown be retained for the use of the many municipalities which must, for all time, depend on these sources for whatever electric energy they may obtain from water power here granted in the future, such lease should specify the rates at which the Hydro-Electric Power Commission may obtain electric power in a condition and quantity at the generating points ready for transmission, or at the points of delivery in the various municipalities."

Estimates.

Estimates are furnished showing the annual cost of 24-hour power:

From the Maitland River for Goderich, full load, 625 h. p., $16.44; three-quarters load, 468 h. p., $13.75; and half load, 312 h. p., $9.16.

For Clunton—Full load, 250 h. p., $22.08; three-quarters load, 187 h. p., $22.68; half load, 125 h. p., $23.18.

For Mitchell—Full load, 250 h. p., $26.47; three-quarters load, 187 h. p., $31.16; half load, 125 h. p., $44.68.

For the Beaver and Severn Rivers the centres affected are:

Owen Sound—Full load, 2,500 h. p., $20.22; three-quarters load, 1,875 h. p., $21.55; half load, 1,250 h. p., $22.90.

A Veteran Dresden Oddfellow Passes Away—Special Church Service On Sunday

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Dresden, Sept. 24.—Word was received on Monday morning of the death of J. M. Graham, in the Oddfellow's Home at Oakville. Mr. Graham was an old and respected resident of Dresden, and one of the earliest members of the order. The Oddfellow's flag is hanging at half-mast to do him the last honor.

James A. Anderson, of Hamilton, is home on sick leave, being threatened with typhoid fever.

Mrs. L. B. Cronk spent Thursday and Friday in Detroit.

Mrs. J. W. Sharpe returned from visiting in Leamington on Friday evening.

Mrs. Alex. Webster and two children were Chatham visitors on Saturday.

Miss Alice Hughes will hold her fall millinery opening on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The two-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. George Carr died on Saturday and was interred in the Dresden Cemetery on Monday.

Mr. Ross Rutherford conducted the services for Mr. Lindsay, in the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday.

Mr. Stewart will occupy the pulpit next Sunday.

Sunday was rally day in the Methodist Church. The scholars occupied the front seats in the morning and were given a special sermon by the Rev. Mr. Langford. He spoke of God's standard of measurement, as found in the Ten Commandments and in the Sermon on the Mount, and showed that children were measured by these standards as surely as they were measured by the common standards known to the world.

In the afternoon the classes assembled together and a general review was taken.

The Harvest Home services were held in the English Church on Sunday. The church was handsomely decorated. Ears of yellow corn and harvest fruits were in every window, and on the altar were placed purple and white asters. The services were largely attended both morning and evening.

"WHEN WOMEN LOVE."

When the public, through the box office vote that a play is a hot one, it puts the pessimist out of business, no matter what is said to the contrary.

"When Women Love" is one of the season's great plays that have caught the public by storm. Everywhere the same reports are heard—

"a great show," "it is put into comedy, sensation, combined with an excellent cast and an unusually strong theme for a plot, make it so. It was built to please the masses, and is therefore termed 'a box-office winner.'"

When "Women Love" will be presented at the Brisco Theatre tomorrow night, and indications point to a big success.

FLORENCE GALE'S COSTUMES.

One of the most attractive features of "Love's Victory" are the costumes and gowns worn by Miss Florence Gale. The designs were modelled from old Italian and Australian prints now the private collection of a famous New Yorker. The richness of the imported fabrics, expensive workmanship, exquisite patterns and elaborate embellishments combine to render them models of grace and beauty. Wherever these dresses have been seen this season, feminine theatre-goers have openly expressed their admiration. Miss Gale is particularly well suited by nature to wear such fetching and costly garments, for she is of striking personal beauty as regards face and figure. The costumes worn by the other ladies of the cast are also artistic and attractive, while the real romantic effect of the play is doubly strengthened by the attire of the male characters in semi-military and Royal uniforms, becoming the period in which the story is laid.

NEVER SLIT YOUR BOOTS.

It doesn't cure the corn. Just apply the old standby, Putnam's Corn Extractor. It acts like magic. Kills the pain, cures the corn, does it without burn or scar. Get the best—it's "Putnam's."

MADE SURE OF IT.

The waves dabbled on the white sands, the moon drooped behind a cloud and then he kissed her.

"Al! he exclaimed. Wasn't that splendid?"

Yes, George, replied the blushing maiden, but—but was it a union kiss?"

Sure. But I'll make sure of it. Kiss me, now."

Why, here is the union label. And he kissed her again.

NEVER ATE THE EGG.

They say that kissing a man without a moustache is like eating an egg without salt, he said to her. Do you believe it?"

Really, I don't know. You see, I never—

Be very careful now. Don't you tell a fib.

Oh, well, I never ate an egg without salt.
