THOMAS MOORE.

HOUSE OF COMMONS
DEAR SIR,
7th March, 1913
Your letter of the 8th February was awaiting me here on my return from the Continen You can assure our friends in Newfoundland hopeful-in fact, it could not be better. The Bill passed its third reatig in the House of Com passed a mo it 110 . It was thous ill not mean mean the loss of the Bil, as, owing to the provis liamentary Party were largely instrumental in passing), the House of Lords has now only the power to delay the measure for a certain spec fied time.
The Bill will be passed a second time by the House of Commons within a few weeks from now, and will be again sent to the House of ords. If the House of Lords reject the Bill Lords. If the Fouse a sed a third time by the House of Commons, and, under the Provisions of the Parliament Act, would become law in May of next yea

| Believe me, |
