

Socialist Candidate for German President Making Strong Run

Premier of Nova Scotia Still Waits to See the Outcome.—Prince of Wales Sailed on Saturday.—Heavy License on Ontario 4.4 per cent. Beer.

SOCIALIST RUNNING STRONG.
BERLIN, Mar. 29. With returns from one-fifth of the 85,000 voting precincts in hand at 11 o'clock to-night, it is evident that the three Liberal parties, Socialists, Catholics or Clericals, and Democrats are offering stern resistance to the Nationalist Bourgeois bloc, and that Otto Braun, Socialist candidate, is making a strong run for the office of President in Germany's first popular presidential elections.

BEAVERBROOK ON ALLIANCES.
LONDON, Mar. 29. Writing in his paper, the Sunday Express, Lord Beaverbrook declares the Geneva protocol, which is now dead, proposed a militant alliance to protect Belgium and France against Germany, and the latest proposals to Foreign Minister Austin Chamberlain to join a security pact between enemy and allied powers are all dangerous and threaten to destroy the military and political unity of the British Empire for the Dominions will have none of them.

BRITAIN PROTESTS.
BUCHAREST, Mar. 29. The British Government has lodged strong protest against a measure now before the Rumanian Parliament for control of emigration, declaring that if enacted into law it will drive British steamships out of Rumania. The Bill gives the Government department power to fix emigrant passenger rates and determine transit routes, and prohibits companies from carrying on propaganda among prospective emigrants.

NOTHING NEW IN STRIKE SITUATION.
HALIFAX, Mar. 29. There is absolutely nothing new, said Premier E. H. Armstrong to-night, when asked to comment on the tie-up in the Nova Scotia coal fields which entered the fourth week on Friday night with the British Empire

Steel Corporation and the United Mine Workers of America, the two parties to the dispute, tenaciously holding their respective positions over the 1925 wage scale, and the families of twelve thousand miners involved living on food rations at a cost of nine cents per day individual. From Cape Breton it was reported the disputants were looking to Premier Armstrong for the next move.

PRINCE HAS SAILED.
PORTSMOUTH, Mar. 29. The Prince of Wales sailed at two o'clock this afternoon for his visit to South America and South Africa. The battleship Repulse, with the Prince and party aboard, was towed from her dock at that hour, and a few minutes later under her own steam sailed out of the harbor escorted by two destroyers.

PRINCE WILL HAVE REST.
On Board H.M.S. Repulse, March 29.—The Prince of Wales was greeted with warm sunny weather and smooth sea as the battle cruiser Repulse ploughed its way through the Bay of Hiscay headed for South Africa. Yesterday, shortly after the cruiser left Portsmouth for the trip to South Africa and South America, the Prince underwent typhoid inoculation. He gallantly led the band of volunteers who took inoculation on the recommendation of the ship's doctor. The Prince plans to enjoy a thorough rest before arrival of the cruiser at Bathurst on the west coast of Africa on April 4th.

TURKISH INSURGENTS STILL ACTIVE.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Mar. 29. Turkish insurgents who are still carrying on rebellious movements have occupied the town of Mush, 70 miles south of Erzerum. They also have occupied the towns of Boulanik and Melazert.

BREWERIES TO PAY HIGH LICENSE.
TORONTO, March 29. The Toronto Star publishes the following despatch from Kingston: "The Standard says that it has been advised that licenses to be put on breweries brewing 4.4 per cent. beer will be $5,000 a year. If this is so then many of the smaller brewing plants will be unable to pay the fee and will be forced out of business. The object of the high fee is to concentrate manufacture and thus enable the Government to exercise greater supervision and more easily force compliance with the law."

TRAIN ROBBERS GET BIG LOOT.
CHICAGO, March 29. Loot, estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000 was obtained by two robbers who late last night held up an express messenger of the New York Central passenger train No. 38, eastbound from here to Buffalo, and escaped at LaPorte, Ind.

HYDRO ELECTRIC DEVELOPMENT.
FREDERICTON, N.B., March 29. The estimated cost of the initial hydro electric development at Grand Falls, which the Government of New Brunswick proposes to proceed with, has been placed at six or seven millions, by A. G. Ayres, Toronto, chief adviser to the New Brunswick Power Commission. Development is expected to yield 6,000 to 8,000 horse power, and take two years to construct.

FARMER SETTLERS ARRIVE.
HALIFAX, March 29. The first party of British farmer settlers to arrive in Canada under the joint agreement between Canadian and British Governments, arrived with their families to-day, and proceeded at once to their destination in Ontario and Western Provinces. The party consisted of 38 families, totaling 189 souls.

"REDS" TO MEET.
MOSCOW, March 29. The Red Trade Union Delegation has left for Berlin where a conference will be held with a British delegation. Question to be considered are affiliation of the Russians with the Amsterdam International and the establishment of unity among the National Liberal organizations of the world.

BOUND TO ALASKA.
Five business men of Hull, England, started on an adventure which will take them to Alaska in search of silver, when they sailed on the steamship Montclair for Canada, yesterday. The party is led by John Riley, commercial agent of Hull, who claims he discovered hidden treasure in the Klondyke rush, twenty years ago.

RACE HORSES BURNED.
ORLANDO, Fla., March 28. Six famous race horses were burned to death to-day when one of the ten stall stables, at the Orlando race track, was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

FIRE AT ST. JOHN.
ST. JOHN, N.B., March 29. Damage estimated at between $35,000 and $40,000 was caused by a fire that damaged the Ford Sales Room and Service Station and two residences in the same building here this afternoon.

PRISONERS ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE.
TORONTO, March 29. About 22 prisoners in a Toronto jail were involved in an attempt to escape to-night. Guard Richards was badly beaten and is now in hospital. Other guards had a desperate struggle with the prisoners and police reserves were rushed to jail. None of the prisoners escaped.

Dreamer Capitalizes on His Vision
Family Has Terrapin for Supper.

Easton, Md., March 7.—Danel P. Ball, a highly esteemed citizen of St. Michael's, had a peculiar dream. In his dream he wandered to a place known as Steves Cove, and while he was rowing in this little cove he saw a large diamond-back terrapin, and near the terrapin he noticed an old log on the bottom. When Mr. Ball arose in the morning and told his family this dream one of the boys said: "Pop, if you believe in dreams why don't you go and get your terrapin?"

So, to gratify the boy, he went to the shore and got in his boat and rowed to the place he had dreamed of during the night. When that was done he saw a terrapin and also the log nearby. Just as he saw them in his dream. Mr. Ball picked up his terrapin and returned home with it, and his family enjoyed a real diamond-back terrapin supper that night.

Woman of 68 Horsewhips Man
Thinking $12,000 Land Investment, Gone, Attacks Trustee.

Los Angeles, March 4.—Believing her $12,000 investment in Central American pineapple land was lost, Mrs. Lillian Glass, sixty-eight, walked into the office of the Guatemala Farm Company yesterday and attacked Charles Crawford, a trustee, with a horsewhip. Police, who arrived after she had broken the whip over Crawford's back, learned that she had invested the money three years ago with the Agrícola Central Company, which later went into bankruptcy and was reorganized as the Guatemala Farm Company, with Crawford as trustee. She was released pending possible filing of a complaint by Crawford.

Extending the Usefulness

OF WESLEY BROADCASTING STATION.

Wesley Church service, bright, attractive and inspiring as ever, was broadcast last night from its own station, SWMC. From the singing of the Old Hundred to the pronouncement of the Benediction, the proceedings at the stately Patrick Street church kept close grip on all its auditors, and especially on those who heard the service via radio.

It must have been thrilling to those who foregathered at Wesley Church last night to hear of the conquest of space by the church broadcasting plant. To be told that the services in this church have been heard in Massachusetts was to glow with pride over a splendid scientific accomplishment.

Far in the interior of Newfoundland, lumbermen observing the sacred day of rest are receiving the services of Wesley Church constantly and distinctly and are joining in the worship of the Deity as really as if they were within the walls of some sacred building.

More striking still, at one Newfoundland town last night a whole congregation assembled to join in a service conveyed to them from Wesley Church via radio. At 6.30 o'clock there was a splendid gathering in the Portugal Cove Methodist Church. Mr. John's with his radio receiver and loud speaker. At the regular hour he tuned in on the city church and there immediately issued from the instrument, clearly and distinctly, the grand old words and strains of the Doxology, with which the Wesley services commence. The sound of the city church organ pealed through the building. The people of the Cove joined in the singing of the Old Hundred as naturally and as heartily as if the service originated within the walls of their own sacred edifice.

who have the privilege of clerical ministrations only one Sunday out of three. They were especially complimentary to the very efficient Wesley Church Choir.

Obituary

MOSES WELLMAN. (H. F. SHORTIS.)

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. Moses Wellman, one of our best known painters and decorators in the city of St. John's, which occurred at his home 144 Gower Street yesterday afternoon, Sunday at the age of 65 years. Mr. Wellman was a native of Carbonear, but his family came to St. John's when he was quite young, and he had since resided here.

During his life the deceased was a familiar figure in this city, where his striking personality, genial and kind manner won for him a wide circle of friends, and those of us who had the privilege of being acquainted with him share the profound sorrow and regret at the loss of one who has, for so many years, occupied such a prominent place amongst the skilled artisans of our country. Like a ray of sunshine he spread his light and love to those around him. He leaves examples of his skill in the various public buildings, mercantile offices and private residences to perpetuate his memory, and through life he employed the respect and esteem of all his associates. In his intercourse with men through his business he proved himself a man of honor and integrity, sparing no pains in order that he might give the best value possible to the work in hand.

BEARS ARE AS NUMEROUS AS WERE BULLS A FEW DAYS AGO.

(From Halifax Chronicle, Mar. 25.) The Boston Herald says: If memory serves there was a popular song some years ago with the title, "Ain't It Funny What a Difference a Few Hours Make." There is a certain pertinency to this thought in connection with the remarkable change which has taken place in sentiment in the financial district during the last few days. A week ago nearly everyone was bullish and pretty well loaded with stocks. Now the situation is quite the reverse. Bearishness is rapidly becoming rampant. Those who were buying Baldwin Locomotive at 145 on the prospects of its new Diesel engine, are selling it short at 125. It's the same Baldwin, no better or no worse than it was a few weeks ago. The difference is that it is 20 points cheaper and that much nearer the bottom. Some psychologists some day may discover why it is that the higher stocks go the more bullish people become on the market, while the lower stocks go the more bearish. In a general way, perhaps, this mental phenomenon is due to the fact that once it has embarked upon a movement in a given direction the stock market oftentimes runs in that direction for a considerable way. Just at the moment the prevailing sentiment in Wall Street seems to be to get rid of equities. People who were anxious to buy stocks a month ago are now keen on converting their holdings into cash. Perhaps a month or so hence, when stocks will be going up again, they will start re-investing.

We note in our travels that some of the wise old financial men, who were not interested in buying securities in January and February at the prices then prevailing, are beginning to show more signs of interest in the market, and are gradually picking up their favorites on a scale down.

Canning Suggestions

Editor Evening Telegram. Sir—Your reference in Saturday's issue to the possibility of developing a business in the canning of crabs to substitute for the labor lost through the "close time" now in force in the lobster industry is a good one and by enlarging the scope thereof so as to include scallops and clams in the fish products and dandelion and young turnip greens as vegetable products it is more than probable that quite an industry may be built up.

In the Estuary of the Grand River and other places on the West Coast we have in the evidence of visiting American sportsmen that the finest variety of edible clams are abundant. The Scallop is a special dainty in the English and American Markets yet the plentiful in many sections of our coast it is turned to no profitable account.

We lack the traits of thrift and initiative or we would long since have developed an extensive industry in bi-products alone. Some three years ago a local concern tried the canning of turnip greens but for want of care, or of experience succeeded in putting out a product that was absolutely unpalatable. The leaves of young turnip plants for trimming should not be over three inches in length. The writer has tried to eat some turned green but for want of care, or of experience succeeded in putting out a product that was absolutely unpalatable.

No one is going now-days to give something for nothing but if homes products be put up with intelligent

The mortal remains of the late Robert Nash were laid to rest in St. Peter's Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral was largely attended. At the R.C. Let be mourners are his widow, three daughters and one son; besides two sisters, Miss Ellen and Bridget Nash, all of whom were receiving the sympathy of their many friends.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

THE IROQUOIS INDIANS OF CAUGHNAWAGA IN COURT.

A strange language, never before heard in the court, sounded. It was the language whose guttural accents used to fill the wigwam before the French and English were in existence. Five gaunt, grey-haired descendants of the original owners of Canada, stood before the bar of justice in the Court of King's Bench, defending what they believed to have been their rights. They faced a charge of inciting their fellow Indians to riot. They did not understand a word of the evidence—either French or English—but remained silent, unsmiling with Indian stoicism. One of them was an octogenarian, while the others were all sexagenarians, and have lived all their lives on the reservation at Caughnawaga, across the river from Lachine. They did not, however, appear in court in their Indian costume. A translator spoke the Indian words which conveyed to the accused the evidence which was given against them. Among those charged is Mayor Bellisle. It is alleged that on December last, they incited other Indians to commit a breach of the peace by leading a disturbance directed against property of the Federal Department of Indian Affairs.

come in contact with them in athletic and educational circles, and always found them fine fellows. Whether it is the isolation on the reservation—the last remnant of the many places they once held around Montreal, or that they see their race fast dwindling away, and they want to "Hold the Fort," that makes them dissatisfied, I do not know. A few years ago some of their Chiefs were led to believe by some "wise white" men, that the Indian village of Oka was theirs in toto, and that the Sulpician Fathers had no right to the property. The case was tried in every court in Canada, and the Indians lost. Then an appeal was made to the Privy Council in England and the "wise ones" told the Chiefs that all the property at Oka, including the fine Trappist Monastery, with all its many industrial buildings, and large tract of cultivated ground would soon be theirs. Visions of wealth, ease and grandeur danced in their heads, and they eagerly awaited the verdict of the Privy Council. But alas! they were doomed to bitter disappointment, for the case went against them. The dupes who led them on to do such

THE HELP GIVEN THE UNEMPLOYED.

The unemployment situation is still acute. The "Star" appropriated money to provide 10,000 meals for the unfortunate ones. Owing to the severe weather conditions, the Directors have extended the number to 50,000. Coming along Dorchester St. last Sunday morning, I noticed a procession of men going in the direction of the Grey Nunnery, where 700 lunches are given daily. At the Caron Building, Bleury Street, the merchandise industrial exhibition and mid-winter frolic for the benefit of the unemployed was a success. The City has started the building of sewers in different parts which has given employment to a few hundred.

A NEW ORGANIZATION FORMED.

The newly-organized Citizens' Association of Greater Montreal held a meeting recently, when various important matters were discussed, but nothing definite in the way of resolutions touching these subjects was drawn up. The speakers indulged in some caustic criticism at the expense of the Harbor Board and the Engineers who selected a site for the proposed South Shore bridge. They also poured some hot shot at existing light and gas rates, while it was emphatically stated that the organization was not the tool of any newspaper, nor does it exist in order that certain members may "pull chestnuts out of the fires."

While members of parliament, aldermen, senators and other men in public life, as well as civil servants, will be welcomed as honorary members, they will not be allowed to vote, according to a notice of motion presented at the meeting.

THE KIWANIANS HAD A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

The Kiwanians started the New Year with the knowledge that their contribution to child welfare, in the form of the new hospital built by the Club and given to the Children's Memorial Hospital, has been appreciated, and that there is a balance of $328.59. The work of the hospital was done by the members and friends of the Club, without public subscription. The Club gave an entertainment at His Majesty's Theatre which brought them $17,000, and after deducting $5,000 for expenses, leave $12,000 for the work for 1925. The members have their bi-monthly lunch at the Winsor, continue their social work at the disabled soldiers at St. de Belleuse, and at the Boys' Farm, Shawbridge. The Club invited the Variety Boys to play for the soldiers on March 6th.

DOING SOMETHING FOR THE PUBLIC.

Under the heading of "Masters of Their Fate," the Montreal Herald says editorially: In spite of loud protestations that the people are tyrannized over, deprived of their personal liberties, denied the privilege of self-government and otherwise maltreated, they do just about as they choose and get just about what they want. It isn't the public that is doing the bawling—it is those who say they want to do something for the public. As long as the privileges of one man end where the rights of another begin those who live in the midst of civilized society must surrender a few trivial liberties, but few if any of the real joys of life are lost and many new ones are acquired through this mutual sacrificing. But if society or any part of society demands new sacrifices beyond those which the people have made willingly, then the individual members of that society decide for themselves whether they will or will not observe this dictum.

"The United States provides an example. There hundreds of oppressive, suppressive and prohibitive laws are passed by the legislatures every year. Theoretically legislative bodies are representative of the whole people and therefore the will of the legislative bodies is said to be that of society. But sometimes it happens that laws which do not represent the public will are adopted. Theoretically the public would be powerless against such unjust laws, but fortunately the people control the administrative officers and decide which laws shall be enforced and which shall be invoked. The statute books are filled with forgotten laws, and it is the people, not the police, who have determined their fate. It is not a coincidence that when the public wants a law enforced the authorities enforce it and that when the public "thumb" is turned down on a statute that the police and courts obey. The power of the ballot is still a power and the voice of the people can still be heard.

ARE YOU PLAYING YOUR PART WELL?

Dear readers, the world is a stage, and all men and women merely players. Upon that stage the drama of life is being enacted, with varying success in the sight of God and His angels. Are you doing your best in the drama, or are you merely "a figure-head?" Do you stand idle with your arms folded, admiring the others playing their parts, and say, "All's Well?" "Before man is life and death, good and evil," says the Holy Ghost; "that which he shall choose, shall be given him."

How many, alas! who play a part in the drama of life, unable to realize its deep significance, convert the solemn tragedy into a comedy or a farce. Are you being carried away with false joys or pleasures, which in the end, brings only vexation of spirit and anguish? The poet says: "No matter how wide the gate, Or filled with punishments the scroll, I am the Master of my Fate, I am the Captain of my Soul."

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

"HE'S LAZY THAT'S ALL"

"He's 1 a z z y, that's all that's the matter with him."

So the man who never thinks there is anything the matter with other people disposed of the case of a mutual friend of ours when we were discussing his strangely slow convalescence from an operation a week ago.

Yesterday the man died.

I don't doubt the man who never thinks there is anything the matter with other people believes that the man died from an ingrowing case of laziness.

Evidently The Doctor Is A Fool.

True, the coroner's verdict was heart failure. But the man who does not think there is anything the matter with other people had said it was all poppycock for the doctor to say that this man needed to rest six months because the nerve shock of the operation had completely prostrated him. When he had an operation—he pointed out—he had been back to work in three weeks (the fact that his operation was not the same as the one his friend had undergone did not seem to him to alter the case). And as he knew so much better than the doctor what was the trouble, I suppose he will also flout the coroner and call his verdict all poppycock, too.

It really seems too bad to me that this man went into business instead of being a doctor. For as a diagnostician he is a wonder. I don't know how many times I have heard him explain cases that bother the doctors, with that same simple and masterly diagnosis: "He's lazy that's all that's the matter with him."

His Reward.

At the root of the matter is the fact that he himself works harder than he wants to and than he should, that he does not spare himself, and that as a reward he claims the right to judge and condemn everyone whom he does not think works hard enough or whom he considers in any degree epileptic.

Sometimes, doubtless, there is some truth in his diagnosis. There are people who hate work and who hate routine and who consciously or subconsciously seek refuge in some form of illness.

But it is very difficult indeed for the experienced specialist to know when that is the case. And it is not only difficult, but utterly impossible, for any ordinary man to know.

At Least We Needn't Sneer.

It is true that serious nervous troubles should not be given too much sympathy. But neither should they be given unkind criticism. Such sufferers have got to pull themselves up by their own boot straps, and it is no enviable job. Doctors can show them the way but they cannot do the work for them.

Maybe we can't do a lot to help, but we can keep from sneering.

There is a very fine passage along these lines in the book on nerves which I recommend to you. The author says that when a man is in this miserable condition he says "I cannot," his friends say "he will not," but the doctor says "he cannot will." "Judge not that ye be not judged."

Empire Questions

Winnipeg, Man., March 25.—The calling of an Imperial conference during the latter part of the coming summer, to fix once and for all the position of the Dominions with relation to the Mother Country, was strongly advocated by J. E. Thurlow, of Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, in an interview here. He further suggested that such conferences be held subsequently every seven years, with all diplomatic relationships, in the interim carried through the medium of the various high commissioners.

"It is absurd," Mr. Thurlow said, "for the British Government every time it wants to test out the opinion of the dominions, to summon the various prime ministers to London for a conference. The same results could, and should be achieved through the high commissioners as ambassadors, and, if they are not qualified for the work, men should be appointed who are glorified trade commissioners. Mr. Thurlow asserted, and this he maintained was not in keeping with the dignity of the dominions.

Mr. Thurlow thought the trade agreement between Canada and Australia would operate to the mutual benefit of both countries, but he did not like the preference extended to dried fruit.

Adventist Church
EVANGELIST SPEAKS ON OUR LORD'S GREAT PROPHECY.

The subject next Sunday night will be "The Crash of Empires."

Taking as a basis of his discourse Our Lord's prophecy relative to the destruction of Jerusalem and the end of the world as recorded in Matthew's gospel, beginning with Chapter 23, verse 34 and continuing through Chapter 24; also Luke 21. Mr. Manuel invited his congregation to go back with him to A.D. 31. It was the time of the Passover, and Jesus was soon to give Himself as the real Passover. Jesus had come up to attend the feast. After cleansing the Temple the second time He uttered some very scathing rebukes to the ruling classes. He told them plainly of the judgments to fall on their city and nation, and that all that He had predicted would fall on that generation. (Matt. 23-26). The disciples who heard him say, as He was leaving the temple, "Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord," verse 29, came to Him a little later and asked Him, "When shall these things be?"

Old Colony Club

The address at the Old Colony Club, Saturday afternoon last, was given by Mr. Gordon Christian, L.R.A.M., with Mrs. Outerbridge in the chair.

The subject chosen was Music, Past and Present, a comprehensive and fascinating theme, rendered all the more delightful by illustrations on the piano in Mr. Christian's well-known, masterly style.

Beginning with music and musical instruments of ancient times, Mr. Christian proceeded to describe the further progress of music as being attributable to the monks, to whom is also due the introduction and development of church music. The first attempt at building an organ and its crude keyboard was described. The development of plain song, harmony and counterpoint, etc., were discussed, as well as those instruments prior to the piano, organ, etc., as we now know them.

Great masters of music were taken in their chronological order, and attention drawn to their diverse and unequalled merits. Beethoven's genius was especially stressed, and his well-known "Funeral March Sonata," as well as other movements of the beautiful "Moonlight Sonata" played. Chopin and Liszt stood out for having revolutionized pianoforte playing; Liszt being described as the wizard of the keyboard, as it was due to him even more than to Chopin that the piano forte became revolutionized. Paganini, who accomplished for the violin what Liszt had done for the piano, came in for attention as having also inaugurated an epoch. Many well-known names followed, (with some delightful illustrations) until Mr. Christian brought his remarks to bear on the merits and style of modern music, not forgetting dance music and the popular jazz.

Lantic Table Sugar

Lantic Sugar is sold in packages containing 2 pounds; also in packages containing 5 pounds. Each package is guaranteed full weight of purest, sweetest, cleanest sugar.

In every town there are people who take care of their health by being careful of their food, to such people, Lantic Sugar in dust proof packages is recommended.

Lantic Sugar in dust proof packages comes direct from the refinery to your table, unadulterated by anything unclean.

Lantic Sugar in packages is safe from contamination by germ bearing dust, and from flies which are invariably disease carriers.

For use with Grape Fruit, Strawberries, etc., also for use with cereals, Lantic Sugar, because it is extra fine, is unquestionably best.

In addition to Lantic Sugar for ordinary table use, you will do well to try Lantic Icing Sugar, in 1 pound packages, it is positively the best icing obtainable.—mar30,tf

Mission Closed

The Mission for the men of St. Patrick's Parish closed last night, the service consisting of sermon, renewal of Baptismal Vows, and hearing of religious articles by Rev. Father McCarthy, S.J., and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament by Rev. Dr. Kitchin. As at all the services during the week, the church was filled to capacity. Over 3,000 men attended Confession during the Mission.

A Correction

In an item of Friday night's Evening Telegram, referring to the Missionary sketch, acted on Monday night last at Canon Wood Hall, by the young members of St. Thomas' Church, there was a slight mistake. Miss Brown did not compose "The Dialogue," it being taken from a "Missionary Dialogue Book." Miss Brown only composed that part referring to Rev. Henry Gordon of Cartwright.

"Does it Pay" at the Majestic To-Day

Recalls Lives of Those Caught in Spot Light of Recent Publicity.

In exhibiting the William Fox production, "Does it Pay?", the public will be shown a unique portrayal of an insidious and disastrous situation that has crept into the homes of many of America's most prominent families. The news of these tragedies, which has frequently brought from their pedestals of respectability those whose previous achievements had been a matter of national pride, has not only been avidly absorbed in every home in America, but has been flashed to the four corners of the globe in all the tongues of Babel.

How the episodes of "Does it Pay?" dovetail with the sensational features of the lives of those whose once famous names have become the subject of wagging tongues throughout the land, is bound to result in conversation everywhere this picture is shown upon the screen.

This is a nation of newspaper readers, thus making it quite unnecessary to mention these names which have been heralded in blazing type from the front pages of virtually every newspaper in the world. These names are far too prominent for the public to forget, ranging from a celebrated banker whose very word was law in Wall Street to the head of an international business concern with headquarters in Chicago. The tentacles of the organizations headed by these men reached throughout the civilized world—yet they were not immune from the power of the wagging tongues.

Unfortunately these tragic situations were not and are not confined to those of great social or commercial prominence, but have found their way, like a disease that is no respecter of rank, into quite humble homes. No other subject has aroused keener or more bitter discussion in daily newspapers, magazines and books, in clubs, homes and business circles or in the dramatic stage offerings of the world than this subject so vividly and dramatically portrayed in "Does it Pay?"

No scientific finger can point out the source or the reason, and no earthly power can prevent the tragedy, once started, from running its miserable course. Men whose long established intelligence has been howled to, with this virus in their blood, have deliberately and willfully destroyed their reputations, wrecked their homes and robbed innocent children of even dishonored names, for what?—a rag, a bone and a hank of hair!

The picture is nothing less than a mirror reflecting but a page from life into which those from millions of homes may look and see if they too are courting a similar disaster. See it at the Majestic Theatre to-night.

LECTURE AT COLUMBUS HALL—At Columbus Hall, to-night, Rev. Fr. McCarthy, S.J., will deliver a lecture to the Knights and their lady friends. The lecture begins at 8.30 p.m.

4087 THE PHARMACY

C. L. B. Cadets

The Brigade carries steadily on. Officers and all ranks maintaining the motto "Fight the Good Fight." Good news comes from Colonel W. H. Franklin, C.B.E., D.S.O., His Majesty's Trade Commissioner in East Africa. Col. Franklin is as keen as ever in his old boys, and sends everybody his best wishes. He left Nairobi, East Africa, last month for England on six months' leave, and will make his headquarters at the Dept. of Overseas Trade, 35 Old Queen Street, Westminster. His report on Trade and Commerce of East Africa covering Uganda, Kenya Colony, Zanzibar and Tanganyika for the year ending September, 1924 has just been published and is quite a very interesting booklet. The contents covering finance, imports, exports, local industries, social questions, shipping and rail-ways is a valuable record for imperial interests. We congratulate him on the report.

We are glad to note that Mrs. W. H. Franklin is visiting St. John's at present, being a guest of Mrs. John Lindberg. All ranks are pleased to see Mrs. Franklin home once more, and extend to her a hearty welcome, for she was the "mother of the regiment" in the days of Auld Lang Syne, and we owe her a big debt of gratitude for the assistance given at all times to keep the C.L.B. going. All ranks hope that Colonel Franklin sooner or later will be able to pay Newfoundland another visit.

Heart's Content Company under Major Anderson are "stepping on the gas," and the old machine is responding to the accelerator in great shape. Quartermaster Mottly has acquired for the company a new motor. The company has now the Parish Hall placed at their disposal as an Armory, thanks to the loyal support of the Churchmen there. About fifty-one of the roll and applications for commissions as new officers are being put through. Three cheers for good old Heart's Content Company.

Lieut. V. Randall of our double-headed Company Trinity East and Port Rexton, writes cheerfully. He needs more supplies. The company like the Monroe Government is going strong. There are fifty all ranks on the roll including five officers. The company parades in three sections on account of small space in the Armory. Hon. Robert Watson, a very strong pillar of support to the C.L.B. and always interested in the welfare of the lads, has offered a silver medal for competition in this company. Captain Fitzgerald, O.C. and the officers appreciate the gift of the "Watson Medal," which will prove most helpful in stimulating the interest of the lads. Good old Bonavista Company, under Capt. I. J. Bishop, O.C., reports 17 on the roll for February. Six parades were held. Fifteen recruits have recently joined, which is encouraging. We are looking to Bonavista for big things this year with the new enthusiasm that 1925 has brought to them. Carry on, Capt. Bishop.

Grand Falls Company has been re-organized, and will be "in the pink" by April. On March 21st the C.L.B. Ladies' Auxiliary catered for the big complimentary supper to the Brigade Hockey Team, who played the man and won victoriously the Hockey Championship Cup in their town's recent League series. The affair was quite a social success. The evening was very jolly and the arrangements of the ladies were faultless. Well done Grand Falls C.L.B. Ladies' Auxiliary, and three cheers for the C.L.B. hockey team. St. John's is glad to note that one of the Ladies' Auxiliary in person responded to the toast of "C.L.B. Auxiliary." Other Auxiliaries will please note.

February Brigade announces the visit of 140 Australian Cadets to London on a six months' tour of the Mother Country, under the auspices of the young Australian League. Newfoundland C.L.B. Cadets regret that we have no young Newfoundland League to send over 140 of our "better than the best" boys. Well, we hope we can do it some day. The paper makes an appeal for the assistance of our "comrades in black" of South Africa. The Brigade is making a special effort to save these youths and inculcate in their hearts the motto of the C.L.B., the promotion of charity, reverence, patriotism, discipline, self-respect and all else that tends towards true Christian manliness. The Chaplain General and Secretary, Rev. Rogers, O.B.E., M.A., in his message from Headquarters, London to "my dear Comrades in South Africa," printed in the special "Official Organ of the South African C.L.B.," states: "The C.L.B. stands for giving and not 'getting.' It tries to follow the example of our Great Chaplain. The C.L.B. expects of every member that he will give all he can. Officers will not 'ask for thanks for their services, or seek after promotion. Instead they will thank God for their glorious 'privilege and wonder why He thinks them worthy of it. Lads won't be 'on the make or jealous if another 'fellow gets a stripe. They will rather 'think hard how they can do a little 'more, and if they do get a stripe 'wonder what their officers see in them to honour them so much. This 'is the spirit in which the C.L.B. has 'done its best work."

All ranks in Newfoundland will read, mark and learn what our Brigade Secretary says, governing themselves accordingly. It is the real essence of the Brigade spirit, and if we can absorb it ourselves as individuals the Brigade shall be the better for it.

Telephone Lines Used in Broadcasting (PART II)

Our diagram above represents the layout of telephone circuits used in broadcasting the Democratic Convention last June. Fourteen radio stations were tied together by means of long-distance telephone lines. Saturday we explained the function of the telephone repeater. In the diagram above you will note that there were in use a total of 35 separate telephone repeaters to handle this "wire two vacuum tubes and each repeater has at least one man listening in on the line to see that the proper amount of amplification is being secured. In addition the toll testboard men are on duty to patch out any defective lines and substitute good lines for the defective ones.

At the same time that the broadcasting is being carried on over the telephone circuits, Morse telegraph sets are working on the same lines. These sets enable the various testboard men in the different cities to keep in touch with each other and to report any trouble on the lines without interfering with the broadcasting.

Ramon Navarro in a New Character

Famous Screen Idol in "The Red Lily" At The Nickel.

Admirers of Ramon Navarro will have the opportunity of seeing their favorite in a new kind of role when "The Red Lily," a Metro-Goldwyn picture, comes to the Nickel Theatre today for a run of three days. He will appear, not only as a lover, but also as an apache of the Paris slums—a youth who has allowed himself to lose all self-respect and gone to the dregs of society.

Navarro has lately come to the fore with great rapidity. His popularity has increased tremendously inside of a year. Following the splendid impression he made in Rex Ingram's "Scaramouche," he played in "Thy Name Is Woman" for Fred Niblo, and then returned to Ingram in "The Arab." Now comes "The Red Lily," which was written by Mr. Niblo himself, and which promises to eclipse all of Navarro's previous efforts.

The cast also includes such favorite players as Edig Bennett, Wallace Beery, Frank Currier, Rosemary Theby, Mitchell Lewis and many others. Miss Meredith made the film adaptation. "The Red Lily" is a Louis B. Mayer production.

ADVERTISE IN THE EVENING TELEGRAM.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Grenfell Association of Newfoundland was held at Government House on Saturday afternoon last at 3.30 o'clock. His Excellency the Governor, the patron of the Association presided. Amongst those present were, Lady Allardice, His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland, several of the city clergy, besides the Board of Directors and a number of prominent citizens. The meeting was opened with the reading of the minutes from last meeting, and the presenting of the tenth annual report.

The report defined clearly the functions of the local organization whose work it was explained was not of an administrative nature. In a survey of the activities of the Association the Report dealt with the work performed under the following heads:—

- (a) Hospital and Medical;
- (b) Clothing;
- (c) Industrial and Educational;
- (d) Child Welfare

HOSPITALS AND MEDICAL.

There are four regular hospitals, maintained at St. Anthony, Battle Harbor, Indian Harbor and Harrington; also six cottage hospitals at Flower's Cove, Porteau, Cartwright, North West River, Spotted Islands and Lewis Bay. In addition to the foregoing the steamer "WOP" with a medical staff on board operates from St. Anthony as far north as North West River during the season when navigation is possible. A new hospital ship, the "Strathcona II" to replace the original "Strathcona", which was lost a few years ago, will be in commission this summer. The cost of this work up to September last was $86,510.13. 779 in patients were treated covering an aggregate period of 23,989 days and 732 out patients. Major operations numbered 149 and minor operations 641. Although $40,293.04 was expended in various ways at St. Anthony, the direct cost of the hospital was $27,100.00, the estimated cost per patient was $2.70. The medical officers in charge are:—St. Anthony, Dr. C. S. Curtis; Battle Harbor, Dr. Rappenthal; Indian Hr., Dr. H. E. Paddon; Harrington, Dr. Harley. North West River Hospital which was destroyed by fire in 1923 has been rebuilt.

CLOTHING.

This Department in charge of Miss Dorothy Stirling, distributed clothing during the twelve months to the value of $35,495.11 in return for labour on goods.

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT.

Miss Catherine Cleveland who is in charge has rapidly developed what promises to be an important industry which includes such work as hooked mats, woolen goods, diceys of Grenfell or other cloth, homespun, skips, hobbles, bed spreads, wooden toys and models of wood and ivory. The balance of income over expenditure in this branch was $2,064.23.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Educational Department under the supervision of Houghtling operates a school and an orphanage at St. Anthony and the Labrador Public School at Muddy Bay. Miss Ruth Wyatt is in charge of the former where there is an average attendance of 110 children. Fifty-seven children looked after in the orphanage which is in charge of Miss F. E. Baker. The St. Anthony school which is equipped with a radio set in the Assembly Hall is said to be the best school building outside of St. John's.

CHILD WELFARE.

Miss Elizabeth Criswell is the Director of this branch of the work, the extensiveness of which may be judged from the following facts:— Number of workers 16; Resident nurses in five districts; 105 villages visited; 935 children received physical examination; 963 children received dental treatment. Mr. Charles A. Stevens donated six Toggenburg Goats. The plans for 1925 include:—7 Public Health Nurses, 3 Dentists, 2 Eye Specialists, a "Consultation Clinic at Flower's Cove. There is also a campaign of Nutrition work being conducted during the summer in White Bay under the direction of Miss Mary Y. Card, which is producing very beneficial results.

The total expenditure of the association during the year was $141,435.117 which was met by contributions, etc., with the exception of a deficit of 17,835.62.

During the coming summer a new hospital will be commenced at St. Anthony and the new hospitalship Strathcona II will arrive from England.

In connection with the Grenfell Institute at St. John's a high tribute was paid to Mr. Holmes for his excellent management, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Girls Department were also congratulated for their splendid service. Regret was expressed at the unavoidable absence of Dr. Grenfell, who had been given a year's leave of absence by the directors of the I. G. A. They had arranged for him and Mrs. Grenfell to take a world tour owing to his health having broken down, and it was hoped that it might be completely restored by the change.

Upon rising to move the adoption of the report His Excellency returned to his visit last year in company with Lady Allardice to the various centres of activity mentioned and spoke most favourably of the work which was being done by the organization and the results which were being accomplished. Their inspection had been thorough, His Excellency declared and it was a pleasure for him to be able to corroborate from his personal knowledge of the work, the efficiency shown in all departments as outlined in the Report. His Lordship Bishop White heartily supported the motion, and following a brief address by Dr. MacPherson it was carried unanimously. The election of Directors resulted in the retiring officers being unanimously re-elected.

Before the meeting closed Sir. Marmaduke Winter proposed a hearty vote of thanks to His Excellency the Governor for his very interesting address of the work in Twillingate and other places, and also for the use of Government House for holding the meeting. This was very fittingly seconded to by Hon. C. P. Ayre, and was carried unanimously by the meeting. After the meeting concluded the Board of Directors, friends and supporters of the Grenfell Association in attendance, were entertained by His Excellency and Lady Allardice.

Why, of Course

If you want GOOD Clothes go to a GOOD Tailor. There is where you get good material, good fit and Clothes that look as if they were made for YOU, and not for the other fellow.

The Ready-to-Wear! Yes, of course. They were made for the one who buys them, very seldom for the one who fits them.

But be careful and go to a good tailor. It's cheaper and better.
