The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Canadian History Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Canadian History Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaît sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONIALS

IN FAVOR OF

The Rev'd. Francis Nicol, of St. John's, Newfoundland,

Candidate for the Chair of Hebrew, Biblical Criticism and Church History, in the University of Queen's College, Kingston, Canada West.

Class Certificate from the late Dr. Reid,

Professor of Church History in Glasgow College, author of a History of Presbyterianism in Ireland, and Editor of Mosheim's Ecclesiastical History.

I certify that Mr. Francis Nicol attended the Senior Church History Class, during the session of 1846-7; that he attended very regularly—that he was most diligent in performing the work of the class, and that he made very distinguished progress; also, that with my cordial concurrence, his fellow students voted him the first prize for general eminence in the business of the class throughout the session.

JAMES SEATON REID.

Glasgow College, April 20th, 1857.

From Dr. Field, Bishop of Newfoundland.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the unreprouched, (and I believe irreproachable character,) of the Rev. Francis Nicol, who has been resident in this place for a period of six years.

Of his literary qualifications I have had no opportunity, nor perhaps am I competent to judge, but of his demeanour as a gentleman and a Christian Minister, I can speak most favorably, with very great confidence.

EDWARD NEWFOUNDLAND.

St. John's, March 30th, 1857.

From the Rev. John Martin, Superintendent of Missions, Halifax.

HALIFAX, MAY 30TH, 1857.

I have much pleasure in bearing testimony to the high character and distinguished attainments of the Rev. Francis Nicol, Minister of St. Andrew's Church, Newfoundland, during his residence of nearly three years in this City, as Assistant Minister of St. Matthew's and St. Andrew's Churches.

I had almost daily intercourse with him, and heard him preach once every Lord's day. I always found him frank and honorable in his disposition, and dignified and affectionate in his deportment. His discourses were much admired for their lucid arrangement and admirable style, not less than their evangelic spirit and practical tendency.

His attention to the poor and afflicted in our congregations, was constant and unremitting, and his visits were peculiarly acceptable, and are still gratefully remembered.

I have good reason to believe that his attainments as a Biblical and Oriental Scholar, and a Student of Church History, are of a very high order, as his certificates from Professors Hill, Gray and Reid, of Glasgow University, amply testify.

I consider Mr. Nichol eminently qualified to fill any situation connected with his profession to which he may be appointed, and I know no Minister who has a higher sense of duty, or a more anxious desire to give sincere satisfaction to those who may place confidence in him.

JOHN MARTIN,
Superintendent of Missions, Halifax.

NOTE.—Having apprised Mr. Nicol that two packages of testimonials sent by a passenger per the Steamship Cherokees, to my care, had never reached me, he forwarded to me the foregoing copies of two which he had retained, and which I now transmit to the Secretary of Queen's College, in the hope that the Trustees may allow them, in the circumstances, to be read.

Montreal, 22nd May, 1857.

W. SNODGRASS.
