Gerard and Others Held As Hostages

Washington Confirms News of Detention of Americans

RESTRICTIONS ON AMBASSADOR

It is Said He is Not Permitted to Send Code Telegrams—German Wants Assurance as to Von Bernstorff, German Consul and Interceded German Ships

Washington, Feb. 8.—Ambassador Gerard, American consul and the American sailors brought in on the prize ship Yarrowdale, are being held in Germany until assurances have been received from here as to the safe departure of Count Von Bernstorff and the German consul, and the safety of German war-bound ships in this country.

It was said at the state department today that sensational reports have been current in Germany that the German ships here have been confiscated and their crews seized. Pending confirmation Germany has detained the Americans. Officials here are inclined to minimize the importance of the detention, because they believe it largely has arisen from a misunderstanding and soon will be straightened out.

It has been officially announced that there is no intention of taking the German ships. Moreover, dispatches have been conveyed to Germany through the Spanish embassy as to the courtesies granted to former German officials in this country and their receipt is expected to clarify greatly any misconception in Germany as to America's attitude.

That Ambassador Gerard is still in Berlin and not at Bern, as it was thought possible yesterday, is shown in a despatch received today from Ambassador Willard at Madrid. Mr. Willard says that the impression that Gerard was at Bern had been due to a telegraphic mistake. He said Gerard would have been dated "Berlin, via Bern," instead of "Bern."

Safe Passage for Bernstorff
Washington, Feb. 8.—France has formally granted safe passage through the Allied blockade for Count Von Bernstorff and his suite. Similar action is being awaited from Great Britain.

London, Feb. 8.—The German government will require guarantees that Von Bernstorff and the men on German ships in American ports will be permitted to leave the United States before allowing Ambassador Gerard and other Americans in Germany to depart from that country, according to the Copenhagen Politiken quoted by Reuters.

On the last occasion he was charged with begging. The court made clear that the city was not going to support "such a class of men." He was sent below.

Three others were before the court charged with drunkenness. They were fined the usual amount.

GERMAN VESSELS AT BOSTON CRIPPLED

It Would Take Six to Nine Months to Make Them Ready for Sea

Boston, Feb. 7.—Evidence that most, if not all, the vessels of the refugee German fleet of this port have been rendered useless by damage to engines, boiler heads and valves, is understood to have been found by Captain John B. Coyle, of the coast guard service, who is making a special examination of the vessels for the customs service.

The details of his report to Assistant Secretary Andrew J. Peters, at Washington, could not be learned here, but it was understood that the inspection of the liners America and Cincinnati and the freighters Witekind and Koin developed evidence of damage as extensive as that found on the steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie. Indications that the harm was done in December were uncovered. The vessels generally, according to reliable estimates, could not be made ready for service in less than six months and in some cases nine months would be necessary.

The Evestone was of 2,200 tons. Queenstown, Feb. 8.—The British steamer Turino has been sunk by a submarine. The Turino was of 2,200 tons. German-Americans Pledge Loyalty to the States in Case of War

Philadelphia, Feb. 8.—Pledges of loyalty to the United States in the event of war with Germany were made early today by the German-American National Alliance, with a reported membership of 3,000,000 at a meeting of delegates from twenty-eight states, summoned by Dr. Charles F. Hazeman, the president.

It was two hours after midnight when the meeting adjourned. In a statement, Dr. Hazeman said the alliance had adopted resolutions endorsing President Wilson's action in severing diplomatic relations with Germany and in case of hostilities the organization will organize regiments of German-Americans and fight under the command of President Wilson, our commander-in-chief as loyally as we did under Abraham Lincoln for the preservation of the Union.

STANLEY KELLY DROWNED IN BAY

Pilot Apprentice Thrown into Sea as Boat Capsizes

ONE OF CREW OF THE LYNCH

He and Another Had Placed Pilot on Steamer and Had Returned to Pilot Boat, When Wave Upset Small Craft

Stanley Kelly, an apprentice pilot, son of Edward Kelly, of St. James street, was drowned last night about 10.30 o'clock in the waters of the Bay of Fundy, between Miramichi and Musquash. He was one of the crew of the pilot boat David Lynch.

The news was brought to the city by members of the crew who witnessed the fatality. It was the effect that the pilot boat was overturned last evening to take Pilot James Miller down the bay, as he was to be on an ocean liner that was coming up. About 10 o'clock Pilot Miller left the Lynch via small boat, accompanied by Kelly and another apprentice named Miller. They made the trip to the steamer, but Miller abandoned sea and went ashore. They, however, made the trip to the pilot boat success. A line was cast from the Lynch and the boat was made fast. Kelly and Miller stepped from the small boat to the deck of the Lynch, but had no sooner landed when a heavy sea struck the small boat in which Kelly and Miller were. Kelly and Miller were thrown into the sea. Kelly was killed and Miller was seriously injured. Kelly's body was recovered by a fisherman and is being kept in a cold storage.

This is the first mishap that has happened since the sinking of the David Lynch, and the captain, Pilot Thomas Traynor, feels the accident very keenly.

BREACH BETWEEN STATES AND GERMANY WIDENING

Officials See War A Certainty Ere Long

NO "OVERT ACT" YET

California Case Not Believed to Constitute Reason for Declaration of War By Washington But All Believe Cause Will Soon be Given

Washington, Feb. 8.—On the basis of reports received on the destruction of the California and other ships so far, it is said authoritatively that none of the cases constitutes the overtact which will lead to war with Germany. Officials openly express the belief, however, that over it is necessary for us and the Allies to practice a policy of reflection and decision.

It is inadmissible," says the writer, that Germany, in risking a rupture with the United States, had not a plan prepared, just as we had in the case of Louisiana, and which was ignored by the Estelle Powers. It is this plan we must find out and forestall. More than ever it is necessary for us and the Allies to practice a policy of reflection and decision.

Nothing could be more dangerous than to create a state of tension with all neutrals which would "serve as a preface to profitable violence" and that she may be contemplating precipitating herself on neighboring states such as Holland, Denmark and Switzerland, to seize the stocks of provisions to replenish her land.

The Journal des Debats, speaking of the German ultimatum, says: "It is the logical consequence of his preceding notes and declarations. Wilson advances step by step. He has not yet taken the final one. He wishes to give one more solemn warning to Germany before embarking on hostilities. Wilson is warned. If he counted on the possibility of showing the impossibility of his position, he would not have taken the step of sending the ultimatum."

Alfred Capus in the Journal, after the first of his address to Congress on Saturday the president said he would come again before the body to ask authority to take further steps "if American ships and American lives should in fact be sacrificed." It was pointed out that far as is known, no American was lost on the California and no American has been seen since Germany announced her new campaign.

Every effort was made today to clear up the details of the destruction of the liner, while preparations went steadily forward in every branch of the government to make the country ready for whatever the decision may be.

More Details Wanted.
Washington, Feb. 8.—President Wilson read the latest official reports on the sinking of the California before breakfast and decided that nothing definite could be determined until more details were received.

Every year on January 20, and bears the enviable reputation of being among the best of the kind in the world. During last year it bore the splendid record of saving the greatest number of infants, and had the lowest rate of infant mortality of any hospital known. This is largely due to the system of wonderful work done by the well baby clinic.

Through this clinic every infant born in this hospital is kept in touch with the authorities of the department, for one year after its birth, this being considered the most trying year of a child's life. A report is brought into the hospital every two weeks, or answer a summons from the juvenile court.

With the splendid start made in the first three weeks of January, this year promises to outnumber previous records. During this period no less than forty-nine babies were born. Twenty of these were boys. Three pairs of twins were included in the number, one of the three sets being a cunning colored couple.

In the public ward accommodation is found for the thirty-five infants and eighteen in the private ward. No place could be more sunny, sweet, airy and airy than this temporary home of these young hopefuls. Each in a separate cot, with its date bearing the name, date of birth and sex, these babies receive the greatest care and attention. The weight of each is taken regularly each day, which shows the progress they are making. The average increase in weight does not usually exceed one ounce per day, but one recently born infant has gained as much as four ounces.

"These babies are all brought up on a scientific method. Great thought is given to feeding, regular hours, and fresh air, each child being put out for so many hours a day if the weather is not too cold. This regularity is maintained for a period of four days has expired.

Long carriages which hold as many as eighteen babies are used for conveying them to and fro, so that the proud mothers may have a glimpse of their young offspring. Here, too, care is taken to avoid any mistake being made. Each child has a tiny tag attached to his or her wrist with name and date inscribed. This saves time and anxiety on the part of the parent, which was caused in another hospital at a very recent date. Here a tired nurse, worn with the care of such a large family, lined up her little ones to distribute them to their various mothers. As soon as they were quickly despatched she retired to her own quarters with a sigh of content as she thought of the few moments peace that were to be hers. An impatient ring broke the stillness, however, and as she responded to the call a real colored baby exclaimed indignantly: "I say, Miss, don't you know ma own baby?" "Oh!" said the nurse, "you're queering mother; that's your baby all right!" Whereas the exasperated mother replied: "Ma baby, he is a real colored nigger—none of your white trash for me, thanks," as she handed the innocent little offender over to the surprised nurse in charge.

As to the weight, six pounds six ounces is the average weight of babies when born. The heaviest baby on record tipped the scales at ten pounds seven ounces, and the lightest was two pounds two ounces.

The premature ward, which is only the third of its kind in America, is one of the most interesting features of the department. This has at present seven occupants, which is the largest number that has ever been known in this hospital. Here tiny specimens of humanity are coaxed into life, through the untiring efforts of the one nurse in charge, who is absolutely the only person admitted. In a temperature of 85 degrees these small mites are nourished through the body with oil, and fed by means of a medicine dropper. Through the greatest care these infants in from three to four months' time are turned out sound, healthy babies in every way. At the present time the smallest baby born in the hospital, which weighs one pound thirteen and one-quarter ounces, is thriving nicely, and the authorities state, although it is but two days old, that there is every chance of it being kept alive.

Why Look?

Mrs. Jenkins, a regular visitor in the doctor's consulting room, started on the long story of her troubles. The doctor endured it patiently and gave her another bottle. At last she started out, and the doctor was congratulating himself, when she stopped and exclaimed: "Why, doctor, you didn't look to see if my tongue was coated."

"I know it is," wearily replied the medical man. "You don't find grass on a race track."—Epworth Herald.

SCIENCE DOES WONDERS FOR WEE BABIES AT "URNSIDE"

Toronto Hospital Now Rated Among Best in the World—Tiny Mites Coaxed Up to Health and Strength

(Toronto Star)

Does the high cost of babies interfere with the increase in babydom? Any-one looking at statistics for the Burnside Hospital, Toronto, would be amazed to learn that no less than twenty-one hundred infants have been born there since its opening.

This hospital celebrated its third anniversary on January 20, and bears the enviable reputation of being among the best of the kind in the world. During last year it bore the splendid record of saving the greatest number of infants, and had the lowest rate of infant mortality of any hospital known. This is largely due to the system of wonderful work done by the well baby clinic.

Through this clinic every infant born in this hospital is kept in touch with the authorities of the department, for one year after its birth, this being considered the most trying year of a child's life. A report is brought into the hospital every two weeks, or answer a summons from the juvenile court.

With the splendid start made in the first three weeks of January, this year promises to outnumber previous records. During this period no less than forty-nine babies were born. Twenty of these were boys. Three pairs of twins were included in the number, one of the three sets being a cunning colored couple.

In the public ward accommodation is found for the thirty-five infants and eighteen in the private ward. No place could be more sunny, sweet, airy and airy than this temporary home of these young hopefuls. Each in a separate cot, with its date bearing the name, date of birth and sex, these babies receive the greatest care and attention. The weight of each is taken regularly each day, which shows the progress they are making. The average increase in weight does not usually exceed one ounce per day, but one recently born infant has gained as much as four ounces.

"These babies are all brought up on a scientific method. Great thought is given to feeding, regular hours, and fresh air, each child being put out for so many hours a day if the weather is not too cold. This regularity is maintained for a period of four days has expired.

Long carriages which hold as many as eighteen babies are used for conveying them to and fro, so that the proud mothers may have a glimpse of their young offspring. Here, too, care is taken to avoid any mistake being made. Each child has a tiny tag attached to his or her wrist with name and date inscribed. This saves time and anxiety on the part of the parent, which was caused in another hospital at a very recent date. Here a tired nurse, worn with the care of such a large family, lined up her little ones to distribute them to their various mothers. As soon as they were quickly despatched she retired to her own quarters with a sigh of content as she thought of the few moments peace that were to be hers. An impatient ring broke the stillness, however, and as she responded to the call a real colored baby exclaimed indignantly: "I say, Miss, don't you know ma own baby?" "Oh!" said the nurse, "you're queering mother; that's your baby all right!" Whereas the exasperated mother replied: "Ma baby, he is a real colored nigger—none of your white trash for me, thanks," as she handed the innocent little offender over to the surprised nurse in charge.

As to the weight, six pounds six ounces is the average weight of babies when born. The heaviest baby on record tipped the scales at ten pounds seven ounces, and the lightest was two pounds two ounces.

The premature ward, which is only the third of its kind in America, is one of the most interesting features of the department. This has at present seven occupants, which is the largest number that has ever been known in this hospital. Here tiny specimens of humanity are coaxed into life, through the untiring efforts of the one nurse in charge, who is absolutely the only person admitted. In a temperature of 85 degrees these small mites are nourished through the body with oil, and fed by means of a medicine dropper. Through the greatest care these infants in from three to four months' time are turned out sound, healthy babies in every way. At the present time the smallest baby born in the hospital, which weighs one pound thirteen and one-quarter ounces, is thriving nicely, and the authorities state, although it is but two days old, that there is every chance of it being kept alive.

Why Look?

Mrs. Jenkins, a regular visitor in the doctor's consulting room, started on the long story of her troubles. The doctor endured it patiently and gave her another bottle. At last she started out, and the doctor was congratulating himself, when she stopped and exclaimed: "Why, doctor, you didn't look to see if my tongue was coated."

"I know it is," wearily replied the medical man. "You don't find grass on a race track."—Epworth Herald.

Science has added in simplifying the banishing of hairy growth from the face and according to a beauty specialist, the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a delicate paste to the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes. Women to Detect Shoplifters

The war has seen an enormous increase in cases of shoplifting, so the manager of a large West End emporium informed me (writes the London correspondent of the Daily Dispatch). Largely he attributed it to war worry. "There is no increase in the ranks of the ordinary professional shoplifting class," he said. "The people of whom I am speaking come generally from the superior classes, and a short interview with them will usually soon prove that they are innocent of any dishonorable intent, and that they have acted without realising in the least what they are doing. The result has been that we have had to employ many more agents to safeguard our stocks, and for this purpose women have proved invaluable. Our procedure, when we are assured that it is not a case for the police is to suggest a contribution to one of the war funds—a suggestion which is always acted upon with alacrity."

A Sniper's Red Letter Day.

During an advance the South Africans had succeeded in establishing a machine gun post in a spot which commanded a considerable length of straight trench packed with Germans. These refused the challenge to surrender, and continued to fire upon our men. The champion sniper of the South African contingent said:

"This is my job," and got to work. At one time he actually had ten men loading and clearing up for him. Before the fight was over, he had fired nearly 400 rounds and accounted for close upon fifty victims. His ejaculation at the close of the little affair, which cost the enemy five upon our men. The champion sniper of the South African contingent said:

DISLIKE FOR FOOD

Every healthy man and woman should have a desire for food at meal times. This means that the digestion is in working order and that the blood is in good condition. But if you feel a dislike for food—if the sight and smell of wholesome food repels you—then you may be sure that nature is telling you that all is not well. If after a night's rest you have no appetite for breakfast, your digestion requires attention. If your food is distasteful, or if you feel that it is a trouble to eat, your stomach is rebelling. You do not digest properly the food you are taking and are therefore not hungry.

All these symptoms of a disordered digestion mean that the blood is not absorbing proper nourishment from the food, for the work of the blood is to collect proper nourishment from food and impart it to the system. The stomach refuses to take food from which the blood cannot absorb, and this causes the lack of appetite. If you force yourself to eat, the undigested food becomes a clog to the system. Nature is warning you. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills alone give the blood the richness and purity that it requires to perform its natural function. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most delicate and safe of medicines—why they will cure any trouble due to poor blood.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 80 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Admission of 2,000,000 Total Loss Significant

HARD TO FILL THE GAPS

Possibility of Great New Enemy Offensive Restricted—Food Shortage Also an Element of Worry to the Teutonic Powers

(Toronto Star.)

The National Zeitung, a German paper, estimates that Germany still has more than eight million men available for fighting purposes and that her manpower will be sufficient for years to come. Our hope of overthrowing German militarism this year depends mainly upon Germany suffering from a shortage of man power, so it is worth while analyzing as best we can, the figures provided by the National Zeitung.

This paper figures that Germany began the war with nine million men of military age, and that since then a million and a half have become of age, making a total available during the war up to the present of ten and a half millions. Of these the National Zeitung estimates two millions have been lost. It is a mistake to think that the Zeitung means that the German casualties are only two millions, for officially Germany admits casualties exceeding four millions, which is probably considerably under the mark.

The Zeitung evidently meant that the loss in killed, died of wounds, or hopelessly incapacitated, in other words, the dead has reached two millions. This is the first time so high a figure has been admitted by enemy sources of information. Of that number, we can assume that a million and a quarter were killed or died of wounds, which tallies with the most carefully prepared estimates made on the side of the allies. The number of fatalities would indicate total casualties four times larger, or at least five million men killed, wounded and captured.

This leaves only five and a half million who have not figured in the casualty lists out of the total of ten and a half millions. Germany has lost a half million men on the western front and a million and a half on other fronts, a total of four millions in the fighting lines, and probably a million and a half on the lines of communication and in garrison at home, a total of five and a half millions actually on duty under arms. Admitting that some men have been two and three times in the casualty lists, and that a large percentage of the wounded go back to the front, it still remains true that Germany is in a sad plight, and will find it no easy task to fill the enormous gaps to be made in the course of her fighting men by the tremendous offensives the allies will launch this year.

Lack of Nourishment Food.

The allied casualties at the Somme total in the neighborhood of 750,000, and Germany is not likely to secure much success by striking at any point this year without suffering losses exceeding half a million. That fact alone seems to restrict the possibilities of new German offensives, and as Germany must be prepared to meet losses exceeding a million resulting from French and British attacks this spring and summer in the western areas, it is clear that she cannot commit herself to any great effort in other areas without taking terrible chances.

Alfred P. Rees, a young Welshman, signed on yesterday with the 21st Battalion. His father, William Rees, went overseas with the Canadian Mounted Rifles. He has been officially reported missing. It was not until the word had been received that his father was missing that the young man decided to answer the call.

Yesterday the recruiting sergeant of this unit met a super-bombardier named Charles McLaughlin, a well-known north end boy. He was under four feet in height and was rejected as being too short. He was physically fit in every other way.

Hundreds of Wounded

News has been received in the city to the effect that no less than 800 wounded men per week will be landed in St. John, many of them for temporary treatment. The base hospital in the armory will be ready very shortly for the occupation of patients.

To End The War This Summer

John Hodge, minister of labor, addressing a meeting in London last evening, said that he was giving away no secret when he said at a recent conference of the Entente representatives the determination had been reached to terminate the war by the end of the summer. "We are not alarmed at the sharpened submarine war. We knew it was coming and prepared for it. Time will tell how our confidence is justified."

Women's Luminous Collars.
The luminous collar is the latest device to lessen the dangers of the darkened streets in London. So far the scope of this invention is confined to women's wear. Every woman who has to walk abroad after dark may, if she chooses, appear as a perambulating purple danger signal to other people to get out of her way.

The usual white muslin collar worn over the collar of a blouse or coat has a border or patch, according to taste, which looks like a pattern or design. In reality this border or patch is muslin which has been treated with a luminous substance, and in the darkness it gives forth a glow which can be seen for some distance.

It is only necessary to expose the collar to daylight for half an hour; it will then glow in the dark with a beautiful purple color.

Every day is PURITY-FLOUR-DAY with cooks who are satisfied with nothing less than the flakiest pastry and finest bread.

PROVINCIAL

BANK'S YEAR WAS A RECORD

Great satisfaction was expressed by the shareholders at the seventeenth annual meeting of the Provincial Bank of Canada held at the head offices at noon today and presided over by the president, the Hon. J. M. Robinson, vice-president and managing director, Mr. J. M. Robinson acting as secretary.

The attendance included: Hon. Sir Alex. Lacoste, G. M. Bosworth, Hon. A. Racine, Martial Chevalier, H. Laporte, J. G. Beauchemin, F. McFarley (successor O'Brien), H. G. Lajoie, Archibald Stevenson, J. Rudolph, E. Hebert, L. W. Leduc (successor J. Leduc), J. R. Laurendeau, Alph. Ammond, A. E. Frouhousse, T. Frenchie, Benoit and others.

As fully detailed on another page and already outlined briefly in a report in the Herald a few days ago, the bank's year has been the best in its history.

In 1916, the bank's assets amounted to nine millions today, they exceed eighteen million dollars, while its obligations to the public, deposit, etc., reach the sum of sixteen million six hundred thousand dollars, being an increase of more than four million dollars over last year.

The net profit of administration is of considerable advantage and deserves the public confidence shown by the continued and notable increase in deposits made with the bank.

Like all other banks in Canada during the last year, your bank has been called upon to purchase Dominion Treasury Bonds in connection with the Imperial Munitions Loan, and its subscriptions amount in all to the sum of $2,440,000.

THE KAISERHUND: "I didn't bite him! The obstinate creature would persist in running up against my teeth!"

AMERICA WOULD HELP TO FINISH EUROPE'S MAD DOG

T. P. O'Connor, in a Parable, Describes the Ultimate Effect of Washington's Action—"Settle Ireland" His Advice

(New York Times.) London, Feb. 6.—T. P. O'Connor, writing in The Chronicle today on the present war situation, says: "A mad dog rushes into the streets early in the morning when few people are about. Most of the citizens are still in bed. For horrible moments it bays at the windows, it bays here, there everywhere. It catches the early post-boy in arms until the whole town is at last aroused and, pell-mell, everybody rushes after the mad dog until at last its brains are dashed out by truncheon or rifle and the unclean and wicked thing lies on the ground with the poisonous foam still oozing from its dead and impotent lips. "This is a parable. It sums up and symbolizes to my imagination the story of Germany in this war. For years, as Lloyd George puts it in one of his great passages, she plotted to murder Europe in her sleep. Meanwhile she prepared herself for the devil's work by poisoning her mind and the mind of all her people with the devil's gospel that might is right; that war was not merely the means but the end; that the human conscience, free will and the mercy of the biggest battalions of the machine gun, and when the appropriate time was supposed to have come she burst on sleeping and unarmed Europe, fawning at the mouth with the fury of madness. "At first the mad dog was able to bite and to infect everybody and everywhere until at last the whole world woke up to the universal peril, and today the whole world or almost the whole world, is in full pursuit of the noxious beast and its end is near at hand. "Effect of America's Action. "America has come in to give the coup de grace, for it is quite certain America's intervention is the coup de grace. I do not say this because of the active military and naval contribution which America may add to the forces of the Allies. How much or indeed whether she will contribute that element may be left in doubt for some days yet, but who can measure the moral influence which the hostility of America will exercise on the fortunes of the struggle. To the Allies it brings a new ground for the certainty they have never lost, of having the superiority of force and of morale which is casting them the final and crushing victory. "To other neutral countries the example of the greatest of neutrals must bring a new realization of the common peril of Germany to all civilized and free lands. "I have never lost hope that before this war was over we might see every free nation in the world joining in the hunt of the mad dog, and today the effects of the declared enmity of America on other countries I look with confidence to its effect on the German people themselves. Be it remembered that there is not even a small village in Germany which is without relatives and correspondents in some part of the United States. Association between Germany and America is accordingly intimate and continuous, practically daily, through letter and newspaper and relatives. After all, with all their insane self-conceit, Germans are intelligent and educated people, and assuredly it must have some effect on their belief in either the justice of their cause or the chances of their arms to find that the greatest neutral countries, in spite of the millions of their blood among the citizens, has come out decisively against them. "Worth Several Battles. "I look to this declaration of America as being to the Allies of as much worth as the winning of several big battles. Next to the pressure of famine, it is the most demoralizing factor yet brought against the staying power of Germany in this year's fighting. Another speculation I find is on the part which America can play in the conferences that must follow the war. With obstinate optimism Germany may look to the entrance of America into that conference as likely to win an advantage to Germany. It is palpably the most delicate of hopes. "What can there be in common be-

Two British Admirals Forecast Atlantic Patrol by Americans—Beresford Praises Navy

(New York Times.) London, Feb. 4.—"If America comes into this war she will cut down its duration by months," said Admiral Lord Charles Beresford in reply to a question today as to what he thought the American navy might do in the event that the United States became embroiled with Germany. Lord Charles described the American fleet as "strong and serviceable and manned by experts who know how to fight." He hesitated to express any view as to what part America's fleet could actually play, as he said it would be an error for a Britisher to attempt to say how America ought to use it. But he knew America and its navy well enough, he said, to assert with all assurance that the American navy would be of tremendous aid in bringing the war to a quick end. "America has a splendid navy," said the admiral. "In its proportion as to units it is better than any other afloat. It may be just a trifle short of destroyers, but it has many other smaller craft with which it would be able to fight submarines. America has ample submarines for the defense of its own coast. Naturally she will require many of them if the Germans are able to get their boats over there and start at the American coasts. But I don't believe Germany is going to find it so easy to get her submarines over for Great Britain is going to be on the watch for them as she has always been, and American gunboats will be on the watch all across the Atlantic. "One huge aid America could give Great Britain would be in conveying ships across the Atlantic. This would undoubtedly be done. As to Germany's ever succeeding in sinking merchant ships so fast as to cut off the British

If hard work is sapping your strength—reinforce with BOVRIL

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arsen from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. "The important thing for the British now is to arm the merchant ships, and when that is done with guns, forts, and sundrills the submarines will not have the easy marks they have had up to now. If all British merchant ships were armed in that way Great Britain could take care of the submarines on the highways of the sea. We have got on pretty well as it is, but it would be absolutely necessary to have all the liners equipped bow-stern and quarter, to combat the sort of warfare Germany threatens. "As for America's part, she would be of infinite aid in enabling Great Britain to arm its ships until we were able to get around to all of them, for America is thoroughly equipped with factories to build the sort of warfare Germany threatens. "Not alone would America be of tremendous help to Great Britain. All may be summed up by saying that America's entry into the war would mean physical and financial support at a critical time that will enable the Allies to make a quick end of the whole affair. We are going to win anyhow, but with America the day of victory would be vastly advanced. "Germany knows her doom is at hand and she would never make such crazy threats to embroil America. She wants America in at the peace conference thinking that America, being so far away, will not be so keenly concerned over the adjustment of details, and that Germany will be able to manoeuvre a

SYNOD APPROVES BISHOP'S STAND

"Time to Call Out Whole Available Man-Power"

URGE THRIFT AND SACRIFICE

Report of Committee on the Charge—Delegates Guests at Reception Last Evening

A brilliant reception last evening to Bishop and Mrs. Richardson in the Trinity church rooms was the culminating event of the second day of Diocesan Synod of Fredericton. The reception, which was attended by several hundred people was given under the auspices of the Young Women's Guild.

The afternoon session of the synod, which closed at 5:40, was largely devoted to receiving and discussing the reports of the various committees. A question as to whether the synod should not pay the travelling expenses of the clergy from the contingency fund was strongly advocated by a few, and discussed toward the latter part of the session. A final action was postponed until today. It has been the custom for the clergy to pool their expenses and then apportion the expense on an equalization basis. It was felt by some that the expense of making trips to the synod and convocation meetings had prevented some of the clergy in the smaller towns from attending.

W. P. Dunham read a report of the general board of M.S.C.C. early in the afternoon and this caused some comment, but was finally passed in its entirety.

Financial Report.

The report of the board of finance, which was also passed as submitted included the following features:

At their first meeting the board appointed W. M. Jarvis, deputy chairman, and Dr. J. R. Campbell, secretary, for the ensuing year.

The Synod building on the North Market Wharf was rented to J. Hunter White for one year from May 1 last, at a rate of $800.

The executive committee authorized the board to dispose of the Robert Hood Cantery, should the board consider it advisable to do so; negotiations have been had with two persons but no sale as yet been effected.

Educational Report.

Following the reading of the report of the Board of Education a hearty vote of appreciation for the work of Mr. Hibbard, head master of the Robbsey Collegiate School was recorded.

In the consideration of the report of the work for the year of the board of education, it was felt that the book store in Progress street should be more widely advertised and kept before the people. H. A. Goff, secretary of the board, was commended for the splendid work he is doing in directing the work of the board.

Reports of the committee on statistics, on the preservation of church records, on church buildings, on the burial of deceased members were naturally short, and were passed with little or no comment. When it came to the consideration of the report of the committee on the upkeep of the cathedral, it was felt that the time has now come for the synod to take towards an endowment fund.

Dean Neale read the report of the standing committee Bishop Richardson's charge, which was delivered at Tuesday's session. The report was taken up section by section and each section passed without alteration with the exception of the one dealing with the section as it stood might be interpreted as the men should not enlist, while it was meant to convey that the clergy should not go to fields outside of Canada, even in the face of a large financial gain because they were sorely needed in the diocese, which was at present suffering from a lack of clergymen, and poor prospects for the future.

GOVERNMENT NOMINEES IN WESTMORLAND REFUSE TO RUN

Moncton, N. B., Feb. 7.—The proceedings at the government convention for Westmorland county here today are not likely to give much encouragement to Hon. J. A. Murray and his supporters in this election. The convention for the county was held in a store, not a very large one at that, in Main street, and after a prolonged and heated debate, Antoine J. Legere, of Moncton, consented to allow himself to be nominated as a candidate. A. E. Trites, of Salisbury, accepted the nomination provisionally. P. G. Mahoney, the defeated minister of public works in the by-election last spring, and Colonel F. B. Black, M. P. F., refused to allow themselves to be nominated.

The government convention for Moncton county was held here this evening, when Dr. O. B. Fries was nominated. It will be remembered that Dr. Fries was nominated for the house of commons for Westmorland county and the fact that the party was compelled to nominate him again for the local house is taken to mean that no other man could be found who was willing to face the great odds on Feb. 24. The opposition forces, it is generally conceded, are stronger in Westmorland county and in Moncton city today than ever, and they declare that their vote will sweep the county.

Hampton, N. B., Feb. 7.—The old government ticket, Hon. J. A. Murray, Geo. Jones and Hedley V. Dickson, was chosen at the government convention here yesterday morning. These men are present representatives of the county and will run against the opposition ticket, composed of Dr. Pearson, E. S. Carter and Fred Sharpe. There has been a good deal of dissatisfaction in Kings county caused by the methods of the present government, and the feeling is that the respectable vote of the county will line up strongly for the opposition on Feb. 24.

Reston, N. B., Feb. 7.—The Conservative convention here today nominated George A. Hutchinson, barrister, Richard Hon. Dr. D. V. Landry, of Bouchette, and Frank O. Richard, councillor of St. Ignace, as the government ticket for Kent county in this election.

Hon. Arthur Cullinan and D. A. Stewart were selected as the representatives for the government party at the convention for Restigouche county, held in Campbellton last evening.

There were also other innovations in keeping with the time of war. The imperial escort consisted of officers of the Overseas Fighting forces. For the first time in the history of parliament the importation of the foreign press was recognized by the allotment of seats in the press gallery to correspondents from allied countries. The weather was clear and crisp, and as the royal procession passed from Buckingham Palace the house of parliament dense crowds lined the streets.

ENTIRE NATION ENLISTED

London, Feb. 7.—Britain gave her answer yesterday to Germany's levies en masse and Germany's super-irrigation on the seas. On the eve of the opening of parliament, in a period certain to be memorable in the history of Britain, the great scheme of national service was launched. At a meeting addressed by Arthur Neville Chamberlain, the director-general, and Premier Lloyd George, the entire nation of forty million people was voluntarily placed on the roll of honor for government work.

On farms and docks, in mills and explosive factories, in one or another dozen different occupations absolutely essential to the continuation and winning of the war, Britain's population was tentatively enrolled. Under this revolutionary scheme, there are to be no slackers. It is to come to an appreciation of the seriousness of the war, and every resource of the country is to be drawn upon to prosecute it to a victorious end.

Doctors and clergymen are to be organized and distributed for labor, as if mobilized for the army. Even Ireland is included in the scheme, under a modified arrangement. Civilization is to be organized to meet organized barbarism. In the words of the director-general, the triumvirate—Lloyd George, Lord Milner and Curzon—will have the power of Hindenburg, though tempered to suit the requirements of democracy. It is revolutionary in character, but the prediction is made that the people will rally to its support with the vim that was displayed at the first call to arms.

London, Feb. 7.—King George in opening parliament today said that the response of the Allies to the invitation of the president of the United States outlined their aims as far as could be done at present. The king added: "Treaties of further outrages upon public order

EXPENSE RATIO AND INTEREST RATE

The ratio of expense to total income has again fallen while the rate of interest earned has risen, both facts being favorable to the payment of liberal dividends.

HIGH QUALITY OF THE BUSINESS

During the year there has been a remarkable decrease in the number of policies lapsed and surrendered, showing the increased value placed upon life insurance, and the conspicuous persistency of our business.

NET INCREASE IN BUSINESS

The increase in business in force after allowing for all terminations was 55% of the new business written—a notable record—bringing the business now in force up to nearly $110,000,000.

THE SURPLUS EARNED

It is a subject for congratulation that in spite of the extra death losses due to the war the surplus earnings were so satisfactory that we are able to continue the payment of dividends to policyholders on the generous scale they have enjoyed heretofore.

A glance at the following statement will show how rapid yet substantial has been the growth of the Company's business.

The Toll of The Submarines

Washington, Feb. 7.—The steady stream of reports telling of the destruction of merchant ships by German submarines was brought to a climax tonight by a cablegram to the state department from Consul Frost, at Queenstown, announcing that the British passenger liner California had been torpedoed without warning, and that an American citizen was among the survivors.

The liner carried 31 passengers and a crew of 184, one of whom, as far as is known, was an American. Advances to the local officers said there were 160 survivors; those to the state department from Consul Frost, at Queenstown, that one life was lost and that there were "30 hospital cases."

London, Feb. 7.—The British steamers St. Ninian and Corsican Prince were sunk today, says the Central News. The survivors have been landed. Seventeen men are reported missing.

The Central News also says it has learned that the Belgian relief ship Lars Kruse, which was sunk near the Belgian coast on Monday, was torpedoed.

The sinking of the Italian steamer Ferruccio, of 2,192 tons gross, is announced by Lloyd's.

Lloyd's also announce the following reported sunk:

- British steamer Vestra, of 1,021 tons gross.
- British bark Lorton, of 1,419 tons gross.
- Two British steam trawlers.
- Two fishing boats.

Two lives were lost from the British steamer Wartenfels, of 4,511 tons, reported sunk yesterday.

The British steamer Saxon-Briton, 1,337 tons, has been sunk by a submarine. Two members of its crew were killed. The captain and fourteen others have been landed.

Lloyd's announces that the British steamer Azul, 3,074 tons, has probably been sunk and that twelve survivors were rescued by a sailing vessel.

CURED HIS RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. "Trusses" did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no loss of time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Fuller, Carpenter, 540 C Marcellus Avenue, Manassas (N. J.). Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

Senseless Squandering.
In a well known West End grill room at lunch time on Dec. 15, (says the London Times) hundreds of men and women took a meal which must have cost them on the average not less than five shillings each. The bill of fare gave them a choice of half a dozen hors d'oeuvres, eight soups, a dozen fish dishes about twenty joints and entrees, and at least twenty sweets. Including poultry, vegetables, and miscellaneous dishes, there were over a hundred items from which to select a midday meal; and to the full use of this profusion of food must be added in many cases the ostentatious consumption of wine and cigars. The same scene might have been witnessed in scores of places of public eating, not only at midday but also at dinner time, and again, in some places, at supper time. Although the country is at war, there are still numbers of people who are willing to pay 2s. and 3s. apiece for prawns, 8s. 6d. a dozen for oysters, 5s. for a lobster salad, 6s. for a jug of "orangeade," 1s. 6d. for a pear, and 7s. 6d. for a small bundle of asparagus.

ELEGANCE

Like the highest priced cars on the market, Studebaker retains its beautifully distinctive lines, without faddish or freakish change. Simplicity and dignified elements have been perfected in the Studebaker body owing to the constant refining and perfecting of good basic lines.

The lines are long, clean and sweeping. There is not a single thing to interfere with the smooth continuous flow of the Studebaker body, from the tip of the radiator to the rear of tonneau.

One of the first things you will notice when you come in to see the Series 18 Studebaker is its rare elegance of finish. And the strikingly original gun-metal gray finish of the Studebaker will always look rich and new. Twenty-five separate paint and varnish operations insure its permanency.

Savage Attack by Hall Caine

Scathing Denunciation of German Principles

Uriah Heep of Nations

Trying to Force Gates of Heaven With Skeleton Keys Forged in Hell—Taking Extreme Uncien at the Hands of Satan

London, Feb. 7.—"Such a combination of cant and criminality as is contained in the German note to the neutral nations and the German chancellor's exposition of it is not to be found elsewhere in printed words.

"Germany is the Uriah Heep of nations, but she has out-heeped herself. To talk about attaining peace by methods of murder is like trying to force the gates of Heaven with skeleton keys that have been forged in hell."

These were the phrases in which Hall Caine described the German threat to America in a speech delivered to an audience of American business men in London at their weekly club luncheon at the Savoy today. Hall Caine said Englishmen had not been surprised by the latest German threat except by its barefaced barbarity.

The United States also knew it was coming, he said, and its imminence was the true cause of President Wilson's latest note and speaking country, compelled to make a last desperate effort for its life.

The note was a revelation of the state of Germany, showing her a starving, bankrupt, and expiring country, compelled to make a last desperate effort for its life.

Final Kick at Mankind.

"Germany," Mr. Caine said, "is in extremities, and is taking extreme unclean at the hands of Satan, preparatory to her final kick at mankind."

Continuing, he declared that the Allied nations had never cherished any illusions about German humanity and therefore nothing in the note put a new aspect on the war, so far as it concerned the Allies. Germany had already sunk hospital ships laden with wounded in broad daylight and, without a particle of excuse, she had sunk ships at night again and again, at the very moments when she was promising America it should never be done.

What would America understand by the note, asked Hall Caine, and answered the question by citing comments of the American press published here today. "America understands that by the iron will of Germany she is to be shut up absolutely within the limits of the American continent; her commerce is to be stopped so far as concerns the principal countries of the old world; her ships are to be laid up in her own harbors; she is to be isolated—except by the grace of Germany in granting one dog bone of a weekly steamer—from the personal intercourse with the people of Europe. If she ventures to claim the freedom of the sea she is to know that she runs the risk of murder by the cowardly methods of a sea-borg which fights without danger of being fought in return, she is to shut up her open door, live within her own house and never dare to step outside of it."

What America Will Do.

While it was not for Englishmen to say what America ought to do in the face of such a demand, "made with all the unclean of a Chaldean, united to the devilish criminality of a Jack Caine," Hall Caine ventured the prediction that America will tell this impudent brag that America is not merely a geographical expression, that wherever an American subject is there is America and that strength and power and the will of the American government intends to follow him and protect him, his liberty and his property against all assaults of public highwaymen and of public assassins, whether on land or on sea."

In conclusion, Hall Caine said: "Heaven forbid that the very least of us on this side of the ocean should say a word that would influence America to enter the war, but we may talk about the relation of nations after the war. In that league to enforce peace, which formed the liege of President Wilson's speech, where is Germany to be after this last note? It is idle to ask if she can take such a lead in it as she so presumptuously asked for. Can she, batted in innocent blood, drenched in it of her own deliberate choice, be allowed even to cross the threshold of any temple of peace in which civilized men sit together, she the general enemy of mankind running amuck on the high seas to kill innocent and guilty alike? What place is there for her in future assemblies of nations working for human welfare. By this last note Germany is guilty of mortal sin against humanity, and when time comes for the formation of nations to protect the peace of the world we must retain her, we must deny her right of representation, we must cut her off from the family of nations as a criminal and outlaw, whose name is no longer known in company of Christian men."

ENEMY WAS FORCED TO EVACUATE GRANDCOURT

$500.00 Paid by The Great Eastern Sales Co.

For a License to Sell BOOTS AND SHOES In Your City

A scrap of paper displayed in our window today as attracting much attention. It means that we were compelled to pay $500.00 for the privilege of giving St. John people real bargains

If I had known that such a sum would be demanded by special by-law, passed after my first advertising appeared in this paper, I would never have opened in this city.

Thousands of people, eager to save money at this period when economy is so essential to the welfare of our country, and astounded at the remarkably low prices I ask for footwear of such high quality, came early yesterday and were disappointed by finding the door closed. It looked as though all chance to buy away below present high shoe prices was killed—killed by a by-law passed so quickly that the first knowledge of it came to us through the evening papers.

But The Great Eastern Sales Co. advertised to sell shoes in St. John, and $500.00 with an additional $20.00 for each salesman, was not enough to stop us. As soon as possible the license was procured and the doors thrown open.

So the sale goes on.

A Wise Selection

It is highly improbable that any physician could be found who would deny there is a great big legitimate field wherein a good liniment proves a welcome and powerful ally. When need arises, therefore, it is only a question of wise selection on the part of the purchaser. If he obtains a liniment that can be used internally for coughs, colds, sore throat, cramps, chills, etc., and externally for sprains, strains, muscular rheumatism, various aches, pains, and almost any soreness, he is twice fortified against many of the common ailments that all flesh is heir to. For over 100 years Johnson's Anodyne Liniment has proved to be just such a double valuer.

This prescription of Dr. Abner Johnson's, an erstwhile old family physician, has attained its enviable record of more than a century of success purely on its wonderful merit. As a tribute to its remarkable healing, soothing and penetrating qualities thousands of grateful users speak of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as "an angel in disguise."

ATTITUDE OF NEUTRALS

Madrid, Feb. 7.—The Spanish government's reply to Germany's submarine war zone note is a firm and dignified protest against it. It declares that Germany's decision to close completely certain sea routes is outside the legal principles of international life. It adds that if Germany hopes to have Spain's help to avoid more loss of life, it must be understood that Spain, while ready at the proper time to lend the initiative in support of the establishment of peace, cannot accept the legality of exceptional methods of war.

Stockholm, Feb. 7, via London.—Sweden has decided to unite in a joint protest to Germany over the latter's submarine blockade.

Stockholm, Feb. 7, via London.—Sweden will not accept President Wilson's invitation to sever diplomatic relations with Germany. The Swedish government, however, will protest against the newly inaugurated German naval policy.

DISMISSED ACTIONS AGAINST NEWSPAPERS

Montreal, Feb. 7.—Mr. Justice Lafontaine has dismissed seven actions brought by Mrs. Stanley Cullen for $10,000 each for alleged libel against the Toronto Mail and Empire, Halifax Herald, St. John Standard, Telegraph and Globe, the Montreal Times and the Sydney Post. The basis of the actions was a new paragraph sent to the newspapers mentioned by their Montreal correspondent, on February 25, 1912.

CURLING. Truro Holds McLellan Cup. Truro, Feb. 7.—In the curling contest for the McLellan cup tonight, the Truro curlers defeated Newcastle (N. B.) by a score of 48 to 23. This makes the fifth successive victory for Truro.

St. Andrew's Just Trim Frederickton. Probably the best curling match seen here this season was played last night between Frederickton and St. Andrew's, when the latter club won out by just two points. On two sheets of ice the contestants tied, 18 to 18, and it was a coincidence that each one of St. Andrew's rinks had a score of 18. A large crowd was in the club to witness the contest and the spectators were fully rewarded.

Hampton. Carleton curlers defeated the visiting team from Hampton last night by seven points. This game, which was played in the West Side club, had many interesting features. While the game, taking each sheet separately, was not closely contested, the fact that the margins were large kept the contest interesting until the finish. Many enthusiasts attended. One rink curled in the afternoon and three at night. There were not players enough among the visitors to make four rinks, so there had to be some doubling up.

BOWLING. Tigers Take Three. The Tigers took three points in last night's City League bowling match with the Nationals. The scoring was high and the game as a whole was evenly and interestingly contested. The details follow:

THE CALL TO SERVICE. (Fredericton Mail.) The people want men possessed of a proper sense of appreciation of their duty to the public, men who will work together in complete harmony for the public good, and who will strive honestly and constantly to promote the interests of this noble country. Great questions are likely to come before the people of this province during the next few years, questions which affect the welfare of every man, woman and child, and it is important that they shall be grappled with by earnest, intelligent and patriotic men, who are prepared to make sacrifices for the public good. The honor of the country demands that the men who have brought disgrace on New Brunswick should be driven from public life.

CONCERNING BRIBERY. (Moncton Transcript.) The St. John Standard trots out the yarn that the opposition is going to have a big boodle fund and the money is being all obtained from Ottawa. It is the same lie which it trotted out a long time ago respecting Carleton, when its party deliberately debauched the constituency. It says that Dr. E. A. Smith was elected by money at the provincial by-election in this county. It is a falsehood. Money was used to help the government candidate. Even members of the local house descended to supplanting the election in one of the parishes. In another parish men were employed wholesale by a company in which leading Conservatives were interested.

BASEBALL. Red Sox Singing. Boston, Feb. 6.—Charlie Wagner has signed a contract to assist in piloting the Boston Red Sox over the championship course another year. This is pleasing to Pres. Frazee, who is rejoicing, too, in the receipt of another signed contract. "Trudging his way through the snow yesterday to the American League headquarters in the Dexter building, he found the document upon opening his mail. 'Please keep this secret,' the note said, which accompanied the signed contract. 'This document is from one I consider a star player.' Pres. Frazee said, 'I am convinced that the talk of war with Germany has caused the players to figure it that it is about time to get in line for the easy money in sight.' Harold Janvin, looking the picture of health and contentment, also weathered the storm yesterday to have a half-hour chat with Pres. Frazee and practically came to terms, but as usual refused to put his autograph to a contract at this time.

Strike May Blow Over. New York, Feb. 6.—The war cloud has brought about a decided lull in the impending baseball strike situation. "This is a time," said President Tamm of the National League, today, "when we are all concerned with greater things than baseball." President David L. Falis of the Players' Fraternity, repeated what he said on Saturday night—that the strike would be shelved in the event of a national crisis. Fultz continues to be busy denying reports of players signing their contracts, and he announced that Max Flack of the Cubs, who has signed his contract, as had been reported.

Darcy May Meet Smith. New York, Feb. 5.—E. T. O'Sullivan, manager of Leo Darcy, who is at present in Chicago with a burlesque show, announced tonight that he was in receipt of a telegram from Tom Andrews, a Milwaukee promoter, in which the latter offered Darcy a guarantee of $10,000 with the privilege of accepting 35 per cent. of the gross receipts for a season with Smith in Milwaukee some time in March. O'Sullivan said that he wired acceptance of the terms of the offer, provided that suitable arrangements could be reached for the date. The date would have to suit Darcy's convenience for he has practically agreed to box at Madison Square Garden in the latter part of next month, after his bout with Al McCoy on March 5.

OAK HALL - SCOVIL BROS., LIMITED ST. JOHN, N. B.

Look at the Question From All Sides.

When you purchase an outfit, or even one piece of furniture, which you naturally expect to use for several years, there are many things to consider besides the price. Quality of material and finish, strength of construction and style of design are very important, and to obtain these you have to rely, to a considerable extent, upon the dealer from whom you buy.

Every article we show in our store is purchased with these considerations in view, and we never offer an article simply because it is cheap.

We have many lines just as moderate in price as can be found anywhere, but in all cases have satisfied ourselves that each one is the best value obtainable.

If you think it over, we feel sure that you will agree that it will pay to see our stock first when you require furniture.
