STORE HAS FORMAL OPENING TOMORROW

J. M. Roche & Co., Ltd. In- troduce New Features in King Street Business

Tomorrow will see the formal opening of the "Premium Store" of J. M. Roche and Company, Ltd., 94-96 King street, which will carry an extensive stock of fancy groceries of established brands and make provision for the serving of afternoon tea and light lunches to shoppers as well as a business men's lunch, the latter between 11 and 2 o'clock. The proprietor, J. M. Roche, was formerly in the photographic business here but has been a resident of the United States for the last 10 years.

The premises, formerly occupied by J. M. Roche and Company, Ltd., photographic supplies, etc., have been thoroughly cleaned and renovated and present a bright and attractive appearance. The lower floor will be devoted to groceries. In the rear is a large glass-enclosed room which will be used as a rest room for ladies. Dainty Japanese furniture has been purchased for this section of the store and its use is expected to make this a comfortable and attractive place for ladies to meet or enjoy a few moments rest while shopping.

THE SECOND FLOOR

There, as in the rest of the room, the furniture is dainty and comfortable and the view of King street, afforded by the large windows, is excellent. Mrs. James Deane has been engaged to attend to the comfort of customers of the tea room and a staff of experienced waitresses will assist her.

On the same floor is a "counter" lunch. This is a novel feature in local restaurant enterprises and is said to have proved successful in other centres. No chairs or stools are provided but the counter is high enough and of such construction as to make for ease and comfort. Here business men may lunch from 11 to 2 o'clock. In the afternoon, this section will be screened off from the tea room.

BANQUET ROOM

The third floor is being made into a large banquet room. The hall will seat 75 people. It is the intention of the management to rent this part of the building for private dances, club meetings and other such suitable purposes.

Charles Ross, formerly of McPherson Bros., will be in charge of the lower floor. James Deane, formerly foreman with Robinson's bakery here, will attend to the preparation of the cuisine.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF SAINT JOHN

PRINCE OF WALES' PICTURES MONDAY

Official Film of Tour at Opera House—Thousands of Dusky Maidens

Dusky maidens by thousands appear in the Official British Admiralty Film of the Tour of the Prince of Wales, which comes to the Opera House, commencing next Monday. And the mock modesty that has given way in some degree in civilized countries may be said to be non-existent in such a place as Carolina in the Transvaal, where the Prince held a reception. One correspondent described the parade of these aboriginal girls as "The Age of Innocence." He says the brown, buxom native girls of Pietermaritzburg were the most demure of all, the only conspicuous parts of their costumes being the whistles which they wore about their necks.

With the native warriors they made up a group of 4,000 who danced before the Prince and gave him welcome in a long whistling cheer that is the native salute.

SUMMER CLOSING HOURS AT OAK HALL

Plan Adopted at Meeting of Department Heads With Management on Wed- nesday Morning

Scovil Bros., Ltd., Oak Hall, will, during June, be open Friday nights till 10, also Saturday afternoon and evenings, but each employ will have a full day off each week during June. In July and August Oak Hall will be open Fridays until 10 p. m. and closed at 10 on Saturdays.

This plan, adopted after careful investigation and thoughtful discussion at Wednesday's meeting of the department heads with the management of Oak Hall, was considered the best method of serving the public under existing conditions and, at the same time, giving the staff every opportunity for recreation.

As most people having families remain in town until school closing and as many are unable to shop until evening, it is felt that the buying public will appreciate the course taken by the Oak Hall people, who while mindful of the shoppers' needs and interests feel that their employes should have all possible recreation and so are giving each member of the staff a full day off each week during June.

All clerks, stenographers and workers who enjoy Saturday Half Holiday will back up the movement by doing their shopping on other days of week and not on Saturday afternoon or evening. Our store will be open on Friday evening throughout the summer and closed Saturday afternoon.—F. W. Daniel & Co. Ltd.

UNITY FAVORED

Committee Formed to Convey "Sense of Meeting" to the Liberal Leader

LLOYD GEORGE JUSTIFIED

Mr. Lloyd George has justified his attitude in refusing to participate in party council when the general strike was in progress.

NO DEFEAT FOR OXFORD

While it is generally conceded that the wartime premier came out on top at the meeting, there is a virtual consensus of opinion on the part of the political correspondents of the morning newspapers, that the gathering neither was nor will be claimed as a defeat for the Earl of Oxford.

MEMBERS TALK

Notwithstanding the pledge of secrecy taken by the participants in the meeting, some of the lobby correspondents seem to have learned, or at any rate profess to have learned, a good deal of what happened.

EGYPT.

The London despatch discussing Egyptian affairs stresses Italy's bid for Mediterranean domination as the controlling factor in deciding Britain's firm attitude. Somehow it seems to have been generally forgotten that Egypt is an independent kingdom and only the defence of the country remains under British control, nevertheless British counsels exercise a supreme influence in Egypt.

Italy has never shown marked success in dealing with colored races and although she might possibly desire to command Egypt, it is a foregone conclusion that her rule there would be a failure. If any power can have just cause for controlling world communications, Great Britain can claim that in the case of the Suez Canal, which in fact, if not in theory, is bound up with Egypt. The Canal is the highway between England and most of her eastern, tropical and antipodean possessions.

The Suez Canal is in form an Egyptian company, but of its 49,000 shares 176,000 are owned by the British Government. It is by convention guaranteed exempt from blockade, and vessels of all nations can claim unmolested passage in peace or war, but governments are suspicious of scraps of paper after the events of 1914.

Then there is the Sudan. That is under direct British protection and it is certain that the warlike Sudanese would not submit to the Egyptians or the Italians. But the outlet from the Sudan is down the Nile and this in itself makes it imperative that Great Britain preserve her influence in Egypt.

These two considerations—explain with other less momentous—explain the necessity for Britain retaining control of Egyptian development.

TAXES AND INDUSTRIES.

The following extract from Babson's report in connection with taxation is of interest to Saint John where the present high valuations and tax rate are certainly no inducements for industry to locate here:

"The burden of taxes has become so heavy—both relatively and absolutely—that it must be carefully weighed by those looking for a business location and even by many investors choosing a legal residence.

"In former days of big profits and widespread speculation, a locality could impose excessive taxes without actually driving people away. But during the next few years rival localities may cut taxes as an inducement, just as manufacturers and cities which continue to assess exorbitant taxes are likely to suffer. The point is that taxation has gained a new importance because of the reduction in other costs. We believe that localities now have a real opportunity to attract both industries and residents by offering them a sane and rational taxation policy.

"From an ethical and economic standpoint it is perfectly sound to move wherever tax rates are more favorable. Something must be done to bring the states and cities to their senses, and it may be that the only force that will do this is competition.

Economic, yes perhaps, but unless ethics be taken as meaning no more than ordinary honor and conduct hedged by dollars and cents, the higher qualities of patriotism, local or extended, the final paragraph is debatable. It would justify the Canadian exodus for example.

Moreover, it is easy to criticize without offering constructive suggestions. Nevertheless the subject is one which might engage the attention of all municipalities and bas already, as we know, been considered by His Worship Mayor White. But budgets must be balanced.

"JAY WALKERS" AND THE LAW.

Vancouver is going to make it an offence against the law to cross a street in any part of the city except at intersections. If we had such a by-law in Saint John and it were really enforced it would be necessary to appoint three or four more magistrates to deal with the offenders, as about fifty per cent. of our people cross streets, at least on some occasions, at other points than at the intersections.

Everybody possessed of common sense knows that it is more dangerous to cross a street in the middle of a block than to use the crossing provided, but to make it a crime will not help matters.

This is just one more example of the silly, unenforceable by-laws which well-intentioned but ill-advised city fathers seem to have a penchant for inflicting on a long suffering public.

Saint John has suffered the loss of yet another of her eminent sons, Dr. John Allingham, who died here last night. All residents of the city and many from near and distant parts will extend heartfelt sympathy to the widow and other relatives of the deceased, who was of high repute as a surgeon and great popularity as a citizen.

Just Fun

THERE was a funeral the other day out in Hot Dog, Ariz., and while the minister was reading the service, two shots were fired in the street outside.

The undertaker tiptoed forth. In a minute or so he was back again with a smile on his face.

"I secured both funerals," he whispered to the chief mourner.

THERE is room at the top, but much of it is taken by relatives of the wife of the boss.

HE SAID:

I hereby give notice that my wife has left. My heart has been broken! My saddest bereft. I'll pay no bills that she may contract. It's a shame and disgrace, the way she did act.

SHE SAID:

Please excuse my husband, he made a mistake. He left his wife and child and many a heartache. In the two years we've been married he bought me a dress. That cost 99 cents and some stockings. His poor heart is broken, he's sadly bereft. Don't treat him at all; if you do you'll get left.

NO, a chiropractor can't treat you for backbone trouble if you haven't got the backbone.

PILLARS OF BRITISH STABILITY

(Ottawa Citizen.)

The British way is to tear nothing down that is worth preserving in the social structure. The nation has endured through storm and stress, largely because of the soundness of British educational institutions, where inspiration has been drawn from the volume of the sacred law, which says: "For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little and there a little." One such institution, University College of Durham, is housed in Durham castle, one of the most venerable of England's castles of history. A former student of Durham writes to the Citizen to help interpret Canadian public opinion in the repair work which is at present being carried on, on the foundations of the old castle. He encloses a copy of a letter from one native of Durham county, who, living overseas, has contributed a gift of $2,500 towards the castle fund. Durham castle dates back to the time of the Norman conquest. Walthof, Earl of Northumbria, built the original castle about the year 1067. The castle stands, not only a link with memories of kings and queens, but also, as the letter writer says, "a living and educational industry as the house of University college." Like many other gems in England's domain, Durham is situated in one of the great industrial districts, in the heart of the coal-mining north country. Although the county has felt the industrial depression severely, Durham folk have given over $15,000 to the castle's need, in order, as the Lord Bishop of Durham said, "that its splendor may be made safe for the possession of future generations." "Don't let the castle, interested himself in the appeal. He is lord lieutenant of the county. The name of Durham is one of some importance in Canadian history, without desiring money to be diverted from causes and charities, they may be readers of the Citizen who would like to help the castle fund. They would surely be contributing towards the Durham "Donation" of the historic pillars of British stability.

WANTS EDUCATION ON SPORTS BASIS

By DR. HENRY S. PRITCHETT

President of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, in a Recent Speech.

THE European, if he were frank, could justly charge that a heavy mental and physical burden is placed on the intellectual operations of our American secondary education and could point out how widely it differs from the wholesome atmosphere that surrounds our school sports and games.

If school sports were rated according to special ability, if the boy who jumps the bar at two feet were given the same medal as the finished athlete, the significance and exhilaration that now attach to these exercises would rapidly erode away.

School sports and games are perhaps the most genuinely educative features that our schools possess; they are honest, competitive and thoroughly objective.

The foremost need of American education is the frank establishment at the top of each considerable school system, of a school of division that shall embody, for those capable of profiting by it, the best we know in the process of education for this period of life.

Although we deplore the second and third rate intellectual performance that passes all about us for adequate attention, we have as yet failed to provide the conditions that will make anything else possible.

The eligible for this higher high school would be selected by careful examination to determine fitness to profit by the special benefits.

POEMS I LOVE

"Song," by Christina Rossetti.

THE heartbreak in Christina Rossetti's poetry has always made a strong appeal to me. After Mrs. Browning, I think she is the greatest of the women poets.

She read beneath the surface of life, and her songs gushed from her, the natural outpouring of a supremely sensitive spirit. The regret and sorrow in her poems are manifestly not morbidly; but even if they were I would not object to that; for any interpretation of life as it is, or as it seems to certain natures, is of the highest importance.

These sixteen lines keep coming back to me with more frequency as the years rush on. Their poignancy, their undeniable beauty, their truth and generally put them among the imperishable works of art.

When I am dead, my dearest,
Sing no sad songs for me;
Plant no roses at my head,
Nor shady cypress-trees;
Be the green grass above me
With showers and dewdrops wet;
And if thou wilt, remember,
And if thou wilt, forget.

I shall not see the shadows,
I shall not feel the rain;
I shall not hear the nightingale
Sing on, as if in pain;
And dreaming through the twilight
That doth not rise nor set,
Happily I may remember,
And happily may forget.

ACROSS CANADA AND BACK.

"Marvellous beyond conception" aptly describes the glories of Canada's Rockies. To be fully appreciated they must be seen. To start out on a trip by one's self into this unfamiliar but fascinating paradise—on horseback to many appears quite a task. Realizing this, Dean Sinclair Laird, of Macdonald College, an experienced Rocky Mountain traveler, for the third year in succession, has undertaken to conduct a special train of dining, standard sleeping, and observation compartment cars has been chartered, to leave Toronto on July 19 via the Canadian Pacific. Stops will be made at Port Arthur and Port William, which together form Canada's greatest ferry port; Winnipeg Beach, the popular summer resort for Winnipeggers; Winnipeg, Canada's third largest city; and Regina, the chief tree distributing centre of the Federal Forestry Branch; Regina, the capital of Saskatchewan; Banff, the world-famous mountain resort, by automobile for 104 miles over the Banff-Windermere Highway, the most spectacular drive in Canada; through Kootenay Lake to Nelson, the commercial centre of Southern British Columbia; then through the Doukbor country to Penticton; along lovely Okanagan Lake, and to Vancouver, the largest city on the Pacific coast. Returning the trip will be by the main line of the Canadian Pacific, through the great canyons of the Fraser and Thompson Rivers, and through the Selkirk and Rockies, affording scenery such as can be found nowhere else on earth; Lake Louise, the Pearl of the Rockies, the most perfect gem of scenery in the world; another day at Banff, Edmonton, the capital of Alberta; Saskatchewan, Saginaw, the city of optimism; Devils Gap Camp, on the Lake of the Woods, been known, hence to Fort William, here one of the fine Canadian Pacific steamers will be used across Lakes Superior and Huron to Port McNicoll, a rail to Toronto, where the trip will terminate.

Everything is included in the price of $89.00, from Toronto; transportation, sleeping cars, accommodations in hotels, and breakfast camps, meals, and sight-seeing tours at points visited.

The trip is open to all, and applications for accommodation are now being received.

Fares from other points than Toronto will be named and descriptive illustrated booklet sent on application to Dean Sinclair Laird, Macdonald College Post Office, Quebec.

WHO'S WHO

ANNOUNCEMENT of the engagement of the Princess Elizabeth of Greece to Prince Nicholas of Roumania recalls once more the turbulent history of the royal family of Greece.

Princess Elizabeth, who is 22 and considered very beautiful, is the second daughter of Prince Nicholas of Greece, a brother of the late King Constantine and the Grand Duchess Helene of Russia.

This alliance will create another bond between Greece and Roumania. King George, exiled ruler of Greece, married Elizabeth, a daughter of the monarchs of Roumania.

Princess Elizabeth's uncle Constantine's stormy career began in 1913, when he ascended to the Greek throne, succeeding his father, George I, who was assassinated. Previous to this Constantine had been dismissed as head of the Greek army in 1909 while crown prince because of a popular clamor against him. However, he redeemed himself in 1912 and became a national hero when he led a Greek army to victory over the Turks and captured Salonica. The common people called him "Liberator."

During the World War he was forced to abdicate in favor of his son, Alexander, because of his repeated dismissals of cabinets and the belief that either he or his ministers had allowed the dual alliance to establish a submarine base in Greek waters.

Three years later, in 1920, while Constantine was living in exile in Switzerland, his son died from a monkey bite. Constantine returned to Athens amid popular acclaim and agitation to restore him to the throne began. Anti-royalists hinted that those who flocked to the millions of Prince Christopher's bride, the former Mrs. William B. Lewis, widow of the U. S. "tin plate king."

THE only recognized Liberal party in this country is dead.

PLAY SAFE.

WHEN yer feelin' kinda groggy, and yer pep begins to droop, an' the path ya tread is soggy, an' ya just don't give a hoop, you had better pay attention to yer system! Beem here, you will pardon if I mention that there's somethin' outta gear.

It ain't natural for a fella to go sluffin' through the day, and it ain't because he's yella, 'cause most men 'er not that way. If, in anything yer doin', it is tough to go along. Watch yer step. There's sompthin' brewin' an' that sompthin's hazy—well, yer firkin' with disease. Maybe yer overwork has done it. Too much toll and little play. When a fella's once begun, comes the time when he must get outta here.

After all, the road to travel is the one of go-between. Mix your work with play—unravelled brains—might grow over-keen. Under-doing, over-doing, always at yer own expense. Breakdown is the thing that brewin'. Why not use good common sense?

No one mind a person with a mind that minds its own business.

A wife can usually tell a husband where he is going to say he has been—and it isn't because she knows where he was.

"I'll trim up last year's hat," said mom, "and be that much ahead."

And she who she changed her mind, and Dad was trimmed instead.

The man who doesn't know where he is going, but is on his way, is the fella who is just learning to drive a machine.

We don't need to worry, any more, about that famous riddle: "Why does a chicken cross the street because, in these days of autos, it doesn't."

The only way the summer is short in connection with skirts and hosiery.

NEW INDUSTRY HERE TO EMPLOY OVER 200 HANDS

Canning Plant at Coldbrook Affords Market for N. B. Berries

WILL BE WORKING EARLY NEXT MONTH

Western Packing Corporation, Ltd. Picks Saint John As Good Place

A staple market is now assured the berry growers of the province with the establishment of a canning plant at Saint John by the Western Packing Corporation, Ltd. Work is now going ahead getting the large building at Coldbrook, formerly used by the Ford Company, ready to handle the berries as soon as they start to come in, and it is expected that operations will be underway by the first week in July.

These kettles are steam jacketed and each batch is cooked for 15 minutes. After the jam is cooked in the kettles it is drawn off into large water-cooled tanks, and from there it is put into the cans or glasses. The plant will have a capacity of 1,000 quarts of berries an hour. It was said that the only difference between the factory and home-made method of making jam is the length of boiling. The only ingredients used are pure fruit and sugar.

The present steam boiler already installed in the building will be used, and steam connections are now being shown. A concrete drain, which will be covered with a grating, is being placed down the centre of the building, so that the premises can be kept scrupulously clean. The plant will be under the supervision of a department of the federal government and will be periodically inspected.

EMPLOY OVER 200. It is expected that employment will be given to more than 200 girls and women and about one hundred men. The girls will be used principally to hull berries, and every convenience for their health and well-being will be made. One large room will be fitted up as a canteen for the employees. Registrations will soon be made for those wishing to work at the plant.

Speaking of the project, Harry Beach, western manager for the corporation, said: "What we want now is the support of the farmers by their sending some of their fruit in to us. The berry growers of the province should deal directly with us and so save a commission. Our firm is prepared to make contracts with the growers for a period of two or three years. We want it understood, however, that we want the best berries and we must have good fruit."

THIS IS SIXTH PLANT. The Western Packing Corporation, Ltd., was formed this spring, and took in the following plants in British Columbia: National Cannery, Ltd., Vancouver; Beach-Knox, Ltd., Victoria; Pacific Berry Growers, Ltd., Hancy; Okanagan Packers, Ltd.,

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With When you wash your hair, be careful at you use. Do not use preparatory ampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsid will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rises easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. Your hair dries quickly and evenly, and leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, and easy to manage. You can get Mulsid coconut oil shampoo at any drug store, and a few cents will last every one in the family months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsid. Beware of imitations. Kilowat; Kamloops Cannery, Ltd., Kamloops. New buildings have been added to some of these plants, and the company is said to have the most up-to-date canning factories in Canada. The company has factories in all the fruit-producing districts of British Columbia, and has well-established markets throughout Canada for its products. It also enjoys a big export business to England in canned vegetables and fruits.

It was decided to establish a plant here, Mr. Beach said, owing to the fact that Saint John had excellent facilities for export business, and also for the purpose of shipping goods to Ontario, where the firm does a big business. The freight rate from British Columbia to Ontario is $1.26, while from here it is 28 cents. The company, he pointed out, would thus save a considerable amount in freight by shipping from here to that market.

The company not only will make jam at the local plant, but also will can berries and, on a smaller scale, corn, beans and tomatoes, but not to any great extent this year. If this branch proved successful, however, the company would go in strong for it next year, Mr. Beach said.

This is the sixth plant Mr. Beach has installed since coming to this country 17 years ago. He has been 24 years in the business, however, and is a member of the family of F. W. Beach & Sons, well-known jam manufacturers of London and Worcestershire, England. He was born in the business, his grandfather having started this firm in 1856. The business was carried on by his father and now is conducted by four of his brothers.

DEATH CLAIMS CITY SURGEON; SHORT TIME ILL

Dr. John H. Allingham Passes Away at G. P. Hospital

GAINED HIGH PLACE IN HIS PROFESSION

Dies on Thursday Night—Senior Surgeon on Hospital Staff

AFTER a critical illness of only a few days duration Dr. John Allingham, B.A., M.D., C.M., F.A.C.S., aged 39, died at 9:17 o'clock last evening at the General Public Hospital, and his untimely death as he was entering upon a career of exceptional brilliance, is regarded as a little short of a calamity for the city and a grave loss to the medical profession.

One of his close associates in the profession said last night that never in his experience of medicine in Saint John had the phrase "irreparable loss" been more applicable than it was in connection with the death of Dr. Allingham. Although one of the younger men in his profession he had already made a name for himself as a surgeon and as a doctor and was regarded as one of those who was to take foremost rank in the days to come. He was looked up to by his associates and held in affectionate regard by all who knew him. To his patients he was ever the cheerful and encouraging physician whose personality brought reliance and comfort.

With self-sacrificing devotion the doctors tended him and watched over him in his short fatal illness and many friends waited anxiously for news of his progress. No greater tribute could have been paid him than the general concern and interest in the gravity of his condition was realized and the whole community anxiously held its breath watching.

BORN IN FAIRVILLE. Dr. Allingham was born in Fairville on July 4, 1886, a son of Harry Peter Allingham. He was educated at the Saint John High School and the University of New Brunswick from which he received the degree of B.A. His medical training he received at McGill University. He first practised his profession in Westfield for about two years he removed to Fairville where he was located for about five years, before he entered upon his city practice some six years ago.

One of his most outstanding achievements as a surgeon was in connection with the operations which he performed in the Saint John County Hospital. He was consulting surgeon for the County Hospital and was the first in the Maritime Provinces to do chest surgery in thoracoscopic and bronchoscopic operations, cutting a nerve to paralyze the diaphragm. He performed these difficult operations with great success. He had taken post-graduate studies in surgery in London and in Paris about four years ago, accompanying Dr. G. A. B. Addy on that occasion.

HONORED BY U. S. BODY. Dr. Allingham had been secretary and later president of the New Brunswick Medical Society and when the Saint John Medical Society was active he was one of its leading members. He was honored in being made a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and was a member of the Canadian Medical Association. He was prominent in the standing committee of the General Public Hospital when that institution first enrolled as a standard hospital.

He was also visiting medical man for the Home for incurables. In his age he was holding an exceptionally high place in his profession. He was recognized as a careful observer, a correct diagnostician and one of the best surgeons. His kindness and good fellowship won for him a host of friends. He was

HAD ECZEMA ALL OVER BODY

Mrs. Bruce Weaver, Coboonk, Ontario is rejoicing over her complete recovery from a severe case of skin disease from which she suffered for 10 years. Through sympathy for other sufferers she has issued a statement telling how, after four doctors and numerous medicines failed to help her, she finally tried the Ovelmo combination treatment and found the blessing she sought. "I was in bed," she says, "tortured day and night with the eczema which had spread all over my body. Ovelmo-brought about my complete recovery. I cannot praise it too highly." Mrs. Weaver is but one of over 35,000 former sufferers who have issued similar statements of results obtained from this remarkable treatment, which can now be obtained at any good drug store. It stops itching and soothes burning and soreness at once and causes rapid healing of the lesions. The eruption fades and vanishes leaving the skin soft, clear and smooth. Ovelmo also improves digestion and purifies the blood and druggists sell the complete treatment with a guarantee of prompt results or money back. It is wonderful for eczema, itch, leprosy, salt rheum and kindred skin diseases and is particularly recommended for severe, stubborn cases of long standing.

Why Being an Old Maid is No Longer the Joke It Used to Be—The Young Couple Who Fear Marriage Because Their Parents Were Divorced—Shall He Quit College to Marry Miss Eighteen?

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—What would you do if you were kidded continually about being an old maid and always having some one call you a maniac when you are not one at all? I have a good job, what need is there for me to rush into matrimony in order that I may not be an old maid?
C. M. R.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER: My dear girl, the sting in the old-maid gibe died the day the first woman got a good job in a business office.

Before there was any stigma of reproach in the term "old maid" because every woman married who possibly could, and for one to remain single showed that she was utterly lacking in all charm and that no man would have her at any price.

In those days a woman was obliged to marry whether she wanted to or not, because a husband was her one and only meal ticket and her sole admission card into any sort of social life. No occupations, except the most menial ones, were open to her.

Therefore, unless she was one of the lucky few who inherited money she had either to marry or to eat the bitter bread of dependence. Furthermore, she was rich or poor, as long as she remained unmarried she was supposed to be an artless child, incapable of taking care of herself and in need of a chaperon. She was cut off from all freedom of action and most of the pleasures and gaieties of life. Therefore a husband was a necessity. Modern conditions and the emancipation of woman have changed all that.

Nowadays a husband is a luxury instead of a necessity. And a girl gets married because she wants to, not because she is compelled to. The term "old maid" is no more a stigma to a woman than is "old bachelor" to a man. It is merely descriptive, and shows that that particular woman, for reasons of her own, has not seen fit to marry.

For any one to attempt to tease you about being an old maid merely shows how mid-Victorian they are and how little they have kept up with the times. So don't let the laughter of fools annoy you. And remember this, that their teasing is founded on envy.

Many a woman who spends her life trying to please a grouchy, sullen husband or to get money out of a stingy one who has to stand the abuse of a full-tempered one envies with all her heart the girl who is single, who has a good job and her own latchkey, and who can come and go as she pleases and spend her own money on herself.

Don't mind being called an old maid. If the term means anything, it means that you wouldn't marry just to be a-marrying.

And don't let anybody kid you into marrying to escape being an old maid. Remember that it is better to be laughed at for not being married than not to be able to laugh because you are married.
DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—A young man and I are in love with each other. Curiously enough, both his parents and mine were divorced when we were very young and we were both thrown on our own resources when we were mere children, so that we have seen and learned a great deal more than other young people of our age. He has spoken of marriage to me, but frankly says that he is not ready to settle down for a while. He also says that he is afraid of life and is trying to beat it, and he feels that our parents' experience is a warning to us, but I don't see it that way. What can I do to make him look at things from a different angle?
TULSA.

ANSWER: If by "beating life" the young man means attempting to escape the responsibilities and the sorrows of life, he is trying the impossible. It can't be done. Every man's fate is written on his forehead, say the Arabs, and none escape.

I don't wonder that the children of divorced parents get a warped view of matrimony and see it only as a place of strife and bickering, and that they have small faith in a love that is able to endure the strain that domestic life puts upon it.

But because one's father and mother failed to make a success of marriage is no more reason for not trying it than it would be not to go into the grocery business because one's parents had failed in that.

Each marriage stands on its own feet. It is an individual matter, and is a success or a failure as that particular man and woman make of it.

Our fathers and mothers are just as often a warning to us as an example, and the children who have escaped from the ruins of a wrecked home should at least have gained the wisdom that would teach them how to build the foundations of their own houses so solidly that they would stand.

Certainly the boy who has had a philanthropic father or a drunken one or a no-account one and has seen the sorrow and trouble it brought on his mother and how it broke her heart and ruined their home life, may well feel that he will guard better the happiness of a woman who intrusts her happiness in his hands.

Certainly the woman who has seen how her mother's nagging and temper and whining and fretting and slovenly housekeeping drove her husband from her may set herself, with even more than ordinary purpose, to keep her husband by being amiable and sweet and pleasant to him.

So there is no reason why the young man should be afraid to marry just because your parents and his made a failure of their marriages. Divorces are not an hereditary affliction. But don't try to urge him into marrying until he is ready for it. No man should marry until he wants to settle down and be a freer companion.
DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a junior in college, 21 years old, and engaged to a girl who is 18 years old. We are unhappy parted and are thinking of being married. Do you think I would be justified in quitting school this summer and going to work so that we could be married?
DEE D.

ANSWER: You are both very young to marry, and I think that you would have a far better chance of happiness if you would wait and finish your course, as you have started to go through college. Marriage isn't for a day, you know. You have to take a long look ahead at the future and plan for that, and the better you fit yourself to fight the battle of life the better chance you have of winning out and being able to take care of your wife as you want to.

Marriage is like any other undertaking. The more solid a foundation it has under it, the better chance it has of prospering, and if you wait to marry until you are ready to marry you will be far more likely to be happy than you will if you rush in now without any way to support a family.

And if your love and the girl's love is not strong enough to stand a little temporary separation, how is it going to endure the long strain of marriage? How is it going to stand the wear and tear of poverty and struggle and self-denial?

My advice to you is to wait.

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Frocks for the smallest child are so simple in style and so easy to make, that the mother who sews at all should have no difficulty in reproducing any of them.

The gay little model above is a smart example of the simplicity displayed in these diminutive garments.

White voile is the material used, while the stitching that adds such an air of gaiety to the frock is carried out in deep pink and deep blue.

The cross-stitching at the front outlines a smart effect, as seen in modish frocks for grown-ups.

BEHIND THE SCENES

WHILE her friends are wondering whether or not she soon will retire from the screen, Connie Talmadge is going ahead with her work in "The Duchess of Buffalo" and not saying much about the future. "I've said her husband, Captain Alastair Macintosh, is anxious to have her give up the films, but after their wedding a few months ago sets had been designed and an expensive scenarist had written the story and Joseph M. Schenk, her brother-in-law who held her contract, insisted that she go through with the production.

Connie has worked hard for a long time now and she may decide, along with her sister, Norma, to retire while she is still in the favor of her public. Connie got her first part in D. W. Griffith's "Intolerance." Since then she has achieved a name for herself as a comedian. Connie has always stuck to the light, frothy stuff, content to leave the smoldering to Norma.

Some of Connie's most outstanding pictures have been: "Up the Road with Sallie," "A Pad of Silk Stockings," "Sauce for the Goose," "The Virtuous Vamp," "Her Sister From Paris," "The Story of the Folies" and "East Is West."

Tom Moore has been engaged to play opposite Corinne Griffith in "Ashes," the temporary title of her next picture. This is Tom's first appearance in a First National picture.

Lon Chaney is nursing a pair of blistered hands gained in handling a heavy rifle under the tutelage of an army sergeant. Chaney, for his role in "Tell It to the Marines," had to learn in a week what the average recruit takes a month to learn—full military drill. Both Chaney and William Haines had to learn the drill so that they could be photographed in the regular marine ranks.

ALTHOUGH attics and cellars may still be held in Greenwich Village for sums varying from $75 to $250 a month, it remained for one of the traditionally indigent hordes of artists and poets to show his fellows the way out. Recently a model of the slender-necked Normandy home was dedicated to "the village" by such notables as Otto Kahn, Mabel Normand and the Princess Troubetzkoy.

"The dream house" it has been well named, for it was the realization of a struggling artist's dream and perhaps the beginning of a picturesque little section of Normandy dwellings with rental well within the limits of even a poet's means.

AND this is the romantic story: About seven years ago a usual-decided "something should be done about it." But when they began to inquire prices of property their hopes fell. However, one of them came upon several Bedford street shacks. The most valuable family possession was his mother's engagement ring which was promptly "hooked" and the first payment made.

But how to secure materials for a building? A great deal of learning down the street, and the artists took to "scavenging," that is, buying up all sorts of odds and ends from wreckage, and the first payment made.

OTTO H. KAHN, philanthropist and banker, happened to be going about the village when he noticed these unusual "model cities" for the laboring classes and the "white collar" workers have been parties to housing schemes, but artists, writers and thinkers have had no patron, and their studios have been largely the result of what they individually could make them.

"Twin Peaks" was built. Bricks for the walls were provided variously from the ruins of Madison Square Gardens, the Brovost Mansions, a West End apartment and an East Side slum.

For the fireplace 90,000 bricks were selected from the wreckage of these same buildings.

This New York acquires, at last, the first unit of a colony built by artists for artists.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

A TOTEM-POLE CONVERSATION
"Thank you!" said the Whiffet. "We'd better be going."
And as they left, the Twins and the little rag-bag boy heard the answer stepping down, saying at each step, "You're welcome!"
"Three leagues and a goose step!" said Nick. "What's a goose step?"
"I'll show you," said a big brown and black goose. "Follow me."
So they followed the goose and came at last to the saw mill. Then he turned to the right and they followed him some more.
"Three leagues," he said stopping. "Here we are."
The Carpenter had been out riding on his saw-horse. But when he saw that company had come, he got off and tipped his hat.
"Did Mister Snoopy come here?" asked Nick. "And if so, has he gone? And if he's gone, when, and where to?"
"Oly goodness. You sound like a school-board," said the Carpenter. "I suppose he always thinks 'boards,'" whispered Nancy, "being a carpenter."
"But," went on the Carpenter. "I'll answer everything. Yes, Mister Snoopy was here and I made him a new leg. He just left for the South Pole."
"Poles, too?" whispered Nancy. "That's what being a carpenter does to one. Turns him into a wooden head." "I want my shadow!" whispered the Whiffet. "Is the South Pole far?"

Keeping Your Schoolgirl Complexion

By FRANCINE, Noted Beauty Adviser

Never Let Make-up Remain on your skin over night

Do this if powder or rouge ever touches your face—note then the great difference that comes

COUNTLESS women make the great mistake of permitting make-up to remain on their faces over night.

Poor complexions thus often come. Yet, used rightly, powders, rouge and make-up will not injure.

The rule below is one, according to authorities, every woman who ever touches make-up to her face should follow. Authorities urge it. Most women of the stage (great users of cosmetics) employ it. All one needs to follow it is a 10c cake of Palmolive.

Remember this way: Powders, rouge and all cosmetics have a tendency to clog the pores... often to enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. Never let make-up stay on over pose only; to safeguard your complexion, 60 years of soap study stand behind it. Millions of pretty skins prove its gentle safety beyond all doubt.

And it costs but 10c the cake—10c little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain Palmolive today. Note what an amazing difference one week makes. The Palmolive Company of Canada, Limited, Toronto. 3174c

Australians Decide to Re-adjust Surplus Revenue Act, Says Treasurer

MELBOURNE, June 4.—(Canadian Press via Reuters)—Hon. E. C. G. Page, treasurer of the Commonwealth government, announced yesterday that the government had decided to readjust its financial arrangement with the states regarding the surplus revenue act to provide that per capita payments already made, can be repeated in lieu of which the commonwealth authorities propose to abandon a number of taxes. The land tax, entertainment tax, probate duties and the forty per cent. income tax, which are estimated to total an annual amount of $7,000,000 (approximately $34,930,000), would be abandoned under the readjustment, Mr. Page said.

The treasurer further announced that the commonwealth government was ready to establish a fund of £2,000,000 out of which assistance would be rendered to any of the states embarrassed under the stipulations of the new arrangements.

FARMERS BUSY NOW IN WESTMORLAND

F. Robidoux of Shediac, in City Today, Speaks of Conditions

The backward season, further delayed by wet weather last week, prevented farm work in Westmorland county, but operations were begun this week, according to former Mayor F. J. Robidoux, of Shediac, ex-M. P. who was in the city today attending a meeting of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, of which he is a member.

Mr. Robidoux said that the land in several sections of Shediac parish and southern Kent was still wet. The main highways, however, were in good condition, and many motor cars were seen daily on the roads of both Westmorland and Kent counties.

Mr. Robidoux said that there was still some snow in the thick woods and that when a trip to Buctouche this week he observed along the banks of the Buctouche river remnants of some of last winter's terrific storms. It is rarely that snow is seen along the rivers in the month of June, perhaps only once in 40 years.

Mr. Robidoux said that the people of Shediac had great faith in that town and its nearby places as a tourist centre, and already there had been visitors from long distances.

Regarding the potato trade, of which Shediac is one of the large centres of the province, Mr. Robidoux said that the market had recovered in part from its recent slump and that $4 a barrel was now being paid producers by some Shediac shippers.

JEREMY TAYLOR'S SERIES OF SERMONS

F. Doig, D. M. Manks and C. J. Moore Own Old Ones

Since the beginning of the publication of announcements regarding old books, a dozen or more owners of volumes of other centuries have been heard from. One of these publications, printed in 1729, is entitled "A New Treatise on Construction and Union of the Sectors." It is the property of Henry Fales of Saint John. This volume on mathematics was printed in London for John Wilcox at the Green Dragon, in Little Britain, and Thomas Heath of the Hercules & Globe taverns in the Strand. Illustrated drawings in the publication were by Samuel Gunn, teacher of mathematics.

The book is bound in leather and is of large, readable type. Mr. Fales' grandfather, Amos Fales, owned the book, and then his father, Frank Fales, came into possession of it. From Mr. Fales it came to the son, the present owner.

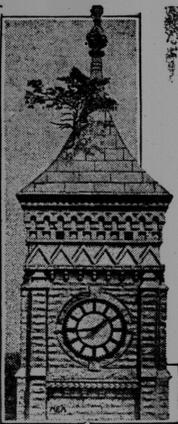

HAS SEVERAL

W. Hamilton Underhill of Saint John, a collector of rare volumes, has in his possession half a dozen books or more published in the eighteenth century. One of them is entitled "The Works of Plato," abridged, with an account of "His life, philosophy, morals and politics, together with a translation of his choicest dialogues translated from the French." The book was in the fourth edition and was printed in London in 1740. The volume is bound in leather and is in a good state of preservation. The printing is clear.

Mr. Underhill has a very interesting book of the 19th century, "The Clock-maker, or the Sayings and Doings of Sam Slick." This volume was published in Halifax by Joseph Howe in 1836 and is of the original first edition. There is another "first edition" of "The Clock-maker" published in London, but a comparison of the author's notes in each shows that the volume in Mr. Underhill's possession is the older.

The Halifax publication was one of the collection of J. D. Underhill, father of Mr. Underhill. He was a Saint John merchant and was credited in his time with having the finest private library in the city. His signature is on the flyleaf of the book.

The publisher of Judge Halliburton's book, Hon. Joseph Howe, was the renowned Nova Scotia statesman.

JEREMY TAYLOR

One seen by a Times-Star reporter yesterday is a fine example of the printer's art of the early days of the use of type. It is the prized property of Fred Doig, himself a printer, and he enthuses over the style of workmanship in the volume.

It is described in the title page as "A course of sermons for all the Sundays in the year, fitted to the great necessity and for supplying the wants of preachers in many parts of the nation. With a supplement of 11 sermons preached since His Majesty's restoration. Wherunto is adjoined a discourse of the divine institution, necessity, sacredness and separation of the office ministerial, with rules and advices to the clergy."

It is further described as "By Jeremy Taylor, chaplain in ordinary to King Charles I. and late Bishop of Down and Connor." It is the fifth edition enlarged, printed in London in 1678. The title page is in black and red and there is a remarkable full page picture, a wood cut that rivals the work of the camera. The book is a large one of some 250 pages.

HAS TWO OLD ONES

Two old volumes are in the possession of D. M. Manks of 10 Spruce street, this city. One is Camden's Britannica, a publication well known to collectors and college librarians, published in 1685 at London or Oxford. The other book is an Oxford Bible, printed in 1770.

Camden's Britannica was first published in Latin in the sixteenth century. Mr. Manks when at the Harvard University library several years ago saw two of these Latin editions, which were printed about 100 years before the publication of the English volume he possesses. His book is 12 inches in width, 17 1/2 inches long and 3 1/2 inches thick. It contains a history of the British Isles, including the Channel Islands, and has maps of the English, Welsh, Scottish and Irish counties, the Isle of Man and Channel Islands.

The other book which Mr. Manks has contains besides the scriptures, the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England, and the version of the Psalter as read in the church. The book contains in hand writing the family tree of one James Batten and his wife, Elizabeth, dated 1765. Another entry shows that one John Gover joined the naval cutter Cyclops in 1818.

OWNED BY C. J. MOORE

A book published in London in 1677 by John Sturmius and containing excerpts from the orations of Cicero, with commentaries by H. Stephani and D. Lambini, is owned by Charles J. Moore of 84 Princess street, this city. The volume was brought to Saint John about 30 years ago by Mr. Moore's father, the late George J. Moore, regimental quartermaster sergeant in Her Majesty's forces, who obtained it in Dublin. The book is a small one, printed in the Latin language and is in a good state of preservation.

MAY BUY LUMBER IN PACKAGES SOON

New Yorker Says it Will be Handled Much The Same as Soda Crackers

NEW YORK, June 4.—In some sections, particularly in New York city, people may be buying lumber in about the same way they purchase soda crackers—sealed, stamped and with quantity and quality guaranteed. The startling thing about this change in method of handling lumber at retail in New York is the need for it. Congestion of street traffic, advancing costs of materials and construction, higher price of labor, scant quantity and short quality tactics that have crept into parts of the building business, and last, but by no means least, the growing traffic in stolen building materials, all have a part in creating the demand for more progressive ways, says A. E. Beals of the Dow service.

SOLDIER'S WIDOW RECEIVES PENSION AND $1,000 ARREARS

Mrs. Violet Copp, of Fredericton, Will Get Monthly Check in Future

CASE IS ADJUSTED THROUGH G. W. V. A.

Husband Died From Tuberculosis as Result of Being Gassed in War

FREDERICTON, June 3—Another claim for a pension for a widow and little family has been adjusted by the Pension Board, and the widow, Mrs. Violet Copp, and two little children of this city have received a back pension of over $1,000, and will receive a monthly pension cheque from now on.

Major J. S. Scott, president of the Provincial Command of the G. W. V. A., has had this case before the board for some time past, and recently received word that his efforts in Mrs. Copp's behalf had met with success. Mrs. Copp, who was an after-war bride, is the widow of Thomas A. Copp, of Newcastle, who went overseas with the 12th North Shore Battalion. He was badly gassed, and tuberculosis developed. For some time before his death he was a patient at East Saint John Hospital, without any pension, and his wife came here with her two little children and went to work in the Canadian Cottons Ltd. mill at Marysville, thus supporting herself and children and helping to maintain her husband after he left hospital. Since his death she has continued to work in the mill and boarded in the city. She is now keeping house, her mother looking after the children while she is at work.

The New KLIM

WHOLE MILK

Full Cream

How Science turns Pure Fresh Milk into KLIM

NATURE makes her own pure, fresh milk—but she cannot keep it fresh. Science has taught us how to turn fresh natural milk into The New KLIM—and how to make KLIM that STAYS fresh, no matter what the weather conditions may be.

Selected dairy herds provide us with their finished article—pure fresh milk. Within a few hours of its milking, this fresh milk is delivered by dairymen to our plants in the country. It is then pasteurized in glass-lined tanks. From the pasteurizers, the milk is pumped through glass-lined pipes into the drying room. Here it is forced through a tiny pin-hole opening into a current of warm, dry air, where the moisture is evaporated in one-fifth of a second. The milk spray dries instantaneously at a low temperature, and the solids of the milk fall to the bottom of the drying room in a drift of fine white powdered milk—KLIM.

Lastly, the pure whole milk in powder form is packed by our special, exclusive process into the brown-and-yellow KLIM tin—and there you have the New KLIM you have been hearing about,—whole full-cream milk, as sweet and rich and wholesome as it was when it left the farms near our plants.

NEW YORK, June 3—Earl Carroll, host at a Broadway "bath-tub party" where a nude girl served drinks from a tub, was sentenced to a year and a day in Atlanta penitentiary and fined $2,000 today for perjury committed during testimony before two grand juries investigating the party.

Of the six indictments originally returned against the theatrical producer, two had been dropped during the course of the trial and on the charges in two others, relating to liquor at the party, he had been found guilty.

TEN VESSELS TAKE LUMBER FROM N. B.

Cargoes From Campbellton Are Shipped to Foreign Markets This Season

CAMPBELLTON, June 3—While the shipment of ten vessel loads of lumber from the mills of this district since the opening of navigation tends to relieve the local labor situation to some extent, the clearing of this stock is of no special significance to lumber firms here beyond making more space in their yards for this summer's cut. Most of this lumber now being carried by water to the foreign market has been sold for some time and therefore does not directly reflect one way or another upon present lumbering activities.

Weddings

Cougle-Black.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday at 6 o'clock in the United church, Fairville, when Miss Lucy M. Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Black, of West Saint John, and Purdy M. Cougle, son of Mrs. Margaret Cougle, Fairville, were united in marriage by Rev. J. S. Bonnell, of St. Andrew's Kirk. The altar rail was artistically decorated with pine boughs and cherry blossoms and an arch of cherry blossoms in front of the pulpit was very pretty. The decorations were arranged by the girl friends of the bride. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a tailored suit of Alrdale shade with hat and shoes to match. She wore a brown fox fur, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of Columbian roses. Little Miss Ruth Black, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl and wore a dainty frock of pale green organdie with bonnet to match. She carried a bouquet of sweet heart roses and for-get-me-nots. I. Newton Fanjoy and Fred A. Duff ushered the guests to the special seats which were marked with white ribbons and cherry blossoms. Miss Audrey McColgan, organist of the church, played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered the church and as they left she played Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the signing of the register Miss Vivian McColgan sang "I love you truly." After the ceremony luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, 41 Champlain street, West Saint John. There were about 30 guests present. The dining room was tastefully decorated with pink carnations and pink candles in silver candelsticks. Mrs. Charles Driscoll and Mrs. John Stammers presided. Mrs. Harry Costley and Mrs. Charles Belyea, who were in charge of the serving, were assisted by the ushers, Mr. Fanjoy and Mr. Duff.

Among the many beautiful gifts received were many fine pieces of cut glass, silver and linen, a beautiful chair from the office staff of the C. P. R., and a substantial check from the bride's father. The groom's gifts to the organist, soloist and ushers were hand-somely bound copies of books of poems.

and to the flower girl a silver bracelet. The out of town guests included Miss Nellie Stuart, of Robbsey, Mr. Leonard Cougle, Perth, N. B., and Miss Pearl Appleby, of MacDonald's Corner, N. B. Immediately after the reception the bride and groom left on the Boston train for a wedding trip to New York. On their return they will reside at Grand Bay for the summer months. Both are very popular and are receiving congratulations and best wishes from very many friends.

Hart-McCavour.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James McCavour, Lorneville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Mary Gertrude, was married to William F. J. Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, of Montreal. Rev. Peter Jackson, of Lorneville United church, performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride, who was unattended, was given in marriage by her father and was becomingly attired in a grey georgette dress with navy blue trimmings and wore a navy blue hat with silver grey trimmings. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Roses, snapdragons and spring flowers were effectively arranged in the reception rooms. The dining table was prettily arranged with silver baskets of roses and was centered with the wedding cake. After the wedding supper had been served Mr. and Mrs. Hart left by automobile for honeymoon trip to St. Stephen, Boston and New York. They will return to Montreal where they will reside at 210 Notre Dame de Grace. The bride's going away suit was of navy blue and with it she wore a hat to match and a brown fox fur which was the gift of the groom. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, Montreal, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. William Kaye, Montreal, sister and brother-in-law of the groom, Miss Betty Kaye, Montreal. Many beautiful gifts of silver, cut glass and linen were received, among them a chest of silver from the staff of the Western Union Telegraph Company, where the bride had been employed. The groom is assistant manager of the Southern Press, Montreal. The many friends of the bride and groom unite to wish them all happiness in their new home.

Stirling-Lunn.

Miss Hazel Pearle, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. F. J. Lunn, of this city, and Clyde Greville Stirling, son of Mr. Peter Stirling, also of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock in the shower house of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ada, who wore a dress of orchid crepe de chine, with hat to correspond, and carried orchid sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Cecil Cromwell supported the groom and William Halsall and Gordon Lantz acted as ushers. Miss Minnie Alman played the wedding march. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion by the Tabernacle Young Willing Workers' class, of which the bride was a member.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stirling left for Detroit, where they will reside.

HIS MAJESTY'S 61ST BIRTHDAY WELL OBSERVED

Fine Weather Adds to Enjoyment of Pleasure Seeking Crowds MANY SPEND DAY IN THE COUNTRY Good Attractions in City and Suburbs Mark June 3

Real "King's weather" greeted the holiday crowds yesterday, and the kindness of the "weather man" in this respect was much appreciated by all. Large crowds attended the baseball games and theatres, and many spent the day in the country. Flags were flown, and the ships in the harbor were lily dressed in honor of the day. At noon a royal salute of 21 guns was fired

RIVER STEAMERS

The river steamers had very many passengers and their trips were so arranged that they carried large numbers of holiday makers to the nearer river resorts and brought them back again at night time. St. Mary's Band held a picnic at Crystal Beach, which proved very popular. The steamer Majestic left Indian town at 9.30 a. m. to take the first load of picnickers and returned to the city again in time to leave at 1.30 with the second detachment of the picnic crowd and her usual passenger list and freight for other points on her route.

CROWDS AT ROCKWOOD

Crowds at Rockwood Park were larger than in some time and all of the park attractions had very many patrons. Some bold spirits tried the bathing and pronounced it excellent. Lily Lake was also being made good use of in boating and by fishermen. All of the boats were out and had the fleet been twice as large there would have been people to use them. There were many picnic parties and very many visitors to see the animals and the new bird refuge.

WITH THE TRAINS

The trains had heavy holiday travel to cope with and most of their passengers went out in the early trains and returned to the city in the evening. Automobile traffic was specially heavy on the most frequented roads leading out of the city. The new buses did a very brisk day's business.

AT GRAND BAY

The day was spent quietly at Grand Bay. Nearly all of the summer residents are occupying their cottages there and there were a number of visitors out from the city. The tennis courts were not yet in readiness for play, however, and the chief entertainment for the holiday was the much enjoyed dance held in the club rooms in the evening with an orchestra supplying excellent music.

AT FAIR VALE

At Fair Vale yesterday was the formal opening date of the Outing Association and there were very many visitors besides the large number of summer residents. The tennis courts were made good use of throughout the day and were in good shape. In the evening there was a social dance in the clubhouse and it was "open house" for everybody. A four-piece orchestra provided a fine program and the association served refreshments free.

IN THE CITY

In the city the baseball games, the athletic meet in West Saint John, and the special program of the theatres and other places of attraction had very many patrons attending. The R. K. Y. C's formal opening of the season attracted a good crowd also. While the Saint John Power Boat Club had no special event planned, there were many boats of the fleet out for a trip up river during the day. The Pandemic Outing Association opened its season with a largely patronized and much enjoyed dance in the club rooms, and there were many visitors at Pandemic throughout the day. At Westfield and Riverside golf matches between president and vice-president teams were the big feature of the day, and there was social enjoyment for the members and many visitors.

SPENDS HOLIDAY AT BOULEVARD WORK

Louis Ross Again Has Crown Street Beauty Spot Looking Well

It is a safe bet that no one enjoyed the holiday yesterday more than did Louis Ross, truckman and public-spirited citizen, who spent the day putting everything to rights on Bay View Boulevard in Crown street, the boulevard which owes its existence to Mr. Ross' enterprise, industry and common sense. With pipe in his mouth, Mr. Ross was busily employed putting new treads on the stairway he has made down the face of the cliff, making new edges for a cinder sidewalk extension.

Last public holiday he spent in painting the benches and the small cans for waste paper which were all neatly disposed in their proper places yesterday. On the warehouse where he stores the benches and cans in winter time there was a gay display of flags and a fine big flag was flying from his large flag-staff. Mr. Ross has made the boulevard entirely unshaded and each year he has put in some special improvements that have made this a much patronized seaside spot to rest and admire the view. The cinder path gives a fine dry patch of ground in front of the benches and these have grown to many in number that they now stretch nearly the length of a full city block along the cliff overlooking Courtenay Bay. The trees which were planted about two years ago are just beginning to bud out and in a few more years they will be not only objects of beauty but producers of welcome shade on bright days.

Complete muscular relaxation essential for healthful sleep At "rising time" comes the test as to whether your night's sleep has given you the renewed vigor and vitality so necessary to the busy activities of this modern age. If certain muscles of the body remain tense for lack of resting support no amount of sleep will renew their energy. For instance—if the muscles enclosing the vital abdominal organs are allowed to sag and assume unnatural positions due to improper mattress support, they are under a strain, and cannot relax. Sleep therefore, doesn't rest this part of the body as well or healthfully as it would if proper support relieved the strain and allowed the tense muscles to relax. The Marshall Spring Mattress, built with many hundreds of highly resilient, independently working springs, fits the natural contour of the body, giving even, gentle support to every muscle. This kind of body support ensures true muscular relaxation and health-building sleep. It is this Marshall principle of new sleeping comfort that is changing the sleeping habits of generations.

FIVE MONUMENTS ALREADY ERECTED

Would Now Honor Two Sailors Who Lost Lives in Rescue Work

PENNFIELD, June 3—Captain Charles Trynor, of Pennfield, retired from active life at sea for the past three years and who in the past has erected five family monuments besides four other markers, three of which mark the graves of unknown sailors drowned at Beaver Harbor during the gale of '09, is still unabated in his zeal in that direction.

Captain Trynor has had a distinguished record. Being orphaned at a very early age by the death of his father, he set steadily to work to assist his widowed mother in the rearing of the large family.

Of his three sons, the oldest, John, is in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company. The second, Ramsford, is captain and owner of the four-masted schooner Dorothy, now en route from Mexico to Philadelphia.

Captain Trynor has a fine home at Pennfield. Both he and Mrs. Trynor are now over 70. They are of the old school and very hospitable, having many charitable and kindly acts to their credit.

THE PERFECTED BEATING OF RUGS

BEATING—always the most efficient method of removing dirt from rugs. Old as the use of floor coverings, but done infrequently, often severely, always imperfectly.

Then came The Hoover; nothing ever approached its ability to take out dirt. It was the most effective home-cleaning tool ever devised. Now The New Hoover embodies "Positive Agitation," the perfection of the principle of beating in rug-cleaning. In results, it is absolutely revolutionary. In operation, easy as walking across the room. Here are The New Hoover's distinct improvements:

- 1 For the first time, it makes possible "Positive Agitation" of floor coverings. 2 By actual test, in the ordinary cleaning time, it beats out and sweeps up from carpets an average of 131% more dirt.

It stands as the most important contribution to ease and efficiency in home-cleaning.

JONES COMMITTED FOR TRIAL IN LIQUOR CASE AT MONCTON

Court Admits Evidence
Weak and Renews
Bail at $2,000

MONCTON, N.B., June 2.—Samuel Jones, of Salisbury Road, was sent up for trial this afternoon by the city police magistrate on the charge of having smuggled goods in his possession. The decision was reached by Judge C. A. Steves in the City Court, at the conclusion of the resumed preliminary hearing which opened this morning. The next chapter in the case will be the resumed preliminary hearing in the County Court at its June session in Dorchester when Mr. Justice Byrne will preside.

NO DEFENCE ENTERED.

No defence was entered by the accused, except that dismissal had been requested on the ground that no evidence had been offered which had shown that the goods had been smuggled or that Jones knew that they had been smuggled. Judge Steves in giving his decision to send Jones up for trial, admitted that the evidence was weak. In view of this weak nature of the evidence, he said, he would renew bail for the accused at the same figure as during the preliminary hearing, $2,000. Half of this is a personal bond of the accused and James Friel, K.C., and W. Fred Lane gave bonds for $500 each.

COURT ROOM CROWDED.

The hearing resumed at 10:30 and the court room was crowded with citizens. T. T. Goodwin, representing the crown called two witnesses whose examination and cross-examination occupied the entire morning session of the court. Jones appeared to be quite at ease and listened intently to what the witnesses had to say.

Stanley Murray, clerk in the customs department here, was first called by Mr. Goodwin. He told of accompanying Collector J. A. Girouard and other customs officers to the Jones farm on May 24. The officers saw in a back room of the kitchen a number of bags stacked up as bags of potatoes. They contained liquor, most of them holding a dozen bottles. At this point two bottles, one purporting to be Scotch whisky which bore a label saying that the contents had been distilled in Scotland and had been bottled there, were produced. The witness smelled the contents of this bottle after it had been opened in the court room. He said that it smelled very much like Scotch whisky.

The contents of the other bottle he could not identify. It was labelled Hope's Regent London Dry Gin.

Witness, continuing, gave a detailed account of the brands contained in the 134 bags seized and of the markings on the two ten-gallon kegs of what was purported to be Scotch whisky. During his service in the customs department here, Mr. Jones had never to his own knowledge made application for release of any goods from bond. In cross-examination by Mr. Bridges for the defence, witness said Jones had not impeded the officers in any way during the search.

By This Simple Method
Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body go quickly by a simple method that dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot wet washcloth and rub the skin briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them large and unsightly—while the simple application of peroxide powder and the wash dissolve them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition.

GUELPH MINISTER NAMED MODERATOR BY PRESBYTERIANS

Is Rev. A. J. McGillivray and Choice Made on First Vote

DR. SCOTT REPORTS WONDERFUL YEAR

Says Church Has Come Out of Chaos to Order; Prospect Unrivalled

MONTREAL, June 2.—Rev. A. J. McGillivray, of Knox church, Guelph, Ont., was this evening elected Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, at the first Sederunt of the General Assembly held at Knox Crescent Church here.

Only two names were voted on, the other being Rev. Banks Nelson, of Knox church, Hamilton, Ont.

Following the first vote the election was made unanimous.

The decision was a standing one and no figures were announced.

About 200 commissioners had registered for the opening sederunt and another 150 registrations are expected tomorrow.

CHURCH OUT OF CHAOS.

Dr. Ephraim Scott, retiring moderator, in his address, picturing the Presbyterian Church as having come out of Chaos to order with a progress and prospect unequalled in its history.

He commended against the attacks which were being made in many quarters on the "word of God." Doubt cast upon the miraculous birth of Christ was usually a step to the denial of His deity and reduction of Christianity to a system of morals.

WONDERFUL YEAR

Later, bidding farewell to the assembly as its head, Dr. Scott said the year had been marked by the "overwhelming goodness of God to us all and the wonderfulness of the church to myself."

He had been unable because of his other duties to visit many of the churches in the Dominion which he felt to have been the greatest loss to himself, but the churches and their ministers had found themselves and did not need the visit of officials as an urge to carry out their work.

Appreciation of the efforts of the retiring moderator was voiced in a resolution of thanks moved by Rev. Mr. McKerrill, of Toronto, and seconded by Dr. D. G. McKinnon, Edmonton.

Dr. Scott, through the Presbyterian Record had moulded, educated and inspired the whole body of Presbyterian churches and homes, said the mover.

Loyal greetings from the Presbyterian Church in Canada were ordered by the Assembly to be sent to His Majesty, King George V, on the occasion of his birthday tomorrow.

Public worship services preceded the opening of the Assembly.

The Bathurst saw mill of the Gloucester Lumber and Trading Co., commenced the season's cut yesterday and the Burnsville mill of the same company started operations today.

The lumbermen of this section of the province report that the driving conditions were very favorable this year and that all logs will soon be in the hoists. The big river drive will be completed on Friday of this week.

FRENCH TAKE PEAK AND CONTROL TRIBE

Complete Occupation of Beni Zeronal Country in Africa

RABAT, Morocco, June 3.—French troops of the fourth division yesterday occupied the summit of Djebel Outka, about 20 miles north of the Ouergha River, thus completing the occupation of the Beni Zeronal tribesmen's country and entirely obliterating the salient in front of the French lines where the revolt in 1925 broke out and from which the first Rifian drives in the direction of Fez started.

At the beginning of the operation some days back the troops met with stubborn resistance from the tribesmen, who held a strongly entrenched and fortified position and at some points were well provided with dugouts and communication trenches flanked by machine guns.

However, the junction of the two French divisions on May 30 intensified by the activity of the aviators and the dissemination of the news of Abd-el-Krim's surrender, enabled the French to complete the last phases of the operation without, it is asserted, the loss of a man. Abd-el-Krim is still at Taza and it is believed he will be necessary to Fez Friday, which is a necessary move as numerous natives refuse to believe that he has surrendered.

THORNTON HOPEFUL MERCHANT MARINE WILL REAP PROFIT

Says Government Ships Will Not Pay Interest on Cost For Years

WEST INDIES TRADE OFFERS PROMISE

Development Looked For in Island Business With Canada

OTTAWA, June 2.—"I am very far from regarding the Canadian Government Merchant Marine as it is sometimes lightly and frivolously called, a 'white elephant,'" Sir Henry Thornton said in reply to a question before the railway committee of the House Wednesday.

He was hopeful that with caution in its management, diligence, economy and due regard to pushing its business, the Merchant Marine would be able in future years to show a substantial profit on its operations, although it would not, at least for many years to come, be able to return interest on the amount of money the ships cost, constructed as they were in the stress of war.

FIRST OPERATION PROFIT.

"For the first five months of this year," Sir Henry said, "the Government Merchant Marine had an operating profit of $82,000. This is the first time of any protracted period that it has been able to show a substantial profit."

He added that this was a pleasant indication, not only for the government ships, but also showed an improvement in international trade, which was beginning to get back into its stride after the dislocation caused by the war.

"With regard to the Canada-British West Indies trade," said Sir Henry, "it does offer considerable promise. We will be in a favorable position by getting in early. The next ten years will be profitable to whoever goes into it and to Canada."

$51,000 Items For Buildings In N. B. Pass

OTTAWA, June 2.—Just before midnight the House of Commons in committee supply passed items totalling $51,000 for public buildings in New Brunswick.

the government merchant ships last year. He explained that advertisements were placed in 66 newspapers asking for tenders for these ships, of which papers six were in England, one in Newfoundland, and the remainder in Canada. The offers received in reply were not considered high enough and letters were sent out and other steps taken to secure larger bids. As a result, Sir Henry said, all the ships with the exception of one were sold at prices in advance of the earlier offers. The reason this brought less was that it was sold with several others in one lot, whereas the higher offer was for it alone.

TO SUBMIT LETTERS.

Sir Henry promised to submit correspondence to show that every effort was made to get as high a price as possible. This was in reply to a question by W. A. Boys, chief Conservative whip, who said he had heard the claim that the ships were sold too cheaply, and he wanted to have this cleared up. He referred particularly to sales to the Playfair Company.

The reason some of the ships were sold at less than fifty per cent. of the amount they were valued at by Martin and Company, of New York, for in 1925, was the great number of ships offered for sale by the shipping board of the United States.

"The fact was there was almost no market for these ships. It was difficult to get rid of them. The market for second hand tonnage was pretty well shot," said Sir Henry.

TEAKLE SUBMITS REPORTS.

R. B. Teakle, manager of the Merchant Marine, promised to submit reports to support his claim that the country had received the best prices that could be obtained for the ships sold. The Merchant Marine report was adopted by the committee.

The reason the Merchant Marine gave its business to a commission agent in Detroit, was that this agent had been able to turn a lot of traffic to the government ships that they would not have otherwise obtained, particularly automobile freight.

It was suggested that this agent was getting more in commission than it would take to maintain an office there. Sir Henry said he believed it resulted in getting more business. It was the only port in the United States where such an arrangement existed.

The committee adjourned until 10:30 a.m. Friday.

MARINE ENGINEERS GET WAGE ADVANCE

Shortage of Skilled Men Causes Many Companies to Consider Increase

NEW YORK, June 2.—An increase in the wages of assistant engineers amounting to $25 per month has been made by C. D. Malloy & Co. and wage advances are also under consideration by numerous other steamship companies, according to latest announcements. The Malloy Company raised the pay of third assistant engineers from $140 to $165 per month.

The Oriental Navigation Company, it is stated, has also made an increase in the wages of its assistant engineers and it is believed that substantial increases will be put into effect in the near future by other large owners and operators.

For some time, officials stated, there has been a shortage of higher grade steamship engineers due to the more attractive rates of wages paid on shore jobs and it has been next to impossible to get suitable men for the positions open. This situation has been especially pronounced in connection with Diesel ships, it is said, the lack of capable motorship engineers being keenly felt.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 3.—Ballots received since yesterday when incomplete returns indicated that Chas. P. Howard, of Chicago, leading the "Progressive Party" of the International Typographical Union, has been elected president of the union, have not changed the results of Wednesday election.

WOMEN WILL WORK MORE IN MISSIONS OF PRESBYTERIANS

House Rented in Toronto to Train Deaconesses For Fields

CHURCH COPE WITH MINISTER SHORTAGE

Budget Requirements Met, General Assembly at Montreal Hears

MONTREAL, June 3.—Today was "Mission Day" at the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, now in session at the Knox-Crescent church here. Reports on Home and Foreign Missions, the Women's Missionary Society and on missionary and deaconess training was heard.

A rented house on Huron street, Toronto, has been taken for the training of deaconesses. C. S. McDonald, of Brampton, Ont., reported. Women continually would take a greater part in both home and foreign work and it was necessary that there should be a home in which to train the young recruits.

Dr. Banks Nelson, Hamilton, was

SEES GROUND REGAINED

Canadian Press Despatch.

MONTREAL, June 3.—In ten years time the Presbyterian Church in Canada will be back to pre-war strength and the greatest percentage of that growth will be West of the Great Lakes, Rev. W. G. Brown, Saskatoon, prophesied before the general assembly here tonight. It had been forecast, he said, that only 24 congregations would be left to the Presbyterians in Western Canada after union, but today there were instead 242. British Columbia was left at union with 18 remaining churches, and now there were 44, while preaching stations had risen from 22 to 67. Alberta had increased 28 congregations to 43 in addition to 80 preaching stations. Saskatchewan had grown from six to 36 with 62 preaching points, while Manitoba with 16 had doubled to 32.

gratified to know a new deaconess house was under way and said that in Hamilton a recognition service had recently been held for the first deaconess appointed by the Presbyterian Church since its division from the uniting body.

NO PULPIT FAILURES

Dr. Andrew S. Grant told of how an original shortage of ministers had been overcome. There had been no failure to deliver the message of the gospel to all sections of the church. Under the most trying circumstances, he said, men appeared, and it had never been necessary to refuse an appeal for a preacher. The Presbyterian Church, he declared, had as high an average of men occupying pulpits as before union. We have the largest home mission field in Canada relative to our present strength that we ever had," Dr. Grant said in another place. He believed it would be possible to settle all congregations who could support them with ministers. The church, too, had met all its budget requirements and could meet all demands at home and abroad.

AID SCHEME UNDER WAY

The question of assistance to struggling groups who had lost their churches had not yet been solved, but a scheme was under way by which it was hoped to give assistance in the near future.

Dr. Banks Nelson rose to point out that the church was asking in its budget for $1,200,000 from 150,000 people, and compared this favorably with the efforts of other denominations with larger congregations.

Mrs. L. H. Moore, of North Sydney and Halifax, president of the eastern division of the Women's Missionary Society, reported that her organization was in good financial standing to cope with the requirements of work at home and abroad when the Presbyterian Church was allotted its share of the foreign mission field. Never was the church in such good condition as today in regard to its financial resources, she said. The women of the eastern division hoped to help in the building of churches for minority groups. They were prepared to provide bursaries

ARREST CONFRONTS AT LEAST 3 OTHERS

Documents Demanded From Cotton Firms Along Border

OTTAWA, June 3.—For the first time in many years, a Canadian was threatened with imprisonment in the tower of the Parliament Buildings for disobedience of an order of Parliament.

H. B. Telford, of Rock Island, Quebec, who owns a warehouse, just across the international border in Derbyline, Vt., refused to open this warehouse to the inspection of accountants representing the federal customs probe committee on the ground that the warehouse was on foreign territory. He was taking this stand on the advice of his attorney, he said.

Because the customs committee believed that he had been misled by his attorney in the United States, Chairman Paul Mercier gave Mr. Telford until tomorrow morning to get fresh advice from his counsel. If the witness still declines to obey the order of Parliament, he will be arrested.

Medical Writer Tells How To Keep Young Unto a Ripe Old Age

Says Ambition, Vigor and Energy Not Be Confined to Youth.

Just because you are past middle life, or due to ill health are an unhappy victim of chronic weakness, dependency, inertia and inability, don't give up hope and think you have to stay the way—and don't make the mistake of thinking your condition the natural consequence of age.

Many folks in their early thirties seem old and "worn out"—while others, well past sixty, appear to be in the prime of life. Youthfulness is not taken away by the passing of a certain number of years—but by carelessness and neglect.

"Fighting spirit," it is often lost or almost killed.

N matter what your age may be, if you have not lost the "spirit of youth" and the desire to be at your best—you can surely be helped—and here's a simple way that will prove its value in two weeks' time. Go now to your druggist and get a box of Double Strength Erbac and take it regularly according to directions for the full 18 days—then your condition will be entirely renewed. The value of the result can easily be proven by tests.

Double strength Erbac, a special private formula, is supplied in plain sealed package only—and sold on a guarantee of satisfaction.

The more advanced pupils of Miss Maudie Hamilton took part in an excellent concert last evening in the Y. W. C. Don't Poison Baby

Through Your Constipation

Nursing mothers must avoid constipation. Slow bowel movements allow poisons to form and are absorbed by the blood. This means tainted milk for baby.

Mothers are the best friends of Nujol. When precious new life bursts at earth they use and give their babies Nujol—the remedial medicine authorities prescribe because it is so safe, so gentle, and so natural in its action.

Constipation is dangerous for anybody. Nujol is safe for everybody. It does not affect the stomach and is not absorbed by the body.

Nujol makes up for a deficiency of natural lubricant in the intestines. It softens the waste matter and thus permits thorough and regular bowel movements without gripping.

Nujol can be taken for any length of time without ill effects. Unlike laxatives, it does not form a habit and can be discontinued at any time.

Ask your druggist for Nujol.

There was a fair attendance at Moosepath Park yesterday afternoon, and some excellent racing was enjoyed. The track was in fine condition, and the different heats were closely contested.

Five horses started in the free-for-all, and although it was a procession in three heats, there were very close finishes and many fast brushes.

Avalanche of Base Hits Features Holiday Baseball Games Here

Along The Sport Trail

PERHAPS no event in the world, and certainly no sporting contest, arouses more of human interest than the Derby, which was run off last Wednesday and in which some local men made a neat little pile.

PIE TRAYNOR, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is said to have the most powerful and accurate arm in baseball.

THE Jewish eleven of the Hakoah Sport Club, Vienna, wound up its tour of the United States recently with a victory at Philadelphia making it the sixth out of ten. Masters in the art of dribbling and outwitting the opposition, the Hakoah team has made a splendid impression during its games.

EVEN the golf pros get back. Proving to the satisfaction of the Royal Canadian Golf Association that he had not followed the professional game for five years, Frederick Clunk, former well-known pro on the Pacific Coast, was recently reinstated to amateur standing.

MEMORIES of other days throng about as we read of Walter Hoover, formerly of Duluth and now a member of the Undine Barge Club, winning the singles at the Philadelphia semi-centennial regatta recently from Paul Costello and Garret Gilmore.

WINNING STREAK OF WATER DEPT. IS BROKEN, 6-2

Saint Johns, Royals and Shamrocks are the Victors

THE class of baseball in Saint John was on trial yesterday, this city would have made a rather sorry showing. Apparently, the boys had an off day for in four games played the cold figures show the following:

STREAK BROKEN

The winning streak of the Water Department, Maritime champions, that started in July of last year, which carried them through to the city title, the New Brunswick crown, and right on through to Maritime honors, and gave them a good start on this year's race, was smashed last evening by one of the players who greatly helped them in their long string of victories when Lloyd Stirling pitched the Saint Johns to victory over the Watermen on the East End grounds last night before a crowd of 800 people, 6 to 2.

BATTING HONORS

Batting honors for the night, however, went to young John Armstrong, intermediate star of last year, who potted out four hits in as many times at bat, one of the longest of the year.

COUNTY LEAGUE

There was only one game played yesterday in the County League, the Shamrocks overcoming a seven-run lead and finally winning out from the St. Peter's on the East End grounds in the afternoon before a good-sized crowd.

INTERMEDIATE MEETING

A meeting of teams desirous of entering the City Intermediate League has been called for this evening at 9 o'clock at the home of C. W. Ellsworth, Dufferin Ave., to formally organize the league.

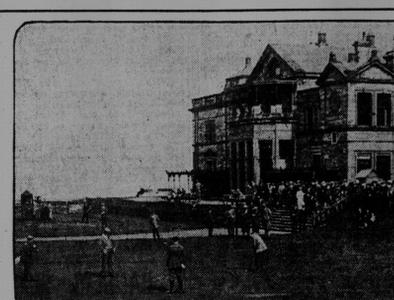

WARNING TO SOCCER PLAYERS

Soccer players who have not taken out amateur cards yet are advised to do so now. Many of the players are registered and others have neglected to do so. To protect all concerned, it is advisable for all to be registered.

MILES WON

AMHERST, June 3.—John C. Miles placed another victory to his personal credit today when he defeated James Hawbold, of Westville, Hector Corneil, of Lunenburg, Gordon Lewis, of Amherst, and Roland H. Sturwood, of Amherst, in the Maritime ten mile track championship. Miles accomplished the feat in 36:10 but he was not forced to his utmost.

Home Green at St. Andrews

Here is the home green at the historic St. Andrews links, where Americans and Britons battled for the much-coveted Walker cup. The equally famous clubhouse is in the background. The Americans won.

Chats with your GAS man

About Your Gas Bill

"Daily savings in little things makes big bank accounts," recently stated a prominent banker.

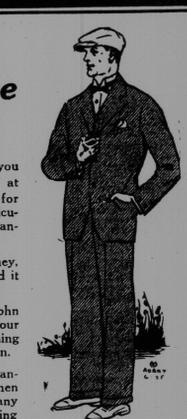

And one little daily saving can be on your gas. Here are some helpful rules for getting more for the gas you use in your gas range. Tack these rules up beside your kitchen stove.

- 1. Plan your meals systematically, such as, when baking, plan an oven dinner. The gas ordinarily used to heat the oven is saved. 2. Light the burner just as a pan is placed over it. Turn gas off at once when pan is taken from flame. 3. Use a small burner on the gas range whenever possible, instead of a large one. 4. Don't use the oven to heat the kitchen or dry clothes. A small room heater is more efficient. 5. Boil all gas range burners once a month in a strong solution of soda or washing powder. Clean burners burn best. 6. Have all burners adjusted so that a blue flame only shows. 7. Have thermostatic controls, which automatically keep the heat at the proper temperature, installed on ovens, water heaters and house heaters.

A little careful watching every day means quite a saving at the end of the year, without your giving up any good enjoyed from the gas you buy.

REVIVAL DAY FOR R.K.Y.C. MEMBERS

Sailing, Power, Rowing, and Canoe Races Are Well Contested

A revival day for the members of the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club was held yesterday at the headquarters Millidgeville and proved one of the best in years. There was a large crowd of people present and the Saint John Power Boat Club joined in with the R. K. Y. C. in making the day one that will be long remembered. There was also present members from different clubs along the river, and the different races carried through were some and exciting. Commodore James Barnes received the guests and Vice-Commodore Gordon K. Holder was chairman of the day's program which proved a wonderful success. The program started at 4 o'clock with an exciting Dinghy race. There were five entrants, viz: U. R. O. K., Mosquito, Suffragette, Renforth and Sea Gull. There was a strong breeze from the southwest and the boats made a wonderful showing, and the yachts were closely hunched throughout. The U. R. O. K., owned by Ralph Brennan, finished first, Mosquito, owned by Francis Lingley, was second, and Renforth, owned by Robert Rebeck, third. This proved one of the best races for this class of boats ever seen on the Millidgeville course, but was not without accidents, as the Suffragette carried away her centreboard tackle and the U. R. O. K. a traveller block. A shield for the Dinghy, donated by Holder for annual competition is to be raced for on every June 3, and the yacht capturing the first three wins holds the prize.

WHALERS RACE
The next event was the whalers race, five oars and a coxswain. This was won by the R. K. Y. C. crew with Howard Holder as coxswain, which defeated R. C. N. V. R. crew, who had one of the instructors as coxswain. It was an exciting race, and after the finish the R. C. N. V. R. rowers were entertained to luncheon by Mrs. R. J. White of Millidgeville.

WHALERS RACE
The men's single canoe race was won by J. Pritchard, with Gordon Kelley second.
In the men's doubles, M. Scott and R. B. Brennan was first, with E. Murray and G. Holder second. There was some excitement in this contest when a canoe paddled by Pollard and McLean, upset, but there was no danger as the paddlers were good swimmers. The prize for the mixed doubles was won by Miss Currie and J. Pritchard, with Harry Giggsey and Jean Giggsey second.

The cabin power boat race was won by G. Kelley with the "Barbara" while Don Estabrooks with "Sky Pilot" finished second.
The ladies' rowing race was won by Grenville Ring with G. Holder second.
The yachts tender rowing race was won by Elinor Holder with Jean Giggsey second. The prizes were awarded to the winners in the evening by Vice-Commodore Gordon Holder in the absence of Commodore James Barnes, and then followed a delightful dance, and the party broke up shortly before midnight.

SOCCER CLUB ELECTS
A meeting of the Queen's Park Football Club was held Wednesday night. The following is a list of officers elected and players:

Manager, Joe Smith; secretary, Robt. V. McKelvie; captain, James Hughes; vice-captain, Curtis; trainer, C. Janner; goal, S. Gilzean; right back, C. Ross; left back, Dobbelstein; right half back, S. The referee stopped the bout after one minute and fifty seconds of the second round. Burns was apparently hopelessly outclassed and was being hit almost at will by Delaney when the official stepped between them. Arthur de Kuh, heavyweight, out-pointed Cal Carter, in the first ten-

WAS ACTIVE IN SHIPBUILDING IN SAINT JOHN

Thomas Buckley Passes Away After Illness of About Month

Another link between the days of "wooden ships and iron men" and modern Saint John was broken this morning by the death of Thomas Buckley, a life long resident of the North End and one of the most highly respected citizens. Mr. Buckley, since the death of his wife, about two years ago, had been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, 4 Wrenworth street, and had been ill only about a month.

He came to this country from Ireland when but a young man and took up his residence in the North End. He became interested in the shipbuilding industry and was one of the best known men in this line. On the decline of the industry he was appointed vice stock inspector for this port, a position which he held until 1910.

He is survived by one son, Frank Buckley, of the Minto Coal Co., Hinton; one daughter, Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, and one nephew, Thomas Buckley, of this city. The funeral will be held on Monday morning from his daughter's home.

WILL SEND 125 MEN IN TO CUT PULPWOOD

Pejepscot Paper Co. to Take Some 5,000 Cords at Martin's Head

Within a short time the Pejepscot Paper Co. will send a large number of men into the woods at Martin's Head, Saint John county, to cut about 5,000 cords of pulp wood, which is the equivalent of nearly 3,000,000 feet of long lumber. The company has not cut any wood on the Martin's Head property for six years, and the opportunities are expected to be favorable for 125 men or more who will be engaged to get out the wood called for by the big contract, which will mean an expenditure of from $40,000 to $50,000. It is proposed to have the work of cutting, peeling and piling done by August 31 as the most favorable peeling season will end about that date.

The Pejepscot Company operates large pulp mills in Maine and owns a wood carrying fleet. It holds immense tracts of land in Saint John county, Kings county and elsewhere, the New Brunswick headquarters being at Salmon River village, Saint John county.

The company has finished its annual driving operations, and there are about 3,000,000 feet of long lumber and 10,000 cords of four-foot pulp wood, nearly 9,000,000 feet in all, at its mills at Salmon River.

Word has been received here that the Lincoln Pulpwood Co. Ltd., which operates extensively across the bay, in Annapolis county, will send 80 men to the woods early next week.

Bernard Sutton, 6, charged with acting with a 13-year-old juvenile in stealing a boat, the property of G. H. He admitted being in the boat, however, taking the boat and said that he and Sutton had each received $1 for it. As the mother of the lad said he was getting out of control, the magistrate ordered him sent to the Boys' Industrial Home for an indeterminate period not exceeding five years. HYDRO LINES EXTENSION TO GO ON AT ONCE

Electric Commission Today Deals With Havelock and Shediac Plans

The Havelock and Shediac extensions of the Musquash hydro system were discussed at the monthly meeting of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission here this morning and work on these will be pushed along as rapidly as possible. A claim of David Hamm that hydro poles to carry service wires to certain residents of Grand Bay were on his land was not dealt with, as Mr. Hamm did not appear before the commission, although given notice in writing to do so at this morning's session.

The chief engineer, S. R. Weston, reported on the extension to Havelock that foremen were now on the ground preparing to run the line from Petitcodiac to Havelock and that poles, wire and line hardware had been purchased.

As to the extension to Shediac, pursuant to the favorable approval of the Government, a report on an inspection made by the chief engineer, was placed before the meeting. It was decided to proceed with the line from Moncton to Shediac by way of Charlevoix, Lakeburn, Paines, Souders, Chipman's Corner, Shediac Town and Point du Chene. The commission will sit again this afternoon.

Hon. E. A. Kelly, chairman, presided and J. D. Palmer, Fredericton; A. D. Gagnon, St. Stephen; F. X. Robitaille, Shediac; and A. E. Schofield, Saint John, were present.

MRS. A. S. SAUNDERS DIES AT AGE OF 96

Husband Was Active in Days of Shipbuilding in Saint John

Another of the few remaining ties linking the present with the days of wooden ship building in Saint John, was severed in the death, at an early hour this morning, of Mrs. A. S. Saunders, widow of the late John Saunders, Sandall Saunders, at her home, 167 Charlotte street. She had attained the age of 96 on May 4. Mrs. Saunders was the widow of Tobias Saunders who died about 20 years ago. Mr. Saunders was foreman for Brown and Anderson, one of the best known of the ship building firms of St. John, in the days when the industry flourished here.

Mrs. Saunders was a talkative and interestingly of the days when the Saint John harbor was a forest of masts and the ship building trade.

Time dealt gently with her, leaving not its mark by one grey hair. Of a sunny disposition, she had a wide circle of friends. To all she was affectionately known as "Granny."

Mrs. Saunders was the daughter of the late John S. and Hannah Anthony, her father being one of the earlier pilots of this port. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. John R. Rigby and Mrs. James Taylor of Saint John; two sons, S. W. of Chicago and Leonard T. of New York, and two grand children, Mrs. John August McKay of New York, and Miss Annie Taylor of this city. Mrs. Saunders lived to see five generations.

More Passengers But Fewer Teams On Ferry
