FIRES AGAIN GIVE TROUBLE IN PROVINCE

Fredericton, N. B., July 18.—A fire broke out yesterday at Fredericton Junction and forty-five men were rushed to the scene. Through this prompt action, the flames were soon put under control. About fifteen acres were burned over, but the damage is not great. A few men were retained as a patrol. A fire was reported from Baby's Side, north of Newcastle on Saturday afternoon and it has been causing considerable trouble. The recent showers did not fall heavily in that section. Additional men were sent to it this morning. The heavy wind yesterday spread the flames considerably and the fire is a hard one to fight. It is now under control as far as it is known at the department of lands and mines.

The first message was received over the new line from Bald Mountain via Newcastle to this city on Saturday afternoon. The distance from here to Newcastle is about 100 miles and from that point to the lookout station at Bald Mountain is about sixty, but the voice carried well. This installation will add greatly in the location and rapid reporting of forest fires. At present the range of vision of the lookout man is about thirty miles but as soon as the proper equipment, telephones, maps, etc., are supplied he will have as long a range as Pennac Station.

MAYFLOWER A SPEEDY CRAFT

Boston, July 18.—Old salts at the wharf today discussed the sailing performance, yesterday, of the fishing schooner Mayflower, built as a candidate to defend the international fishermen's cup won by the Esperanto last year. She logged thirteen knots an hour at times on her run from Eastern Point, off Gloucester, to this port, and made the twenty-seven miles close to a light breeze in three hours and five minutes. This is nearly an hour faster than the regular schedule.

Fred Pigeon, director of the Boston syndicate, which built the boat, said the Mayflower met all tests on her recent trip to the banks and return.

"She rode out gales on the banks for three days without skipping a drop of water," he said, "and was pronounced by her crew to be the staunchest, driest schooner they had ever shipped in."

WAR ON OVER LA PRESSE BUILDING

Montreal, July 18.—The civic war in the Berthelme family, owners of La Presse Publishing Company, is waxing hotter every day and now a regular battle is in progress for possession of the La Presse building.

Twelve employees of the Berthelme family have been evicted from a room in the second floor since Saturday, and they are clamorously protesting against Edward and Eugene, despite the fact that members of the Thiel Agency, who are camped on the roof, refuse to allow food or water to be sent up to them. Numerous attempts to secure provisions by means of letting down a rope to friends outside have been frustrated.

WOMEN ARRESTED IN STRIKE TROUBLE

Great Falls, Mont., July 18.—The arrest of eight women charged with throwing red pepper in the faces of men who took the places of striking city street and garbage collection employees precipitated a small riot here on Friday night. A thousand strike sympathizers stormed the police station to stop throwing bricks at men who replaced the strikers and the mob at the police station was dispersed with the aid of a fire hose.

Halifax, N. S., July 18.—"Only citizens of Halifax will be employed on new city work," said Mayor Parker today to a delegation of twelve from the unemployed in the city who waited on him. The city has recently negotiated a loan of $100,000 to carry on extra city work to relieve unemployment.

"Probably they do," he said, "but not of young men whose love is worth winning. Pennsylvania Takes Lead To Bar Untrained Teachers

Schools to Have Only College and Normal Graduates—Other Items in Big State Programme Worked Out by Superintendent Thomas E. Finegan.

(By W. Carson, Jr., Educational Editor.) Pennsylvania has put a ban upon untrained teachers in the schools. Following the recommendations of Thomas E. Finegan, New York's former deputy commissioner of education, who is now superintendent of public instruction in Pennsylvania, the legislature has just passed a programme one item of which provides that ultimately "no person may be employed in any school in the state who does not show graduation from an approved college or university or an approved state normal school, or who does not furnish evidence of equivalent education." Teachers now in the system will have six years to make up this equivalent.

The importance of this action may be gauged from the fact that for the United States as a whole not more than one-fourth of the teachers in service have professional training of the sort indicated in the new Pennsylvania law.

Part of Big Programme.

Another thing New Yorkers will notice is that this step raising the standards of teacher training is part of an immense programme the state of Pennsylvania has just adopted through its legislature. The amount of state support for education in Pennsylvania for the new biennium has been increased fifty per cent.—from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000. The following list of educational measures enacted by the Pennsylvania General Assembly this year as a result of the leadership of the state superintendent and a governor sympathetic to education is respectively referred to Gov. Nathan L. Miller and the newly elected state commissioner of education.

regulations prescribed by the state board of education and such additional regulations as the local board of education may prescribe, shall be advanced from $2,500 to at least $3,000. An assistant teacher in a high school, who is under the direct supervision of a regular teacher, shall receive a minimum salary of $1,500 and a maximum salary of $1,800.

Better County Superintendents.

(5) Advancing the requirements for the position of county superintendent by prescribing a qualification for such office graduation from an approved college or university or state normal school and in addition thereto, six years' experience in school work, three of which must have been in an administrative capacity.

(6) Increasing the salaries of assistant county superintendents from $1,800 to $2,500 per year, and grading the county superintendents from $2,500 to $4,000, most superintendents receiving increases ranging from $500 to $1,000; also establishing a salary schedule for city superintendents.

(7) Establishing a new method of apportioning funds by which the state pays 50 per cent of the minimum salaries prescribed for rural school teachers and 60 per cent of the minimum salaries of teachers in the other districts of the state. This action requires an increase in the amount appropriated by the state from $24,000,000 to $36,000,000.

(8) Making sufficient appropriation to state normal schools to meet the maintenance and operating expenses of such institutions without charging tuition of students, and also providing a salary schedule for the faculties of the state normal schools. The amount of the appropriation to state normal schools is increased from $1,700,000 in 1919 to $5,000,000 in 1921.

(9) Standardizing the elementary courses in all public schools and private schools, and requiring that such courses shall be taught in English and from English texts.

(10) Increasing the length of the minimum school term in the state one month.

(11) Strengthening in various ways the compulsory attendance law, and providing for the payment by the state of one-half of the cost of the transportation of children to consolidated schools; prohibiting the organization of independent districts unless such organization is approved by the state superintendent of public instruction; also authorizing the establishment of union school districts.

(12) Encouraging the consolidation of schools by providing that a school district shall be entitled to receive annually $200 for each school which is permanently closed or discontinued, and providing for the payment by the state of one-half of the cost of the transportation of children to consolidated schools; prohibiting the organization of independent districts unless such organization is approved by the state superintendent of public instruction; also authorizing the establishment of union school districts.

(13) Creating in the state department of public instruction an extension bureau which shall have charge of Americanization work and other educational extension affairs, and appropriating $125,000 for this work.

(14) Authorizing the establishment of the first of three state truant schools and appropriating $180,000 therefor.

(15) Providing that a building shall be erected on the Capitol grounds for the use of the state department of public instruction, and naming such building "Thaddeus Stevens State Educational Building." In this way the state proposes to commemorate the services of the great commoner, regarded as the founder of the Pennsylvania state common school system.

(16) Authorizing the state department of public instruction to determine high school courses, and providing for the establishment of junior high schools.

(17) Revising the medical law, the dental law, the optometry law, and the law regulating the certification of public accountants, and also providing for the certification of engineers.

(18) Enacting a rehabilitation law to conform to the provisions of the federal act.

(19) Authorizing school boards to purchase or erect a residence for principals, teachers, or janitors, and providing that before action in such matters becomes effective it must have the approval of the state council of education.

(20) Requiring the establishment of kindergartens on the petition of the parents or guardians of at least twenty-five children of kindergarten age, and authorizing school boards to levy a special tax of two mills in their respective districts for the support of such kindergartens.

(21) Enacting various measures relating to the finances of public schools, providing for increased revenues, and enlarging the powers of local boards in relation thereto.

(22) Providing for the attendance upon public schools of orphans and children who live in homes or institutions, and providing for the payment of their tuition.

(23) Providing sufficient increased revenues for the proper organization of the state department of public instruction.

NEVER DRUG A CLOGGED LIVER—IT ONLY NEEDS CLEANSING

A sluggish, congested liver is always made worse by frequent dosings with strong cathartic drugs. This weakens, irritates the liver and bowels to temporary, violent and convulsive action, only to have them break and move, like whipping a tired horse. Instead, use something more natural and lasting. Try the pleasant-tasting medicinal drink produced by dissolving Alkaid Saltrates (powder form) in plain water. Eminent medical men, after subjecting this treatment to the most thorough tests, have pronounced it to be the equal of any ever perfected for cleansing, stimulating, and regulating the liver. Similar both in composition and effects to the medicinal water of famous hot springs. All chemists keep Alkaid Saltrates in stock. Get a few ounces today for trial. Its cost is very low. Drink a tumblerful of this medicinal water occasionally and see how easy it is to break the pill habit and rid yourself of biliousness, lassitude, headaches, skin troubles, or any other disorders due to retention of impurities in the system. You can thus enjoy full bodily and mental efficiency at all times.

Goodyear Quality Keeps these fires burning

Goodyear Quality Keeps these wheels turning

During More Than a Decade

FOR OVER TEN YEARS Goodyear Tires have been made in Canada. During all these years Old Christmas-New Year week ever silenced the wonderful machines for a seven-day period. More than five hundred weeks of production record the constant demand for a good product, growing better.

Goodyear quality never stands still. It is being improved constantly.

For instance, Goodyear is producing at New Toronto two new clincher tires—each better for its purpose than anything which has gone before.

The new Goodyear All-weather Tread Clincher (30 x 3 1/2 and 31 x 4) is bigger, tougher, handsomer than even the famous All-weather Tread Tire which has been the most widely used tire in the world.

The new "Goodyear Non-Skid" clincher (30 x 3 1/2) gives full Goodyear quality and mileage to the man who does not need the great gripping power of the All-weather Tread—and saves on the first cost.

These tires were developed by the same manufacturing spirit which produced the Goodyear Cord Tire—the highest development in tire construction—extremely long mileage with a bonus of comfort and fuel economy.

Over 4,000 Canadian dealers recommend Goodyear Tires for just the same reasons that a majority of Canadian motorists use them—long mileage and low cost-per-mile.

On To Calgary and The Women's Council

Into the reveries drifting back to Calgary, comes the steward's first announcement of luncheon, and to the returning council woman comes the knowledge of an early breakfast, and the possibility of that promised fish. Seated opposite a Quebec woman, while waiting for the water, she is aware of a pleasant voice and looking up from the menu finds a dinner companion who is agreeably ready for conversation. The traveller had noticed the tendency of other travellers on this more eastern line to dwell within themselves. Perhaps the shorter journey is not so conducive to introductions of the pullman occupants, or perhaps there is more self-absorption.

What is this life if it falls here, We have no time to stand and stare? No time to stand beneath the boughs And stare as long as sheep and cows.

No time to see in broad daylight Streams full of stars like skies at night, A poor life this if, full of care, We have no time to stand and stare.

So why not the interest in our fellow travellers, in platform occupants, and very tree and flower? The porter has also been reserved, and the few stoppages of the train for any time have offered great opportunity for investigation of the little town's celebrities, or yet pronounced a stroll for platform enjoyment. The Quebec woman had come aboard in the night and, accustomed to summer trips to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, was anticipating a pleasant outing in Cape Breton. She was informative, discursive, and gaily recognized one who was mutually receptive and obvious to acquaintances where there was much in sympathy to discuss. We studied the menu again. It had taken on a new interest to the woman who had spent the forenoon so quietly, the first for over a month, and the decision for the broiled fresh fish was quickly decided, while the threatening attack of ennui was, thank Heaven, averted.

The train passed Rogersville and Harcourt, and the heat of the afternoon became oppressive. A little girl wandered down the aisle and smiled shyly, while the porter and conductor were busy arranging for the transfer of Halifax passengers into an adjoining coach. "This car taken off at Moncton; train goes through to Halifax. Don't forget your bags," and soon the march begins of the travellers through other pullman coaches to these ahead. Moncton will soon be reached, and then will come the change to the St. John train. The St. John members of council realize her long trip will soon be over, that Calgary is six days away, and that over a month has speeded in her absence; that her suit is in need of a vigorous rusting, the porter's whisk in evidence; and her dressing bag and typewriter have been deposited on the precarious platform of the coach, while the passengers who have slept through the afternoon's heat, and the men who scanned important papers have been aroused to the necessity of also being whisked, and put together as the fully originally intended that the perfectly groomed man would be of an afternoon. The Council member, freed from the whisk, which would blissful away in this adjoining section, permits her thoughts to drift again—and this time to the outstanding remarks of Premier Stewart, who had so cordially welcomed the National Council to Calgary. Mr. Stewart had stated that "the work of the National Council women was so active, so enthusiastic, that it was useless to refuse them, when they approached the government with their petitions or suggested amendments to laws which the women thought might stand improved legislation; and that there was direct evidence in the government of the influence of these annual meetings." He stated there is a movement on foot in Alberta to create a better and more cordial understanding between the east and west, which is being greatly helped by encouraging speakers to come from the eastern provinces, and in return westerners are being invited to go east to address meetings; there is, after all, no real difference, but this plan will help to weld us into one harmonious whole.

There is the solution of the problem, that Council women must advocate among its own members; and the councils of the west send their speakers to the councils in the east, and vice versa; arrange for these prominent, clever women, like Judge Murphy (Janey Canuck) to come off to the east; Hon. Mary Ellen Smith, with her broad scope of work in British Columbia; Mrs. Nellie McClung, to tell of the new characters she is weaving into her books, and the life in the west, and its obstacles she so optimistically and courageously surmounts. Let them speak before our Councils, when the men of different active organizations can be invited, and thus create a national spirit for Canadian building, and for Canadian legislation, which will bring a co-operation of work shared equally by men and women. As Mrs. Gordon Wright so admirably expressed it: "Narrow down that line between east and west so small that it cannot be found." And so an echo comes the memory of her message that memorable evening:

"May the Canadian Council of Women have an exalted vision of the great work they can do in even a small part in nation building and national expansion, to which is added the line quoted by Calgary man, but which can be applicable inserted here—

"No pent up Ulica confines our powers, With our ego, time and space, the whole world is ours."

The Council woman of today is alert, national, and comprehensive in her work of building, realizing that a new era has dawned for the betterment of women and children, and that it is true that individually and collectively the influence is felt in the seat of government; that no need ever existed for vulgar promotion of her rights; for as a woman, well poised, clear eyed and unafraid, she has taken her place honored and respected among the men of today, to raise a higher standard, to legislate and to carve out of fresh white marble the future destinies of the nation's children. Mrs. Murphy (Janey Canuck) in her own words thus described her different accomplishments, and pastimes: "Have operated a furnace, a sewing machine, a foreign hired girl, a typewriter, an organ, timber limits, a church bell, farms, coal mines, a Ford car and a Colt gun; preached sermons, marketed grain, cooked thousands of dinners, spirit lingers with her Council women long after the last echoes of its discussion have died away. The gentle, kindly consideration for each member; the thoughtful kindness for each helper, "those who only stand and wait," but also serve; her interest in each detail of the immense work; her infinite patience with the single-track mind of a single-track woman; her fine control of a great ship out upon the great waters of time, sailing through stress of storm and conflict—to this pure souled woman, of wonderful intellect, character, achievement is the affectionate tribute of admiration and respect recorded.

"We rise by the things that are 'neath our feet,
By what we have mastered of good and gain;
By the pride deposited and the passion slain,
And the vanquished ill we hourly meet—

Wings for the angel, but feet for men,
We may borrow the wings to find the way,
We may hope, and resolve, and aspire and pray,
But our feet must rise, or we fall again—
And so into your lives, is wafted the

PROPERTIES SOLD BY PUBLIC AUCTION
The Samuel Creighton property at Silver Falls, consisting of a farm of fifty-seven and one-half acres and three buildings, was sold at auction on Saturday at noon at Chubb's Corner by Auctioneer F. L. Potts to Edward Hogan for the sum of $8,000. The city commissioners made an inspection of this property last week and there was some talk of the city purchasing it as some of the pipes of the city water system run through the property.

The self-contained house at 119 Guilford street, West Side, was withdrawn by Mr. Potts at $2,000. In a chancery sale the freehold property in DeMonts street, West End, was sold by Mr. Potts for $1,400 over a mortgage and interest of $3,100, making the purchase price $4,500. The purchaser was Bowyer S. Smith.

When the window is broken the wires make an electric contact and the show cases immediately fall into a settl recess while the iron shutters are released.

national convalescence, of the western home entertainment, will link up brightly with the today; and the returned Council women will find in gay, bright weavings of these lover memories, a helpfulness and strength of future purpose and action.

Into your hands are placed the completed sheaves of the wayside ferns and flowers, of mountain orchid, of prairie rose, and the straying vines of sweet, odorous purple blossoms gathered along the railroad, on the prairie, mountain slope of Lake Louise. Each in its own tongue will tell the story of humorous pathos of the Council women's message for St. John, of cordial greetings to its city's mayor, and of Canada's women's parliament, whose members are inspired only by the highest ideals of a noble, blessed womanhood; speech making in its effects for the Canada for which they stand on guard.

A tribute to Mrs. Sanford, National Council president, who in September sailed for Europe to attend the executive of the International Council in Geneva; the League of Nations, and to bring before the women of the countries she is enabled to visit the need of a world peace. As the writer of "Janey Canuck in the West," "Seeds of Pine," and "Open Trails," she won distinction as a woman successful in public life, and international distinction as a writer. Today she competes with her husband in the raising of the crops on the large ranch; has the jurisdiction of two justices of the peace presides over three courts any still finding new outlets for her dominant energy and insatiable love of activity. Can any woman accomplish more in the plan of her exalted vision? Yet she impresses you with the feeling of never being in a hurry, of infinite interest in everyone, and of being awake, gloriously awake, to all possibilities of "a life that is true and strong," and a wholesome dream from those wonderful broad prairies with their breath of pure sweet life.

William Beebe, Director of the Tropical Zoological Station which the New York Zoological Society maintains in British Guiana and who has recently returned with a marvelous collection of things zoological which he and his assistants brought together, has wandered far to the north of the equator, and is now in the tropics. Mr. Beebe tells us that he has seen a snake in the Palisades which he says is the most venomous he has ever seen.

What the elephant is to the African jungles this serpent is to the Guiana wilderness. He fears nothing, save one thing, hunting ants, before which all the world flees, and this was the first bushmaster of the rainy season.

"Already the light was falling, and we left Jeremiah guard the serpent while we hurried for gun, snake pole and canvas bag. As we arrived at the top of the slope on our return we heard a terrible Red Indian yell and saw our Akawai hunter dancing excitedly about it.

"Snake, he move," he called.

"As we came up he tremulously led me along a fallen tree and pointed to a quantity of dead leaves. I well know the color and pattern of a bushmaster. I have had them brought to me dead. I have killed them myself, and I had seen them in their cages behind glass; but now, though I was thinking bushmaster and looking bushmaster, my eyes instinct-
