Rests With Czar Whether There Shall Be General War Among Nations of Europe; So Far Still Slight Hope For Peace

Russia and Germany Placing Troops At Vantage Points

England Sends Fleet To Sea From Portland

Stock Market Demoralized in Early Day, With Some Failures, But Some Improvement Comes Later—So Far No News of Active Fighting by Austrians and Servians

London, July 29—Peace or war for Europe depends today on the decision of one man—the Czar of Russia. His foreign minister has declared that Russia will attack Austria if the invasion of Serbia is begun. Peacemakers have not yet given up hope, though the outlook is the blackest.

Partial mobilization of the Russian troops in the Southern and Southwestern districts, was ordered by the Russian war office last night, according to despatches received here. It is argued in official circles that, although the action dangerously diminishes the chance of maintaining European peace, it does not necessarily imply a rupture of relations between Austria-Hungary and Russia. The hope is expressed that some European power may succeed in bringing about an understanding between these two states.

BRITISH FLEET TO NORTH SEA

Portland, Eng., July 29—The British fleet sailed from here today for an unknown destination. No information could be obtained from naval officials as to the movements of the war vessels.

The destination is believed to be the North Sea. All patients were removed from the ship hospitals before the departure of the fleet. Admiral Callaghan is in command.

RUSSIA AND GERMANY PLACE TROOPS AT VANTAGE POINTS

Berlin, July 29—Military activity on the Russian side of the frontier is veering today to the British government. It was said today that no mobilization order had been issued by the Russian war office. Private reports from the Russian frontier say distinct indications of which have been moving forward to occupy such important strategic points on the frontier as Wirbatten, Russian Poland, have been served out with 800 rounds of ammunition a man, while hasty purchases of forage have been made for the cavalry.

Several German regiments have been moved toward the frontier as a precautionary measure. The men wear the new gray service uniforms and carry their field equipment.

There was the most intense activity in diplomatic circles here today; no tangible developments were reported. A French diplomat said he saw some ground for optimism, but the German foreign office declared there was nothing on which to base a judgment one way or the other.

The German Crown Prince arrived at Potsdam today and a family council was held. The Emperor and Empress, the crown prince and the other princes of the imperial family were present. They conferred for an hour.

THE PEACE IS THAT ALL EUROPE WILL BE IN THE FIGHTING

London, July 29—Europe expects war, the date of the peace efforts now being made rests with Czar Nicholas of Russia. This terse summary of the situation that menaces all Europe with a terrible conflict that would involve millions of men and cause billions of dollars loss was given today by a diplomat of one of the greatest powers of the continent. Despatches from all the capitals corroborated his views.

Austria and Serbia are at war. The aim of the powers striving for peace is now directed to localizing their conflict. A special session of the British cabinet was called today by Premier Asquith to decide with what further steps England should take to avert the imminent conflagration. Every member of the premier's official family attended the meeting.

While the cabinet was in session it was learned that the Austrian government had notified the British foreign office that no further consideration would be given to the proposal for an ambassadorial conference. This was the sharpest rebuff that British diplomacy has ever received in its relations with other European powers. But it will not lessen England's efforts to avert a catastrophe. Conversations will be continued with the purpose of localizing the Balkan conflict.

Cancellation of the world peace congress, which was to have been held in Vienna in September, indicates a belief on the part of Austrian officials, who had the arrangements in charge, that their country will be at war at that time. Peace leaders here were astounded by the action taken at Vienna.

Today's War News

The British fleet has put to sea from Portland. Several failures reported in London. Russia still holds off; it means general war if that country intervenes. Liverpool stock exchange closed early for the day. Russia and Germany place regiments on frontier as precaution. No report of actual fighting yet.

Serbia, it was known, was just as active in moving her troops. Strong forces were dispatched to the frontier towns of Valjevo and Lishina on the Bosnian frontier and to Svaljane in the eastern part of the country, while strong divisions of volunteers, reinforced by regulars, were gathered along the river Drina near Bonits on the Bosnian frontier.

The Montenegrins are making preparations and had stationed a brigade with mountain battery near Deljoo. Women were busy there building earthworks.

Serbian and Austrian aviators were flying along the frontiers trying to locate the positions of the opposing forces.

As far as a general European war is concerned, diplomats in London, while they confess the situation to be most grave, consider there is hope of averting a conflict, so long as the Austro-Russian "conversations" continue at St. Petersburg.

Another danger has arisen owing to uneasiness in Germany, due to the preparations being made by Russia along her frontier. It is pointed out that Germany and Austria have the advantage over Russia in being able to mobilize more quickly, and they do not wish to lose this advantage.

CONSOLS LOWEST IN MANY YEARS

Five Failures Reported on London Stock Exchange—The Course of C. P. R.

London, July 29—The seriousness of the European situation was reflected today on the London Stock Exchange, where British consols dropped at one time to 99 1/2, the lowest point reached since the early years of last century. They opened at 71 or 8-4 below yesterday, and then fell to a full point, bringing them down to 99 1/2. A government broker came into the market at this point and commenced buying all the consols he could get at 70 1/2.

Three small failures were reported early in the morning sessions and later on. None was of much importance, but it was feared that more would occur.

Dealers afterward began to do a little business, but sales were effected only after much negotiation.

The transactions in the American section showed the quotation of Canadian Pacific at first to be 161, then rising to 160, and afterwards declining again to 159, as compared with yesterday's closing price of 170 1/2. Southern Railway was quoted seventeen against yesterday's closing price of 18-4, and United States Steel 54 as compared with 58 1/2 at the close yesterday.

A rally in consols late in the afternoon, brought the price back to 71 1/2, and helped a little to cheer the market.

Liverpool, July 29—The stock exchange here suspended operations for the day.

Glasgow, July 29—Two members of the Glasgow stock exchange were "hammered" today.

St. Petersburg, July 29—The bourse here was closed today and probably will not open until Monday next.

Paris, July 29—Trading on the bourse was at a standstill today. Brokers refused to make any prices.

Break in Wheat.

Chicago, Ill., July 29—Instead of advancing, as most traders expected, the wheat market today made a startling break at the opening. First prices were down more than two cents a bushel.

ANOTHER ARREST IN RIOT CASE

Wm. Chambers, Is Taken This Morning on Warrant

DETECTIVE ON STAND

Gives Evidence of Thursday Night's Disorder, to be Placed Before Grand Jury—Charges Now Against Four Men

William Chambers, twenty-nine years of age, was arrested between three and four o'clock this morning by Sergeant Scott, Policeman William Gibbs, James McNamee and James Power, and was before the court charged with riotous conduct. Chambers is an Englishman. He was arrested on a warrant issued against him on the police books, reading: "That he with divers other persons, to the number of at least one hundred, riotously and in a manner causing reasonable fear of a tumultuous disturbance of the peace, did assemble together, and having so assembled together, did then and there with a great noise and thereby began and continued to disturb the peace tumultuously against the form of the statute."

A general preliminary examination was begun in the police court this morning in the charges against William Edgerton, Thomas Shannon, William Chambers and William Brown, charged with riotous conduct on last Thursday night. Detective Killen was called as a witness to give evidence to be placed before the grand jury. He said he was in a store in Dock street when he heard shouting and looking out, saw a car following with a crowd following. He saw it turn the corner to Market Square and stop and go ahead twice. He saw a crowd of men, some of whom he afterwards saw Sergeant Scott and Policeman Sullivan. He saw a crowd of men, some of whom he afterwards saw Sergeant Scott and Policeman Sullivan. He saw a crowd of men, some of whom he afterwards saw Sergeant Scott and Policeman Sullivan.

He is wildly excited as a result of the phenomenal rise in American rates. The quotation for October rose ten cents per cent.

Montreal, July 29—The financial situation was considered more optimistic here by brokers this morning. Several were frank in saying that they believed, however, owing to the closing of the exchange yesterday, it is unadvisable in their loans in New York to support brokers here if the necessity arises.

Trying to Localize Conflict.

Vienna, July 29—Germany and Italy today continued their efforts to localize the war, and the efforts of all the European diplomats are being directed toward territorial expansion at the expense of the Balkan state.

When the British ambassador called on Count Von Berchtold yesterday to submit the mediation proposal of Sir James Bryce, he was informed that the good intentions of Great Britain were appreciated, but that war had already been declared. Despatches from Warsaw, Poland, report that several magazines exploded in that city on Monday.

Excitement in Russia's Capital.

St. Petersburg, July 29—Great patriotic demonstrations took place among the populace of St. Petersburg and Moscow today. It was announced that in Yalta and the surrounding districts in the Crimea, a modified form of martial law had been proclaimed.

Berlin, July 29—The "Kreuz Zeitung's" Koenigsbauele correspondent says that orders have been issued in the Russian Polish industrial district to impound all horses suitable for military work.

A Peace Protest.

Brussels, Belgium, July 29—The International Peace Association at the request of the American delegates here, has called a meeting for next Friday. As a protest against the warlike action of Austria, the association has decided to hold the meeting place of the Universal Peace Congress in September from Vienna to Bern.

In the United States

Washington, D. C., July 29—President Wilson kept closely informed of the war situation in Europe today. It was the belief of the officials close to the president that, although prices of food stuffs might go up in this country, general business conditions in the demands from American products, would offset this.

Order Cool in States.

New York, July 29—The principal European powers likely to be involved in the Austro-Serbian war have placed their country for the moment in a state of readiness for the war. The possible liability of Germany, Austria, Italy and France being shut off from the Welsh

Says Hon. Mr. McLeod Was Paid To Influence Arbitration

Counsel For Mr. Dugal Offers to Submit Evidence of Books and Witness to Show That Member of Government Approached Judge and Prospective Arbitrator—Whisky Bottle Figures in Story of Right of Way Negotiations

That a member of the provincial government was employed by the Valley railway to endeavor to persuade a judge of a New Brunswick court, whom Carvell said hadly that the company obtained right of way for little or nothing, and that he had gone to Mr. Holland and told him that he could have the appointment if he would promise that his award should not be larger than the amount offered by the company. Mr. Carvell intimated that the effect was unsuccessful.

The right of way negotiations furnished other interesting evidence this morning. A whisky bottle figured prominently in the negotiations, and Mr. Carvell said hadly that the company obtained right of way for little or nothing, and that he had gone to Mr. Holland and told him that he could have the appointment if he would promise that his award should not be larger than the amount offered by the company. Mr. Carvell intimated that the effect was unsuccessful.

Mr. Howard is a director of the railway company and, with the company's minute book before him, he told how the first directors qualified the proceeds of the organization meeting showed a resolution as purchased from five men a right to purchase electric power at a fixed rate from one of Mr. Gould's companies. The price was $25,000, and was settled by the transfer of the stock to these men, who were then elected directors.

One of the witnesses this afternoon probably will be J. N. W. Winslow, of Woodstock. Mr. Howard gave evidence this morning that Mr. Winslow received $1,000 for his assistance in settling right of way cases, although the witness said that the cases in which Mr. Winslow interested himself cost the company more than they would without his help.

The commission resumed at ten o'clock in Charles K. Howard, right of way agent for the Valley Railway, again took the stand and Mr. Carvell resumed his examination.

Mr. Howard submitted a revised estimate of the additional amount required to complete the purchase of right of way as follows: District D, $4,371.10; District C, 10,988.10; District B, 28,234.10; Through Fredericton, 20,000.00. Total, $63,583.30.

His figures for Fredericton were purely estimates, but the others were based on agreements made and comparisons with similar lands already purchased. He had not included the costs, but the figures might be large enough to include them.

In district B he had reached agreements with H. Rowan, Parker Glaser, Wm. F. McLaughlin, Thos. McDonough, Patrick McDonough, Basil B. Ross, Charles Turner, Weston estate and James West. The balance of the settlements being $2,933. The balance, $2,934.25, was paid on October 20. The land included five or six acres.

Continuing the witness said there were fifteen cases involving almost thirty acres in district C. In district D there were only five cases, involving about thirty-three acres, still unsettled.

Voucher 1288 was produced to show a payment, on May 16, 1914, to the Brunswick and British Colonization Company on account of purchase of the Sully Grove property, Fredericton. This was signed by T. Albert Linton for the company. The next payment, on October 7, of $500, was signed for by Thomas Nagle. The balance, $2,934.25, was paid on October 20. The land included five or six acres.

LOCAL STOCK NEWS

The slump in the stock market, following the outbreak of war in Europe, has been watched with interest by local investors, but fortunately there is but little actual financial interest here in the situation.

As usual the long interests predominate over the shorts around here, but they are not particularly heavy at this time. The chief stock held in St. John affected by the war to any extent is C. P. R. and some losses have been made and settled for on this stock. Other holders continue to hold in hope of a revival, and a small short interest has benefited by the slump.

Canadian securities held here have not been seriously affected as yet, and so far the losses sustained have not been great. The closing of the Montreal and Toronto stock exchange has helped to prevent any spread of anything resembling a panic.

Lord Dunraven's Life - Sportsman, Politician, War Correspondent - Has No Son to Whom to Leave Estate

(Copyright, 1914, by the Brentwood Company)

Lord Dunraven's new book, entitled "Canadian Nights," and containing reminiscences of his life, and of his sport in the Rocky Mountains, serves to recall his other book, "The Great Divide and the Upper Yellowstone," and incidentally a very gifted peer, who, until a quarrel in which he became involved in New York on the occasion of his last attempt to lift the America Cup, with his yacht Valkyrie, was accounted as the greatest cricketer in England on the subject of everything American, as the chief representative in parliament of American interests, and as so great a champion of American ways and conditions, that he used to be denounced as a "Yankomaniac."

Lord Dunraven years ago spent much of his time in the United States and Canada and had large sums of money invested on this side of the Atlantic. Among other things in a 10,000 acre ranch in Colorado, known as Estes Park, some seventy eight miles from Denver. He imported a lot of Hereford cattle, prize sheep pigs and poultry, built a mansion, stable and cottages there, established a game preserve, and started breeding horses and cattle on extensive lines. From 1878 on, when he purchased the property, until the latter part of the eighties, he was a yearly visitor to Estes Park, bringing with him large parties of friends and relatives, among them Lady Maude Ogilvy, daughter of the seventh Earl of Airlie, and whose wedding to the late Theodore Whyte, an Englishman in the ranching business in Colorado, took place in Lord Dunraven's chapel on the Estes Park property.

As an investment the Estes Park ranch was not a success. A considerable amount of popular feeling was aroused by the notion of a British lord turning one of the fairest spots in Colorado into a private hunting patch. Pressure was brought to bear by the government, where over, there were constant controversies between the lord and the settlers in the neighborhood, who regarded the earl's advent as an intrusion, and who placed every conceivable obstacle in his way, even going so far as to wage an unprofitable warfare upon his agents and employees.

Finally Lord Dunraven became wearied of the treatment which he received, and endeavored to turn over his interests to a joint stock company, of which Lord Barrymore was one of the principal stock holders. Hotels were built at various points on the estates, the company being capitalized at $400,000. But it never yielded a dividend, and Lord Dunraven, having retained possession thereof, was glad, after his last race for the America Cup to be rid of the entire affair, and he sold the estates, manors, cottages, stables, and every piece of cattle, for the enormous sum of $300,000, his entire investment in the Estes Park estate becoming therefore a complete loss.

Lord Dunraven is an Irishman through and through, and has all the realisms of his race. His character has been summed up in a paradoxical remark by a friend, to the effect that, "he is never so completely at home as when he is as far from home as he can get." At Oxford when he is quite at sea. At Oxford he afterwards while a lieutenant of the 1st Life Guards, he was named as a stepchild of the staff of Field Marshal Lord Raglan or to the force with which that commander, layard and system, in 1887, he joined the expedition as special correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph, sharing his tent during that campaign with the late Sir Henry Stanley, afterwards a famous African explorer, who was reporting the war for the New York Herald.

Old Cumberland Families
(Concluded from yesterday's Times)
His son Charles Henry Chandler, soon after the death of his father, then about twenty years old, went to Europe to get the claims of the estate allowed. He took what evidences of the losses of the family he could find. But they had mostly been lost in the wreck. Charles H. Chandler remained in England a year, trying to get a hearing and to get the claims allowed. The commissioners at last said to him "We know your father, Joshua Chandler, was wealthy and had large and just claims, but we do not know how much, and there is no proof of it. We will allow you each, Mrs. Thomas, Samuel and Charles H. Chandler, $1,000."
William piloted Gov. Tryon and his royal forces into New Haven, 8th July 1779, when that city was sacked. But he personally, it is said, interposed and saved the life of the President of the College, Rev. Nathaniel Dageset, who, armed with a musket, had rushed to oppose the invaders. For his torjism he was roughly handled by the infuriated whigs. He was captain of the Royal Army. He retired with his father's family July 6, 1779 to Long Island and in 1788 to Nova Scotia. He was with his father when they crossed the Bay of Fundy and when the vessel in the snowstorm, struck the rocks at Musquash Point, and jumped in, tied about his waist, and jumped in, order to reach the shore, but was crushed between the vessel and the rocks on that fatal 9th of March, 1787.
Other Descendants of Colonel Joshua Chandler
(1) Elizabeth, perished at Musquash, St. John.
(2) Sarah, married Amos (Speaker) Botsford.
(3) William, born 1758, perished at Musquash.
(4) Thomas Chandler, a barrister of Nova Scotia, dying at Pictou while attending circuit, aged 61 years. He married Elizabeth Grant, a daughter of an officer in the 48th Regiment, who was killed at the battle of Fort Montgomery.
Her sister Lucy was mother of Thomas Chandler Halliburton (Sam Slick).
Their daughter—Ann—married Silas H. Crane of Economy, N. S. Mr. Chandler had also been an officer in his youth in the British service and retired at half pay to study law. He was a man of splendid talents and was successful at the bar as well as in the legislature.
(5) Mary, who married Col. Judge Upham, of Hampton, N. B. The latter was a Loyalist, attained the rank of one of dragons in the British service; in 1781. He was Deputy Inspector of Her Majesty's Militia, N. Y. At the organization of the government of New Brunswick in 1784; he was appointed member of the Council and Judge of the Supreme Court. Amongst their children were Katherine, N. B.; Charles Wentworth Upham, who was first an officer in the British Navy; then a Congregational minister at Salem, Mass.; then for years, a member of the Massachusetts State Legislature, then President of the Senate and then Member of 89th Congress. He also published historic books.
Another descendant—Francis Chandler Upham—married John Wesley Weldon, the father of the late Charles W. Weldon, M. P. leader of the Liberal party in New Brunswick.
(6) Col. Samuel Chandler married Susan Watson, daughter of Sheriff Thomas Watson, who was Sheriff of Cumberland for forty-five years. Col. Chandler represented Colechester in the Nova Scotia Assembly. His married children were—
(1) Jane, who married Isaac Rhinfield.
(2) Mary, who married Thomas King, of Cumberland.
(3) Elizabeth, who married William Hewson, of Cumberland.
(4) Catherine, who married David McElroy, of Fort Lawrence.
(5) Hon. James W. who represented Charlotte County in the New Brunswick Assembly for many years and was later Judge of the County Court of Westmorland.
Possibly no family filled a larger number of important posts during the first hundred years of maritime province history than the Chandler family.

LOCAL NEWS
A pleasant outing was spent at Ketepec last evening by the office staff of T. H. Estabrook. After a delightful supper served by the ladies of the staff, a purse of gold was presented to Miss Edith E. Barker on the occasion of her departure after an association with the company for about seven years. The party concluded with an inopportune dance.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 29, 1914.

WHY WAIT?

The Hon. James Kidd Flemming is still Premier of the province of New Brunswick.

This is the Mr. Flemming to whom Contractor Kennedy swore yesterday that he paid him personally $2,000, the Premier having demanded the money and having come next day to get it.

This is the Mr. Flemming who told Mr. Blankley that anything Berry told him about Teed would be "all right."

During the last few days there has been revealed before the Royal Commission an apparent plan under which great sums of money were to be absorbed by those who control the financing and the construction of the Valley railway.

In essence, the government was making Mr. Gould a present of the railway, and paying him something like half a million for his kindness in coming over from Maine to help us out.

Yet the Flemming party—not only Mr. Flemming, but everyone of his ministers and supporters—stood up in the House and forced through an extra bond issue of $2,000,000, ostensibly for assuring the people of this province that everything was proper and above board.

To think that anyone of these men can escape responsibility now—the full measure of responsibility—is an insult to the common sense and common honesty of the people at large.

How long is His Honor the Lieutenant Governor going to permit New Brunswick to be ruled by the present government? That is the question on the lips of everybody today.

THE COMING WAR.

The war situation this morning appears to hang upon the action of Russia. That is to say, if the Bear throws his long sword into the Serbian scale all Europe will be involved in a Titanic conflict, Great Britain and France, as the allies of the Bear, being thus drawn into the conflict.

The further Mr. Cavell goes, the more plainly is shown that Mr. Dugal, in his sturdy stand for honesty and propriety in the conduct of New Brunswick's affairs has done his province yeoman service.

A government member is said to have pronounced his opinion yesterday that Premier Flemming must go. That is not a debatable matter. But there is more. The government must shoulder its burden of responsibility. The people must be given opportunity to pronounce on the iniquitous conduct of their affairs.

It has taken a long time for the world's business to recover, even partially from the disastrous effects of the little Balkan war. One fears to think what may be the conditions before the present trouble ends.

Meanwhile Shamrock IV. is steadily measuring the distance between Falmouth and Sandy Hook, and even the ferocious clash of armed nations will not lessen popular interest as the plucky Lipton's hand draws nearer to the America's Cup.

"Kennedy swore he made payments to get party funds"—That is the Standard's heading over the report of yesterday afternoon's session of the Dugal inquiry. Seems there was something in Mr. Kennedy's evidence about a payment of $2,000 he himself made to the premier into Mr. Flemming's own hands. The Standard does not publish the picture of its idol today either.

The spread of gambling among the English people, both men and women, is causing serious and growing concern. No measures have yet been devised to stop it, and it is rapidly becoming more of a menace. On all big races practically everybody, from the newsworthy on the street to the peer in his motor, has something on his favorite horse, and even on the everyday race an immense amount in the aggregate is wagered.

In Germany 82.1 per cent are Protestants, 9.6 per cent Catholics and 10 per cent are Jews.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR--A CLEAN, COOL SCALP

Use Parisian Sage. It Makes the Hair Soft, Wavy, Abundant--Cleanses and Invigorates the Scalp.

It is needless for you to have hair that is anything short of perfect; if it is falling out, losing color, splitting, or if the scalp burns and itches, immediately get from your druggist a 50-cent bottle of Parisian Sage--use it frequently--the first application removes dandruff, invigorates the scalp, and beautifies the hair until it is gloriously radiant.

Parisian Sage supplies hair needs. It is perfectly harmless. It contains the exact elements required to make the hair soft, wavy, glossy, and to make it grow thick and beautiful.

You will surely like Parisian Sage. It is one of the best and most delightful hair tonics known and is always sold with agreement to refund the money if you are not satisfied.

far the tentacles of the system of bribery planned by these manipulators extend. Many politicians are hoping to escape detection in complicity with graft by taking care to appear ignorant of facts they were glad to permit; but no honest voter can escape the conviction that corruption has saturated the whole of department life in a shameless and sordid way.

If the embarrassment of this situation drives the party to consider and to correct the extreme dishonesty of the parties by which, to win elections, they would attach the stigma of disloyalty to half the people of the country, it will be the first step toward recovery. It is a striking object lesson of the results of seeking to win power by dishonest and hypocritical professions--knowing them to be such. The task of seeking to lead their fellows into a higher patriotism is too onerous for the Conservative party.

It is in a better condition at present to teach the people to delve in dirty clay. They are thoroughly desirous of continuing part and parcel of the British Empire, and although most undoubtedly anxious to cultivate friendly relations with the United States as far as practicable, they have no wish to be incorporated with that power. If the Tories become vigilant and careful in the common place things of everyday honesty, and watch with fidelity over the well-being of the country, the loyalty of the people may safely be left to look after itself.

If the party arrives at even a small measure of integrity and efficiency all would feel that even its patriotism had been improved.

St. John bids a hearty welcome to Bermuda's governor, Lieutenant General Sir George Balfour.

More than ever today, the New Brunswick M. P. P.'s will regret not taking advice when urged to withhold that $2,000,000 vote until after Mr. Dugal's charges were investigated. If only one of the 40 had done so, in how strong a position would he be today.

The further Mr. Cavell goes, the more plainly is shown that Mr. Dugal, in his sturdy stand for honesty and propriety in the conduct of New Brunswick's affairs has done his province yeoman service.

A government member is said to have pronounced his opinion yesterday that Premier Flemming must go. That is not a debatable matter. But there is more. Sandy's Reply. A Scotman and an Englishman were engaged in a heated argument, in the midst of which the Englishman said, "Can you tell me why a Scotman who comes to London is like a ship that is lost?"

The Scotman gave it up. "Well," said the Englishman, "the never returns."

"After some thought the Englishman said to confess he could not. "Well," said Sandy, "neither can I!"

Henry Peck—"Do you think you can make a good portrait of my wife?" Mr. Brushaway—"My friend, I can make it so lifelike you'll jump every time you see her."

"What is it?" inquired the Sunday-school superintendent, "that causes us to stumble and fall by the way?" "The hobble skirt, sir," replied a fair member of the class.

Clergyman (indignantly)--"You say that you haven't anything to be thankful for? Why, look at your neighbor, Hayes; he has just lost his wife by influenza."

Burke--"But that don't do me any good; I ain't Hayes."

Where Shall I Invest My Money?

This is a question that often bothers us when we have any surplus money. Some people are born rich and do not have to provide for independence, others are looking for investments that will bring them in good dividends. The Silver Black Fox Industry in P. E. Island has made thousands of investors wealthy. In 1913 alone, 30 companies paid to their shareholders an average cash dividend of 105 p. c. Is there any other industry that would do this? 1914 dividends will be even greater than before. Now is the time to invest. Send in your application today to the St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Co, Ltd. Head Office--Charlottetown, P. E. Island

Foxes Capitalized at $17,000 PER ANNUM

This capitalization included all expenses for the first year up to September 1, 1913. In other words, the breeding stock will be ranch, cared for, fed and all expenses paid for the first year without any cost whatever to the shareholders. Instead of paying the 10 per cent to $3 1-8 per cent, increase charge paid to most ranches this money will go directly into the pocket of the investor.

Your Investment is Protected

Each director is placing practically all his fox investments in this enterprise and the directors have their interests so involved in this ranch that they cannot afford to let their interest and watchful care lapse for a moment. The best breeding stock has been secured and one of the strongest, safest and most convenient ranches yet established is being erected and equipped.

Directors ARE Reliable Men

This is a most important feature when you consider that these are the men that you must look to for a square deal. Read the list over carefully and you will certainly conclude that an investment here is as safe with better prospects than money in the bank. This Company has only a limited amount of stock for sale. Secure yours today. This is a gilt-edged proposition.

Drumming Up Business

WHEN the hot weather comes, wise business men will add to their selling efforts rather than reduce them.

They will do extraordinary things to stimulate trade, and will make their offerings exceptionally attractive as to both kind and price.

The merchants of this community whose business will keep up this summer will solicit business in the most expeditious and least expensive of all known methods. Advertising is a drum, an instrument of attention and incentive; a resonant thing that calls to action.

Buyers wait on the call of advertising to spend their money. They look for the summons to them in the columns of their newspapers. The newspaper is the instructor and director of the public. For a merchant to shut his eyes to this fact is costly blindness.

Tell the public of this community about your offerings and service for the summer months. Tempt them in various ways. They have as much money to spend in summer as at other times, and are willing to spend, but they must be shown what to spend on and for.

The supreme medium of appeal is the daily newspaper.

You can obtain helpful advice on advertising free of cost and without obligation by consulting the Advertising Department of The Telegraph and Times.

FREE OUT SERVICE with a view to greater co-operation with advertisers a free cut service is maintained in the Advertising Department of The Telegraph and Times. The illustrations from which the cuts are made are the work of the best commercial artists. The subjects covered include all lines of merchandise for retail or general advertising.

BOY FROM FREDERICTON Chief John McCollum, of the Fredericton police force, arrived in the city this morning with a prisoner for the boy's industrial home. He is a young lad named Allan Smith who was yesterday sentenced to two years for the theft of $12.50. He was taken to the home this afternoon.

THE CAR SERVICE LOCAL NEWS

Vigorous complaints are being made concerning the street car service in the North End. So unreliable and unsatisfactory, they claim, was the service that many have been known to be able to walk from King street to Indian town without a car passing them the way there, and that this is so is even admitted by the St. John Railway Co. H. M. Hopper, general manager, when asked regarding the service this morning said that the company were doing everything possible to improve it, but with both tracks open at the foot of Main street it was most difficult to do any better.

Regarding the fact that only one car had been in use between Douglas avenue and Bridge street he said that he would look into this as he had understood that it had been making satisfactory connections with cars from the city. The fact that the crew on the working on both tracks obstructed the line, he said, though it was really against the wishes of the company that this was done. They would have worked on only one side at one time and if this were done he thought the service could be greatly improved, and as satisfactory progress made on the job.

It is a pity that such work cannot be started earlier in the season, before the heavy traffic to North End in the boating season begins to bring about the railway company cannot be held accountable. We have offered free light to the city for the working of night cars in order to expedite the work and are giving the best service possible under the circumstances with tracks lying open at the same time.

There is much feeling throughout the North End over the service being given. Apparently a sufficiently large crew is at work, and a night gang is engaged, but with possible three trucks or more for the work to proceed, the prospect for improvement in the accommodation is discouraging. Going from the city to Indian town is certainly by easy stages. There is first a half-mile at Paradise street, and then the cars to pass from the north, and after a stay of from five to ten minutes and sometimes more, there, on reaching Douglas avenue there is another stopover. With a transfer a change is made to the car from Bridge street when it arrives, though at times last night through trips were made.

Berlin, July 29.—The "North German Gazette," the official organ of the German government, has published in its evening edition the following:—The peaceful tone of the official Russian press is decreasing. Going back a lively echo here. The Imperial German government shares the wish of Russia for peace, but it is not in relations and it hopes the German people will support it by maintaining a moderate tone in their press. Vienna, July 29.—All Servians liable for military service in Austria-Hungary are being called up to the military as prisoners of war. Important. Paris, July 29.—The "Temps" says "Russia was officially informed about half past twelve this afternoon that Austria-Hungary had accepted the integrity of Serbia and wishes even to abstain from occupying Belgrade, the Serbian capital."

WAR NOTES Noted French aviators have offered the services to France. The Austro-Hungarian in the United States are being notified to be ready to go home to take arms. The Belgian army is being called today to call out immediately three classes of army reserves. Socialist anti-war demonstrations in Stuttgart, Germany, led to serious collisions between the manifestants and the police. The troops were called out.

LOCAL PRODUCE AND THE WAR Local wholesale dealers are expecting a drop in the price of many of their staple products. The belief is that the higher the price of wheat, the higher the price of flour. The war has prolonged sugar will be one of the chief articles influenced. The flour market at present is quite unsettled. A drop of fifteen cents in the price of flour in Ontario patents, but though there is more than the average Ontario patents just now, it is not expected that the former will be affected. A. The Colwell Fur Farms Ltd. adopt the most improved methods, the losses experienced by the first Prince Edward Island ranchers will not be suffered by them, and as the animals can be bought many times lower than the eastern markets, the profits should eclipse that of eastern companies; and by reason of a constant and ample supply of fresh stock the opportunity for the selective breeding of fox, mink, marten and other fur-bearing animals is a most valuable and profitable asset, which eastern ranchers can never enjoy.

Contractor Kennedy Tells of Paying $2,000 To Premier Flemming

ANOTHER SENSATION AT DUGAL INQUIRY
Witness Swears Premier Asked for Money and He Gave Him $2,000 In Cash—For "Campaign Funds" Again the Defence—Right of Way Agent Testifies

John Kennedy, of Kennedy & MacDonald, contractors on the Valley railway, swore yesterday at the Dugal inquiry that he had paid $2,000 to Premier Flemming personally. He testified that the premier came to his office in Woodstock and asked for the money and came back the next day to get it. Mr. Kennedy left for Boston after he had been subpoenaed and returned unwillingly after another subpoena had been served on him in Nova Scotia. He is the same John Kennedy whose name Hon. Mr. Flemming could not recall when he was on the stand.

The only other witness at the afternoon session was Charles K. Howard, right of way agent for the railway who gave details of the various transactions.

When the afternoon session was opened R. D. Hoban again took the stand to say that the item of $14,600 for interest mentioned during the morning, should have been included in the cost of the road.

Mr. Teed had some other questions to ask, but could not proceed until the witness has completed the preparation of certain statements and so Mr. Hoban was allowed to stand aside.

John Kennedy, of Kennedy & MacDonald, railway contractors, was sworn and examined by Mr. Carvell.

Q—How long have you been in the contracting business?
A—Thirteen years with MacDonald, all my life besides.

Q—You have a contract on the Valley road?
A—Yes, from Centreville to Woodstock and a contract for ballasting and train-filling in the Hibbard contract.

Q—When did you take the second contract?
A—About September, 1912.

Q—When did you take the first contract?
A—About May, 1912.

Q—Who did you arrange with about getting the contract?
A—Mr. Thompson at Fredericton.

Q—Did you have any talk with Mr. Flemming?
A—No, sir.

Q—Did you have any talk with Mr. Flemming before you got your contract?
A—I had some talk with him.

Q—About the contract?
A—Not that I remember.

Q—Who is your partner?
A—Alex. MacDonald.

Q—Did he talk to Mr. Flemming?
A—Yes.

Q—About the contract?
A—I don't know.

Q—Was there any talk to you about money?
A—No.

Q—Any promise that you would pay money?
A—Not that I remember.

Mr. Teed objected.

Q—Did you have any talk with Mr. Flemming about money?
A—Yes, but the question should be limited to something more definite.

Q—Did you have a talk with Mr. Flemming before you got the second contract in September, 1912?
A—Yes.

Q—Tell us about it?
The Premier's Suggestion.

A—Mr. Flemming came and said: "You ought to help us along with some money." I said I was not doing much, but to come along the next day and I would see what I could do.

Q—Did he not tell you that he would send Mr. Teed over?
A—I don't remember.

Q—Did you not tell Mr. Flemming that you would do business with nobody but him?
A—I may have.

Q—Did he come again?
A—Yes, to my office.

Q—Where was the office? Woodstock?
A—Yes.

Q—Was anything said or done?
A—I told him that was all I could spare.

Q—What could you afford to spare?
A—Yes.

Q—How much was it?
A—About $2,000. I never counted it.

Q—Now tell us what you did?
A—I told my bookkeeper to get $2,000 out of the bank.

Q—Of the bank?
A—Dundas MacDonald.

Q—Did he bring back a package?
A—Yes.

Q—And brought to you what he had?

Q—Did he bring to you what he had?
A—No, I don't know what it was?

Q—Did he tell you that he had left to MacDonald's? I think he left to go to MacDonald's?
A—I don't know.

Q—How did you know it was enough to go into his room?
A—I think it was a... (laughter) room or did he tell you to leave it in his room?
A—I do not know.

Q—How did you know it was enough to go into his room?
A—At the time you paid this money...

H. L. McGowan presented a claim for commission for the sale of the city's property at Green Head. He asked five per cent of the purchase price and was substantiated in his claim by ex-aldermen McGoldrick, Spoon and Vanwart all of whom said they understood the time that Mr. McGowan was to be paid. Commissioners Russell and Wigmore thought the same and the matter was left in the hands of the mayor and recorder to bring a recommendation to the council.

Mayor Frink told of his activities on the night of the riot and said he hoped the men connected with the disgraceful actions would be brought to justice. No action was taken by the council. His Worship said he did not anticipate trouble but, when he saw a disorderly crowd, he read the riot act. The mayor said that if St. John's were to suffer a prosperous city, there must be punishment for crime, and hoped that a lesson might be learned from the affair.

Q—That is the way I understand it.
A—If I suppose in your time you have often made contributions to campaign funds?
A—Not very often.
Q—But sometimes.
A—I suppose so.
Q—No matter what government was in power?
A—Perhaps not.
Q—You have contributed to Liberal as well as to Conservative campaign funds?
A—Very little.
Q—You spoke about seeing Mr. Flemming when you went back to Woodstock, that about beginning the second contract?
A—Yes.
Q—Have you a contract about Centreville?
A—No.

Q—Did you have your contract and were at work on it?
A—Yes.
Q—At that time you had no knowledge or expectation of getting the second contract?
A—No.
Q—You got the second contract from the Hibbards, guaranteed by the railway company?
A—I got it from Mr. Gould and Mr. Thompson.
Q—There was an election on at this time?
A—No.
Q—And the money was for campaign purposes?
A—No.

William Wallace—Scotland's Great Patriot

FOR nearly seven hundred years the sons and daughters of Scotland have revered the memory of Wallace. It is not too much to say that this will continue for seventy times seven hundred years. When but a youth the love of Personal and National Liberty burned so fiercely in the breast of Wallace that he revolted against England's tyrannous rule. At the head of his gallant band of riders he won skirmish after skirmish, and finally, at the opportune time, quickly organized an army and routed the English at Stirling Bridge. William Wallace admired a good Barley-Malt brew just as do the Scotchmen of to-day. Prohibition has ever been a detestable word to the Scotch people. They will not have it enter into their private lives, and the Scotch vote is always registered by a large majority against such sumptuary legislation. In America they have done much to build up the country. Thousands of our solid Scotch citizens are patrons of the honest brews of Anheuser-Busch and have been constant users of BUDWEISER. They have helped to make the annual sales of this world-famed brand exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles.

Charles K. Howard, right of way agent, was summoned and examined by Mr. Carvell.

Witness said that the solicitors who had sided in the right of way work included:

A—J. C. Hartley, of Woodstock; J. R. Dunn, Gagetown; Percy A. Guthrie, Fredericton; H. F. McLeod, Fredericton, and D. K. Hazen, St. John, S. M. L. Hayward, Hartland and J. N. W. Winslow, Woodstock.

He estimated that it would take $38,000 to complete the purchase of the right of way between Centreville and Gagetown.

Following Mr. Kennedy's evidence there was some cross firing between counsel and Mr. Carvell made the statement that he had never received a dollar of assistance from any campaign fund in his life.

Your Manly Strength "Nature" Book Free

My Free Offer to Men and Young Men Readers.

My free offer is as follows: There are in existence today numerous creditable books relating to the much discussed sex, and they range in price from $1 to $4, while my offer at given below is a free one.

I publish a little petrie compendium of 72 pages, pocket size, containing 4,000 words and 80 half-tone photo reproductions, which thoroughly covers the subject of sex, but only in its relation to manhood or vital manly vigor. Its legitimate uses its warden abuses, its loss and the causes thereof, its possible self-restoration and its permanent preservation. These are the vital phases of the sex subject which I find to be of most interest to all men, young or elderly, single or married, and I have therefore put into this little self help book the very best that I can offer relating to that particular personal and private advice and information, which my 30 years' practical experience in this field has taught me men must seek, and through which they can get the most real benefit in respect to their own vigor and vital health. This, reader, is the book, and my offer to send it by mail, absolutely free of charge, is a perfectly plain, sealed envelope, to any man or young man anywhere who writes for it (see coupon below), and there is not a particle of obligation of any kind whatsoever involved in making this gift offer to you. Over a million of these books have been thus sent to men all over the world who wrote for them.

The reason why I can offer this illustrated sex book free is that in one part I include a description of a little mechanical vitality of my own invention, which is for use by those of my readers who need some outside aid in the restoration of their manly vigor. However, that is a matter for each person to decide for himself. The book is complete and entirely independent of anything it says with respect to the "vitality." Therefore please use free coupon and get the book by return mail. You will find it a valuable advice in many respects.

A—No. SANDEN, Author.
Vital manhood and an abundant manly vigor is the greatest human asset of our day. Every man is entitled to be perfectly strong, vigorous and capable, just as nature intended he should, and if through the medium of my book I can show you how you yourself may become as vital, manly and forceful as the best man of your acquaintance, then I have merely given you a clear understanding of what nature is herself constantly endeavoring to tell and show you.

As to my vitality, it may or may not be necessary in your own case, but if you want to use it after reading the description, I will gladly make some liberal proposition so you may get one to try. This vitality, weighing only several ounces, is worn all night. It generates a soft, easy flowing FORCE which I call vitality. This FORCE enters your system at the small of the back, flowing thence through the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and organs, and diffusing itself to every part of the body. Over 200,000 random vitality tests are now in use or have recently been used. It keeps up its gentle action while you sleep. Men everywhere have said it makes them feel better and stronger almost at once, that it often takes pain out of the back in a few hours, and 60 to 80 days' time is sufficient to restore normal vigor. With special attachments my vitality is used by women as well as men for rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach, bladder disorders, etc.

If you live in or near this city, would be pleased to have you call. Hours, 9 to 6.

However, whether or not you ever use the vitality, at least you want the free book, so kindly fill in the coupon and the book will go to you, sealed, by return mail.

A Real Flesh Builder For Thin People

Thin men and women—that big, hearty filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all that fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction. Cut out the foolish foods and funny sweetest diets. Omit the flesh cream rub-ons. Cut out everything but the meats you are eating now and eat with every one of those single Sargol tablets. In two weeks note the difference. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay there" fat should be the net result. Sargol charges your weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh, new red blood corpuscles—gives the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food and prepares it for the blood in easily assimilated form. Thin people gain all the way from ten to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol and the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to chemistry. They come forty tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive.

And all druggists in St. John and vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.
