FAMOUS ASTOR HOTEL NOW IN HANDS OF WRECKERS

Liberals of Motherland Endorse Sir Wilfrid

They Fully Appreciate His Stand on The Naval Policy

DOUBT NEED OF MORE SHIPS

Germany Puzzled and Disappointed by Mr. Churchill's Announcement—Canada Quite Right in Taking Time to Decide Its Form of Naval Contributions (Times' Special Cable). London, June 7.—Opinion in the Liberal party is divided on the government's decision to accelerate the construction of three dreadnoughts and the party as a whole is disinclined to find that the step should be thought necessary or expedient.

The speech partly due to the unexpectedness with which Mr. Churchill's statement was received at first has given place to animated disputes. There are two streams of thought, first that which may be described as semi-official, consisting of the views of those cautious moderate Liberals who see telepathically conscious of the responsibilities of office and whose views usually coincide with those held on the ministerial benches.

Lausier Policy Right This view is held in quarters which are convinced that Sir Wilfrid's lausier policy is fundamentally right from all points of view.

The advanced section of liberals which disapproves with the government view, quarrels chiefly with the assumption that three additional ships are required. It is felt that the "emergency" which Mr. Borden's plan was devised to meet, does not exist.

What change has occurred to warrant an increase of the margin which was previously ample? If Mr. Churchill takes refuge in "his other statement that the 'andian ships are not additional to the old build requirements of the empire, but to explain what the party's hurried decision is which have necessitated the acceleration."

The feeling of the British democracy on a naval question has reached a settled state. They decline to be scared or impelled but are absolutely united on maintenance of the naval strength at a security mark. This feeling is well understood in parliament.

The Times gives greatest prominence to a statement that the Nationalists are tensely nervous concerning the fate of the home rule bill on the second reading at week, and announces that the Irish nationalists are preparing for an early election, which they believe inevitable.

While it is true that the Liberal party passing through a difficult period, the prognostications of impending disaster are the expression of Conservative rather than an accurate reading of a political barometer.

The Liberal party is quite determined to see home through, and the extraordinary anti-dust-bins of the stock exchange will defect them from their constitution.

purpose nor will their determination weakened by the further discoveries of Ireland in circumstances highly suggestive of hocus pocus.

After seventy-seven years this famous old hotel in New York is being leveled because a new subway is to pass under the site. It has sheltered kings, princes, and the most distinguished world visitors in New York for three quarters of a century. The head-water for forty-four years was C. Albert Kaufman, shown in the inset picture. He has made unfortunate investments and now, almost broke, is seeking new employment.

EIGHTY HOUSES IN THE JEWISH QUARTER OF PRESSBURG BURNED

One Life Lost, Several Hundred People Hurt and 6,000 Jews Rendered Homeless

Vienna, June 7.—Nearly the whole of the Jewish quarter of Pressburg, the ancient capital of Hungary is in ashes. Eighty houses were destroyed, and 6,000 Jews rendered homeless.

The fire is believed to have commenced in an attic, where a wedding was being celebrated. A gale was blowing at the time, and the fire spread from one house, with its old wooden roof, to adjoining, with great rapidity. Very soon six narrow streets were involved.

So far as is known, only one life—that of a little girl—was lost, but several hundreds of persons were more or less severely injured. The Pressburg ghetto is the oldest in the dual monarchy, and is well known for its picturesque ancient buildings of the fourteenth century.

The Catholic church was also destroyed. After the conflagration had lasted six hours, it was finally quelled with the help of fire engines sent from Vienna by special train.

GOOD CUSTOMER OF UNCLE SAM'S Bulletin Says Canada Buys 65 Per Cent. of Goods in United States

Washington, June 7.—The United States ranks first as a customer to Canada's needs and second as a customer of the northern neighbor's supplies, says a report just completed by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

Canada buys more from this country than from all other combined, having purchased 65 per cent of its goods here last year.

The United States in 1912 took from Canada 38 per cent. of that country's exports. This country today, says the report, takes almost the entire export of Canadian minerals of all kinds, the bulk of its forestry exports, more than half of its manufactures it sends out, and a third of its fishery exports.

In spite of tariff preferences, it adds, Great Britain's share of the Canadian market has steadily declined before the advance of American goods, geography having been too much for tariffs.

PUT CARD IN BANANA NOW SHE'S A BRIDE West Indian Girl Weds Toronto Man as Result of Romantic Incident

New York, June 7.—When Miss Evelyn Bayley several weeks ago watched the men on her father's plantation in Jamaica carrying fruit on board a steamer, she put a visiting card beneath the skin of a banana. It eventually reached J. E. Powell, a broker, of Toronto.

Mr. Powell was called to the West Indies on business. At a dance in Jamaica he was introduced to the owner of the card. Now he has returned to New York with "Mrs. Powell."

IMPORTANT CASE Hearing was held before Mr. Justice McLeod in the Chancery Division in an important case of the Partington Pulp & Paper Co., Ltd., vs. Harry Gibson and wife and Fred S. Williams. This was a suit brought for declaration that the plaintiff was entitled to certain property in Marysville, to set aside a registered order hereof made to Mrs. Gibson and to recover possession of the property. The property formed part of the Gibson Company property.

LOCAL BREED The two fathers who are said to have deserted their children, Charles Carey, McLeod, and Stanley Wilbur of Moncton, have been located in two places and will probably be asked to come back to this city to look after the little ones.

Are Unanimous For The Union of The Churches

Congregationalists Pass Resolution; None Oppose

ALL AGREE FOR FIRST TIME

Greetings to Presbyterian Assembly From Far Off Australia Relieve Tense Situation Over the Union Matter at Toronto Meeting

Toronto, June 7.—There was not a dissenting voice raised at the Congregational conference yesterday when the committee on church union presented its report. At all previous conferences of the Congregational Union of Canada, at which this subject has been considered, there have been some to oppose the union idea. Those unfavorable to the scheme have grown fewer in number each year and today, for the first time, the Congregationalist body of Canada passed a resolution for undelayed union, unanimously and amid a scene of enthusiasm.

The resolution, moved by Dr. W. H. Warner, registrar of Montreal Congregational College, was as follows: "Resolved: That in view of the restlessness under present conditions, the desire for united action in many parts of the country, especially out in the west, as well as the tremendous importance of having a definite policy in these days of rapid expansion, we express the fervent hope that the union, the desirability of which all three bodies have affirmed, may speedily become an accomplished fact."

Toronto, June 7.—At the Presbyterian General Assembly yesterday, there was a tense feeling at the conclusion of the address of Rev. H. G. MacBeth, of Paris, who had seconded the adoption of the union committee's minority report. There were men present who had shown their opposition to the statement of the speaker and the meeting plainly divided, anything might happen.

Just then the moderator rose and he had been here a calligrapher who has been sent from Australia to the assembly, it reads: "The assemblies of New South Wales and Victoria sent heartfelt greetings to 'Assembly-MacKay'."

Never was a message more opportune. The big audience rose and cheered and the strained feeling was gone. Opposition was shown to the two reports on union.

Three Days' Convention to Be Held in Charlottetown in August

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 7.—Charlottetown in August will be the meeting place of about 300 members of the Canadian branch of the United Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. They will arrive here on the night of the 18th and will remain for three days. Their business meetings will be varied with sight-seeing, excursions and side trips, including an excursion to Georgetown, where motor boat races and aquatic sports will be held.

Special arrangements will be made for a visit to the fox ranches and a pair of the precious black beauties will be on exhibition for the delegates. This will be the first time for such an organization to visit Charlottetown. Special souvenir programmes are being prepared. Other railroad organizations have been corresponding with a view of coming here also, if this gathering proves a success.

A LITTLE BETTER A report from the hospital today says that Joseph Watts, who was severely burned on board the steamer Rhodan was slightly improved.

A SENSATION IN ENGLISH SOCIETY

Rotherhite M. P. Asks Divorce; Names Another M. P.

WAS MARRIED IN 1906

Parliamentary Secretary of Chancellor of Exchequer is One Named by Carr-Gomm in Divorce Action Just Announced

London, June 7.—An action entered for a hearing in the divorce list of the high court of justice is expected to prove one of the biggest social sensations of the season. Two of the chief parties are prominent members of parliament.

The petitioner is Hubert William Culling Carr-Gomm, Liberal member for Rotherhithe. He is seeking a divorce from his wife, Kathleen, on the grounds of misconduct with another member of the house, Elliot Crawshaw-Williams, who sits for Leicester. Crawshaw-Williams has been parliamentary secretary to Lloyd George since 1910.

Mr. Carr-Gomm was assistant private secretary to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and formerly honorary secretary of the London Liberal Federation. He is a justice of the peace for Bucks and a member of many exclusive West End clubs, including Brooks, Ranelagh and the Eighty. He was married in 1906, the year he entered parliament, to Kathleen, daughter of the late William Ramo, a wealthy Liverpool property owner.

Crawshaw-Williams was one of the prominent men Lloyd George took under his wing when he became chancellor. Like the petitioner, he is a member of the Brooks and the Eighty. Rumor says that there will be sensational revelations when the case comes into court.

PRINCE OBJECTS TO THE CAMERA FIEND But He Declares Canada is a "Ripping Fine Country"

Toronto, June 7.—I have not seen a great deal of Canada, but it is a ripping fine country," volunteered Prince Albert, when he returned to Toronto from Niagara Falls.

"Niagara Falls is a charming place, and I am greatly enamored of the picturesque spots and scenery on both the Canadian and American shores. I should like to see more of the dominion, and I hope to be able to come back again. Many of my companions are greatly interested in Canada and they tell me that they are anxious to see more such sights as Niagara Falls.

There is one thing that did not appeal to me and that was the effort made by people everywhere I moved to catch a snapshot. If I turned to the right there were scores of people with their cameras focused on me, and every time I tried to evade them many more would be in position in another direction. For that reason I tried as far as possible to keep aloof from camera artists, but they did not help me to any extent, as they were persistent in snapping me no matter what position I was in."

WANTS MONUMENT OVER UNMARKED GRAVES OF 1000 FRENCH AT BEDFORD BASIN

Montreal, June 7.—H. N. Paint ex-M. P. for Richmond, N. S., aged 88, is in the city to further a project for a monument on the shores of Bedford Basin, Halifax harbor, to mark the spot where more than 1,000 sons of old France sleep in unmarked graves. He will take the matter up with Quebec's government.

TORONTO STRIKE OF CARPENTERS SETTLED

Still Building Work Will Be Affected—Toronto to Be "Closed" Town

Toronto, Ont., June 7.—The carpenters' strike, perhaps one of the largest and undoubtedly promising to be one of the most serious in the history of the city, has been settled within a week's time, meaning that perhaps a small majority of the 3,000 striking carpenters will return to work on Monday.

The main part of a resolution adopted by a mass meeting of carpenters last night is as follows: "That this meeting is of the opinion that, though houses have signed the agreement to establish a prevailing rate, namely, forty-five cents an hour, for an eight-hour day and that we declare the strike ended on Saturday, June 7, 1913."

There were other resolutions, however, which promise to seriously affect the building situation in Toronto. The men have been emphatically refused to work with a non-union carpenter. This means that Toronto will be a closed town, at least as far as those 300 builders who signed the agreement are concerned.

Another resolution authorizes the men to absolutely ignore the master builders as represented by the builders' exchange and although the carpenters say that these master builders are few in number, yet there is a likelihood of numerous jobs still being tied up.

CATHEDRAL RECEIVES MEMENTO OF SCOTT ANTARCTIC TRAGEDY

London, June 7.—The sledging flag taken by the late Dr. E. A. Wilson on Captain Scott's South Pole expedition has been presented by Mrs. Wilson to Gloucester Cathedral, and the dean has granted permission for the flag to be hung in the Lady Chapel of the cathedral among the war-worn flags of the Gloucester Regiment.

The flag was worked by Mrs. Wilson, who in a letter to the dean writes: "These sledging flags have always been taken on Polar expeditions since Franklin's time. They are long narrow ones, 3 ft by 1 ft, broad with St. George's Cross at one end and the man's crest in the middle. The groundwork of this flag is black and red, St. George's flag is red and white."

The flag was found rolled up carefully by his husband in the tent, with the Cairn Colgan, Cambridge, flag which he also took with him to the pole and another small flag which has been left for New Zealand.

BLIND, AND UGLIEST MAN ON EARTH, BUT HE HAS 300 WIVES

Out of the Congo Comes the Story of Chief Lupungu, Head of the Basongi

London, June 7.—The Daily Chronicle says:—Although the Congo chief Lupungu is, according to the picture drawn of whom he really pays the state tax, a man on earth, he has taken unto himself upwards of 300 wives, for each of two francs, for Lupungu is a rich man by virtue of the tribute paid to him by his subjects, the Basongi.

The vice-consul made made the acquaintance of the chief during a tour along the eastern border of the Kasai district. Lupungu was seen Kapulidji, a place of much political importance owing to its being his home, for he is one of the most powerful chiefs in the Congo.

"In appearance," says the vice-consul, "he is a villainous looking native, having but one eye, and a countenance scarred by smallpox, and from all accounts as vicious as he is hideous."

Lupungu has had an extraordinary career for a chief, he was abandoned by his father, but was afterwards adopted by a sub-chief called Senti, whose son is Lupungu's prime minister today. When quite a young man, he dressed himself up in fantastic garb and, persuading the natives that his blind eye gave him the power of dealing with the occult, or, in other words, that he was a witch doctor (even today his men and women), he soon collected a good many followers.

About this period he made friends with the Arab traders, of whom there were a number in the neighborhood at the time, and, assisted by them, he war upon his father, whom he conquered. He was forthwith installed as chief of the Basongi, a position he has held ever since."

London, June 7.—A total of 32,850 British emigrants left the United Kingdom for countries outside of Europe during April, 1913. As many as 37,946 proceeded to other parts of the empire, 29,484 going to Canada, and 5,338 to Australia. Of the remaining 14,633 all but 608 went to the United States.

In the first four months of the year 188,800 natives of the British Isles emigrated and more than three fourths of them have been retained within the empire. They were distributed as follows: Canada, 26,911; Australia, 28,492; New Zealand, 4,881; British South Africa, 8,866; other colonies and possessions, 8,418; total British empire, 102,608; United States, 25,232; other foreign countries, 2,520; grand total, 133,350.

GOLD WORK CENTURIES OLD IS DISCOVERED

Berlin, June 7.—The discovery of some very ancient gold work, said to date from the seventh or eighth century before Christ, has been made at Ebersweide, a little town lying about an hour's journey north of Berlin.

In an earthenware vessel a few inches high, seventy-eight articles made of gold and consisting of bracelets, drinking cups, rings, etc., have been found.

Considering the length of time they have been buried, they are said to be in an excellent state of preservation. One learned specialist declares that they are the work of the early Germanic inhabitants of the district. Another holds that they are decidedly of Phoenician origin, and says that these enterprising traders penetrated into the interior of Germany from the Baltic more than 2,500 years ago.

USE THE WANT AD WAY. USE NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE IN TIME AND YOU WON'T NEED ANY FALSE HAIR.

Wearing artificial hair is a harmless deceit of which many ladies are guilty. These women are all objects for sympathy rather than criticism. Early neglect in the care of the scalp has caused the loss of so much hair that their personal appearance is sadly marred. To correct this defect they resort to artificial hair.

Most ladies would resent any imputation of personal carelessness and necessity that their hair should become so dull, brittle and lustreless that it looks no better than the artificial. All this is as unfortunate as it is unnecessary. Hair that is unightly or thin may usually be attributed to the malvolent activity of the dandruff germ. This vicious germ burrows down into the hair follicle, shortly destroying its life. The hair becomes dead, loose and finally drops out.

There is a remedy sold by all druggists, the intelligent use of which will remove all traces of dandruff. It also cleanses the scalp of all accumulations and makes the hair shine with the lustre of life and beauty. That remedy is Newbro's Herpicide, "The Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer."

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c. and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded. Applications may be obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors. The Herpicide Co., Dept. B, Detroit, Mich., will send a nice sample and booklet to any address upon receipt of 10c. in postage or silver.

THE LATE REV. DR. WILSON

Sketch of Life of Zion Pastor Read at St. John Methodist District Meeting

In connection with the St. John district Methodist meetings held this week the following sketch of the life of the late Rev. Dr. Wilson was read: Robert Wilson, Ph. D., was born on February 18, 1833, died June 24, 1912. These dates define the limits of the earthly life of a devoted servant of God whose redeemed powers made true contribution to the triumph of Christ's Kingdom among men. His progenitors were Scotch, his father being Sergeant Peter Wilson of the 63rd Highlanders. During the rebellion of 1857 the family moved to Prince Edward Island where two brothers and a sister who survive the deceased, still reside. The son, Robert, was educated at the common schools and Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown, after which he engaged in the teaching profession for a short period. He was converted more than sixty years ago in the great revival in Charlottetown, conducted by Rev. Frederick Smallwood; immediately united with the Bible Christian Church and soon after entered the ministry. After supplying two circuits, in 1858, he joined the Methodist church, in which he speedily attained to a position of honor and influence, which was maintained through all his lengthy ministry. He was married in 1856 to Miss Mary A. Ford, who predeceased him by seven years; and the surviving members of the family are one son and four daughters. Comparatively late in his ministry he took a post graduate course in the University of Chicago where the degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred. Of the high estimation which the church placed upon the character and services of Doctor Wilson there is indication in the important offices to which he was appointed. For four years he was secretary of the conference, was chairman of district, and in 1887 was made president of the conference. He was a member of the general conference in 1889, 1890 and 1898. In these and other offices which he filled there was sufficient display of statesmanlike ability to reflect credit upon himself and honor upon his church. Doctor Wilson ministered to circuits at West Cape and Montague, P. E. I., Fairville, Kingston, Hopewell, St. Andrews, Sheffield, Marysville, Gilson, Bate Verie, Salisbury, Exmouth street, Queen Square and Zion (St. John), in which latter church he was pastor for twelve years prior to his retirement. In all these fields he saw the work of God prosper in his hands, a deep interest in spiritual realities being awakened and in many instances widespread revivals occurring. The handsome edifice at Margville, recently destroyed by fire, was built during his pastorate. In public affairs he took the keenest interest and assumed positions of trust and honor. He was president of the St.

John Branch of the Evangelical Alliance, president of the local branch of Imperial Federation, he held high positions in the Sons of Temperance and Good Templars, filling besides many other public positions, especially in the City of St. John, where for so long a time he resided. A firm believer in the natural resources and possibilities of Canada, in pulp and on platform, by speech and by pen, he persistently set forth the advantages of life in this colony, and in the year 1888-1884 he made an extensive tour in England in official relationship to the Canadian government, lecturing in the interests of Canadian immigration. His literary attainments were of a high order, and possessed of a style which was chaste and commanding, he wielded a pen which made his writings at all times both popular and persuasive. For some time he published a weekly paper called "The Methodist." He wrote for many magazines and reviews, and often acted as correspondent for daily newspapers. He was the author of several small works, and in the later years of his life, occupied himself with the Mes of a volume on Methodism in the maritime provinces. Possessed of a great versatility of gifts, it was very natural that he should have exercised them in many different departments of the world's activity, but Doctor Wilson was at all times, first of all a minister of the Gospel of Christ, and his chief theme. His style of preaching was not declamatory but simple and earnest, with sufficient intellectual charm to arouse keen interest and to command large congregations. As a pastor he entered sympathetically into the lives of his congregation, bearing their grief and carrying their sorrows. As a friend he was faithful and valuable and would frequently give surprise by some intimation which showed that quietly but wisely he carried his friends' interest close to his heart. In Christian belief, this servant of God found full satisfaction for his heart in the Gospel of Christ and its interpretation as found in Methodist doctrine. Although he was not unacquainted with modern critical speculations, yet down to the last he stood soldierlike for the defence of a faith once for all delivered to the Saints. Although for some years Doctor Wilson held a supernumerary relationship to the church and was for a long time in failing health, yet down to the last he was alive to all the varied interests of the church and the moral life of the community. On Monday, June 24, 1912, then in his 80th year, the eyes of this Christian saint and warrior were closed forever to all earthly scenes, and in the calm and simple and triumphant Christian faith in which he walked through all his days, so passed he unto the presence of his God and King, and entered upon the full and perfect and eternal joy and service of Heaven.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 7, 1913. The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

ST. JOHN'S PROSPECTS While the whole country is complaining about the tightness of money, and while this stringency has undoubtedly checked or delayed some local enterprises, St. John has little reason to be discouraged over the outlook. Indeed, so many important projects are now well under way here, and so great an amount of money will be placed in circulation through large works of construction during the next year or two, better times than at any previous period of its history.

Let us make a comparison. Tight money, if it lasts more than a few months, will certainly affect British Columbia quite as much if not more than New Brunswick. Yet Victoria, which not long ago was one of the quietest not to say "deadest" communities in Canada, is now getting into its stride, and is confidently anticipating continued rapid growth and prosperity.

Now that the United States has begun definitely to turn its back upon high protection, the more thoughtful portion of its people begins to exercise greater influence in the national legislature. The reign of President Wilson and of Secretary of State Bryan will tend strongly to check the movement toward increasing expenditure on the army and navy. It is Mr. Bryan's ambition to gain reputation as the leading advocate of universal peace, and certainly President Wilson, a far more powerful figure, will throw his influence in that praiseworthy direction.

It is to be expected that within the next few years the United States and Canada will give the world a strong impetus toward the discouragement not only of war, but of ruinous competition in the matter of armaments. Fortunately, recent events in Europe indicate that good work along this line will not lack for seconds in Britain, in Germany, and in France.

Canadians who are still affected by "war-scars" should read our special London cable of this morning and its analysis of British Liberal opinion on the naval situation as it now stands. The St. John school board will be congratulated upon its decision to introduce medical inspection in the schools next year. This is a reform which has long been needed and which, when it is understood, will receive warm public support.

It is a thousand pities that the minister of marine did not accept the tender of Cammell Laird & Co. If he had ratified the contract which we left ready for his signature, ships of the Canadian fleet would now be under construction in St. John. Hon. William Pugsley in the House of Commons yesterday. "If the people of Canada were in favor of the contribution the government could easily arrange to have it sent. All that the government has to do is to appeal to the people. If they are returned they can introduce this bill and it will be carried without opposition in either house."

THE COST Great Britain spent last year $189,000,000 on its army and $220,427,000 on its navy. The United States spent last year on its army, which is a very small one, $60,000,000, and $4,000,000 on fortifications, not to speak of $123,000,000 on its navy. Many clever American politicians have attempted to explain to the peaceful people of that country just why the United States finds it necessary to spend almost $220,000,000 a year on military and naval preparation and maintenance, but no one of the explanations has ever been any more sane or satisfactory than the late General Homer Lea's book, "The Valor of Ignorance" in which he asserted that Japan could whip the United States before breakfast, or at all events before dinner time.

National pride is one of the reasons for this expenditure, and the unfortunate possession of the Philippines is another, but more powerful than either of these causes has been the profit made by the men who build battleships, who make guns and ammunition, and who maintain at Washington a lobby which talks continually of foreign complications and is for ever advocating a big-

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

SATURDAY, JUNE SEVENTH This is the natal day of the Hon. George H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, who is fifty-two years of age today. He was born at Grand Narrows, N. He has been lieutenant-governor since July, 1911.

LIGHTER VEIN NOT IN CHURCH It is the custom of a well-known minister to point his sermons with either "dearly beloved brethren" or "now, my brothers." One day a lady member of his congregation took exception to this. "Why do you always preach to the gentlemen and never to the ladies?" she asked. "My dear lady," said the beaming vicar, "one embraces the other." "But not in church," was the instant reply.

A country vicar is telling a funny story of an incident that happened in his church the other Sunday. During a sermon a baby began to cry, and its mother immediately picked it up and began to carry it toward the door. "Stop!" the vicar exclaimed. "Don't go away. The baby is not disturbing me." The mother continued her way to the door with the very audible remark: "O! 'e ain't, ain't 'e? But you're a disturbin' 'un!"

A small boy was sitting on his father's knee watching his mother as she painfully went through the very delicate operation of doing her hair in that most becoming way of the day. "No waves for you, pa," said the infant philosopher as he fondly polished his parent's hair. "You're all beach."—National Food Magazine.

An old German farmer entered the office of a wholesale druggist one morning and addressed the proprietors. "Mister Becker, I haf der schmal-pox." "Merciful heavens, Mr. Jacobs," exclaimed Becker, as the office forces scrambled over each other in their hurry to get out. "don't come any nearer." "Vot's der matter mit you fellows, anyhow?" quietly replied Jacobs. "I say I haf der schmal-pox of butter out in mine wagon, vot der Mrs. Becker ordered last week already."—National Food Magazine.

CHALLENGE GOVERNMENT TO ELECTION

Liberals Would Abide by People's Decision on Naval Question—Session Closes With Dr. Pugsley's Ringing Challenge

Ottawa, June 6.—The close of parliament today came at the end of a speech by the Hon. Wm. Pugsley.

Premier Borden denounced the senate for its action regarding the naval bill and said that if the Conservatives remain in power they will take steps to take over and pay for the three dreadnoughts which the British government is preparing to lay down.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier denied flatly that he had influenced the senate to take the action which it did upon the naval bill. He said the senate had acted on its own initiative and its own responsibility and, he declared, had done nothing but defend the right of the Canadian people.

"Have they done violence to the constitution?" he asked.

"If they infringed upon the rights of the people? No. They have simply made provision not that the bill be rejected but that it be not assented to until submitted to the judgment of the people.

"The fact that these three Canadian ships were to be in addition to the new vessels, said by the admiralty to be sufficient to meet the situation, was hailed with delight by the jingo papers in the old country, and it was equally a subject of criticism by newspapers like the London Daily News and the Manchester Guardian, because they said it forced upon the British taxpayers the maintenance of three battleships that were regarded by the admiralty as unnecessary.

"It turns out, however,—if Mr. Churchill is correctly reported,—that these three ships were not to be in addition to the admiralty programme, and that they would not increase the strain of safety, but be included only as a part of that margin, and that Canada was not providing for an emergency but for a portion of the regular British navy budget.

"A short time ago," Sir Wilfrid said, "the government members were declaring that Britain would not carry the naval load alone, that assistance must be given, that the proposed dreadnoughts would be an addition to the construction programme of admiralty. Now, according to press despatches, Britain was to build the ships. Now we know," he said, "that it was not a defence emergency that lay back of the government's proposals. These proposals constituted simply a part in the policy of contribution to the regular naval programme of Britain.

Sir Wilfrid Challenges.

"Our policy is a Canadian navy, built in Canada, manned and maintained by Canada. That is our policy and we stand by it, and I invite the prime minister to give us an opportunity to test it before the people.

"The senate has been loyal to the constitution, loyal to Canada and loyal to the empire in the action which it took," said Hon. Dr. Pugsley. "The bill of the government sought to do an unconstitutional thing which the people of Canada would not approve of.

"If the people of Canada were in favor of the contribution the government could easily arrange to have it sent. All that the government has to do is to appeal to the people. If they are returned they can introduce this bill and it will be carried without opposition in either house. The whole thing could be done and the money placed in the hands of the British admiralty within six weeks, long before Mr. Churchill could arrange to lay down the keels of the three ships in England.

"If the people do not favor contribution and say so, a Canadian navy will at once be started.

"It is a thousand pities that the minister of marine did not accept the tender of Gamal Laird & Co. If he had ratified the contract which we left ready for his signature ships of the Canadian fleet would now be under construction in St. John's.

The black rod knocked at the door of the chamber and the second session of the twelfth parliament of Canada closed with the minister of marine trying to make himself heard.

Oppose Temperance Law

Welland, June 7.—The Welland manufacturers are organized to defeat the temperance plebiscite under the Canada Temperance Act, which will be voted on in the fall. They say a temperance law would disorganize their staffs.

Would Spring Out Of Her Bed. She Was So Nervous.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common. All the organs of the body may be sound while the nerve centres may be affected.

Many women become run down and worn out by household cares and duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with shattered nerves and weak hearts.

On the first sign of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless.

Get a remedy which will at once quiet the nerves, strengthen the heart, and build up the whole system.

Avail yourself of a perfect cure by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. E. Boon, Upper Main River, N.B., writes—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for over three months. I was so nervous I would imagine everything, and would spring out of my bed at night.

I tried the doctors, but they did me no good. My brother advised me to take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I did, and I can give them the greatest thanks, as they completely cured me."

AFTER EFFECT OF FEVERS

Banished Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Following wasting diseases such as fevers, many people find it difficult to regain their former strength. They become breathless and tired out at the least exertion; their appetite is feeble and they often feel as though death were staring them in the face. The trouble lies with the blood, which has not returned to its normal condition and is lacking in the red corpuscles without which good health is impossible. It is at a time like this that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills prove their great tonic value. Every dose helps to make new, rich, red blood which means health and disinterested Theodore Foley, Athens, Ont., says: "Following an attack of typhoid fever I was left in a very weak and disheartened condition. The smallest exertion left me worn and tired out, and I was hardly able to get around, and naturally felt despondent. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they proved the greatest benefit to me. I am now as well and strong as ever, and can do all my own work, and as we live on a farm, it goes without saying that there is much to do. I feel, therefore, that I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you are suffering from the after effects of fevers, or grippe, or any acute disease, you should try to get new strength today through the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

Stock Market Rallies

New York, June 6.—Although not free from periods of unsettlement, the stock market today showed a distinct improvement culminating in an emphatic exhibition of strength which lifted many important shares well above the previous day's close. In comparison with the preceding days of the week there was little in the way of pressing liquidation. In certain quarters of the list, particularly among the specialties, there was evidence of forced selling, which brought about some severe declines. The leaders, however, were in much better demand.

THE OCTONON TO BE SHOWN AT THE NICKEL ON MONDAY

Famous Southern Drama by Vitaphone Co. in Two Reels Under Name of "The White Slave"

The Nickel will present one of the best-known dramas of the south on Monday and Tuesday in "The White Slave," otherwise the powerful production "The Octonon." This is to be another of the Vitaphone pictures, such as the exceptional play "The Still Voice," which is being concluded this afternoon and evening.

The star cast for "The White Slave" will include the following favorites—Mrs. Mary Maurice, Edna Williams, Lillian Walker, Clara Kimball Young, William Hannou, Leo Delaney, Herbert L. Barry, Kenneth Casey, William Shea and others. The scenes are laid in Louisiana, a pre-slavery days and throughout the whole play the melodramatic element is ever-present.

The Nickel's musical attraction for Monday is to be Amnia, Gypsy violinist, a talented performer who has delighted thousands in the new Imperial Theatre, Montreal, for a fortnight past. J. W. Myers will sing "Good-Bye, My Love, Good-Bye." The pictures for this song were made especially for the Nickel and will have comedy photo-plays in addition to this excellent bill.

APPROPRIATION OF $15,000 FOR WILKIE INCLUDED IN ESTIMATES

Board of Trade Successful in Application to Create Wilkie as Part of Estimate for Customs. Applications for New Post Office Building Received Too Late for This Year's Estimates, But Appropriation Will Be Made Later

(Wilbur Press, May 2) Among the additional estimates brought down by the commons this week, it shows that an appropriation of $15,000 for public building purposes for the town of Wilkie is included. It will be remembered that some time ago the matter of creating Wilkie a port entry was recommended by the Wilkie board of trade and certain members were deputed to make all necessary arrangements in this connection. The committee, the principal leader of which was Mr. James Speers, made a canvass of the town to procure signatures to a petition which he personally presented to the board of trade at Ottawa and at the same time requested that an appropriation be made for the erection of a post office building. It was found, however, that no official statement could be made in regard to the post office building as the estimates had already been brought down, but every assurance was given by Mr. Speers that the appropriation would be made for the next year.

We understand this appropriation does not cover cost of the erection of building necessary in connection with customs department and post office at Wilkie, but for the purpose of purchasing the required site for such buildings and that a further grant will be forthcoming to complete the work of actual construction. The advantages to be gained by Wilkie and surrounding districts, through creating a port of entry, are manifold, and will afford the town an advantage much sought after by the people of the town, and taking into consideration the unique position and strategic location of Wilkie, the proposed railway activities under operation and planned, the government fully realize that their decision in the matter is amply justified.

RECENT DEATHS

Word of the death of John Lenahan, of San Francisco, was received in the city yesterday. He was sixty-seven years of age and was born at Golden Grove, leaving there in 1861. He is survived by three brothers, Thomas, of San Francisco; Peter D. and Timothy J., both of this city, and one sister, Mrs. T. J. Boves, also of this city. His mother died here only last week.

WHY SCOTTISH TWEEDS DEFEY COMPETITION

Professor Robert Beaumont, of Leeds, in inspecting the textile classes for the City and Guilds of London Institute and the Scottish Board of Education at the Dundries Academy addressed the students on the tweed industry, observing that Scotch tweed fabrics possessed a clearness of color definition, freshness of style, and crispness of handle which made them a distinctive class of woven manufacture. Possibly these inherent qualities in the genuine tweed derived from its precursor, the "homespun" in which purity of materials and brightness of tone are pre-eminent features.

The tweed industry, which was of Scottish origin—though there were historic traces of its early practice in the western parts of Ireland—was now developed with such a measure of success in the border towns of Scotland as to effectively dispose of foreign competition or detrimental rivalry. German, French and American manufacturers had failed to produce the real tweed—their efforts thus far had resulted in substitutes and imitations, but nothing more. During the last three decades development had been effected in every phase of the tweed manufacturing which was partially attributable to the influence of educational machinery. It was suicidal to discount the advantages which were derived from scientific and technological study, and which, moreover, were being pressed into almost service by continental competitors.

DEBATE

Hartweg was judge and Rev. W. Camp presided. The young ladies won. Miss Laura Bowinot, Miss Muriel Knox and Miss Edith Vincent were the speakers.

THE LOST VIOLIN A GREAT BELIEVER IN "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Well Known Ontario Musician Has Faith Because "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him

Other Instances of Valuable Instruments That Have Been Lost or Stolen—How a Visiting Card Saved One to Its Owner

(St. James Gazette) Arising from the offer in an advertisement of a substantial reward for a violin recently lost in Clapham, Mr. Hill, of the famous old firm of violin makers, Messrs. Hill & Sons, told a "Standard" representative that the loss of violins is quite a common matter, and that many of the famous violins have vanished from their owners and have never been recovered. "Klos Regidius Klos Mittenwald on day" was the advertised label that suggested Clapham as the centre of romance. This, Mr. Hill pointed out, is a misapprehension. "Standard" representative that the loss of violins is quite a common matter, and that many of the famous violins have vanished from their owners and have never been recovered.

"The label," he said "should read 'Aegidius Klos in Mittenwald on the day'." Klos was one of the German fiddle-makers whose name is legion. They nearly all worked in Mittenwald, a quiet town in Bavaria. The Klos family were among the best violin-makers of the place, and a statue to one of them, George Klos, is a feature of the town. "Although Klos violins, if they are free from damage, have an excellent tone both as regards quality and quantity, they have never fetched the prices of the instruments made by their Italian contemporaries. It was the practice of the town, however, to buy another Klos." "If he does not recover the violin he has lost, the advertiser should have no difficulty in being able to buy another Klos."

"Of fiddles lost, stolen, or strayed, the most notable instance within recent times is the disappearance of the violin belonging to the great player Ysaye. It was a Stradivarius, made in 1782, and one of the violins shown in the loan collection of musical instruments at South Kensington. It was the practice of Ysaye, as of every other great player, to carry with him two violins, so that in case of accident he might have one to fall back upon. The stolen violin left unattended in the artist's room left again. Nor was the possessor of such a violin bringing it to light while the practice of experts is alive, for in the last few years no fewer than three good violins have been left in trains and never recovered. In every instance in which the disappearance of a violin has been taken by other passengers, and not by the servants of the railway company, the railway employees, indeed, have been responsible for the return of several violins."

A Curious Story Perhaps the most curious story surrounding the disappearance of a violin is that in which Mr. Bransby Burnard, in his day a well-known underwriter at Lloyd's, figured. This Mr. Burnard, said Mr. Hill, "was in the habit of attaching his visiting card to all his possessions, and to this habit he was indebted for the recovery of his violin. On returning home one day from the City to Rutland Gate he discovered on opening his case to discover a few moments later that he had left his instrument in the vehicle. When he became aware of his loss he immediately telegraphed to his father, that it might suffer no damage she held on her knee during a stormy voyage. When she became aware of her combat shortly after the start, and retired to her cabin, her father took possession and guided the violin on his knee. A sudden lurch of the vessel sent him staggering from his chair; he dropped the violin in his children's snuggly and the treasure went sliding overboard into the waves. "A fine treat for the mermaids" laughs the violin connoisseur, in conclusion.

Mr. Hill is preparing his reminiscences of famous violinists and their instruments. The book should be of interest to music-lovers, for probably no man has handled so many violins of renowned makers or garnered such a wealth of anecdote concerning them and their possessors. JAMES DOBSON, 60c. a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The New Fable of the Speedy Sprite

(Copyright, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

ONE Monday morning a rangy and ill-conditioned elf of the Young married set, yclept Loretta, emerged to the Sunlight and hit the Concrete with a ringing heel.

Loretta pried herself away from the third Waffle in order to hike to the corner and pick up Mr. Grocer about the Kindling Wood that he had sent there for Celery.

At 9:30 the Committee to arrange for the Summer Camp of the In-Wrong Married Women whizzed through the untidy suburbs in a next year's Motor Car, and Loretta was nowhere except right up on the front Seat picking out the Road.

Once a year the Ladies of the Lumby-Tun went out with their embroidered Sand-Bags and swung on their Genevieve Friends for enough Cash to pay the Vacation Expenses of Neglected Wives and Kiddies.

In every community there is an undiscovered Triton thoroughly posted on the Renaissance of the Reactionaries and the recrudescence of the Big Six Baby with the uptwit that has whiskered both Parties and both Leagues that when it comes time for his Brood to take an outing some ignorant Outsider has to step in and unhelp.

Whilst she had been socializing around, Robert W. Chambers had taken a lead of two Novels on her. Referring to a quiet Alceve with four Volumes that were being dissected at the drawing-room Clinic, she took a Peek at the first and last Chapter of each. Just enough to protect her against a Fumble if she found herself next to a Book Sharp.

telling all the Gells the most wonderful things about themselves. A merry little Group went slumming Saturday afternoon. They attended a Ball Game. Loretta had her Chin over the railing and evinced a keen Interest, her only Difficulty being that she never knew which Side was at bat.

By she went over to an exhibition of Paintings, breathing through her Nose for at least an Hour as she studied the new Masterpieces of the Swedish-Scandinavian School. Each looked as if executed with a Squirt Gun by a Nervous Wreck on his way to a Three Day Cure. Just the same, every Visitor with a surgical Shirt and a Washroom Hat gazed like a Mountain Stream.

In company with four other Seraphines, plucked from the Society Columns, she toyed with a Fruit Salad and Cocoa at a Tea Room instituted by a Lady in Reduced Circumstances for the accommodation of those who are never overtaken by Hunger.

She approached the Porcelain in a chastened mood that Sabbath morning. She was thinking of the Night before and of playing Carols for Money. She remembered the glare of Light from overhead and the tense, eager Faces peering above the Paste-Boards.

MILL STRIKE MATTER GOES OVER FOR ANOTHER WEEK

Hope of Many That it Will Be Averted—Land Purchase at Public Landing—Bride-Elect Leaves For West to Wed E. J. Mahoney

The expected strike amongst the mill men of North End which it was thought would come to a head last night or this morning, has not yet materialized, and it is understood that there has been a further extension of one week in connection with the matter. All the mills were in operation today. On account of this being what is known as a "running day" in most of the plants, the feeling was that if a strike occurred it would take place today. There is a very strong feeling amongst a large number of the mill men, pondmen, and raftsmen, all of whom are directly interested in the operation of the mills, that they would have their request dealt with without a strike if it is possible, and negotiations with the manufacturers to this end are hoped for. Dealers and tradesmen throughout North End are vitally interested in the matter, as there is much speculation concerning the effect on general business should a strike occur. The number of men who would be affected by it is several hundred. Large catches of fish are being made about the harbor by the fishermen from along Strait Shore, and about Indian-town harbor, while the river steamers are bringing down fairly heavy quantities caught in the upper parts. A few salmon are coming, the number increasing now. Prices up to the present have been very high.

MORNING LOCALS Twenty-nine candidates were confirmed by Bishop Richardson last evening in St. Paul's church, Robbsey.

Miss Marie Lynott, formerly of this city, but now of Woodstock, will leave her home at that place tonight for the west, going to Winnipeg where she will be met by Edward J. Mahoney, a popular North End boy, and united in marriage to him next week. Much interest centres locally in the wedding, for both have many friends here. Arthur Mahoney will come from Calgary to Winnipeg with his bride, and as groomsmen. They have received a large number of wedding remembrances from friends here.

Every little back-yard has a ball-team of its own. That's pretty nearly true of North End these days. The youngsters seem to have the baseball fever worse than ever, and with the coming of the finer weather new leagues "spring into existence" in a night, and almost as quickly fade away, but the old game goes on just the same and some exciting contests are had. There are about four or five small boys' leagues about North End with an average of three teams each, to say nothing of the several independent teams who have not yet entered the realm of "organized baseball."

Doctor Said He Had Diabetes

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CLEARED OUT EVERY TRACE OF IT That's Why Mr. David Hoan, of Nicolet Co., Quebec, is Recommending the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy to His Neighbors

St. Wenceslas, Nicolet Co., Que., June 6.—(Special)—"I started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills because the doctor told me I was threatened with diabetes. After taking ten boxes I was again examined by the doctor, and he told me that all trace of diabetes had disappeared."

This is the statement of Mr. David Hoan, well-known and highly respected here, and he is only one of many in this neighborhood who have found a new lease of life in the great Canadian Kidney remedy.

It cures such as this that have given Dodd's Kidney Pills their reputation. They are now known from the Atlantic to the Pacific as the remedy that never fails to cure kidney disease, no matter where or in what form it is found.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are no cure-all. They simply cure diseased kidneys. The reason they cure backache, dropsy, rheumatism, neuralgia, diabetes, urinary troubles and Bright's disease is that all of these are either diseases of the kidneys or are caused by disordered kidneys failing to do their work.

FOUND DEAD In a quaint volume written by a ferryman who visited the Shetland Islands at the beginning of the 18th century we find a striking instance of the evil One set forth with considerable detail. Briefly the story is as follows:—man of disreputable character, who risked in turning a deaf ear to the warnings and admonitions of the minister and those interested in his welfare, set out one evening on a questionable mission. As he was passing along the side of a loch in the vicinity of the hamlet where he lived he was joined by another man dressed in black. The pair continued walking backwards and forwards by the margin of the loch until darkness hid them from view. "Next morning (to quote the reverend chronicler) the miserable wretch was found dead, with his brains dashed out (though there were no stones near to the place where he lay) and the ground about him was all trodden as if there had been twenty men and horses for twenty-four hours upon the spot." "So bad a recompense," he adds, "doth the devil give his vassals and slaves for their service."

King's county Record—The management and stockholders of the Coverdale Fox Company are today congratulating themselves on the series of happy domestic events, which have taken place at their Fox ranch at Coverdale. This company has its main three pairs of young foxes of the very best stock. Manager Steeles had reason to believe that each of his fox pens contained a family of young foxes, but it may be news to the public to know that it does not do to be too curious in such cases. Investigation is strictly forbidden by the mother fox, and if any human being violates her rules, she is almost certain to destroy her young, the only way to do so is to wait till Mrs. Fox brings her family out to daylight.

Two or three weeks ago the first mother on the Coverdale ranch made her appearance followed by two very pretty black foxes. This was highly satisfactory. About a week later, however, the second family made their debut, consisting of three little animals worth their weight in gold. But what was Mr. Steeles' delight when yesterday the third proud mother appeared jumping and rolling around a family of four black leashes. This makes a total of nine foxes in the three litters.

MCDONALD ACQUITTED After a trial which lasted for two days, the jury yesterday afternoon in the case of the King vs. James A. A considerable mass of evidence, documentary and oral was adduced on behalf of the Crown, but the defendant called no witnesses.

Playgrounds Association At a meeting of the executive of the Playgrounds Association last evening committees were put in charge of the summer work. G. E. Day reported from North End that he had promised contributions towards putting the grounds in Bentley street and Victoria Square in condition. It was decided to open the west side playgrounds on July 1. On a suggestion from D. R. Jack it was decided to arrange a conference with the school trustees and the Y. M. C. A. directors, to consider a playground on the vacant lot in the rear of the High School and south of the association building. The executive is hopeful of being able to arrange a public swimming both south of the exhibition grounds this summer. The resignation of Dr. Margaret Parks as treasurer was accepted, and Miss Bertie Hegan appointed. Miss Mabel Peters presided.

The boys made the rescue at his risk of their lives.

The presentation, which took place at a concert, was made in the presence of 200 people, who cheered the little fellows occupying chairs on the platform with their playmates, whose life they saved, and many women came forward and hugged and kissed them. At the annual convocation of McGill University in Montreal yesterday ninety-three degrees were conferred, of which sixty were in medicine, one in music, five in arts, six in science, and nineteen in agriculture.

Moving Picture Makers Turning to Canada

REGENT ST. JOHN VISIT

Alice Joyce May Pose For Drawings—A Chat With Edith Storey—Camera Men Into Virgin Territory of North West

When some of the members of the Reliance Picture Co's staff were in the city this week they remarked that the scenery here and in the surrounding country seemed an ideal for motion pictures. It was fresh and new in this connection and this was greatly desired. Most of the pictures of ordinary interest are produced in California but territory is wanted and it is just possible that Canada will be invaded more and more in the future. The heads of one of the leading companies have lately arisen on the frequency with which certain locations appear.

Even European exhibitors are finding fault with this condition. A letter from a London firm recently complained that every tree, rock and blade of grass were becoming familiar to English audiences. The heads of one of the leading companies have lately arisen on the frequency with which certain locations appear.

Among the prescribed are the hollow tree and giant rock at Griffith Park, and a bit of rocky coast at Santa Monica beach.

Several eastern managers of concern located here have come to Los Angeles for the sole purpose of looking into the situation. The Biograph always withdraws its people from this field for six months of the year. Keystone went to Mexico for a change of scene and contemplate a trip east to get different settings. Edison left very early. Essanay has gone to Niles, the Lubin players have left and the Kuenamoor company has used Grand Canyon and Yosemite Valley for a change.

Should the expected exodus take place it will mean a loss, not only to Los Angeles but to the many "native son" actors and those actors from the East who have bought homes and settled here. It is a constant topic of conversation in all the studios.

Report has it that Alice Joyce of the Kalem Company is to pose for Harrison Fisher drawings.

Tom Mix, the versatile cowboy actor of Selig's Colorado-Arizona stock company is the proud possessor of a silver mounted saddle and bridle which was presented to him some years ago in token of his prowess as a cowboy. The saddle bears an engraved inscription to the effect that Mix is the "All Around Champion Cowboy of the World." This honor was accorded Mix after he had met and successfully defeated all aspirants to this title.

A recent acquisition of Manager J. V. Ritchey of the Reliance Co., is a known leading man, Grant Wilbur, who has been featured in Pathe releases, probably best remembered in the picture "The Company." Mr. Wilbur starts work at the Reliance studio at an early date, as also does Rosemary, the new Reliance leading lady. Miss Thea Ritchey's attention by her interpretation of the Snake in the Vitagraph production of "The Re-incarnation of Karma."

A writer in the New York Mirror this week has the following to say of Edith Storey, a clever actress who has many local admirers.

Edith Storey, the clever leading lady of the Vitagraph Company, at all times on the screen, would seem to baffle analysis. She is so extremely versatile. The motion picture requires versatility, yet it is doubtful if a single film player equals Miss Storey in ability to hide her identity so completely beneath such a broad variety of characterizations. At one moment she is a girl of the desolate forests—vigorous, primitive and passionate. Again she is a dull, stolid woman of the Russian peasant folk. At times she is a sympathetic, charming and appealing society hostess, a shallow, designing and fascinating siren; a delicate and noble princess of the royal blood, or a elemental girl of the barbaric cave days.

Miss Storey puts a lot of thought into the characters she portrays, but she does not appear to consider anything unusual in the way she creates and conveys the roles. But Miss Storey's mother, who is herself a very charming woman, revealed a few secrets when I met her later. "Edith," she says, "lives her parts. Their sorrows become her own, and she actually weeps in her emotional scenes—they are so real to her. She completely forgets herself. But she likes comedy best of all, for she seems to think she is at her best in that field of playing."

Miss Storey remarked that she loved to ride in the open in cowboy fashion. "People seem to like to see me in society roles, but I hate to dress up. I always feel awkward and stiff. Fine gowns and jewels make me dreadfully nervous. But give me a flannel blouse, a divided skirt, a good horse, and I'm happy."

The director, it may be explained, reads the scenario to the members of the company before a start is made. Then the drama is photographed scene by scene, although the scenes are not necessarily taken in the order of their subsequent showing. The director may, for instance, seize a good day to secure a number of outdoor scenes, while the interiors are later taken in the studio as rapidly as the scenery is prepared and the company rehearsed. "We work out the characters," Miss Storey says, "aided by the director. We rehearse a scene two or three times, but not enough to become mechanical. I believe in very few rehearsals; that is one of the reasons I like outdoor work. Often a scene has to be taken without a rehearsal—so be caught on the run before the crowd gathers."

Miss Storey likes to quietly enter a picture theatre, watch the films and lis-

Mrs. Johnston Forbes-Robertson, wife of the famous actor-manager, who starred on the American stage for years at Gertrude Elliott, became "Lady Forbes-Robertson" this week, when a knighthood was bestowed upon her husband by King George on the occasion of the latter's 48th birthday. The girl, whose title to the illustrious actor was a popular one in London, where he and his beautiful wife have been stage favorites for thirteen years. It was in 1900 that Gertrude Elliott was married to Mr. Forbes-Robertson after a successful London engagement, in which they were for the first time closely thrown together. Their happy family life was brightened by a little daughter, now twelve years of age.

Gertrude Elliott, and her sister, Maxine Elliott, are natives of Rockland, Maine, where they were known as Max and Jessie Dermot, and were educated in schools of the Pine Tree State and private institutions about Boston. The first named, the younger sister, was attracted to the stage largely by the success of her elder sister, whose stage name, Maxine Elliott, was given her by her first dramatic instructor. The other sister naturally adopted the "family" stage name when she took her place behind the footlights.

David Bispham, who has sung here to large audiences, is a recruit for the comic opera stage. He will make his appearance in "Der Fiedler" at the Lyric Theatre, the adaptation into English of which is now being made for film. Wanda and Luncheonette, Miss Bispham under contract for a term of years, it was made known last week.

Mrs. Bispham's season will begin in November. A company commensurate with the star's caliber is to be organized.

Grace George may make a world's tour immediately following her engagement in London. Playing "Diva" and "Fretful Peggy," and making a Shakespearean revival.

Marylyn Arbuckle is to appear next in a musical comedy. Such an arrangement was entered into with him yesterday by Karl and Estager. The play is "The Frog Dance."

Ethel Barrymore will appear in vaudeville at New Brighton Beach. Alice Carter is to have "The Little Minister" made into an opera.

The announcement is made that Mrs. Leslie Carter will be seen in vaudeville next season.

May Robson, a prime favorite in St. John, after 106 consecutive weeks touring the coast and back, closed her season last week and has booked passage for Europe, leaving today. Next week Miss Robson will star in "The Glory of Cleopatra" under L. S. Sir's management.

The salary of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, if she appears at the London Hippodrome, will be $400 weekly. That is the amount agreed for four weeks. The contract carries an option for a longer period, but the date of Miss Nesbit's first appearance is indefinite, owing to the hue and cry raised against her.

Lord Dunsany, who is now playing a two-line role in Peggy, under the name of Arthur Wellesley, after working as a scenic artist at the Hippodrome, in London, has announced that he is to marry Pearl Apper, who succeeded Gabrielle Ray as the "post-card beauty" of the English in the Hippodrome.

Viscount Dangan is twenty-two and the son of Earl Cowley, one of the most familiar figures in the English divorce courts. Miss Apper is now rehearsing a part in "Crossed," Baron de Rothschild's play, which is being produced in London because of the conflict between Arthur Boucher and J. Salter Hanson.

Warfield Gage went to the belief that "The Auctioneer" is immortal. "It is the greatest play ever written," says David.

Maynard White, manager of Deborah, in Toronto, Canada, the week of May 12, and was stopped by the police, following a bitter attack by a minister, has left Toronto for New York, to make arrangements for an early New York production of the play. Deborah was passed by the Toronto censor. The production of the talk about physiological aspects of the subject is extremely frank.

General John Regan is still keeping Apollo Theatre pretty well filled, despite the fact that the breezy Irish comedy has been running since early in the season, coinciding with the news that its author may visit the States to write his new presentation.

"General John Regan" was written by a clergyman who hid his identity under the name of "George A. Birmingham." He is Rev. J. O. Hannay, of Westport, a man conspicuous in his chosen field. A year ago the name of George A. Birmingham meant nothing, now it is well known on both sides of the water. In England, mainly because his charming play, in the United States, chiefly because of the success of his two novels, "Spanish Gold" and "The Search Party," both of which were published during the winter and achieved sales that put them in the "best seller" class.

Mr. "Birmingham's" play is written in the lightest of veils. A rich American tourist visits a little Irish hamlet, believing the Irish have no initiative. He is bored and seeks diversion. He demands to be shown the birthplace of the great General John Regan, the liberator of Bolivia—a creature of his own imagination. He is shown the birthplace, relatives of the mythical hero are discovered, anecdotes of his youth are recalled, and finally a statue is erected to Bolshoy's memory. The governor-general himself requested to come to town to read the illuminated address at the unveiling.

That the graduating classes of American colleges still adhere to the old custom of selecting the class favorite actress by vote, is demonstrated by the receipt of word from fourteen colleges that Miss Viola Allen was selected as favorite actress of fourteen senior classes.

On the top of the selection of Miss Pauline Frederick, who plays Zuleika in "Joseph and His Brethren," as the ideal American woman, by Harrison Fisher and a committee in charge of the recent suffrage pageant in New York, comes the suggestion that a statue in gold be made of Miss Frederick, as typical of American womanhood, for exhibition at the San Francisco World's Fair.

EVELYN NESBIT THAW IN PARIS. Preparing For Invasion of British Stage

Striking snapshot of Mrs. Thaw at a Paris news stand. She is resting at the French capital, and will soon return to London for a theatrical engagement.

ten to the comments. She confesses that watching herself upon the screen in a picture in which something has happened not quite to her liking does make her nervous. "To think I am going right on making that little slip or fault, or whatever it may be, without any chance of correcting it, over and over again for ever, does upset me," she explained.

"I started on the stage at the age of eight in Australia in the original Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. Then I was the stammering girl, Emma Jane, in Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm. Ernest Traux, who has been with Mary Pickford in a Good Little Devil, played opposite me. I'm very glad they have been so successful. Miss Pickford is a very dear little girl. I was about fifteen when I drifted into picture work. My brother went into pictures first, and that started me."

Aprons of the introduction of talking pictures in this city it is interesting to note that a new company claims in New York to have perfected a new machine which accomplishes what has hitherto been unaccomplished by other makes. The machine is constructed to run with interchangeable records so that the photographic record can be made any length and is limited only by the length of the film.

The synchronizer is so constructed that when one record is run off another can be ready and started running and the jump made without interruption to the spoken words as heard by the audience. The whole apparatus consists of a projector in the projection booth and an electrical connection to the horn situated back of or near the curtain.

The new company says that the mechanism can be operated by one man so that the ordinary projection machine operator is the only person required. Given the apparatus and one man the show can be made to run for three hours if necessary without interruption.

Fifty-three hundred miles, largely through virgin territory, is the extent of a trip undertaken by James K. Cornwell of Edmonton, until recently representative in the provincial parliament for Athabasca, accompanied by Emerson Trough of Chicago, B. K. Miller of Milwaukee, C. A. Luperli, a moving picture expert, and George B. Fraser of Edmonton. They are now on the way to the hinterland of Alberta and British Columbia and will penetrate the Yukon territory.

Several dramas, with primitive Indians as actors, will be staged and it is also expected to take photographs of big game hunters and fur traders in the north.

Shirley Kellogg and Albert de Courville Engaged

LATTER'S SUCCESSFUL CAREER

Mere Boy Practical Head of Moss Theatres—Milestones Has 500th Performance—Mrs. Patrick Campbell Herself Again After Serious Illness

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, May 24.—Announcement of the engagement of Shirley Kellogg, who is playing in "Hullo Ragtime" at the Hippodrome to Albert de Courville, part of the revue, came as a big surprise to all except the closest friends of the principals.

Young de Courville, has had an astonishing career in the music-hall business. A little more than two years ago he came out of Italy to London and became secretary and then assistant to the managing director of the Moss Kingpins, the late Sir Edward Moss. During the last part of the two years Sir Edward was ill and confined to his bed duties with a high hand. He became a veritable autocrat and men who had grown up in the business and were every twist of the intricate affairs of the big chain of Moss theatres—the largest syndicate in England—were pushed aside by a mere boy. He traveled to Italy and brought Leoncavallo to the Hippodrome at an unprecedented salary and followed it up by capturing Mascagni for the same house.

Then Sir Edward Moss died and immediately there was a scramble for the position. Frank Allen, who had been with Moss ever since he started in a small way in the music hall business, was the natural successor, but de Courville with some powerful but mysterious influence behind him, made a bid for the post. It is said that the source of his hold it. It is said that the source of his hold it. It is said that the source of his hold it.

But although he did not win the position, de Courville has not given up. He has captured all the powers. He has captured all the powers. He has captured all the powers.

When he was writing on "Hullo Ragtime" Branby Williams walked out of the Hippodrome at the last moment because he refused to be ordered about by a mere stripling.

Hears 500th Performance "Milestones" at the Royalty Theatre, is approaching its 500th performance. It has run six months longer than any other show in London, and more wonderful still, there are no signs of a lull in the business. It is still the most popular play in town, and bids fair to establish one of the longest records of which future generations will talk in comparing shows of the period just as we today talk of the run of "Charley's Aunt."

"Bought and Paid For" has finished its London career, although it has been taken into the provinces by Lyn Hardt. It is hard to account for the comparative failure of this play. Fine things were said of it by the critics, and it was a long run and a big success. It seemed to drag along, tempting the management to keep going in the hope of a revival. Now, however, with the coming of the warm weather, with the coming of the warm weather, with the coming of the warm weather.

Mr. Patrick Campbell is hoped again after an illness that has been expected to be fatal. She will appear in the near future with Sir George Alexander in her old part of Pauline in a revival of "St. James." Sir George has had an incident of the talk about physiological aspects of the subject is extremely frank.

General John Regan is still keeping Apollo Theatre pretty well filled, despite the fact that the breezy Irish comedy has been running since early in the season, coinciding with the news that its author may visit the States to write his new presentation.

"General John Regan" was written by a clergyman who hid his identity under the name of "George A. Birmingham." He is Rev. J. O. Hannay, of Westport, a man conspicuous in his chosen field. A year ago the name of George A. Birmingham meant nothing, now it is well known on both sides of the water. In England, mainly because his charming play, in the United States, chiefly because of the success of his two novels, "Spanish Gold" and "The Search Party," both of which were published during the winter and achieved sales that put them in the "best seller" class.

Mr. "Birmingham's" play is written in the lightest of veils. A rich American tourist visits a little Irish hamlet, believing the Irish have no initiative. He is bored and seeks diversion. He demands to be shown the birthplace of the great General John Regan, the liberator of Bolivia—a creature of his own imagination. He is shown the birthplace, relatives of the mythical hero are discovered, anecdotes of his youth are recalled, and finally a statue is erected to Bolshoy's memory. The governor-general himself requested to come to town to read the illuminated address at the unveiling.

That the graduating classes of American colleges still adhere to the old custom of selecting the class favorite actress by vote, is demonstrated by the receipt of word from fourteen colleges that Miss Viola Allen was selected as favorite actress of fourteen senior classes.

On the top of the selection of Miss Pauline Frederick, who plays Zuleika in "Joseph and His Brethren," as the ideal American woman, by Harrison Fisher and a committee in charge of the recent suffrage pageant in New York, comes the suggestion that a statue in gold be made of Miss Frederick, as typical of American womanhood, for exhibition at the San Francisco World's Fair.

Notes the Diamond-Shaped Blisters. This new Goodyear Tire—the Non-Skid—is built just like our famous Auto Tire and from the same hard-wearing white rubber. The tough little diamond-shaped blocks grip wet pavements or muddy roads. They give the rider confidence to speed along without fear of slipping or falling when dodging in and among the heavy vehicles on the road.

STEALS GOVERNOR'S CLOTHES AND MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Jefferson City, Mo., June 7.—Donning a good suit of clothes belonging to Gov. Major Geo. Clemens, a Joplin negro who is serving two years in the pen for burglary, stole away from the executive mansion and escaped. Clemens was employed with other convict trustees in laying a water main. He had occasion to go into the basement to establish a connection. He hastily went up stairs, discarded his convict garb and decorated himself in the governor's suit. He then hid until nightfall and made his escape.

CHANGE MADE IN BREAKWATER CONSTRUCTION

Cribwork Will Not Be Called For—Two More Dredges Expected in Few Weeks

An important change has been made by the government in the specifications for the construction of the outer end of the Courtenay Bay breakwater. The work which has been under way has consisted of the placing of the rubble core for the breakwater and the excavations called for a cribwork core for the balance of the structure. This would have made it necessary to stop the work of excavation until the bay had been dredged so as to allow the cribs to be sunk. The government has now decided to continue the same method of construction throughout and this will enable the contractors to proceed without any further delay. The total length will be 4,270 feet and the breakwater has already been carried out to a length of 2,300 feet.

The Norton Griffiths Dredging Company is now arranging for two additional dredges of a powerful type and expect to have them at St. John within the next few weeks. They will be put to work with the two already here and the fleet of four dredges will make rapid progress on the dredging contract. The company is now employing 350 men, and this number will be increased soon.

The work of reclaiming the foreshore in front of the Norton Griffiths property, extending from the Municipal Home to the breakwater, for which the permission of the government has been asked, will be carried on by using the material excavated from the site of the dry dock. The reclaimed land will be required as a site for the ship repair plant.

GRAHAM CHARGED WITH NEGLECTING TO SUPPORT WIFE

Woman Now Being Cared For in the Municipal Home

A pathetic story was told in the police court this morning when the case against James Graham, arrested yesterday afternoon on charge of neglecting his wife, thereby endangering her life, came up.

Policeman Gibbs, who made the arrest, said that the woman came to him on Wednesday afternoon and asked him where she could get something to eat as she had had nothing for two days. He went with her to the house and the defendant was there and she told the witness that her husband was unable to work, as he had a sore hand. The witness said that he made arrangements for the man to go to work at Fernhill on Thursday and he worked one day and when the witness went to the home on Friday he found the defendant there. All in the house consisted of a stove, a bed and a chair with only two legs on it. The policeman said that he also made arrangements for them to get something to eat on Wednesday night and he then notified Mr. Wetmore, of the S. P. C. A.

Mr. Wetmore said that he went to the house on Thursday and found conditions as described by Policeman Gibbs. The woman was then sick in bed and he told the husband to go out and get a doctor but as he did not return, the witness telephoned Dr. Christie, who said she would have to be taken away from the place. Mr. Wetmore then made arrangements with the commissioners of the Municipal Home and she was taken there in a coach yesterday.

George Bushara, who owns the house, said that he rented the house to them just before May 1. When they came they did not have any furnishings and he gave them a stove and some bed clothes, and one of the neighbors gave them a bed. He said the defendant had been offered work several times and then stay home, saying he was sick. The witness himself had offered him work.

The wife, however, had gone out to work when she was able.

The magistrate seemed surprised when the witness told him that he was paid $7 a month for the house of two rooms. He said, however, that this was not unusual.

When asked how old he was, defendant said that he was 25 and his wife was 19. He was then remanded to jail.
