Some are Killed and Many Arrested -The Sultan is Much Disturbed.

LONDON, May 8.—The Sofia correspondent of the Times says:

"The difficulties regarding the tenorand contents of the Turkish note are likely to be arranged to the satisfaction of both parties, the Sultan appearing disincilined to provoke a controversy. Wholesale arrests of Bul-been arrested."

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 8.—The attempt made Wednesday by a band of Bulgarians to blow up a powder magazine at Monastir caused a panic in that town. The shops and basaars were instantly closed. It is believed the attack was made with the view of provoking reprisals. The military authorities, however, cordoned the Mohammedan quarters and prevented the Mussulmans from getting out. All the consulates were furnished with guards. The attacking party, which was surprised by Turkish troops, ultimately fled, after a number of men had been killed or wounded.

THOSE SUBSIDIES.

Hon. Geo. F. Hill Denounces the Premier and Attorney General.

mier and Attorney General.

The railway subsidies bill was brought up in the provincial legislature this morning.

Hon. Mr. Hill said he approved of aid to the six miles from Beersville to the L. C. R., which will open up a valuable coal country. He was opposed to endorsing the bonds of the Restigouche & Western. The only business it would have would be the hauling of lumber and he had never known a railway that depended chiefly on lumber to pay. This road would do the very thing the people said the Winding Ledges dam would do—carry round logs to Maine to be manufactured. Mr. Hill did not think the province would be benefited by the building of this road. "I consider this," he said. "It he most dangerous measure introduced since I have been a member of the legislature, because it is going to launch us in the sea of disaster."

Referring to Premier Tweedle, he said:—"I am afraid he is not the man I thought he was. Indeed, I regret to state that I believe he has failen into the hands of the attorney-general."

TERRIBLE TALE

Of Survivors of Wreck of the Gloriana, Off Canso.

CANSO, May 6.—By the disaster to the American schooner Gloriana at Thrum Cap (off Canso) this morning, Captain Stoddart and fourteen men were drowned, and of the total crew of eighteen only three—John Bischer, Eugene LeBianc and Frank Nickerson—reached land in safety.

The names of the drowned are:
Capt. Geo. Stoddard, Argyle Sound, Thomas Fraser, Arichat, Thomas Fraser, Arichat, Thomas Goodwin, Argyle Sound, Charles Goodwin, Argyle Sound, Charles Goodwin, Argyle Sound, Damien LeBlanc, Tusket Wedge, George Muise, Tusket Wedge, Ered ——, Tusket Wedge, Fred ——, Tusket Wedge, Fred ——, Tusket Wedge, Harry Babcock, Newfoundland, Alexander Benson, Gloucester, Reuben Surrette, Surrette's Island, —— O'Hoolihan, P. E. Island. The Gloriana left the fishing grounds off Sable Island on Tuesday, bound for Magdalen Island via Canso for balt. The survivors say Captain Stoddard supposed that he was making up Chedabucto Bay, when, in reality he was about five miles further to the west-ward. The weather was very thick, and a strong easterly breeze was blowing. The tide running so strong west-crly must have discounted any allowance made for offing.

One of the survivors says:—About midnight I was awakened by the cry of breakers. Although we have a moon now the night had cloyed in dark, the rain was falling in sheets, and we were aware of it. Soon all hands, including the captain, were assembled on deck, "One man, Thomas Fraser, of Arichat, who was suffering from a lone chart of the captain, were assembled on deck, "One man, Thomas Fraser, of Arichat, who was suffering from a lone chart of the captain, were assembled on deck, "One man, Thomas Fraser, of Arichat, who was suffering from a lone chart of the captain, were assembled on deck, "One man, Thomas Fraser, of Arichat, who was suffering from a lone chart of the captain was falleng from a lone chart of the captain was falleng from a lone chart of the captain was falleng from a lone chart of the captain was falleng from a lone chart of the captain was falleng from a lone chart of ing the captain, were assembled on deck.

"One man, Thomas Fraser, of Arichat, who was suffering from a lame leg, which had been hurt by a dory a few days previously, remained in his berth. We swept over the reef and struck the mainland rock in a few moments. There was an effort made to launch a dory, but she smashed and filled as soon as she was in the water, before any one had time to board her. The seas were so short by breaking on the vessel and mixing with the rout on the shore that dories could not live.

"Having been wet by the spray I went to change some clothing. The captain came down and said he would hava a mug of tea, which he took. He appeared cool and collected, climbed up the rigging and hung a signal lamp which, being high, cast a light on the shore, and when the vessel drew in with the waves showed a rock under her bowsprit.

About an hour from the time she struck some of the crew turned their attention to getting ashore from the bowsprit and three succeeded in doing so, dropping from the end of the bowsprit when the vessel came in over the beam ends.

"Soon a wave carried off this one, and he was drowned in a few moments among the wreckage that hung around the craft.

"Our presence could be of no further use and we started to find a dwelling, which we did about a mile away. We were treated humanely and came to Canso."

The scene of the wreck is between Little Dover and White Point, one of the roughest spots of the coast.

The schooner is a total wreck. The bottom is beaten out, the masts gone and the top broken in two.

MR. SOLOMON COMING.

MR. SOLOMON COMING.

R. Stuart Solomon, freeman, of St. John, and well-known to many in this city, is expected here from England next week. Mr. Solomon will spend at least a month in the province. While on his last visit to St. John, upwards of a year ago, Mr. Solomon was deeply interested in the welfare of the 4th Regt. C. A., some of the volunteers from which he had met in South Africa. So deep was his interest that he offered to the regiment a sliver cup for competition. He first wished to send the money for the cup but on the request of the officers Mr. Solomon himself made the selection in England and it is thought that he is bringing the trophy out with him now. At a meeting of the officers it was decided that the cup would be competed for on three conditions: First, that it would be given to the best company score in rife shooting; second, that it would be a challenge cup, and third, that it would be competed for annually.

MR. PURDY'S OMISSION.

The point raised in the discussion of the bill respecting the liability of employers, that the bill did not apply to men working in a quarry, was not raised by Mr. Purdy, but by Mr. Hasen. Yet Mr. Purdy and his ticket got a much larger vote than the labor candidates in such wards as Lansdowne, which may be assumed to have some interest in the welfare of quarrymen. In fact there is a belief that a good. Interest in the welfare of quarrymen.
In fact there is a belief that a good many men who work in quarries voted the government ticket. In view of this it was confidently expected that Mr.
Purdy and Mr. Lantalum, to say nothing of Mr. McKeown and Mr. Robertson, would insist that any benefits likely to accrue to any class of laborers from the compensation set were belikely to accrue to any class of labor-ers from the compensation act must be extended to the quarrymen. It is per-haps unfortunate that Mr. Hazen call-ed attention to the matter. He should have left that for Mr. Purdy to do. Mr. Purdy knows about quarries and quarrymen, and would have been the proper person to bring the government to terms and insist upon an amend-ment making the bill apply to men who labor in the quarries. Mr. Hazen has apparently made a tactical blunder. He evidently gave serious offence to Mr. Purdy, for that gentleman did not take up the cause of the quarrymen at all.

It is a pity, of course, because, as the case stands, nothing whatever was done for those men, although they voted good and hard for the government ticket. Mr. Purdy and his colleagues will no doubt call a meeting of quarry-men as soon as the house rises, and ex-plain the whole matter.

THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC.

If there is the slightest possibility of the government giving aid to a Grand Trunk Pacific programme which would make the Atlantic winter terminus of the line anywhere outside of the lower provinces, there is work for Col. Tuck er. The colonel has only to consult the files of the St. John Telegraph, and confront Sir Wilfrid Laurier with his own declaration made in this city half a dozen years ago that he would never be content until every pound of Can-adian freight was carried through Can-

Philippines is not yet ended. The South African war was concluded some time ago. In view of remarks made from time to time in American papers about the slow progress of the British in South Africa, there appears to be room for a few words in a similar vein in relation to the progress of the America forces in the Philippines.

SHOULD GO SLOW.

With perhaps one or two exceptions have never given service at all satis-factory nor yielded any profits. They were not well constructed in the first place, nor kept in anything like a state place, nor kept in anything like a state of decent repair. Money was made by somebody when the lines were built, and there the profit and the utility largely ceased. Why should the province spend further large sums on such enterprises? Who will profit by it? Who is asking for it? What public demand her there have been considered that there have the sum of the s mand has there been for such expendi-ture? These and other questions may fairly be asked before the province commits itself to a lavish expenditure from an already overtaxed revenue.

ST. JOHN'S OPPORTUNITY

OTTAWA. May 7.—If the Grand Trunk Pacific Co. expected to get their folil through the railway committee without opposition they were disagreeably disappointed this morning. Sir Charles Rivers Wilson and C. M.
Hays and Wm. Wainwright represented the promoters and Canadian Pacific and Canadian Northern representatives wached the proceedings closely. The bill made practically no progress and much work remains to be done before it gets through.

Leighton McCarthy, M. P., explained that Canada was in need of railroads and that the Grand Trunk Pacific proposed to supply another. The C. P. R. had done splendid service. The Grand Trunk Pacific proposed to run from the Pacific to Quebec, where it would join the Intercolonial, and this would complete a line entirely through Canadian territory clear across the continent. There was a change in the route proposed. Instead of going to North Bay from Quebec it was proposed to swing to the north, passing just south of Lake Abittibi. This point was a couple of hundred miles north of North Bay. This change would open up a very important portion of the province of Quebec. The Grand Trunk was serious in this matter.

After Sir Charles Rivers Wilson had explained the features of the bill he stated that the Grand Trunk being intimately bound up in the history of Canada, would give Canadian ports preference over Portland during the winter months. This latter announcement was the crux of his speech.

Mr. Hays then took the floor, and his utterances were most important. The scheme laid down by the directors provides that construction will begin simultaneously at a number of points.

Mr. Hays then took the floor, and his utterances were most important. The scheme laid down by the directors provides that construction will begin simultaneously at a number of points.

Mr. Hays then the development of the scheme laid down to the preferred to Portland if the dominion would supply facilities at ocean ports.

This brought Mr. Fowler of Kings,

Mr. Hays admitted that t

The ship laborers are insured in the Employer's Liability Assurance Co. At a rate of 11-2 cents per dollar. A large number of the policies have now was provided and at the information that no plans had matured for extension from Quebec.

Mr. Hays, in reply to questions, volunteered the information that no plans had matured for extension from Quebe to the maritime provinces. Any freight for eastern Canada would have to be handed over to the intercolonial. The company were not prepared to promise any mileage eastward. Mr. Hays also admitted that the intercolonial could not handle all the freight that would offer by a large percentage.

Mr. Fowler again insisted on the rights do look after themselves at Portland they could also provide shipping facilities at St. John and Halifax.

WAGES DIFFICULTY SETTLED. P. W. A. Men of the I. C. R. Get Increases of From Seven to Fifteen Per Cent.

Per Cent.

The Halifax Chronicle is officially informed that the I. C. R. management has just completed an adjustment of wages of some of its employes. In brief, the change which is in the nature of an advance applies to station baggage masters, machinists, carpenters and employees on the Strait of Canso steamer Scotia. Several months age P. W. A. officials representing employees of the I. C. R. between Truro and Sydney made a demand for increased wages. This demand was not granted by the I. C. R. It was renewed from time to time but the prespect of a settlement seemed remote. So finally the P. W. A. announced that if the I. C. R. did not come to an agreement with the men before May 5th a general strike would then be ordered.

Following the announcement condered.

Following the announcement conferences took place between Secretary Moffatt of the P. W. A., a committee from that organization and the management of the I. C. R. The last conference took place on Monday and after the matter had been thoroughly threshed out, General Superintendent Price of the I. C. R., announced that the road was willing to grant increases varying from seven to fifteen per cent. These terms were accepted and the strike idea abandoned. The new schedule is to take sflect from April last, last.

SHIP LABORERS NOT INTER-ESTED.

SHIP LABORERS NOT INTERESTED.

The Ship Laborers' Union meeting was held last night, when the following officers and committee were elected for the ensuing term, May, June and July: President, John Killen; ist vice-president, John Thompson; 2nd vice-president, John Thompson; 2nd vice-president, Jeremiah Donovan; financial secretary, James Brennan; treasurer, Thos. Sullivan; secretary, M. J. Kelly; committee of management, Henry Lee, John McAndrews, Michael Clancy, John Cooper, Wm. Doherty, Thos. George, Charles McCarthy, John Murphy, Jas. McCluskey, Thos. McCarthy, Hugh Gourley, Daniel Donovan, Charles Jesseau, and Jas. Moore. No reference was made to the strike in Montreal.

The ship laborers are insured in the Employer's Liability Assurance Co. at a rate of 11-2 cents per dollar. A large number of the policies have now expired and as the assurance company is asking 2 cents per dollar, the insured are doubtful whether they will renew. The matter was left in the hands of a committee.

NEW YORK, May 7.— Gunfire won the twelfth running of the Metropolitan handicap at Morris Park today before 48,000 cheering spectators, who had made Mr. Whitney's swift filly the favorite in the betting. With T. Burns in the saddle, she broke the track record by one second, the race record by one and one-quarter seconds; displayed speed and gameness and was the first of her sex to win this classic, which opened the American turt season. Diplomatic Ruture in France.

ROME, May 7.—President Loubet of France will visit Rome shortly after the visit of the car. The pope, after consulting with the cardinals, has decided not to receive the French president. This decision will be semi-officially communicated to France in the hope that M. Loubet will not ask for an interview with his holiness. It is feared however, that he will ask for one in order to court a refusal, which is certain if Prime Minister Combes, who is enforcing the Religious Association's Law, is still in office when M. Loubet comes here.

The pope's refusal to see the president of France will certainly lead to a diplomatic rupture between the vatican and the French government and the abolition of the concordat.

Swanton house fronting on Waterlos street is occupied by Mr. Swanton and George Lobb.

In the Winchester house there resides Mrs. Robinson on the top floor and Mrs. Gibbs on the second story, while the basement is used as a storehouse. The three buildings in question are two story fronts and three stories in the rear. It was shortly after 1 o'clock that fairs, Gibbs was awakened by the smoke. Her apartments were almost suffocating and on a quick investigation, she heard the crackling of the fire which seemed to her to be between the buildings in the rear. She alarmed Mrs. Robinson and it was only a few minutes when the men in Mr. Swanton's house, being aroused, saw the flames break out between the leils of the houses.

An alarm was sent in from box 21 and the fire department were soon at work. The situation of the buildings was somewhat puzzling to the firemen at first but by hard work they were not long in getting the fire under control and prevented what promised a more serious confiagration. The rear of the three dwellings were badly gutted.

Mr. Pale's furniture was badly damaged and is uninsured. The same applies to Mr. Lobb, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Gibbs, while Mr. Swanton's apart.

A BUNCH OF KEYS.

With regard to novelty, character and brilliancy no comedy organization has an advantage over Hoyt's A Bunch of Keys, which comes to the Opera House on next Monday evening. This comedy is an innovation to begin with, and when it is taken into consideration that the company embraces artists who are stars in their particular lines some idea of the real strength of the entertainment may be gained. The management is entitled to no small credit in assumeh as the venture is representative of the investment of an unusual degree of genius and a liberal amount of generosity as the costuming and seenic details for A Bunch of Keys are estaid to outrival the most extravagant attempts ever made in that direction in the production of a farce comedy. One of the chief merits of the organization is the fact that the female contingent combines talent with its

FOR LONG RANGE SHOOTING.

County Rifie Association will Improve Sussex Range—Civilians in Provincial Matches.

The council of the Provincial Rifie Association met last evening at the 62nd headquarters. The president, Col. H. H. McLean, being absent in Montreal, Major Kinnear was voted to the chair. The executive committee was elected consisting of the following: Majors Kinnear, McRobble, Capts, R. H. Arnold, Jas. Manning and M. Nellson.

The selection of the team to compete in the maritime matches was referred to the executive committee, and it was further resolved that at the forthcoming match at Halifax it would be recommended that the conditions of the match would be so changed as to admit civilians as members of the tams.

It was decided to carry out repairs to the present butts at the Sussex rifle range and to make provision if possible for having range shooting at the next annual matches. With a view to this it has been decided to remove the present range out, and if possible to construct long range firing points,

At arge audience greeted the popular favorite George F. Hall in An American Hustler at the Opera House last evening, and greatly enjoyed the bright comedy and the clever specialties that are interspersed. While Mr. Hall is the one around whom the interest of he play centres, he has a good supporting company. The work of Miss Jessie Cromette as the principal of the young ladies' seminary was exceptionally good and Mr. Auburne, in the little he had to do as the old lawyer gave evidence of much ability. Olive North, was not well supported by the sharer of her sorrows. Mr. Lefevre, as Bart Binks, the lawyer's clerk, talked entirely too rapidly for even a Hustler's clerk, since was worselimes unintelligible and spoiled the effect of some clever dialogues. Frankle St, John was a somewhat improbable seminary maid, but won repeated encores for her singing. logues. Frankie St. John was a some-what improbable seminary maid, but won repeated encores for her singing and dancing. Mr. Hall himself of course got a great reception and it was well merited. The other parts were in good hands. The whole performance is full of fun and very enjoyable. It will be repeated this evening and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

THE CARLETON SQUARES.

The funeral of the late E. L. Whittaker, which was held at hair past two o'clock this afternoon from his late home, 103 Wright street, was very, largely attended. Revs. Dr. Wilson and G. M. Campbell conducted services and the body was interred in Fernhill cemetery. Members of the board of trade walked among the mourners. Yesterday the body of James Ross, formerly of Moncton, and who died in Boston, was brought to the city. The funeral was held at hair past two o'clock this afternoon from the residence of Peter Campbell, 4f Hazen street. Rev. Dr. Macrae officiated and interment was in Fernhill.

THE QUEEN IS COMING.

The board of health yesterday considered the estimates for the current year to be submitted to the next meeting of the municipal council. The estimates are chiefly for ordinary routine work and no extraordinary expenditures are expected. The Board ask refunds of the amounts expended on the four cases of smallpox which have been treated since last July. The expenses consequent upon these cases amount to about two thousand dollars, and these were paid out of the ordinary funds by the board.

THE COMING FESTIVAL.

The New Brunswick Festival Association have issued a circular to the citizens calling attention to the splendid array of talent to be brought here by Mr. Chapman in the autumn, and asking course tickets to be liberally subscribed for, to meet the expense and risk of so great an undertaking. The response no doubt will be generous. The festival this year will doubtless be the greatest musical success in the history of the city, and the efforts of the association should be heartily supported.

Indiantown people have again been fooled on the freshet and it now seems as if there would be no rise of water worth speaking of this year. The river has aiready risen four times and has each time gone down again within a few days. Alternating spells of warm and cold weather and occasional rains have been the cause of several little freshets, which were cut short before they got fair starts. Owing to the conditions existing upriver a few days ago it was thought that the rise in the water, following upon the recent rains, would bring on the big freshet. But this morning the water has failen considerably and with it have failen the expectations of a freshet.

RECENT WEDDINGS.

The residence of Mr, and Mrs. Andrew Leaman, Bonaccord street, Moncton, was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday evening April 29th, when their daughter, Ida May, was united in marriage to Wesley Lutes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Hutchinson in the presence of a large number of friends.

The marriage took place on April 29, at the residence of C. I. White, Sand River, N. S., of Edwin E. Morris, of Truemanville, to Miss Hannah P. Brown, of Sand River, Rev. C. W. Swallow, B. A., tying the nuptial knot.

THE NEW BRICK. The outlook of the Cape Breton Silicate Brick Co., whose works are situated in North Sydney, is so encouraging that the directors have just decided to send one of their number, Captain David Rudderham, to Germany and Sweden with a view to purchasing additional machinery of the most approved type. In both of these countries silicate brick making is now a well established industry. On Tuesday the company turned out four thousand bricks.

Geő. Malcolm, who has in past seasons pitched for both the Roses and Alerts has been signed by the Franklyns for the amateur league season. It is understood that Jimmy Whelly will pitch for the Clippers.

The Franklyns practice every fine evening on the Barrack Square and are showing up in good shape. They have as opponents the Victorias, a smart junior team.

THE MONTREAL STRIKE.

The Montreal shipping men yesterday refused to accept the proposition made by the strike leaders. They will not recognize the union. The Montreal branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association have expressed sympathy with the shipping men.

The cost of the militia thus far has been $5,000.

About 1,311 non-union men were at work yesterday. There are 3,220 men in the list of striking longshoremen.

Sir William Mulock arrived in Montreal last night and held a conference with shipping men and strike leaders and hopes to effect a settlement of the trouble.

Three of the Jurymen who inquired into the cause of John Mangan's death at Musquash recently, came to the city yesterday to see if they couldn't do anything to change their verdict.

Max Anderson, John Murray and Jas. O'Donnell are the jurymen who came and they think the verdict too strong, and want one declaring Mangan's death accidental. They called on Magistrate Ritchie to see if anything could be done. They said that this verdict was not the one they intended to render, but they wished to find "accidental eath." It is understood that thon, Mr. Ritchie told them nothing could be done now, it was too late; that they had given their verdict under oath and signed it.

Then they went to see D. Mullin, K. C., who is counsel for Devine in the matter, Mr. Mullin says they told him they stood six to one in the Jury room to bring in a verdict of accident, and that the reason they did not do so was that Coroner Berryman, who preside at the inquest, had instructed them otherwise and dictated the verdict as it appeared.

Coroner Berryman says that one juryman asked him how to word a six appeared.
