

TROUBLE BREWING IN INDIA

Hindus and Moslems Threatened to Refuse Co-operation in Government Unless Turkish Treaty Revised.

ANXIETY IS FELT OVER EMIGRATION

Movement to Border Countries May Mean Assembling of Army of Invasion.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co., Geneva, July 17.—Total abstention from co-operation with the government of India on the part of the entire Hindu and Moslem population will begin on August 1st, unless the Turkish peace treaty is revised in a manner compatible with the Mohammedan religious sentiment of the Sultan—such is the message received by Indian Nationalists in Switzerland from Schauli and Mahatma Gandhi, the Moslem and Hindu leaders, who have joined hands in a movement for India's independence. If they carry out their threat the result must be chaos. "Abstention from co-operation" is a doctrine of passive resistance conceived by Gandhi, whose ostensible creed is "to oppose brute force with soul force." It was first adopted by the All India Khilafat conference some months ago, and more recently by a national congress of India, held at Madras, which established principles for its practical application, setting forth that it is the duty of every Indian, first, to renounce all honorary posts and titles and all memberships of legislative councils; second, to give up all posts in the government service; third, to give up all appointments on the police and military forces; fourth, to refuse to pay taxes to the government.

It stands to reason that the logical outcome of such measures would be complete administrative anarchy. The situation in India, overshadowed as it is by this menace, is described as being extremely grave by responsible travellers coming from the East. They declare that within the memory of man, national religious feeling has not been so intensely widespread among all castes and races in India as it is today. In many districts country nationalist chiefs themselves are experiencing great difficulty in restraining their people from withdrawing their co-operation from the government, without waiting to hear what the Allies decide to do about the Sultan, concern for whose welfare is in reality only a pretext for revolutionary agitation against British rule.

One of the strangest manifestations of the spirit of unrest now prevailing in India is found in the emigration to Afghanistan, which is assuming considerable proportions. Several thousand Indian Moslems have left their homes lately to settle in the rugged mountain realm of the empire of Amanullah Khan, who has proclaimed himself protector of "oppressed" Muslims, and 25,000 more recently applied for permission to join them. There is reason to suspect that many of these "emigrants" are really recruits for an army of Indian Nationalists, which Amir Amanullah and his Bolshevik advisers are raising to invade India, together with Afghan forces.

The Indian Government now appears decided to repress the Nationalist movement and arrests of noted agitators are taking place all over the country, giving rise to great demonstrations of popular sympathy for the prisoners.

Every indication points to the rapid approach of an ominous crisis in the affairs of the Indian empire.

MARINE WORKERS REFUSE TERMS Offered by Halifax Shipyard—All Hope of Early Settlement of Strike Shattered.

Halifax, N. S., July 18.—All hope of an early settlement of the marine workers' strike was shattered late on Saturday afternoon when it was announced at the strike committee's headquarters that the men had refused to return to work on the terms submitted by the management of the Halifax shipyards. The management of the yards declined to recognize the union, and also reserved the right to discriminate against some of the former employees of the yard.

MANY WOUNDED IN STREET FIGHT

Ammured cars and lorries were called from the barracks and stationed at various points. Quiet has been restored.

Premier Murray, in addition to representing Victoria, is contesting Richmond.

Summarized, in 17 counties, the Liberal party has made nominations; the Conservative party in 14, the Farmers' party in 9 and the Labor party in 4 counties.

CONSIDERABLE BENEFIT TO FISH INDUSTRY

Amendments to the Fish Inspection Act Expected to be Great Help to Canadian Trade.

Ottawa, Ont., July 18.—Legislation passed at the recent session of parliament in the form of amendments to the Fish Inspection Act, making it compulsory to pack, grade and mark fish according to standard, is expected to result in considerable benefit to the trade. Such legislation had been sought in many quarters of the fishing industry for many years. Its urgency is brought home by the fact that Canadian pickled fish is not of as high a standard as the product of other countries less fortunately equipped and this has adversely affected the industry.

The new act becomes operative on the Pacific Coast on Nov. 1 next, while on the Atlantic Coast it will be April 1, 1921, before it becomes effective. Following these details, an inspecting officer will have power to enter any premises, vessel or boat where he has reason to believe there are containers of fish subject to the provisions of the act, packing and curing houses will also be subject to inspection. Containers packed with fish which do not meet with requirements, it is provided, shall be held by the inspector until the name of the maker is ascertained and properly affixed, and at the same time, the maker is held liable to a penalty.

The outstanding feature of the new law is that it makes compulsory the putting up of pickled herring, alewives, mackerel and salmon, other than mild cured, according to provisions laid down as to packing, grading, and marking of containers and inspection. The original act of 1914 made such provisions optional.

Midkiff, an adopted son of Madame Schumann-Heink, the prima donna, and son of a minister at Decatur, Illinois, were killed instantly in a near-plane fall near here today. PRESS MUZZLED BY JAPANESE

Tokio, July 17.—As bearing on the freedom of the press in Korea promised by the Japanese government in that country, a Seoul despatch to the Asahi says that the To-A-Nippo (The Far Eastern Daily News) has been subject to suspensions because of the publication of "anti-nationalistic articles," that is to say, anti-Japanese. The Asahi says the Governor-General thinks that the general attitude of the newspaper toward the administration is too "reprehensible" to be allowed to continue. The Journal adds that there is a tendency among Korean newspapers to give publicity to articles which the authorities think fit to suppress.

GERMANS OPPOSE THE POLISH "CORRIDOR"

Propaganda Already Started to Help Upper Silesia and Poland's Outlet to the Sea.

ARE DEMANDING PLEBISCITE

Urgently Request Modification of Treaty to Prevent Separation of East Prussia.

By S. B. CONGER. (Special Cable Despatch. Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co.)

Berlin, July 18.—Encouraged by the overwhelming German victory in the east and west Prussian plebiscites and Poland's unhappy military position, German propaganda is mobilizing to secure the abandonment of two important features of the Versailles treaty, viz., the upper Silesian plebiscite and the establishment of the so-called Polish corridor connecting Poland with the sea at Danzig. Foreign Minister Simon's suggestion at Spa that the Allies abandon the idea of a plebiscite in upper Silesia and permit German retention of all important industrial and mineral regions was received enthusiastically by the German newspapers which emphasize the long connection of the provinces with Prussia and the alleged certainty that the result in Silesia, like that of Sunday, will be a landslide toward Germany. The attack against the Polish "corridor" separation of Germany from the cherished province of East Prussia, which every German heart expects must come in military form in the not distant future, is now being anticipated by a more peaceful onslaught of serious batallions of statistics designed to show that the territories of the corridor are as predominantly German in population as are the areas wherein the plebiscite was just held. The newspapers demand that the war victors, having granted the Poles the favor of a plebiscite in areas proved uncontestedly German, should revise the Versailles instrument to give the population of the corridor the chance to say whether they do not wish to return to Germany.

Future of Danzig.

The future of Danzig, which now is the occasion of bitter controversy between the desires of the German population and the aspirations of the Polish Government, will be decided, according to the high commissioner, Sir Robert Tower, who returned from Spa, at the new conference of ambassadors meeting in Paris September 1. The draft of the constitutions prepared by Poland and the municipality of Danzig, which are widely divergent on the amount of authority Poland shall exercise over the free city, will be considered. The ambassadors will adopt a definite constitution and a treaty defining the Poland-Danzig relations, then through Sir Tower will launch the free city as a full-fledged member in the society of nations. Commissioner Tower expects to terminate the mission and resign October 1.

SEAPLANES VISITED FREDERICTON SAT.

Were En Route from Halifax to Lake St. John, Quebec, to Go Into Forestry Work.

Fredericton, July 18.—Two seaplanes enroute to Lake St. John, Quebec, to undertake forestry work for the Quebec government under commission from the Canada Air Board, stopped at Fredericton on Saturday. The first remained here somewhat over an hour, took on supplies of petrol and then resumed its journey while the second plane, which had been delayed by mechanical trouble at Halifax and did not finally get away from there until noon, remained here over night and resumed its journey at dawn today. It encircled the city about 5:30 o'clock this morning a couple of times, before leaving and appeared to be operating in a perfect manner.

Colonel Robert Leckie and Capt. Glenn were in command of the first plane, while Capt. Wilson and Capt. Quigley were in charge of the second machine, both being Curtis flying boats with 330 horse power motors. The first plane, after crossing the Bay of Fundy, followed the coast line to St. John and then came all the way up the St. John river, which as the second plane came by a more direct route and did not strike the St. John river until at Gagetown, about 2:50 p.m., reaching here at 3:15 p.m. The flying time from Halifax of the first plane was three hours and fifty minutes, while the second machine's time was three hours and forty minutes, both having encountered head winds all the way.

At 11:55 a.m. Atlantic standard time the first seaplane from Halifax containing Col. Robert Leckie, Capt. J. E. Glenn and the engineer, Samuel McCauley, arrived here. After lunch, here and refueling their machine they left for Roberval, Quebec via Fraserville. The second plane rose from Halifax at dawn but had to put back again because of expressed himself very well pleased in an air taxi bursting out of the water with the landing facilities on the St. John river which would make Fredericton a very desirable station on the proposed air route between Halifax and Montreal.

The log of the first plane showed that at 8:05 o'clock it left Halifax, passing Windsor, N. S., at 8:55 o'clock. At 9:21 o'clock the plane passed over Scotsman's Bay and the Isle Haute in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and at 10:55 the City of St. John was passed. The plane was refueled here and left on a straight line for Fraserville to cross the St. Lawrence river to Roberval on Lake St. John, their destination.

The second plane arrived in this city and landed gracefully in the St. John river at the Coney Island livery on Saturday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. The log of the plane shows that the air drome at Dartmouth was left behind at 11:35 a.m. after the machine had put back and had a new oil tank installed. At 12:15 o'clock the machine passed Windsor and at 1:15 was over the Isle Haute in the Bay of Fundy. Here a thirty mile per hour wind was encountered which necessitated much maneuvering. From the Isle Haute it passed to the east of St. John cutting off about fifteen miles of their trip and thus saving time. They passed over Gagetown at 3:15 arrived here.

VALLEY TRAIN JUMPS RAILS AT GAGETOWN

Locomotive and Passengers of Afternoon Express to This City in the Mishap.

ROADBED WAS BADLY DAMAGED

All the Settings for a Nasty Smash-up as Place of Accident Was at Top of Embankment.

Special to The Standard. Gagetown, July 18.—Another run-off took place on the St. John and Quebec Railway yesterday afternoon as the express to St. John was passing the Abbot homestead, about four miles below this village. The train left here as usual, shortly after one o'clock, and was proceeding smoothly enough when, without any warning, it began to rock and jolt badly and a hurried application of the brakes brought it to an abrupt standstill. An examination showed the whole train, except the Pullman coach at the end, to be off the rails and fairly sunk into the roadbed. Appearances would indicate that the run-off was caused by spreading rails. Communication was at once established with Fredericton and shortly after three a wrecking train crew arrived in charge of Asst. Supt. R. Z. Walker and soon got to work. When your correspondent arrived on the scene the up train from St. John had just reached the spot, and the engine of it was at once uncoupled and by its aid the engine of the wrecked train was pulled back on the rails. The work of setting the cars on again was rather more difficult, as the roadbed was badly cut up, and one of the cars was so deeply embedded as to leave only about a foot or so space between the floor of the car and the rails. However by eight o'clock the whole train had been gotten back on the track, and when about a hundred yards of new track had been laid the trains were able to be moved. The wrecking train and the south bound train backed up to Gagetown again. The train from St. John proceeded on its way and the train for St. John resumed its belated journey at nine o'clock. There were all the settings for a nasty smash-up. The roadbed is at the top of a 10-foot embankment, and the surface is soft and spongy. Had the train not left the centre of the rails, it would have probably have turned over, and there might have been considerable injury if not loss of life to many.

SAD DROWNING AT BLAIR'S LAKE

Special to The Standard. Amherst, N. S., July 18.—A sad drowning accident occurred here, today, at one of Amherst's summer resorts, Blair's Lake, about two miles from Amherst. Audrey Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gould, while canoeing with his companion, lost his life. A heavy wind came up and the craft became unmanageable, turning its occupants out into the water. His companion was able to swim to shore, while Gould, being unable to swim, sank to the bottom. Searching parties have been trying to locate the body at this evening, and at eight o'clock his father located the body with the means of grappling irons.

FIRES THREATEN UPPER GAGETOWN

Forest Fires Which Have Been Raging Two Days Reached Serious Proportion Sunday.

Special to The Standard. Gagetown, N. B., July 18.—A serious forest fire has been raging for the past two days near here. The fire, which has already covered five miles of territory, started at Lower Hersey Corner, but did not reach serious proportions until today. It is sweeping along Swan Creek in two paths. The fire that is causing the greatest damage is burning along the back part of Swan Creek Lake in some valuable timber lands owned by a firm of which A. R. Smith, of Fredericton, is manager. Most of the men in the vicinity are fighting the blaze.

The other part of the fire is burning over the Purney lands. These were cut over last winter by the E. C. Atkinson Co., and there is very little heavy growth on them. The fire is smothering towards Upper Gagetown, and at the time of writing it was just back of Hall bridge, about three-quarters of a mile from the village. All the men in the village are fighting the two fires, while the rest of the inhabitants are keeping anxious watch. Just at present the wind is in their favor, but if it should change the village would be in serious danger.

It is expected that a party of volunteer fire fighters will come up from Gagetown and lend their assistance in combating the fires.

PRINCIPLE IN POLITICS

(Wall Street Journal.) A. F. L. condemns military training in schools on the ground that it "kills initiative" and that the next breath favors government ownership of railroads, which, of course, would cultivate it.

COMMISSIONER SMYTHE SHOT AND KILLED

Was at the Head of the Royal Irish Constabulary—Arrests Made in Connection With Shooting.

Belfast, July 18.—Commissioner Smythe of the Royal Irish Constabulary was shot dead in the Country Club at Cork last night by fourteen armed men who forced their way past the doorman. Smythe was found by the intruders sitting with friends, one of them District Inspector Craig. Several of the men fired point blank at Commissioner Smythe, who rose but fell dead while endeavoring to reach the door. Mr. Craig was wounded during the fusillade. Mr. Smythe was the divisional commissioner for the Munster Royal Irish Constabulary.

It is reported that some arrests have been made in connection with the shooting. Smythe was a captain of the Fifteenth Sikhs during the war and won the Victoria Cross. He lost his left arm during the fighting and returned to England with the rank of colonel. He received the commission a few months ago.

Mr. Smythe's name figured prominently in the House of Commons during the war. He had just returned to Ireland from London where he gave the Irish office an explanation of affairs in Ireland.

CANADIAN RECRUIT OFF THE REEFS

Where it Has Been Held Seven Months—Had Fateful Experience.

Montreal, July 18.—After being on the reefs at Vache Point, near the mouth of the Saguenay River, for nearly seven months, and following salvage operations which have been in progress for the past two months, the Canadian Government Merchant Marine freighter Canadian Recruit was released on Saturday and taken into Tadoussac Bay, where she is now safely anchored. The ship will go into dry dock at Quebec, where an estimate of damage done and repairs needed will be made.

The Canadian Recruit is a vessel of 3,750 tons deadweight tonnage and was built by the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company, at Collingwood, Ont., at a cost of $768,750. She set out last December from Quebec for the West Indies.

The season was very advanced and the ship was soon in difficulties, being stranded a few miles west of the River Ouelle. She was refloated, but again was caught in ice floes, lost her rudder and was finally carried by strong currents onto the reef at Vache Point, whence she was refloated yesterday.

COMMODORE JARVIS GIVES HIS VIEWS

On the International Yacht Race—Sums up Situation in One Expressive Word.

New York, July 18.—(By Canadian Press)—Commodore Aedonius Jarvis, the well known Canadian yachtsman, is very reticent about making any comment for publication in Canadian newspapers regarding the international yacht races between the Shamrock IV and Resolute. It is generally known, however, that Commodore Jarvis occupies an advisory position of no mean importance among the Canadian Press to sum his personal views up in this manner: "D for Dan, A for Adam, M for Mary; latter you may publish."

It is not known whether this mild excretion has reference to Saturday's weather or the fact that the Shamrock did not win.

FIRE DAMAGES SUSSEX CHURCH

Special to The Standard. Sussex, N. B., July 18.—About two o'clock this afternoon smoke was seen pouring out of the doors and windows of St. Francis Xavier church by a gentleman passing by who rang in an alarm from Box 52. The fire department promptly responded and, after a half hour hard fighting, extinguished a stubborn blaze that had been started by lighted candles falling from a candelabra near the altar. The church was damaged to the extent of about a thousand dollars. The loss is covered by insurances.

BELGIANS AT SPA OBJECTED TO GERMAN FLAG

Was Camouflaged With Kalsomine, But the Rain Washed Out the Color.

MISUNDERSTANDING CAUSED DISCORD

Conflict Between Lieutenant and Newspaperman Due to Mistake of Music Played.

Spa, July 17.—This is a story of how a can of kalsomine produced an international incident.

In a certain house there are lodged a number of attaches of the German delegation. A small crowd, gathered in front of it, was watching the Germans enter after a session with the Allied experts. Suddenly someone exclaimed that there was a German flag flying from the balcony. "Sure enough there it was—black, white and red, waving above the heads of the gathering. Indignation grew rapidly until several men climbed to the balcony and tore down the flag. By this time the police had arrived. The crowd was dispersed and the chief of police started an investigation.

Here is the result of his inquiry. When the Germans departed from Spa in 1918 they left a great number of German flags behind. The Belgian flag is like the German flag except that the white stripe of the former Empire's banner is replaced by orange. In preparing for the Spa conference many folks here painted a yellowish white stripe in the German flag. Most of the paint used was good, but in the house in question a small boy of the family had used kalsomine. It had rained and the Belgian flag had turned back to a German flag.

There have been numbers of such incidents produced by the presence of the Germans here but none of them have been serious. The greatest difficulty has been that growing out of the objections of the Belgians to sitting in cafes with the Germans. German visitors for the first few days were inconspicuous. But finding that the Belgians were tolerant they grew more bold and for the past few days have been frequenting the Spa cafes until the early hours of the morning, and, as is generally the case, too much drink has produced a certain friction. These occasions, however, have been much over-emphasized, as, for instance, the incident of the beating of Herr Stockloss, a German newspaperman by a Belgian lieutenant. French newspapers have printed that the Belgian flag was singing "Die Wacht am Rhein" and therefore the Belgian beat him. German newspapers have said that it was Herr Dernburg, "former ambassador to America," who was beaten.

Truth About Stockloss.

The truth of the matter is that a party of Germans, among whom were Herr Stockloss and Herr Dernburg, had been drinking for several hours in the Excelsior cafe, and were next to some Belgian officers. The atmosphere was becoming dangerous when the orchestra played "God Save the King." The Belgians evidently were not familiar with the English anthem, but they knew a German song by the same tune. One of the Germans laughed and the next anyone knew was the young Belgian officer had struck him with a riding crop. The Germans quickly scattered, but the Belgian pursuing Stockloss across the street, kicking him vigorously. Herr Dernburg did not get beaten. He ran an alley. The Belgian Government after investigation, expressed its regrets to the German delegation, but advised the Germans to get to bed earlier.

As a rule the behavior of the Belgians has been very correct, although from a sentiment which they show very plainly they are not open to the charge of being pro-German.

EMPIRE PROBLEMS Canada's Self-Reliance Implies Greater Need for Patience and Mutual Consideration.

London, July 17.—The relations of Canada and the other overseas dominions to Britain as members of the League of Nations is exercising official circles in London. The question is whether the relations of the dominions and the League are to be subordinated or whether they will take steps to act in concert with the Mother Country. Sir James Allen, recently appointed high commissioner for New Zealand in London, states the attitude of his country is that the dominions' representations to the League should be forwarded through the Mother Country, after consultation with the British Government.

The other dominions, of whom Canada is understood to be one, are in favor of dealing direct with the League. The matter is not one which can wait the next Imperial Conference since that will not be held until next year, while the first meeting of the League will take place this autumn.

The view of Col. L. S. Amery, Under Secretary of State for Colonial Affairs as expressed to your correspondent on his return from Canada is that it would be highly desirable that the dominions and the Mother Country should act in consultation with each other in dealings with the League just as Canadian and British representatives at Washington have arranged to cooperate.

Leading Athletes Of United States

More Than One Hundred Were Selected to Represent That Country in Olympic Games—All Night Session of American Committee.

Boston, July 18.—More than 100 of the leading athletes of the United States were selected to represent that country in the Olympic games at Antwerp next month at an all-night session of the American Olympic Committee which ended early today. The selections were based almost entirely upon the showing made at the final trials at Harvard Stadium yesterday at which all parts of the country were represented. Twenty thousand people saw the tests. Members of the committee express the opinion that the 1920 team is the strongest ever sent to represent the United States at an Olympic gathering. The team includes four holders of world's records, J. Meredith D. F. Ahern, F. K. Foss and Pat Ryan, Meredith and Pat McDonald, the weight men, who won their places at the Stockholm Olympiad, of 1912. The East leads in places won on the team with sixty seven names.

BRITAIN AND JAPAN GUIDED BY LEAGUE

Alliance, if Renewed Next Year, to Conform With Covenant, They Announce.

By CARL W. ACKERMAN. Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. London, July 17.—Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the League of Nations, today announced that Great Britain and Japan had sent a joint letter from Spa stating that if the Anglo-Japanese alliance is renewed next year "it must be in a form which is not inconsistent with the covenant" of the league.

Because the exchange of notes became known confidentially in the House of Commons Monday, the Labor party did not move an adjournment to call attention to the treaty, as had been planned on Saturday. The letter from the Japanese ambassador, M. Chinda, and Lord Curzon from Spa, dated July 8, was published today. It says: "The governments of Great Britain and Japan have come to the conclusion that the Anglo-Japanese agreement of July 23, 1911, now existing between the two countries, though in harmony with the spirit of the covenant of the League of Nations, is not entirely consistent with the letter of that covenant, which both governments earnestly desire to respect. They accordingly have the honor jointly to inform the league that they have recognized that principles and that if the said agreement be continued after July, 1921, it must be in a form which is not inconsistent with that covenant."

"QUARTZ ARTS" BALL TRADITIONAL REVEL

Costumes as Near Ancient Egyptians as Police Rules Would Permit.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. Paris, July 17.—The revival of the "Quartz Arts" ball by the art students and models of Paris was celebrated here during a couple of hours Monday night and most of the hours of Tuesday morning in a manner that would have done credit to an Imperial Egyptian entertainment committee during the painted days of old Memphis. Three thousand painters, sculptors, architects were out in costumes according to early Egyptian fashion books. The result was that streets and boulevards leading to the Salle Wagram, where the ball was held, was thronged with Egyptian deities, pharaohs, chariot drivers, Nubian slaves and captive queens displaying considerable tinted skin, much heavily bearded jewelry and conforming as closely to the mode of

Baseball Game Played At Anagance

Players from the Moncton General Offices of the C. N. R. Defeated Anagance Saturday by a Score of 4 to 3.

Anagance, N. B., July 17.—Perhaps what is termed by the citizens of this village as the best baseball match played here this season was witnessed this evening by a large number of fans including a number of visitors from the neighboring towns and a large crowd of Moncton rooters, when the Moncton lads from the general offices of the C. N. R. defeated the Anagance team in a fast and interesting game by a score of 4-3. Throughout the whole six innings both teams played air-tight ball, although the home team started out strong when they scored three runs in the second inning. Up until the last half of the sixth inning the winners had only sent one man across the plate. The excitement at this period was most intense and the rooters for the home team thought that Anagance had the game clinched. However the strong end of Moncton's batting order was up. Harkness, the snappy second base man dropped a Texas leaguer over second base. Cormier followed with a smashing two-bagger and Jonah walked. Cummings struck out in short order, but Henry followed with a beautiful liner to right field, bringing home Harkness and Cormier. Menus fled out, but Wall, the star of the evening game, drove a liner through shortstop, scoring Jonah who crossed the plate with the winning run. In the afternoon game the home team won by a score of 10-3 in a loosely played contest. A return game is expected in the near future.

How Far Does Your Car "Drag" its Tires in Every Mile?

That's another way of asking if your wheels are properly aligned, if your brakes are perfectly round and true on both wheels.

And it is just a hint of how serious is this matter of dragging or sliding tires. A wheel out of line constantly drags its tire.

If badly out of line a hundred miles of such driving may strip a tire of its whole tread. If only slightly out of line, the mileage is still reduced by a considerable percentage.

Knowing the many things that Goodyear is doing, to conserve tires—knowing of the nation-wide system of Goodyear Service Stations—you understand why Goodyear has not neglected wheel alignment and brakes.

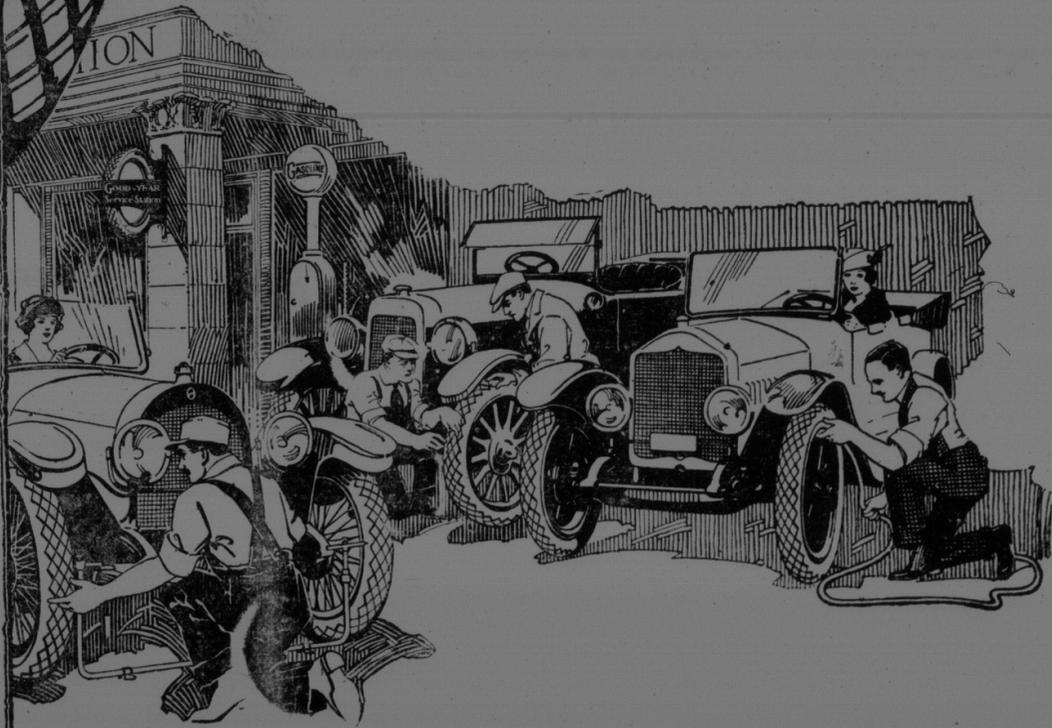

Goodyear Service Stations, impressed with the seriousness of alignment, will gladly test your wheels and brakes.

THE same Goodyear policy which induces tire dealers to save a tire rather than sell a new one at the moment is responsible also for all we do to keep down tire cost-per-mile. It is this policy that has impelled us to help motorists avoid or cure wheels out of line, tread cuts, stone bruises, under-inflation, scraped side-walls and other tire injuries.

This policy of Saving Tires brings such generous returns in mileage that Goodyear cost-per-mile is lower than that of tires which sacrifice quality and service to price or "extra discount."

This fact is so widely known that motorists buy more Goodyear Tires than any other make in the world.

Permission to Marry Given Four Hundred U. S. Soldiers — Married Men Sent Home.

By S. B. CONGER. Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. Coblenz, July 17.—There is a boom in marriages in the American army of occupation.

An official in charge of the marriage permit bureau, indeed, denies that any new policy has been adopted on the marriage of American soldiers and German frauleins, but it is common talk in the army that since the visit of the American chief of staff, General March, the matrimonial lid has been off. Several hundred applications for permission to marry, which had been long held up under the former strict rules, are now being granted.

Marriage involves a free wedding trip to the United States since an inviolable regulation is that a married soldier with a German bride must immediately be transferred to some unit in the United States to serve the balance of his enlistment. The chance of transfer to "God's Country" is an additional inducement to commit matrimony. Some fear has been expressed that it may ultimately become necessary to run trailers on the home-ward-bound transports to accommodate the honeymoon rush if the custom develops more contagiously.

Speaking seriously, your correspondent hears that word has come out to pass affirmatively on 400 to 500 applications now on file and to temper the rigid policy hitherto enforced with more mildness toward soldiers desiring to marry. The rule providing a transfer home will be retained—since otherwise there is danger that the married soldier may become domesticated in the German atmosphere and surroundings, to the detriment of relations which must necessarily prevail between the occupying army and the resident population. The only exception to the home-going regulation is in the case of non-commissioned officers of rank, entitling them to separate quarters but a married line has been established in barracks.

BAGUAN TO COME UNDER PHILIPPINES

Has Been Administered by Governor of British North Borneo.

Manila, P. I., July 17.—(Associated Press.)—The Philippine government has renewed negotiations for control of the little island of Baguan, only 20 miles northeast of British North Borneo in the Sulu Sea. Baguan, although part of the Philippine group ceded by Spain to the United States in the treaty of Paris, has remained under the control of the British North Borneo government, because of the proximity to that island.

Baguan, also known as Turtle Island on account of the great number of turtles there, is inhabited by Moros, who Philippine officials assert, should be placed under the control of the government of the Sulu Archipelago, which is the southernmost part of the Philippine group.

Sir Aylmer Pearson, governor of British North Borneo, has been visiting at Baguio, the summer capital of the Philippines, and officials of the Insular government hoped to complete the preliminary negotiations with him for taking control of Baguan, so that the matter might be presented to Washington for final adjustment in a short time.

The island of Baguan is said to be the clearing house for a ring which smuggles large quantities of opium into the islands of the Sulu archipelago, as well as into the island of Mindanao. Officials believe this opium traffic can be broken up when Baguan is brought under control of the Philippine government.

THE YACHT RACE ON SATURDAY WAS OFFICIALLY DECLARED OFF

Expiration of Sailing Time Limit Saved Lipton Challenger Shamrock IV. After a Drifting Match—Challenger Almost Even With Resolute at First Turn When She Was Becalmed—Defender Better Boat in Light Breeze.

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 18.—Expiration of the sailing time limit saved the Lipton challenger Shamrock IV from apparent defeat at the hands of the cup defender Resolute in the second race yesterday of the 1920 regatta for the America's Cup.

The defender had put more than a half hour's sailing between her and the challenger, and was breeching home under main sail, club topsail and balloon 3b, when the race was officially declared off at 7.38 o'clock.

Under the rules, the thirty-mile triangular course had to be covered within six hours by the leading yacht to make it a race. The time limit would not actually have expired until 7.46.23, but a little more than 20 minutes before the hour Resolute still had nearly eight miles to sail—an impossible feat—and the committee boat hoisted the "no race" signal. At that hour Shamrock IV was more than two miles from the stake that would have seen her on the last leg of the race.

The score still stands Shamrock IV, 1; Resolute, 0. Shamrock IV having captured the first race last Thursday when Resolute was forced to drop out because of an accident to her rigging.

Yesterday's near race was run under conditions ideal in every particular save the essential one of a stiff breeze.

A bright sun shone down on the glassy surface of the Atlantic from a sky almost devoid of clouds. The great armada of pleasure craft rode idly at rest, their brasswork and varnish sparkling in the sun, and their flags and pennants flapping idly in the still air when the committee boat came out from behind the horseshoe of Sandy Hook for the start. A little fleet of airplanes and one lone, silver-sided navy blimp drifted overhead. Shamrock—towering above the Resolute to the starting point at Ambrose Lightship. So still was the air that Shamrock had to call on her lug for aid a second time after she had begun to drift off, and a few minutes before noon, when the race was scheduled to start, the committee ordered a postponement. At 1.30 a breeze came in from the southeast, and the committee ordered a beat southeast against the wind for the first leg; a reach west for the second, and a run home to one-half east for the finish.

Captain Adams of Resolute again appeared to have outmaneuvered Captain Williams of Shamrock IV in the manoeuvres at the start and got Resolute off in the coveted weather berth nine seconds ahead of the challenger. The defender, however, lost a steady gain on Shamrock IV, almost immediately as the two yachts headed out to sea on a long port tack. Resolute steadily outpointed Shamrock IV, edging into the wind, while Shamrock fell further and further to leeward, when Resolute made her first tack to starboard, after traveling about nine miles, and Shamrock IV, followed in her wake, it was seen that Resolute had gained an advantage of nearly a mile. Enthusiasm ran high among the thousands of spectators, crawling along the shore in craft of every size from tiny power boats to sea-going steam yachts and passenger steamers.

Shamrock Spurred.

Shamrock spurred ahead then, and was almost on top of Resolute as they neared the first stake. But Captain Burton was caught in a calm and was not able to round the bobbing buoy until thirty-six minutes after the start. This time Resolute was heading directly into the sun, was so far away that she looked like a gaunt black speck rising at a slight angle from the shimmering sea. The official boat here, many of the boats putting off speed to overtake the scurrying Resolute, while a few lingered to watch the wary Shamrock's effort to overtake the long lead.

Shamrock rewarded the lingers by putting on more speed and cutting the lead down by two minutes. When the "no race" signal and the yacht were taken in tow for the run back to the Hook.

Resolute Led From Start.

Resolute led from the start, just as she had on Thursday up to the time her accident put her out of commission in that race. Furthermore, she held together, and it was the wind yesterday which cracked.

The wind was westerly, but Resolute, as she did on Thursday, soon began to beat to windward, while Shamrock fell off. In half an hour it was clearly seen that the challenger was no match for the defender in going to windward in light air.

The first leg was very slow with Resolute drawing away constantly until a mile from the mark. When the wind gave Shamrock a bit so that she drew up until she was only 750 yards to leeward of the defender. For a few moments the race became exciting. In fact, it looked as if Shamrock might go through Resolute's weather. Then came a remarkable piece of wind chemistry. Both yachts tacked

Two Fine Games Played Saturday—Halifax the Opposing Team — Afternoon Game 5 to 4 — Evening Score 14 to 5.

The Wanderers, a fast team from Halifax, lost two games to the U. V. A. team on St. Peter's grounds Saturday and the large crowd of fans present were pleased with the games.

The score in the first game was 5 to 4 in the evening 14 to 5.

In the afternoon it was an exciting game from start to finish and one which kept the spectators on their toes throughout. The Vets scored two runs in the first inning, the Wanderers got a run across three plate in the second. In the third inning the Vets scored two more runs. There was no scoring in the fourth and fifth, but Halifax put two more across the plate in the sixth and managed in the eighth inning to tie the score. The visitors were blanked in the ninth and there was every indication of an extra inning game. The Vets had two men on bases, two men out, and two strikes on the batter; the crowd was waiting for a third out when the local man swatted a safe one and won the game.

The Halifax boys are fast players and made a good impression on the crowds attending the games.

TEAM TO REPRESENT CANADA AT THE OLYMPIC GAMES CHOSEN

Track and Field Trials Held at Montreal Amateur Athletic Grounds Saturday—Ontario Has Three on Team, British Columbia Two, Manitoba Two, Quebec One, Saskatchewan One—Maritime Entrants Won Second Places

Montreal, July 18.—Following the track and field trials here on Saturday at the Montreal amateur athletic grounds the team that will represent Canada at the Olympic games was chosen.

The athletes selected and the events they will compete in follow:

Alex. Ponton, Ontario, 100 to 400 meters.

Hector Phillips, Ontario, 400 and 800 meters.

Ed. Lawrence, Quebec, 1,000, 5,000 and 10,000 meters.

Thomas Town, Manitoba, 1,500, 5,000 and 10,000 meters.

Earle J. Thompson, Saskatchewan, 100 meters hurdles; 400 meters, pentathlon.

E. C. Freeman, Ontario, walks.

Arcelie McDiarmid, British Columbia, 58 weight and hammer.

John McEachern, Manitoba, 66 pound weight and hammer.

John Cameron, British Columbia, 400 meters and hammer.

W. L. Kennedy, the Montreal jumper, who is sick will be given an opportunity to make the team at a private trial when he is recovered.

The outstanding performances at the trials Saturday, were the hurdle race, won by Earle J. Thompson, who Dartmouth College coach, who will wear the Maple Leaf at Antwerp, because he is a Canadian; the javelin throw, of A. Stewart, of Ontario; the 100 meters race of C. Coaffee, of Manitoba; the 500 meters race of Alex. Ponton; the 1,000 meters walk of T. Town, and the 5,000 meters walk of E. Freeman. Thompson set up a new Canadian mark for the 150 meters hurdles and came within a fifth of the Olympic record—16 seconds. Stewart hurled the javelin 164 feet 11 inches, a new Canadian record, but far away from the Olympic best figure—204 feet 5 1/2 inches. Coaffee won the hundred meters after being set back a yard for breaking. Town and Cecil Leath, who is the champion of New England, though a Nova Scotia by birth, put up a fine struggle in the 5,000 meters. They set up a very fast early pace, and killed off E. Freeman, who was the favorite in the 1,500 meters. In the last lap Town sprinted like a quarter miler and Leath could not hold him. Freeman in the walk had a battle royal with C. L. Barnes, of Ontario, and only beat him by a few feet.

The Maritime Province entrants could not do better than second place in the 100 meters. J. W. Moore led from the beginning, but could not cope with the sprint of H. Phillips, who won the event. H. Lapierre, runner, Maritime Province man, was second in two hours. Two down when Stewart put in the winning run. (Umpires, Howard and Oswald, Scorers, Carny.)

A genuine toper considers life far too short to waste any of it imbibing his favorite beverage through a straw. Few men are satisfied when they get what they deserve.

IRISH HISTORY IS BEING MADE IN LONDON

Recent Events Fail to Obscure the Movement Toward Mediation Daily Gaining Momentum.

By CARL W. ACKERMAN. (Lodge Cable. Copyright.) London, July 18.—Two events reported in the sham war in Ireland Friday night—the robbing of the Dublin post office and the fight with stones in Belfast—fail to obscure the movement toward mediation, which is gaining momentum daily in London. Despite the spectacular raid on the mail bags of Dublin Castle by Sinn Fein armed recruits early Friday in the sorting room of the Dublin post office; despite the sixty men who took part and the complete failure of the British military to capture the men or obtain clues to their identity; despite the burning of the Cahy court house and the decision of the Devlin guardians in the County of West Meath to admit policemen to hospital; despite the fact that Belfast reports that serious trouble is brewing in Lurgan, County Armagh, there are today in London Sinn Fein leaders and prominent Irish statesmen talking mediation and settlement of the Irish question.

At no time since I have been in London has there been so much confidential discussion of an Irish settlement, and it is generally realized that the psychological moment for a compromise has arrived.

The main questions at issue are whether the Prime Minister can be convinced that the Sinn Fein leaders speak for all of Southern Ireland; whether they can control the radicals and extremists among labor, and whether the Tories will agree to any solution of the Irish question. The Prime Minister is expected back from Spa today, and on Monday it is very probable the Irish settlement will be put before him for action; but, whatever he does, it is not likely that public announcement will be made for some days. But for Americans interested in Ireland it is necessary to look beyond the post office raid and the fighting, because behind the scenes today history is being made.

FERARI SHOWS ARRIVE
The Jos. G. Ferrari Shows arrived in St. John Friday afternoon in its train of eighteen cars and many comments were heard of the handsome appearance of the parade wagons and show equipment. The company has twelve shows and three rides including a large merry-go-round, a whip, and Ferris wheel. They will give performances every afternoon and evening under the auspices of the G. W. V. A. on the Exhibition Grounds.

People should marry their opposites. That is probably why a poor young man is always anxious to marry an heiress.

She was alone at the time, and was found by a customer, who notified the authorities. Coroner H. A. Porter was immediately summoned and decided that it would be unnecessary to hold an inquest, death being due to natural causes. Heart failure and chronic indigestion were said to have been the immediate cause.

The body was removed to Miss Hennessy's late residence, 57 Dorchester street. She had been in business in the same place for thirty-three years and was well and favorably known about the city. She is survived by two brothers, David and Garrett, both of this city.

Hardware Clerks' Picnic At Fair Vale

Glorious Weather, Large Crowd, Attractive Booths, Interesting Programme of Sports All Made a Most Pleasant Outing.

The Hardware Clerks' Picnic at Fair Vale Saturday was a pronounced success. Old Sol provided glorious weather and the clerks and the members of the Fair Vale Outing Club, on whose grounds it was held, did the rest. The roads leading to the grounds themselves, the club-house and the different booths had been gaily decorated for the occasion and the whole against a background of encircling green made a pretty picture. The picnic was largely attended. Hundreds came out on the moon sub-urban, the evening train brought many more, while all sorts of motor vehicles and motor boats brought their quota also. An attractive programme of sports and games in which young and old, men and women and children participated, was carried out and proved very interesting and entertaining. The different booths did a rushing business under their capable management. After a hearty supper, served on the grounds by a number of the attractive young residents of Fair Vale dancing was enjoyed at the Club house.

A spirit of merriment and good cheer pervaded the whole affair and the one expression at its conclusion was "a perfect day."

The following is a list of booths and the committees in charge.

Ice Cream Booth—Mrs. Harry M. Chum, Mrs. Walter Coleman.
Fish Pond—Miss Muriel Dykeman and Emma Blizard.

Fruit and Candy—Mrs. L. Dykeman and Mrs. H. Dykeman.
Spindles—W. Lane and R. Brewster, Sandwiches and Coffee—Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Holder and Mrs. Purchase.

Fancy Wheel—Thomas Stack and Wm. Chamberlain.
Frankforts—O. S. Dykeman and L. Dykeman.
Chocolates and Doll Wheel—T. L. Baxter, Andrew Holder and A. A. Niles.

Jingle Board—Clark and Tracy.
Crown and Anchor Game—H. S. MacDonald and J. Howard.
Soft Drinks—Quinn and Welch.
Bean Board—H. Goodrich and C. Hoyt.

Supper Tables—Mrs. H. Spear and Mrs. O. S. Dykeman.

The first item on the sport programme was the baseball game between the Fair Vale team and the Hardware Clerks. A five inning game was played and at the end the clerks were on the long end of a 5 to 3 score. The field made the handling of ground balls difficult, but never the less the game was very interesting.

The following was the lineup of the teams:

Fair Vale—McDonald, r. f.; Howard, l. f.; Barry, 1st b.; Higgins, c.; Rathburn, s. s.; Higgins, 3rd b.; Troy, 2b. and c. f.; Campbell, c. f.; McQuade, 2b. Clerks—Marshall, 2b.; White, p.; Treat, c. f.; Henderson, c.; Ramsay, c. f.; Chase, 3b.; J. White, 1st b.; Foster, r. f.; Prince, s. s.

THE GREAT IMPERSONATION.
"No more successful mystery story was ever written than 'The Great Impersonation,' which bears the name of E. Phillips Oppenheim on the title page. The solution of the mystery comes at the end with suddenness as complete as the surprise which accompanies it. The tale is told so skillfully that the reader has no suspicion of its outcome as he turns the pages, yet when he knows the truth he discovers that it has revealed time after time without either him or any of the characters being any the wiser. This is indeed a triumph of construction and treatment, and Mr. Oppenheim deserves all the credit that can be given to him. It is a book that holds the attention from first to last."

BRITAIN PAYING UP.

The last budget in Britain was an object of great admiration throughout the world. The taxation imposed by Right Hon. Austen Chamberlain was estimated to bring in a revenue of £1,415,000,000, or more than seven billion dollars, and the expenditure was estimated at £1,184,000,000, or not much under six billion dollars. The difference of £234,000,000 is to be war debt reduction. But to obtain nearly seven billion dollars in a distinctly peace year, the Chancellor had to impose a 50 per cent. tax on excess profits, bringing $500,000,000 additional to the Treasury. The Chancellor did this in the face of furious opposition, which has never set up, and culminated a few days ago in a straight attack. The courage of the Chancellor's resolve to begin forthwith a policy of debt reduction is worthy of all praise. The great mercantile interests have made a combined campaign against the finance. But, in truth, as the Mail and Empire points out, the condition of British Treasury finance makes a policy of heavy taxation unavoidable. It has five billion dollars of floating debt to amortize. Even the £234,000,000 which the Chancellor counted on as a surplus must go for sinking funds, sundry redemptions and maturing external debt, leaving little for reduction of the floating debt. Britain is paying in full her share of the Anglo-French loan maturing in the United States in October, while France frankly admits she is unable to make any payments. Britain is paying off war obligations to the Argentine, Uruguay, and the Dominions. The process of getting square with minor creditors is now under way, and by the time the maturing of several billion dollars to the United States comes up, the London treasury will have smaller accounts fairly well squared. It requires not only an immense courage by the Chancellor to set himself against all the influences calling for moderately easy taxation, but also a nation of great self-restraint. Of all the nations put into debt by the war, Britain is far ahead in beginning to clean up accounts. British taxation per head is from twice to ten times what other Allies impose. When British mercantile interests find themselves facing difficulties in rebuilding output, finding capital, and creating markets abroad, oppressive taxation at home is looked upon as handicapping recovery of the economic status of the nation. The manufacturers want a freer hand in costs, in order to build up export trade, and thus reduce British liabilities. But the Treasury also has pressing needs, as every year large debt obligations come due, and there is no question that its stern policy of getting in the money while paying is easy has restored British financial prestige more than any other factor.

THE END OF THE ROAD.

A Trades Union Congress sitting in London has voted by a considerable majority in favor of a general strike as a means of compelling the Government of the United Kingdom to withdraw British troops from Ireland. The proposition, says the Montreal Gazette, was made in the name of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, one of the strongest and most advanced of the labor organizations, and whose leaders in their spheres have practically the same ideas as the Soviet chiefs of Russia. The "direct action" plan has been coming to the fore for some time. It is based on the idea that organized labor has become all powerful, and that what it demands under penalty of enforcing a suspension of trade the country over must be conceded to it. In connection with last year's agitation for the nationalization of the coal mines it was first threatened, then debated at a labor congress and finally rejected by a fairly large majority. The intervening months have apparently strengthened the hands of the extremists. They have undertaken to dictate governmental action in a matter affecting the highest policy, in which the issue is the maintenance or disruption of the United Kingdom and the determining of the policy of the country in its relations with other European states. What the leaders in the new development of the labor movement aim at is a revolution that will give them control over all affairs of the State, and make Parliament and other established institutions secondary and useless parts of the administrative machinery. A sectionalist commonwealth, a disrupted Empire and a debilitated England would be at the end of the road the latest Trades Union Congress has sought to start upon. Loyalty to the nation, in the old sense has been discarded; the supposed interests of a class have been substituted therefor.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE RATES.

The recent decision of the Post Office Department, whereby the rates of postage upon newspapers was increased, has not unattractively called forth considerable criticism on the part of the press, one of whom, the Ottawa Journal, thinks that it is a change that should not be extended without more careful thought as to the possible outcome. At the last session of Parliament the postal rate for newspapers was increased from 14 cents per pound to 18 cents per pound, commencing January 1, 1921, and to 1 1/2 cents per pound commencing January 1, 1922. Speaking in the measure in Parliament, the Postmaster General outlined the principle that second-class postal rates must be increased gradually to the point at which they will cover the cost of the postal service given and estimated that the present rate is 5c. or 6c. per pound. He said in part:

"The department at present is not so much after the money of the newspaper people for this year or for next year as it is concerned with the principle. I think the important thing in this Bill is not so much the $200,000 or $400,000 of increase that I shall set for next year, as the principle, which is now recognized by Parliament, that newspapers or any other mail matter, whatever it is, that may be carried through His Majesty's mails must pay the cost of transportation and that we must do away with the existing privileges. As Postmaster General I would be glad if the House of Commons and the Senate would see their way to fix the rate at five or six cents at once; but this would mean that under present circumstances you would get out of business immediately. I put all these papers of Canada find, after long discussion and after giving thought with my officers, the best of my thought to this matter, that there is only one way out of the difficulty: it is to admit the principle that the newspapers must be notified that in future they will have to pay and shall be made to pay what they cost to my department. The only way is to make a gradual annual increase as is proposed by this Bill. This year the increase is to be one cent; next year it will be to 1 1/2 cents. I hope that by that time the conditions will have become more nearly normal and that Parliament will be in a better position to determine what is the exact amount that ought to be charged the newspapers in order that they may pay the cost of transportation."

One of the points to be remembered is that this increased postal rate will not come out of the pockets of the newspaper publishers, but out of those of the people to whom the newspapers are sent. The "privileges" to which Hon. Mr. Blomfield referred have hitherto all been passed on to the subscriber, who has had his newspaper delivered through the mails at a comparatively low rate.

These privileges were granted because of the educational feature connected with the reading of newspapers. An increase in the postal rate by any such figure as that mentioned by the Postmaster General, coupled with the very high price of newspaper, would probably result in many people doing without newspapers. The situation thus created would affect the general well-being just as much, and perhaps more, than it would affect the newspapers, for, as we have shown, there is little if any profit to the publisher in "circulation." If, for instance, it is worth while spending hundreds of thousands of dollars annually in the preparation and printing of a Hansard report of the speeches in Parliament which only a very few people receive and fewer still ever read, there should be some value attached to the distribution in the small towns and rural districts of city newspapers containing well-written summaries of the proceedings of Parliament which are received in practically every home and very widely read.

During the war, there was a very practical demonstration of the value of the papers as a medium through which the governmental authorities could reach the people. That value is continuous in peace times, though it may not be so self-evident.

THE GREAT IMPERSONATION.
Startling and prophetic as Oppenheim's previous novels have been, in this, his latest book, he has surpassed himself. "The Great Impersonation" is a happy blending of romance, mystery and intrigue so splendidly done that whoever reads it cannot help but be convinced that it is the best Oppenheim ever wrote. It is indeed a triumph of construction and treatment that grips the reader's interest from the start and does not relax that hold until the very last chapter of the book.

They hadn't been married very long and, strange to relate, both their birthdays fell on the same date. But already he had learnt a thing or two about the shopping propensities of the fair sex. So he tackled the subject of presents manfully.

"Darling," she said lovingly, "you mustn't have any secrets from each other, now, must you?"
"No, sweetheart," she cooed gladly.
"Well, dearest," he went on, "if you will tell me exactly how much you intend to spend on a present for me, I shall be able to work out how much I shall have left to buy one for you."

The Dempsey and Brennan Fight

New York, July 16.—K. O. Bill Brennan, who was matched to box Jack Dempsey for the world's heavy-weight championship, inside of two months, before the club offering the best inducements, after Georges Carpentier, the Frenchman, deliberately ran out on his word to swap punches with the conqueror of Jess Willard, arrived here for a conference with his manager, Leo P. Flynn. The Knock-out King will train at a nearby resort for the combat.

Ever since the arrival of Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, Flynn has been on his trail. Kearns promised Flynn first crack in case Carpentier admitted he wanted nothing to do with him. True to prediction, Carpentier would be had a contract with Cochran, of London, which forbade his engaging in an encounter with Dempsey, unless the champion would drop and had it out with him there. Kearns rightly declared that it was the "symptom" of business to do the dictating, and all hands in conference at the Hotel Belmont could not reach an agreement.

Flynn cornered Kearns in his room at the hotel after Carpentier's bloodless affair ended. "Are you in a receptive mood? How about Brennan?"
"Are you going to give him a chance and keep your promise?" Flynn asked.
Kearns smiled as he lifted a number of telegrams from his inside coat pocket which revealed the startling news that several promoters wanted a Dempsey-Brennan fight in preference to all others.

"By the tone of the telegrams," answered Kearns, "I should imagine Brennan should get the first chance. Here's one from Domitich Tortorich, from way out New Orleans, who says we can have a bundle of dough for the fight and here's a telegram from Murray, in Buffalo, who states he has a ball park all ready up for a scrap, and I could read on indefinitely the many offers."

"That's all very well, Jack, but do I get the fight?" persisted Flynn. There were several newspaper men in the room.

"You're on, Leo!" exclaimed Kearns. "Where is your fighter? Wire him to get in shape, the match is on. You know my word is my bond. We'll sign in a couple of days. I just want to get a breathing spell."

Flynn rushed out of the hotel to wire Brennan at Chicago to come to New York and begin light training. When news was flashed that a Freuman-Dempsey match had been clinched, Flynn's office, which is located in his home, was the scene of hurrying and scurrying messengers with telegrams containing offers for the scrap. Flynn's telephone rang incessantly with long distance calls.

Brennan's manager had another long talk with Kearns, completing arrangements for the battle. The site is still undecided, but the largest bidder will get it. So far it lies between Orleans and Benton Harbor, the latter place, which is just outside of Chicago, recently held the Benny Leonard-Charley White lightweight championship fight.

Kearns, in giving his word to Flynn, realized that sooner or later he would have to give in to him, because Brennan is the only man who stood off the champion 7 rounds in Milwaukee in 1917. Brennan was giving Dempsey a hard tussle, she later not knowing that he was boxing a cripple. Brennan fought with a broken ankle, but the pain finally got the best of him.

Since the Dempsey fight Brennan has gone along knocking out contenders. Since 1914 he has amassed the wonderful record of 51 knockouts, and he has beaten among others Battling Levinsky, Bob Roper, Willis Meehan, Billy Miske, and so on down the line. He is accounted to be one of the hardest punchers in the game, and he is the type of a fighter who gives the public a run for their money.

So sure was he of getting Dempsey that Flynn cancelled six fights in San Francisco for Brennan and three on the way out. Only yesterday Flynn wired back "no" to a $5,000 offer to box Bob Martin in Kansas City. "I am glad of another opportunity for the world's title, and you can bet I'll be in there whaling the champion every second of the going," said Brennan today. "I am in pretty fair shape right now, but I am going to be at my best when I face the champion. I will have no excuse to offer in case I am beaten. This fight means a great deal to me, and I'm going to go in there to do and die."

It was reported today that David Mackay, of the Newark Sportsmen's Club, was ready to lay before the managers a flattering offer. Tex Rickard, matchmaker of the International Sporting Club, has asked to be given time to send in a bid.

If men could only live to hear their own funeral sermons and read their own epitaphs there would be no getting along on earth with them.

Highly Successful Musicales Held

Excellent Programme Carried Through at F. G. Spencer's Home, Ononette, Saturday — Four Hundred Dollars Raised for Nurses' Home Reception Room.

A highly successful musicale was held in Ononette Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Spencer. The programme rendered was of a high order, and gave much pleasure to an audience which exceeded two hundred and fifty persons. The sum of four hundred dollars was raised by means of the concert and a basket social which followed, and the proceeds will be devoted towards a fund for the furnishing of the reception room in the new Nurses' Home as a memorial to the gallantry and sacrifice of the late Lieutenant A. C. Gilmore.

The concert was arranged by Mrs. B. D. Smith, Dr. W. W. White assisted in the auctioning of the baskets and proved a most persuasive wielder of the gavel. His eloquence found full scope in his dainty wares, some of which were secured after the fifteen dollar mark had been reached.

Miss Hazel Eden, of the Boston English Opera Company, graciously consented to assist in the musical programme and proved herself quite popular of the stage as when performing before St. John theatre-goers. She was warmly applauded in all her numbers. The other performers, too, were very pleasing, and were obliged to respond to hearty cheers.

The following was the programme: Piano solo, Prelude in C Sharp Minor (Bachmann)—Bayard Carrière. Song, "I Shall Awake" (Kramer)—Finlay Campbell.

Aria, from "Faust" (Gounod)—Miss Hazel Eden. Reading, "A Phantom Vanished" (Laurence Sherwin Cook)—Miss Amelia Green.

Songs, (a) "Absent" (b) "The Rosary" (Nevin)—Mrs. F. G. Spencer. Song, "By the Sea" (Schubert)—A. C. Smith.

Violin, Scene de Ballet ("De Berlioz"—Mrs. T. J. Gunn. Song, "Songs of Dawn and Twilight"—Mr. Campbell.

Aria, "I Dream I Dwell in Marble Hall" (Bohemian Girl) (Balfour)—Miss Eden. Reading, "Entertaining the Missionary"—Miss Green.

Duet, "I Love and Love Thee" (Campbell)—Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Campbell. God Save the King.

Contempt.

"Did you tell her that smoking isn't allowed?" "Yes." "Did you point out the notices?" "Yes." "Well, what did she do?" "Lit her cigarette with it."

Mutual Surprise.

"I was surprised to hear you were kissing my girl in the dark the other night." "No more surprised than I was when I saw her in daylight!"

Damrosch Orchestra Made Hit In London

Critics Had Nothing But Words of Praise for Musicians — Singers Well Received.

Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

By GRENVILLE VERNON. London, July 17.—The visit of the New York Symphony Orchestra, led by Walter Damrosch, has been the outstanding feature in London's musical world the past month.

Mr. Damrosch and his men arrived here in Ascot Week, a week when fashionable London decamps en masse, but received excellent critical notices. At the first concert in Queen's Hall, the American Ambassador was present with the Princess Marie Louise, and there was a generous showing from the British musical world.

The critics were unanimous in placing the personnel of the orchestra on a high level. The balance of the orchestra and the general certainty and crispness of the playing were particularly praised. The wood wind choir came in for favorable notice, as also the superior drilling of the strings in comparison with English orchestras.

Mr. Damrosch received warm praise as a musician of taste and refinement of feeling and as a drill master of great merit. The soloists at the first two concerts were Albert Spalding and John Powell, both of whom made a favorable impression.

Miss Sophie Braschi at her recital in Queen's Hall made an instant success. The American contralto was in admirable voice. The Morning Post said of her: "She has a genuine contralto voice of much power, capable of many shades of expression, and a manner of interpretation which goes deep into the matter she essays. Miss Braschi is a singer London will be glad to hear."

Another singer who was welcomed with considerable cordiality was Miss Marcia Van Dresser. Her recital at Wigmore Hall called forth warm praise of her taste, distinction, and the elegance of her phrasing, coupled with the regret that there was not more fire and temperance in her interpretation.

A Cool Refect. "She just kissed by him"—How dare you? "Father said he would kill the first man who kissed me!" "He—How interesting! And did he do it?"

The Great Difference. "Now, boy, tell me the difference between a lake and an ocean?" "Please, sir, lakes are not so nasty to swallow when you fall in!"

'Waacs' and 'Wrens' Take To Sewing

English Government Teaching Demobilized Women to Use the Needle—Splendid Success Met With.

Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

London, June 17.—Many of the "Waacs" and the "Wrens" and other soldier and sailor girls and munition workers who have been "demobilized" are not only once more wearing "feminine" frocks and frocks, but they are busy making them—and very well indeed are they acquiring themselves at their new tasks.

An interesting exhibition of dress-making and ladies' tailoring work by women demobilized from Army, Navy, Government offices, and munitions works is being held at the Shaftsbury avenue centre for the training of unemployed women.

The scheme was instituted by the Ministry of Labor, and in the space of their three months' training 200 "demobilized" women at the Shaftsbury avenue and Battersea centres have fitted four large rooms with coats, skirts, blouses, less conspicuous articles, and everything for the baby.

The exhibition is intended to introduce the work of the two training centres—there are about forty in and around London—to the trade.

There are still many girls to be demobilized and it is considered essential to continue their scheme for some time. There is always a strong demand for good dressmakers and tailors; so there seems small danger of crowding the labor market in those lines.

Although the full court train has been given its dismissal, many of the dresses show wispy little trains of the fish-tail persuasion. Sometimes the sash draperies end their career in a gossamer little train of chiffon, lined with chiffon in another shade. Divided trains are also favored by some women. The train in every case is switched over the arm.

White is worn by the majority of the debutantes, chiffon, silk georgette, lace, and other diphannous textures being the materials most honored. There is a new sprout shade flushing with rose and a range of becoming rose tints that look particularly well under the brilliant lights.

Change In Dress Marks First Court

Flowers, Trails and Wreaths Displace Feathers and Old Fashioned Court Train — No Bare Backs or Shoulder Straps.

Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

London, July 17.—Flowers, trails, wreaths, and garlands of dainty bloom, posies and bouquets were the feature of their Majesties' first court of the season at Buckingham Palace.

Debutantes are delighted with dowagers depressed at the changes in court dress. The charm of youth has full play. Garlands of flowers and leaves provide a more girlishly becoming finish to the costume than ever the old feathers did, but the stately dignity of the dowager vanishes with the plumes and dowing court train.

Man is being shown of his picturesque black velvet, his cut steel buttons, and his silver shoe buckles, and woman is shedding her feathers, veil, and sweeping court train by royal command.

The dresses worn at court are simply smart evening gowns, such as a well-dressed woman would wear at a dance or dinner party, said one court dressmaker.

There was never any intention to make uniform court dresses. The design furnished by the Queen were for the purpose of indicating the general trend of court dress, and needless to say, no women are wearing bare-backed dresses or shoulder-strap sleeves.

Thomas Nickerson Moncton, July 18.—The death of Thomas Nickerson, an employe of the Alberca Manufacturing Company at Hillsboro, Albert County, occurred in the Moncton Hospital this morning after some weeks' illness. Deceased was sixty years of age, but leaves no family. One brother, James Nickerson, of Vancouver, survives. Deceased was born in Moncton.

Opera Company Closed Engagement

The Boston English Opera Company closed its engagement at the Imperial Saturday night, Mikado was the bill at the matinee and The Pirates of Penzance was presented at night. The audiences were large and appreciative. It has been a long time since St. John has had the pleasure of hearing such an excellent company and the performances Saturday proved all that could be desired. The solos and choruses were received with rounds of applause and encores were frequent. The engagement of the company was too short for the true lovers of music.

WOMEN REFUSE TO GIVE AGE

Kansas Women Not Allowed to Register Unless They Give Their Age to Registrar.

Topeka, Kas., July 16.—Woman Suffrage, and women club leaders generally today rallied to the support of the position taken by Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter, yesterday in refusing to give her age, when she went to register as a voter. Mrs. McCarter declared she will contest the ruling which was based on a decision of the Attorney-General that a woman cannot register unless she give her age more definitely than "over 21."

"It's a club the men hold over the women to prevent them from voting," declared Mrs. Lila Day Monroe, vice president of the Topeka Suffrage League, lawyer, and well known suffragist.

This apparently was so far as Mr. Gompers and his associates were prepared to go and still remain within their self-imposed restrictions of holding a non-partisan view of the political situation. Wm. Green, one of the signers of the statement today, called upon Governor Cox at Columbus and assured him of support. The statement of the federation officials taken together with the detailed analysis of the San Francisco platform is regarded a plain attempt on the part of federation heads to swing their membership to the Democratic presidential nominee. Labor's voters, however, take an attitude and the fact that its non-partisan fight is directed against those prominent Democrats, Senators Thomas of Colorado, and Myers of Montana, and Rep. Blanton of Texas, makes it impossible for Mr. Gompers openly to declare for the Democratic party.

The men and women of labor, says the statement, "must judge between the declarations of these parties. The impending campaign and the election for President and Vice President, United States Senators and members of the House of Representatives is upon us and the citizenship of our country must determine its own course in electing these candidates for these offices who are most friendly disposed toward labor, justice, freedom, democracy and humanity, and to defeat those who are less friendly or more hostile to these principles.

"Labor of the American is not partisan to any political party; it is partisan to principles, the principles of justice and freedom. It undertakes neither to dictate nor control the choice of the workers or the citizenship generally for which party or candidates they should vote, but it would be a palpable dereliction of duty did we fail to place the facts before the voters of both parties and their respective candidates for public office.

The analysis of the Democratic platform is made by stating the demand of labor presented to the committee on resolutions in San Francisco on June 23, then quoting the platform as it relates to the demand of labor, and then commenting on the difference between what labor asked for and what they received in the platform.

The plank in the Democratic platform which recognizes the right of collective bargaining through representatives of the workers' own choosing is passed without comment as approved. In commenting on the plank relative to the use of the injunction in labor disputes the labor leaders say:

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM IS SATISFACTORY

American Federation of Labor Approves Principles Laid Down at San Francisco Convention.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. F. W. WILE.

Washington, July 17.—The American Federation of Labor, in so far as its non-partisan attitude permits, is inclined to approve and go along with the principles of the Democratic platform as marking a "measure of progress not toward the platform of the Republican party" in relation to the demands of labor the work of the San Francisco convention "more nearly approximates" labor's desired "declaration of human right" than do the planks found in the Republican platform.

This is the conclusion reached by Federation officials and made public in statement form today together with an analysis of the planks of interest and importance to labor enunciated by the Democrats. The analysis and statement, signed by Samuel Gompers, president, and Joseph W. Valley, Wm. Green and Matthew Wolf, vice presidents of the federation, is similar to the one issued on the Republican platform, June 12, and approved by the Montreal convention of the federation.

The Republican platform was condemned as defiant in defense of the enemies of labor and one that "propose an industrial enslavement and an abrogation of rights as precious as life itself." The officials of the federation today declare that "it is only fair to say" that the Democratic platform is the preferable from the standpoint of organized labor.

"This apparently was so far as Mr. Gompers and his associates were prepared to go and still remain within their self-imposed restrictions of holding a non-partisan view of the political situation. Dr. Scholl's "Foot-Eazer"

This is the foot appliance that has brought positive comfort and grateful relief to millions of feet all over the civilized world. More of Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazers are in use than of all other arch supports or other orthopedic devices combined. There must be reason, must there not?

That reason is that Dr. Scholl has spent a lifetime in study and research on the human foot. He is recognized as the foremost authority upon this subject. Hence, the Foot-Eazer is much more than a mere mechanical device—it includes within itself all of that positive knowledge which Dr. Scholl has gained through his years of tireless effort in the interest of foot comfort. It supports the weakened arch firmly and positively, yet springs and comfortably, taking the strain off the overstressed and stretched muscles and ligaments and giving them the chance they need to regain their tension and their strength. You know that you have found the right thing the moment you stand upon Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazers and feel the difference it makes to have your feet held in their correct, normal position.

Bridge Body Weight

Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer bridges the weight of the body from the heel to the ball of the foot, taking the weight entirely off the arch. Unlike those devices that simply furnish a pad beneath the arch, they do not break down the shank of the shoe, but bridge the weight over the shank as intended. Have a pair of Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazers fitted to your feet today by the graduate Practitioner whom you will find in nearly every shoe store which handles them. One or more of the several styles you require. He will make exact adjustments to correct your trouble and restore your foot comfort.

Dr. Scholl's Foot Comfort Appliances are on sale in practically every shoe store throughout Canada. In nearly every such store you will find a Practitioner (foot expert), whose services in examining your feet and recommending the proper appliances are free. Take advantage of this service. You owe it to your feet.

Dr. Scholl's Bunion Reducer

This is a scientifically constructed shield of pure, soft rubber, which not only protects the bunion or enlarged joint from the friction and pressure of the shoe, but also excludes the air and retains the body heat and moisture. This causes the softening and gradual absorption of the growth. In sizes for every need.

Dr. Scholl's Anterior Metatarsal Arch Supports

If your foot hurts, burns or callouses, where the finger points, you probably are suffering from weakness or falling of the metatarsal arch—the arch across the ball of the foot. One or more of the several styles you require. He will make exact adjustments to correct your trouble and restore your foot comfort.

DR. SCHOLL'S "3" Necessities for Foot Comfort

This is a combination treatment that is designed to keep the foot in perfect condition at all times. It consists of a special foot soap to cleanse the pores more thoroughly than would ordinary soap; a massage and healing balm and a scientifically correct and antiseptic foot powder. Thousands have found it the very thing needed for keeping their feet in good trim. Try it and see for yourself.

BETTERMENT IN DOMINION TRADE

Hon. Mr. Wigmore's Authorized Statement Shows An Increase of $123,000,000 for Three Months.

Ottawa, July 18.—(By Canadian Press).—A betterment of approximately $123,000,000 in the trade of the Dominion for the first three months of the fiscal year as compared with the same period last year, is shown in the first monthly trade statement authorized by Hon. R. W. Wigmore, the newly installed Minister of Customs. The statement which is for the month of June, shows a total trade up to June 30, of $391,087,460. For June alone the trade total reached $243,187,288, or over $77,000,000 in excess of June, 1919.

Despite the big increase there was a falling off in exports of domestic goods for the three months, these representing a value of $237,236,799. From April to June, last year goods sent out of the country were to the value of $244,098,798.

For the month of June alone, however, exports totalled $106,537,825 as against $87,348,952 in June, 1919.

PRESS MUZZLED BY JAPANESE

Korean Newspapers Suspend- ed Because of Articles Not Liked by Japs.

Tokyo, July 17.—As bearing on the freedom of the press in Korea promised by the Japanese government in that country, a Seoul despatch to the Asahi says that the Toa-Nippo (The Far Eastern Daily News) has been subject to suspensions because of the publication of "anti-nationalistic articles," that is to say, anti-Japanese. The Asahi says the Governor-General thinks that the general attitude of the newspaper toward the administration is too "prophetic" to be allowed to continue. The journal

YACHT RACE DWARFS STOCK MARKET

Only Unusual Incident Was a Sharp Advance in Crucible Steel.

New York, July 18.—For all practical purposes Saturday's session of the stock market was bare of results, the yacht race dwarfing interest in most things of a financial character. The only unusual incident was a sharp advance in Crucible Steel at the opening, on news of an unexpectedly large stock distribution, but that issue forfeited half its gain later on cashing of profits.

Other leaders, whether of the industrial, railway or special variety, registered no material change aside from Wells-Fargo Express and National Aniline. Shares were cautious, however, in view of Friday's sudden easement of money rates. Sales amounted to 135,000 shares.

Actual losses and discounts of the Clearing House disclosed an increase of over $42,000,000 which makes up almost half of previous week's loss. Week-end news deals mainly with general business conditions, the mercantile agencies reporting a further tendency towards conservatism in the staples lines of trade. The immediate future of commerce is dependent upon the attitude of the consumer, according to the views of leading business interests.

There was a fair inquiry for popular bonds, including the foreign group, but Liberty issues continued to lag. Total sales, par value, aggregated $5,125,000.

Old United States bonds unchanged on call, during the week.

THE GREAT IMPERSONATION.

The Great Impersonation will be, and deserves to be, one of the best sellers of the year.—The Boston Post.

Canada alone among the allied countries had no war-time transportation crisis. When foreign roads choked under their loads she relieved them of millions of tons. At a time when ships were the need of the hour no ship lost time in any Canadian port through failure of the railways to deliver cargoes at the docks.

To-day the Canadian producer still commands the fastest, the most dependable and the cheapest railway service in the world.

But the foresight that made this record possible could do nothing without MONEY! The skill that kept terminals uncongested had to be backed with MONEY! The determination that drove crippled engines ahead in the face of 40-below gales and mounting snow would in the long run have been useless without MONEY!

Thus to-day the alarming fall in the net revenues of the railways is a menace to railway efficiency. It injures railway credit. It dissolves the reserves needful to meet the expanding needs of a growing country. It imperils national prosperity.

Increased freight rates are imperative therefore, not merely on behalf of railways but in the interests of Canada itself!

ALBERTA CROP CONDITIONS GOOD

Calgary, July 18.—The fifth Alberta crop report of the Calgary Herald, describing conditions existing today, says in part:

"Reports received from special correspondents in a large number of centres in Alberta all point to continued satisfactory crop prospects. In some cases it is said that the present appearance of wheat and oats, as well as other cereals and grasses, is the best for years.

"There is not at the present time any dearth of labor, but there is a prospect of a shortage at harvest time."

C. P. R. EARNINGS

Montreal, July 18.—C. P. R. earnings for the week ending July 14, $3,864,000; increase, $529,000.

A healthy body means healthy arteries. The railways are the arteries of Canada.

IN the operation of railways Canadians hold high reputations.

The chief Canadian systems are operated over great stretches of territory presenting widely different problems.

Their traffic obligations fluctuate rapidly with the seasons.

Climatic conditions are sometimes difficult. Unusual foresight, skill and determination are called for.

Yet the only unflinching highways for the heavy traffic across the New World from China to France during the war—were Canadian railways.

Canada alone among the allied countries had no war-time transportation crisis. When foreign roads choked under their loads she relieved them of millions of tons. At a time when ships were the need of the hour no ship lost time in any Canadian port through failure of the railways to deliver cargoes at the docks.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that it uses for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. FULL DETAILS REGARDING THE PROPOSED HOTEL CHAMPLAIN TO BE BUILT IN ST. JOHN

The Commercial Club is at last able to give the public the information so anxiously awaited. On another page of The Standard is an advertisement setting forth the hotel project in detail, and what share of the stock is allotted to local buyers. The option of the Dufferin Hotel site sets at rest the conflicting stories that have been going about as to where the hotel would likely locate, and if this site is taken the plans show the lines will go up to the property of the Imperial theatre and will also take in the Trinity rectory.

On this described site it is proposed to erect a modern fireproof hotel building of eight stories. The building will have about 250 guest rooms, each with a bath or bath connection, and will be completely and artistically furnished. There will be available on the street level or several stories or retail shops. It is proposed to utilize some of this room, available on the mezzanine floor level, for the office. There will be a large restaurant, a bill room, and banquet hall besides other necessities for a modern hotel.

EIGHT DRUNKS ARRESTED. Prohibition boozers of that peculiar rankness and violence described during the recent referendum, landed eight drunks in jail over the week-end. The bootleggers were patronized by six on Saturday, who later received the attention of the police, and two on Sunday who also came under the eyes and arms of the law.

MILITARY NOTES. It was announced at local military headquarters Saturday that inquiries regarding the services of the personnel of the C. E. F. upon which there has been no previous correspondence will in future be referred to the director of records at militia headquarters, Ottawa, and no such letters will henceforth be replied to by the district. This, however, does not apply to pay matters.

OUTING ENJOYED AT LEWISVILLE

Young Men's Association of German Street Baptist Church Held Annual Outing Saturday and Spent Most Pleasant Day.

The Young Men's Association of German street Baptist church held their annual outing at Lewisville, Pendergast on Saturday afternoon and say that all present enjoyed themselves would be putting it mildly. They were entertained by J. H. Marr, F. T. Lewis, R. H. Fales and H. E. Hunt. The wives of these gentlemen furnished the refreshments and during the afternoon a series of sports took place, including golf, racing, tennis and a game of base ball. In the ball game a team with Lewis and Field as battery, defeated that with Collins and Cummings between the points by a score of 23 to 15. W. C. Cross proved an efficient umpire.

In The Standard's photographic competition which closed a week ago, the pictures received, which were taken during the holiday week displayed a much wider range of subjects than did those entered during the February competition. And many of them would undoubtedly prove of very great value in displaying the scenic beauties of New Brunswick. Prizes have been awarded as follows:

1st Prize, $15.00 Norman W. Brittain 73 St. James St., West. Subject: "A Country Stream," developed and printed by J. M. Roche & Co. 2nd Prize, $10.00 E. T. P. Shewen Gagetown. Ross, 269 Germain street—Photos developed and printed by the Ross Drug Co. Harold McMann, Newcastle Creek, N. B.—Photos developed and printed by J. M. Roche & Co.

Many of the other entries were in excellent taste, and while under the conditions of this contest opportunity was not afforded for the display of individual ability on the part of amateurs in developing and printing, yet there was every evidence of an abundance of artistic appreciation in the choice and treatment of subjects. Checks for the amount of the prizes will be mailed to the winners today.
