Mems of the Merry War.

Tupper? Well, hardly!

Canada is well satisfied with Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Mr. Hyman's clever handling, at the circular about an eight-hour day, was good-humored, yet complete. He showed, first, that while Mr. Beattie had introduced his bill for a first reading in March last, he had not pressed it for the necessary additional readings. Secondly, that his circular had given the impression that there was a legal eight-hour law for all mechanics in British Columbia, whereas it only ap-The cutting air of the pruning knife plied to miners working underground. sweeps the goods off our shelves like | Thirdly, and most important, the Dominion Parliament had no jurisdiction whatever in the matter of statutory hours, that jurisdiction belonging to the Provincial Legislatures. Sir Mackenzie Bowell has started up the bolt works.

According to Sir Charles Tupper, if his party had been in power now, they would never have passed the tariff giving a preference to British goods in our markets over those of foreigners. It is a candid confession. Yet Britain receives all classes of our exports and does not collect a cent of tax on them!

The Montreal Gazette, the leading Conservative organ, strongly condemns the Dominion Government for enforcing the alien labor law. What next?

The following is the record of the Tory party in eighteen years in behalf of labor:

"I am sure of victory, but I do not boast; Sir Charles Tupper is not sure but he boasts continually."-Sir Wil-

Work in Another Colliery Resumed-Holiday Today.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 1 .- The strikng mine workers with the Deronger colliery of the Cox Bros. and Co., resumed work this morning. The company has agreed to adjust the difficulty arising out of the wage question, and decided to give the striker who was discharged for incompetency a hearing. As this is a holiday among the miners, work was not resumed at the collieries of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company, but everything will be in full blast tomorrow.

All the other collieries with the exception of Milnesville are in full op-

RETURNS ARE COMING IN

Every day from our good friends in the city and throughout the surrounding country, showing conclusively that the housewives unanimously vote "Purity" the best baking powder they have ever used.

Results prove that it has no equal for its purity and leavening power. We but voice their sentiment when we say that Purity Wins when merit is judged. The best cooks use "Purity" the wise housekeepers use it "Purity" means success in the baking. It always makes delicious, appetizing and nutrition

In opening the meeting. Chairman Winnett said that his duties on the occasion were light being merely to keep order. He laid down the rule that any time lost by a speaker, owing to unfriendly interruption, should be allowed to him over his allotted time. The arrangement was that Mr. Beattie I speak for an hour, followed by Mr. Hyman for the same period. Mr. Roadhouse would then have an hour and ten minutes, and the other two speakers would then have ten minutes each for reply. He then called on Mr. Beattie to address the assemblage.

MR. THOMAS BEATTIE. Mr. Beattie's speech was in large part made up of the material already used on the occasion of his nominbution and again in his address in the Princess rink Tuesday night. He first said that he had no new policy offer, that he held the same old policy upon which he had appealed to the electors four years ago, which was in the main ample protection for Canadian working people. The Liberals have been shouting that we have good times. So we have, agreed Mr. Beattie, and we have had them since 1878. Previous to that time Canada might be compared to a sick man Trade and were paralyzed, and the ket for goods from the United States. As an instance, Mr. Beattie narrated a purchase by him of English goods at 50 cents a yard, and his having to

Mr. Beattie-Yes, it's true. Mr. Hyman then said that he held not united in 1836, and had not been in his hand the British Columbia law referred to, and he would read the only clause in it that could be construed to apply to the hours of labor, and he asked them to judge his opponent by what the latter had said. If not, then here was the act, as plain as a pike-staff, showing that the Dominion Parliament could not plass such a bill as Mr. Beattie's. Mr. Hyman said he did not desire to make statement without proof. The Tories say Canada has no preference in the British markets. Mr. Hyman said Canada has a preference, a sentimental preference, thatis better than any other. A leading Canadian organ manufacturer told him recently, that instead of exporting 75 organs a month to England, as formerly, his firm now sends 250. A few years ago Canadian cheese and one suffering from weakness, or heart and Canadian leather, for instance, were sold in England as American. Now they are sought after as Canadian. Canada's preference is the love for Canada in English hearts. (Cheers.) Me. Hyman, in conclusion, said that

MR. ROBERT ROADHOUSE. Mr. Robert Roadhouse, the Socialistic Labor Party candidate, was given an enthusiastic reception, particularly from an energetic group in one part of the hull, and it was some time before he could make himself heard. He said those present had heard the arguments of the Tory and Grit candidates, and it was the first time they would have an opportunity to register their vote against just what they had listened to. The Socialist Labor Party did not need to condemn the old parties. By their actions they had congemned themselves. It was an opportunity to vote against the capitalist terest of the worker. If the issues of the two old parties were sized up it could be seen that they were not in the interests of labor. When capitalists oppressed the workers, and heaped up insults and abuse on them, a strike was the only course left open to remedy the evil. (Applause.) The speaker then referred to the street railway strike in this city, strike by appression and abuse. From the Tory mayor down, the men in office had been against the strikers. He (Mr. Roadhouse) had seen the man who called out the militia (ex-Mayor Wilson) seated on the platform of Mr. Beattie. This act of calling out the militia had broken the backbone of ing of Mr. Beattie's eight-hour dabor like a bag of wind-as soon as you stuck a pin in it, it went to pieces (Laughter and applause.) It was the vote of the workingmen that sent the old party representatives to Ottawa. First they voted one party and then switched around to the other. They now had a chance to put in a vote for their own interests by supporting the Socialist Labor Party. History had proven that neither of the old party on the statutes in the interest of the worker. The Principal Cause is Curable, but Generally Over-looked.

Many things may cause deafness, and very often it is difficult to trace a cause. Some people inherit deafness. The termination of Mr. Hyman's ad- | Acute diseases like scarlet fever sometimes cause deafness. But by far the most common cause of loss of hearing is catarrh of the head and throat. A prominent specialist on ear troubles gives as his opinion that nine out of ten cases of deafness is traced to throat trouble; this is probably stated, but it is certainly true that more than final of all the case of poor hearing were caused by catarah. The catarrhal secretion in the nose and throat finds its way into the Eustachian tube, and by clogging it up very soon affects the hearing and the hardening of the secretion makes the loss of hearing permanent, unless the catarrh which caused the trouble is

think this a little far fetched, but anyone at all observant must have noticed how a hard cold in the head will affect the hearing, and that catarrh, if ong neglected, will certainly impair the sense of hearing and ultimately cause deafness.

If the nose and throat are kept clear of catarrh, the hearing will at once greatly improve, and anyone suffering from deafness and catarrh can satisfy themselves on this point by using a 50-cent box of Stuart's Chtarrh Tablets, a new catarrh cure, which in the past year has won the approval of thousands of catarrh sufferers, as well as physicians, because it is in convenient form to use, contains no cocaine, or opiate, and is as safe and pleasant for children as for their elders.

Shall We Revive

[Toronto Globe.] Sir Mackenzie Bowell has performed a real service to the country in arresting the public attention and causing it to view with a deeper seriousness than perhaps had hitherto been the case the problems that are presented in this election. Is Sir Charles Tupper the real leader of the Conservative party? There have been plenty of indications that he is by no means universally accepited. He was chosen by a few men in Ottawa in a desperate emergency, and was promptly repudiated by thousands of Conservatives all over this Dominion Anyone who has attended Conservative meetings during this campaign will vouch for it that the name of Tupper is not a name to conjure with among the rank and file. The party is going to the polls to vote Conservative, irrespective of its leader. But will this settle everything? Sir Mackenzie Bowell declares that he will have a say in any cabinet that is formed. means that he would at least insist on the exclusion of Mr. Foster, possibly the ablest and most experienced of the Conservative leaders. In this de-mand he would have considerable support among those who disliked the pant taken by Mr. Foster in the nest of traitors incident. Then there are aspirants, men who formerly held cabinet positions in Conservative Administrations, and who would make trouble If any attempt were made to exclude them, who, nevertheless, could not well cit around the same council table. The sight of them conferring together on high affairs of state, while their mutual accusations of dishonorable conduct still stand uncontradicted, would shock the country's sense of propriety. If Sir Charles Tupper by any chance could succeed to power we would have a repetition of the scenes of 1896. Instead of giving up his time to the devisement of useful legislation for the people, the leader's attention would be chiefly employed in reconciling the ambitious chiefs of each little clique that alternately threatened to smash the furniture unless they had their own way.

For over fifty years this wonderful remedy has proved itself the best, safest and surest antidote for pain in the world. The True Relief.

Radway's Ready Relief

In using medicines to stop pain, we should avoid such as inflict injury on the system. Opium, Morphine, Cleroform, Ether, Cocaine and Chloral stop pain by destroying the sense of perception, the patient losing the power of feeling. This is a most destructive practice; it masks the symptoms, shut up, and, instead of removing trouble, breaks down the stomach, liver and bowels, and, if continued for a length of time, kills the nerves and produces local or general paralysis.

There is no necessity for using these danger. ous and uncertain agents when a positive remedy like RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will

Mr. H. H. Cook, ex-M. P., who is pouring hot shot into the Liberal where I have erred? Why do they not his former colleagues, is elleged in some quarters to be mad cause the Liberal Cabinet did not make him a senator. If this were true, it would help to illustrate what the Liberals risk by not keeping their promises. Mr. Cook says that one of their promises was to abolish the the Senate Mr. Cook could not reasonably be mad now because they have neglected to make him a senator.-Ottawa Journal. Dur Ottawa contemporary should it place any confidence in the asextions of a disgruntled hunter-after wors that could not, in the interests the public, be granted him. It takes for granted that Mr. Cook's so-called arges, which are merely rehashes of rash and ill-founded campaigning tribes of the Opposition paid reers, are founded in fact. And it sons that they ought to be entered. Surely it is not serious in its tention. Here, for example, we e the Journal accepting as correct Cook's assertion that the Liberals ight to be turned out of office beuse they have not abolished the Sen-.They never promised to do so. Here he plank of the platform of the party oted at the great Dominion con-popular government." There is nothing in that about abolishing the Senate, and Mr. Cook's assertions in other regards are equally devoid of foundation, being merely the angry declaiming of a disappointed favor seeker. But our contemporary may say the Senate has not been reorganized. True; but why? Because as vet in the majority in it, and they will never give their consent to any changes that will shear them of undue privileges, when they were partisan buy our stuff in preference to any ment in undoing so grave a rascality as the gerrymander-that most un- ial boat with her. Has Made Canada Respected. At the grand banquet given to Lord Strathcona by the Toronto Board of Trade last night, the guest of the evening said:

"And now as to the position of England, what it was and what it is. Now, sir, I remember that only a very few years ago all those visiting England, from Canada or from the were merely deemed worthy of being to the United States, all told, 3,762 civil to. The feeling was 'You are hardly thought worth while to cross having the quarantine removed, and from one side of the street to the other to recognize them. We know that our neighbors of the United States were thought of very highly in ing the fiscal year before the removal society. Was it so with ourselves from Canada and from the other colit would be then? (Cheers.)

"How is it today? To be a Canalian or to be a member of any colony is to have the warmest good wishes of all the British people. (Cheers.) The feeling that has gone forth towards the colonies now, and which is not, I feel assured, evanescent, is one that is lasting and enduring. (Cheens.) While we are first among those nations within the empire, we are glad to know that there is another new-born nation, one which is to take its place alongside of Canada in the very near future. (Cheers.) The son of our gracious Queen goes over to assist in the opening ceremonies of that great confederation, and I trust that some member of the royal family who is representing her Majesty there may come also among us upon his return. (Cheers.) Many of you have been in the mother country and have had the best opportunities for knowing our English friends and fellow subjects, and we know that the feeling is now that we should be regarded as one people, as one great empire of Englishmen, no matter from what part of the empire we sprang. (Cheers.)"

Yes, Canada is respected in Great Britain and the world as it never was before, and the respect in which it is held has increased by leaps and bounds under the Laurier Government and its preferential tariff.

The Reason of It All.

There is a sentence or two in Mr. Sifton's speech when he replied to Sir Hilbbert Tupper at the Tory meeting in Brandon, the other day, which have struck a responsive chord in the heart of every fair-minded man. "I am proud," said Mr. Sifton, "that from the first day I entered his Cabinet, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been my friend; olete confidence. It is some little satisfaction at least, in the midst of place, that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the most distinguished of Canadians, the most distinguished of colonial statesmen living today, has given 'me his complete confidence and friendship. I have been there for four years. Will this gentleman (Sir Hibbert) point out lay their finger on something in the administration of Manitoba or the Northwest Territories with which they can find flault? Up to the present time they have been unable to do so. Does it not seem strange that after spend-If the Liberals had abolished ing many years in Manitoba without a spot or stain, and for four years administering millions of dollars' worth of property, that they have to go to the Yukon to find anything? Vast Growth of Cattle Trade. This difference between the careless neglect of the former Conservative Government and the energy and ability of the present Administration is strongly exemplified in their dealings with the quarantine against Canadian cattle entering the United States. The quarantine had been in force since February, 1893, to the complete demoralization of the Canadian cattle trade. ending Dec. 31, 1896, Canada exported cattle, receiving therefore $52,606. It is the export price that largely controls the price of cattle slaughtered and sold within the country, as well, making the gain to the farmers of Canada on the 1,100,000 cattle slaughtered or sold $8,547,000 more than they would have received for the same cattle had the

It is a noticeable fact that much of the anti-Liberal literature circulated by the Opposition is manufactured in the United States by such anti-British papers as the New York Sun. The Toronto World, for example, confesses that while it did not manufacture the anti-Tarte cablegram that has been going the round of the Opposition press, making out that the Minister of Public Works was disloyal to the Empire, it did not find in it any Canadian or British paper, but in a Chicago sheet, which is noted for its sensation-

Old Liberals 103 who believed the slanders that were heaped upon him while he lived, and did not go to the polls, or voted Con-140 servative in 1878, received as compensation from the Conservative leaders the scandalous gerrymander of 1882, which the Senate has refused to re peal, and the partisan franchise act which, in the form in which it was first presented to Parliament, was calculated to establish the Tory politicians in office for generations. If old Liberals want a second dose of this medicine they will vote for the Tupper candidate on Nov. 7.

Political Violence.

[Toronto Star.] The Conservative party stands in very real need of that discipline which can only be had by a further period in opposition. They are too savage altogether, and no person not hopelessly one-sided in politics can condone the three utterances which we here group together:

Hugh J. Macdonald said in a speech while touring Ontario: "I do not say that all Gritis are disloyal, but I do say that all disloyal men are Grits.

The grain market was steady today; receipts were light and demand good; prices show no changes. Wheat, $1 05; oats, 72c to 75c; malting barley, 80c to 85c; beans, 60c to $1, the former price for very poor. No corn, rye, peas or buckwheat offered.

demoralized yesterday; $4 75 was all that could be got, lower old country markets being 589 a year ago. Local receipts were 100 ed, because there were no transactions, but we look for a reduction of This will be keeping time with the foreign prices for meat, and it is quite certain if things don't change the dressed hogs will be similarly affected

Hay was lower, at $750 to $8, the majority of sales being made at $750. No straw offered.

> Two Elections by Acclamation-Proceedings in Five Constituencies Postponed-Political Notes.

duly held yesterday in 108 of the 213 constituencies of the Dominion. There were but two elections by acclamation, one going to the Liberals in Quebec, where Mr. Lavergne was unopposed in Drummond and Arthabaska, and the Conservatives securing the second in and common grades lower; sheep, $2.25 Ontario, where Mr. Seagram was deto $3.75; choice, $4; culls, $1.50 to $2; clared elected for North Waterloo, in the absence of an opponent. The five Yale and Cariboo and Burrard in British Columbia, and Gaspe and Chicoutimi in Quebec, all of them of vast extent, and containing each many points difficult of easy access. acclamations are fewer than there being generally three or four. In 1896 there were four, two Liberals, one Conservative and one Independent.

There were no special surprises in the nominations. In Quebec, Liberals and Conservatives have each doubled once or twice, and in South Huron, West Elgin and North Norfolk there are two Liberals in the field. Mr. John Mc-Ewen is contesting South Huron with Mr. MacMillian; in West Elgin Mr. George E. Casey and Mr. McGuigan, Liberals, and Mr. Jabel Robinson, Patron, are contesting, and in North Norfolk Mr. Charlton is being opposed by Mr. J. C. Ross, also a Liberal.

In Quebec, Sir Adolphe Caron, who crowded out of Three Rivers, is standing for Maskinonge, making it a three-cornered contest. In Toronto all three ridings will see three-cornered contests, Mr. A. McFarren running as an Independent candidate in East Toronto, and Dr. Hargrave and Mr. H. Stevenson standing as Independents in Center and West Toronto respectively. In Winnipeg the contest will be again between Mr. Put-tee and Mr. E. Martin, both running as Independents, as in the case of the last bye-election in that city. A full list of the candidates will be

For some two Maurs Mr. Camp- deserter from the Conservative ran on behalf of the Conservatives, endeavored to convince the audience that he, and he only, knew how to conduct a meeting, but failed. It was suggested by a member of the audience that the programme be arranged by the two candidates, but Mr. Camp-bell would not listen to this, and was inally hissed from the platform. It was finally arranged in a manner proposed by the Reformers some two nours before. Mr. Dunlop was allowed three-quarters of an hour, and occupied about four minutes, stating that the Reform government had raised the price of sugar. Then Mr. Cal. cert, amid cheers, addressed the electors in an eloquent manner on the important issues of the day. Then Mr. Thomas Crothers, of St. Thomas, spoke Toronto, Nov. 1.-Nominations were according to arrangement for threequarters of an hour. He stated that the Liberal party had broken all their pledges; that Sir Charles Tupper, and alone, was responsible for sending the Canadian contingent, and that Sin Wilfrid Laurier was not a loyal and patriotic statesman. When Mr. Crothers had finished he picked up his grip, hat and overcoat, and, accompanied by several Conservatives, left the hall. Hon. George W. Ross was then called and was received with loud Canada lambs, $5 25 to $5 30; culls, $3 constituencies in which nominations and prolonged applause. After disposto $4. Mr. Ross closed with an eloquent appeal to the electors to return Mr. Calvert, as he knew they would, with as handsome a majority as ever. The meeting closed with hearty cheers for Mr. Calvert Hon. George W Ross. Wilfrid Laurier and the Queen, while the name of the Conservative candidate was entirely forgot-

A BYE-ELECTION. Though not connected with the federal contest, it may be added that the Ontario Government also carried a seat by acclamation yesterday, namely, in North Waterloo, where the Liberal candidate, Mr. L. J. Breithaupt, was declared elected in the absence of an opponent.

DELIBERATE FALSIFICATION

Hugh John Macdonald Wilfully Misquotes Mr. Sifton-What the Minister Actually Said.

No more glaring instance of the absolutely audacious manner in which the Tories are endeavoring to mislead the electorate by deliberate misstatements has appeared in the last few days than occurs in a letter from Hugh John Macdonald to the president of the Brandon Conservative Association. Speaking of the allegation that the Minister of the Interior had granted a permit to his late law partner, Mr. A. E. Philip, to take liquor into the Yukon, Hugh John says: "On the 4th of April, 1899, Mr. Sifton was obliged to admit in the House of Commons that he had given Mr. Philip the following permit: 'This will introduce Mr. Philp who will be permitted to enter the Yukon district with such provisions as he may choose to take with him, without regard to the regulations.' Mr. Sifton also stated, When Mr. Philip got to the coast he decided to become interested in the bringing of liquor into the Yukon. He telegraphed me asking me to write him that the letter I had given ham should include liquor.'

Will it be believed that Hugh John actually cut off the quotation from Mr. Sifton's speech in the middle of a sentence which concluded, "and his request was promptly declined." Such delaberate falsification of the records seems incredible in a public man, and especially in one who "always keeps his word." The following excerpt from Mr. Sifton's speech as it appeared in Hansard will demonstrate the willful character of the misrepresentation: "The story was circulated at the coast that I had given Mr. Philip a liquor permit, and that he had taken liquor into the Klondike, and with that charity which covers a multitude of sins the story was industriously circulated Ailsa Craig were followed by a large that I was his partner in connection with the taking of liquor into country. Well, Mr. Speaker, he never had a liquor permit from me or my department, directly or indirectly, or in any way, shape or form, by or under the authority of any member of this Government. I hold Mr. Philip's written statement, which he is prepared to verify by statutory declaration and which will render him liable to an indictment for perjury if not true, that he never took any all quor into the ndike in any way, shape or form. Mr. Philp came to me one day in my office and said that Major Walsh had made an order about requiring 600 pounds of provisions for each person going over the pass; that he intende to go up to the Yukon on a short visi that he was just going in and out, and that he wanted me to give him an rder authorizing him to go in without the 600 pounds of provisions. I said to him, You do not need any order, Mrs. Thomas McDonough, of Dundas, the police will not stop you, you are not going as a prospector, and besides the police have not the authority to The order is to all intents stop you. and purposes an advisory order. If anyone goes in without that amount of provisions the police cannot prevent him, as they have not the legal au-thority to do so.' He, however, said he did not want to have any trouble with the police and asked me to give him a letter which I did. I wrote this letter: 'This will introduce Mr. Philip who will be permitted to enter the Yukon district with such provisions he may choose to take with him, with-out regard to the regulations." When Mr. Philp got to the coast, like the partner of the honorable member for Pictou (Sir Hibbert Tupper), and a great many other distinguished gentle men, he desired to become interested in the matter of bringing fiquor into the Yukon. He telegraphed me, asking me to write him that the letter I ad given him should include liquor and his request was promptly de -Hansard, April 4, 1899, page 850 No wonder Sir Charles Tupper had offer a most abject apology to Mr. Philo for slandering him in reference to this matter, knowing full well that he had not done as charged. The law counts would have taught him a salu-

More Mail Deceit.

The Mail and Empire and a few of the other more unscrupulous journals of the Tory party are trying to inflame the baser passions of the ignor-ant among their following by representing that as in Ontario the "one-man-one-vote" system prevails, while Press today that he had delivered a in Quebec the old Tory system of permitting a rich man to vote in as many constituencies as he owns property is still in force, a great wrong is done to Ontario. The Mail quotes from that Tory campaign sheet. Events:

Contrast this with the Province of Quebec. There a man can vote a hundred times if he holds property in a hundred places." Then the willy and unveracious organ

"In this province the elector has one vote for parliament, provided he can get registered. "In Quebec the elector can vote half a dozen times.'

What are the facts? It makes no difference to one province if every elector in another province has one vote or one hundred votes. And this was well known to the Mail and its Ottawa jackal. The act of confederation provides

'Quebec shall have the fixed number of 65 members. "There shall be assigned to each of the other provinces such a number of members as will bear the same pro-portion to the number of its population as the number 65 bears to the number of the population of Quebec. Is it not clear that no matter how many times a Quebec man may vote, such voting can have no bearing on the rights or privileges of the other provinces. Knowing the facts, why do the Tory organs resort to such incendiary and false appeals?

They presume upon the ignorance and bigotry of their dupes. They have no case upon which to seek the favor of the electors; their only weapons are falsehood and slan-race and religious hatred. They outrage truth and decency in their appeals to the vilest passions. Young man what think you of such tactics? Can any good cause be served by the course the Tory leaders and organs are following?

One or two other things I want to say, sir. I do not very much like making contrasts which may grate on the ears of any of my fellow-countrymen, but I do desire to call the attention of every man, whether he be Conservative or whether he be Reformer, to the enormous contrast which exists between the Canada of today and the Canada of 1891. Str, at that time the name of Canada was very familiar to English ears. At that time you could hardly take up a British newspaper without finding numerous allusions to Camada. the Times to the Daily Dispatch there was one universal lamentation and note of disappointment at the fearful exhibition of corruption which had been displayed it the Candian Parliament in 1891. The Times told us that the fair fame of Canada was in dunger. Other papers told us that such corruption had been made manifest in Canada as had not been known in England for a hundred years. Others again declared that the corruption ed together in taking or attempting to revealed was, like everything American, on a colossal scale. Yet, again. others declared that Tammany Hall itself would smell sweet in compari son with the stench raised by S John Alexander Macdonald's administration. Sir, I say those were time. in which to be a Canadian was not a thing that any one of us could be proud of, and in which the best defence we could make was this-that when the people of Canada came to know who had been guilty of these things they would inflict due punishment upon the offenders. How stands it today, sir? There is not a journal in England, there is not a public place in England, in which the name of Canada is not a passport, in which the name of Canada is not honored, in which the fact of being a Canadian does not insure a ready welcome to every man who can honestly tay claim Sold by Anderson & Nelles, London, The boys only he counts, and his reply to it, Sir Richard Cartwright at Mas-

> Mr. McGugan will assuredly be elected to represent the south riding of there must be no over-confidence, and no allowing opponents to steal a march. In this instance, the Liberals must thank Mr. Judd's Conservative friends in the senate for assisting in his defeat, for, as was brought to the attention of the electors by one of the speakers during the afternoon, their infamous gerrymander act has garnered into the constituency a large Liberal section of the county, in the hope that by this means the election of Conservatives in the other ridings would be assisted. In Mr. McGugan the electors of South Middlesex will have a splendid representative. He is a farmer, possessing many of the admirable qualities that are peculiarly characteristic of Canadian agriculturists. Unassuming, courteous, independent, he has won hosts of friends who esteem election of a man of such worth The meeting that was held after the time for nominations had closed was of exceeding interest, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large numbers the attended it. The gathering was representative of all portions of the riding, which means Liberals predominated. Quite a few Conservatives were there, and the adherents of both panties gave a respectful hearing to all the speakers, regardless of their particular allegiance. Altogether, it was as pleasant a political affair as would be possible to attend. The Liberals were so largely in the majority, so optimistic for the future, that their pleasure seemed contagious, and after a while their geniality warmed the Conservatives into good humor. They enjoyed Mr. Judd's assumed confidence in the outlook quite as much as their Liberal neighbors. When he referred to himself as the coming nember, such a merry, spontaneous augh burst out that even his face nearly lost its sober mask, and his friends from the city openly betrayed the extent of their belief in his ulti-

Mr. J. P. Grigg, of Caradoc, who presided, announced that the representatives of the two parties would speak alternately. The Liberal nom-inee spoke first. Sincere enthusiasm was manifested when he appeared upon the platform. Mr. T. H. Purdom, Q.C., and Mr. Alex, Stuart, Q.C., were with him, and Mr. Judd was accompanied by Mr. E. T. Essery and Mr. A. G. Chisholm.

MALCOLM McGUGAN.

Without attempting any oratorical effect, Mr. McGugan presented a number of logical arguments to assist the electors in deciding upon the party that should govern them for the next five years. No frills of speech coscured his facts. In 1878, he said, the public issue was a revenue tariff or protection, the policies of the Liberals and Conservatives respectively. For | find him just as good a representative the eighteen years that followed, the Canadian people had the National Policy, which the Conservatives had claimed would work such wonders. It would build factories, make them busy, fill the Northwest, and provide a home market for all farm products. The idea that the N. P. had provided a home market was disproven by the census returns of 1881 and 1891. It had been claimed for the National Policy that it would stop the exodus from the Dominion, keep immigrants in the country, make trade better, and, in fact, was a panacea for all evils: but in reality the eighteen years of Conservative rule had been years of stagnation, while the last four years were the most prosperous that Canada ever had. (Applause.) It was claimed the opposition that the decrease in the tariff under Liberal rule had been almost inappreciable. The best way to learn the true facts was to examine the customs tariff, which showed that with the decreased tariff, trade had so increased that the duty collected in the Liberal term of power exceeded the amount that would have been collected under the National Policy by $3,236,430. Under the 321/2 per cent preference it would increase still more. By this means the Canadian received the benefit from the United States, as well as England, for he could demand of the former the same price as he was given by the lat-(Cheers.) Since the introduction of the preferential trade the importations had jumped from $29,000,000 to nearly $45,000,000, the percentage of increase from the United States being 17% per cent, and from England 20 per cent. The Conservative estimate of the amount of decrease in the tariff had not taken into consideration the preferential tariff or the articles placed on the free list, as, for in-stance, corn, which had yielded $549,binder twine, $142,000; fence wires. $169,000; cream separators, $45,000; from and steel, $75,000, and many others.

A successful and enthusiastic meetevening in Trebilcock's Hall, South important engagement elsewhere.

Mr. F. P. Betts, barrister, of this city, delivered a convincing and stirring address, being frequently interrupted by well-merited applause. In opening, Mr. Betts expressed his own regret and that of the whole meeting, that Hon. David Mills, minister of justice, was unable to attend. Mr. Mills, said the speaker, was one of the blest thinkers the country had ever known, a man of undaunted energy and tireless research, whose voice had been heard on all of the most important questions that had occupied the attention of the world during the last twenty or thirty years, and always with respect. (Applause.) Continuing, Mr. Betts referred to the gathering in this city on Tuesday night in honor of Sir Charles Tupper and proceeded to criticise the political career of that gentleman, showing Sir Charles' intimate connection with nest of traitors," and pointed out that if the electors of the Dominion returned him to power-[Voice: "We'll give him a rest."]-they would be returning the very men who had been tried and found wanting, men who ad also disgraced the fair name of Sir Charles' lengthy manianada. festo on the cold storage question was bombastic affair, and had fallen flat. fate which it richly importation of Hugh John Macdonald among the Tory leaders the speaker characterized as an attempt to create mistake, Barracks and Royal Military College, different factions of the party. He had already addressed two meetings that day, which might be a light task for a lawyer, but it was rather hard on a farmer. (Laughter.) In his brief address he showed the great strides the Liberal party had made in the postoffice department alone under the unrivaled management of Hon. Mr. Mulock. The Intercolonial Railway was now a progressive concern, said the speaker, which was also a grand achievement for the Liberal party, whose reign of four short years was one unparalleled for prosperity in the history of Canada, (Applause.) Mr. McGugan spoke for but five minutes, and was heartily applauded.
