

FARMERS' DAY AT FAIR DRAWS BIG CROWDS; CITY FULL OF VISITORS FROM MANY PLACES

Seven Thousand People Entered the Grounds Before Noon Today—Big Crowd This Afternoon.

Grand Trunk and Other Railways Brought in Over 10,000 Strangers.

This is Farmers' Day at the Fair, and the city is thronged with visitors from the outlying districts. One of the largest crowds of the Fair is in the city, and this morning Secretary Hunt estimated that there are over 7,000 people on the grounds.

Hotel Accommodation Inadequate; Hundreds Slept on Cots Here

Could Not Secure Rooms at the Local Hostels—Big Crowd in the City.

"It's one of the largest crowds that has been in the city for some time," said a downtown store man last night.

The streets were filled all day and evening, and it seemed that very few who came here yesterday intended returning, as a large majority stayed over until today to see the Fair.

The day was spent in sightseeing downtown, and in visiting the stores. All the latter were crowded, and the business-men report business as being very good. The visitors seemed to have money and they spent it. So the rain was not an unmitigated blessing.

Great for Hotels. It was a great day for the hotels. Rooms were out of the question as it was an impossibility to get one in any hotel in the city.

Cots were put in the parlors, halls, anywhere one could be placed, and any person getting even a cot considered himself the lucky chap.

The same story is told from boarding houses and private houses. They

When the afternoon crowd reached the grounds the attendance was very large. The race track has dried out wonderfully well, and two races were put on this afternoon, besides the attractions before the stand and all the rest of the show.

The horses are pretty well all judged now, and the parade of prize-winners will be one of the features of the day. The night performance will be put on as usual.

City Full of Visitors. The city is thronged with visitors. A large percentage of those who came were playing to capacity houses. On several streets men and women were seen canvassing from house to house to see if they could not by some chance get a place to sleep.

Cots were placed in hallways of private houses, and in this way many were accommodated.

Walked Streets All Night. The others had to make the best of a bad job. In a number of the hotels, visitors snatched a few minutes' sleep on chairs. Some walked the street all night. Some accepted the hospitality offered by the railway companies, and slept on benches in the stations where they murdered sleep.

Theaters Did Well. It was a great day for the theaters. Both the Grand and Bennett's played to capacity, and many more would have gone had there been any room. The Grand played "Piff, Paff, Pout," again last night, and it pleased the large crowd immensely. The catchy music, and the bright comedy caught them right. Tonight Grace Cameron, an old London favorite, will play "Dolly Dimples."

Bennett's show was a great business-maker. Patsy Doyle made a great hit with his fun, and Walter Perkins & Co., and McPhee and Hill kept right in line.

Bishop Ingram Speaks in Montreal

A dispatch from Montreal says: A two-fold message was given here tonight by Bishop Ingram, of London, Eng. The first was a warm greeting of love and hope to the people from their fellow-citizens across the Atlantic. The second was when his lordship proceeded to discuss the particularly timely subject for Montreal of "The Ideal City and How to Make It." Much satisfaction was evinced at the common-sense manner in which his lordship dealt with the manifold difficulties of modern life in big cities, and particularly the familiar subject of graft.

Long before he reached St. George's Church the big building was crowded. After a message of love and sympathy the bishop proceeded to discuss the conditions that tended to make an ideal city. The main one, he declared, was patriotism, a patriotism not merely to one's country, but to the city also. In this he declared that he had been more struck by the patriotism of Canadians to their country and city institutions than by anything he had yet seen. With such an all-pervading patriotism he felt confident that no matter what difficulties might be encountered the future of this and other Canadian cities was assured.

Will Instruct London Railwaymen

The Stratford Beacon of Tuesday contained the following:

Mr. Harry Paton, 234 Brunswick street, G. T. R. engineer, has been appointed instructor and examiner on engines on the Middle Division, and commenced his duties last week. His work includes the formation of classes of firemen who are seeking advancement to the position of engineer, giving lectures and instructions in connection with the general preparation for the engineers' examination papers. Stratford, London, Sarnia, St. Thomas, Palmerston, Toronto and York are included in the list of places in which he is engaged in instruction and examining.

The appointment of an instructor of this character is a new departure on the part of the Grand Trunk. It is an experiment, which if proven successful, will be continued every year. In the past the work of instructing the firemen has been left in the hands of the roundhouse foreman, and it was entirely optional with them whether they should choose to organize classes or not.

Mr. J. A. Mitchell, the local roundhouse foreman, has always maintained a class of instruction, giving lectures on various subjects at weekly intervals, and the training has been a decided benefit to many of the firemen and engineers who have availed themselves of the opportunity.

Mr. Paton will give the various courses of instruction for a few weeks, and will further act as examiner of the papers after they have been prepared.

THE GROWING TIME IN ONTARIO RUSH TO THE WEST OVERBALANCED

Population 2,141,771—Increase of 405,111 Over the Previous Year.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—The municipal statistics just issued by the department of agriculture show a slight increase for the year in the population of Ontario. The gain is 40,511.

The report is gratifying to the officials of the department inasmuch as the depletion of the rural population occasioned by the rush to the west is more than counterbalanced by the influx of a desirable class from the British Isles.

The figures given out are:

Population—1905, 2,101,260; 1906, 2,141,771. Assessed values—1905, $1,036,910,130; 1906, $1,103,502,492. Taxes—1905, $16,589,552; 1906, $18,013,945.

Cities.

The population of Ontario cities in 1906 was 831,732, and the assessed values $30,228,694, divided as follows:

Real property, $280,289,349; business assessment, $36,087,023; taxable income, $14,142,322. The sum of $7,475,164 was paid in taxes, being an average of $12.55 per head, or 22.5 mills on the dollar, in Toronto and other cities. Towns and incorporated villages contain a population of 507,205, and assessed values of $184,594,623. They pay $4,146,982 in taxes at the rate of $8.18 per head.

Rural Municipalities.

Rural municipalities after all contain the majority both of population and of land, 1,652,814, being just 9,174 less than 1905, thus showing that the boy continues to leave the farm for the allurements of the city or the larger promise of the far west. The assessed values in the country aggregated $88,389,375, on which $6,391,739 was paid in taxes. This makes only $6.07 per head, or a little less than half that paid to cities.

Taxes.

By a gradual and steady progress Ontario's taxation per capita has increased from $8.13 in 1897 to $8.41 in 1906, a period of ten years.

in yesterday remained over until today. Every train coming in this morning carried a large crowd—in fact every train was filled to capacity. The Grand Trunk ran specials on all their branches from Brantford west, and along the Sarnia and Windsor divisions as well as on the northern lines. About a dozen specials came into the city, and it is estimated that they carried over 10,000 visitors. A unique feature of the day's programme was the liberation of a large consignment of pigeons in front of the grandstand at 2 o'clock. The birds came from Toronto and will race from London to the Queen City. One of the features of the Buffalo Old Home Week was the liberation every morning in front of the McKinley monument.

LONDON MAN WAS HURT AT WINDSOR

Accident to Mr. R. H. Smith, at the New Tunnel Under the Detroit River.

Word was received in this city this morning that Mr. R. H. Smith, formerly of London, and brother of Mrs. S. B. Putnam, of 724 Queen's avenue, was injured near Windsor at the work which is proceeding there on the new tunnel.

No particulars as to how the accident occurred or as to how seriously Mr. Smith was injured have been received.

VERDICT WAS VERY NON-COMMITTAL

Enquiry Yesterday Into the Christian Science Case at Harrietsville.

"That the said James E. Jelley came to his death by colitis and gangrene of the smaller bowels, and further, we find that two of the witnesses swore that they asked the late James E. Jelley to have medical attendance, and he refused."

The above was the verdict rendered yesterday at Harrietsville by the jury impaneled by Coroner H. Doon to inquire into the death of J. E. Jelley, the Christian Scientist, of Harrietsville, who died Sept. 6 after having, it is alleged, refused medical treatment.

Dr. Boughart, who conducted the post-mortem over the body testified that the deceased man had been in a very dangerous condition for a long time previous to his death.

The witness declined to say whether or not the case would have responded to medical treatment or not.

R. J. Jelley, of Toronto, a brother of the deceased, and his mother had both asked the deceased if he wanted a doctor, and he had replied that he did not.

A physician had been called an hour previous to his death, but the patient died before medical assistance arrived.

HIS LAST SLEEP

Englishman Found Dead in Bed in a Toronto Boarding-House.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—Thomas Nichols, 37 years old, took an overdose of laudanum last night, and was found dead in bed this morning at Joseph White's boarding-house, 54 Bond street.

Nichols came from England seven years ago, and is said to have a wife and family in the old country.

BOOTH COMING TO CANADA.

London, Sept. 11.—General Booth, at a farewell meeting, stated he did not regret that arrangements for a direct passage to New York had failed, because it enabled him again to visit Canada. He sails Friday.

Labatt Manufacturing Company the Victim of an Outrage by Some Person Unknown.

A dastardly attempt to cripple or ruin the power plant of the Labatt Manufacturing Company took place last week.

The engineer in charge of the large engine which supplies power for both the Labatt brass firm and the Cook-Fitzgerald Shoe Company plants at the corner of Richmond and Bathurst streets noticed that his engine was "pounding" shortly after starting it up in the morning.

Investigation showed that some miscreant had filled one of the bearings of the immense fly-wheel with emery dust. Had the discovery not been made as soon as it was the pin upon which the great wheel revolves would in all likelihood have burst and a number of workmen's lives would have been sacrificed.

A Dastardly Trick.

As it was the engine was stopped and what was thought to be all of the emery dust removed. The following Thursday morning, however, the engine again began to pound and it was found necessary to jack it up and give it a thorough overhauling. Emery dust was found in the oil cups and in many of the bearings. During the operation of cleaning the machine both plants were shut down for a period of nearly a day.

The Cook-Fitzgerald Company rents its power from the Labatt people and is consequently not interested in the matter only so far as the incident affected its operations.

Looking for a Clue.

When interviewed this morning by The Advertiser a prominent official of the Labatt company stated that the matter had been kept quiet in the hope that some clue might be obtained as to the perpetrator of the cowardly deed before he had taken fright and fled.

"Then you have no clue as yet?" was asked.

"Well, I am not at liberty to say just what we have found out," was the reply. "We are fairly positive, though, that the act was committed by some discharged employe in a spirit of revenge for fancied wrongs. We expect to be able to give out something definite shortly."

Jeopardized Lives.

Mr. J. P. Cook, of Cook and Fitzgerald, said he had nothing to say about the affair except that the scoundrel who had committed the act had jeopardized the lives of a number of workmen, and that he hoped to see him captured and punished as he richly deserved.

"Such a creature is not fit to live outside prison walls," said Mr. Cook in conclusion.

Fair Visitors Blew Out the Gas; Narrow Escape at Richmond Hotel

Lives of Man and Woman Saved Through Wakefulness of Wife of Proprietor.

Blowing out the gas is not a healthful pastime at best and sometimes it is attended with dire results.

Yesterday a man and his wife came to the city from a nearby town, and registered at the Richmond House. The couple took in the sights and returned about 11 o'clock and retired.

Their room was near that of Mrs. J. Cook, proprietor of the hotel.

About 2 o'clock, Mrs. Cook was aroused by the strong odor of gas, and on investigating found it pouring from the room supposed to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. Trew from a nearby town.

After some difficulty the sleeping couple were aroused, and told of their danger.

They were quite seriously effected by the gas for some time, but were brought around. This morning they are not suffering any ill-effects save a severe headache.

It was found that the man had blown out the gas just before retiring, and being tired had not noticed the smell of gas in the room. It was a narrow escape, as in a few minutes more their condition would have been very serious.

It is further understood that Mr. Michael O'Meara, the son, will receive $10,000 a year for ten years, after which, it is said, that he will come into a half-interest in the Deering Harvester Company warehouse and other property in London which was owned by Mr. O'Meara.

No announcement has been made as to who will conduct the Grigg House in the future.

BORDEN ROASTED BY AYLESWORTH

Rousing Liberal Gathering at Dundas—Expose the Whitney Government.

Dundas, Sept. 10.—The loyalty and strength of Wentworth Liberalism were never more clearly attested than they were today when, despite weather conditions calculated to spoil any function, social or political, standard-bearers flocked from all parts of the county to take part in the rally here.

With the rain pelted down from an early hour the picnic arranged to take place in Dundas Park was, of course, out of the question, but though many were naturally disappointed at the cancellation of the open-air programme, ample compensation, from a political point of view, was found in the meeting held in the town hall. The speakers were Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, and Hon. A. G. MacKay, and the efforts of both raised the audience, which numbered over 300, and comprised a good many ladies, to a high pitch of enthusiasm. Mr. Aylesworth's speech took the form of a searching analysis of Mr. Borden's programme. He charged the leader of the Opposition with playing a political game, exposed the hollowness of his election purity cry, and castigated him for his insinuations against Mr. Fielding. Mr. MacKay followed with an effective exposure of some of the weakness of the Whitney Administration.

In the course of his address Mr. MacKay said: "If the spirit of true Liberalism is abroad—and I believe it is—then it does not depend on one leader or another to carry the cause on to success. If that spirit prevails we will find a leader, and as in the past we have been united, I believe that when we make our selection we will again be united. There is no conflict between the Liberals of Ontario and

THE LUSITANIA'S RAPID RUN LIKELY TO CUT DOWN RECORD

Was 225 Miles Off Cape Race at 5 a.m.—Covered 1655 Miles in 70 Hours—Should Make Trip in Less Than Five Days.

New York, Sept. 11.—Flowing the seas at a speed never before attained by a steamship, the giant turbine Lusitania of the Cunard Line is sweeping along at a 25-knot clip on her maiden voyage to New York, and a wireless message received from Cape Race, Nfld., early today shows that the Lusitania has broken all records for a transatlantic steamer. If she maintains her speed through the last thousand miles of her trip the hope of a four-day trip across the Atlantic will have been realized.

The Lusitania came into the wireless zone of Cape Race at 5:20 o'clock today, and telegraphed that she was then 225 miles southeast of the cape at the time, or 1,125 from the Sandy Hook lightship. The dispatch today showed that the big ship had covered 1,655 miles of the voyage in approximately 70 hours through swelling seas and murky fogs, which hindered her progress, and that she had averaged a trifle better than 23½ knots an hour, a speed record never before reached by a trans-Atlantic steamer on a western voyage.

Four Days, Thirteen Hours.

The Lusitania is expected to flash by the red-hulled lightship off Sandy Hook about 1 o'clock Friday morning, which would make the time of the voyage, about 4 days and 13 hours, more than 13 hours better than the record trip between Queenstown and New York of 5 days, 7 hours, and 26 minutes, made by the Lucania of the Cunard Line in 1894.

The Lusitania's maiden voyage promises also to wrest the title of the Queen of Seas from the Deutschland, of the Hamburg-American Line. The Deutschland made a voyage from Cherbourg to New York in 1903 in 5 days 11 hours and 34 minutes over a course of 2,934 miles in length at an average speed of 23.15 knots.

A dispatch from the Associated Press correspondent on board the Lusitania by Marconi, reads as follows: "On board steamship Lusitania via Cape Race, Nfld., Sept. 11.—Tuesday noon 1,130 miles from Queenstown, fog, rain, northerly wind. Lusitania, magnificent construction, comfort, luxury, steadiness, no seasickness, all enthusiastic."

The distance covered by the Lusitania between Tuesday noon, when the above dispatch was sent, and the point at which she was reported to the Cunard Line at 5 o'clock this morning is about 455 miles, which distance the new vessel covered in 17 hours, indicating that she was making a little better than 26 knots per hour at that time.

Speculation Rife as to Marriage Decree Issued by Pope Pius X

Nothing Definite Has as Yet Reached the Local Clergy.

Speculation is rife among the Catholic clergy of Canada and the United States as to the probable force of the new decree recently issued at Rome relative to the validity of certain marriages. As yet only the bare fact that a new decree has been promulgated has reached the authorities in London, and it is impossible for them to say what far-reaching effects it may have.

At present the rule in force as far as the dioceses of the Province of Ontario are concerned is that the marriage of two Catholics or a Catholic and a Protestant performed by a minister not of the Catholic faith is valid, though it is declared sinful and sacrilegious. In other countries, however, for example, in the diocese of St. Thomas and Santa Fe, says a dispatch, such marriages are not recognized by the church as even valid, owing to the fact that the decree of the Council of Trent has been published there.

Takes Effect at Easter.

In the last edition of the London (Eng.) Tablet it was stated by the Rome correspondent that the new decree would wipe out the decision of the Council of Trent, so that throughout the whole world the marriage of Catholics among themselves or with one of the Protestant faith, even if not performed by a Catholic priest would be valid.

Yesterday, however, in a cable dispatch from Rome the direct contrary was stated, to the effect that throughout the whole world after the promulgation of the decree such marriages would be invalid if performed by any but a Catholic priest.

It is impossible to state what the effect of the new decree will be until the text itself arrives here. However, it is the common opinion of the local clergy that instead of a concession in the matter the law has been made more stringent. This seems to be borne out by the fact that the decree is not to come into effect until Easter next. If it were a concession it would naturally come into effect at once, and the fact that several months will elapse before it will take place leads those at the head of affairs here to believe that the law has been made stricter, and that after Easter next the marriage of Catholics among themselves or with others not of their faith if performed by any but a Catholic priest will be invalid as far as the Roman Catholic Church is concerned.

BAPTISTS NOT IN IT

Reply to Joint Committee on Union of Churches.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—The Baptists decline to unite with the churches which are at present in Canada negotiating with a view to union and which invited them to enter into conference with them. They find "a fatal impediment" in the practice of infant baptism, also in the adoption of any other mode than immersion; they desire to avoid all alliance with secular authorities; they will not identify themselves with creeds which have any tendency to establish a human standard over conscience; and they recognize no claim to ecclesiastical succession. Such is the substance of the reply presented yesterday afternoon to the joint committee on church union of Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists by the committee of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec on church union.

Windsor, Sept. 11.—Chief Engineer Mountain, representing the Dominion railway commission, was in Windsor yesterday and inspected the Windsor, Essex and Lake Shore Railway, which will soon be opened for traffic.

Picking Pockets Going Out of Fashion

So far Fair week has been productive of fewer cases of pocket-picking than has been known in years. The three men arrested yesterday by Detectives Nickle, Eggleton and Rider, are the only ones taken in charge to date, and the crime in which they are suspected of being implicated took place at Glencoe.

The city detectives state that the number of offenders in the pocket-picking line are growing less in number each year.

About twenty-seven years ago there were as high as twenty-five pickpockets arrested Fair week in London.

Last year there were two or three picked up. The detectives modestly refrain from attempting to give a reason for the scarcity of pickpockets in London, but prominent business men who know say that the reputation of the London detective and police force strikes terror to wrongdoers far and near.

There may be something in the theory, too, that the people of today are wiser than they were years ago, and as a consequence the thieves find it much more difficult to pick pockets than they did in former years, and most of the gentry have taken to more profitable occupations.

No complaints of thefts have been received in the city, although a case heard from the Glencoe one, has been heard from Woodstock.

WOOLWINDER WON ST. LEGER STAKES

Baltinglass Second, Acclaim Third—Twelve Horses in the Race.

London, Sept. 11.—At the Doncaster race meeting today, the St. Leger stakes, 25 sovereigns, each for 3-year olds, about one mile, six furlongs and 132 yards were won by Woolwinder. Baltinglass was second and Acclaim was third. Twelve horses started. The St. Leger is run in the finest possible weather, and in the presence of a large crowd of people, including King Edward. Woolwinder, who ran second in the race for the Derby stakes was the favorite in the betting, at 11 to 10 against.

GREAT BRITAIN'S SERIOUS PROBLEM

How to Straighten Up Matters in Vancouver—Japan Ignores Ottawa.

London, Sept. 10.—Officials of the colonial and foreign office realize that a most serious problem has arisen in Vancouver, particularly as the feeling appears to be strongest against the subjects of Great Britain's eastern ally, and that will require most careful handling, for whatever action is taken is likely to be resented either by the colony or by Japan.

Anti-Japanese legislation by British Columbia was discussed at length during the recent visit of the colonial Premier in London, Australia, being much opposed to the admission of Asiatics as are the Canadians. No steps were taken at the time, however.

All the cabinet ministers are out of town at present, but the colonial and foreign office officials are seeking to obtain all the information possible, with the view of taking some action, the nature of which is difficult to surmise.

Vancouver, Sept. 10.—There was no reaction yesterday from the fever of public feeling which culminated on Saturday night in a mob attack on the Oriental quarter of the city. Today the wrecked section presents a dreary appearance. The interiors of the shops are littered with costly china, silks, teas and spices worth thousands of dollars. Few of the Chinese have returned, but the Japs are there, indignant and ready to fight.

That K. Ishii, the Japanese envoy, who arrived in the city during the fiercest part of the rioting, and was close to the storm center, regards the situation as serious from an international point of view, is indicated by the numerous cables he has sent and received from Tokyo.

There has been no attempt on the part of Mayor Bethune to patch the matter up either with the Japanese envoy or the consul, and his emphatic declaration that under no circumstances would he submit to the proposition that the city pay the damages, now variously estimated at from fifty to one hundred thousand dollars, sustained by the shops and buildings of the Japs and Chinese wrecked, is accepted as a definite expression of his sentiment.

Some feeling followed developments, showing that Secretary A. E. Fowler, of the Japanese Anti-Asiatic League, from Seattle, who attended the meeting to protest against the Orientals, at which the riots started, and used intemperate language in detailing to the excited crowd how the Orientals at Bellingham had been treated.

The most serious aspect of the question is the approaching of several shiploads of Orientals, due to arrive this week. In the state of public excitement it is feared the riots will break out afresh.

During the five hours of the street fighting no arrests could be made, as the prisoners were dragged from the officers by the infuriated mob. Later a score were quietly picked up. Little importance is attached to the burning in effigy of Lieutenant-Governor Duns-muir because of the well-known hatred entertained for him by labor leaders.

The news of the riots in Vancouver awakened great uneasiness among the Orientals in Victoria. Mass-meetings of the Chinese were held to consider the situation, and throughout the day messages were passing between Orientals in both cities. The Japanese colony has been in communication with Consul-General Nosse here, who will communicate with his Government, which will, in turn, place the matter in the hands of its ambassador at London.

A dispatch from Honolulu says that the steamer Indiana left there yesterday with a consignment of Japanese laborers for Vancouver. It is thought they will be landed at Victoria in view of the belligerent attitude which Vancouver is assuming.

IGNORANCE IS A CURSE.—"Know thyself" is a good admonition, whether referring to one's physical condition or moral habits. The man who is acquainted with himself will know how to act when any disadvantage in his condition manifests itself. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is a cheap and simple remedy for the eradication of pain from the system and for the cure of all bronchial troubles.

Put By a Nest Egg for Emergencies

Three Hundred Dollars in a Loan Company an Unassailable Asset.

In the Statute respecting Loan Companies there is a provision which absolutely protects a deposit of $300 or under.

If you have a deposit of that amount with this Company, it cannot be taken from you by any legal process or for any reason whatever. The Company is specifically forbidden to pay out that money to any other person excepting upon the depositor's order.

It would be a wise provision for you to deposit $300 with this Company. It would form a nest egg for the future which could never be secured by any one else unless you so ordered.

This and many other interesting points regarding banking by mail and the purchase of Debentures will be gladly explained to you upon request.

NEARLY ALL INFANTS are more or less subject to diarrhea and such complaints while teething, and as this period of their lives is the most critical, mothers should not be without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's DYSENTERY CORDIAL. This medicine is a specific for such complaints, and is highly spoken of by those who have used it.

The owners of coffee houses in Budapest have decided to employ no girls belonging to trade unions. The lockout affects more than 3,000 young women.

James J. Hill is said never to look in his office desk, and allows none of his immediate employees to look in.

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate Their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of women's systems at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Powless and Mrs. Mann:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"In my opinion there is no medicine made for women which can compare with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you have no firmer friend in the Dominion than I am. At the time of change of life I suffered until I was nearly crazy, and was not fit to live with. I was so irritable, irascible and nervous that I was a torment to myself and others. I surely thought that I would lose my reason before I got through, when fortunately an old friend recommended your Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Mrs. E. Powless

I took it for five months and then off and on until the critical period had passed, and it restored me to perfect health. My advice to suffering women is to try your Vegetable Compound, and they will not be disappointed."—Mrs. E. Powless, Deseronto, Ont.

Another Woman's Case.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"As I owe my splendid health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very pleased to write and tell you my experience with it. I am the mother of three children grown to womanhood, and have safely passed the change of life, and feel as young and as strong as I did twenty years ago, and I know that this is all due to your woman's friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used it before my children were born, and it greatly assisted nature and saved me much pain during the change of life. I took it, off and on, for four years, and had but little trouble and sickness that most women have to endure."—Mrs. James K. Mann, 806 Bathurst St., Toronto, Canada.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Powless and Mrs. Mann, it will do for other women at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.

The White Cat

[BY GELETT BURGESS, AUTHOR OF "VIVETTE." Copyright by Bobbs-Merrill Company.]

I did so; and still fondling the prism, which shot prismatic colors into the room, she said, as with great effort:

"Did you ever in your childhood read the story of the White Cat? It's a fairy tale, you know."

The name had struck me, but I could not recall the story. "It was one of those tales of the three quests, wasn't it?" I said.

"Yes; there are many variations of the same theme. It is the story of a king and his three sons. The father decided first to leave his throne to the one who would find the smallest dog in the world; then he gave them another quest, to find a piece of cloth that would go through the eye of a needle. Of course, the youngest son won each time, but the king wasn't contented, and for the final test commanded them to find the most beautiful lady in the world.

"And the youngest son won, of course. He always does, but he never plays fair. He's always helped by a fairy godmother or something."

"Of course. Such are the ethics of Fairyland. This prince was helped by a white cat. While he was on his travels he found her castle in a deep forest, and he was carried in by invisible hands."

"Just like me," I remarked. She looked at me for a moment with an amusing expression of surprise, and a timid smile crept to her face. "That's so, isn't it? How queer! Why, I'll have to give you my little Hiawatha to carry it out, won't it? Will you take him?"

"Oh, if you would!" I said. "I'd love to have him. It will be delightful to have something that has belonged to you."

"He's not the smallest dog in the world, but he's yours."

"And the third quest?" I reminded her.

"The third quest was the hardest of all. He came to White Cat's castle."

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

A SMALL DRESS OF PERSIAN LAWN—4167.

We find this bolero in little folks' dresses as well as in those of grown-ups, and a pretty gown, in which this is very pleasing, is shown. Here it serves the purpose of a yoke, and from it depends the full skirt portion. The dress is intended for development in washing stuffs, but a simple cloth might be used with success. The sleeves may be long or in short, puff style, the latter being appropriate for party frocks. Bands of insertion adorn the dress shown, as well as all-over embroidery, which forms the yoke and collar, and a ruffle to match, finishing the bottom. If greater simplicity is desired, the latter may be plain material, hemstitched or machine stitched. The pattern calls for 2 1/2 yards of 27-inch goods.

6968—Six sizes, 32 to 42 inches, bust. The price of this pattern is 10 cents.

again, and he stayed a year. They had a most delightful time together."

"I can understand that. Just as we have had."

Her gaze went down to her feet. "Yes, just as we have had here at Midmeadows."

I reached over and took the prism from her hand. I couldn't help wanting to touch her, however casually. "And of course—you don't need to tell me—he did find the fairest lady in the whole world."

She smiled dimly and clasped her hands. "Thank you," she said, not too absorbed to pay me most graciously for my compliment. Then, more seriously, she added, "Yes, I am the White Cat. That is the way you must think of me, when you have gone. The enchanted White Cat!"

I dared not answer. All the peculiar moods she had shown me came up for a new vision. So she knew that something was the matter, something of which her amnesia was only a symptom. She had never come so close to it before. I stooped down, took her hand and carried it to my lips.

"White Cat," I said. "I don't know whether you are enchanted or not, but I know you're enchanting!"

"Be careful! I don't scratch you!" she said, a little bitterly.

"Ah, White Cat never did that, I'm sure."

"Yes, once, when she was invisible. The prince doubted her. Do you know how it ended?" she asked.

"How?"

"White Cat told the prince that to destroy the fatal work of the fairies, he must marry him to cut off her head and her tail and fling them into the fire." She put her hand gently upon mine. "Would you do that for me, if I asked it?"

I puzzled with it. There was something tragic in her tone, but I was quite at a loss to interpret her symbolism.

"Would it ever come to that? Are you likely to call on me?" I asked her.

She tipped back her head again, shaking away some unpleasant idea.

"Ah, this is only the first quest, you know. You may never come again to my palace. But would you?"

A beautiful meaning came straight from her eyes to mine.

"No, I'm afraid I would not. It would be too terrible!"

She threw off a light laugh, and rose and walked to the bookcase beside the chimney. Here she took down an old, tattered, red-covered volume and rapidly turned the pages till she found her place. Then she came back to her seat beside me and pointing to the lines, read aloud:

"I exclaimed the prince, 'Blanchette, my love! I be so barbarous as to kill you! Ah! you would doubtless try my heart; but rest assured it is incapable of forgetting the love and gratitude it owes to you!'"

"No, son of a king," continued she, "I do not suspect thee of ingratitude. I know thy worth. It is neither thou nor I who in this affair can control our destiny. Do as I bid thee. We shall both of us begin to be happy, and on the faith of a cat of reputation and honor, thou wilt acknowledge that I am truly thy friend."

"But it ended happily, like all fairy tales. So will yours, I'm sure," I remarked.

She let the book drop wearily. "It must end some way—why not that?" I clasped her hand. "You must not think of it, Miss Fielding! It appals me."

"Well, I won't speak of it again. But I should be glad to have a friend who would help me, if worst came to worst."

"You forget that, in spite of what I know, I am still on the island, after all; I can't yet judge of such a necessity."

"Well, Leah and I will fight it out."

"You said once that I could trust Leah in everything. Do you still mean that?"

"Absolutely. In fact, you can trust her when you're uncertain of me. Do you understand? I can't make it too emphatic."

"I understand," I said.

It was almost time to go now, and so, while I went upstairs to see that my things were ready, Miss Fielding and Leah got Hiawatha, fixed a collar and chain on him, and put him into the carriage, highly excited at the prospect of traveling. Leah shook my hand and looked into my eyes with gratitude.

Uncle Jerdon drove up to the front door, and I got in beside him and captured the frisky puppy, who proceeded to bite my hand playfully. It had been arranged that I was to send someone down to repair the automobile, and I permitted myself to hope that I might find in that a sufficient excuse to come back myself. So it was not altogether with a feeling of permanent parting that I finally gave my hand to Miss Fielding.

"Well, goodbye, White Cat," I said, as Uncle Jerdon took up the reins.

"Goodbye, prince!" she answered, smiling.

We drove off, and as we turned into the long lane which led to the highroad, I saw two women standing in the sunshine, at the front door, and waved a last farewell to them.

With all the sinister suggestions that had been crowding upon me, I could not bear to leave them alone. "White Cat, White Cat," was still echoing in my ears.

Uncle Jerdon winked at me.

"Lord, she's as crazy as a loon, isn't she?"

still held by some women is that it is impossible to make good pastry from flour made of Manitoba 1. and Wheat. Consequently they buy hard wheat flour for bread and soft wheat flour for pastry, and go to a good deal of unnecessary trouble.

Since the appearance of "FIVE ROSES" FLOUR on the market there is no need for any housekeeper to do this, as this brand is made by a process which renders it not only the ideal flour for bread, but which guarantees equally good results for pastry when used "Five Roses" way.

"FIVE ROSES" FLOUR will make lighter and flakier pastry than any ordinary brands on the market, whether made from hard or soft wheat. All we ask is that you give it a fair and unprejudiced trial for pastry on your next Baking Day. The result will, we know, more than satisfy you.

MANSFIELD LOVED BEAUTIFUL NUN

Girl Entered Convent When Forbidden Marriage to Young Actor.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—That Richard Mansfield's early life had a romance as strange and as touching as any that he ever portrayed on the stage and that his gentle heroine sleeps under the sod of the burying ground of a Washington convent, to which she retired on forsaking the world years ago, is a fact little known to the students of the great actor's public career. The man who was regarded by his audiences as a self-centered and wholly egotistical artist, had from his youth cherished an affection as unselfish and as hopeless as that of Dante for Beatrice.

Few of the young pupils of the convent school to whom the popular actor was an idol realized that the lovely nun who taught them daily had a part in their hero's life story.

More than twenty years ago, when young Richard Mansfield's star had just risen on the dramatic horizon, the lovely daughter of a Maryland country gentleman made her first visit to an aunt in New York. Fresh from the quiet of her girlhood home, the young girl entered with childish joy into all the pleasures offered by the big city. The first visit which she had ever paid to a theater was to see the play in which Mansfield was then making his great success.

After the performance one of the members of the theater party presented the actor to the young Maryland girl. From that night Mansfield's fate was bound up in that of the gentle girl of whom he spoke henceforth as the "White Rose."

The picture which the pretty country girl, whose simple white frock contrasted as strongly with the elaborate apparel of the other women as the white rose which she had placed in her hair did with jeweled tresses, appealed to Mansfield's artistic sense, and he singled her out for marked attention. He found her as lovely in character as she was in person, and fell as deeply in love as only a man of his ardent temperament and determination can.

But fate had fixed a barrier between the actor and the object of his devotion. The family of the young woman, devout Catholics and proud of their distinguished ancestry, held the stage and all that pertained to it in abhorrence. The father in particular, a country gentleman of a fast disappearing type, looked upon his daughter's suitor as being socially on the same plane as a circus clown, and sternly forbade her to receive his attentions.

Forced to choose between his love and his art, Mansfield sorrowfully bade farewell to his dream of happiness and continued with renewed ardor the career for which fate had predestined him.

That his affection was returned there can be no doubt, for the girl whom he had loved so ardently soon afterward the surprise of all her friends, entered upon a novitiate in a religious order, and on finishing her probation took the final vows which separated her forever from the man to whom she had given her heart.

Years ago she became a teacher in the convent school of the order in this city. The charm which had made her a belle in girlhood and her unusual intellectual gifts made her one of the most successful and popular teachers of the institution, which enjoys a high reputation for excellence, and in which thousands of young women from all parts of the United States have received their education.

Doubtless from the chatter of her pupils she heard of Mansfield's wonderful rise in his art and of his happy marriage to the woman who had been associated with so many of his notable successes.

That he had never forgotten his early romance and still cherished a tender affection for his heroine she knew, for every engagement which the actor played in Washington was signalized by the appearance of a box of white roses at the convent, sent by Mansfield to the "White Rose" of his early dreams.

When, last spring, death claimed the nun Mansfield was grief-stricken, and it is said that at the time of the last engagement he played in this city he visited the graveyard of the convent and placed a wreath of white roses on the grave of his early love.

LICENSE BOARD'S CURIOUS METHODS

A Commissioner Says They Exact Money on Flimsiest Pretenses.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—In the report of Commissioner J. R. L. Starr, on the license matters which he investigated last winter, he suggests only one prosecution, and this is in connection with the transfer of the Parkdale Hotel from Mr. Andrew Martin to Mr. W. A. Ball, who had been his bartender and manager. Mr. Martin had first asked $25,000 for the hotel, business, as it had paid him $15,000 in profits during the last year of his occupancy. However, the board of license commissioners said that the house needed repairs, and fixed the purchase price at $18,000. Negotiations followed, and Mr. Martin received $20,000 in cash for the hotel. Mr. Martin swore at the investigation that he met Messrs. T. J. Jones, a contractor, who claimed to have been a former partner of Chief License Inspector Purvis; Edward Adamson, former chief grain inspector in Toronto, and Frank Brazil, on the street, and told them he had lost nearly $11,000 on the hotel deal. They said they could arrange the matter for him, according to Mr. Martin's evidence, and an agreement was made whereby he paid them $500, and promised $1,500 more if they were successful. Subsequently Mr. Martin, believing that they had done nothing for him, entered suit for the recovery of the $500, but afterwards withdrew his action.

Mr. Brazil, in his evidence, said that Mr. Martin explained that if Mr. H. T. Kelly, solicitor in the matter, with the other assistance, realized $20,000 or over for the hotel the three men in question were to get $1,500. The commissioner remarked: "That's a strange deal, to give you all the expected increase."

Mr. Brazil claimed that Mr. Martin insisted on their taking the money, whereupon the commissioner asked: "Was he under the impression that he was buying the license commissioners or paying you?" "Paying us," was the reply of the witness.

The commissioner's report on the matter reads: "Then I come to the Martin and Ball transfer, in which Brazil, Jones and Adamson figure. These three men extracted $500 from Mr. Martin on the flimsiest kind of a pretext. Mr. Brazil is a Liberal, while Adamson and Jones are Conservatives. Good Conservatives," Mr. Brazil said.

Having quoted from the evidence under this head, the commissioner continues: "These three men received $500 from Mr. Martin on the pretense that they would get him a better price than he was receiving, and if he got a better price these three men were to get all of it."

"I think this is a matter which the crown attorney might well take into consideration."

When the officials of the Attorney-General's department were asked with reference to the matter, the statement was made that nothing had been done so far, nor had any move been taken in that direction.

SARAH HAS A NEW PLAY

Mme. Bernhardt Back in Paris With Four-Act Production.

Paris, Sept. 10.—One of the strangest theatrical performances on record was given at Arcachon by a Parisian star, Mme. Marthe Regnier, and her company with the Gymnase success "Mademoiselle Josette, Ma Femme."

Owing to a railway accident having interrupted traffic, their train which ought to have reached Arcachon on Monday, did not arrive till 10 o'clock. The public, informed of the delay, decided to wait.

In order, however, not to make the public wait longer than necessary, Mme. Regnier and her fellow artists decided to dine after the performance and act just as they were, in traveling costumes. The most striking anomaly was the fact that the heavy father's role was played by an actor aged 19, who had not time to make up. Nevertheless the Parisians scored a decided success.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt has returned from Belle Isle with a four-act play as the chief product of her summer labors. Its theme is not yet known even within the inner circle of her acquaintances. One of the things Mme. Bernhardt has promised for the early part of the season is a revival of "Camille," for two nights only, for a special charitable purpose.

In addition to her new play Mme. Bernhardt has produced during her vacation a second volume of memoirs. She also brings back several paintings as the fruit of her leisure hours by the sea.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 10.—Dan O'Leary, the veteran walker, has begun the task of walking 1,000 miles in 1,000 consecutive hours, going a mile in each hour. This will be the greatest pedestrian feat this famous walker ever attempted.

"BETRAYAL OF HONOR"
Strong Words From London Post on Situation in Newfoundland.

London, Sept. 10.—The Morning Post declares that the Newfoundland modus vivendi is a shameful betrayal of British honor and imperial interests, and asks if it does not aggravate the most objectionable features of the 1906 agreement. The Post asks: "Is there another instance in the whole world of a Government surrendering the right of deciding whether it is physically possible for foreigners entering boundaries of its jurisdiction to conform with its laws? Surely, instead of submitting to this humiliation the present Government ought to have insisted that questions of physical possibility should be decided."

been going on. It is claimed that 10,000 boxes of cigars were dropped overboard from incoming steamers, into boats which came out from St. Helen's Island to meet them and take off goods. In this way vigilance officers who board steamers at the docks were avoided and unstamped goods got into the hands of detectives.

THE LATEST SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Sonoma Girl Loses to Highball In a Great Race at Syracuse

Syracuse, Sept. 10.—The weather continued threatening today during the second day's programme of the grand circuit races at the state fair, but it did not rain until just before the fourth heat of the 2:12 trot. This heat was raced in semi-darkness and the finish was postponed till tomorrow.

The feature of the day was the Empire State Stake for 2:14 trotters, worth $10,000, and it was won in commanding style by Ed. Geers with Highball. Sonoma Girl was with him, but the best she could do was to finish third in the two final heats after capturing second position in the first. In the two latter heats she was beaten by Wilkes Heart, the Hartford winner, for the place.

Highball still limped in jogging when he began scoring. As for Sonoma Girl, she trotted with steadiness, remarkable considering her season's record for wildness, but she seemed "soft" and leg weary after her recent record, and could not maintain the pace. As it was she gave Highball his only real race in the third quarter of the first heat, which the pair traveled in thirty seconds. She then dropped back, beaten, and was no longer formidable.

Geers was again successful with Ardele in the 2:05 pace, which the mare captured in straight heats with comparative ease. Rudy Kip captured second money in this race, and Princess Helen was third. Rudy Kip forced Ardele to step at a lively clip on the stretch in the second heat.

The 2:09 pace was another straight heat affair, and was won by The Donna, Mixed Word and Schermerhorn dividing second and third money, while Byron Kay and Gambit were distanced in the second heat.

Joe Kelley Engaged Yesterday For the Next Year's Team

He Will Be Bench Manager for 1903—New Pitcher Secured by Toronto.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Announcement was made today by the Toronto Ball Club that Joe Kelley had been engaged as bench manager of the Toronto club for the season of 1908.

This blocks the drafting of Kelley by the Boston Nationals, and insures Joe's presence in Toronto for another year at least.

New Pitcher Secured.

Pitcher Dolan, a left-hander from the champion Holyoke Club, of the Connecticut League, has been secured by the Toronto club, and will report to Manager Kelley at Providence next Sunday. Dolan was the best pitcher in the Connecticut League this season.

Final Trip of Season.

The Toronto team will leave tomorrow night on the final trip of the season. There are thirteen games scheduled on the trip—three at Jersey City, three at Providence, four at Baltimore, and three at Newark. Toronto can lose ten of the thirteen games and still win the pennant.

SHAMROCKS WILL STAY AT HOME

Toronto, Sept. 10.—It is ascertained on pretty good authority Shamrocks will not take the proposed trip to Dublin promised them if they won the N.L.U. championship. It is claimed several of the players who are engaged in business for themselves cannot spare the time, while another report has it the club does not feel prepared to put up Ireland if it was not the intention to play any lacrosse matches, so that there would be no revenue to be derived from gates.

It is presumed there are no "Le Grand Sports" in Montreal.

ROUGH-RIDERS WILL BE AMATEURS

Ottawa, Sept. 10.—"The Rough Riders" football team will be run on a strictly amateur basis this fall," remarked a member of the Ottawa executive today.

"The rule of our new union will exclude professionals, and consequently none but amateurs will be selected to play with Rough Riders."

"We expect to have a first-rate team. We have the material for a first-rate fourteen amongst the amateur players in the city, and intend to make a great effort to land the championship."

"The amateur rule will give the younger blood a chance for development."

"Rough Riders will hold their first practice next week, and as yet it has not been decided whether they will play at Varsity oval or Lansdowne Park. In the meantime Ottawa will not be represented at the next meeting in Toronto for organization of the proposed Interprovincial Union. The schedule having been arranged, officers appointed, and practically everything done Saturday, the local club considers its part accomplished.

"The only hitch is over the eligibility of men who have played with and against professionals, but who are willing to take advantage that they never accepted money themselves. Ottawa, of course, has many of these, and if the western clubs continue to hold out for amateurs of the C. A. A. U. brand, those who have never played in the company of known professionals, it means, the local officers say, that they cannot go into the new union."

"Our position is final," said one executive member today. "And it is not necessary for us to go up for the meeting."

Mr. George Ballard, of Hamilton, will be president of the union should it go ahead.

OLD ORIOLE GAME NOW ASSURED

Baltimore, Sept. 10.—Following up on the heels of the 1907 world's championship series, the coming series of games between the old championship Orioles of 1894, 1895 and 1896, and the present Orioles will draw the attention of the entire baseball world upon Baltimore. Never before has such a great team been reformed and induced to actually play on the diamond after more than a dozen years had elapsed since the heyday of its glory, during which interval the members have, of course, become widely separated. As for the citizens of Baltimore, they threaten to go literally crazy when the song rings that will usher again upon the diamond the men who were fairly worshipped here for three years. This series of games is now assured. True, several of the players, to whom invitations have been sent have not been heard from as yet, and though they are expected to fall in line, as a matter of course, even if these men do not reply, or send unfavorable answers, enough have already said that they will be here to announce positively that the games will come off during the week of October 14 to 19, when Baltimore will be en fete for its "Old Home Week." This is the team that is already assured:

STERLING M'KINLEY FOOLED THEM

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The most important annual trotting event of the western turf is the Minneapolis purse for 2:21 class horses, worth $5,000, which has been a fixture at the Minnesota state fair at Hamline since 1898. Last week it was contested for the tenth time, and was won by the bay stallion, Sterling McKinley. Five heats were trotted, Judge Parker taking the first two in 2:14½, 2:11½, the winner the next three in 2:09½, 2:12½, 2:11. The time of the third heat established a new record for the event, the previous one having been 2:09½, made by the winner last year, Charley Belden.

The career of Sterling McKinley illustrates some of the striking possibilities of the turf. This horse is now seven years old. He was bred in California, and his pedigree is ultra fashionable, his sire being the $50,000 stallion, McKinley (2:11½), his dam a daughter of Director (2:17), a stallion that once sold for $75,000, and time standstill.

JIMMY BRITT'S RECORD

This native son of California is 25 years old. He began his professional career in 1902 by defeating Toby Irwin in fifteen rounds. The same year he knocked out Kid Lavigne in eight rounds, and Frank Erno in seven. In 1903 he won from Willie Fitzgerald in twenty rounds, and other victims were Jack O'Keefe, Charlie Sieger and Martin Canole. In 1904 he won from Young Corbett in twenty rounds, lost on a foul to Gans in five rounds and defeated Battling Nelson in twenty rounds. In 1905 he whipped Jabez White and Kid Sullivan each in twenty rounds and was knocked out by Battling Nelson in eighteen rounds. His last fight was a ten-round no-decision affair with Terry McGovern in New York, in which Terry got the best of it.

his grand-dam by Nutwood (2:18½), a stallion that for several seasons stood at a service fee of $1,000. These horses, McKinney, Director and Nutwood, are three of the greatest speed progenitors now existing in the public estimation as the foremost living sire of trotters. The boom on his stock set in several years ago, at which time he was purchased by Sterling R. Holt, of Indianapolis, Ind., who had every reason to believe that in him he was securing one of the most promising colts in the country. He proved, however—at least for Mr. Holt—a great disappointment. Several noted trainers tried their skill upon him, and one after another pronounced him a counterfeit. At last, giving up in despair the hope of making him a successful race horse, last season Mr. Holt had his trainer give him a "tin cup" record of 2:24½ against time, and then packed him off to the auctions. He was sold at a venue held in Indianapolis in November, and when the hammer fell it was upon a closing bid of just $800. While somewhat chagrined at this small sum, it is said that, in effect, Mr. Holt remarked "Good riddance to bad rubbish" and heaved a sigh of relief.

WILL TOUR THE OLD COUNTRY—MAYBE

Montreal, Sept. 10.—A project is now on foot for a trip of an association football team through the old country, to be undertaken by a team of Canadian association football players. Nothing definite has as yet been done in the matter, but the local soccer men have been discussing a plan for such an undertaking for some time, and now it is said that such a project will be given serious consideration by those interested in the game here.

ARGO ONLY WANTED

Toronto, Sept. 10.—A meeting of the Argonaut-Toronto Rugby Club was held last night, and there were lively times. It was the evident intention of the meeting to sever the affiliation made a year or two ago, and to confine the club to Argonaut members. The first argonauts across over the appointment of a manager, W. A. Hewitt, last year's manager, who came over with the Toronto, Joe Wright, Fred Thompson and Bill Grant, were named, but the club ruled that the appointment should be left to the executive, which meanwhile has been elected, strongly Argonaut, and only one Toronto man on it.

Grant to Manage.

The way it stands now Bill Grant will likely be named manager, and it looks as though the Toronto men would be frozen out of the team to give place for rowing men.

TIGERS GET BUSY

Hamilton, Sept. 10.—The Tigers will begin practice today to get ready for the season's opening. Light practices will be held today and Thursday afternoons, and on Saturday afternoon the teams will line up for their strenuous practice. The cricket grounds have been secured on practically the same terms as last year, and the practice and games will be held there. Jimmie Devine will again train the champions. Manager Thompson and the members of the executive are anxious that there should be a full turnout of all players, whether they belong to the Tigers, Y.M.C.A. or some other organization, at the practices. There will be room for some new blood on the Tigers' team this year, and it is not unlikely that some of last year's junior and city league players will graduate to the intermediate and senior ranks.

PURSES LARGE AT SYRACUSE RACES

The Grand Circuit meeting at Hartford last week was virtually ruined by the bad weather, as it rained continuously for the first three days. This led to the scratching of Highball from the $10,000 Charter Oak trot, in which he and Sonoma Girl were down to meet, originally on Monday. It is to be hoped that conditions will be more favorable for the Grand Circuit this week at Syracuse, when the race will be held in connection with the New York state fair. Its stake feature is the Empire State $10,000 stake for 2:14 class trotters, which is programmed for today. Among the eligible are Highball, Sonoma Girl, Wilkes Heart, Clary Latus, Marchese, Gentel H. Thomsen, Marjorie and The Fackett. If the weather is good the Syracuse track should just suit both the $17,500 gelding and the $28,000 mare, for it is smooth and firm, and very fast when at its best, and a sensational race may thus be looked for from a time standpoint.

A LITTLE AMERICAN LEAGUE DOPE

Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—The race for the American League honors still goes on to the delight of the baseball fans. The team that pulls off the pennant will know it has gone through a baseball campaign. Just now it looks like those Quakers under Mr. Mack, as they will have the advantage of home games. Still there are three great teams in the west with four long weeks to hustle, and some teams under fire can do as well on the road as on the home grounds. We will not have long to wait for the verdict, and then for the big games, for the championship of one major league is nothing compared to the winning of a world's series.

KINGSTON IS GOOD

Kingston, Sept. 10.—Kingston's O. R. F. U. team will shortly start practice. Gleeson, formerly half-back for Queen's, and George Richardson, one of the best Kingston ever turned out, will likely be out this year. Moxley, Bearance, Davis, Revel, Beten, Madden, Birch and other others are anxious to get another poke at the pigskin. Russell Britton will be captain-manager and complete boss of the Gananogue junior O. R. F. U. team, and declares he will have a bunch of champions.

BERLIN WILL PLAY O. H. A. HOCKEY

Berlin, Sept. 10.—A well-attended organization meeting of the Berlin Intermediate Hockey Club, O. H. A. champions, was held, at which the coming season's prospects were discussed. The team will again go after the intermediate honors, and in the event of there not being a professional team may enter a senior team as well. The following officers were elected for the year 1907-8: Honorary presidents, Dr. J. W. Kern, W. Ross, C. N. Huether, L. B. Clement; honorary vice-presidents, C. H. Himmig, C. S. Carrick, G. O. Philip, C. Stitt; president, Max Schluter; vice-president, H. E. Wettlauffer; first vice-president, W. Witt; second vice-president, J. Zuber; third vice-president, Ed Hallman; secretary-treasurer, W. Kraen; manager, W. Schlemmer. Green and white were the colors adopted.

COLUMBUS TO MEET TORONTO SOON

Columbus, O., Sept. 10.—The Columbus Club fully intend to play the Eastern League champions, if the association flag is won. They have played Buffalo for two seasons under conditions not favorable, but it is understood that representatives of each league will supervise the games, which will make them, not in charge of players, but of a commission. The team members have all expressed a desire to remain over after the season if the flag is won and play Toronto.

DOCTORS IN TURN FAILED BUT ZAM-BUK CURED.

Magistrate F. Rasmussen, writing from his residence, 211 Marquette St., Montreal, says: "I take genuine pleasure in informing you of the great good I have derived from Zam-Buk. For many years I was troubled with a serious eruption of the skin, which was both unsightly and painful. Not one, but several doctors in turn were consulted, but I was unable to get any permanent relief. Some time back I noticed a report from a Justice of the Peace who had been cured of a chronic skin disease by Zam-Buk, and I determined to give this balm a trial. After a thoroughly fair test, I can say I am delighted with it. While everything else I tried—salves, embrocations, washes, soaps and doctor's prescriptions failed absolutely to relieve my pain, three boxes of Zam-Buk have worked a complete cure. In my opinion this balm should be even more widely known than it is, and in the hope that my experience will lead other sufferers to try this herbal healer, I have no objection to your publishing this letter. Yours truly, (Signed) F. RASMUSSEN, Justice of the Peace."

Summer eczema, rashes, sunburn patches, children's heat sores or babies' chafing sores, cuts, burns, bruises, insect bites and stings and all skin injuries and diseases yield to Zam-Buk. All stores and medicine vendors sell at 50c a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 6 boxes for $2.50. (C. E. Paul, Ford, Limited.) for price.

ZAM-BUK CURES ANOTHER MAGISTRATE

We Invite You to Visit Our New Works

DURING WESTERN FAIR WEEK, SEPT. 6th to 14th

We cordially invite all exhibition visitors, as well as London citizens, to inspect our immense new works, Corner Nelson and Adelaide Streets.

We believe we can promise you an interesting visit, as this is one of the largest and most up-to-date foundry plants in the British Empire.

Come any day this week except Wednesday, when the foundry will be partially closed to allow our employees to visit the Western Fair.

The Ottawa cars run in close proximity to the works.

Fall Styles

Lots of little changes in the fashions for fall.

3 button sack coats are shorter than the spring models.

Lapels are wider, too.

Browns are in high favor again. In fact, brownish effects are running the grays a close race for popularity.

Tweeds and Worsteds are the most wanted fabrics—though you may find it hard to choose between these and the new Imperial Blue Winter Serges.

We'll gladly show you all these new styles.

Three Suspected Crooks Locked Up; London Man Was Robbed at Glencoe

Local Detectives Think They Have Located the Men Who Did the Job.

As a result of a robbery near Glencoe yesterday wherein J. Duncanson, an aged Londoner lost $15, three men are locked up in the police station pending investigation into their record.

Oriental in Vancouver Take a Strange Revenge

Cooks, Domestic and Other Classes of Labor Go on Strike.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 10. — The Chinese and Japanese quarters of Vancouver are practically in a stage of siege. Hundreds of revolvers and guns were sold yesterday to Orientals until the police prohibited the sale of firearms. Every Chinese merchant goes about with an armed bodyguard and beside the entrance to every Chinese store stands a Mongolian with a rifle.

All the Chinese cooks, mill men and laborers and all the Japanese working in the city and in the country within a radius of 15 miles from Vancouver have been summoned to the Oriental quarter and are filling all the houses in the quarter. Besides the firearms, knives, stones, bottles and bricks are in stock, ready to repel the attack of a mob at any future occasion.

It is understood that Mayor Bethune has received a telegram from Earl Grey, governor-general of Canada, of Ottawa, demanding that law and order be preserved in Vancouver at all costs, and the lives and property of the Japanese residents be accorded full protection, as guaranteed under the clauses of the treaty between Canada and Japan.

The chief of police has sworn in 100 special constables. The militia will be called out if there are signs of further disturbance.

A Great Revenge.

The revenge of Oriental labor, particularly the strike of cooks, domestics and servants disarranged the menu of fashionable Vancouver homes, hotels and restaurants, even steamers closing a score of restaurants. In many cases guests at hotels were made victims of new and strange diet, while chaos reigned in many homes. Vancouver having practically no female domestics nor cooks.

Vice-President Von Rhein, of the local trades and labor council, and secretary of the local league, who was chairman of Saturday's meeting, has been kept busy denying that the trades and labor council had anything to do with the riot.

Up to a late hour tonight the mayor had not received Premier Laurier's telegram urging the punishment of the offenders, but he is determined this will be done and law and order maintained at all cost. The view is also general here that the Dominion Government and not the city must pay the damage bill, which will be twenty thousand.

A dozen Orientals were arrested for carrying loaded revolvers. This were arrested by Detectives Rider, Nickles and Egerton yesterday on the charge, on the strength of information wired by a railroad man at Glencoe, who saw the two suspects bump into Mr. Duncanson shortly before he missed his money.

The third man was picked up at the Tecumseh House by the officers, and gives his name as George Reid, and his residence as Windsor. Reid put up a fight when arrested. It is known that the three men arrested were seen together at Windsor recently.

was followed by the discovery of a suspicious 7-foot case shipped here from Westminster to prominent Chinese merchants.

The case contained thirty rifles and five thousand rounds of ammunition. It is now in the custody of the police. The third midnight feature was the sensational discovery of oil-soaked waste in the corner of the Japanese mission schoolhouse. This brought out the fire brigade, and thousands of curious people, with Consul Morikawa appearing at the close demanding more protection. Then he autoed back to the consulate, sending a lengthy cable of the day's events to Tokyo.

Of 23 arrests, 3 were discharged, 15 remanded, and 1 committed for trial. J. A. Pollock, clerk of B. C. Electric Railway Company. His counsel argued that as the riot act had not been read the charge of rioting was technically unsupportable. The magistrate held the reading of the act did not make a riot. During evidence Pollock convulsed the court by contending that he threw no stones, being arrested while the stone was yet in his hand. He has been a resident eighteen years. Opposite the name of nearly all the others was written no fixed occupation or address. Two are Jap fishermen. It is likely the remaining eighteen will be committed for trial in the October assizes.

The city council at a special meeting took action to prevent a wrestling contest on Thursday for the championship of the world in jiu-jitsu, fearing that if Scott McLaglen should defeat Professor Kanada, the present Japanese champion of the world, it might lead to a violent scene. It is also intended to prevent the meeting called for Thursday of the Anti-Asiatic League, whose parade has disgraced the city.

ment of 2,000 pigeons. It made a very pretty sight.

A WONDERFUL CLEANER.

"Snap," is the name of a wonder which cleans almost everything with which it comes in contact. No matter how dirty the hands, they cannot possibly be too dirty for it to clean them. Paint grease, or tar will not withstand this marvel of cleansing power. The place to see this magic cleanser is in the Main Building, at the Western Fair, where demonstrations are given and samples distributed. The place to buy it is at your grocers, your hardware store, or your druggist. It removes dirt, grease, acids and oils of all kinds and does its work thoroughly.

"Snap" is indispensable to surgeons and dentists, mechanics, steamfitters, plumbers, firemen, blacksmiths, chauffeurs, electricians, masons, carpenters, farmers, housewives and housemaids, and in any place where dirt is found. In fact it is a combination which fulfills every requirement and should be found in every home, shop, office, and in every mechanic's kit of tools. It is an antiseptic hand-cleaner, which not only does all that soap will do but does much more.

SCOTT MACHINE COMPANY.

Among the most interesting of the exhibits in the Machinery Hall at the Western Fair is that of the Scott Machine Company of this city. This exhibit is composed of special machinery for economy—gas and gasoline engines, elevators, power and hand; L and K test boring machinery; Durner patent disc harrow sharpeners, power transmission supplies, such as belting, pulleys, shafting, pressed steel hangers, sprocket chain and wheels, couplings, friction clutches, etc. If you are interested in machinery do not fail to see the Scott exhibit. One of the special features is a complete and as nearly perfect as possible, 12-horsepower gasoline engine, and 100-light electric dynamo in operation. This plant is a wonder and everyone should make it a point to call at the Scott exhibit to see just how perfectly small electric lighting plants can be constructed.

MOORE'S STOVES.

If you visit the Fair do not neglect to see the exhibit of the D. Moore Stove Company. It is a dandy. A finer assortment of cook stoves, heaters and ranges has not been seen at any time in this city. Every stove in the exhibit is a testimonial to the splendid quality of the D. Moore stoves, which have a record and reputation most enviable. Mr. J. T. Smith, the local agent, is in attendance at the exhibit and takes great pleasure in showing the peculiar advantages of these excellent stoves, which may also be seen at 725 Dundas street, Mr. Smith's warehouse.

A PRETTY BOOTH.

One of the prettiest booths in the whole of the Western Fair is that of the Maple Tree Producers' Association, Limited, which is situated in the Machinery Hall. The exhibit takes the form of a maple sugar bush with a background of canvas, on which has been painted scenery, representing a bush at sugar-making time. In the exhibit are to be seen great piles of maple sugar in cakes of various sizes of this syrup and all the maple syrup products. All the goods on exhibition are absolutely pure and free from all adulteration, as are all the productions turned out by the company.

Everyone and especially every housewife should make it a point to see this exhibit. Among the special features worthy of mention is an exhibition of cream-pole, a preparation made from pure maple sugar, especially prepared for icing and frosting cakes. It is an undisputed fact that the majority of the maple tree products sold at the present time are adulterated to a certain extent, and such has become the state of affairs that it is a rare sight to see the real article in the maple sugar or the maple syrup line. However, those who visit the exhibit of the Maple Tree Producers' Association will have a splendid opportunity to see the real thing.

HOBBS MANUFACTURING CO.

At the far end of the Palace, there is generally a crowd standing watching a couple of men busily engaged at their occupation. These men are employed by the Hobbs Manufacturing Company, and are showing how church windows, memorial windows, and such effects in glass are made. This exhibit always draws a large crowd. The Hobbs Company is the leading company in the glass trade, and carries a name second to none for the quality of its wares. The firm makes a specialty of Maximum light glass, some very interesting effects being shown in their exhibit of the uses of this glass. This line of goods is imported from England and gives greatest satisfaction. The Paschall interlocking steel beam sidewalk prism for lighting cellars, basements, etc., is another line that awakened a great deal of interest. The firm imports sheet window glass of muffled and cathedral tints, ornamental figured glass, polished Bristol plate and other well-known lines. The exhibit is in charge of Mr. W. M. Friend, Mr. P. J. McGuire and Mr. E. B. Allen.

CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

A Big Contract.

Mr. Ben Hold, of the Forest City Paving Company, has been awarded the contract for Grand Trunk shops at Stratford, for $125,000. Work will be commenced this fall.

Robbed at Woodstock.

The local police have been notified to be on the lookout for a pickpocket who robbed a well-known Woodstock man of $100 one day last week as the latter was traveling between Woodstock and this city on the G. T. R. Up to date no clue has been found in the matter.

Perkins May Sue.

Mr. Walter Perkins, of Perkins & Co., at present playing at Bennett's, will in all probability enter an action against the C. P. R. for injuries received in the smashup at Smith's Falls on Sunday last. At the time he was thrown violently against the seat in front of him. His back has been giving him considerable pain since then. Yesterday he was examined by a physician and it was found that his back is badly bruised.

Good Advice.

Mr. G. Comfort, of California, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Burrows and other friends of London, Seaford, Toronto, Niagara, St. Thomas and elsewhere, says: "On the whole, I think the back has been the most beautiful and productive country, and parties had better think well before leaving such a place. He sees only one reason for the agriculturist leaving this country, and that is the many months that stock have to be inclosed and fed. In reference to Canada's laws, he says, they are good and enforced much better than across the line. Mr. Comfort and party left for the west last night."

IS ROASTED BY AYLESWORTH

The Liberals of Ottawa over the taking of Mr. Graham to a larger sphere. We wish Mr. Graham success in his new field, and knowing him as we do we have every confidence that when he goes to Ottawa he will make good there as he "made good" in Ontario. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, who was received with great cordiality, began with a tribute to Hon. G. P. Graham, from whom he bore a message expressing his keen disappointment at not being able to visit Dundas. Mr. Aylesworth thought it was a question of vital interest to the people whether Mr. Borden proposed to make Mr. Foster finance minister or whether he intended to have him in the cabinet at all. Then there was Mr. Geo. W. Fowler and Mr. Rufus Pope. Did Mr. Borden propose to give places to them?

Proceeding to criticize some of the planks of Mr. Borden's platform, Mr. Aylesworth described the "honestest appropriation and expenditure of public moneys in the public interest" as the merest political platitude. Mr. Aylesworth took up the election purity plank, and showed that not only were the points dealt with by Mr. Borden covered by the present election law, but that it was to the Liberals that that law was due. He was afraid, however, that Mr. Borden, however high sounding his phrases were, was not above playing a political game, and in view of what had transpired in connection with Mr. Hugh Graham's contribution of $30,000 to a campaign fund in Quebec it was no wonder that he now wished to restrict such contributions to others than contractors and the promoters of companies.

Quoting from Mr. Borden's speech on Saturday, he pointed out that it contained an insinuation that Mr. Fielding had connived at corruption in Halifax. "That insinuation," said Mr. Aylesworth, "I hurt back at Mr. Borden's head. Mr. Borden, please, let the election petition presented against him be being delayed for political reasons. Mr. Borden knew this was not true, as the last postponement was made by mutual consent. Mr. Aylesworth declared that if that election petition ever came on for trial, and the evidence was given in court, that had been told him, Mr. Borden would be disqualified from holding office, and be banished from the House of Commons for at least eight years.

His agents were guilty of bribery, intimidation and other unfair practices which were freely indulged in to secure Mr. Borden's election, and with his knowledge, if not with his consent.

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Wednesday, Sept. 11.
There was not much doing in any line at the market today, as with the exception of fruit, there was hardly anything offered.

For the three loads of hay on the stand sales were brisk at $14 to $15 per ton.
One load of old oats were offered, which sold at $1 50 per cwt.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

While there were no new features at the markets held here during the past week, there was a good demand for all the farm produce and fruit that was offered; in fact, the only lines in which sales were at all drags were potatoes and apples.

There was not much change in prices from those paid in the previous week.

Hay and straw—The demand for hay is good, and prices are firm at $14 to $15 per ton. Straw is a trifle slow at $5 and occasionally $6 50 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—The supply of butter is hardly sufficient for the brisk demand;
sales are made at 22c for choice crocks and 22c to 23c for pound rolls in basket lots. Eggs are firm, at 17c for crates and 18c for basket lots.

Poultry—The demand is good at present, but the dealers say that prices will ease off shortly; spring chickens are selling at 10c per lb alive and 12c dressed; old fowl, 1c per lb alive and 8 1/2c to 9c dressed;
ducks are slow at 8c per lb alive and 10c dressed; turkeys are in fair demand, at 12c per lb alive and 15c dressed.

Potatoes—Sales are slow, there being too many offered at present; prices are easier, at 9c to $1 per bag and 7c to 7 1/2c per bu.
Fruits—Apples are dull and prices lower;
sales are made at 50c to $1 per bu, according to quality; peaches sell at 50c to $1 per basket for common and $1 50 for fancy; plums range in price from 6c to 8c per basket; muskmelons, 5c to 20c each;
citrons, 12c to 15c each.

Dressed Hogs—The demand is fair, at $8 50 to $9 per cwt.

Bad Weather Failed to Spoil the Day; Crowds Enjoyed the Fair Yesterday

Judging of Live Stock Proved a Big Feature of the Great Exhibition.

In spite of the fact that the weather yesterday was the worst it possibly could be, there was a large crowd on the Western Fair grounds, much larger than would be imagined under such circumstances.

The rain started early in the day, and kept it up all the way. The race track was a sea of mud, and made racing out of the question. The attractions on the stand had to be cut out. The fireworks were out of the question entirely. There was nothing in front of the stand to please the spectators, except the judging of the horses.

This was carried through without interruption, however, and last night saw a large number of the horses judged. And the horses made a splendid showing. The fine animals of Hon. and Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Kate Wilks, of Galt; Mr. Yeager, of Simcoe; Mr. St. Clair, of Aylmer, in the light classes, made a sight worth going miles to see. They were simply splendid.

The heavy horses and general purpose classes are strong also, and the lover of a good horse had all he could admire. This exhibit will certainly make the Fair of 1907 notable.

The crowd amused itself in many ways. Large numbers went through the Palace time after time, and seemed to enjoy themselves listening to the music, and in other ways. The majority of the occupants of the Palace report business good in spite of the weather, and the consequent small crowd.

Plenty of Music.

The Seventh Band and the Muncie Indian Band furnished the music yesterday, and were well received.

The dog show had a large attendance yesterday. The show was seemed to be having a great time, if one is to judge from the noise they made. Some very fine dogs are shown, especially in the collie and bulldog classes.

Last night there was quite a crowd in the grandstand. The full list of attractions were given, and although everything was wet, all seemed to enjoy themselves. The Midway drew a bunch, and the Palace was jammed.

THE LIVE STOCK.

In the Live Stock Department yesterday very little was doing owing to the downpour of rain that lasted from 9 o'clock in the morning till 5 in the afternoon. It was almost impossible to make any progress placing the awards, and there were only a few ribbons placed. Today will, no doubt, finish the judging.

CATTLE.

A number of attempts were made to get through the judging in this class, but the rain fell in torrents at times and compelled everybody to make for shelter.

In Herford's there was a grand exhibit, many noted breeders competing. T. Skippin, Hyde Park; J. A. Gov-enlock, Forest, exhibited fourteen head. O'Neill Bros., Southgate, and Hunter & Son, Orangeville, also had big exhibits.

The Herfords are considered by many to be the best beef cattle today in Canada. Of course, that is largely a matter of taste. Their beautiful white faces and dark brown bodies give them a very pleasing and striking appearance.

In Shorthorns (always admired for their size and beef qualities) some grand specimens were exhibited.

John Lee, of Highgate, and Kyle Bros., of Ayr, were the principal exhibitors. John Isaac placed the ribbons in this class.

AYRSHIRES.

This grand old breed from Bonnie Scotland still keep up their reputation as the greatest of milk producers.

Two fine herds are on exhibition by Mr. Hume and Stewart & Son, from Menzies, Ont.

Aberdeen Angus and Galloways are worthy of special mention.

John Lowe, Elora, exhibits a fine herd of Aberdeen Angus, and D. McCrae, of Guelph, a splendid lot of Galloways.

Capt. Thomas Robson placed the awards on Herfords, Aberdeen Angus and Galloway.

POULTRY.

In the Poultry Department the judging was completed yesterday morning and everything was in shape for the visitors.

Owing to the wet day a great many of the sightseers kept to the building. The halls were comfortably filled all afternoon, a great many noted breeders from outside places being present.

A Mr. Colley, from faraway Kansas, came all that distance to visit the London poultry exhibit. Hearing through the poultry press of the success of London exhibitors in all parts of the United States, he decided to visit the real thing, and get all the pointers he could on the quality of our poultry exhibits. He was agreeably surprised, and carried back with him many names of successful breeders. Space will not permit of an extended report of winners.

Light Brahmas is the best exhibit for some years, Mrs. Waters, of St. Thomas, and Sage, of London, getting the lion's share of the prizes. Cochins are a fine class; all the prizes went to Londoners.

Buff Orpingtons—A very large entry, especially in young chicks. A new exhibitor from Sebringville captured everything in young stock with very fine specimens.

Black Orpingtons—Another grand exhibit. J. R. Hamilton, London, won the lion's share in old stock, and Kemp and Waterman took everything in sight in youngsters.

White Rocks, Barred Rocks and Buff Rocks were a show in themselves. The winners were mostly London men.

The pigeon wing of the building is certainly worth the price of admission just to examine carefully each different section and note the different shapes, colors, etc.

The Western Ontario Pigeon Fanciers' Association will hold their annual meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, when all matters pertaining to the advancement of the pigeon industry will be discussed and officers elected for the ensuing year.

SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

Sewing machines, like matrimony, seem to be one of life's necessities, and consequently it is not surprising to find a very large number of women interested in the sewing machine exhibit.

No firm has kept abreast of the times in the sewing machine business like the Singer Company, and it was one of the pleasures of the reporter to visit the exhibit so tastefully arranged by the firm, and note the excellencies of the work done. Such a display of fancy work made on the Singer machine is one of the most wonders, and the beauty of it was remarked on by scores of visitors yesterday. It surpasses in its dainty finish the finest of hand work and is simply delightful. The Singer Company is showing an even more splendid line at the firm's salesrooms, 112 Dundas street. It would repay any lady to visit this place. The exhibit at the fair is in charge of Mr. J. L. Secord. He is also showing a fine line of Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines—a splendid machine, too.

SUNLIGHT SOAP.

Sunlight Soap is like an old friend, and visitors would be indeed surprised if they did not see the usually splendid exhibit of this favorite soap. The firm this year has a splendid exhibit at the entrance to the Palace. It forms an arch, and the whole exhibit is well arranged. Mr. W. J. Nichols has charge of it, and he has taken great pains to make it a very attractive exhibit. He has some very fine toilet soaps on exhibition. In fact the whole quality of the exhibit is exceptional. The soap has been sold by Messrs. Lever Bros. to Mr. H. J. Giverville, the London South grocer.

MASON & RISCH PIANOS.

In strolling through the Palace yesterday morning, the casual visitor was struck by one of the finest features of the whole place. A splendid volume of music was pouring forth from the center of the building, and on investigation it was found that the five pianos in the Mason & Risch section were all being played at once. The unusual volume and sweetness of the music attracted a large crowd, and they were struck by the affair. This reliable firm has five pianos on exhibition in different woods, and they are all exquisitely beautiful pianos. The sweetness and tone of the music, and the magnificent features of the instrument make it a warm favorite with music-lovers, with the result that there has been an exceptional demand for the piano. Mr. S. Grant, one of the cleverest pianists in Canada, delighted large crowds yesterday with his playing, and one is safe in saying that it was one of the features of the Palace.

Mr. N. H. Conley, of the head office of the Mason & Risch Company, Toronto, is in charge of the exhibit, which is situated at the entrance to the Art Gallery. It is well worth visiting.

THE CREATION SHOW.

The Midway was the center of attraction yesterday afternoon in spite of the rain. There were large crowds there all day, and all the shows had their share of patronage. None, however, drew so large crowds as the Creation show. It was beyond a doubt the magnet that drew all the visitors to that spot. The large tent was crowded every minute of the time. The show itself is of surpassing merit. It is, in fact, the most spectacular show ever seen on the Midway. Every visitor to the show was more than delighted, and many were seen visiting it several times. All agreed that it was one of the best in sight, and none regretted visiting it. The show is spectacular and of exceptionally good quality. It was well worth seeing.

DAVIS ACETYLENE COMPANY.

Acetylene gas is now being recognized as one of the cheapest and best illuminators before the public today. This is demonstrated by the exhibit of the Davis Acetylene Company in the Machinery Hall. The exhibit is one of the most interesting of the whole building, and illustrates the advantages of this splendid machine, the best in the market. Mr. W. A. Robinson is in charge of it.

PRISONER CARRIES PISTOL

Shot a Woman in Court Room, and Then Got Away.

Niagara Falls, Sept. 10.—Yesterday afternoon Bert Carpenter went to the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Creighton, 30 years old, at Lewiston, and, on refusing to admit him, he kicked the door in. Later he was arrested, and spent the night in the lock-up.

This morning Carpenter was arraigned in the police court, and sentenced to 60 days in the Niagara county jail.

As he was being taken from the courtroom he met Mrs. Creighton, and, before the officers could prevent it, he shot her through the body. The woman was brought to a hospital in this city in a serious condition.

During the excitement Carpenter escaped, but a posse of citizens are in pursuit of him.

BLOCKING THE STREETS.

He was fined $14.75 in all. Another summons will be issued tomorrow, and the police are now determined to enforce the law in this respect, as G. T. R. officials are going too far.

The Great Eastern.
An Allish Craig inquirer asks: "Was the Great Eastern built for the express purpose of laying the Atlantic cable?" The big steamer was built for the East India trade, and was intended to carry enough coal for the voyage, out and home. When the "leviathan of the deep" was launched, it was found that her draft was so great that there was no East Indian port that she could safely enter. But her failure in this respect was overbalanced by her success in carrying and assisting to lay the first Atlantic cable, as there was at that time no other vessels large and strong enough for the purpose.

A Landmark Goes.
The demolition and removal of the old frame building, Nos. 9 and 11, north side of Dundas street, West London, recalls the fact that it was built in about 1878 for a tavern by the late John O'Mara, father of Mr. Michael O'Mara (of Market Lane), and was licensed as the Kensington Hotel, being one of the five taverns in the then village of Petersville. It has been unoccupied for some years and had become unfit for occupation.

The Late Reginald Robson.
The funeral of the late Mr. Reginald Robson, who died a few days ago in Lobo Township, was held yesterday from his late residence, lot 16, concession 5. The cortege was of great length, friends and relatives coming from all parts of the surrounding country to pay their last respects. The floral decorations were lovely and numerous. The obsequies were conducted by the Rev. J. C. McCracken, rector of the Anglican Church, Birr, who spoke in eulogistic terms of the deceased gentleman. The pallbearers were the nephews of the deceased, Messrs. Charles, Haskett and Joseph Henry Robson, James Fonger, and William and James Gillespie. Interment took place at Woodland Cemetery.

WESTERVELT'S AT THE FAIR

Forest City Business and Short-hand College Attracts Attention.

A display of a few of the recent class photos of the students and faculty at Westervelt's College is one of the best "drawing cards" in the main building. The photos are hung on the east wall upstairs, and the college colors "red, black and red," used to form a setting for the display are prominently in view from the main entrance. It is an artistic and effective exhibit and gets the special attention of young people who are desirous of pursuing a course in the best Canadian school in business and shorthand.

Westervelt's College, Y. M. C. A., is the only school in the west that is in affiliation with the Business Educators' Association of Canada—an association composed of the leading business and shorthand teachers of the Dominion—and its examinations are conducted along lines similar to those of the education department of Ontario. There are six regular teachers at Westervelt's and the principal of the practical and auditing department is a chartered accountant, who has had twelve years experience as a teacher. The president is the author of the "Canadian Standard of Bookkeeping," and a leading educationist for over 25 years.

AN ATTRACTIVE STORE

A Window of Choice China Attracting Visitors Attention.

The new crockery, china and glassware firm of R. E. Davis & Co., 206 Dundas street, are reaping the results of the large influx of visitors. It was indeed an opportune time for this firm to open their store, because the array of goods, being all new and fashionable, was bound to attract customers into their new store. The handsome window is an attraction that causes onlookers to step inside to inspect the china, glassware, crockery, etc., that is neatly arranged on tables and stands. One glance at the window is evidence that this firm has started out with the determination of winning a big trade by carrying the best ware to be obtained from manufacturers. The window contains a collection of Royal Worcester, Royal Crown Derby, Wedgwood, Royal Doulton and Coalport China. It is one of the best displays ever exhibited in this city, and was purchased direct.

An extra special line carried by this firm is the French Puyat ware. This celebrated china is made by one firm only, and R. E. Davis & Co. are the sole agents.

Visitors are invited to call at their store, 206 Dundas street, where every courtesy will be extended by the firm.

MILK SUPPLY FAIR SAYS BD. OF HEALTH

Reports on the Subject Presented by Dr. Hutchinson and Dr. Tamlin, V.S.

A meeting of the board of health was held yesterday afternoon at 4:30 in the city hall. Those present were Dr. Niven (chairman), Mayor Judd, ex-Ald. Taylor, Harry Clarke, ex-Ald. Skinner and Secretary Baker.

Dr. Hutchinson's report regarding the health of the city for the month of June and July was read. The number of deaths through consumption was high. On the whole the health of the city continued to be good.

Dr. Tamlin considered that cattle milk supply was read, when it was shown, considering the poor pasture, and the high cost of hay and other feed, that the percentage of butter fat of 3.8 was fairly satisfactory.

During the past six months there had been nine cows found with contagious disease. Three were killed and the remainder removed from the dairy herds.

Dr. Tambling considered that cattle should be treated once a year for tuberculosis to enable them to fight contagion.

A petition signed by the proprietors and landowners near Hyman's tannery was read, stating that they are ready to pay part of the expense of tiling Carling's creek, west of the tannery, providing the work is done at once.

Dr. Niven moved that the matter be sent to the city council to be done as a local improvement.

The matter of tiling the Scanlan drain on the eastern outskirts of the city, into which has been dumped all kinds of refuse, was referred to the London Township council.

It was moved and seconded that a bylaw be introduced by the city council to prohibit garbage being conveyed through the city in day time, unless carried in covered wagons, which would prevent unsanitary droppings flying about the streets.

The unsanitary condition of certain buildings in various parts of the city was discussed. The proprietors will be notified to give them attention at once.

Main Attraction in Main Building

Hundreds Are Visiting the Fair and They Are All Interested in the Gourlay Exhibit.

One needs only to stand at our booth a few minutes to appreciate the superior qualities of the Gourlay Piano, and how it is appreciated by the music-loving public. There is a crowd all the time at the Gourlay booth, and well there might be, as here is found a display of pianos such as has never before been attempted or in any way equaled. The tone of the Gourlay piano appeals instantly to the passer-by, and it seems the more they listen to it the better they are pleased. Then they become interested in the beautiful case designs; in each one of these models the spirit of the design has been followed with absolute fidelity. The Louis design, fourteenth and fifteenth, are admitted and commented on more than the others, possibly because of the correctness of them. There are those that have attempted Louis case designs, but none have carried out the idea so completely. The mission style, too, is a thing most beautiful to the eye; the Sheridan design, and in fact, every Gourlay piano on exhibition is a work of art.

The interior construction is explained to all visitors, and they can readily understand the truly wonderful merits that have placed the Gourlay at the top of all Canadian makes of pianos. The pianos on exhibition, and all those at the factory store, 195 Dundas street, Advertiser building, are for sale, and special inducements are being offered to all purchasers this week. The carfare is paid to all out-of-town buyers. Store open evenings.

AGNEW--SMITH

Pretty Wedding of Popular Couple at Warwick Ontario.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday at high noon at the residence of Mr. Fred Smith, Warwick, Ont., when his youngest daughter, Miss Jessie Kenward Smith was united in marriage to Dr. John A. Agnew, of Crestline, Ohio. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Shore, assisted by Rev. T. Palmer Westgate, of Atwood. The young couple were unattended. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present.

Both the bride and groom are well-known in this city. Miss Smith is a graduate of Victoria Hospital, graduating in 1905. She was a very popular nurse, and has a host of friends here. Dr. Agnew is a graduate of the Western Medical School, taking his degree in 1904. Since then he has been practicing in Crestline, Ohio, where he has been very successful.

The young couple are on a short honeymoon trip to eastern points.

HORSESHOE CURVE INQUEST

Caledon, Sept. 10.—Evidence taken today at the coroner's inquiry into the Horseshoe curve wreck was all the same, the train was going fast. Everybody was agreed on this point, but the passengers would not undertake to estimate the rate of speed.

He said he warned his gang to run because he feared the train would not round the curve without an accident.

Chief Constable Smith stated tonight that he has subpoenaed every witness who knows anything at all of the accident. Passengers along the line as far as Owen Sound have been called as well as the trainmen and Canadian Pacific officials.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—Government Railway Inspector McCall held an investigation regarding the Horseshoe curve disaster. Dispatcher Allison, who has charge of the ticker at the Union Station, was under fire for some time, but the running sheets and orders were not, it is understood, responsible for the mishap. The orders issued by the Orangeville operator were also according to the law. The officials declined to give out the result of today's investigation, but it was learned that no blame could be attached to the dispatching department.

The attraction at the Grand tonight will be the delightful musical play, "Little Dolly Dimples," with Miss Grace Cameron in the stellar role. This big company has been secured, as an extra attraction for Fair week and numbers sixty people. "Little Dolly Dimples" comes direct to London from New York, where they have been playing an all summer engagement. There are twenty big songs in the show, and the chorus is said to be the prettiest of any seen in a musical production for a long time.

don from New York, where they have been playing an all summer engagement. There are twenty big songs in the show, and the chorus is said to be the prettiest of any seen in a musical production for a long time.

The Kerry Gow.
During last season there were produced for the first time on any stage in New York City, exactly three hundred and seven new plays. Of this number only seventeen will be seen "on the road" the present season. The other two hundred and ninety being either failures or not strong enough to tour. The record for the past twenty years shows a little better average than this, but not 10 per cent of the plays produced are real successes. A drama with inherent merit and with a strong human interest that appeals to the mind and the heart of the audience will live and live for many years. These are the things that make any play a favorite with the public. "The Little Magister," "The Man of the Hour," "The Lion and the Mouse," will live with such plays as "Virginius," "The Three Musketeers" and the Shakespearean dramas.

Some Irish plays are long lived because they combine all these qualities, but not one has remained so long and so firmly established with the public as Joseph Murphy's "Kerry Gow," which for more than a quarter of a century has been played in every town in America time and time again and "time cannot wither nor custom stale" its infinite strength.

For the present season it will be presented in a manner and style far superior to anything ever attempted before, and the company has been more carefully selected than is usual with traveling companies. Mr. Bernard Daly, the wonderful Irish singer and acting comedian, will enact the "Kerry Gow" and melody will be a feature of this Irish play as it is a feature of true life in Ireland. Scenery, costumes and effects are all correct and of the best, and a more genuinely pleasing evening's entertainment could not be expected than will be given by Mr. Daly and his company in "The Kerry Gow" at the Grand next Saturday, matinee and evening.

BACK TO BABIES FROM PET DOGS

Diamond Merchant's Wife in Love With Incubator Mite—Abjures Canines.

New York, Sept. 11.—Her visit to the Infant Incubator Institution in Dreamland, Coney Island, has inspired Mrs. Joseph V. Mayer, of No. 157 West One Hundred and Fifty-Seventh street, to rear one of the helpless human mites who have been rescued from death through the incubator. She has deposited $2,000 with the Jenkins Trust Company, of Coney Island, as security, for the child's education.

More than this Mrs. Mayer, who is the wife of a wealthy Maiden Lane diamond merchant, announced her intention of starting a club of women, to aid in educating poor children. She has discarded her pet spaniel, on which she lavished care and money, and said she expected that other women who had spent hundreds of dollars on pet dogs and Teddy bears would be induced to follow her example.

Mrs. Mayer had a spaniel that had as much if not more attention than a child. The animal took its daily ride in Central Park accompanied by a footman and nurse. It had a luxurious couch and the finest foods suited to the canine palate.

The dog was in Mrs. Mayer's arms when she visited Dreamland. She was greatly interested when in the Incubator Institution. In one of the incubators was a baby not as large as half the spaniel. Mrs. Mayer held. She sought Dr. Fischer, who is in charge, and he showed her pictures of plump children four and five years old who had been saved through the incubator. He told her of the many poor families who were hardly able to support their children even after the incubator had made certain their chance to live.

Mrs. Mayer was greatly moved. She visited the institution again and expressed her desire to adopt a child. This, it was explained to her, could not be done until she had given up her pet dog, and she could be appointed the child's guardian and have charge of its education.

It was arranged with the mother of one of the infant boys that he shall become a member of the Mayer family when three years old. Mrs. Mayer promised she would give the child all the care of a mother.

"It does not cost more to educate a child than it does to support a spaniel as rich women do," said Mrs. Mayer. Many of them spend as much time and money on Teddy bears as would feed a child. I shall organize a woman's club to aid poor children in place of dogs and Teddy bears."

THE CAREFUL KAISER

Thinks That a Shilling Each Is Too Much for Buttons.

Berlin, Sept. 10.—German frugality was displayed in exalted circles at the autumn review of the fleet. The Princess Victoria Luise ordered a pretty naval costume which pleased her in every way except as to the buttons, which did not seem worthy of the dress. The dressmaker suggested that they should be replaced by others which she showed and which were worth a shilling each. The price appeared to be too high for the young lady, who said she must first ask her papa (the Kaiser). When the dressmaker returned in the evening to hear the decision the princess said that her father would not let her have the buttons. He said they were too dear, and that she must not be extravagant. The princess wore for the review the pretty dress with the despised buttons.

Corporal Frank Hayden of the army recruiting station, who spent a year of army service in China, says it is a good country to "soldier" in. "The worst things about China and the islands," he said, "is that there's no one to associate with except natives. Otherwise they're good places, China especially, to do military service. Food of good quality is very cheap. We could buy 175 eggs there for 50 cents American money or $1 'Mex.' Ten cents would buy a fine fat chicken and 60 cents a good sheep. The Chinese are good cooks and we could employ one for a very little money over his board."
