

SOUTH AFRICA WILL NOW SEND A CONTINGENT TO FRANCE

IT SOUNDS AGAIN

When Britain is at war, Canada is at war. The present great fight for the liberty of all peoples, and the crushing of the huge German military machine is just as much a vital struggle for this Dominion as it is for those of the Old Land.

Should the inconceivable happen and the Kaiserites come out on top, Canada would be one of the first places which they would covet, and life would then not be worth the living.

Only those who have visited Germany know what the military cult means there, and the all-round restrictions so foreign and opposed in every sense to ideas of British freedom and liberty.

Brantford and Brant County have done splendidly in the matter of recruits—no section of the Province more so—but still others are needed, and there should be no lack.

All of those who are at the front wish home that if those still left behind only knew they would not hesitate a moment to offer their services.

Young man. Think of outraged Belgium, the slaying of innocents in the British coast towns and on the Lusitania. The whole record of rapine, and outrage and all the rest of the devilment and then realize that it is

UP TO YOU!

FINE TRIBUTE TO THE ROYAL NAVY IS PAID BY SIR IAN HAMILTON

Has Been Father and Mother to the Army—Shortage of Ammunition Holds Troops Back.

London, July 7.—Throughout the events I have chronicled the Royal Navy has been father and mother to the army. Not one of us but realizes how much he owes to Vice-Admiral De Robeck; to the warships, French and British; to the "restovers," mine sweepers and picket boats, and to all their dauntless crews who took no thoughts of themselves, but risked everything to give their soldier comrades a fair run in at the enemy."

Thus Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton, Commander of the allied troops at the Dardanelles, pays tribute to the navy at the end of his first full report describing the purple days of the landing on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

BACK TO XERXES

The Commander-in-chief's despatch to the War Office is of great length, but most of the events had already been chronicled. Having reached the conclusion after witnessing the "stupendous" battle between the warships and the land fortresses that it would require the whole of his strength to enable the fleet effectively to force the Dardanelles, General Hamilton prepared to fling all his troops rapidly ashore, in the full knowledge that an attempt to land on such a well-defended theatre of operation "involved difficulties for which there is no precedent in military history except possibly in the sinister legends of Xerxes' "TOUCH AND GO"

General Hamilton admits "it was touch and go" many times before the invaders established a footing. In several instances half of the landing parties were killed or wounded before they could reach even the slight shelter afforded by the sandy bank on the upper part of the beaches. A great majority of the senior officers were either killed or wounded.

The Turks had turned the landing places into deathtraps. There were wire entanglements the whole length of the shore with a supplementary barbed-wire network concealed beneath the surface of the sea. Land mines and sea mines were everywhere, and machine guns cunningly tucked away in holes in the cliffs, were able to converge their fire on the wire entanglements.

"Too strong, in fact, were the defenses," says the General, "that the Turks may well have considered them impregnable, and it is my firm conviction that no finer feat of arms has ever been achieved by the British soldier or any other soldier than the storming of these trenches from open boats on the morning of the 25th of April."

General Hamilton speaks of "long lines of men being mowed down as by a scythe." Of the endless chains of wire entanglements he writes: "Again the heroic wire-cutters came out. Through the glasses they could be seen quietly snipping away under the hellish fire as if they were pruning a vineyard."

Of the Australians he says: "Like lightning they leaped ashore, and each man that did so went straight as his bayonet at the enemy. So vigorous was the onslaught the Turks made no attempt to withstand it and fled from ridge to ridge pursued by the Australian infantry."

SHORTAGE OF AMMUNITION. A shortage of ammunition prevented the allies from gaining the hoped-for footing on Achi Bago. "Had it been possible," says General Hamilton

OFFER IS GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED BY THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT.

A Contingent and a Force of Heavy Artillery Will be Forwarded Soon Announces General Smuts.

CAPE TOWN VIA LONDON, JULY 7.—OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE TODAY THAT THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT HAD "GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED" THE OFFER OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA TO PROVIDE A CONTINGENT OF TROOPS TO BE RAISED IN THE UNION AND SOME BATTERIES OF ARTILLERY.

General Jan Christian Smuts, Minister of Interior, Mines and Defence of the Union of South Africa stated at Johannesburg last Sunday that the South African Government had offered to organize a contingent of volunteers for service in Europe and also a force of heavy artillery.

CALAIS NEXT, IS ORDERED

Kaiser Has Several Vast New Armies For This Attempt.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

New York, A cable from London this morning to the Herald says: "Break through to Calais now," is the Kaiser's latest order to his troops in the western zone, according to reports received here from Zurich, Paris and Amsterdam. That credence is placed in the reports, indicating a new and serious offensive, is proved by the prominence given in the London newspapers to the despatches. One of these, from Zurich, goes so far as to state that ten German army corps are moving westward after a season of rest from their work in Galicia.

In support of this belief, the correspondent of the Daily News in Rotterdam sends a despatch saying: "Reinforcements are expected by the Germans during the next few days in preparations for a new attempt to break through to Calais. In the main they represent new armies of young men, many of whom are volunteers who were advertised to be ready for the front by July 2. Travelers who have returned from Germany this week state that the places where they met armed with men of the new formations ready to take the field."

The military men here, in discussing the reports of a savage attack on the allies, with Calais as the objective, see evidences of a German scheme to repeat the tactics employed against the Russians, regardless of the cost of human life, but that the Kaiser will reach Calais nobody believes possible. In the meantime the Austro-German onrush in the eastern zone seems to be losing its momentum. The Russians have braced themselves and are holding at most points, their line although the Austrians tell of continued progress to the northeast of Krausnik and further east along the Vievpr, in the neighborhood of Tarnogera.

Walter R. Jones, the Mineola coroner issued a statement after an autopsy had been performed by the prison physician. He said: "Holt came to his death by a compound fracture of the skull and cerebral hemorrhage caused by a fall. Holt's suicide followed closely upon the discovery of evidence tending to confirm the suspicion that he was Erich Muentzer, the former Harvard instructor who was accused of poisoning his wife in 1906. This was the day set for Holt's preliminary arraignment on the charge of shooting Mr. Morgan.

Investigation was in progress today to ascertain whether his suicide was due to negligence of any jail official. The shipment to New York of Holt's trunk containing dynamite enough to destroy a city block, was also the subject of inquiry. Police officials inspected the cottage at Central Park, L.I. where Holt had spent two weeks conducting experiments in the manufacture of infernal machines and in target practice with a revolver. It was reported to-day that Holt had told a detective that he had put fifty pounds of dynamite on board a vessel which had since left New York. Wireless stations along the coast endeavored to reach steamers which had left here since June 29 to warn them of the possibility of an explosion.

Knives and Revolvers on the Reserve

It transpires that there was quite a lively time on the Reserve on Monday night and that the event nearly ended in a tragedy. Knives were used and at least one 32 calibre revolver was fired.

The fracas occurred at Martin's Corners and too much firewater was at the bottom of the trouble. Isaac John Hill received the worst hurts. He was stabbed three times in the side, but not dangerously. Another man was also hurt but less badly.

Dr. Davis, the Six Nation's physician, dressed the wounds. Constable Jamieson of the Reserve made a preliminary investigation and High Constable Kerr has been deputed by Major Smith, superintendent to make further inquiries. Arrests are expected.

HOLT TAKES HIS LIFE

Desperate Act Closes the Career of the Dynamiter.

New York, July 7.—Frank Holt, the man who shot J. P. Morgan, lay dead to-day in an undertaker's establishment at Hempstead, Long Island, and the New York police had in their possession his trunk containing 134 half pound sticks of dynamite with which they believe he planned to wreck public buildings in New York and other cities.

An autopsy early to-day established the fact that Holt committed suicide by leaping from the top of his cell door in the Mineola, Long Island jail, while the keeper's back was turned last night.

Without Advantages. Lord Haldane expressed concurrence as to the need for economy. Money, he said, had been and was being wasted right and left. The treasury was the greatest offender, he remarked, and exercised about as little intelligent restraint of things as any department of state. He added that the government in his opinion, was not looking in the face the most formidable fact they had to meet. Things were discussed, he continued, as if the war were coming to a speedy end and as if all that was desired was to make some adjustment to meet the tremendous burden of debt, to raise new taxes and to go on as before. All that, he urged, must be swept away, for this would be a different country when the war was ended, in more ways than one. It would be a different country, he added because it would be a poorer country and because England would find herself deprived of the advantages and prestige of the past—of all the traditions which gave her the unique position in commerce and industry which she had up to now enjoyed largely because she was in possession of the field, and rivals could not come in. Now, he warned his hearers, the field would be broken into and if ever there was a time when it behooved Englishmen to open their minds to prepare for that situation it was now.

LEFT ON MISSION. By Special Wire to the Courier. Rome, via Paris, July 7.—Duncan Gregory, secretary for the British legation to the Vatican, has left for the Balkan states, on a diplomatic mission for his country. He will visit Bucharest, Sofia and Athens.

THE RED CROSS

O, you who live in Canada And wend your way, wherever it be, Supplied with most the heart desires Who dwell in sweet security, Forget you not those gallant men Who now 'neath war's remorseless wing Endure the deepest pangs of hell, Heroic in their suffering.

It may not be our lot to leave With those who march in Khaki clad And draw the sword for liberty, Beneath the glorious British flag, But there are none who cannot help, And do their bit, however small, For those brave lads, who freely give Their lives, that England may not fall.

So let each one, both rich and poor United stand, with eager heart To help the Empire's noble cause, By taking all a royal part, And thus support the rare "Red Cross" That sacred sign of mercy free To aid the wounded, save dear lives, And soothe their hour of agony.

GERMANY TRIES TO OBTAIN EXPRESSION OF OPINION FROM U.S.

VESSELS WARNED

Holt Confessed He Put Fifty Pounds on Board a Liner.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Glen Cove, N.Y., July 7.—Extraordinary efforts were being made by wireless, it was reported here, to determine whether a portion of the hundred pound shipment of dynamite sent Frank Holt at Syosset, L.I. was aboard the Cunard Liner Saxonia, which sailed from New York for Liverpool July 8.

It was reported that Holt had written his wife at Dallas, Texas, that the Saxonia would be destroyed by an explosion to-day. In the letter, alleged to have been written by Holt to his wife, it was said, Holt asserted either the Saxonia or Philadelphia would be destroyed by an explosion July 7.

Announcement that such a letter had been written was made by one of the men who called on Holt yesterday and talked with him for some time.

LINERS WARNED

Washington, July 7.—Wireless despatches have been sent by the navy department to the liners Saxonia and Philadelphia which sailed from New York, July 8 for Liverpool warning them of Frank Holt's assertion that they were in danger of internal explosions to-day. The navy acted after received a copy of Holt's letter to his wife from the authorities at Glen Cove.

PHILADELPHIA SAFE

New York, July 7.—The American Line received to-day a wireless message from the captain of the Steamship Philadelphia, saying that everything aboard had been identified and that all was well.

STEER FOR PHILADELPHIA

New York, July 7.—Police Commissioner Woods announced that the Saxonia had been caught by wireless and advised to steer toward the Philadelphia.

Exportation Prohibited

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, July 7, 4.42 p.m.—Steps have been taken by the British authorities to prevent the further exportation from Great Britain of lead, spelter, antimony, nickel, or any other metal necessary in the manufacture of munitions of war.

Announcement to this effect was made by Munitions Minister Lloyd George in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Pres. Wilson Warns Gerhard to Remain Silent—They Submit a Tentative Draft as a Ruse.

Washington, July 7.—Germany has submitted informally to the United States through Ambassador Gerard in Berlin a tentative draft of its reply to the note of June 6, which asked for assurances that American rights on the high seas would not be further violated by German submarine commanders.

After careful examination of the contents of the proposed note as outlined by Ambassador Gerard, which coincides with Berlin press despatches of the last few days, high officials are practically agreed that the United States cannot without sacrificing important neutral rights express its approval of the German proposals in their present form.

MR. WILSON ALEERT. The draft was shown to Ambassador Gerard with a view of eliciting from him an expression of opinion, and he promptly asked for instructions from Washington as to whether the United States could make concessions. President Wilson has been advised of the situation in several long messages sent to his summer residence at Cornish, N. H., and the impression obtained to-night from Gerard's quarters was that the United States Government very probably would instruct its Ambassador to decline to express any view until after the formal reply is delivered to him.

That what Germany proposed has not been officially divulged. Secretary of State Lansing to-day took the position that it would not be proper for him to disclose Germany's position as informally reported by Ambassador Gerard without authorization from the Berlin Government.

KAISER APPROVES IT

From Berlin despatches and authoritative sources here it is learned however, that the note as drafted by the German Foreign Office, with Emperor William's subsequent approval would give assurances that Americans might travel with safety on the high seas on certain conditions imposed by Germany, such as the marking of belligerent vessels carrying Americans, notification by the United States to Germany of the date of departure and character of such vessels, and an inspection insuring their non-carriage of munitions of war.

President Wilson has before him the views of several Cabinet officers, some of whom believe that it is essential to have Ambassador Gerard make clear to the German Foreign Office that United States can make no concession from its position as based on the accepted rules of international law and the naval prize courts of civilized nations. Whether the President decides or does not finally decide to have Ambassador Gerard tell the German Government informally the views of the United States on the rough draft submitted, it was clearly apparent to-day that important changes would be necessary in Germany's attitude before it could be reasonably hoped that the formal reply would remove from the negotiations the critical aspect they have assumed.

ANNA PAVLOVA.

Pavlova dances. Surrounded by chattering coryphees, hand on hip, head to one side in a pose of anticipation, she works out a terpsichorean problem. She has succeeded. The group parts, and she steps forth, leading a tall girl in shimmering blue classic dress.

In rehearsal when the music is a bit uncertain, when the lights are blattant, when the vast orchestra and the vapour balconies beyond are chilling in the unresponsive mistiness, the joy of Pavlova's dancing is as apparent as when she dances to crowded auditoriums.

She colors the ballet, the director and the strangely gentle conductor of the orchestra. The final twirl is not coincident with the final chord. She steps out of the musical picture and shakes her head at the conductor. "Last four bars," orders Mr. Theodore Srier, and again the final twirl, still out of beat. Over and over she does that difficult twirl, the ballet does its intricate tableau and the orchestra its tempestuous finale. All watch her. She snaps her fingers. "One, two, three, four," marks time with her arms and smiles because it is art to achieve the difficult.

"She is the hardest working woman in the world," her agents, her directors and the rest of her adores declare fervently. And to watch her and talk with her during an hour confirms the extravagant statement.

Far more than merely the director and teacher of these girls, she is their mother, speaking of them as "my children." They live with her. She sees to it that their other studies are not neglected. She watches them; will not allow them to go to parties or go out at night. Their street clothes are as quiet and unsexed as her own. Never do they wear silk stockings, or high-heeled shoes, or jewelry on the street, for, besides being very bad for the feet, they are extravagant, and children must be taught not to be imprudent.

And most important is their work. But that she teaches them less by word than by example, for they cannot fail to imitate the ardor with which she pursues her art all day and every day, to the exclusion of every other pleasure.

It is the distinction claims on behalf of the new Regent Palace Hotel—an enormous yet artistically designed building behind the eastern side of the Regent street. Its aim is to supply moderate priced, but comfortable and luxurious of the "exclusive" hotels, and one of its motives is: "No tips, no extras; music all day." One of its most striking features is the Rotunda Court, which has an imposing glass dome and a brilliant color scheme. The building consists of eleven stories, and it completely dwarfs everything else in the vicinity. It has accommodation for 1,600 guests and a reception hall and water garden are planned on a proportionately large scale.

BRANTFORD WAS REPRESENTED AT PARIS MEETING

The Library Institute for the Brantford District met yesterday at the Paris Public Library. Miss E. Middlemiss attended as the representative of the Brantford Library. There are 34 libraries in this district and 29 were represented. The following is a list of the districts in which they met: Stouffville; Guelph District; Tuesday, July 30th at Whitby; Belleville District, Wednesday, Aug. 4th, at Stirling; Niagara District, Tuesday, August 10th, at Niagara Falls; York District, Thursday, Aug. 19th, at Stouffville; Guelph District; Tuesday, Nov. 2nd at Ayr; Toronto District, Friday, Nov. 5th, at Toronto; London District, Tuesday, Nov. 9th, at London; Stratford District Thursday, Nov. 11th at St. Marys; Eastern District, Wednesday, Nov. 17th, at Ottawa; Orangeville District, Wednesday, Nov. 24th, at Grand Valley. As may be seen, the province is divided into thirteen districts, and this schedule will show that the Educational Department, in which the Library is included, makes great educational value of the library work. In fact that they are expending a considerable sum of money, by organizing and holding these meetings throughout the rural districts of Ontario. It is almost impossible to estimate the value of these meetings to the various districts in which they are held. It goes to show that the "Poor Man's University" is getting a most generous support from the Educational Department.

INTERESTING ADDRESSES. At the meeting in Paris, there were several very interesting and instructive addresses delivered by Miss Banting, of Hamilton, on "Children's Work." Judge Hardy of this city, on "How to increase the circulation of the library," and Mr. W. R. Mursey of the Institute of Public Libraries of Ontario. Mr. Mursey's remarks were exceedingly interesting. He read two district reports. The Brantford library, he said, was one of the best in the province. It was very complimentary in his remarks about the reference library. In connection with this reference department of the local library, it was through Librarian Henwood's untiring planning and urging that the library board decided to make the change. As everyone must see, this change is in every way a great improvement over the old form of reference library.

The delegates were taken around Paris after the meeting in autos, and made ill.

Holt and Muenther, Same Man

By Special Wire to the Courier. Chicago, July 7.—Identification of Frank Holt, the assailant of J. P. Morgan, as Erich Muenther, the missing Harvard professor, who was suspected of having caused the death of his wife, is made here by Prof. Chester N. Gould of University of Chicago. Prof. Gould, in a statement made public to-day, admitted that he had identified Muenther, who was a former student at the University of Chicago, while at Cornell University last November. He said he decided for several reasons not to expose the man, as he seemed to be getting along so nicely. I thought it was better to let well enough alone.

Prof. Gould's statement in part, follows: "When I arrived at Cornell University last November to engage in research work, I was introduced to Dr. Frank Holt, but paid little attention to him at that time. He asked me how Cutting and Allen, two University of Chicago professors, were getting along. I told him and asked him if he knew them. He said he did not, but had heard of them.

"Holt's carriage and speech had rather stayed with me and reminded me of some one, but I could not remember whom. Then my mental associations began to work, and I said, 'I know who it is. It is Muenther.' "The next time I saw him he looked squarely at me and said, 'Hello Gould! His words had the attitude of a man stepping back into an old familiarity. He never avoided me, except one occasion when I saw him with his wife and family.

"I had every opportunity to observe him and hear him speak German and English, and there can be no doubt that Frank Holt was Erich Muenther."

NOTE OF EXTREME OPTIMISM. Sounded by Dr. Ryerson Who is in New York To-day.

New York, July 7.—The condition of the allied troops along the western battle front was described as excellent by Dr. G. Sterling Ryerson, president of the Canadian Red Cross and Surgeon General of Canadian forces, who reached here to-day on the Steamship Espange from Havre. Dr. Ryerson's wife and daughter were passengers on the Lusitania. Mrs. Ryerson lost her life when the ship went down.

"During my absence I visited almost the entire battlefield along the Aisne and Marne," Dr. Ryerson said. "I found the condition of the Canadian and allied troops excellent as taken in this line. All water used for drinking is boiled, and every man before he leaves the base camp is subjected to vaccination and anti-typhoid treatment."

RASTUS KNEW MULES.

He Proved It Too, and Then He Gave His Reasons.

At a dinner the other evening the talk topic turned to the subject of mules, when Congressman Robert L. Doughton of North Carolina recalled the familiarity of Uncle Rastus with that obstreperous species.
 Some time since, the congressman said, a mule balked along the public highway, and no amount of beautiful persuasion or lurid eloquence could induce him to move. Finally Uncle Rastus happened along and advised a whop over the head. This was done, and the mule started.
 "That did it all right," admiringly exclaimed a bystander. "You certainly seem to have a thorough understanding of mules."
 "Yes, sah! Yes, sah!" was the grateful rejoinder of Uncle Rastus. "I suah do know dem mules all right."
 "It is always best to hit them on the top of the head?" queried the bystander.
 "Yes, sah! Yes, sah!" returned Rastus. "Dem mules hab mo' brains dan people think, an' you jes' got ter 'peal right close to dere Interlect."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

THE SITUATION.

The mystery of the present inactivity of Kitchener's large new army still remains. There's a reason, of course, but what it is hasn't yet been disclosed. One explanation is that the wait is in the hope that they can be poured through Holland, as that country is believed to be on the verge of joining the Allies.

The comparatively few British who are stationed in Northern France continue to give an excellent account of themselves. They have recently captured some 200 yards of German trenches, not much of a distance, as space is ordinarily regarded, but a whole lot in connection with a war such as this.

The French report renewed and violent activity against their lines, but state that they are holding well. The Russians are apparently doing a little better, but constant withdrawal of troops is still their watch word.

BRANTFORD AS A RAILWAY CENTRE.

For many years Brantford was a sidetracked community in the matter of railroad facilities. The inhabitants of older days thought the Great Western (now a part of the Grand Trunk) would have to come here, bonus or no bonus. It didn't, and the consequence was that citizens, to catch main line trains, had to travel to Harrisburg—that spot with regard to which the late Henry Yates told Sir W. Tyler, then President of the Grand Trunk when on a visit to this city, that he had spent one third of his life in a barber shop and the other in Harrisburg.

Without much doubt, the isolation was a good thing in this sense that it made residents hustle in the matter of securing factories, and led to the construction of a line between this place and Buffalo. The first big attempt at competition, however, was the construction of the Brantford, Lake Erie and Waterloo line, for the purpose of connecting with the Michigan Central at Waterford. Of the men at the back of that project, only three now survive, Messrs G. H. Wilkes and J. J. Hawkins of this city, and Mr. R. Henry, Windsor. The Grand Trunk magnates of that day came to Brantford and made the statement that the car works would be removed if the bonus by-law was adopted, a threat which carried the measure. This road is now a portion of the T. H. & B., and the latter, without any doubt was the main factor in causing the Grand Trunk to put their main line through here. Then, of course, there is the line to Tillsonburg and Port Dover; the extension of the B. & G. to Goderich, and the carrying of the T. H. & B. to Hamilton with connections with the C. P. R. So much for the steam locomotive end of our traction.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

From an electric car standpoint we have also become an important centre. There is the almost direct line from Brantford to Hamilton, the railway to Paris, and now the Lake Erie & Northern soon to be in operation between Brantford and Galt and Brantford and Port Dover. This double-barrelled enterprise, so to speak, is under control of the C. P. R., and it is known that their plans involve very big development to the North and to the Port. The direct service to the latter puts us within easy distance of a lake front with great freight possibilities, not to mention summer advantages.

Taking it all in all, this place from a backwoods position in the matter of transportation facilities, has emerged into a most satisfactory position as the hub of a veritable network in this regard.

THE MANITOBA DISGRACE.

The reason why the Liberal leaders of Manitoba did not make so much of an outcry over the sudden fall of the Roblin Government has now been pretty thoroughly established. That the Administration had got into just about as rotten shape as the Ross Government had in Ontario some years ago, has been very clearly demonstrated. They were clinging to power by hook or by crook, and manifestly not stopping at anything whatever in that regard or in the matter of raising party funds.

It is now the sworn testimony of Mr. Howden, Attorney-General in the Roblin Cabinet that the Liberals, in their anxiety to grab the sweets of office, were also prepared to go to any limit; received $25,000 in cash and were promised $25,000 more if they were "good," or, in other words, did not press charges too hard. It is a case of infamy crowding upon infamy, with both sides absolutely discredited and disgraced. The people of the Prairie Province have a manifest duty in this hour which it is to be sincerely hoped they will thoroughly perform. Another appeal to the people, under the circumstances, cannot long be delayed, and they should see to it that clean men are elected, no matter to which side they belong.

Incidentally, in connection with this whole deplorable matter, the "saw off" evil has again been exposed. In its effect, it generally amounts to just about this:—

"You did wrong in this Riding and we in this one put us against the other, withdrew proceedings and call the thing square."

Any such method ought to be given its death blow.

FINE TRIBUTE

"To push in reinforcements of men, artillery and munitions, Krithia should have fallen, and much subsequent fighting for its capture would have been avoided. "Up to May 1," he continues, "the net result of the operations was the repulse of the Turks and the infliction upon them of very heavy losses. At first we had them fairly on the run, and had it not been for those inventions of the devil, machine guns and barbed wire—which suit the Turkish character and tactics to perfection—we should not have stopped short of the crest of Achi Baba."

Turks Made Big Attack on Allies

Paris, July 7.—The French war department this morning gave out the following statement on recent operations in the Dardanelles: "In the Dardanelles on July 5, the Turks delivered a general attack, the most important they have undertaken since their efforts in the early days of May. Their purpose was to drive us into the sea. "At 4 o'clock in the morning a very heavy intense artillery fire was opened on our first lines, as well as on the zone behind these lines, occupied by French and British troops. The enemy subsequently endeavored to deliver several infantry attacks, but not one was successful in coming as far as our trenches. Decimated by our artillery fire and mowed down by our rifles and our machine guns, most of our assailants never left the field of battle. During this action batteries of the enemy on the Asiatic coast fired without interruption. A Turkish cruiser, steaming between Maidos and Chanak also took part in the engagement. On several different occasions, aviators of the enemy bombarded our lines. "At the end of the day a group of about fifteen British and French aircraft flew over the Turkish aerodrome at Chanak, threw down several bombs, and were successful in striking the principal hangar with a big bomb."

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE?

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer. The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system. Get it today.

Holt Takes

Holt had fractured his skull by diving head first from the trellis work of his cell to a lower floor. That he had some means of suicide at hand was indicated by the following note found in his cell after his body was discovered, and which is supposed to have been directed to his wife, although no name was found on it. The note read: "My dear One: I must write you once more. The more I think of it the more I see the uselessness of living under the circumstances. Bring up the dear babies in fear of God and man. Good-bye, sweet—Frank."

New Device to Search Out Subs.

New York, July 7.—A London cable to the Tribune says:— According to a famous British scientist an Englishman has just made a discovery which will revolutionize submarine warfare. He states that the inventor is one of the members of the committee appointed by the Royal Society to deliberate on scientific problems arising from the war. The invention is an apparatus whereby a submarine can locate another submerged submarine within a radius of twenty miles and keep in touch with it, while within the radius. If the device is successful then henceforth British submarines will be able to run down and fight German undersea craft.

HOLLAND'S WAR BURDEN.

The published statement of the receipts of the Netherlands government from all forms of taxation and state enterprises for the month of June shows that while the war is not only increasing the cost of running the Dutch Government, it is also decreasing its revenue. This is sad news for the Hollanders, who already find the burden of the expenses of the mobilization well nigh intolerable, when added to the ordinary expenses of life. Long before the war, taxes in the Netherlands were remarkably high. Every Dutch child started in life with the handicap of his share in over $200,000 per day of taxes for expenditures which are unknown in any other country of the world. In Holland an existence tax; for it costs that much to maintain dykes to keep a great part of the Netherlands from being overrun by the sea.

London Directory Shrinks.

For the first time in years a new edition of London's city directory shows a shrinkage. The 1914 directory weighed exactly fifteen pounds. The directory for 1915 has wasted away to fourteen pounds and fourteen ounces. Part of the two ounces is due to the disappearance of German and Austrian firms. This directory contains the names of business houses, professional men and householders, but the population living in hotels or boarding houses is not mentioned, so that it is difficult to ascertain the shrinkage due to establishments.

Patterns by Kaleidoscope.

Dr. Pulfrich, one of the optical experts in Germany, has constructed a kaleidoscope on scientific principles and of mathematical accuracy. Its use is for making kaleidoscopic patterns for textiles, inoleums, decorations, etc., some of those it has produced being of extraordinary beauty. He calls it the photokaleidograph because it is part of a camera that photographs the patterns it forms.

Motors In Forest Fires.

Experiences with forest fires in the national forest last year show that automobiles, where they can be used, furnish the quickest and cheapest transportation for crews of fire fighters. Motor rates are higher than those for teams for the actual time employed, but the total cost per distance traveled and in wages paid to men in getting to fires is much less.—Modern Mechanics.

Short Life of Big Guns.

What is the life of big guns that are playing so great a part in this war? A big naval gun is used up after firing a hundred rounds. After a hundred rounds the rifling of the core or lining of the gun is destroyed by hot gases from the explosive, not as one might suppose, by the friction of the shell.—New York Sun.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Diet For Sciatic Patients. The newest discoveries indicate that part of the treatment of every sciatic patient should consist of a diet in which fats predominate. He should have milk, cream, eggs, butter, mallow, bacon and oils, mayonnaise dressing and cheese. He should have frequent feedings between meals in addition to three large meals at the usual hours. Forced feeding is almost as essential as rest. The principal foods to be avoided are those abounding in which proteids. Therefore meats, especially the red meats, must be eaten sparingly.

A LEAKY LAKE.

High Above Sea Level, Yet Its Water Is Becoming Salt. A queer and unexpected result of the operation of the Panama canal is the making of a salt water lake high above sea level on the Isthmus. A lake that was pure fresh water last summer is now so salt that the water is not fit to drink, and this in spite of the fact that the bottom of the lake is much above the highest level which the high tides of the Pacific ocean reach. Miraflores lake is eight miles from the Pacific ocean, on the line of the canal, and was created by the building of the waterway. It is fed by water from the great Gatun lake, and plans had been adopted prior to opening of the canal for using the lake as a water supply for a number of small towns. As soon as the canal was placed in operation the water of Miraflores lake became noticeably salt, and its value as a drinking water supply disappeared.

ELECTRIC WARSHIP.

The California Is the First of Its Kind to Be Tried. The United States is the first nation to use electricity in place of steam to propel a battleship. That will be the motive power on the Dreadnought California, in which it will be used according to a method that has been thoroughly tested and perfected on the big 19,000 ton collier Jupiter, where it has proved most successful. The advantage to many. As the speed of a vessel run by electricity can be instantly changed, the dangerous "racing" of the propellers in heavy seas can be prevented. Then an electric power plant occupies far less space and weighs less than marine engines that produce an equal amount of energy. Finally the cost of maintenance and repairs is much less, and there is a great saving in coal.

GERMANY PREPARES TO INVADE OLD COUNTRY

Paris, July 7.—That Germany has constructed thousands of aluminum boats of special design for an invasion of England is the assertion made yesterday by Commandant Civieux, military critic of The Matin. "This invasion is possible only if Calais, the keystone of the Channel, is captured," he says. "The series of German attacks recently made with particular object on the allies' front means that the Kaiser's legions are once more making desperate efforts against Calais, with the object of capturing the town bombarding Dover with long-range guns, and invading England."

SHACKS FOR HOSPITALS.

London, July 7.—A Reuter despatch from Amsterdam says that German reinforcements are pouring into West Flanders from the eastern theatre of war. German officers have been advised that Calais must be taken at all costs. Hundreds of wooden shacks are being erected near Ghent for hospitals.

Zurich July 7.—Heavy movements of troops through Germany continues.

Railway and postal service in central Germany has been suspended owing to the transportation of ten army corps from Galicia. The Germans in Alsace are reported to be constructing an elaborate series of defences in upper Alsace with the object of liberating troops for field service elsewhere, probably in Belgium. Many new heavy guns are being mounted near Altkirch and Pletershausen. Soldiers are working night and day erecting barbed wire entanglements.

LIQUOR TRADE WILL BE UNDER CONTROL

London, July 7.—Under the powers conferred by the Defence of the Realm Act the British Government to-day by an Order in Council decided to take over the control of the sale and supply of intoxicating liquors in many districts where war material is being made and loaded, unloaded or otherwise dealt with. The districts effected include the city of Bristol and surrounding towns, Avonmouth, New Haven, Southampton, Newport, Cardiff, Barry, Barrow-in-Furness, Liverpool and adjoining towns, and most of the munition and shipbuilding centres in Yorkshire. Members of Parliament of all parties have undertaken a campaign to thank the employers and workmen in munitions contracts for the work they already have done, and to urge upon them the vital importance of turning out as great a quantity of munitions as the country is capable of producing.

CARNIVAL PROPOSED

There is strong ground for hope that the citizens of Brantford will have a carnival here about the middle of the month if the city fathers approve at their next meeting and the land is available for its site. It was suggested that it might be held beside the canal below Market street on a waste piece of land and arrangements are on foot to negotiate for the piece of property in view. The show is an "All Canada" one and was recently at Preston, Ontario and has toured the States in other seasons. The advance agent is in the city at present scouting around and making all the arrangements he can to fix up the contract.

CLOSE GAME

The softball game played between the clerks and Marlboro's last night was pretty evenly contested. Bragg was undoubtedly the star for the Clerk's aggregation. He made a home run and pulled off two double plays unassisted. The Clerk's regular pitcher was not present, or perhaps the store would have been larger. As it was, the game ended in a score of 5 to 5 in favor of the Clerk's. The game was played at Recreation Park and the batteries were: Clerk's—Berry Woolman and Schofield; Marlboro—Crawley, Wright and Sears. Umpires: Lagney and Heckalon. The next game will be played to-morrow night between the Brants and Clerks.

THE NEXT MOVE

The next step which the city council should take is the establishment of a proper public lavatory on the Market Square. The present position of affairs in this regard is a disgrace.

A KITCHEN SHOWER

A very pleasant evening was spent last night when the employees of the Dominion Dress Co. held a kitchen shower at the home of Miss Ireen Smith, 258 Wellington street, in honor of Miss Gladys Fairfax, who is about to be married on July 12th. During the evening music was rendered by Mrs. G. Neil and Miss Dorothy Norris, who played in their usual brilliant style. Mr. Cohen Cairns gave a selection on the pipes, whilst Miss Margaret McFadgan did the Highland fling. The evening was a great success, Miss Fairfax receiving many useful presents. The party broke up in the small hours of the morning after a very enjoyable time.

BOY SCOUTS ACTIVE

A fierce night attack was staged in the city last evening. The attacking and defending forces consisted of several troops of boy scouts. These were Grace Church, Brant Avenue, Bellview, St. John's, St. Luke's and the Grace Church Lads Brigade. On account of a mistake in the maps the victorious side could not be decided by the acting commissioner of the city troops, Rev. C. V. Lester. At any rate, the St. Luke's troop took most prisoners, and held their base. After the fight all the forces combined in an attack on the basement of St. Luke's church. They captured the trenches and soon disposed of the refreshments and goodies they found there.

L. E. & N. ELECTRIC LINE TO OPERATE BY NEXT OCTOBER

C. P. R. to Have Line Finished Galt to Port Dover by Then.

Galt, July 7.—Following the announcement from Brantford that the C.P.R., owners of the Lake Erie and Northern railway would purchase the Grand Valley Railway from the Paris dam to Galt, Mr. M. N. Todd, general manager of the G. P. & H. and the L. E. & N., confirmed the report, which means the electrification of the Lake Erie & Northern Railway from Galt to Port Dover. Work on the completion of the line will be rushed along, and this morning a construction gang started work from Galt and will work southward. By the time Brantford is reached it is expected work on the roadbed between Brantford and Port Dover will be sufficiently completed to allow the line construction gang to continue its work to the Port. The overhead equipment will be what is known as catenary construction. The messenger wire will be of aluminum cable, steel reinforced, and from this will be suspended the steel trolley wire. No copper will be used on the line.

TO OPERATE IN FALL

Mr. Todd announced that the contract for the electrification of the L. E. & N. from Galt to Brantford has been let in May last. The equipment is all of special character and a delivery could not be expected in less than five months. It is expected it will be towards the end of autumn before the line is in operation. A strong effort will be made to have the part of the line between Galt and Brantford in operation by October and by the end of November to have the cars running through to Port Dover. The track distance from Galt to Brantford is 22 miles, and while Mr. Todd did not say so it is believed there will be an hourly service to Brantford and a two-hour service to Port Dover. The amalgamation of the L. E. & N. and the G. P. & H. street railways is possible, since Mr. Todd occupies the position of head of both railways.

THE EQUIPMENT

Eight passenger cars, six feet longer and six inches wider than those now in use on the G. P. & H. have been ordered from the Preston Car and Coach Company, and it is said they will be the finest electric cars in use in Canada. The 60-ton electric freight motors have been ordered from the Canadian Westinghouse Company. The contracts for the power substations, which will be located at Galt, Brantford and Simcoe, have been awarded to the Canadian General Electric Company, The G. P. & H. street railway was the first in Canada to be operated in Canada by hydro-electricity, and it is altogether likely the same motive power will be used to operate the L. E. & N.

RECRUITING GOES ON STEADILY

Heavy Calls Must Be Met and Men Are Coming in Slowly.

Last night recruiting from the Dufferin Rifles continued at the armories. Seven men presented themselves but only two were able to pass the doctor. Among the men enlisting there appears to be some dissatisfaction in the manner in which the recruiting is conducted, especially in regard to the medical test. After their applications are in the men have to wait around until the doctor appears upon the scene, and some men have been forced to hang about two or three hours before they are examined. As a result some candidates grow disgusted and leave the place and several recruits have been lost by this occurrence. However, the officials in charge promise that this defect in their organization will be remedied and there will be no more delays.

BRANT DRAGOONS

At the Brant Dragoon headquarters several candidates presented themselves and a half dozen were added to the four obtained yesterday. According to the men in charge that should be the number to get. After a sufficient number have been signed up to commence drilling, the sight of the recruits at work acts as a very effective recruiting agency and men enlist in greater numbers. The Dragoon officers feel that there will be no difficulty in getting their quota of men and do not think any recruiting campaign is necessary. The Ministerial Alliance meets to-morrow morning in the city at 10.30, when the matter of assisting the local regiments to aid the raising of new contingents for active service will be discussed.

Throughout the churches there is a large proportion of young men who have as yet been untouched by the appeals for the home regiments or active service units, and whose duty as citizens service is based upon the principles of sacrifice, and it is felt that should be supported by the pastors be acquired and their influence brought to bear, this body of splendid material might be tapped with success. Presentation. A pleasing event took place last evening in the office of Verity Plow Co., the occasion being a presentation to Mr. Frank Hartley, foreman of Mall Dept., upon his return from wedding trip. Mr. Hartley was captured at 6 o'clock by a squadron of his mates and Mr. Harvey Clement fired a suitable volley of appropriate remarks reflecting esteem in which the recent bridegroom is held. At the right moment, by a clever flank movement Mr. A.B. Evans wheeled out a comfortable leather arm chair which was a tangible proof of the good wishes of Mr. Hartley's shop friends. LETTER FROM BROTHER OF LANCE CORP. LEE. Short Note on Conditions in Their Vicinity at Time of Writing. The subpoenaed letter is from Pte. Tom Lee of the 4th Ontarios, a brother of Lance Corp. Lee now in the hospital at Cardiff and whose picture is published exclusively in the Courier. The letter was received by Mr. A. Lee of the firm of Jackson and Co., engineers, Dalhousie street. He says water is scarce, the beer is rotten and the wine like vinegar in France, and you can't buy soft drinks, otherwise it's alright. Lee was for some years in the Nani Tal Rifles India and is still in his early twenties. My Dear Andy: We have been in the trenches for 7 days this time, and two days of that was hell. The shell were falling everywhere like leaves off the trees. I was covered with earth once but was not hurt at all. Two days before I got your letter asking about Mat, shell burst in his dug-out wounding him in about ten different places but they were all flesh wounds. I think we are now out for a bit of rest and think we deserve it. There are very few of the original 4th Batt. left now. There are three of us left out of one section and one of them has been wounded and the other is not likely to be wounded for he's in the transports. By reading the papers one would imagine that the Germans are short of ammunition but we know different. This is an awful country in summer time. You can't buy any soft drinks and every drop of water that we drink has to come from the water cart, the beer is rotten and the wine is like vinegar. REMAINED UNTIL FRIDAY. That Elwood Mayott charged with arson in connection with the fire at Hamel's Cigar Store early Sunday morning, May 9th, obtained and put on a rain coat between the time of meeting Sgt. Wallace at Queen and Colborne streets and the time a few minutes later, when he helped P. C. Borthwick and others to remove show cases from the store was the only thing of evidence brought out upon the apprehension of the trial this morning in the police court. The case was remanded until Friday in order to call a witness from Toronto, and it is hoped that the remaining evidence will be put in on that date. The defendant pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried by jury. Evidence was then received, Mr. Fred Hamel, the proprietor of the store, stated that the door was locked at 10 o'clock and he, himself, accompanied by Mr. Hamilton of Toronto left the store at midnight, locking up and leaving no one in the store to his knowledge. After spending a few minutes at the Greeks he went over to Dick Marrs and it was there that Mr. Joe Sheppard found him and told him his store was burning. He rushed back, unlocked the door and a few seconds later the firemen arriving he aided them in extinguishing the blaze. When he entered the store he found P. C. Borthwick there, rather to his surprise, but he did not know how he got there. P. C. Borthwick in evidence said that in going down the lane at the rear of the store about 12.45 he was just to yards east of Hamel's door when he heard an explosion. He thought it was probably the man at the Greeks closing off the gasoline engine. He proceeded upon his way when someone—a man about 5ft 6 and dressed in a dark suit rushed out of Hamel's into the lane and called, "Fire!" Borthwick yelled where? "Here" answered the man "Ill put in the alarm" and away he ran. Borthwick rushed back to Hamel's and in through the open door and did what he could to extinguish the fire before the firemen arrived. The fire itself was in the storeroom. Mayott helped him carry out the show cases. Learning from Chief Lewis that Mayott turned in the alarm he found him later in the crowd outside, questioned him and then took him to the station. The story Mayott told him, and the one he told at the station was the same

TWELVE INNINGS PLAYED YESTERDAY

BRANTS RESPONSIBLE FOR THREE MORE HOME RUNS —OTTAWA SCORED TWO HOMERS—FATAL EIGHTH SPOILED THE GAME FOR THE HOME TEAM.

The Brants certainly had reason to feel blue after yesterday's game. They practically had the game clinched up to the eighth, and then it was taken away from them, but only by one run in the twelfth. Warner pitched good ball up to the end of the seventh, but he should have derided himself then and saved the three runs the Senators put over in that frame. Mullin smashed out a homer over the centre garden fence in the second, and also in the ninth, thus winning two of Brantford's five runs. "Mike" certainly did his share yesterday. Fuller scored for Ottawa in their second frame by a double and fast base running, aided, of course, by Dolan's fast grounder to left field. As was the case on Monday, Brantford scored most in their third innings. Dunn started off with a home run, but unfortunately there was no one on bases. Then Cooper walked and successfully rounded the bases on Burrill's double. Buster made a run himself when Ross made a wild throw to first, in a vain endeavor to throw out Ivers. The third home run of the game was made in the Senator's 7th by Bullock. This made the score 4-2, but in favor of the Brants. Shaag's crew were not satisfied with this, having lost so badly the day before, so they hit for all they were worth in the eighth and managed to collect three more to their credit, thus forcing ahead by one. This was tied by Mullin's timely homer, already mentioned. The score remained stationary right through the tenth and eleventh frames, but was broken in the last by Carlton's smash. The Red Sox tried hard to do the same but couldn't accomplish the feat. Comstock bingled

Guelph, July 7.—Bobby Auld's pitching was too much for London yesterday, the Maple Leafs taking the second game of the series. Dillinger pitched good ball, but was hit opportunely. DOINGS APLENTY IN BIG LEAGUE CIRCLES

A Free-for-All Fight Between Chicago and Cincinnati Players.

At Chicago the Cubs won the first game of a double header from Cincinnati 5 to 4 after a fourteen inning duel. The second game was called in the seventh inning on account of darkness with the teams tied with 2 runs each. In the final inning of the second game a free-for-all fight occurred after Good tripled. He slid into the bag and spiked Olson. The latter became enraged and struck at Good. In a moment they were exchanging blows. The Chicago players came to the assistance of Good.

BARGER OF TOLEDO SECURED FOR FIRST

Will Take Ivers Place on Thursday—Gabby Will Go Back to Hamilton.

Arrangements were made between Managers Cristall and Deneau for the transference of Gabby Ivers from the Hamilton team to Brantford for the full playing season. But Cristall has requested Ivers to return, owing to the fact that outfielder Harris has jumped the club. According to organized baseball, Ivers' return can not be demanded, but it is not the wish of the Brantford club to interfere in any way with the progress of the "Ambitious City," so Ivers will likely play for the Hams again to-morrow. His place will be filled by first baseman Barger of Toledo. This is the player who Manager Deneau had in view for the first sack in the earlier part of the season. He is a young athlete of 23 years and six feet tall, with a strong frame. Last year was his first year up, but his record is good. In 105 games he made 108 hits of which five were triples and 15 two-base hits, besides one home run. His batting average is .275 and his fielding percentage .970. He will report for Thursday's game here with Hamilton, while Gabby will take care of first to-day.

FIELDER JONES SUSPENDED

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Fielder Jones, who on Monday resigned as manager of the St. Louis Federals, declaring he would not stand for "the rotten umpiring in the Federal League," has been indefinitely suspended by President Gilmore for the part he played in yesterday's argument with Umpire Henry Howell. Jones had agreed to stay with St. Louis until his successor had been chosen.

COOMBS FAINTS IN BOX

Brooklyn, July 6.—Jack Coombs, the veteran pitcher, fainted in the pitchers' box yesterday as he was winding up to hurl the ball to a Boston batsman in the fourth inning of the game between Brooklyn and the Braves. Coombs fell to the ground and had to be carried off the field. An examination at the club house disclosed the fact that the veteran twirler had strained a tendon in his left leg. He soon recovered from the attack though it was said that it will be a week or ten days before he will be able to pitch again.

Bowling

J. S. Armitage won from President Smiley in the finals for the Telephone City Cup and prizes. As the runners-up are Paris men, all the prizes in this event go to Paris, who win three events out of five in the tournament, Brantford taking the first prize and the consolation. The score in the game, which was played in Paris on Monday, was: Armitage 17, Smiley 10.

ALCOHOL GIVES WAY TO TEA.

The restriction of the sale of spirits in England has resulted in a greatly increased consumption of tea, and even though the new laws regarding the use of alcohol should be relaxed after the war a large percentage of people will have acquired a permanent taste for nature's stimulant—tea. Undoubtedly the consumption of tea is increasing throughout the world, and will continue to increase at a greater rate during the next few years and until the supply can cope with the demand higher prices for tea must be expected.

HOSPITAL MEETING

Report of the Institution for the Month—Pauline Johnson Memorial Ward—Mrs. Wood's Further Generosity

The Hospital governors held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon. Present, Messrs. C. H. Waterous, president, Mayor Spence, Warden Cook, A. E. Bunnell, R. Sanderson, Dr. Bell, H. Symonds, Geo. Watt, F. D. Reville, J. A. Sanderson, SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Miss Forde, submitting her monthly report of which the following are extracts:— Number of admissions 95. Number of discharges 85. Head Nurse deaths 5. Number of operation 59. Number in isolation (Scarlet Fever) 3, (Diphtheria) 1, all doing well. Miss Robertson severed her connection with the Hospital and Miss Gibson who has had a great deal of experience in Hospital positions succeeded her.

In view of the number of operations for June, 59, which is a record number, would like the Board to consider a Head Nurse in charge of the operating room to bridge over the time until Miss Best can take charge the middle of September. Beside the strenuous work of the operations, the keeping up of an adequate supply of sterilized dressings for the operating room, and surgical dressings for the wards, is in itself quite a piece of work.

Through Mrs. Wood's further generosity, the walls of the entrance and upstairs halls have been painted and the wood work varnished. The hall upstairs is to be furnished with oak tables, reed chairs, and with beautiful electric lights will present a most attractive appearance and we hope to see it completed at an early date. The hospital has received a further donation from the estate of the late Pauline Johnson, $217 to furnish a memorial ward. The ward is to contain a photograph of herself and a brass plate to commemorate her kindly thought of the hospital, photo and plate to be provided for out of the amount. Mr. T. H. Preston, who is the trustee for the fund, has kindly undertaken to look after the photo, and plate. Number 17 on the second floor of the main building seems the most suitable. It is a corner room with two windows, and bright outlook. When the operating room is removed to the third floor, it will make a very desirable room. The sum available will furnish a very handsome ward, as it will not be necessary to purchase a ward-robe, and the room has a hardwood floor, in good condition. A floor covering other than a large rug will not be needed.

It will be necessary to furnish brass plates for the ward furnished by Mrs. Bates in memory of her son, Mrs. Peter Wood's two rooms and halls, and for the Young People's Society of the Colborne St. Methodist church. We have to thank Miss Bunnell for the gift of an invalid chair, which we greatly appreciate. We can always make use of one more in the hospital. Mr. Chave for donating the painting the walls of one of the private wards in the new building on the women's floor, which will add greatly to the attractiveness of the room, and also the Stedman Bros. for interesting wall papers and magazines, which the men appreciate very much.

Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Colquhoun from the Women's Hospital Aid, made weekly visits and brought fruit and magazines for the patients. Dr. Stinson was visiting physician, and Mr. Stratford and Dr. Bell were visiting governors.

IN GENERAL
The purchase of some new operating equipment was authorized, including a sterilizing system, at $1,295. The cost of the latter will be met out of the Shaw bequest.

The following resolution was passed:— "That the hearty thanks of this board be extended to Miss Eva Johnson for her thoughtful donation of $217 from the estate of the late F. Pauline Johnson, and they beg to advise her that the sum has been expended in the furnishing of a private ward, which will contain a portrait of Miss Pauline and a brass plate commemorating the kindly deed. "That Mr. Preston, as trustee, also be thanked." A head nurse was appointed for the operating room, as asked by the superintendent.

Canadian Troops Get Autographed "Tackle"

Tris Speaker and Duffy Lewis, while the Washington players who sign on their ball are Chi Gandeil formerly with Montreal, Ainsmith and Walter Johnson. The bats were donated by Walter Johnson.

THE FAULTLESS FRUIT

Gruff old Dr. Johnson doubtless thought he was speaking the last word about fruit when he said that God could have made a better berry than the strawberry, but he did not have the best ever seen in Ontario. What variety of strawberry did Dr. Johnson have in mind? None of our best berries date back more than a hundred years, and the berries he knew could not have done more than give a suggestion of the kinds we enjoy. His berries may have been glorious, but there is one glory of the Wilson and another glory of the Senator Dunlop and other glories of many kinds of strawberries for the strawberry differeth from another strawberry in glory. As Dr. Johnson has been dead for many years, and I need not fear his wrath, I shall venture to amend his epigram by saying that when a better berry than the strawberry he made another strawberry.

Of course the wild strawberry has been known since the earliest time in all parts of the world, but the domestic variety as we know it was introduced from Virginia in 1629. Since then horticulturists have been in pursuit of the ideal berry and now they are hoping for great things through hybridization, selection, and what practically amounts to creative evolution. At the Vinelands experimental station alone they have this year over two thousand new varieties to test in the hope of discovering one that is new and surpassing.

According to fruit statistics the strawberry is now more widely used than any other fruit except the apple. It may be used to advantage either cooked or raw, and canned strawberries carry their relish to every season of the year. Then there must be strawberry jam for the children's lunches at school and for the workman's dinner pail. In short, it may be used in so many ways all delightful, that every housewife, no matter how poor, feels that she must have a supply of strawberries in some form.
