No New Arrangement to Avoid Friction on Alaskan Frontier—Mr. Dunsuir's Mission.

Some Big Bills for Newspapers and Lawyers Set Out in Auditor's Report.

From Our Own Correspondent. Ottawa, April 7.—Sir Charles Tupper read a despatch from Washington stating a modus vivendi to be recognized on the Alaskan boundary had been referred to the Canadian and British governments and as soon as the Canadian government had accepted it the British government would accede thereto. He asked if there was any ground for the information.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier: "No, there is not the slightest foundation. There is no modus vivendi on the boundary between Alaska and Canada, and none is being proposed. Nothing has been discussed since two years ago, when we agreed upon a provisional boundary at the summit between Lynn Canal and the Beber Sea. Since that time there has been no modification of the modus vivendi nor revision of it."

There were wigs on the green at the meeting of the debates committee this morning. The outcome of which was the dismissal of one of the translators and the resignation of chairman Beauvois. For a long time past there has been no meeting of the committee.

Part of the report of the auditor-general was presented to parliament shortly after midnight. It consisted of 1,000 pages. How to Get Strong.

Thousands of people, not really ill, need a tonic at this season. Close confinement in badly ventilated houses, shops and school rooms during the winter months makes people feel depressed, languid and "out of sorts."

Nature must be assisted in throwing off the poison that has accumulated in the system during these months, else people fall an easy prey to disease. A Tonic is needed, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the greatest tonic medicine known.

These pills make rich, red blood; strengthen tired nerves, and make dull, listless men, women and children feel bright, active and strong.

Mr. Jas. Purrelle, a well known farmer living near Crofton, Ont., says:—"For several years I have been a sufferer from general debility. I believe my troubles originated in over-work, aggravated by a severe cold. I had advice from doctors in Picton and Belleville, but did not get any better. Then I went to Toronto for treatment, and for a time experienced some relief, but it was only temporary, and soon I was worse than before. Some of my neighbors advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I bought a box. I found relief, and after I had used a few boxes more I was rejoicing in complete recovery, and my health has since been excellent. Words will follow my example."

There are numerous pink colored imitations against which the public is cautioned. The genuine are only sold in boxes with wrapper resembling the engraving on the left, but printed in red ink.

If your dealer does not have the genuine, send direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be mailed post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

Whether or not Mr. Parker will have the opportunity of trying his hand upon the Adeline remains to be disclosed, however, in the first place there is a difference of opinion as to present proprietary rights between the inventor, Robert Stewart, of Liverpool, and the insurers, a privately formed English club of marine people.

Do People Die of Catarrh?

How this Annoying Disease Develops and How It is Cured by Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure.

"Because doctors do not often report the death from catarrh," people imagine that it is not fatal in its results. But because catarrh usually reaches the lungs before it is called consumption, when it reaches the lungs, it is fatal. There is only a difference of names, and a misapprehension of the nature of the disease, which leads to the use of way along the air passages until it reaches the lungs, and completes its fatal work under the name of consumption.

Without, the birds sang in the woodland, the bees hummed over the wayside flowers, the crops ripened on the hillside; within was the steady tick-tock of the clock, the whirl of the sewing machine. In the matter of the sewing machine, in the matter of the sewing machine, in the matter of the sewing machine.
