

TALKED TO ITS DEATH.

THE ESPLANADE AGREEMENT TURNED OUT DOOMS.

Discussed by Four Different Meetings—The City Council's Decision to Withdraw the Esplanade Legislation.

The Esplanade matter was the one topic in business circles all day yesterday—In fact there was very little else talked about. No less than four different meetings were held to discuss the subject. The first body to tackle the "agreement" was the Corn Exchange association, which met in the Imperial buildings at noon. The president, Wm. Gallwey, occupied the chair. A resolution offered by Mr. Chapman condemning the "agreement" was carried.

The next meeting was held at 3 o'clock at the city hall. Mayor Boswell had called a meeting of the Esplanade committee of the city council. Besides his committee, Ald. Turner, Lobb, Love and Lewis were present. Ed. Wragge and W. B. McMurrich of the Grand Trunk, Samuel Barker and Darcy Boulton of the Northern, Hon. Mr. Wells, Wm. Whyte and Mr. Oiler of the Ontario and Quebec, were the railroad men present. This meeting practically settled the matter for the present. The mayor stated that in the face of the opposition to the "agreement" it would be useless to proceed further. W. B. McMurrich intimated that as far as the Grand Trunk were concerned they were prepared to go on with the negotiations even if the "agreement" was withdrawn. After a good deal of further talk, Ald. Turner and Lewis moved the following resolution, which was carried unanimously: "That in the opinion of this committee it is desirable that the several joint companies continue their negotiations as themselves and also between them and the city, and that a satisfactory arrangement concerning all matters in connection with the Esplanade, if a general and satisfactory arrangement can be arrived at, should be embodied in an agreement to be executed by all parties, which shall be confirmed by subsequent legislation, provided, however, that this committee shall seek the aid and counsel of ten representative men from the citizens of Toronto to assist the committee in their deliberations, the bills now before the dominion and provincial legislatures, and the resolutions of the dominion board to the harbor clauses in the dominion bill."

About the time the committee was adjourning a large meeting of the board of trade had just assembled in their rooms, at which Wm. Ince presided. The chairman had just got through with a report on the subject of the meeting when Ald. Turner entered the room. John Macdonald announced that he had learned that the Esplanade committee had decided to withdraw the legislation which they had sought, and he supposed that would settle everything for the time being.

Ald. Turner was called upon to address the meeting, and he reviewed the Esplanade difficulties from the beginning to the present, and acquainted the meeting of the resolution printed above. Still there was considerable discussion on the subject. J. S. Murray was also invited to speak, and he renewed his objections to the agreement, which has been so often stated. The announcement that the bills were to be withdrawn was received with apparent satisfaction. The board, however, went further and decided to withdraw the bills of the Ottawa bill should also be withdrawn. John Macdonald, R. W. Elliott, Alfred Chapman, Barlow Cumberland and others were present. It was decided that the interests were so closely allied it would be undesirable to present to seek for legislation one without the other. Mr. Cumberland moved and Alfred Chapman seconded the following resolution, which was carried unanimously: "That this board approves of the withdrawal of all legislation with respect to the Esplanade, and is of opinion that the legislation respecting the harbor should also be withdrawn, and that the city council be requested to give this board the opportunity of considering any agreement which may be proposed to be made hereafter respecting the Esplanade and harbor."

This settled the matter as far as the board of trade was concerned. During the discussion Ald. Turner and G. B. Smith had their usual little tiff across the room. A parting bill was given to the "agreement" at a largely attended meeting of citizens in St. Lawrence hall last night. Mayor Boswell called the gathering by proclamation and presided in his first official capacity. The meeting was called his way. John Baxter filled the chair for the rest of the night. The meeting lasted till 10:30, and speakers hammered the "agreement" right and left, to the evident delight of the audience. Just before his worship left the room he informed the meeting of the Esplanade committee's decision to withdraw both bills, but a number of gentlemen had come there to listen, and so the meeting proceeded. John Baxter, Capt. Hall, James French, Alfred Chapman, Alex. Manning and J. Withrow, were the orators of the evening. As stated before, the "agreement" was assailed all round. Mr. Withrow, however, was considerably milder than the previous speakers, and said that while he agreed that the bills should be withdrawn, still there would have to be something done very shortly to make the Esplanade safe. Capt. Hall's remarks were principally directed to an attack on Ald. Turner and the mayor, whom he said did not possess the practical experience to grapple an important subject like the present. Ald. Turner arrived with the meeting was about half over and replied to Capt. Hall. The audience was loath to hear him at first, but as he proceeded he partly convinced them that after all there was not so terrible "nigger in the fence" that had been talked so much about. A couple of resolutions were moved and carried. One of them was moved from Davidson Black and ex-Ald. Kent to the effect that the meeting endorsed the action of the Esplanade committee of the council in withdrawing the two bills before both parliaments. The second one was moved by J. S. McMurray and Alex. Manning: "That this large and influential meeting hereby instructs the present council and all future councils of the city, that in future no action be taken to close any of our streets south of Front street leading to the Esplanade, without having previously submitted the same to the ratepayers." This was also carried and cheered.

Mr. Manning, Mr. French and Mr. Baxter were instructed to present a copy of

A GREAT GANG AT GENEVA.

THE NEW MEMBERS INSTALLED—A Resolution on the Grand Trunk Double Track.

Big Meeting Yesterday—The Movement Will go on until it Envelopes the Earth.

PARIS, March 10.—An advanced Irish nationalist declares that the nationalists are annoyed but in no wise discouraged at the failure of their dynamite attempts. They are determined to persevere, and he predicts a long series of explosions in England in the immediate future. Mechanism has been invented which renders explosion certain, and obviates the use of clock-work. He expresses great vexation that the Irish-American way-laid Saturday morning did not prove to be informer McDermott. At a recent meeting of invisibles in Paris, lots were drawn and four men selected to accomplish the murder of McDermott. It is supposed to seek McDermott in the other capitals of Europe if not found in Paris. Tysan No. 1 is expected in Paris early in the summer and will assume entire direction of the operations.

LONDON, March 10.—Fenian O'Leary writes to the Pall Mall Gazette that he is a devotee of dynamite and utterly abhorrent to his nature. Seventy picked detectives have been instructed in the system of espionage on dynamiters. The foreign office has sent dispatches to the British minister at Washington in regard to dynamite outrages. It is supposed they are intended as a basis of overtures with the United States. No communication on the subject has been received by Lowell. O'Leary, a member of the Fenian League, and hopes that a work so manifestly in the interests of the trade and commerce of the country will be carried out. It is supposed the chief obstacle will be placed in the way of the attainment of this most desirable object.

TO FIGHT ON FRIDAY.

Probability of a Battle Between Graham and Digma.

LONDON, March 10.—Gordon advises the appointment of Zeebher Paasha to succeed himself as governor of the Sudan. He himself thinks that Zeebher, if adequately supported, would dispose of Mahdi within a year. He denounces the proposed British expedition to reconquer the Sudan, and expresses deep anxiety for the situation at Khartoum. Unless the British act promptly regarding Zeebher's appointment the victory of Graham will have been useless bloodshed. It is no longer a question of days, but of hours. It is reported that Sheikh Obeid, on the other side of the Nile, has risen. It is so the telegraph news will be cut. It is probable that the rebels will attack Khartoum. They will try to starve it into submission.

THE COUNT MUST GO.

PARIS, March 10.—A circular has been issued from the ministry of the interior, asking prefects to advise the government whether there exists a propaganda in favor of the comite de Paris. It should be taken as an indication of the desire of the government to expel the count. Monarchical journals are very angry at the movement.

THE HAMILTON NOTES.

HAMILTON, March 10.—The new room of the Hamilton fencing and boxing club was opened to-night.

ON SATURDAY AN ANCESTER BUTCHER NAMED.

Wm. Quinlan was brought before the police magistrate. He is alleged to have entered the house of Andrew Massey in Ancaster and assaulted him, besides committing an indecent assault on Mrs. Massey. The prisoner, on the other hand, says he went to the Massey's to collect a bill when he was set upon by the man and woman and beaten cruelly. Appearances would go to bear out the latter statement, for Quinlan's face was purple and his eyes were nearly gouged out. The case was postponed till Wednesday.

AN INDIAN MAIL THIEF.

BARRIE, March 10.—John Wanibooch, an Indian mail courier, employed in conveying the mail between Barry Sound and Little Current, along the north shores of Georgian bay and Lake Huron, was recently arrested by direction of Mr. Sweetman, postoffice inspector of Toronto for tampering with the mail, and was placed in the Hamilton jail. Wanibooch was tried to-day before Judge Ardagh. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to five years imprisonment at hard labor in the Kingston penitentiary.

FOUR HARRIGAN.

OTTAWA, March 10.—A young man named T. Harrigan, a brakeman on the Canadian Pacific railway, met a fearful death to-day by being run over by a train while in the act of leaping on to it at the union depot here. He belongs to Pembroke, but was going to Prescott to see his wife, where she was visiting some friends. Harrigan has only been married a few months.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

OTTAWA, March 10.—This afternoon the members of the medical sanitary committee had an interview with Sir John Macdonald and other members of the cabinet in regard to the establishment of a sanitary bureau for the dominion.

SLUGGING MATCH.

CLEVELAND, March 10.—In the slugging match here to-night between Mervin Thompson of this city and C. A. C. Smith, colored, of Saginaw, Mich., the winner to have 60 per cent of the money and the loser 40 per cent. Thompson knocked Smith out in twenty minutes. Smith was badly punished. Twenty-five hundred persons witnessed the match.

A GROWING BOARD OF TRADE.

THE NEW MEMBERS INSTALLED—A Resolution on the Grand Trunk Double Track.

Full Report of the Convention Last Week.

Speeches by Former Torontoans—The Secession Resolution—Vigorous Remarks in Favor of It.

W. E. Perdue (barrister), president of the Manitoba Rights League, said he was a member of the Rights League society, and this was the first time that a member of the league had been called upon to express his opinions in public. He said the association had done something in assisting the province in righting its grievances in a quiet manner. He then gave an account of the formation of the league, which had been characterized by the press as composed of a lot of bristles, barbed wire, and other things. He said that the league had been formed in the interests of the province, and he believed the people were willing to go further than ever he had gone. He said that almost everyone would admit that there were grievances. There had been a great deal of talk about them, and he thought it was about time to do something. He said that the league had been formed in the interests of the province, and he believed the people were willing to go further than ever he had gone. He said that almost everyone would admit that there were grievances. There had been a great deal of talk about them, and he thought it was about time to do something. He said that the league had been formed in the interests of the province, and he believed the people were willing to go further than ever he had gone.

ABOUT UTAH.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Delegate Calne of Utah, continuing his argument, said the speaker should be a territorialist to-day, submitted statistics showing the growth and material progress of the territory. He complained bitterly of the conduct of the present governor of Utah, whose real desire he thought was to bring about a union of the territory with the United States. He said that the majority of people of the territory were not following the lead of the territorialist, but were in favor of a union with the United States. He said that the majority of people of the territory were not following the lead of the territorialist, but were in favor of a union with the United States.

THE LASKER RESOLUTIONS.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The speaker laid before the house a message from the president transmitting communications from the state department relative to the Lasker resolutions. The speaker said that the resolutions were of a nature to interfere with the commerce of the United States, and he believed that the government should take steps to prevent their execution. He said that the resolutions were of a nature to interfere with the commerce of the United States, and he believed that the government should take steps to prevent their execution.

COMMERCIAL CRISIS IN CUBA.

HAVANA, March 10.—The commercial situation is very critical. The low price of sugar, the tightness of money, and the general distress are accelerating a crisis that will involve all branches of business. At Tagua, Rodriguez & Co., sugar exporters, have failed, with liabilities of two million dollars. The firm of Carreras & Co., bankers and commission merchants, have also failed. McKellar, Lullin & Co. are in difficulty. One or two banks in Havana are regarded with distrust.

SOMETHING NOT IN THE PROGRAM.

READING, Mass., March 10.—There has been a disagreement between members of the Frederick Ward theatrical combination. Ward and Miss Boyle withdrew Saturday morning. In the evening Miss Collingwood, a member of the company who was stopping at the Mansion house, was seized with hysterics and smashed a window, severely cutting herself. Last night another member was arrested for firing a bullet through a window of the American house.

NEW COAL COMPANY.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 10.—Application for a charter was made to-day by the New York and Philadelphia coal and iron company with a capital of $5,000,000. Business is to be carried on in Somerset and Cambria counties, Pennsylvania. A charter was issued to-day to the Jefferson coal company of South Bethlehem with a capital of $1,000,000.

WARD ON THE OLD MAN.

READING, Mass., March 10.—Nathan P. Pratt, aged 73, was to-day sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for four years on a charge of embezzling the funds of the savings bank here of which he had been president for the last five years. The prisoner did not profit by the wrong. His son, who was the real criminal, disappeared and has not since been heard of.

EVICH THE LANDLORD.

FOXBURG, Wis., March 10.—A destitute woman stopped at the City hotel a few days ago, and Saturday gave birth to a child. The landlord ordered her out of the house. After wandering about the streets several hours the police took charge of her. The infant was found dead in her arms, and the woman will probably die. There are threats of lynching the landlord.

WHAT MANITOBA WANTS.

THE MANITOBA RIGHTS LEAGUE—A Resolution on the Grand Trunk Double Track.

Full Report of the Convention Last Week.

Speeches by Former Torontoans—The Secession Resolution—Vigorous Remarks in Favor of It.

W. E. Perdue (barrister), president of the Manitoba Rights League, said he was a member of the Rights League society, and this was the first time that a member of the league had been called upon to express his opinions in public. He said the association had done something in assisting the province in righting its grievances in a quiet manner. He then gave an account of the formation of the league, which had been characterized by the press as composed of a lot of bristles, barbed wire, and other things. He said that the league had been formed in the interests of the province, and he believed the people were willing to go further than ever he had gone. He said that almost everyone would admit that there were grievances. There had been a great deal of talk about them, and he thought it was about time to do something. He said that the league had been formed in the interests of the province, and he believed the people were willing to go further than ever he had gone.

ABOUT UTAH.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Delegate Calne of Utah, continuing his argument, said the speaker should be a territorialist to-day, submitted statistics showing the growth and material progress of the territory. He complained bitterly of the conduct of the present governor of Utah, whose real desire he thought was to bring about a union of the territory with the United States. He said that the majority of people of the territory were not following the lead of the territorialist, but were in favor of a union with the United States. He said that the majority of people of the territory were not following the lead of the territorialist, but were in favor of a union with the United States.

THE LASKER RESOLUTIONS.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The speaker laid before the house a message from the president transmitting communications from the state department relative to the Lasker resolutions. The speaker said that the resolutions were of a nature to interfere with the commerce of the United States, and he believed that the government should take steps to prevent their execution. He said that the resolutions were of a nature to interfere with the commerce of the United States, and he believed that the government should take steps to prevent their execution.

COMMERCIAL CRISIS IN CUBA.

HAVANA, March 10.—The commercial situation is very critical. The low price of sugar, the tightness of money, and the general distress are accelerating a crisis that will involve all branches of business. At Tagua, Rodriguez & Co., sugar exporters, have failed, with liabilities of two million dollars. The firm of Carreras & Co., bankers and commission merchants, have also failed. McKellar, Lullin & Co. are in difficulty. One or two banks in Havana are regarded with distrust.

SOMETHING NOT IN THE PROGRAM.

READING, Mass., March 10.—There has been a disagreement between members of the Frederick Ward theatrical combination. Ward and Miss Boyle withdrew Saturday morning. In the evening Miss Collingwood, a member of the company who was stopping at the Mansion house, was seized with hysterics and smashed a window, severely cutting herself. Last night another member was arrested for firing a bullet through a window of the American house.

NEW COAL COMPANY.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 10.—Application for a charter was made to-day by the New York and Philadelphia coal and iron company with a capital of $5,000,000. Business is to be carried on in Somerset and Cambria counties, Pennsylvania. A charter was issued to-day to the Jefferson coal company of South Bethlehem with a capital of $1,000,000.

WARD ON THE OLD MAN.

READING, Mass., March 10.—Nathan P. Pratt, aged 73, was to-day sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for four years on a charge of embezzling the funds of the savings bank here of which he had been president for the last five years. The prisoner did not profit by the wrong. His son, who was the real criminal, disappeared and has not since been heard of.

EVICH THE LANDLORD.

FOXBURG, Wis., March 10.—A destitute woman stopped at the City hotel a few days ago, and Saturday gave birth to a child. The landlord ordered her out of the house. After wandering about the streets several hours the police took charge of her. The infant was found dead in her arms, and the woman will probably die. There are threats of lynching the landlord.

A BIG DYNAMITE SCARE.

LEGISLATIVE BUILDINGS AT OTTAWA, TORONTO AND HALIFAX GUARDED.

Government Guards Patrolled—Threatenings From Buffalo—Another Threat on Canada Expected.

The government of the province some days ago received information sufficient to justify them in putting the parliament buildings and the lieutenant-governor's residence under an extra military guard. Men have been detailed for this special duty from several of the city corps. The buildings are patrolled nightly and the government detectives are on extra lookout.

MR. McGAFF.

The general and jovial Thomas McGaff of the Queen's, one of the best known of Toronto's prominent citizens, and the prime of his hotel men, was given a farewell dinner last night at the Walker house on the eve of a three-months' tour in Europe. Every one there was a friend of the guest, and among them were representatives of the backbones of the city. A gold-headed cane inscribed: Presented to Thomas McGaff, Esq., by his friends and acquaintances in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, on his departure for Europe, March 10, 1884. The dinner was given at the Walker house on the eve of a three-months' tour in Europe. Every one there was a friend of the guest, and among them were representatives of the backbones of the city. A gold-headed cane inscribed: Presented to Thomas McGaff, Esq., by his friends and acquaintances in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, on his departure for Europe, March 10, 1884.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING.

There was lots of hot whisky at Gooderham's fire last night—The Firemen.

TO GARRIE.

Oh, if the sunlight of thy eyes
Could fill my pathway back to thee;
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter pleasure wait for me
When I return, than meeting thee
Again, and that sweet, smiling face
To gaze upon and find thy grace
And pure, unselfish, trusting love
Two love that knows no thought of sin;
Pure as the splices heaven-sent dove
And free from guile or selfish thought
As Mary, when she bathed his feet
With tears, O, priceless love, unbought,
Strong in thine innocence and sweet
Sweet the mother's first warm kiss
On infant lips that none have known
Dish from the angel's wild of bliss
And touched by angel lips alone
Oh, if the fragrance of thy sighs
Might fill my soul with ecstasy
Again, as in the days of yore,
When all oblivious care
We wandered on fair Queen's shore,
And heard the distant breakers roar
Along the brow and bare
As through the "Gag" the southern wind
Found entrance, sweeping from behind
Point Pleasant and o'er Amherst Isle,
Fresh from Ontario's crystal wave
In all its glory falling free
And bathed in summer's golden smile
Ah, yes, my love, no more could I
No sweeter

THE TORONTO WORLD

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1924.

LOCAL NEWS PARAGRAPHS.

Dr. Canfield, the medical health officer, left for Ottawa last night to attend the sanitary convention which opens in that city to-day.

Edward McDonald, sentenced recently in this city for stealing, was yesterday the possessor of the other day of a pulmonary complaint.

Mark Checkley, the lion tamer and pugilist, was a prisoner at a charge of having stolen goods in his possession.

George Earnest Blanchard, long and favorably known in connection with the Zoo, is laid up with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

On Sunday the applicants at the soup kitchen numbered 734 people of which 600 lbs. of pig heads, 240 lbs. of bread and four bags of potatoes were served.

At the court of general sessions yesterday Charles Thompson and Martin Downs pleaded not guilty when charged on a charge of robbery.

The Black Flag at the Grand. Edwin Thorne's Black Flag company was greeted with a good house on their opening night last evening.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

Jack O'Connell, a rough and ready character, was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

TEMPERANCE TALK AT MASS MEET.

About 200 people attended an open-air meeting of the University College temperance league in Moss hall yesterday afternoon.

The Epistle to the Hebrews. Rev. J. Denovan presided over the meeting of the Baptist conference yesterday.

The Skiff & Gayford combination have entered on another week's engagement at this place of amusement.

A Youthful Victim Suspected. Walter Howard of 120 Seaton street left a valuable at the door of a store at Sherbourne and King streets last evening which he went inside.

Harry Lee Ordered to be Extradited. The common pleas divisional court decided yesterday that Harry Lee, the alleged Cincinnati forger, should be extradited.

PROMINENT PERSONS. Henry Ward Beecher is in his 72nd year, but is as fresh as a daisy.

A Dramatic Victim. A woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell was yesterday charged with the murder of a woman named Mrs. Mary Ann O'Connell.

A Drunken Deacon. GAMBRIER, O., March 10.—Much excitement has been caused by the recent ordination of Gen. Ben. P. Runkle as deacon of the Protestant Episcopal church.

Foot and Mouth Disease. TOPEKA, Kan., March 10.—The district infected with foot and mouth disease is thirty-five miles in area and rigidly quarantined.

A Wrong Interpretation. An Austin colored party named Jake was very late a few days ago in getting down to the store.

Police Court Pointers. After the drunks and vags had been disposed of yesterday, Wm. Harrison was bound over to keep the peace.

Workingmen's Mass Meeting. A mass meeting of workmen, principally those living in the west end, was held at St. Andrew's hall last night.

It All Depends. What is the intellectual standing and ability of American lawyers as compared with Canadian? Are they held in as good estimation in the eyes of a Canadian public?

Fire in Gooderham's Distillery. Fire was discovered at 8 o'clock last evening in a large corn bin on the top floor of Gooderham & Worts' distillery.

A Mail Escapes Death. Sunday night a mail was carried in the engine room at Union station and lay down near the boiler.

THE PRINCESS VICTORIA OF HESSE IS TO BE MARRIED IN AN IRISH POPPIN WEDDING DRESS.

The Princess Victoria of Hesse is to be married in an Irish poppin wedding dress. Dr. Hornum Kerr says that the annual mortality from intemperance in Great Britain is 40,500.

According to the Hahnemannian Monthly 35 new medical journals were started in 1883. It considers this a high birth-rate in medical journalism.

The prizes recently offered by St. Nicholas for the best original illustrations by young artists under 17 years of age were announced by the judges.

W. J. Florence's entire wardrobe for the Hon. Bartwell Slope cost him about $7,500.

Frank Morris will be the descriptive lecturer with Forepaugh's show this coming season.

Lillian Russell is playing in Billie Taylor in Toulon, France, under Solomon's management.

Harry Miner now controls three Silver King companies, a traveling comedy company and three theatres.

Old Plumes is the title of a new comedy by Mitchell, which will be played soon at the Opera Comique, London.

Buffalo Bill closed his season in Chicago last week. He will go to his tent in North Platte to prepare for his tenting season.

Professor Boyesen, author of Alpine Races, has been accused of adapting the play from La Grace de Dieu, by E. Bismarck.

There are between 400 and 500 violinists in Boston, and there are about 300 pianos under the roof.

Louis James and Marie Wainwright will go to London with Harriet's chief for a tour.

Frank J. Frayne has brought from Europe a comedy play for the season's order.

Edward Miliken, of the 'Jama' company, now playing an engagement at the Victoria theatre, Chicago, and who enacted the part of Tric Trac, died on Friday of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Henry Irving, it is reported, refused an offer of $80,000 for a two weeks' engagement at the coming Cincinnati dramatic festival.

Edwin Cleary, of a Kentucky judge and a well known actor, is the son of a politician theatre.

A drama written by Mr. F. Harvey, and entitled A Wife's Victory, which has been performed in the English provinces with success, is to be played shortly for the first time at the London Novelty theatre.

W. W. Cole has received a notification from his agent in India that a sacred white elephant has been bought for his show at a cost of $6,000.

Bismarck was advised by his physician to take iron for his blood, but he did not follow the advice.

A man was ejected from a Chicago show of beautiful women because he remarked that if only things of beauty were to be seen over the earth it would seem to be a paradise.

THE PRINCESS VICTORIA OF HESSE IS TO BE MARRIED IN AN IRISH POPPIN WEDDING DRESS.

The Princess Victoria of Hesse is to be married in an Irish poppin wedding dress. Dr. Hornum Kerr says that the annual mortality from intemperance in Great Britain is 40,500.

According to the Hahnemannian Monthly 35 new medical journals were started in 1883. It considers this a high birth-rate in medical journalism.

The prizes recently offered by St. Nicholas for the best original illustrations by young artists under 17 years of age were announced by the judges.

W. J. Florence's entire wardrobe for the Hon. Bartwell Slope cost him about $7,500.

Frank Morris will be the descriptive lecturer with Forepaugh's show this coming season.

Lillian Russell is playing in Billie Taylor in Toulon, France, under Solomon's management.

Harry Miner now controls three Silver King companies, a traveling comedy company and three theatres.

Old Plumes is the title of a new comedy by Mitchell, which will be played soon at the Opera Comique, London.

Buffalo Bill closed his season in Chicago last week. He will go to his tent in North Platte to prepare for his tenting season.

Professor Boyesen, author of Alpine Races, has been accused of adapting the play from La Grace de Dieu, by E. Bismarck.

There are between 400 and 500 violinists in Boston, and there are about 300 pianos under the roof.

Louis James and Marie Wainwright will go to London with Harriet's chief for a tour.

Frank J. Frayne has brought from Europe a comedy play for the season's order.

Edward Miliken, of the 'Jama' company, now playing an engagement at the Victoria theatre, Chicago, and who enacted the part of Tric Trac, died on Friday of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Henry Irving, it is reported, refused an offer of $80,000 for a two weeks' engagement at the coming Cincinnati dramatic festival.

Edwin Cleary, of a Kentucky judge and a well known actor, is the son of a politician theatre.

A drama written by Mr. F. Harvey, and entitled A Wife's Victory, which has been performed in the English provinces with success, is to be played shortly for the first time at the London Novelty theatre.

W. W. Cole has received a notification from his agent in India that a sacred white elephant has been bought for his show at a cost of $6,000.

Bismarck was advised by his physician to take iron for his blood, but he did not follow the advice.

A man was ejected from a Chicago show of beautiful women because he remarked that if only things of beauty were to be seen over the earth it would seem to be a paradise.

THE PRINCESS VICTORIA OF HESSE IS TO BE MARRIED IN AN IRISH POPPIN WEDDING DRESS.

The Princess Victoria of Hesse is to be married in an Irish poppin wedding dress. Dr. Hornum Kerr says that the annual mortality from intemperance in Great Britain is 40,500.

According to the Hahnemannian Monthly 35 new medical journals were started in 1883. It considers this a high birth-rate in medical journalism.

The prizes recently offered by St. Nicholas for the best original illustrations by young artists under 17 years of age were announced by the judges.

W. J. Florence's entire wardrobe for the Hon. Bartwell Slope cost him about $7,500.

Frank Morris will be the descriptive lecturer with Forepaugh's show this coming season.

Lillian Russell is playing in Billie Taylor in Toulon, France, under Solomon's management.

Harry Miner now controls three Silver King companies, a traveling comedy company and three theatres.

Old Plumes is the title of a new comedy by Mitchell, which will be played soon at the Opera Comique, London.

Buffalo Bill closed his season in Chicago last week. He will go to his tent in North Platte to prepare for his tenting season.

Professor Boyesen, author of Alpine Races, has been accused of adapting the play from La Grace de Dieu, by E. Bismarck.

There are between 400 and 500 violinists in Boston, and there are about 300 pianos under the roof.

Louis James and Marie Wainwright will go to London with Harriet's chief for a tour.

Frank J. Frayne has brought from Europe a comedy play for the season's order.

Edward Miliken, of the 'Jama' company, now playing an engagement at the Victoria theatre, Chicago, and who enacted the part of Tric Trac, died on Friday of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Henry Irving, it is reported, refused an offer of $80,000 for a two weeks' engagement at the coming Cincinnati dramatic festival.

Edwin Cleary, of a Kentucky judge and a well known actor, is the son of a politician theatre.

A drama written by Mr. F. Harvey, and entitled A Wife's Victory, which has been performed in the English provinces with success, is to be played shortly for the first time at the London Novelty theatre.

W. W. Cole has received a notification from his agent in India that a sacred white elephant has been bought for his show at a cost of $6,000.

Bismarck was advised by his physician to take iron for his blood, but he did not follow the advice.

A man was ejected from a Chicago show of beautiful women because he remarked that if only things of beauty were to be seen over the earth it would seem to be a paradise.

REQUIRING STYLISH, WELL-MADE, GOOD-FITTING GARMENTS FOR THE COMING SEASON SHOULD INSPECT OUR STOCK OF NEW SPRING SUITINGS, OVERCOATINGS AND TROUSERINGS.

Smokers are cautioned to see that every CIGAR is stamped, as unscrupulous dealers are in the habit of putting off inferior goods as our make, because it pays them a larger profit.

Manufactured Only by S. DAVIS & SON, Factories - MONTREAL, TORONTO BRANCH - 24 Church Street

PETLEY & PETLEY, 128 TO 132 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO.

NEW GOODS

We opened out to-day another large shipment New Cashmeres, Dress Goods, Silks, Satins, Satin Brocades, Sateens, Gingham and Kid Gloves, and a new show the largest and most complete stock of Fine Goods we have ever offered.

POPULAR DRY GOODS HOUSE, 182 YONGE ST., TORONTO.

EDWARD M'KEOWN'S LAND REGULATIONS.

The Company offer lands within the Railway Belt along the main line, and in South end Manitoba, at prices ranging from $2.50 PER ACRE upwards, with conditions requiring cultivation.

AMUSEMENTS AND MEETINGS. TORONTO LACROSSE CLUB. The adjourned Annual Meeting of the Club will be held at the Club Rooms, Public Library Buildings this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock.

ROYAL MUSEUM. Family MATINEE. 2.30. Afternoon 4.30. Evening 7.30. Admission 10 Cents.

EDWIN THORNE. A carefully selected dramatic company, in the latest New York sensation.

THE BLACK FLAG. In acts, by Henry Pettitt. From Portland, Maine, England, they hoist a black flag.

NOTICE. A meeting of shareholders of The Belt and Iron Company of Toronto Limited will be held at their office on Saturday next, the 16th instant.

IMPORTERS AND EXPORTERS. The Great Canadian Route to and from the Ocean for Speed, Comfort and Safety is Unsurpassed.

FINANCIAL. A FEW SMALL SUMS TO LOAN ON farm or city property. A. J. CLOSE & CO., Land Agents, 33 Adelaide street east.

MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES. MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES. MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES.

THE FREEMASONRY. THE ONLY INDEPENDENT MASONS MONTHLY IN CANADA. THE FREEMASONRY. THE ONLY INDEPENDENT MASONS MONTHLY IN CANADA.

MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM AND CITY PROPERTY. MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM AND CITY PROPERTY. MONEY TO LOAN ON FARM AND CITY PROPERTY.

STEAM FORGE AND BOLT WORKS. STEAM FORGE AND BOLT WORKS. STEAM FORGE AND BOLT WORKS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the Parliament of Canada for an act to incorporate, amend and extend the provisions of the Act in relation to the construction and work of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company.

THE FREEMASONRY. THE ONLY INDEPENDENT MASONS MONTHLY IN CANADA. THE FREEMASONRY. THE ONLY INDEPENDENT MASONS MONTHLY IN CANADA.

MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES. MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES. MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES.

FIFTH YEAR SPOILING FOR THE REBELS.

Seven off in quick time. Canada Drivers Press. News-Latest News.

STARK, March 11. South at 8 this evening. Col. Stewart and the rebels at once.

The Highlanders who contracted for atacked by Oman at 6 o'clock this morning from the direction of the rebels.

The British cavalry who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

Oman Digma has sent a great tribe of Highlanders that night against the rebels.

A number of Egyptian troops who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

CASTON, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.

PARIS, March 11. The rebels who are moving toward Zanti, destroying the British stock series of night attacks.