MEMORIAL SERVICE

In Honor of Corp. A. Woodward and Pte. J. Ward

Trinity Church, Watford, was packed Trinity Church, Watford, was packed to its full capacity on Sunday evening, and many were unable to gain admission in order to take part in the memorial service held there for Corp. Alf. Woodward and Pte. John Ward two well-known and popular young men of the Watford Co., 27th regiment, who lost their lives fighting for King and country at Langemark.

at Langemarck.

About fifty officers and men were resent. Assembling at the Armory they solemnly marched to the church. Several officers from nearby towns were in the procession, which was headed by Lieut.-Colonels Kelly and Kenward. The church was draped with flags nicely arranged.

The church was draped with flags nicely arranged.

The service was conducted by the Rev. S. P. Irwin, B. A., Chaplain of the 27th Regiment. The processional hyunu was "Onward, Christian Soldiers." This was followed by the impressive service of the church for the burial of the dead, the lesson I. Cor. XV. being read by Colonel Kenward, followed by the special war prayers of the church.

Rev. Capt. Irwin took his text from Rev. 2-10: "Faithful unto death." When our local soldiers left about nine months ago, he said, many were the prayers our local soldiers left about nine months ago, he said, many were the prayers offered that they might A.IL. return in safety, but to-day, alas! "Some are not," yet in the language of the text, "They were faithful unto death." We all then felt proud of them, but now we are thrilled with what they have done. The day of test came, and although outnumbered five to one, they "saved the situation." So says General French. Nothing higher could be said of men than this. To-night we have met here to honor the memory of two young men. Alfred Woodward and John Ward, who belonged to this parish, two young men who helped to "save the situation" and in helping to save the situation they fell in helping to save the situation they fell mortally wounded in Belgium—they were faithful unto death. Of the two dead heros the speaker said that as soon as war was declared Corp. Woodward dead heros the speaker said that as soon as war was declared Corp. Woodward was one of the first to respond. As a member of the 27th regt, he was very regular at drill and ever ready to assist at any function at the armory. He was proud to wear the King's uniform. He was quite regular in attendance at this church and was also a member of the Sunday School. At Langemarck he made the greatest sacrifice that man can make, when he laid down his life for his friends. His name must stand high throughout eternity for 'faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life.' Referring to John Ward the speaker said he was one of the most physically fit in the company, a fine type of young man. He and his brother were among the first to enlist, and he was respected by all. He died when he was acting a Good Samartan. He escaped wounds in the thickest of the fight and went to assist a poor wounded fellow, when he himself was shot and tell beside the man he wished to save. Ward helped to the same the wished to save. Ward helped to the same the wished to save. the man he wished to save. Ward helped to "save the situation." He was "faithful unto death" and will receive "a crown of life." In conclusion the "a crown of life." In conclusion the speaker appealed to the young men of the community to listen to the call of duty as more men are required. The supreme call for the young men of the Empire now is to serve king and country, for anyone can obtain inmortal glory by fighting for the right and trusting in the Christ. The attitude of the Empire now must be one of work faith and prayer. Christ. The attitude of the Empire now must be one of work, faith and prayer. "Arise, then! O Israel." The Empire is engaged in a struggle without quarter and without compromise. The enemy is still superbly organized, still immensely powerful. To arms then, and still to arms; men, and still romotherland, in Australia, in Canada, there is need for military and industrial co-operation if we are to win. The graveco-operation if we are to win. The grave-yard of Cauada in Belgium is large—it is very large. Those who lie there have left their mortal remains on alien soil.

To Canada they have bequethed their memories and their glory.
"On Fame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread, And glory guards with solemn round The bivouac of the dead."

The closing hymn was the National Anthen which was sung with much feeling and enthusiasm by the large congregation, the voices of the men, loud yet tremulous, filled the sacred edifice with a volume of sound not often heard in our churches. The congregation remained standing while the organ pealed forth the mournful strains of Handel's Dead March in Saul, and the congregation was then dismissed with the benediction. The soldiers reformed, and diction. The soldiers reformed, and with solemn tread returned to the Armory.

The entire service was deeply impressive, and many a silent pray was offered for those brave men who are fighting in a distant land that we at home may re-tain the liberty and freedom that char-acterizes the British nation.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks dis-tinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for her-self. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes Gir once childless there are now children because of the fact] that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

A safe Pill for suffering women.—The secluded life of women which permits of little healthful exercise, is a fruitful cause of derangements of the stomach and liver and is accountable for the pains and lassitude that so many of them experience. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will correct irregularities of the digestive organs and restore health and vigor. The most delicate woman can use them with safety, because their action, while effective, is mild and soothing.

His Theory and Practice

During a school tea a kind lady sa regarding one of the young guests with evident alarm. Undismayed by the lady's glances, the young hopeful demolished plate after plate of bread and butter and cake. At last the lady could stand it no longer. Going up to the urchin, she

"My boy, have you never read any book which would tell you what to eat, what to drink, and what to avoid?" "Why, bless you, ma'am," replied the young gentleman, with his mouth full of cake, "I eats all I can, I drinks all I can, an' I avoids bustin'."—London News.

Miller's Worm Powders prove their value. They do not cause any violent disturbances in the stomach any pain or griping, but do their work quietly and inlessly, so that the destruction of the worms is imparceptible. Yet they are thorough, and from the first dose there is improvement in the condition of the sufferer and an entire cessation of man ifestations of internal trouble.

Crop Prospects

Ottawa, May 11.— The Census and Statistics Office issued to-day; in the form Statistics Office issued to-day; in the form of a press bulletin, the first crop report of the present season. It deals with the area and condition of the fall wheat crop, the condition of thay and clover meadows at the close of the winter and the progress of spring seeding up to the end of April. Owing to the mild winter and the favorable conditions which prevailed during the critical months of March and April, the fall wheat crop is reported as These proportions are lower than in any year since 1908-09 for Ontario and lower than in any previous year on record for Alberta. Last year the percentage winter killed was 19 in Ontario and 15.6 in Alberta. In Ontario the area winter killed amounts this year to 71,000 acres, and in Alberta to 14,300 acres. These figures, deducted from the areas sown, leave 972,000 acres in Ontario and 215,700 acres in Alberta as the areas under fall wheat to be har-George McCubbin's report in reference to drain on north side of 26-27 side-road in con. 4 and 5 was adopted.

Whilst therefore, as previously reported, the area sown to wheat last fall was 9 per cent. more than the area sown in the fall of 1913, the increased area to be harvested, owing to the small area winter killed, amounts to 24 p.c. Not less satisfactory is the general condition on April 30, which measured by the standard of 100, as representing a full crop, is 93 in Ontario, as compared with 81 last year; and 83 in Alberta, as compared with 87. For Odtario the figure is higher than in any year since 1910 when 95½ was recorded; for Alberta this year's condition was only exceeded last year and in 1911. "Belgium say, 'I am a Country; I am not a road." And Belgium write a letter to England about Germany, to help them.

There you have it—an explanation of the war in a hundred words. In spite of the author's halting English, some of the European governments might have done worse than employ this Shanghai Chinaman to prepare their rainbow-hued books of diplomatic defense for them.

You will search through many volumes of war comment without finding so apt a phrase for the crux of the big war—

During the high wind last Thursday fire completely destroyed the only dwelling house in Kingscourt, which was the property of the Grand Trunk Railway, and occupied by the section foreman, Mr. Hugh Cavin. It was a two-storey fraine building, and, having no fire protection in the neighborhood, the building, together with some of the contents, was a total loss. The origin of the fire is a mystery, although it is generally supposed that it ignited from a spark from a locomotive, the house being only a short distance from the track. distance from the track.

Although this hospital is called "Canadian," $500 is still needed to pay for the building, and more money is needed for the construction of wards and equipment, without which the hospital work would be ineffective. (Sarnia Observer.)

The tennis season was successfully inaugurated Wednesday, when the Watford team was entertained on the courts of the home club. The Watford team was composed of four gentlemen and three ladies. In several events the visitors showed surprising form and with practice the team promises to make any of the group hustle to win. Sarnia as yet is not the team of last year and will have to put in faithful practice if they hope to remain champions of Western Ontario.

We must not overlook the grand playing of Mr. and Mrs. Connolly. These players were champions of their district in Japan. Mrs. Connolly defeated Irene Whittaker in three most interesting sets, while Mr. Connolly defeated our popular president.

Von Tirpitz's Submarines

On February 19, the Von Tirpitz ubmaride policy came into effect. In the first five days there were 14 only one being sunk, until March 9, after which 11 were sunk in a week. 27. The first seven days of April course worth more than all the other 90 and their cargoes together. Fish in the lengthening schedule. The torpedo reached the fast and the slow alike. And in his first utterance after the Lusitania sank Mr. Churchill is reported to have said that while the admiralty did endeavor to guide the big ship by use of wireless messages, the navy had not the ships necessary to insure safety for passenger and mail boats. Moreover, when the Von Tirpitz experiment began, the submarine available was of a small type, with very limit-ed radius of travel. Now, it is alleged, the boats in use are capable of travelling thousands of miles without return to base, and are big enough to operate in the open sea, presumably beyond the opening of any sea lane the Admiralty might be disposed to permanently patrol if it had the ships. Ships which for any reason the navy has seen fit to convoy have so far been immune, although there have been mishaps at least two transport ships, possibly not suffi-ciently guarded; all others are in danger. No doubt, in the war sense, this is the lesson driven home by the Lusitania horror, a lesson which no amount of anger or indignation changes materially.—Beck's Weekly.

Apiary Demonstrations, 1915

Great interest has been shown in the apiary demonstrations held throughout the Province under the direction of Mr. Morley Pettit, Provincial apiarist. The attendance at the fifty-five meetings held during We Americans shall insist upon the season of 1914 averaged 34, putting our own construction upon while in 1912 the average was 25. No German Need Apply Complaint is made that a number of German waiters are employed in the Chateau Laurier at Ottawa. A Quebec back from the Capital, ordered luncheon in her suite and was startled to find a waiter with a pronounced German accent "Yes, I was born in German," she asked.

"Yes, I was born in German," he replied.

Then you may go and ten them to send me a waiter who is not a German," this lady ordered. She declares that the Chateau Laurier employs a large number of Germans and points out that, apart from the question of supplying work for citizens of the country with which we are at war, the presence of the Germans in the leading presence of the Germans in the leading hotel of the Capital is dangerous. In the Chateau Laurier they have opportunities for overhearing discussed many matters of grave importance to the country, and a spy among the employes might easily secure valuable information.

WATFORD PEOPLE PRAISE SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many in Watford praise the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-i-ka. This remedy is the most THOROUGH bowel cleanser ever sold being even used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. Adler-i-ka cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising. Taylor & Son, druggists.

FLOATING ISLANDS.

Japan Has a Lake of Them, and They Sometimes Capsize.

In Yamagata, Japan, is a small lake called the Lake of the Floating Islands, discovered about the year 1840, which has from that time attracted the attention of many poets and literary men. A report on the mysterious movements of these islands, drawn up by a party under Professor S. Kusa-kabe, is published in the science reports of the Tohoku Imperial univer-

The floating islands, which at times number no fewer than sixty, are found to be continually changing their posi-tions, moving first one way and then the other. In the first series of observations wooden floats were placed in the lake, showing the distribution of the various currents. Subsequently a model of the lake was constructed, and it was found possible closely to reproduce the various movements of the surface. When both water and wind currents were taken into account the actual behavior of the islands was found to be quite in accordance with theory and experiment.

The islands originate from masses of vegetable debris, which are first carried to the surface by bubbles of gas; then reeds commence to grow from seed on them. Sometimes the mass becomes topheavy and overturns, and reeds grow on the other side, until the island has grown sufficiently large in extent to secure stability.

TEST OF A TOASTMASTER.

His Speech, Whether It Be Good or Bad, Should Be Very Brief.

To the average man an invitation to "make a few remarks" after dinner is at once a terror and a secret pride. To be asked to be the toastmaster at a big dinner is usually taken as recognition of wit and knowledge.

The toastmaster's speech should be very brief. If he is a good speaker himself a speech of any considerable length imposes unfair competition upon the real speakers, usually visiting guests, whom he is to introduce. If the toastmaster is a poor speaker he bores the audience and the waiting guests as well. And in any event every minute occupied by the toastmaster is a robbery of the time of the real speakers of the evening, and an after dinner speaker may have a real message that needs delivery, and the long drawn introduction, with side lights and anecdotes, will really cheat the audience of something worth while.

The toastmaster has a task of courtesy-to prepare the diners for the man who is to speak, to tame and train the audience into a proper frame of mind and to turn it over to the speaker in formed as to his identity, prejudiced in his favor a little perhaps, but certainly not in the reaction following a laugh raised by the toastmaster .- Boston Globe.

Are Foxes Vegetarians? Foxes are not generally accredited with vegetarian instincts. You never see their tracks, as you see those of rabbits, around a young oak tree shoot which has been nibbled down to the tough stem. But Aesop evidently thought otherwise when he wrote his fable of the sour grapes, and there is plenty of testimony that Aesop was right. Foxes do eat wild grapes, as many observers have testified, climbing a considerable way to get them, and probably at times they eat berries and perhaps apples. I have found their tracks, at any rate, beneath apple trees. I have also been confidently as-sured that they eat the persimmons in Virginia, that the "ol' houn' dawgs" know how good this fruit is, too, and if you wish to find the very best bee tree take a "dawg" with you. - Walter Prichard Eaton in Harper's Magazine.

A COMPLETE WRECK

From the After Effects of Pneumonia Followed by Diptheria

Frequently the after effects of illness Frequently the after effects of illness are more serious than the original trouble. This was the case with Mrs. James B. Moir, Mutana, Sask. Mrs. Moir says: "Some years ago, while we were still living in Nova Scotia, I was taken down with a severe attack of pneumonia. I had sufficiently recovered to be around, but had not been able to go out when I was attacked with diptheria. In my weakened state it took a terrible hold on me and neither my friends nor neighwas attacked with diptheria. In my weakened state it took a terrible hold on me, and neither my friends nor neighbors thought I would recover. I did, however, pull through, but was a physical wreck. The muscles of my throat were paralyzed, so that even a sup of water would flow back through my nostrils unless they were held closed. My voice was almost inaudible, and my eyes so badly effected that I feared I was going to lose my eyesight. I could only walk with assistance and it looked as though I would be a helpless cripple. Medicine after medicine was used, but did not help me. Then a neighbor advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them but had the utmost difficulty in swallowing them owing to the condition of my throat. However, after a couple of boxes had been used I found it easier to take them, which was a sign they were helping me, and I felt greatly cheered. I do not know how many boxes I took, but I continued their use until I was as well as ever, much to the surprise of all who knew me, as all thought I could not get better. Since then I have several times taken the Pills when run down and have always been greatly benefited by them."

There was not a man that knew what he field and heard the bnilets flying past our ears and then see one or two fall down wounded or killed—then the men knew what they were up against. Poor Jack is killed and Charley is wounded. Tom, Fred and myself have come out alright. The wounded were brought in

There is something else I must tell you.
