European Intelligence.

FROM PAPERS BY THE CAMERON.
IRELAND.

The intelligence from this part of the United Kingdom is not of a very important character this week. The excitement consequent on the state trials has passed away; and the great topic of conversation seems to be that relating to the destination of the peasantry in remote districts, and the reappearance of crime and outrage in the case of William Smith O'Brien & the Queen in error comes on next week. It is said that will be brought to Dublin in the course of a few days, in order to be present at the argument of his case in the Court of Queen's Bench. We submit all the leading features of the news.

Thursday being the day appointed for the assignment of error by Mr. John Martin, late proprietor of the Irish Felix newspaper, he was brought up in custody and conducted to a seat at the traversers bar.

Mr. Martin looked cheerful, but his person has become much attenuated since he appeared in the dock in Green-street, on the occasion of his trial in August last.

The full court sat at half-past eleven o'clock. Lord Dejon occupied a seat on the bench to the right of Judge Crampton.

The Attorney General rose and said: that in accordance with the habeas corpus issued by their lordships, the prisoner, John Martin, whom he called upon to assign error, was then in court.

Mr. Martin then handed in his writ accordingly.

The Attorney General desired to see the writ assigned by the prisoner, and, having read it, the right hon. gentleman called upon the Crown-Solicitor to produce the rejoinder; and having received it from Mr. Kemmis, he handed it up to the court, and requested their lordships would appoint Monday next for the argument, to which they consented. Monday was then appointed for the hearing of counsel in support of the error assigned by the prisoner.

A question was then raised as to the expense to be incurred, which the Clerk of the Crown stated should be borne partly by the prisoner in error.

Mr. Holmes, Mr. Butt, and Sir Colman O'Loughlin, contended that the Crown should bear the expense of opening the books, and referred to the case of John Mitchell, Mr. O'Connell, and others, in support of their argument.

The Chief Justice said the court would be guided by precedent, and on the argument being entered upon on Monday they would decide by whom the costs should be borne.

The prisoner was then removed in custody, and reconducted to the Richmond Bridewell, on the South Circular-road.

The following resolution was adopted at a meeting held in Dublin, on Tuesday, for the purpose of aiding Mr. Patrick O'Donoghue in prosecuting the writ of error issued on his behalf:—

"That inasmuch as very eminent counsel have given their opinion that judgement pronounced on Mr. O'Donoghue, by which his life or liberty is affected, is erroneous, and ought to be reversed; and as it appears that the same advantages have not been offered to him on his trial that he would have had, had he been an Englishman and tried in England for the offence with which he was charged, and that his circumstances do not enable him to contend against the power of the Crown in contesting his right; we do forthwith enter into and solicit subscriptions, for the purpose of aiding him in bringing his case forward for ultimate decision by the highest tribunal in this kingdom, as in doing so we uphold the right of every Irishman to equal impartial justice. That the committee now named, with power to add to their number, council of the Royal Agricultural Society a number of letters were read, enclosing subscriptions to the fund. Lord Bandon has contributed £10, Mr. Fortesque, of Ravens-dale-park, £25; Colonel Hall, of Merville, £5; Mr. Lambert Disney, £5; Lord Clancarty, Mr. Bourke, of Netley, and other gentlemen connected with local farming societies, announced the readiness of those bodies to contribute a portion of their funds for practical instruction.

A public meeting of the landed proprietors, clergy, gentry, &c. of the Westport union, he authorized to collect subscriptions for the above purpose, each of whom shall receive a list signed by the secretary and a member of the general committee.

The gentry of the country, notwithstanding the severe embarrassments that press upon them, are manifesting a disposition to co-operate with the Lord-Lieutenant in reviving and extending the system of practical instruction amongst the rural population, towards which his Excellency has granted a further sum of £1000. At the last meeting of the union, held on the 2nd instant, "To take into consideration the truly alarming state of this district, and to call upon Government, as they value the lives of her Majesty's subjects, to lose no time in devising the most effectual means of meeting the terrible famine which is already at our door." The Marquis of Sligo, the chief proprietor in the union, presided.

AUSTRIA.

CAPITULATION OF VIENNA.

Vienna has at length surrendered to the Imperial troops after eight days' siege. It appears that Prince Windischgratz has given every opportunity to the rebels to submit, and was determined only to proceed to the bombardment of the town when every other means proved unavailing. Till the 28th ult. six days were consumed in endeavouring to bring the Viennese to submission, and several attempts were made by the inhabitants to obtain better terms of surrender from the Imperial general, but all to no purpose. On 28th Windischgratz, therefore, recommenced an attack on the suburbs. The progress of the day is thus recorded: on the 28th the engagement was chiefly on the southern and eastern sides, while on the western the batteries were heard at intervals. In the evening the Ban Jellachich had completely taken the suburbs of Landstrasse and Euberg, and was standing at the Franzensbrunn and Mergersgasse at the entrance of Leopoldsdorf, and had so taken up his position that he commanded them and the whole of the Jag-zell, with his batteries. He had also occupied their custom-house buildings, which, by previous arrangement of General Ben, had been destined for a principal point of defence and great apprehensions were entertained for the immense quantities of goods which were stored there.

The Gloggnitz railway was very warmly defended, but was taken by the troops in the course of the 28th as were also the whole of the outer lines on the southern and eastern sides as well as the suburb of Wieden, which is said to be the principal hold of the opposition party. In the Landstrasse the Jagers, it is said, took thirty barricades in the course of three hours, and the regiment of Nassau greatly distinguished itself.

In the suburb of the Landstrasse and Larchenfeld the troops were, it is said, favoured by the inhabitants and were received by the women with garlands of flowers. Many national guards their arms and a great many weapons were found in the equal.

The struggle in the streets of Vienna was of short duration; the whole town was in possession of the Imperial troops on the 1st November.

The students fought like madmen, and when the rest of the city had given in, still defended themselves in the vicinity of the Aula, supported by a portion of the workmen. On the 1st November they still held out in the Salvator barracks. The Aula was taken by the Imperial troops, and at noon the barracks were carried by storm.

SPAIN.

Accounts have been received from Bayonne to the 5th of November, which state that at the Spanish emigres of the Progressista party have crossed the frontiers and entered Spain by Navarre and Aragon. Ugarte, who was formerly a political chief, commands the insurgents who have entered Aragon. General Iriarte is at the head of those who entered Navarre.

On the other hand, we learn that a despatch had arrived at Bayonne on the 5th, signed by Captain General Nozzagarary, which states that the insurgents of Cinco, Vaillos, and Huesca, have been surprised by the Queen's troops, and that the whole have been taken prisoners both officers and men, with their arms and ammunition. The despatch is dated the 1st November.

FRANCE.

The constitution of France has now received the final sanction of the National Assembly; the Moniteur has published it officially in its entire form. The Presidential election will be a fierce contest. Every day brings a fresh confirmation of the fact that the struggle will be between General Cavaignac and Prince Louis Bonaparte only. The other candidates, if any of their names are pressed forward to the voting urn, will be merely the nominees of certain factions or coteries, whilst the Orleanists and Legitimists, having refrained from putting forth a candidate, leaves the field open exclusively to the respective supporters of the General and the Prince. Nothing has occurred to alter our opinion that the Bonaparte will be elected by a sufficient, if not a vast majority. In fact, it is only the Government influence which Cavaignac holds in his hands that can enable him to make head against his opponent. He has dispatched emissaries to the departments to secure his election, and no fewer than 112 members of the National Assembly have applied for leave of absence, with a view to proceed as secret commissioners for the same object. The party of M. Thiers expresses open distrust of both candidates.

The Reforme, of the 9th, mentions without reserve that the house of Rothschild is winding up affairs. A rumour to this effect has been in circulation for some days previously.

In a Paris paper it is alleged as a crime against Louis Napoleon, that he acted as special constable in London during the Chartist agitation. A copy of the constable's warrant taken from the police registry of St. James's, London, has been procured, and is receiving general publication.

ITALY.

Some insurrectionary movements have occurred in Upper Italy, and the Turin journals speak of advantages obtained by the insurgents over detachments of Austrian troops;—but these reports do not appear to rest on any certain foundation.

CRITICS AT FAULT.—The editor of the Literary Gazette says, "The expression, the two first, is unquestionably erroneous, if not ungrammatical. There can be no two firsts: The Glasgow Chronicle quotes this grammar usage, and clenches it thus: 'Yet no error is more common, even in writings of the best authors:—If so, we may ask, can there be more than one best author? But we humbly submit that both our brethren are probably wrong. Just let them suppose that Mr. Jones and Mr. Smith head a procession marching two abreast—that Mr. Thompson and Mr. Williams bring up the rear—and then tell us whether Messrs. Jones and Smith are not the two first; and Messrs. Thompson and Williams the two last.'"

All men are endowed with certain inalienable rights—except poor men. All men who do not pay their honest debts are great scamps—except those who cheat on a large scale. All men are born free and equal—except Negroes. All men are great sinners—except those who belong to the church. All men are allowed to think and act freely—except those who work for a living. All well-dressed and accomplished women are ladies—except factory girls.

FROM PAPERS BY THE CAMBRIA.
COMMERCIAL.

A steadier and more confident tone begins to pervade commercial circles; business affairs have therefore, been in a much more favourable position during the past week. Money is more abundant than it was. The reduction made by the directors of the Bank of England of the rate of discount to 3 per cent., has operated beneficially. The continental advances, although not of a peaceful tenor, are nevertheless much more satisfactory than last week. Notwithstanding these facts we cannot note any improvement in the produce markets. There appears to be a readiness on the part of holders to sell low as prices are, and the markets keep plentifully supplied.

The imports of foreign Grain and Grain produce into Liverpool, London and other leading ports in the United Kingdom are increasing, and this, combined with a pretty fair quantity of home grown, keeps the markets on the whole well supplied. In the absence of speculation the trade exhibits a total want of animation buyers only purchase for the supply of immediate and pressing wants.

Both United States and Canadian Flour had a dull sale, but prices were maintained, the former being quoted at 30s. to 31s., and Canadian sweet 2s. 6d. to 2s. 6d. per cwt.

The market for Cured Provisions has been steady during the week. At Manchester the demand for Cotton Goods is not extensive, but prices, on the whole, are well maintained. There is a fine business doing in Woolen Cloths in the Yorkshire markets at about previous prices. The Hardware trade in Birmingham is rather more active.

The Money market is easy. In the British Stock market there is steadiness, and prices, although there has been some fluctuation, tend upwards. The Railway Share market is in an improving position, and has completely freed itself from that extreme depression which prevailed in the latter end of last week.

The three old steamers of the Cunard line—the Acadia, Britannia, and Calcutta—are to be sold, and to be replaced by three new vessels of equal speed and splendour as those last built.

Messrs. Cunard & Co. have tendered for the carrying of the India Mails, in opposition to the present company.

The postal difficulties existing between Great Britain and the United States have been settled, and only await the formal sanction of Congress.

The Governor of Jamaica, Sir C. Grey, has quite recovered from his severe illness. Died, on the 2nd inst., at his palace in the County Down: Dr. Matt. Bishop of down and Connor, and Dromore.

The officers of Customs at Kircudbright have seized the Mary Ann Hunter, of Whitehaven, from Dithhouse, while unloading timber at Kircudbright; tobacco having been found concealed in different parts of her hull and flooring.

Charles Dickens has announced a new five shillings book for Christmas. It is to be entitled, "The Haunted Man, and the Ghost's Bargain; a Fable for Christmas Time."

Lord Middleton a peer of rather eccentric habits committed suicide, on the 4th instant, at his seat in Surrey. Death was predetermined, and the means used was the noxious fumes of charcoal. His lordship leaves no issue.

THE INDIA MAILS.—The Southampton correspondent of the Morning Herald says that Messrs. Cunard & Co. have tendered in opposition to the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, for the conveyance of the Indian mail from Southampton on the 20th of each month.

THE CHOLERA.—The Times at the conclusion of a long article on the subject of the cholera, says:—There is little more reason for believing the cholera to be an Asiatic production than a Baltic importation. It is but a modification of the ordinary results of impurity and want, and should be met with the ordinary appliances of cleanliness and cure.

The Right Rev. Dr. Mant, Bishop of Down and Connor, died on the 2d inst.—It is said that the mitre will be offered to the Rev. Dr. Sadlier, who it is supposed will be succeeded in the Provostship of Trinity College, Dublin, by the Rev. Dr. Cunningham, at present Regius Professor of Divinity in the same University.

It appears that nineteen men were killed in the ruins of the sugar-house at Glasgow, fourteen of whom were killed, and five more or less seriously injured.

PAPAL STATES.—One what serious riots occurred at Rome on the 24th ult. in consequence of an attack made by a mob on the Jews in the ghetto.

Probable Change of Ministry in England. The opinion appears to be gaining ground in England that the administration of the whigs is drawing to a close or that at all events, a fierce attack will be made upon it at the coming session of Parliament with a view to its entire overthrow. Efforts are being made to pave the way for a Ministry under the auspices of Lord Lincoln. Up to the last session his Lordship was a subordinate member of the Peel party—under the administration of Sir Robert, his Lordship had the department of Woods and Forests and together with Lord Dalhousie, was offered a place in the Whig Cabinet when Lord John Russell came into power, but declined office. It is said that the strongest effort will be made against the Grey position of the present Cabinet, and against Earl Grey himself. Sir Charles Wood and Sir George Grey, both relatives of Earl Grey, together with the numerous sons of the "governing family" scattered throughout the Colonies, will be hotly attacked.

It is upon the great question of Ireland, that the coming struggle will hinge. The question, "what is to be done for Ireland?" will be the theme of party eloquence in the House of Commons, while the mischiefs and riots in Colonial policy will for its attendant matters for following upon the attack upon the present Government.

The Overland Mail.—The last steamer from Calcutta to the 22d September, Madras to the 26th, and Bombay to the 31st October. The intelligence is unsatisfactory alike respecting the operations for Mooltan, and the general state of the Punjab. Our forces in this direction have suffered a check in consequence of the defection of the auxiliary Sikh troops. Just as the operations of Gen. Whist's Brigade had commenced in the most brilliant manner, Shere Singh, with a force of nearly 5,000 men under his command, went over to the Dewans, evidently upon a pre-arranged plan—an event which tactics to raise the siege, and having made a retrograde movement to some fifteen miles from the entrenched camp at some fifteen miles from the city, they went to await in a more favourable position, the junction of the reinforcements from Ferozepore and Scinde. Two engineer officers had since fallen into the hands of the enemy. Moreover, by Shere Singh's defection, had augmented his adherents to about 20,000 men, with the probability of a further accession of nearly as many more. Chatter Singh, the rebel leader in the Hazirah, was marching with about 10,000 men to join the Dewans; and although Gholab Singh had not more positively than heretofore gone over to the conspiracy, two of his regiments, with stores and baggage, had left to join the Hazirah Sikhs. At Lahore the features of this frontier rebellion were not less pronounced, although happily from our excellent measures of defence there the circumstances measures to ground for ultimate apprehension as to our hold upon the capital. Several other Sardars of the Durbar had been found to be implicated, and the resident, on receipt of the intelligence from Mooltan, had at once secured under a guard the person of Dhuleep Singh as a hostage. The resident had laid hands on the famous Koh-i-noor diamond, as a measure of similar precaution. Troops were being poured into Scinde by sea from Bombay, to occupy the line of the middle Indus, and to march, should their services be required upon the Punjab.

The insurrection in Ceylon has been entirely suppressed and many of the insurgents have been executed. A Cingales priest was tried by court martial and shot for appointing the Pretender a native chief concerned in the rebellion. The Rev. Mr. Ganier a Baptist missionary has been imprisoned on a suspicion of having been implicated in the rebellion. He is described as a very peaceable harmless man and entirely innocent of the charges brought against him.

THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.—The Lord Gambier, Captain Hill, a whaler, which arrived at Stromness on Monday, brings intelligence four days later than any previously received from Sir James Ross. The Lord Gambier spoke Sir James in lat. 74 deg 20 min. near a point called the Devil's Thumb, on the east side of Baffin's Bay. The Lord Gambier got across the bay to the west side on the 4th of August, and Captain Hill's expedition would cross about the middle of the same month.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW YORK.—On Saturday night last, a fire broke out in 2nd street, which consumed Murphy's stables and 118 horses. Also, the Methodist church, public school house, and several dwellings, loss $300,000—the work of an incendiary. 26 casualties and 16 sleighs were also burnt. Mr. Murphy was insured only $2500. The incendiary was chased several blocks by the watchmen.

In addition to the above, the Episcopal church of St. Barnabas, situated on the west side of 27th street, and the dwelling house adjoining it, were also burnt down before the conflagration could be got under.

GREAT FIRE—SERIOUS DISTURBANCES AMONG THE FIREMEN.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—A tremendous fire is now raging in the vicinity of the gas house, and has been all night. The Gas Works and surrounding buildings are much injured. Several thousand tons of coal are on fire. Some serious disturbances have broken out among the firemen.

Arrival of the steamship

The English Mail by the R.M. Steamship Cambria, was received here on Saturday evening. The Cambria arrived at Halifax on Wednesday last, in 11 days from Liverpool, bringing dates to the 11th inst.

We have given a summary of the news in our columns to-day.

THE CHOLERA in England, does not appear to spread very rapidly, and but few deaths were reported. It is in Scotland, however, where the disease still commits the greatest ravages. No fewer than 468 cases have occurred in Edinburgh and the vicinity up to the 8th inst. of which 243 proved fatal, 54 recovered, whilst 171 were under treatment, or the result not stated. On the 8th inst only 27 new cases were reported, whilst there were 49 on the 7th.

BUILDING SOCIETY.—On Monday evening according to previous notice, a public meeting was held in the Town Hall, when Mr. Street the Secretary of the "New Brunswick Benefit Building Society and Savings Fund," addressed the meeting, and gave a full, clear, and satisfactory explanation, of the nature and principles of the Institution, and we are pleased to learn that a sufficient number of Shares will be taken to entitle the Stockholders in St. Andrews, to a local Board. This is as it should be. Building Societies are becoming popular wherever they have been established on this Continent. The Canadian Society is rapidly spreading in numbers and usefulness, and the Net although but eleven months stated in our piece £2700, a large sum—in the wish its spirited propri-

ST ANDREWS AND QUEBEC RAILWAY.

Success to the Railway! and our enterprising townsman John Wilson, Esq. who is now probably up in his way from old England, having, as we understand, succeeded beyond a doubt in accomplishing this great and glorious scheme. It is with heartfelt pleasure that we send forth this cheering news, and point to the coming spring, as the era of brighter days for Charlotte. The sale of the stock has been effected amid railway panic and commercial depression, and it is surprising how the energies of so few as have been actually engaged in this undertaking, could, in so short a time, effect such favorable results. What a contrast does our Railway now present with its earliest days—when a few of our respected townsmen, some of them now no more, projected this great undertaking. Like a flickering light it has at times to appearance expired, but the faint flame, never extinguished, through the persevering energies and unwearied efforts of its projectors, has burst forth into noon-day brightness. We say fearlessly say that its benefits are Provincial—not confined to the "narrow gauge" of railway traffic—but bounded by the limits of "Charlotte"—but will be felt through the length and breadth of CANADA, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

On visiting the scene of operations, a day or two since, it was pleasing to observe the progress which has been made by the emigrants who are employed on the road, and the comfortable appearance of the houses, which have been fitted up under the direction of the Secretary, S.H. Whitlock, Esq., whose unwearied exertions cannot be too highly appreciated.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.—There will be a full meeting of the Executive Council at Fredericton on Wednesday next, when the time for the meeting of the Legislature will be settled and a variety of important business transacted. The vacancies in the Legislative Council will then be filled up, in all probability—New-Brunswick.
