The city council last night decided to grant leave of absence, with full pay, to City Engineer W. N. Ashplant in case he is accepted for service with the second contingent. It was printed out that several other civic bodies had taken similar action with regard to their employees who had volunteered. r Graham said Assistant Engineer H. A. Brazier had expressed a willingness to work overtime in order that the work of the department should not suffer by Mr. Ashplant's absence.

Some doubt was expressed as to whether such action on the part of the council would be binding on next year's council, but the mayor declared he believed a recent act provided that municipal bodies could enact for the fuon matters pertaining to the war, and that this would cover the point. After some discussion of details, the

Those who have been paying $6.50 to $10.00 are particularly invited to this gathering for confirmation of our own opinion that these new models are most unusually lowpriced. There is a variety of the newest trimmings to choose from, and all have been designed on the smartest of the new sailors, turbans and tams. Velvet is still the most seen, but the tam of velvet with combination crown of satin and other materials is being used to good advantage, and is now appearing prominently in the New York Exhibits. At these prices-$5.00 to $7.50-there is much satisfaction awaiting you in the millinery section this week—Second Floor.

The Newest Evening Gowns and Wraps

This week we present the second edition of the season's fashions for evening wear models, the originals of which have been designed recently in New York.

These cover the new creations, with wider skirts, semi-fitted bodices, and, in fact, every desirable new feature is noticeable to some extent in the different styles-Crepe de Chine, Ninon, Satin, Maline and Shadow Laces are combined in many unique and pretty effects. The following popular-priced models are prominent in the collection of exclusive styles:

So then do your best for one another Making life a pleasant dream, Help a worn and weary brother, Pulling hard against the stream Many a bright, good hearted fellow, Many a noble-minded man,

Finds himself in water shallow, Then assist him if you can ome succeed at every turning, Others, too the' more deserving. Have to pull against the stream. If the wird is in your favor. And you've weather'd ev'ry squall, Think of those who, luckless labor,

Never get fair wind at all. Working hard, contented, willing, Struggling thro' life's ocean wide, Not a friend and not a shilling, Pulling hard against the tide. Don't give way to foolish sorrow, Let this keep you in good cheer-Brighter days may come tomorrow. If you try and persevere; Darkest nights will have a morning

The boys displayed a wnole lot of vim in yester day's workout, and should have no rouble in going through the district without a loss being chalked up against Petrolea next Saturday. Johnnie should not have played in the game last Saturday, as his side, which was badly strained in the game in the Tunnel Town over a week ago, was not in shape, and was quite sore. However, "Mush" insisted on getting in the game, only to strain it worse than ever. The eight teams already entered are as follows: London House, Brunswick-Balkes, Allies, Cubs. Occident Club, Nationals, St. Peters, and the Marconi Club. It is also expected that a team from the Liberal Club will be entered. Tenpin bowling is quite popular in the city, and the league should develop some first-class pin-spillers.

be only a slight cold, Perhaps you start to cough, a little irritation in the throat ensues, then it gets lower down, settles on the lungs and bronchitis sets in, and you start to raise phlegm of a greenish, yellowish color, and you cough persist-

If you let the simple cold run it will surely develop into something very serious, and perhaps consumption.
On the first sign of a cold or cough go to your dealer and procure a bottle of

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

A few doses will convince you that it just the remedy you require. Mrs. J. W. Pearsons, Amherst, N. S. had a very bad cough which settled on her chest. She had no rest day or night. I gave her everything I could think of, but without doing her the least bit of good. At last I thought of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle for her. She had not taken half of it before she got relief, and with the remainder she was completely cured Now when any of the family have cough we always know what to get for

Large German Guns On Borkum Island

LONDON, Nov. 2 .- 4:55 p.m.-Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that German 42-centimetre guns have been placed on Borkum Island, in the North Sea.

Borkum Island is a small island belonging to Prussia at the mouth of the Ems. It is 60 miles southwest of Heligoland. Borkum Island is the most southerly of a string of islands that skirt the German coast from Cuxhaven to the mouth of the Ems. These with several is-lands owned by The Netherlands, imprise the Frisian group. The strategic value of Borkum Island, which is six miles in length and two miles wide, is it commands the estuary of the Ems and may perhaps be used as a submarine base and Iso in the defense of East Fries-

German submarines are know to be operating along the southern shores of the North Sea, and man islands might be valuable in the defence of their base.

Men of power and force, great in he life of the Dominion today." the peaker said, "got their start in the Epworth League." He pointed out Newton W. Rowell, leader of the Opposition, as an example of one of the best products of the league. The Epworth League, Mr. Hazen said, has developed power of leadership, worked with the spirit of evangelism, and stands for patriotism and service. War May Heln

"The League may be given a chance develoop the spirit of evangelism, prough the present war," the speaker said, declaring that men were feeling now that they could not depend on mere fortresses or social rositions, but they are feeling the need of God. "There are people praying to God, today," said Mr. Hazen, 'who never prayed before, because their sons are perhaps dead or ying on a European battlefield." urged the convention to keep up the evangelical work in the next 25 years, a greater degree than in the past.

Get After Young People. Rev. S. T. Barttlett, the general secre-ary of the Methodist Church Young 'eople's Societies, advised the delegates o keep the leagues filled with young people, and to have the executive committee of each league, composed of the young blood of the church. The older people, he said, should, however, stand hind the organization with their symthy and helpful experience. He deared the Epworth League to be the ost virile, aggressive, spiritual and erwoven into the organization in the tier with the Seventh, and who joined were aboard.

The letter was written from Salisbury Plain. Lights Masked. At night all lights were closely blanketted, and every effort was made to keep the fleet's movements under cover. The ships steamed in three lines with a crulser leading and one at the rear of each line. Ahead, on either side, and in the rear, sleuth-like cruisers scouted.

Capture German Colliers

One night the cruisers "gathered in a couple of German colliers," which were endeavoring to slip past the squadron, nobserved. Owing to the fact that the fleet included several slow moving vessels the speed was limited to about ten knots an hour. When the fleet neared the English coast, it was met by a flotilla of torpedo boats and destroyers, and several of the latest type dreadnaughts. The crews were hanging in the rigging and were cheering and waving their hands. Vessels in the harbor tooted whistles and sirens. Hearty Reception. Later, when the Canadians landed, they were accorded a hearty reception cheering multitudes. In describing the scene the writer says in part: "The girls were throwing kisses at us and believe me there were some of them pretty classy looking. It was a real welcome."

Extracts from the letter follow: "We unloaded from our boat at 4:30 hospital." 'clock, Sunday afternoon, and got or the train about 5:30. After seven hours ide we had to unload our train and march thirteen miles in full marching order to camp. We arrived just at dawn and I can assure you we were tired. Camping on Salisbury Plain.
