The New Year has brought us new inspiration, our separate departments have made great resolutions, all to one effect, to far excell in '98 the brilliant record of '97. The light of ambition has been kindled anew; all over the store there are unmistakable signs of extreme activity. Great preparations are under way; some to culminate shortly, others that will take months to perfect. But the decks must be cleared for action—present stocks are soon to be replaced with others now being manufactured, room must be made for the new goods. We have a way of fixing prices so that goods will march out quickly. Don't miss the plums while they are to be had.
