Guelph Evening Mercury

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 28, 1873.

Town and County News.

Several interesting items are crowded out of our columns this morning by the Y. M. C. A. report.

RETURNED.—Captain McBride, who has been in Manitoba, reached Collingwood yesterday, and is expected in Guelph to-day.

EARLY.—The six o'clock service of the Y. M. C. A. Convention this morning was attended by a large number of delegates and others.

SPORTING.—Mr. John Haver's b. m. Lady Coulson, and Mr. Geo. Wood's g. m. White Rose trot a match to-morrow afternoon for a purse of $40, on the race course; the conditions being that Lady Coulson must beat her antagonist by eighty yards or lose the race.

SOCIAL.—The friends in connection with the Congregational Church have invited the delegates present at the Convention, also the members of the Guelph Y. M. C. A., to a social gathering in the basement of the Congregational Church this (Thursday) evening at 6:30. Tickets of Admission may be obtained from Mr. T. J. Wilkie.

THE EXCURSION YESTERDAY.—About a hundred people left Guelph by the Great Western Railway trip to Niagara Falls yesterday. Ballen went through his ropewalking performances as announced, but a gentleman who went on the trip says there is considerable humbug about the drop into the river, as Ballen has some contrivance in the shape of an elastic rope or band, to which he holds on until within a few feet of the water.

KIND WORDS.—We have just received a marvellously low priced book from Mr. Day. It is volume two of Kind Words, a well illustrated and interesting book of fiction and fact for young people, bound in a showy cover. The price is only fifty cents, whilst the numbers themselves before being bound cost 90c. Mr. Day has just received a case of these books, and such an excellent collection of stories, etc., at so low a price ought to "go off like hot cakes."

Reported Accident to Mr. Jas. Massie.
A somewhat sensational paragraph appeared in yesterday's Herald, stating that Mr. Jas. Massie had been thrown from his buggy about seven miles north of Arthur village on the Owen Sound Road, and adding—"His injuries are of such a nature that upon arrival at Arthur, late in the evening, he had to be assisted from the vehicle. He complains of a great deal of pain across the back, and stands erect with great difficulty. The horses continued their mad career, leaving the buggy in fragments along the road, and disappearing nobody knows where."

The following telegram was this morning received from Mr. Massie in relation to the affair:—"MOUNT FOREST, Aug. 27. "To Massie, Patterson & Co., "Contradict The Herald's statement. Nothing serious has occurred. Will be able to continue trip to-morrow."
—J. MASSIE."

Delegates attending the Y. M. C. A. will be allowed 20 per cent. discount on all purchases made at Day's Bookstore.

AN-THOT JARS.—All the best kind, at John A. Wood's.

CAMP MEETING.—A Wesleyan Methodist camp meeting will be commenced on the 12th of September, in the bush about a mile east of Durham's station.

CREAM CROCKS, milk pans, butter firkins, prints, spoons, cards and ladles, at John A. Wood's.

CAPIZED IN THE BAY.—An unusually large number of persons were capized in Toronto last week, and one of the escarpes from drowning was almost miraculous.

Large wooden bowls, extra size, not liable to split, at John A. Wood's.

DR. MACKAY, an Old Country lecturer, has been saying that there are some towns in Canada where the Highland dress is adopted. Not to put too fine a point upon it, Dr. Mackay, in the language of one of the bards of his country, is "like the dew on the gowan-lyng."

The enthusiastic Caledonian who should denounce the "garb of old Gaul" in this country, would have a rough time of it. In the summer he would be eaten up by mosquitoes, and in winter he would be "kilt entirely."

Clover and timothy seed for fall sowing at John A. Wood's.

JOHN ANDERSON requests us to say that any of the Y. M. C. A. delegates in town can make purchases at his store cheap, on stating the fact. They can also examine his bookshelves free during their stay in Town.

St. Catharines newspapers and clergymen have been having some discussion because the canal was allowed to be worked last Sunday in order to clear off the accumulation of vessels caused by the Merriton accident. The Times denounces the Sabbath-breaking in unmeasured terms, whilst The Daily News says—"There was probably less Sabbath desecration by allowing the vessels to move on, than if they had spent Sunday idling at the ports."

Henry Thompson, of St. Vincent, has been fined $6.65, including costs, for unnecessarily shooting a dog, the property of Thomas Latourall. It was pleaded that the dog had a year or two ago bitten the defendant.

A petrified human foot has been found on the upper Ottawa.

Young Men's Christian Association.

Sixth Annual Convention.

The sixth annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec commenced shortly after two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, in the Congregational Church, Guelph. Some delay of the train from the east, bearing a large number of delegates, detained the opening of business for half an hour, which was improved by holding devotional exercises, participated in by Mr. Wilkie, General Secretary of the Toronto Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Sinclair, General Secretary of the Hamilton Association, and others. At about 3 p. m., the retiring President, Mr. Anderson, of Toronto, having arrived he took the chair, and called upon the Rev. Mr. Manchie, pastor of the Congregational Church, to lead the devotional exercises. After singing, reading the 2nd chap. of the Acts to 21st v., and prayer, Mr. J. R. Robinson, of London, was appointed Secretary pro tem. There were between 40 and 50 delegates present.

RETIRING PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.
Mr. Anderson, the retiring President, read his address, which was full of Christian earnestness and of sympathy for Y. M. C. A. Associations. He said circumstances had prevented the brethren in Toronto from doing what they would like to have done in the Christian work, but that Hamilton had come up nobly to their assistance. What was the object and aim of these gatherings? They came together to be refreshed from on High, and to pray for Divine inspiration. They needed instruction. How should we learn to carry on the Christian work, but by such a gathering as this? It must be borne in mind that the Y. M. C. A. was not a modern institution, having only just reached its majority on this continent. Even yet some Christian ministers were only partial in favor of Y. M. C. A. Associations, as something in which the super-fervor of young men might be rubbed off; but the work of these Associations, was one of the noblest in which they could be engaged—to direct the minds of the young and to bring them to Jesus. In this annual gathering they met to have their faith strengthened, and the cause was worthy of the best powers of young men. It devolved upon them to be ready to do so, by an ever increasing crowd of spectators, until brought to a close at 7:25 p. m.

THE WELCOME MEETING.
This meeting was held in the Wesleyan Church, as announced, and was largely attended, the body of the Church being full, and a few in the gallery. Dr. McGuire, the newly elected President, occupied the chair. Rev. Mr. Howard, pastor of the church, led the devotional exercises. Rev. W. F. Clark reading the 19th Psalm. There were also on the Rev. Messrs. Mullan, of Fergus; Moxon, of Toronto; Dr. Hogg, of Guelph; Wardrop, of Guelph; Sheriff Thomas, and Mr. Young, of Hamilton; R. C. Morse of New York; Wilkie, of Toronto; Patterson, of Montreal, and Wm. Stevenson, of Guelph.

The Chairman in a few brief remarks alluded to the presence of Mr. Morse, of New York, and called upon Rev. Mr. Wardrop.

Mr. Wardrop said he was highly pleased to extend a cordial and hearty welcome to the delegates from the various parts of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, and to the representatives from the United States, on behalf of the Association; the ministers, and the citizens of the town of Guelph.

It had been noted that no town was better supplied with churches than Guelph was—all of which were placed at the service of the Convention. They felt a deep interest in the work of the Convention. They required inspiration and instruction, and the presence of men at these Conventions. If the Convention were to come again the churches would be placed at their service. They all united with him in extending a hearty welcome to Mr. Morse, of New York.

Mr. Wm. Stevenson extended to the Convention a hearty welcome on behalf of the town and the ladies of the town. The ladies had held a number of bazaar meetings on behalf of the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Mr. Moxon, of Toronto, replied on behalf of the delegates to the Convention. Never addressed any meeting without feeling some diffidence, and much out of feeling on occasion; but if anything could remove that diffidence, it was the hearty welcome given to them on this occasion. At last Convention they thought the Guelph delegates were taking upon themselves too much in offering to hold the Convention here, but they had more than redeemed their pledge. Y. M. C. A.'s were going to be a power for good upon this continent. They had not come here to boast, but to work for Christ, and to take sweet counsel together. He asked the people to give to the Association their sympathy and their prayers. Young men were liable to make mistakes, but the people should assist them with their counsel. He had been taking a view from the top of the hill of Guelph: He noticed its flourishing condition, the number of houses around—and he thought of the number of young men in those dwellings, and how they needed the wise sympathy of faithful Christians. If they wished the town to be blessed, let them persuade their young men to join their Association. No church need be jealous of Y. M. C. A.'s, as none were kept out of church by them.

Mr. R. C. Morse, of New York, replied. He alluded to the cordial welcome he had received. The first time he touched Canadian soil was last week, and his welcome was a rough one, as the ship he was on was beached; but they all got off safely, and the first word of enquiry he heard was after his welfare, from the lips of a stranger. He spoke of his cordial receptions in Montreal and Quebec, and of the yet more cordial welcome he had just received, and proceeded to give an interesting account of Y. M. C. A. work in the United States. They had held 180 Conventions within six years. Their mission was the ingathering to the churches of such as should be saved. After a little while they would all receive another welcome—the welcome of the Master—"Come, ye blessed of my Father."

Rev. Mr. Mullan said that this was the first Convention he had had the pleasure of attending, and he did not know before how much he had missed by his absence. He alluded to the enterprise of our American neighbors, whether in business or religion, and remarked that he was a near neighbor, from the little town of Fergus, which of course hoped to be a city by-and-by. He alluded to the recent visit of the Shah to London, and said that he had there received a present more valuable than all his diamonds—the Holy Bible. He hoped that the Convention would leave behind them, as a result of their three days' visit, that they were earnest Christian workers in this goodly land. We should love infinitely better than all else our beloved Master. To win the battle young men must work in unity, and work for Christ. The union features were beautifully illustrated by him, he said every little fish had its own little puddle when the tide was out, but when it came in it was one grand flood. So with the Christian work, when we had an out-pouring of the Holy Spirit all minor differences were swallowed up.

Mr. Patterson, of Montreal, said last year only three persons were at the Convention, but this year there was only one representative of the Province of Quebec—himself. There were but three associations in that Province. At the Convention in Poughkeepsie he had learned some new ideas, and had come here to get more. He mentioned a terse remark that he had heard—that "the profane Christian was the sinner's bible." He had come here to do good and to get good. He returned his sincere thanks on behalf of the Province of Quebec, and of the Montreal Association.

The Choir of the Wesleyan Church executed several pieces in their well known able manner. A collection was taken up. Mr. Wilkie read 2nd report of the business Committee. Meeting to commence at 9:30 on Thursday morning. He gave notice of the social this (Thursday) evening, in the Congregational Church, and said the Toronto ladies' bazaar for Y. M. C. A. had realized $7,000. All the meetings open to the public.

THURSDAY MORNING'S SESSION.
Proceedings commenced at 9:30 a.m. by devotional exercises, conducted by Mr. Cromer, of Fergus, and Rev. Mr. Henderson. Minutes were read, amended, and adopted.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF ONTARIO.
The Secretary, Mr. Wilkie, read the report of this Committee. Thirty Association are known to be working in this Province and three in Quebec, being an increase of ten over last year. One association had been revived—that was in London. It was remarked that many were leaving a live association carried with them the desire to labor for the Master. The report discussed the causes that operate for and against the working of associations. The Convention for 1874 will be held in Montreal. Funds $205 51; still due $75. Report adopted.

AUDITORS.—Mr. Copeland, of Port Hope, and Mr. Osborne, of Belleville, were appointed.

The Business Committee retired to prepare for the afternoon session, and a five minutes' intermission was had.

REPORTS OF ASSOCIATIONS.
The reports of the working of various Associations were then taken up, and reports presented from Bowmanville, Ingersoll, Galt, Guelph, Hamilton and Montreal. We shall give these to-morrow.

DISCUSSIONS.
The first topic for discussion was taken up, viz.: "The Work of Organizing Associations—How can it be best prosecuted?" and speeches were made on the subject by Messrs. Morse, of New York, Watt, of Trenton; Sinclair, of Hamilton; Rogerson, of Walkerton; and Rev. John Wood, of Brantford. We hold over our report of the discussion.

The Convention adjourned at noon, to meet at two o'clock. They will adjourn again at 5:30 p.m., and the business meetings will be resumed to-morrow morning. To-night the delegates and local Y. M. C. A. members are entertained by the ladies of the Congregational Church.

ONE of the many capital punishments in use under the Chinese criminal code is that of deprivation of sleep, which generally proves fatal in about ten days. Five foolish young Belgians lately had a wager that they would remain awake seven days. They arranged the employment of their time in the following manner: The night was spent in dancing and drinking quantities of coffee; during the day they made fives or shot at a mark, taking coffee every half-hour. One of these young men won the wager, and lost twenty-five pounds in weight; two fell asleep after remaining awake 180 hours; one was seized with inflammation of the lungs; the fifth was overcome with slumber while on horseback, fell and broke his arm, and thus ended this very unnecessary ordeal.

Grip is getting profane. This is a con. of his.—Why was the beaver chosen as the national emblem of Canada? On account of the damning propensities of the natives.—"Why is Sir John A.'s proroguing Parliament like a devilled turkey's leg? Because, instead of getting into a stew, he's done Brown."—"What is the difference between the Pacific Railway Charter and a cross cock's gridiron? The first gives a hold to scandal, and the second gives a scold a handle."

A RARE PHENOMENON.—On Tuesday two gentlemen who were shooting in Kildonan east, Manitoba, were eyewitnesses of a rare phenomenon. A circular swaying of the grass on the plains gave token that a whirlwind of no ordinary vigor was in progress. The whirlwind proceeded slowly in a southerly direction until it reached a point at which a considerable quantity of newly cut hay was lying. The hay was caught and whirled upwards to a considerable height, where it assumed the appearance of an immense tent inverted, the bottom being compressed to a narrow point, at an elevation of perhaps one hundred feet, while the top was blown about loosely, giving it the appearance of heavy foliage agitated by the wind. The body of hay, thus suspended in the air, remained intact for about ten minutes, when apparently the whirlwind subsided, and the hay was precipitated to its original level after an aerial removal of half a mile. What shall we call it—a hay-spout?

INDIAN BASKETS for Fruit and Vegetables, wholesale and retail, at John A. Wood's.

Mr. Blake, M. P., reached London about six on Tuesday night, and was met at the Great Western Railway station by a number of prominent Reformers of the city.

It is thought by many at Montreal that there can be no real objection to Hon. John Young continuing to hold his seat in Parliament, retaining at the same time the office of flour inspector, and in accordance with the advice of his friends, Mr. Young has fully resolved not to resign his seat but will leave to Parliament the decision of the question.—So says the Globe's Montreal correspondent.

THE WAY THEY DO IT.—The Ottawa Times blows a great flourish of trumpets over the Ministerial victories in Montreal, but carefully avoids any allusion to the fact of there having been two Reform candidates. Even its telegrams announcing the result of the election have no reference to the fact. These poor attempts to hoodwink the public won't answer.

THE HAMILTON TIMES says that although the party split kept hundreds of Reformers away from the polls—as they could see no use in spending their time over a hopeless cause—yet the Ministry, which last year was condemned in West Montreal by a majority of 816, was this year condemned by one of 996.

BY TELEGRAPH Cattle Drowned.

A Defaulting Treasurer. Pugnacious Ironclads. Affairs in Carthage. Mutinous.

Shreveport, La., August 27.—Last night the steamer Ruby, with 182 head of cattle aboard, bound for New Orleans, swamped here. The boat is a total loss. One hundred cattle were drowned.

New York, Aug. 27.—It is stated that it was discovered in Brooklyn to-night that a large amount of city securities cannot be found. It is understood that Assistant Treasurer Rodman speculated with the funds, and the securities were absorbed gradually. The City Treasurer is responsible, and his bondsmen will make the loss good.

Madrid, August 27.—A despatch from Alicante to-day says: The insurgent iron clad frigates Numancia and Mendez Nunez left Carthage harbor on Sunday last, and proceeded to the offing to attack the Spanish Republican fleet under command of Admiral Labos. The Government vessels could not be found, and the insurgent squadron returned to Carthage. The Numancia and Mendez Nunez are now posted at the entrance of the harbor, with steam up, ready for immediate action.

Vice-Admiral Sir Hastings Yelverton, commander of the British Mediterranean squadron, still retains possession of the Intransigente vessels, Victoria and Almona, which were captured off Malaga.

The Intransigentes in Carthage are very resolute, and are rendering the place impregnable. Their only danger is from internal discord. The members of the moderate party have requested the foreign consuls to obtain an amnesty for them from the Madrid Government.

Carthage is completely invested on the land side by the Republican troops under General Martinez Campos.

It is reported that a mutinous spirit prevails in the squadron under Admiral Labos.

Vienna, Aug. 25.—Of 30,000 medals awarded to exhibitors at the exposition 400 go to America.

The Death of Daniel Mayne.

The adjourned inquest on the body of Daniel Mayne was concluded at the jail last night (Wednesday), when the following evidence was taken:—

John Grose, magistrate, of Peel, before whom deceased laid information, said that he was then bleeding from a scar on the side of the bridge of the nose. Deceased thought Smith had struck him with a stone, but would not swear to it at the trial. Smith admitted that he struck Mayne; said he was provoked to it by Mayne's threats, and admitted having picked up a stone, but said he threw it away again before striking Mayne. Witness did not think it likely such a scar would be made with the fist only, though it was possible. Smith said that he must have done it with his thumb nail. Mayne was a quiet, inoffensive man, and was sober on the 5th of August; he had never shown any symptoms of insanity before then to witness's knowledge. The witness also believed Smith to be a quiet, inoffensive man, with the exception that some years ago he was brought before witness and fined for striking one Bernard McNaughton with a stone. Mayne denied that he threatened Smith, and gave as his reason for getting off his horse, that he was afraid of being thrown and dragged on the ground if he were struck with the stone which Smith picked up. Mayne admitted having charged Smith with forging his name to a Separate School Bill.

Dr. Herod gave evidence as to the result of the post mortem examination. He found the body thin and much emaciated, showing signs that he had suffered from disease prior to his death. The only external marks of violence were slight abrasions of the point of the nose and corner of the left eyebrow, which had the appearance of having been rubbed so as to destroy the skin, and had been caused recently, prior to death.—There was also a slight discoloration on the right side of the brow, which had the appearance of having existed for some time. On removing the scalp, found the right and left side of it, inclining to the centre of the forehead, in a confused condition. Under the layers of the scalp was dark, coagulated blood, which on the right side corresponded to the discolored contusion and mark on the outside of the scalp. This condition of the scalp had evidently existed some time before death, and had been produced by a blow or violence of some kind. On removal of the skull-cap, the dura mater (the membrane covering the brain), was found to be so strongly adherent to the skull on the right and left sides of the frontal bone that it had to be torn off; this was in the place which corresponded to the contused portion of the scalp and the external bruise. Inflammation had evidently existed for some time before death, and witness thought it was produced by the same cause as was the contusion of the scalp. Between the membrane and the brain there was a large quantity of serous fluid, about two ounces. The vessels were engorged with blood, and lymph was diffused all over the hemispheres of the brain, especially the right hemisphere. The ventricles were empty and in a normal condition, and the other portions of the brain healthy. On opening the chest, found the lungs spongy and crepitant; the heart healthy; stomach dark colored, and vessels engorged; stomach empty, except a large quantity of mucus; liver, spleen, kidneys, &c., healthy; pericardium and omentum dark and congested; intestines very dark, showing the existence of great congestion. The lower portion of the recti muscles had the appearance of having been bruised, probably from his striking himself with handcuffs, which he had worn a short time. Witness considered the cause of death to be cerebral meningitis. Meningitis may arise from excitement, from exposure to cold, or from a blow. A blow is a common and frequent cause. Did not think a blow on the bridge of the nose would cause the condition found. A blow delivered on the root of the nose, given by the fist or a stone in the fist, would also strike the frontal bone. In his opinion the blow which produced the contusion over the frontal bone was produced by a direct blow upon the parietal themselves.

To a juror.—The blows might have been received while Mayne was in the delirious state mentioned.

Dr. Wallace, of Alma, saw Mayne on Sunday, two days after the row; Mayne was under the influence of liquor; his eyes were slightly blackened; saw no other injury; called on the 13th, found him in an excited state; he had been restless, sleepless, talkative, and showed all the signs of mania; there was then an abrasion of the nose, and no mark above the eyes; next day he was wild and uncomfortable, and a certificate was given to commit him as a dangerous lunatic; a blow on the nose would not produce the symptoms he presented; a blow on the head might cause meningitis, though it is rather an uncommon result of a blow. To a juror.—Believed Mayne's insanity was the result of excitement; his temperament was excitable, and he was quite wild when he took liquor; examined carefully on the 13th, but saw no mark above the eyes; thought he must have seen it if there.

Dr. G. T. Orton, Fergus, said that he was called in to consult with Dr. Wallace on the 14th. Examined Mayne, who was tied down with ropes, straggling violently, and talking wildly. Saw an abrasion on the right side of the nose, which seemed as if recently rubbed, and noticed a slight blackness under the eyes; examined his head carefully, but could find no other abrasion or bruise. Thought the case was one of acute mania, caused by trouble of the mind on religious matters, aggravated by the quarrel with Smith, causing probably, excessive congestion of the brain. Witness's reasons for this opinion were that Mayne had not the hot skin, suffused eyes, and slow strong pulse generally found in acute inflammation resulting from an injury, as well as from the fact that there was no evidence of lesion or concussion of the brain so far as witness could learn, no rupture of any vessel or fracture of cranium, and no mark of a bruise above the eyes. A blow on the bridge of the nose would not produce inflammation of the brain or its membranes; a blow over the frontal bone seldom or never without some lesion produces such inflammation. It was possible, but very unusual for a blow to produce fracture of the skull without leaving an outside mark, if the blow was with or against a broad surface. Meningitis caused by a blow would almost always be accompanied by some lesion of the membranes, such as rupture of the dura mater or the adjacent vessels.

Michael Kirby and John Kirby, who were working in an adjacent field when the row occurred, deposed that they were too far off to see clearly what took place.

In Patrick Mayne's evidence on Monday, he stated that deceased was generally a sober and steady man, and had never shown any symptoms of insanity before the affair with Smith; none of his family had been insane; had never known deceased to complain of any pain in his head. Wm. Smith was not a quarrelsome man, and witness had never known him to strike deceased.

After about half an hour's deliberation the jury brought in a verdict to the effect that Daniel Mayne came to his death through meningitis of the brain, but that the producing cause of the said disease was your jurors are unable to decide.

The proceedings did not terminate until one o'clock in the morning.

The Reason Why.

The reason why the magnificent Retail Grocery Establishments in the Alma Block and on Lower Wyndham Street, belonging to John A. Wood, are so very popular with the intelligent public:—

Because the Goods are all of the best quality. Because the Prices are invariably the lowest. Because the Clerks are courteous and obliging. Because the Stock is the largest to select from. Because the goods are always clean. Because the Weights and Measures are always correct.

Because, in fact, the proprietor understands his business, desires to please his customers, makes good use of his capital, and buys for cash in the best markets, and always deals liberally with those who honor his stores with their custom.—These and many other weighty reasons have contributed very largely to make the name of John A. Wood, as connected with the Grocery trade of Guelph, so well known, and his stores so very popular.

OR THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

A WILD BEWILDERING HOPE BURSTS ON PHILIP WESTON—HE AND JIM TAKE A JOURNEY AND MAKE DISCOVERIES.

Smoothing out the folds, he handed the envelope to the postmaster, that he might read the address, hardly hoping, however, that either the name or the hand-writing would produce on the latter any noticeable effect.

"I remember this quite well. I have reason to do so, for the circumstances connected with the posting of it were such as to impress it on my recollection."

"Ha!" cried Philip, "and what were these?" "Why, one, and the most important to me, was that after it was posted it was demanded back again, and I refused to give it, which of course, gentlemen, you know I was bound to do, for the moment a letter is dropped into the slip outside it is the property of the Postmaster-General, and can be delivered only to the person to whom it is addressed."

"True, true; but why was it demanded back, and by whom?"

"Not by the party who posted it—though, indeed, that would have made no difference—but by the man who had her in charge. It was quite natural for him to wish it back. I could easily understand that, though I could not see why he should have become so furious because I would not give it, seeing that it could do no harm to the party to whom it was addressed. Have I not been right, and does your coming here point to anything important?"

"Tell me first," exclaimed Philip, breathlessly—"tell me why you thought it could do no harm?"

"Because it was written by a poor, insane girl, whose ravings need have been heeded by no one."

"How know you?"

"Because I saw her."

"Saw her—where?"

"On the street close to my window. It was a sad thing, gentlemen, to see such a young and beautiful girl, the victim of reason, and under such a pitiful delusion. My heart bled for her, and all who saw her were filled with compassion. But, alas, we could do nothing."

"For God's sake, tell me all about this," said Philip, in a tone of agony, and with an excitement which he vainly sought to suppress. "If you only know the cause I have to seek to know the truth you would not keep me a moment in suspense. Quick, as you are a man—quick, and tell me all."

"Bless you, sir, I know very little, but what little I do know you are welcome to have. On the morning of the 13th October—I would not have known the date so exact if I had not seen it on this envelope—neighbor Brooks, the grocer, and I were standing talking outside just after opening our shops, when we saw a young girl flying along the road towards the village, in a wild and frantic state. She was bare-headed and thinly clad, and seemed to have been wandering all night in the rain, for her clothes were wet and stained with mire. A little way behind her was a cart rattling on at full speed, with a man and a woman in it. They seemed to be in pursuit of the girl, and made up to her just as she was entering the Square. She rushed towards us, and besought us to save her from the man who was after her, and who just at that moment leaped from the van and seized her. She struggled with him, and as he was rough with her we were going to interfere when he told us that was insane, and had made her escape from his keeping the night before."

The feet and hands were tied together tightly with a piece of red-wool rope, such as is used for clothes-lines; but the knot in the rope upon the wrists was a slip one, and might have been done by himself. The occurrence has caused a sensation. Is it suicide or murder?

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protochloride of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damage, and waste, searching out and expelling morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of its wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.

LOCALS.

The match yesterday at the Bramford tournament for the prize of $110 between the Walnut Batters of that town and the Maple Leaf resulted in a brilliant victory for our boys by a score of 17 to 5. When two men were out on the 9th innings with only one run scored and the bases full, the ball was hit and lost in a ditch close by, and before it could be recovered all had come home—hence the five runs. A large number of spectators witnessed the game. Below we give

THE SCORE.

GUELPH	0	1	1	3	3	2	1	0	17
BRAMFORD	0	3	1	1	0	0	1	2	9

Runs each inning:

The game between the WALNUT BATTERS and HARD BATTERS previous to the former's match with the MAPLE LEAF resulted in favor of the WALNUT BATTERS by a score of 11 to 7—innings each:

The SR. LAWRENCE CLUB are going to have a game with the LONDON TUCUMSERS next Monday, and expect a lively game. If those TUCUMSERS can't wallop that Kingston club they ought to sell their suits.

LACROSSE.

London beat Toronto at lacrosse yesterday three straight games.

POVERTY is bad, but the worst kind of poverty is poverty of the blood; this makes a man "poor indeed," for it takes away his strength, courage and energy; but enrich the blood with its vital element, iron, by taking the Ferritin Syrup (a proteid of iron) and you will feel rich and "as good as anybody." Try it.

It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balm does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
