

ORANGE BLOSSOM BLOOM.

TWO HAPPY EVENTS AT ST. JAMES' CATHEDRAL.

The Twin Daughters of the Late Thomas Ridout Married—Various Notes About Marriage Prospects.

A fashionable wedding—and for that matter any kind of a wedding—is always looked upon with interest by the general run of humanity, and more particularly feminine humanity; but a double wedding is an event of extreme interest to all. A large and fashionable assemblage of ladies and gentlemen gathered in St. James' cathedral yesterday morning to witness the nuptials of the twin daughters of the late Thomas Ridout of London, Ont., and nieces of Mr. J. D. Ridout of 86 Wellington street. Miss Jessie and Mr. William Kersteman, jr., manager of the West of England Loan company were the happy couple.

The party then drove to the residence of Mr. Ridout, where the wedding breakfast was partaken of. Among the invited guests present were—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ridout, Mr. and Mrs. Kersteman, the lord bishop of Toronto and Mrs. Sweetman, Rev. John and Mrs. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. the Misses Todd, Mr. and Mrs. John Ridout, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Kersteman, Miss Kersteman, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ridout, Mrs. Pennington, Mr. Barlow Cumberland, the Misses Cumberland, Mrs. Skae, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason, Miss Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Vickers, Mr. and Mrs. Magrath, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cassels, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Darling, Dr. Mrs. and the Misses Thorburn, Mr. and Mrs. George Ridout, Mr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Holland, Miss Garland, Miss Strath, Mr. G. Cassels, and Mr. P. Ridout.

How to propose. A lady correspondent gives the following instructive hints on the all-important subject of popping the question:—"Never propose to a girl who has been out during the day or evening before with another man. Women have not the versatility of men and cannot as easily turn from one object to another. Never propose to a woman who has recently rejected some one else. Woman is naturally sympathetic, and in refusing proffered love she instinctively seeks to avoid a similar fate for herself to a almost unconsciously. She should then be carefully watched until the rejection takes place, and then she should be given attention to a declaration. If she has been engaged and the relation has been dissolved, the lover may even a little carelessly in the solace of suffering humanity, only about 100 patients a year, die or a mortality very little exceeding that of the entire population of the city of Toronto. Medical men are ever noted for their philanthropy and the faculty of this city does not fall behind in this respect.

September promises to yield an immense crop of weddings. A young brewer of Toronto will lead one of the fair maids of Port Hope to the altar in a few days. When there is a wedding on, the bank clerks and even the bank managers book out to see the ceremony. There was a double wedding yesterday but a triple one is promised in the family of a well-known city brewer. To-day the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. McKerrich (a brother of the mayor) and Miss Varrick will take place at the cathedral. The junior professor of University college has just set a good example to the older and other bachelor professors in that institution.

THE JUNIOR PROFESSOR OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE HAS JUST SET A GOOD EXAMPLE TO THE OLDER AND OTHER BACHELOR PROFESSORS IN THAT INSTITUTION. "I thought they were going to bring home dukes for husbands" said a gentleman as he caught sight of two fair walkers on King street yesterday just returned from abroad. The girls came to the cathedral with a wedding in hand and how many pretty ones go to the church. There were three hundred girls that would make handsomely dressed brides in St. James' cathedral yesterday.

THE GENERAL HOSPITAL.

Another Letter From an Ex-Patient—Cost of Treatment—A Word "Truth"—The Several Wards—The Resident Doctors—The Visiting and Consulting Staff—Concluding Remarks.

Since the publication of my last letter an enquiry has been sent to The World office asking what fees are charged for the provision of all the attention and good care described. This is a very important query and I hasten to answer it. Of course the pauper patient has to pay nothing so far as he is concerned, but the city or county council, upon whose requisition he enters, pays about $3 a week. The charge for a private ward is either $5 or $8 a week according to the size of the room occupied. As a mere matter of board and lodging these figures are considerably lower than what one would have to pay in a city hotel or boarding house for inferior accommodation.

THE PARTY THEN DROVE TO THE RESIDENCE OF MR. RIDOUT, WHERE THE WEDDING BREAKFAST WAS PARTAKEN OF. AMONG THE INVITED GUESTS PRESENT WERE—MR. AND MRS. J. D. RIDOUT, MR. AND MRS. KERSTEMAN, THE LORD BISHOP OF TORONTO AND MRS. SWEETMAN, REV. JOHN AND MRS. PEARSON, MR. AND MRS. THE MASSES TODD, MR. AND MRS. JOHN RIDOUT, MR. AND MRS. WOOD, MR. AND MRS. KERSTEMAN, MISS KERSTEMAN, MR. AND MRS. W. L. RIDOUT, MRS. PENNINGTON, MR. BARLOW CUMBERLAND, THE MASSES CUMBERLAND, MRS. SKAE, MR. AND MRS. HERBERT MASON, MISS MASON, MR. AND MRS. VICKERS, MR. AND MRS. MAGRATH, MR. AND MRS. W. G. CASSELS, MR. AND MRS. WALTER DARLING, DR. MRS. AND THE MASSES THORBURN, MR. AND MRS. GEORGE RIDOUT, MR. AND MRS. MANNING, MR. AND MRS. YOUNG, MR. AND MRS. HOLLAND, MISS GARLAND, MISS STRATH, MR. G. CASSELS, AND MR. P. RIDOUT.

THEIR TRIP TO IRELAND.

Presentation of a Handsome Case to Ald. Farley—Followed by The World.

Ald. Farley and Geo. Kelly were the recipients of numerous congratulations from their friends yesterday. The have returned from a ten weeks trip to Europe, and are looking much improved after the vacation. Their party went first to Cork, then to Blarney castle (the alderman is more loquacious than ever), then to the Vale of Avonca, then to Bray, and on to the Lakes of Killarney. A party of Americans joined them, making 16 in all, and it seems they had a good time. In Dublin Parnell was made the recipient of a case and Mr. Kelly bought the mate of it and presented it to his companion. The inscription runs:

Presented to Alderman W. W. Farley of Toronto, Canada, by Geo. Kelly, their trip through Europe, Dublin, 27th July, 1892. The stick is of Irish bog oak, handsomely carved with shamrock and harp, gold inlaid and inlaid with Irish hawthorn, and makes a handsome souvenir. From Dublin the party went to Scotland, and then on to Paris where the greater part of their time was spent. They saw the sights of the gay capital and the places of interest near it, including Versailles. The World, with the other two morning papers, was sent to the party and it followed them regularly no matter where they went. Whenever their mail arrived they were a grab for The World—it is the breezy, brief and bright, just what the tourists want.

Dubrenille; directors, L. Lalonde, A. Thomas and L. B. B. A. H. McConnel who assisted the deacons in an important case, objects to two evening papers calling him a "stool-pigeon." If these reporters must use stool-pigeon, it is not by any means a man who gives a public officer information, but a person who stands in with a skin game to catch suckers.

On Monday evening Mr. John Scholes and Mr. Samo went to the latter's furniture warehouse on Yonge street to look for burglars. They were each astonished on entering the warehouse to find on the office table, a white face and tail. The intruder was a large cat, and was quite attractive in appearance. Mr. Samo was about to dispose of the sweet (?) little creature, when Mr. Scholes said he would keep it alive and name it "Samo" according to the name of the cat. Mr. Scholes' bowling alley. Then followed among the frequenters of the alley the animal of the name of the cat.

An Important Liqueur Case. The conviction of Frederick Bennett for selling liquor at Georgetown on June 16 last, contrary to the provisions of the Canada temperance act, there in force, was exhaustively reviewed before Judge Cameron yesterday morning. The police magistrate of Oakville made the conviction on July 20 last and imposed a fine of $50. A good deal of interest was felt in the case at the time, counsel from Toronto appearing before the magistrate. Objections to the conviction were taken by Mr. McCarthy, Q.C., and Mr. Fullerton for the defendants. A and Mr. Fullerton for the defendants. A and Mr. Fullerton for the defendants.

ABOUT BOYD'S RELEASE.

The Letter That Was Sent to the Central Prison Authorities.

A colored man named Boyd was committed to jail for 70 days in the early part of July. By arrangement with the central prison authorities, he was transferred to the central prison, and at the expiration of the term, he was released. Instead of being allowed his liberty, he should have been handed over to the sheriff to stand his trial for larceny. The central prison authorities say they received no orders to detain Boyd, but Governor Green sent the following letter, which was received at the central prison:

To the Warden of the Central Prison. Toronto July 2, 1892. Six—in reference to the prisoner Wm. Boyd, who is transferred to the central prison on this day, and days imprisonment on a charge of larceny, I beg to state that he is committed to jail on an order of the court, and you will not discharge him on the expiration of his present sentence, or until you receive further instructions. J. G. Green, Governor.

There was only one civil case tried before Judge Boyd in the county court yesterday. It was Charlesworth against C. H. Field of Winnipeg. When Mr. Field lived in Hamilton some time ago he purchased from Mr. Charlesworth a carriage horse for $175. The horse was sold to the defendant by the seller that the horse was gentle, kind, and easy to handle. Several witnesses, who had owned the animal, testified that it was all this, while Mr. Field and other witnesses testified that the animal was a "hard puller" and vicious. Mr. Field paid $300 for the horse, and Mr. Field paid $300 for the balance of the $175. After a lengthy trial the jury failed to agree on a verdict. Mr. Delamater for plaintiff, and Mr. McVab for defendant.
