- Tight binding may cause shadows or distortion along interior margin/La reliure serrée peut causer de l'ombre ou de la distortion le long de la marge intérieure
- Blank leaves added during restoration may appear within the text. Whenever possible, these have been omitted from filming/Il se peut que certaines pages blanches ajoutées lors d'une restauration apparaissent dans le texte, mais, lorsque cela était possible, ces pages n'ont pas été filmées.

Additional comments:/ [Printed ephemera] [4] p. There are some creases in the middle of the pages.
Commentaires supplémentaires:

L'institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CON-TINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec la plus grande soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plié et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plié, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents.
Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

READ AND REFLECT.

NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS—If the individual members of my audience would do me the favor just once, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seats and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Evenings—doors open at 7:30; curtain rises at 8:15 sharp. Matines—doors open at 1:30; curtain rises at 2:30 sharp.

Plaza opens for each attraction two days in advance.

LONDON, ONT.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732. Physicians and Surgeons registered at the Box Office. Leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

Please report to the management any disturbance on the part of the employees.

Closets, packages and umbrellas checked for a small charge.

For all lost articles apply at Box Office. Open Glasses can be rented by applying to Ushers or at Box Office.

It is the desire of the management that all persons take an interest delight in les-sing the floor with tobacco juice and in being bold in rums and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

Between the Acts.

Man (rising wearily to let late comer pass to his seat in the theater): "This eternal getting up is really annoying." Late Comer: "I know it is. That is the reason I never come in myself till the curtain is up." —Texas Siftings.

Actors are charitable. The record of their humanitarianism is wide horizone. Their giving does not restrict itself to their own kind, but is made conspicuous in every line of outgo for sweet charity's sake. The public should recognize that generosity and on all fitting occasions reciprocate it.

The editor sat on a hard bottom chair, trying to think a thought, and I he plunged all his fingers about through his hair, but not one topic they brought. He had written on temperance, tariff and trade, and the prospect o making a crop, and joked about making ice cream and weak lemonade, till his readers had told him to stop, and weary of thinking, sleep came to his eyes, and he pillowed his head on the desk, when the thoughts which awake had refused to arise, came in troops that were strong and grotesque. And as the ideas airy float, he selects the bright one of the tribe; and this is the gem which, while dreaming he wrote:—"Now is the time to subscribe." —Eaton Rapids Herald.

HELPING HIM OUT.

He was a bashful lover and had courted her long. She knew he loved her and knew that he was afraid to propose. She resolved to help him out.

"When I get married I hope to see you at my wedding," she said.

"Heavens!" he gasped, "I hoped to marry you myself."
"Well," she rejoined, as her cheeks flushed to the hue of a rosy sunset, "I meant I hoped to see you there as the groom." Then he fainted with joy.—New York Press.

Some careful person has estimated that there are 500,- 000,000 hairpins in daily use, not counting any of those of the stable man picks up the next morning on the cushions of the sleigh.—Boston Globe.

VASELINE.

EVERYBODY knows the great value of this product, but many persons, who do not know that the imitations of it, which some second class druggists dishonestly palm off on their customers, have little or no value. What should be understood by the public is, that it is not a mere question of commercial value between "Vaseline" and its imitations; but that the imitations do not effect the wonderful healing results of the world renowned "Vaseline," and that they are not the same thing nor made in the same way. Besides this, many of the imitations are harmful, irritant and not safe to use, while true Vaseline is perfectly harmless.

Perfect safety therefore lies in buying only original packages put up by and marked with our name.

Rosina Vokes

ROSINA VOKES! How many thousands have been delighted and charmed by the music of her voice, and amused by the artlessness of her manner. If it were only possible to know, no doubt, that the world has been made brighter by her living in it, for she has brought sunshine into the hearts of mankind, and taught them that, after all is said and done, "life is what we make it." Hers is not the art of the photographer nor scene painter, but the water-color artist, full of light and grace; and for old time's sake every lover of the best in art will pray that Rosina Vokes may drink deep of the perpetual fountain of youth, so that she may be permitted to show the coming generation, still in pantaloons and pinafors, what pure, high-toned comedy is.

There is in the name of this jolly little English woman something to make an old heart young; something to revive memories that have long been covered with the dust of time.

For her engagement here Miss Vokes will present one of the most charming triple bills in her very extensive repertoire. The performance will begin with "A Game of Cards," (first time here) an old comedy in one act, adapted from the French, in which Feix Morris is said to give further evidence of his remarkable skill in portraying eccentric character. This will be followed by an exquisite comedietta by Mrs. Charles Doremus, of New York, entitled "The Circus Rider," (first time here) while the concluding number on the programme will be "A Double Lesson," a comedietta in one act, by B. C. Stephenson in which Miss Vokes and Mr. Morris are seen in their happiest roles. She as Miss St. Almond, a burlesque actress and he as Primmer, an old Scotch butler.
