STRIKE COMMITTEE OF WINNIPEG CONTROLLED MAYOR GRAY ASSERTS

Alderman Queen Declared Against Constituted Authority, His Worship Stated in Evidence at Trial of Strikers — Committee Desired to Control Food by Card Rations System.

Winnipeg, July 28.—The city was practically in control of the strike committee from June 10 to 26. Mayor Charles F. Gray swears at the preliminary trial this afternoon of eight labor leaders for seditious conspiracy.

The mayor occupied the witness box at forenoon, and his examination in chief had not been completed when the court adjourned for lunch.

The salient points of his evidence were that the city was in control of the strike committee at certain times during the strike; that R. B. Russell, representing the Metal Trades Council, had admitted early in the strike that the iron masters were willing to bargain on a collective basis, and that Ald. John Queen, one of the defendants, had declared that he constituted authority in a committee meeting at the city hall.

Agreed Against Strike. The mayor first produced agreements with union employees of the city providing against strikes until May 1, 1920.

Police By Permission. Alderman Queen got up and said, "I don't want to hear constituted authority sit down."

VETERANS

Items of Interest to Returned Soldiers Will Be Printed in This Column if Phoned or Sent In.

IS THERE JUSTICE FOR THIS FAMILY?

Two Wounded, Three Killed, Mother Dies of Grief, Insurance Refused.

Can a grateful Dominion afford to consider an enlisted veteran a draftee just because he re-enlisted during the operation of the Military Service Act? This is a problem which confronts many legal minds and hope is expressed that the G. W. V. A. and the G. A. C. will both get busy and do justice to the subject of this problem, a young man who was killed at the front in 1918, a few months after re-enlisting, and whose father is seeking insurance on his account. The circumstances surrounding the history of the case are very sad, and call for the sympathy of all classes of veterans.

In 1914 the family was happy and complete. In 1918 the father had returned from the front wounded, a son died returned wounded, three sons were killed, and their mother died of grief, a sacrifice which perhaps few families in even Toronto can surpass. The son in question enlisted in 1916 at the age of sixteen. His father got him out of the army. At the end of that year the mother died, and this son again enlisted. He was killed at the front line at the age of 18. His father, sorely afflicted, is now requesting the fortunate enough to reach the great little island across the pond.

LABOR SITUATION SERIOUS PROBLEM

Five Thousand Veterans Unemployed, and Winter Prospects Clouded.

Serious is the term which is said to aptly describe the labor situation among the veterans in Toronto. 5000 of whom are under the age of 35, are out of work or likely to be before the winter has progressed very far. This was the opinion expressed yesterday afternoon by the many members of the Great War Veterans Association. While it is true that easily 4000 returned men may be out of work, it is equally true that many of these have only recently received their gratuity, and that for at least two months they may not attempt to get work. It is not believed that more than 2000 returned men are out of work for lack of employment. It is admitted, however, that such a situation at the moment of going to bed is a far more serious trouble toward the middle of winter, when it will be more difficult to procure positions for the veterans as for civilians generally.

NUMBER ONE POST FIGHTS FOR MINORS

In a resolution passed at their executive meeting at headquarters last night, Earl Kitchener Post No. 1, G. A. C., memorialized the Dominion government with respect to its action towards minors who have been discharged from the army under age and are now taking vocational training. They ask that the widowed mothers receive the separation allowance while the vets are attending the vocational schools. The post decided to give full support to the new G. A. C. Athletic Association which has recently been formed, and which is affiliated with the A. U. U. President C. Clark presided at last night's meeting.

RESIGNS FROM G.W.V.A.

Major Wilkinson of Windsor is reported to have resigned from the Great War Veterans because of disagreement as to various principles involved. He was a prominent member, and is a well-known business man of the border city.

TURLEY ON GEORGIAN BAY

Comrade W. E. Turley, provincial secretary of the G.W.V.A. for Ontario, is visiting branches in the Owen Sound district this week.

Replying to the claim of the G.A.C. as the originators of the increased bonus now included in the famous Calgary resolution, the prime minister of the Dominion has stated that the matter has been referred to the minister of militia and the D.S.C.R.

NEW AMPUTATION BADGE

WORKING OUT IDEALS

G.A.C. initiative has again been shown in the appointment of a double amputation case to the post of assistant secretary. This man has both legs amputated, yet he is able to do wonders in the line of work to which he has been appointed. He will be the second or third amputation case appointed to responsible positions under the auspices of this association. The G.A.C. has gone on record as favoring the same land settlement privileges to volunteers as to draftees. At the moment, an official of the association stated last night, volunteers who were so unfortunate as not to reach Britain are not allowed to partake of the privileges of land settlement accorded to those draftees who were fortunate enough to reach the great little island across the pond.

BROKEN BOTTLE ENTERS LUNG OF LITTLE BOY

When he stumbled while chasing bees near his home, at 201 Wallace avenue, yesterday afternoon, Nelson Fletcher, aged 8 years, fell on a piece of broken bottle, piercing one of his lungs. He was immediately taken to the Hospital for Sick Children, where his condition was reported as being fair last night. Grace McMalron, aged four years, of 517 Yonge street, was admitted to St. Michael's Hospital last night suffering from head injuries. The child was struck by a motor car at the corner of Alexander and Yonge streets. William Baylor, 146 Northcote avenue, took an epileptic fit on Coleridge street last night and in falling to the sidewalk injured his head. He sustained a scalp injury and was taken to Grace Hospital.

Those who cannot come in person to the office of the Reform Association in the Excelsior Life Building should telephone full particulars to Main 5610.

SMALL FIRE IN GOWANS-KENT

A small fire broke out on the third floor of the Gowans-Kent Company building, 14 Front street, yesterday morning. The fire started in the acid room, and when the alarm was given employees fled down the fire escape. The blaze was put out by workmen before the firemen arrived. When a motor car back-fired in the rear of 88 West Wellington street yesterday afternoon, the body of the car caught fire and was damaged to the extent of $100. The automobile is owned by Andrew Adams.

PROFERRED A BRIBE

George Crossley, convicted of selling whiskey, paid a fine of $300 and costs. He had sold a bottle to a police witness for $5.

The prisoners are alleged to have stolen the car and driving it to a mining camp near Sudbury, sold it and went on into Sudbury, where they were arrested.

To Overcome Redness, Tan, Freckles, Blotches

If your skin is unduly reddened, tanned or freckled, just dab a little pure mercurized wax on the face and allow it to remain overnight. When you wash off the wax in the morning, the sticky, almost invisible particles of cuticle come out. Repeating this daily, the entire outer skin is absorbed, but so gradually and gently, there's not the slightest hurt or inconvenience. Even the stubbornest freckles are affected. The underlying skin, which forms the new complexion, is so clear, fresh and youthful-looking you'll marvel at the transformation. It's the only thing known to actually discard an aged, faded, muddy or blotchy complexion. One ounce of mercurized wax, procurable at any drug store, is sufficient

REV. DR. BLAND CANNOT RESIGN

Progressive Pastor Will Continue to Preach Progressive Christianity.

That Rev. Dr. Bland of Broadway Methodist Tabernacle cannot request his own resignation and that none within the parish itself can accept such resignation if proffered was the statement made last night to The World and confirmed by officials of the Methodist general conference. They explained the procedure necessary in such circumstances and his circuit. If a pastor became ill, or for any other reason a pastor desired to withdraw, he would either ask the superintendent of his district to appoint a supply or himself get a supply for his pulpit. In the meantime, he would occupy the parsonage, and would continue as superintendent of his circuit. At the end of the conference year, the stationing committee would be appointed, and this committee would deal with his specific case.

In Extreme Cases. Another way of dealing with this matter was to request the superintendent of the district. In this case, Rev. George Adam of Collingwood, to appoint a supply committee, and have the appointment of a new pastor ratified at the earliest moment. Such action was taken, only in cases of extreme emergency. In these circumstances, the opinion prevails that Rev. Dr. Bland will remain pastor of Broadway Methodist Tabernacle until the next annual meeting of the conference. An official of the conference was asked what action might be taken should the congregation desire to appoint a new pastor before the other had finished his term of occupancy. "Such a contingency never arises," was the succinct reply of this dignitary.

New Psychology. Dr. Bland stated last night that the trend of Christianity today was toward real progress, and that he believed that a new psychology had entered into the movement, which was resulting in practically a rebirth within the movement, would promote all the interests of the church. Asked if he would agree at any time to the ideal of a labor church, Dr. Bland stated that if no place remained for him in the Methodist Church he might be very favorably inclined toward the idea. Paul Charbonneau, of the Metal Polishing Union himself a minister, expressed the opinion that Rev. Dr. Bland was the most outstanding exponent of progressiveness in the Methodist Church.

Differences of Opinion.

That there have been differences of opinion between Rev. Dr. Bland and his congregation, or rather a certain portion of his congregation, is evident from the fact that at a recent conference of the managers of the church with their pastor, the vote was as follows: Six for, four against, and three neutral respecting the vote. There are altogether 29 members of the board, and the session referred to was attended by 23 members.

Dr. Bland last night expressed his intention of proceeding with his course of enlightened treatment of the Christian teachings, and stated also that a large number of his congregation was behind him in his work. In fact, the future was very promising. Mr. Miles Vokes and other members of the church have taken issue with the pastor upon the teachings of the former professor of Wesley College. There the issue stands, with Mr. Vokes and a number of his followers on one side, and Rev. Dr. Bland with a large following on the other.

RECALLS MR. IVENS.

Rev. Dr. Bland is a graduate of McGill University, from which college he graduated in 1876. He has held numerous pastorates in eastern Ontario, and was professor of theology at the University of Western Ontario from 1908 to 1917. He recalls both Rev. J. S. Woodsworth and Rev. Mr. Ivens, both of whom have been prominently identified with the Winnipeg strike of recent note. Mr. Woodsworth, Dr. Bland characterizes as a man with wide vision and with much culture. Rev. Mr. Woodsworth was a graduate of Manitoba University, and also gained honors at Oxford University. Dr. Bland respects Mr. Ivens, but did not agree with many of his views, especially with that of pacifism, although he attributed the even tenor of the Winnipeg strike (which prevailed for many weeks) to the fiery standing of the clergyman leader of the strikers.

GRANDFATHER ROLLS ON SLEEPING CHILD

Mother Placed Baby in Bed Without Warning Occupant.

To roll over in his sleep and unwittingly suffocate his four-month-old granddaughter, who was sleeping at his side, was the terrible experience undergone by John Connolly at his home, 90 Markham street, yesterday. Mrs. Evelyn Miron, 118 Markham street, was anxious to do some shopping and she took the baby to the Connolly home for safe keeping while she went out.

Connolly is a night watchman and was sleeping when Mrs. Miron entered the house. She placed the baby, unknowingly to Connolly, alongside of him in the bed. Connolly rolled over onto the child, and when he awakened found the lifeless body beside him. The police of Claremont street station were notified and, along with a coroner, conducted an investigation. It was decided in view of the death having been accidental, an inquest was unnecessary.

ROBINETTE WILL NOT BE LED BY THE NOSE

"I will not be led by the nose by my clients," said T. C. Robinette in the county police court yesterday, where he appeared as counsel for the defence in a "still" case. They were placing the ice on a motor truck when Constable Beach arrested them on charges of theft, and placed them in the cells of East Dundas street station.

South Africa Calls for Dr. Chase's Ointment. This Ointment is Now Standard the World Over as the Most Effective Treatment Obtainable for Piles or Hemorrhoids.

Though well known throughout the length and breadth of this great continent for a generation, the reputation of Dr. Chase's Ointment has been enormously increased on account of its extensive use by the soldiers in the great war.

Many thousands of boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment were given away to the soldiers when they left for the front, and it was only natural that they should share it with other boys from Australia, Africa, India and the ends of the earth.

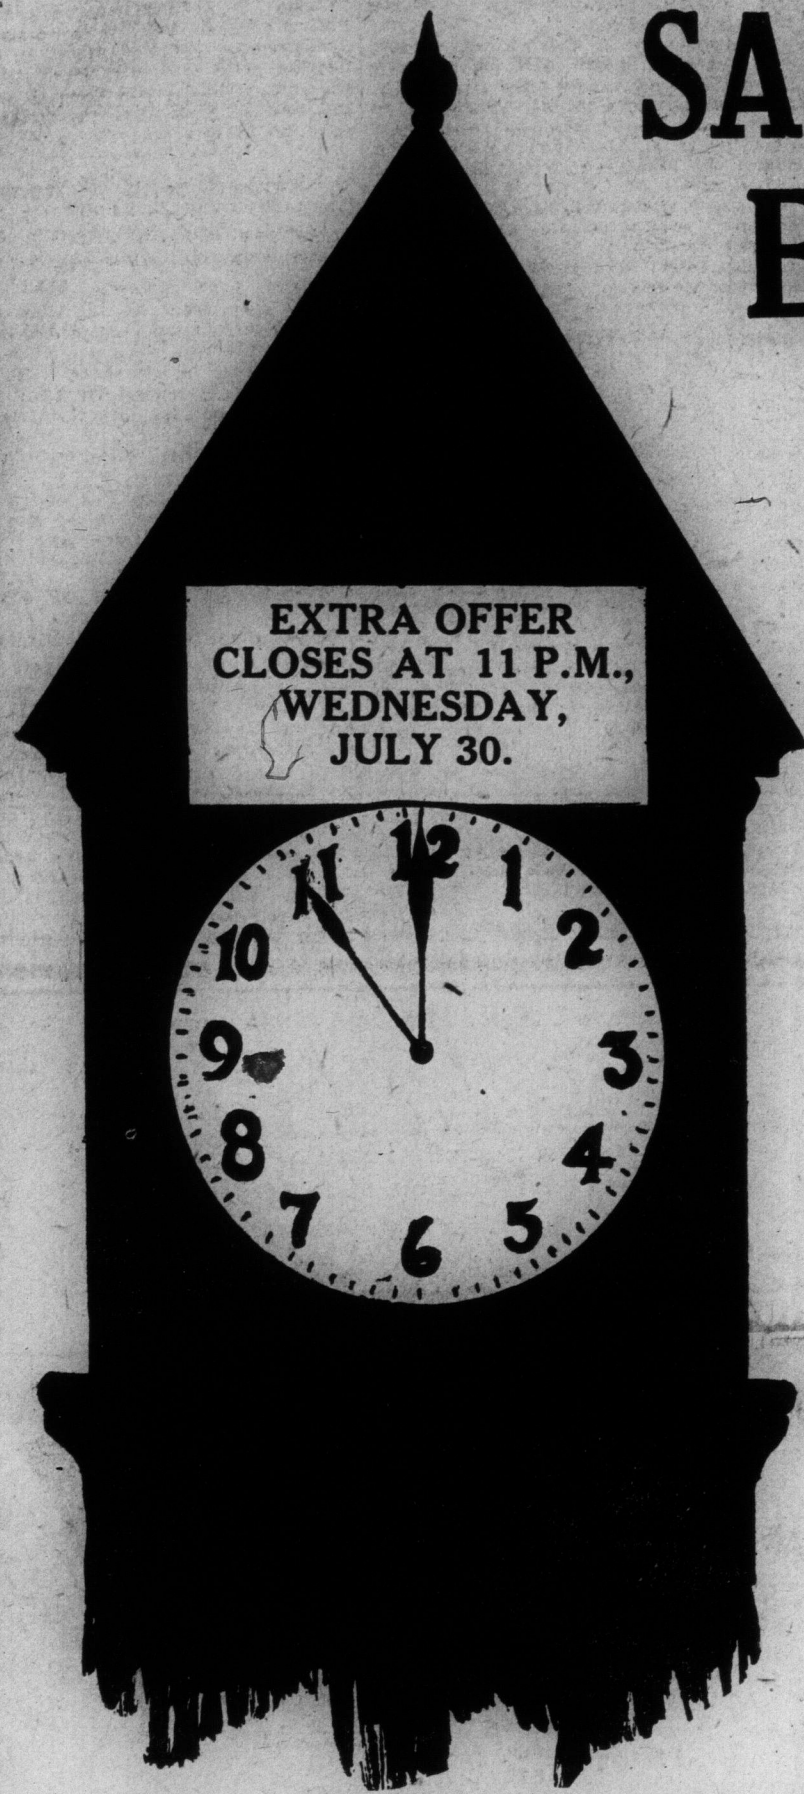

The result is many orders for Dr. Chase's Ointment from the most distant points on the globe. The following letter is from South Africa, and the illustration above is that of the draft for two pounds sterling which was enclosed:

Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto, Canada. Sirs.—Having suffered from a constriction of the bowel and piles for a considerable time, and failed to find anything which has given me any relief, I have been advised by a friend to give Dr. Chase's Ointment a fair trial. As I cannot procure it in this place, will you supply me direct, say to the value of two pounds? Enclosed find draft to that amount.

Yours truly, J. Harper.

So successful has Dr. Chase's Ointment proven in the relief of piles that it has come to be considered about the only actual cure for this annoying and torturing ailment. You have only to ask your friends about this ointment to learn with what great satisfaction it is used in the great majority of homes. 60 cents a box, family size $2.00, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

FOUNDED 1826. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 29.

Action, With a Big "A," is the One Thing Needed.

Our neighbor, The Globe, is moved to remark: The constant warfare on the trusts in the United States contrasts with the lethargy of the Canadian authorities.

The contrast is striking, but the cause is not far to seek. In the United States, where congress passes a law to regulate trade or punish combines, the law is enforced, and vigorously enforced, by officials of the federal government.

It may be asked why do not provincial attorneys-general enforce the anti-trust laws and similar enactments? We are not prepared offhand to answer, but it is a fact known to all men that such federal laws are not enforced by the provincial authorities.

The Globe, in the article from which we quote, recalls a case in Toronto, where the local crown attorney sought to break up a number of combines. He received no support from the provincial government, and there may be foundation for The Globe's charge that he was actually rebuffed for his temerity by the attorney-general.

Be that as it may, every child knows that the recent laws passed to prevent extortion and to check the high cost of living will be so much waste paper unless they are enforced by the federal government. The anti-trust law passed in the nineties, the anti-combines law of 1910, and the legislation creating a code of commerce for Canada, and forbidding illegal combinations, passed at the last session of parliament will be grouped like obsolete weapons in a museum to gratify the taste of the antiquarian in the days to come.

But the parliament which passes these laws provides no means for their enforcement. The Dominion passes the buck to the provinces. The charge will be made in parliament that Sir Robert Borden is humbugging the people. If these laws against combines and the high cost of living be sincere, why is no provision made for their enforcement? The people of this country would like to see W. F. O'Connor, K.C., put on the trail of the profiteers, with an assurance that he will not be held by any leash or caged up in case he discovers something in the public interest.

The government is constantly collecting information, but no action is taken. Everyone knows that prices are extortionate; of information on that point we have a plenty. What we want is federal enforcement of these federal laws against profiteers. One or two of these profiteers in striped suits behind prison walls would yield more influence upon the lowering of prices than all the laws ever passed by parliament.

The Globe laments the languid way in which the profiteers are pursued, but it has not a word to say for federal enforcement of federal law. It is apparently satisfied to have the Ottawa government pass the buck to the various provinces, and to have things go on in the same old way. Parliamentary lamentations do not help the situation. What the people want is action. Action with a capital "A" is the one thing needed. But it is Sir Robert Borden that should act. He has carefully hedged himself in from acting. And The Globe is a more-than-willing accomplice.

Accommodation for Exhibition Visitors.

We understand the board of control this morning is to take up the question of accommodation for visitors to the Canadian National Exhibition during the Prince of Wales' visit. Whatever the normal accommodation may be we feel sure that the tax upon it during Exhibition time will be far beyond its limits, and the Exhibition authorities are not beyond contemplating the calamity it would be to have visitors compelled to walk the streets for want of rooms.

All kinds of extra accommodation is being provided, but something more must be done. The civic information bureau, which operates during the fair, must take more active steps than usual and have wider publicity. What is needed is a register of all citizens who are willing to provide accommodation for visitors during the fair, with the charges they propose to make. This is an important matter, for the city cannot undertake to send strangers to any place to be housed. Addresses and rates should be listed at the civic bureau so that strangers in want of rooms could be directed to the accommodation, and at the rates they felt equal to.

Mayor Church and the controllers should deal with this question as of first importance. An unusual influx of visitors should be prepared for, and the reputation of the city will be affected in the degree that this business is satisfactorily managed.

The Late Allan Studholme.

Allan Studholme was the only labor candidate ever returned to the Ontario legislature. He ran what was supposed to be a hopeless election, but he had the support of The World, which believed that labor should be represented in parliament, and that Mr. Studholme was an honest and capable man.

When The World reporter first sought Mr. Studholme he was at work in the factory where he was employed. He was always to be found there during working hours, and the same devotion to duty characterized his attendance at every session of the legislature after he was elected member for East Hamilton. He worked faithfully in the public interest and was a creditable representative of labor in the legislative assembly. Having once carried his district he had no trouble in securing re-election from time to time, and East Hamilton became proud of her member. He was courteous, painstaking, and always sincerely anxious to do what was really best for the people.

Unfortunately no other labor candidate was returned to support him in the legislature and he, therefore, had to play a lone hand and sometimes came up against hopeless odds. That he accomplished less than he hoped to accomplish when he entered public life is to be regretted. On the other hand it is doubtful if anyone under the same circumstances could have accomplished more. He retained to the last not only the confidence of the working-men but the confidence of the people generally throughout the province of Ontario, who justly regarded him as a capable and honest man.

The Acid Test for Henders!

Your member of parliament is apt to forget that he is only a delegate. His constituents send him to Ottawa to present their views. They may give him a certain liberty of action, but if he is to have much influence he must have his constituents behind him. Our venerable friend, R. C. Henders, was for many years president of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association. He was during all this time a rabid free trader. Then he was sent as a member of parliament to Ottawa. When he got to Ottawa he differed with J. A. Maharg and other grain growers from the west and decided to support the government on the fiscal question.

Mr. Henders no doubt acted conscientiously and he was acclaimed by members and supporters of the government as a great man. Many of these went out of their way to shake hands with him; government organs eulogized him. There was talk of his becoming minister of agriculture. For a time Mr. Henders basked in the sunshine of popularity, in the smiles of the great, and the illusions of power. Then came the sad awakening. Mr. Henders had to give the grain growers of Manitoba an account of his stewardship. He had gone to Ottawa as a grain grower but had not carried out the views of the Grain Growers' Association of which he was president. In vain he expostulated that he wanted to win the war; that he was acting from motives of high national policy. The grain growers could only say that he had not lived up to their principles and had practically gone over to the enemy. He resigned as president and the directors accepted it on the spot.

In short, Mr. Henders could not stand the acid test. The grain growers are not behind him, and neither, we fear, are his constituents in Macdonald. Mr. Henders with the Grain Growers' Association behind him was a power at Ottawa. Mr. Henders standing alone cuts very little figure at the capital. He may have the approval of his conscience, but apparently he has not the approval of the wide constituency of farmers which he was supposed to represent, or the Grain Growers' Association of which he was president.

P.R. in Australia

Adelaide Chronicle: The question of electoral reform now narrowed down in principle, to a choice between effective voting as the instrument of the proportional representation of all majorities among electorates with the preferential vote in single electorates as a means of securing the exclusive representation of local majorities. Sir Robert Borden, with the preferential vote deny parliamentary representation to the minority of the electors, even if it numbers nearly half the constituency of the province. It probably gives false representation. On the other hand, a parliament elected on the principle of proportional representation expresses the "whole mind of the nation." It renders exact justice to the majority, neither more nor less, ensuring its rule, but gives minority parties the voice to which they are entitled, and without which parliament must cease to be a deliberative body.

BOLSHEVISM IN RUSSIA AS SEEN BY A CANADIAN

Dr. J. T. Clarke Tells of Kolchak's Army and the General Situation in Siberia.

The tragedy of general lawlessness is a very real thing in Russia, but the ordinary newspaper reader in Canada may well stand amazed if he reads the story of the late Gen. Elmsley thru Siberia and came west into the Ural, gave a representative of The World some of the most interesting details of death that now may be witnessed in any part of the former empire of the czars, a detail that is all the time changing its most ghastly characters, but that symbolizes everywhere the meaning of the mad adventure in government called Bolshevism.

Dr. Clarke has been appointed medical head of the Quebec military district, and was on his way east to take up his duties when he talked with The World, a few days back from Russia. He was asked what are the principles of Bolshevism that make the European people susceptible to its appeal? Bolshevism is Elemental.

Dr. Clarke explained the necessity of understanding in the first place that Bolshevism is not a religion, but the teachings of Rousseau in France in a period which the historically-minded find it easy to compare with the present. But the line of comparison does not stand as a matter of fact, for Bolshevism is nothing if not elemental. Bolshevism invades a town or city and dictates a soviet. It does not afford any opportunity of election, nor even the pretence of such a thing. The people are told first that whatever wealth in money they possess is available to be shared among them by the "state," and that those who have not worked in the past will be obliged to work for the state in the future. The workers of the past will have the chance to take it easy.

This appeal to the majority lies at the bottom of Bolshevism. As a result, it does not work out long. As soon as the soviet takes over a factory, each hand considers himself entitled to the greatest share of the product, if not to the highest position of control. Chaos arrives presently and certainly. Mine Operer Escaped.

Dr. Clarke gave an amusing instance of a coal mine in Siberia which was taken out of the hands of the owner who had become very rich by its operation. When the Bolsheviki arrived he was informed that his mine had been taken over for the "state." Being a sensible fellow, he acquiesced at once, and beat it for Manchuria, where his money was deposited, and he had little to fear. In two months all the mined coal had been sold to the Bolsheviki and the miners had gone off to the mines of the state, who had simply stopped. Kolchak's army came and changed the form of state again. The coal mine came back to the Manchurian doctor, who started his machinery again. He is making money as fast as before, and when the Bolsheviki return he will have another mine.

Dr. Clarke was asked: "Is the Kolchak government backed by the allies because it is monarchist in form?" "No," replied the doctor. "The Kolchak government is also revolutionary. At the present time there is no monarchist party in Russia. I have met many of the Bolsheviki in the manner of Kolchak, who were in the imperial service and who are today soldiers of fortune. I believe the monarchist party has been crushed, and they are satisfied to see the revolution succeed."

Plenty of Supplies.

"What are the allies doing in Russia?" "When I left Vladivostok there were some British there and some Americans with a few Japanese. The hills for miles around were piled with goods and war material of every description and it is hard to keep good order in such a storehouse. Only one train a day was moving a little from the mass into Siberia and the physical task looked appalling. But the real task is the anarchy of the country. To allow that Bolshevism must first be removed or die, by its own hand. That is the reason why the allies have given a measure of support to Kolchak. There is no doubt as to the red massacre that has ruled under Bolshevism. It was true that atrocities have also taken place in some towns captured by Kolchak. I believe it is true that in the Ural in winter temperature of 40 below zero Kolchak's men took every bit of clothing belonging to their adversaries and allowed them to perish of cold. Kolchak was not there. He was a sailor, admiral of the fleet. He is a success as a soldier. But the success of his army is of a variable kind and it is impossible to see the end of the deplorable conditions now existing.

"Is it plausible that he is fighting for loot?" Dr. Clarke said the question should be answered in an explanatory way. Kolchak is the anti-Soviet military leader. He has, of course, taken loot from the Bolsheviki, but he has taken banks and everything else. Kolchak captured $400,000,000 in gold from the Bolsheviki and the loot was in Irkutsk when General Knox was in command of the expedition. The Canadian force brought $200,000,000 of it down to Vladivostok, where it is safe beyond any chance of the Bolsheviki recapturing it. Dr. Clarke accompanied the treasure train to the sea. But as to the fact of loot it must be remembered that the Bolsheviki, once considered the finest cavalry force in the world, were never paid as soldiers. They looted.

"We met a regiment of these chaps who had hidden out in the mountains and had been driven out of the south and who had traveled 2,500 miles on their little shaggy ponies when we met them. Both men and horses were in good condition, but the former were ragged and the latter hairy to picturequeness. They had lived upon the country. There were several regiments of these Cossacks present at the time of General Knox's inspection. When at a silent sign from their commander they drew their swords and whirled them around their heads with a thrilling yell in perfect unison, they looked fierce enough. They were generally big men, with the generally small and wiry horses."

Bolsheviki Atrocities. As to the character of the atrocities committed by the Bolsheviki, Dr. Clarke said that he had seen evidence taken in various towns. It was very varied and too voluminous to refer to. He took occasion, however, to mention that he had seen evidence to the effect that the royal family had escaped assassination. He said he visited the cellar in the house in Ekaterinburg where the royal family were done. The whole story of the butchery is still visible on the wall—the bullet marks and the blood stains. Another concern of the Bolsheviki industry in the Ural, Dr. Clarke said the Bolsheviki have not stopped small individual plants that were washing and cutting precious stones. The industry was too profitable to destroy and too useful from the point of view of Bolsheviki exchequer. However, the part of Russia, and the country for many leagues round Perm have changed hands so often, from Bolsheviki to anti-Soviet, that it is impossible to tell in any manner what authority may exist from one week to another.

Asked how far famine lags behind anarchy in the country, he said if there were transportation there are large reserves of grain. In the older part of the country the immense granaries of imperial Russia have not been depleted. In more remote Siberia it is the custom to put up the grain in long bags and long bundles, and to pile them up in a manner which is not known how long grain will keep in such conditions. The Bolsheviki are not so stupid as to let the grain rot; but if the system is all right there is a great grain reserve in Siberia when it can be distributed.

ATTITUDE OF THE U.F.O. TO OLD POLITICAL PARTIES

The World had a conversation yesterday with J. J. Morrison, secretary of the U.F.O., with reference to the attitude of the farmers organization towards the old political parties, particularly in view of the nomination of a second U.F.O. as a Liberal candidate in Bruce County.

Mr. Morrison came to the point at once. He said the U.F.O. is an independent political organization of the farmers of the province, and it cannot afford to see either party adopt its members as party candidates. It is inclined to question the good faith of the party, as well as of the nomination of a second U.F.O. as a Liberal candidate in Bruce County.

The following long question was put to Mr. Morrison: "When the U.F.O. was started, it was not contemplated that its members should renounce sincere party principles. It was the limit of the political idea to secure the pledged support of Liberals and Conservatives to progressive, well-considered measures of agricultural legislation. What is the present attitude of the U.F.O. towards the old parties?" Mr. Morrison: "It is true that the U.F.O. started as a co-operative movement among the farmers. And it is true that the U.F.O. has a political character, but the present political exigency was not foreseen or provided for in the constitution. It is merely a way part of the party's assistance upon independent political action has not come from the central body. It is an unwritten law. But it is a feature of the democratic character of the farmers' movement that cannot be ignored, and when the riding clubs of farmers in any part of the province call a convention to nominate a U.F.O. candidate, we expect our members to support the convention and the candidate whom they may have already placed in nomination as a member of the U.F.O. in that riding."

"Does that principle of action mean that wherever a U.F.O. receives a party nomination a straight U.F.O. will be put in nomination against him to indicate your political independence?" Mr. Morrison: "It means that where a U.F.O. has received a party nomination it is not bound to support the party, but when we are requested to send speakers to any convention where a nomination is being considered, or may be made, we do so."

"Do you consider that when a party convention deliberately shows preference for a candidate belonging to your organization, prominent as a farmer, known as an advocate of better representation for farmers in the legislature, that party should be open to censure or to appreciation?" Mr. Morrison: "We very much prefer to the old political parties to leave our political business to our own organization. We can take care of it."

"Do you consider that all governments in Canada, provincial, as well as federal, require a fresh mandate from the people, the soldiers being returned and peace proclaimed?" Mr. Morrison: "We most assuredly do. As evidence of the strong opinion we hold upon that point, we are given to understand that Sir Robert Borden is trying to give a more constitutional countenance to the U.F.O. by having the organization, probably upon a small scale, taken into the cabinet. Mr. H. B. Morphy may be taken into the cabinet for political reasons, other attempted connections having failed. We are prepared to support the invitation of the farmers' clubs of North Perth, to consider a U.F.O. nomination against Mr. Morphy's re-election. That is at least a democratic protest against such political devices."

"Do you expect any head will be given to Mr. Morrison: If Mr. Morphy is defeated by a farmer, we will give it to it, they may not be a high-power connection to take in the Dominion strong enough to call Sir Robert Borden and his followers to the polls."

67 YEARS OF GROWTH

IN the early days the founder of this business made a few gross of matches a day, and sold them himself, driving his horse and wagon as far as Toronto. Today, from automatic machines, 70,000,000 matches a day are turned out to keep Canada's home fires burning. And not matches alone: indurated fibreware, household helps, and a host of paper products have been added to this line.

The House of Eddy

has become an institution which touches the daily life of the Canadian public in a thousand different ways. There is a reason back of this steady and consistent progress. Business institutions do not grow to such proportions by accident. It takes real merit to accomplish such a result; merit in the goods themselves, and in the concern which is back of them.

SEES ATTEMPT TO CHEAT FARMERS

Government Active to Prevent Growers Benefiting, is Westerner's View.

Regina, July 28.—Commenting on an eastern despatch of Saturday relative to a conference of grain interests called by the minister of trade and commerce, Hon. George Langley, a member of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, which links together the organized farmers of the Dominion, sees in the reported likelihood of the Canadian government setting a fixed price, an attempt to cheat the farmers.

Mr. Langley contends in an interview that so long as it seemed possible that the price of wheat would come down, the government refused to take action toward fixing the price, but now that the prospect of gain presents itself, becomes active to take care that they shall not gain.

PLAN TO LINK ONTARIO TOWNS IN INDUSTRY

Special to The Toronto World. Belleville, July 28.—At Bayville, Sidney township, a public meeting was held on Saturday evening, attended by a number of farmers residing in the locality.

His scheme, which he outlined, is to have options on all the farm lands comprising some 7000 acres on the first and broken front concessions of Sidney township. He stated that industries requiring large tracts of land were desirous of locating.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

With 4200 cattle on sale yesterday at the Union Stock Yards the quality generally was to medium and common classes, with a large percentage of light-weight heifers and steers, with neither fat nor quality.

There was a good demand for heavy-weight finished steers and the prices for this class of cattle were strong. Trade for all other classes was slow and undisturbed from 25c to 30c lower.

There was very little inquiry at present for stockers and feeders. Bulls were lower in sympathy with other classes. There was a fair inquiry for good to fair milk cows and springers at satisfactory prices.

There was a good demand for canner-cows at steady prices. There are altogether too many unfinished cattle coming on the market, and the prospects are that this class will go lower.

For the choice steers and good well finished butchers the outlook appears to be distinctly favorable. The decline in prices yesterday, where there was any, is undoubtedly due to the extremely hot weather and the consequent falling off in consumption.

The cattle have been, and are still selling high. The run as stated was about 1200.

At the close a good many were left unsold, probably 500 at least. The calf market pretty steady for all classes, especially the better class, but a good many of the calves were of the common and grasser class and hard to sell.

There was a big run of sheep and lambs, 2412 head all told, and whether let broke very badly, especially for spring lambs, the bulk of which sold around from 16c to 17c per lb., and at the close a lot of them are reported as sold at 15c and 15 1/2c, a loss of fully 40c per lb. from last week.

The yearlings were off $2 per cwt. and the butcher sheep $1 per cwt. It is many a long day since the lamb trade got trimmed to the extent of $4 per cwt. in one day.

The hog market with a heavy run of 2246 head steady for the day at last week's prices. For the balance of the week the packers are quoting 25c to 26c for fat, 23 1/2c to 24 1/2c for fed and 24 1/2c to 25 1/2c for dressed.

A Few Market Notes. Dunn & Levack sold 19 cattle, averaging 1210 lb., at $15; 20, 1300 lbs., at $14.75. A fine bunch at a great price.

The H. P. Kennedy & Co. sold 17, 1100 lbs., at $13.50; 17, 1100 lbs., at $13.50; 17, 1100 lbs., at $13.50.

W. J. Neely (Matthews-Blackwell) bought 200 cattle yesterday, the best butchers coming from $12.50 to $13.50; medium butchers, $11.25 to $12.25; good cows, $9 to $11; and medium cows, $7 to $8.

Frank Ward for Sparkhall & Armstrong sold 40 lambs, 2250 lbs., at $15; 34 lambs, 2670 lbs., at $14; 12 lambs, 960 lbs., at $14; 400 calves, 15c; 200 calves, 15c; 200 calves, 15c; 200 calves, 15c.

McDonald & Halligan's quotations on 27 lots on Monday were as follows: 27, 500 lbs., at $12.85; 18, 950 lbs., at $12.50; 6, 970 lbs., at $12.50; 20, 800 lbs., at $11.75; 18, 800 lbs., at $11.75; 11, 1000 lbs., at $12.75; 7, 550 lbs., at $7.75; 12, 1200 lbs., at $11.75; 9, 950 lbs., at $11.50; 11, 1000 lbs., at $11.75; 8, 1110 lbs., at $9.40; 1, 950 lbs., at $1.10; 1, 1080 lbs., at $1.10; The Home-Lovers' Club

Young housekeepers often fail to enjoy the complete measure of happiness that is their due because of their inability to furnish their little home in accordance with their desires. The initial expenses of housekeeping have almost exhausted their little surplus and still there are many furnishings on which they had set their hearts, unpurchased. This store, understanding the difficulties of newly married couples and housekeepers generally, is prepared to assist them through the Home-Lovers' Club. Members of this club may purchase furniture and home furnishings by making a partial payment in cash and arranging for the remainder in periodic payments. The club secretary will gladly explain the plan to you. See him today — Fourth Floor.
