MORE MILLIONS FOR THE WAR VOTED BY THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

An Embittered Discussion Over the Method of Buying Horses for Transports and Remounts—Charges of Boasting—An Inquiry Promised—News From Pretoria.

London, June 6.—After a long and somewhat embittered discussion of the policy of the War Office in buying horses for use in South Africa, the House of Commons today voted by a vote of 159 to 93, against the sum of £18,750,000 for transports and remounts.

Sir Blundell Maple, Conservative, asserted that British officers who had been sent to Hungary and Austria had purchased and sent down animals at extravagant prices, and divided with the sellers the price charged the British Government above the actual cost. He demanded the appointment of a Committee of Inquiry. Lord Stanley, Financial Secretary of the War Office, said an inquiry would be made into the matter.

SIR ALFRED HICKMAN PERSISTS ON THE LOCOMOTIVE QUESTION

Another Letter to Lord George Hamilton in Defence of English- Made Locomotives—American Locomotives Burn More Fuel as Shown by Reports—A Challenge.

London, June 6.—Sir Alfred Hickman, president of the British Iron Trade Association, has written another letter to Lord George Hamilton, the Indian Secretary, concerning American locomotives, citing the reply of Lord Cromer, the British agent in Egypt, relative to the consumption of coal by British and foreign engines in Egypt. Lord Cromer said a definite report could not be given for two months, but Major Johnston thinks the American major 10 per cent more than the other types.

Sir Alfred comments as follows: "This, so far, confirms the reports from Burma and Assam, and if correct would make American engines dear as a gift."

"With reference to your claim that American engines are superior in chemical research, I venture to point out that the achievements in metallurgy of Cort, Hall, Neil-

THINGS TO THINK ABOUT.

Mrs. Boyd, widow of the county coroner, has a good action at law against Sheriff Widdifield for the loss of her husband.

Three constables and one revolver were used by three desperadoes to the jail, and a tragedy occurred; two constables armed to the teeth watched over the dying Jones in a locked ward in an upper floor of the hospital.

The administration of justice in Toronto, in so far as the county and provincial officials are concerned, has not been of the best in the past, and the attempted escape of the three Chicago desperadoes and the murder of Constable Boyd is one thing which goes to prove this statement.

WOMEN FIGURING IN CASE Another Female Friend of the Gang Arrives and Now There Are Four Here.

BOYD WILL BE BURIED TO-MORROW.

Rice and Rutledge Will Be Sentenced on Saturday—Murder Charge Will Be Heard To-Day.

At least four of the women friends of the Rutledge gang, who followed the prisoners around in Chicago, are now in this city. They are "Puss" O'Brien, Miss Spillman, Louise Rutledge, sister-in-law of the prisoner Rutledge, May Valentine, sister of Louise and Vina Henderson, alias Seavey, alias White. The last named is still in prison.

Mrs. Joseph Valentine was formerly Miss Grace, and her home is in Peterboro. She is comely, and will be seen by the accompanying cut, and her friends in Toronto say she has a most joyful disposition. Before she was married she was employed as a waitress in some of the leading hotels in Toronto, and she was very popular with patrons. She is a sister of Mrs. Charles Rutledge (Louise), and is about 27 years of age. Mrs. Valentine is the wife of the Her husband, shortly after they were married, she went to the hospital to attend to the prisoner Rice paid to her, and in a spirit of resentment informed the police of the wrongdoings of the gang.

Benjamin Parsons, a Well-Known and Popular Citizen, Killed His Wife and Then Suicided—They Had Been Devoed to Each Other—Man's Mind Became Deranged.

Brampton, Ont., June 6.—Benjamin Parsons, 31-year-old child of Parma, Ontario, a well-known citizen, a wholesale butcher, this morning, between 5 and 6 o'clock, killed his wife and suicided by cutting their throats from ear to ear with a large butcher knife.

Parsons for some time has been deeply affected by the loss of a child six years of age, and gave expression to the belief that he had nothing to live for; there was no pleasure for him now. For the past two weeks Parsons had acted strangely, but no one thought he contemplated any such act.

Richardson, Pettee and Other Opponents of the Railway Deal
Banqueted by Citizens.

Winipeg, June 6.—(Special.)—To-day Archbishop Vincent and George Vincent, M.P., and the delegation opposing the Manitoba Railway deal at Ottawa, were banqueted to-night at the Hotel by the Citizens' Committee. There was much criticism of the indifference displayed at Ottawa on the merits of questions coming up for discussion. Aid. Fry presided.

Major Munroe was killed in a snowstorm. Reports from the C.P.R. show that it was not confined to the city, but that it swept over the entire province, with a plentiful down-pour of rain. The cold did not do any damage on the vast territory lying east of Manitoba. The population is largely composed of Indians, but in addition there are a number of whites, employed at the Hudson Bay Company's trading points, and missionaries in connection with the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches. The work will take months.

PORT HOPE NOT STARTLED. Hope was not at all startled when it was learned that Vina Seavey, whose real name is Levia Hudson, was ar- rested in this town about 15 years ago, when her reputation was rather doubtful.

Her mother's name was Lou White, and she has a reputation not con- sidered at all creditable. Her mother married a man by the name of Hand- son, who left her, after which she mar- ried a man by the name of Grogan, and both are plain clothes duty men, who had only quit work a couple of hours before she was arrested for highway robbery. It was reasonable to suppose that some- thing would result. The officers rested and consulted at King and York-streets, and two uniformed men boarded cars east, while the others wheeled around the local- ity.

CHICAGO MEN TALK. Detectives Schubert and McDougall of the Chicago Secret Service, who sensational- ly arrested the daring bank robbers, Rice, Rutledge and Jones, made it possible for the ends of justice to be met in this case, have Toronto at 7 o'clock this morning to return to the Windy City. They speak highly of the treatment accorded them in Toronto, and take away with them a high opinion of Canadian officials and British police. They were accompanied by a subsequent proceedings against the two desperadoes, Rice and Rutledge.

VINA STILL IN JAIL. Vina Seavey, alias White, alias Hudson, the lady who is in love with Rice, still remains in police custody, as no one has so far come forward to go her bail. THE DIVERTING HISTORY OF THE SOUTHERN LION HUNT.

From Punch. A lion is said to be large in the vicinity of Southend. Parties of gentlemen, armed with rifles, obtained from the Southern Lion Club, have been busy "hunting" in the neighboring covers. It was reported that persons had heard the animal roar, and the children were afraid to go to school. The "hunters," who encouraged to persevere by curious "footprints" observed here and there, have so far been unsuccessful in their search. A gentleman living close by is of opinion that the mysterious animal may be a dog. Whatever the animal may be, it is still at large, and the mystery is unsolved.—Daily Paper.

Brown was a sporting citizen of credit and renown. (And so were Jones and Robinson) in famous Southend town.

Said Brown to Jones and Robinson, "The gunning off we've been, and ain't coming back, yet we've no big game e'er have seen; 'But now a lion fierce and grim Has made its lair here in your thickets wild, to which tomorrow we'll repair."

Jones soon replied, "Amongst the best of sportsmen you're the one I most admire—and so, to all intent, said Robinson, "Therefore, this deed," continued Jones, "Of daring shall be done."

The morning came, the sportsmen dressed with cartridge-bags and hunting-knives. Suspended round their necks. All in their loudest checks. With their dogs and their guns, they set out for the lion's den.

They shouldered with an air expert The deadly tubes which, for so long had been borrowed from the Rifle Club in famous Southend town.

And soon the woods and brakes resound, To hire a hundred leaders bold. The covers to be beat.

Each sportsman flourished right and left The unaccounted alarm. The while he eyed his neighbor's with Did sing most loud and clear!"

From down to eye they beat the woods. Through the country side, And all the hunters and gamekeepers Were highly gratified.

They found no lion, but at last They found a curious spot, "A lion or a stag," said Brown, "As he surveyed the spot."

"Their feet were very much alike," Said Brown, and Jones agreed, "Widest Robinson, as a duty bound, Said, "Very much, indeed."

Just then a fearful roar was heard, Each sportsman turned to run, Brown fired at Jones by accident, And Jones at Robinson.

Again the fearful roar rang out, More near and yet more near— "Alas! Alas! A braying ass Did sing most loud and clear!"

The hunters noted the tale abroad, And sadly now goes Brown, (And also Jones and Robinson) In famous Southend town.

Woman's Changed Figure. Her Shoulders are now Square and Her Hips Hidden—The Twentieth Century Form.

The twentieth century woman presents another proof of the often alleged theory, that the feminine form experiences many changes in its lines. The fashion plates of the last 50 years show many variations in outline, from the circumscribed, thru the period of the Grecian bend, the bustle and the polka-bust; thru the hourglass figure to the straight fronts and narrow hips of today. The outline differences have been produced by the changes in fashion, many of them, indeed, accentuated by wire constructions and pads and pillows that have happily and healthily been given up.

But the actual form of woman, independent of stays, sleeves, belts and other contrivances that so successfully obliterate the natural outlines, has changed wonderfully in the last quarter of a century. The increase in height is now a more remarkable feature than the added inches in the waist, the noticeable increase in the size of the hand and feet, and the fact that the very small sizes are no longer provided in any quantity by the manufacturers and the narrowing of the hips.

As they were called, became virulent. These hips did not slope away from the waist as downy, but they bulged out from the belt line.

It was impossible to produce this effect naturally. The only way to get the hips to come out in this way would have been to have a woman who had been fattened up with a diet of rich and greasy food, and who had been subjected to a course of massage.

Good taste speedily drove the sudden hip out of existence, but the woman remained in evidence. With the coming of the hip was a certain amount of fat, which was allowed to gain two and sometimes three inches in thickness.

It was not until the hips were reduced to their normal size that the woman's figure was restored to its former beauty.

LONDON NEWSPAPER COMMENTS ON WEDNESDAY'S LOVE FEAST

St. James' Gazette Wants to See Stars and Stripes Alongside Union Jack—Globe is a Little Sombre, Westminster Gazette Good-Natured and Times Playful.

London, June 6.—Appreciation of the cordiality of the sentiments Americans and British are now so frequently exchanging in the harbor of the comments of the afternoon newspapers on yesterday evening's Chamber of Commerce banquet. The St. James' Gazette is so friendly that it advocates a display of the Stars and Stripes alongside the Union Jack on all public buildings throughout the Empire on July 4, on the same principle that British university men group the light and the dark blues (the colors of Cambridge and Oxford, respectively) when they meet.

The Globe alone takes exception to the dictum that "Commerce is the great peacemaker of the world," and thinks trade rivalry and the desire to secure new markets are liable to prove fruitful sources of trouble.

The Westminster Gazette says: "Mr. Chamberlain once said it would almost be worth a great war to see the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes floating side by side. A less martial way of cultivating good feeling between the two races is adopted when the London Chamber entertained the New York Chamber of Commerce at dinner."

THE CARELESSNESS IN TAKING CHARGE OF THE CHICAGO BURGERS IN TORONTO IS STRANGLY IN CONTRAST WITH THAT DURING THE TRIAL OF THE TIO TO AND FROM AURORA FOR THE PRELIMINARY HEARING.

The carelessness in taking charge of the Chicago burglars in Toronto is strangely in contrast with that during the trial of the trio to and from Aurora for the preliminary hearing. The men were accompanied by seven police officials, but despite this fact, Manager Hayes had such a strong opinion of the daring of the prisoners that he gave the special car into the care of the most robust of the railway's employees, and at the same time had them heavily armed. The car was run thru from Toronto to Aurora without a stop, and the exit and entrance of the prisoners was watched with the greatest caution.

WREATHS AGAIN OF ROSES

Magnificent Floral Tributes Placed on the Sir John A. Macdonald Monument.

MEMORY OF A GREAT STATESMAN.

Appropriate Celebration by the Liberal-Conservative Association of Toronto Yesterday.

The celebration of Red Rose Day, the tenth anniversary of the death of Sir John A. Macdonald, was appropriately observed by the decoration of the Macdonald monument at Queen's Park yesterday afternoon.

Barlow Cumberland said that the realization of the people of Canada that they were truly Canadians, and not residents of separate provinces, was due to the life and work of the Liberal-Conservative party.

Hon. George E. Foster contrasted the spirit of the date 30 years ago, when Canada mourned at the grave of Sir John A. Macdonald, with the feeling of exultation dominant now that so great a Canadian had lived, whose deeds are an inspiration to all.

He was an example to Canada by his shining and invincible faith in the future of the Dominion. The ideals of the great leader now appeal with solemn voice to the young men of Canada, and that his life might be modeled into the national life, as well as that of the great man whose name he bore.

Proceedings closed with cheers for the King.

A MOST DEPLORABLE TRAGEDY AT BRAMPTON

eight-inch bladed butcher knife, with a sharp edge, lies beside the man's head. There is little evidence of a struggle in the room. The bed clothing was not much disarranged, but there were signs that it had been detached here and there by a human hand, proving the woman's statement. The dresser, four feet from the bed, is covered with small articles that show no disturbance. Between the two pieces of furniture, beneath the woman's head the carpet has a patch of congealed blood three feet long. Parsons in a fit of insanity killed his wife and then cut his own throat.

The World cannot subscribe to this doctrine. It condemns the system, and it condemns the man under the system, and taking this view, we insist on the resignation or removal of Sheriff Widdfield. He neglected his duty, he did not take sufficient precautions, according to the Police Act. He considered that his office was for his benefit as a former politician. Now, if this is the state of affairs prevailing in Toronto and in Ontario to-day, it is high time that every citizen should be made to feel that he has a right to demand that the system should have his official head cut off with the axe. The Ontario government, as the Telegram properly points out, is also to blame. It is responsible for the performance of the duty of his office, and the moment he is caught derelict in regard to that duty he must walk the plank. There is no other rule that will conserve the public interest, and if this rule is not carried out then it follows that the forty-odd sheriffs in other parts of the province will conduct themselves just as Sheriff Widdfield did, and sooner or later the same result will be reached.

But if the Attorney-General insists upon Sheriff Widdfield's resignation, and his resignation in Ontario will turn a hand-keeping and find out where he would land in a similar case, and thousands of other officials in the province will only be too quick to govern themselves in the same way. It is not the system that is to be condemned and the doctrine laid down of responsibility on the part of officials because the system is bad, perhaps The Telegram will say where we will land if we insist on the best of the system, and it makes out that Sheriff Widdfield is a paragon in every respect, and still in the public interest and the interest of discipline he must resign his position, or what is more to the point, the Attorney-General must insist upon his doing it. Will the Attorney-General do it? The bad system and the bad man under it must go together or one after the other; but the incompetent man first let us hope.

GRATERS AT THE CITY HALL. Contractors and graters of all kinds swarmed into the City Hall yesterday morning, and more or less with every contract that is to be awarded. They seem to control the policy of the Council and to do their best to influence the action and conduct of the officials. Now all this must come to an end, and the City Hall must be driven out. These men, or their agents, have no business in the City Hall, nor should they take admittance there, nor should they take up the time of the officials or follow them to their homes. It is known, in case where the citizens have asked for a certain kind of work on their street, that contractors and their minions have got up rival petitions and have taken the matter to the City Hall. The former decision revoked, the Board of Control and the City Council are not strong-minded enough to drive these men out of the City Hall and to keep them from their officials, they had better give up the government of the City Hall. The aldermen and the officials should be free of this nuisance, both at the hall and at their homes. Chase them out, Mr. Mayor.

ALL COMING TO IT. Toronto Globe: No company or organization can be as well qualified as the post-office department to give the Dominion a cheap and efficient telegraph service. The question of establishing the telegraph system is obviously a matter of public interest, and the government should take the lead in it. The Canadian government will take over the control of the telegraph business of the country, the telegraph, including the telephone, is a public utility, and the government should take the lead in it. The Dominion telegraph act passed when all systems established under that act provided carefully for the transfer of all systems established under that act to the government when it is determined upon by Parliament. Resolutely and unreasonably, Canadians, when called upon to consider the question seriously, will come to the conclusion that somehow or other their country has in this matter lagged behind the rest of the empire, and will undoubtedly decide that the government should, as soon as convenient, take over the control of this public service.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS ARRIVES

Will Address the Convention of Machinists at Andrew's Hall on Labor Movement. The fourth day of the biennial convention of the International Association of Machinists and Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, which was held at Andrew's Hall, Toronto, on Wednesday night, June 6, was a day of great interest. The convention opened at 8 o'clock with a prayer by Rev. Dr. J. W. McKim, and a reading of the minutes of the last convention. The report of the executive committee was read and approved. The report of the committee on the strike of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America was also read and approved. The convention then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Woman's Dress

Mr. Langtry writes "The World of Dress." The Parisian woman makes the best of her opportunities in the matter of dress, but two respects the Englishwoman has the advantage. No woman of any other nationality wears so well in evening dress as an Englishwoman. This is probably due to the fact that she wears it so much more frequently, and she is more particular in her selection.

VOLODYOVSKI OWNED IN ENGLAND.

Lady Meux Only Leased the Derby. Whistler to Mrs. Whitaker—Boss Crocker at Epsom Downs. Volodyovski is really the property of Lady Meux, of peculiar history, an English noblewoman, whose tastes are catholic, embracing the arts from Egyptology to the stage and the racing stable. Mr. Whistler, when he concluded that his stable should be as strong as money and skill could make it, strove to become the actual possessor of the promising colt. He failed to persuade Lady Meux to part with the animal. There was no power in the money he offered, for the widow of Sir Henry Bruce Meux, Bart., the famous brewer, has an income of £20,000 a year and is not a spendthrift. So the American millionaire had to content himself with a lease of the Derby colt, but, at any rate, his colors would be up if he were won.
