BRITISH DRIVE REACHES HINDENBURG LINE; SEVERAL TOWNS ON IT ARE CAPTURED

Haig Launched a New Attack This Morning

Has Added Four Miles to Length of Battlefield and Has Pressed Onwards to Depth of Two Miles on the New Front; Three Places Near Arras Taken; Now Only About a Mile From Bapaume

London, Aug. 26.—British troops at tacked this morning in the Scarpe sector, east of Arras, and good progress is being made. The British position southeast of Mory and west of Croisilles has been improved in spite of a heavy rain which is falling on the battlefield. Strong German counter-attacks north and south of Bapaume have been repulsed by the British. Favreuil, a mile and a half northeast of Bapaume, has been carried, and the British have advanced beyond the village. The British lines have been advanced in the direction of Maricourt, four miles northeast of Bray.

QUICK TWO MILE GAIN

This morning's attack was launched between the Scarpe River at Fampoux, and the heights northeast of Neuville-Vitasse. In a few hours the British made an advance of two miles on a front of four miles, according to reports reaching here from the battlefield. Monchy-Le-Preux, Guenappe, and Vaucourt, little less than five miles southeast of Arras, have been taken in today's attack. Farther south the British have taken Mory and made progress to the southeast of the village. The towns of Monchy-Le-Preux, Guenappe and Vaucourt were on the Hindenburg line as it stood prior to the German drive on March 21. In this sector the Germans drove ahead slightly, but were held up after the second day of the fighting and after that time could not get nearer the British. This morning's attack was apparently to the length of the battlefield. The line of Monchy-Le-Preux, Guenappe, Vaucourt, Heuvel, Croisilles, east of Mory; Favreuil, Arvens, Hascourt-L'Abbaye, Martintpuch, west of Bazentin-Le-Petit; Maricourt and Carnoy and then proceeds to the Somme, just to the west of Maricourt. There is little change south of the Somme, except that the British line has been improved to the west of Chaulgas.

Mayor Says Service Should Be Kept Up At Least Till May—Common Council Meeting

At the opening of a meeting of the common council this morning Mayor Hayes was not present and on motion of Commissioner McLellan, seconded by Commissioner Bullock, Commissioner Fisher was appointed chairman pro tem. After taking his seat he spoke about applications he had received from Arthur Baasos and John Sims for permission to erect electric signs over their establishments in Mill and Dock streets. He said he personally was opposed to granting the privilege and was in favor of stopping the erection of all electric signs. After some discussion the council was granted on motion of Commissioner McLellan, seconded by Commissioner Hilyard.

TRYING HARD TO HOLD BAPAUME

With the British Forces in France, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press.) British troops in their new drive on the Hindenburg line have reached points, 1,000 yards from the old Hindenburg line, which seems strongly held. In addition to crossing the Bapaume road the British have made progress southward for a considerable distance, with the cavalry operating in front of the infantry. British troops are reported to have reached the outskirts of Suanne, two miles east of Bray-Sur-Somme, and to be near Cappy, slightly less than two miles southwest of Bray, on the south bank of the Somme. A heavy rain fell this evening.

PRISONERS TAKEN BY BRITISH SINCE AUGUST 21, 20,000

Allied Success North of Somme Purely Haig Victory

Paris Papers Give Unsolicited Praise to the Khaki-clad Troops—Great Hopes Placed on British Army Fulfilled

Paris, Aug. 26.—(Bulletin, Havas Agency.) The Petit Parisien says that the number of prisoners taken by the British since August 21, has reached 20,000. According to the Le Journal three new divisions have been identified opposite the British. Since August 8 nearly fifty German divisions have been in the fighting against the British. The Allied high command had great hopes in the British army, and the latest news from the front shows that these hopes will not be disappointed, says L'Espresso. It declares that the British have obliged the German staff to admit defeat. Marshal Hutin, in the Echo de Paris, points out that the British advanced by great thrusts, which tore large holes in the German lines. That the enemy has been unable to thwart these manoeuvres, he says, proves the tremendous superiority that the Allies have gained over the Germans. Lieut. Colonel Fabry, in Oul, declares that unstinted praise must be given the manner in which the British attacks were carried out. He declares that the Allied success north of the Somme is a purely British victory.

Most of the bombs fell in the open country doing considerable damage to private dwellings in one place. Nine persons were killed and six injured. Five of the attacking airplanes, according to the telegram, were destroyed. Some hostile air squadrons attacked Constantinople on Wednesday night says a Turkish official statement received here. London, Aug. 26.—On the 25th inst. our machines successfully attacked a hostile airbase and the railway station at Bettendorf and Luxembourg. Excellent results were obtained on the railway stations.

RELATIONS WITH SPAIN ARE GREATLY STRAINED

London, Aug. 26.—German newspapers received in Denmark affirm that the situation between Spain and Germany is critical, but they agree that Germany cannot make any concessions with regard to her submarine warfare, says a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen.

Fortunes of War Definitely Settled, Says Clemenceau

Paris, Aug. 26.—(Havas Agency)—Premier Clemenceau today telegraphed the presidents of the general councils that they could rely upon the government and Marshal Foch and his magnificent staff and the Allied military commanders to turn the present success of the Allied arms into a complete and decisive collapse of the enemy. "The splendid victories of recent weeks," said M. Clemenceau, "in which the spirit of our Allies has so magnificently prevailed, has definitely settled the fortunes of the war. The enemy, bewildered, nerved himself to his own strength and now is finding out that he is under-estimated us. "The results achieved are the first fruits of our harvest of rewards, the highest of which will be having delivered the world from ruthless oppression and brutality."

CUNARD LINE NOT LIABLE FOR DAMAGES TO LOSS OF LIFE ON LUSITANIA

Judge, However, Says Surely The Allies Will See That There Shall be Full Reparation

New York, Aug. 26.—The Cunard Steamship Company cannot be held liable for loss of life and property in the torpedoing of the Lusitania by a German submarine, according to a decision handed down in the admiralty bench of the United States district court by Julius M. Mayer. "The cause of the sinking of the Lusitania was the illegal act of the imperial German government, acting through its instrument, the submarine commander," declared Judge Mayer, who held that "the fault, therefore, must be laid upon those who are responsible for the sinking of the vessel in the legal as well as moral sense."

STORIES OF INTENTION TO OVERTHROW KAISERISM PART OF THE GERMAN GAME

New York, Aug. 26.—Germany conducted a "subtle propaganda" in 1917 to check American preparation for war by leading the public to believe that the German people were about to overthrow Kaiserism, Alfred L. Becker, deputy state attorney-general, asserted last night in making public the results of his examination of George T. Odell, correspondent of the New York Evening Mail, who went to Germany with Ambassador Von Bernstorff after the breaking of diplomatic relations. BISHOP BARRY VERY ILL. Rendered weak and seriously ill from the results of a complication of troubles, starting with a stroke of paralysis and followed by a surgical operation, His Lordship Bishop Barry of Chatham is reported very near to death. The aged prelate has shown remarkable tenacity of life in this illness, but his physicians give little hope of his recovery. Bishop Barry is very much loved and venerated in New Brunswick, and in St. John his warm personal friends are many.

BERLIN VERY ANXIOUS OVER THE SITUATION

London, Aug. 26.—Dull apathy is giving way to intense anxiety, according to reports from Berlin received at The Hague, says the Daily Mail correspondent in the Dutch capital. Newspapers' editorials show an urgent demand for reassurance and several papers pin their faith on the Hindenburg line.

Counter Against French Fails

Germans Flung Back As They Attempt to Check Mangin's Right Wing—Fresnay-les-Roye Captured By General Debeneo

Paris, Aug. 26.—The Germans today attempted a counter-offensive on a large scale against the right wing of General Mangin's army in the region between Vailly and Soissons. The attack failed. General Mangin's army repulsed the German onslaughts everywhere and in some instances gained ground. The French flung back the attacking troops even beyond their starting position. London, Aug. 26.—In the battle area south of the Somme, General Debeneo's French army has captured Fresnay-les-Roye, about three miles north of Roye. General Mangin's army has also made a slight advance between the Ailette and the Aisne. Four hundred prisoners were taken by this army yesterday. Fighting is reported proceeding at Heintel. Paris, Aug. 26.—Heavy bombardments in the region of Roye and between the Oise and the Ailette rivers are reported in the official statement issued by the war office today. Two German surprise attacks in the Voges sector were without results. The French took prisoner. The night was calm on the rest of the front. The French have continued their progress east of Bagnoux, between the Ailette and the Aisne. They repulsed counter-attacks west of Crecy-Au-Mont. Four hundred additional prisoners have been taken.

HAVE SENT OVER 66,542 MEN TO WAR THIS YEAR

Hon. N. W. Rowell Makes Statement CASUALTIES 74,500 IN 1917

Much Lower in Present Year as Germans Shied at Attacks on Canadian Front—Enrollment Under M. S. A.

Millbrook, Ont., Aug. 26.—Hon. N. W. Rowell, in an address to his constituents here on Saturday evening reviewing the work of the government during the last ten months, gave some interesting statistics regarding the reinforcements provided for the Canadian corps since the Military Service Act came into force and of the casualties sustained during the last year and a half. "Since the act came into force," said Mr. Rowell, "19,514 men have voluntarily enlisted and are enrolled in our forces; 59,486 men have been enrolled under the provisions of the Military Service Act, making a total of 79,001 since the act came into force. "Since January 1, 1918, we have sent overseas 66,542. Our corps and cavalry brigades have been kept up to strength ever since the act came into force. Owing to the situation on the western front and on the advice of our corps commander, we have strengthened the corps both in personnel and equipment, so that today it is the most formidable single fighting unit on the western front. To meet the situation we have increased the strength of our fighting forces in France by 20,000 men. "Our casualties for the calendar year 1917 were 74,500. Our casualties this year, with larger forces in the field have been very much lower than at any time since our forces went to the front. For the first six months they amounted to only 14,000, whereas the casualties in the British and French armies for the same period were very great. Our light casualties have been due to two main causes—Our divisions, unlike those of Great Britain, France and Australia, were always up to strength and with the admirable auxiliary service provided constituted such a formidable fighting unit that Germany never attacked the front held by the Canadians although they did attack on either side; and three of our divisions were taken up the line during the spring offensive largely because they were up to strength and constituted such an efficient force to form part of a strategic reserve to be used in any critical situation which might develop."

SOME NOTABLE WORK OF CANADIANS IN RECENT FIGHTING

With the Canadian Army, Aug. 25.—(By J. F. B. Livesay, Canadian Press Correspondent)—Numerous stories of individual gallantry and initiative in the field during the recent fighting east of Amiens are coming to hand. An intelligence officer of a Quebec battalion established his observation post with the forward companies and thence directed his snipers where they were able to inflict very heavy casualties on the enemy and put several machine guns out of action. Men of the Canadian Royal Engineers worked continuously throughout the whole battle, repairing broken wires under heavy fire. One of the most notable exploits of the battle was the work of the observation officer of a mortar battery in establishing his post in a house at Queneul. While the enemy still held the village he was able to direct a devastating fire upon the enemy, contributing materially to their defeat. Some wonderful deeds are related of a Nova Scotia battalion which was set on one of the hardest tasks of the battle during the recent fighting. There was a perfect labyrinth of machine gun nests, making the advance of the infantry very difficult. During the night, however, on our left bank, there was a perfect labyrinth of machine gun nests, making the advance of the infantry very difficult. During the night, however, on our left bank, there was a perfect labyrinth of machine gun nests, making the advance of the infantry very difficult.

TWO ZEPPELINS WRECKED

London, Aug. 26.—During a violent storm on Friday two wrecked Zeppelins were seen from Sandefjord, Norway, according to a Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph. The crews were aboard but had lost command of the airships, which are supposed to have come down in the North Sea.

THE WAR AND EDUCATION.

No less an authority than Dr. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, would have medical inspection and the school nurse in all schools, rural as well as urban, and would also have some measure of vocational training, both for girls and boys, in every school.

AUTOCRACY AND BOLSHIEVISM.

The Kaiser has not broken silence for some time. His invincible armies have somehow got the habit of being beaten. We do not read that he and the admiring recorder of his sayings and doings stood on any hill to watch the British or French taking back lost ground and sending German prisoners back of the line that was constantly being pushed farther ahead.

The necessity for universal adoption of this policy, Dr. Eliot holds, has been made painfully clear by the great war. Dealing with physical defects, he says: "The sporadic medical inspections of school children and the medical examinations of young men drafted for the national army have revealed in children and in young men between 21 and 31 a large percentage of serious bodily defects, which in many cases impair the capacity of the children to work efficiently in school and of the young men to serve satisfactorily in the army or navy."

Consider also Lenine and Trotsky. Before the war they and the Kaiser were at opposite poles in their views of Divine purpose in human government. A Hohenzollern dynasty was the last panacea they would offer for the political and social ills of Russia.

The world will be well rid of the extremes represented in the one case by the German ruler and in the other by the two men who have misled the Russian people and brought greater calamity to that unhappy country.

That is a notable tribute which the Paris papers pay to the might of the British arms. The fall of Bapaume may be expected soon. Hail's men are only a mile away.

A court decision in New York frees the Lusitania owners from responsibility to pay damages for lives lost in that fearful German crime. But, as the judge says, the United States and her Allies will see that there shall be full reparation.

Premier Clemenceau sees the fortunes of the Allies by the recent series of victories. And he adds his belief that there is strength available to enlarge the present success into decisive collapse of the enemy. That is a cheering statement with which to begin the week.

How food is distributed to an army in the field. The diagram shows a central depot connected to a main depot, which in turn connects to a front line through a divisional headquarters. The front line is divided into several units, each receiving supplies from the main depot.

Dealing with the deplorable extent of illiteracy, Dr. Eliot insists that state and national governments must take a larger share in public education, since "it appears that it is not safe to leave to the local authorities of cities, towns and counties exclusive charge of the elementary and secondary schools."

A German official statement says British attacks on a certain part of the line "replaced with heavy losses" but that the German posts "withdrew, according to command."

Dr. Eliot would also have a system of universal physical training for the children and youth of town and country, and would have the national government bear a portion of the expense.

There is no such general provision or expectation now, but the lesson which the war so plainly teaches must not be lost on any of the authorities that control or influence the programmes of elementary and secondary schools.

Dr. Eliot would have in every school in the country "such instruction in chemistry, physics and biology as is necessary, first, to the comprehension by every pupil of the different elements which make up a complete diet for infant, child and adult, and secondly, to the mastery by both sexes of the process of cooking and serving food in wholesome ways."

Food Board Flashes For Feminine Folk

England's national kitchens have proved a success and new ones are being opened up from time to time as the popularity of the scheme grows. In London the well-known Hammersmith baths have been converted into huge public kitchens equipped with every modern convenience for cooking on a large scale. Food is purchased in quantity, prepared without waste and cooked scientifically, with the result that meals can be bought at a much lower rate than would be possible through individual purchase and home preparation.

All degrees of social life are represented daily at the food counter. Each customer brings her own utensils to carry the food away and purchases tickets for it beforehand.

Mrs. Bessie R. Nase.
The death occurred on Sunday, August 25, of Bessie R. Nase, wife of Phillip G. Nase, of Nerepis. Her death was sudden and she will be mourned by a very large circle of friends. She is survived by her husband, her mother and two brothers, A. C. Currie, of this city, and Cecil C. Currie, of Halifax (N. S.). The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock.

What Everywoman Knows

Every year, dress fabrics are becoming sheerer and sheerer—the colors more dainty. The ordeal of trusting the delicate garments to "soap and water," however, is done away with by the use of Lux.

You may feel quite free to buy the daintiest blouse or underwear your purse can afford—without a bit of worry about the washing of them. You keep them fresh and new the Lux way—simply dipping them up and down in the creamy, copious Lux suds with never a bit of rubbing to injure them.

Lux won't hurt anything that pure water itself may touch.

War Canning Bulletin

THE NEW PARADE

(Illustration by courtesy of National War Garden Commission, Washington)

This is the highway to the community canning centre—the pooling of ideas, equipment and energy. It is the kind of thing that is going on all over the country, since Parkhill, Ont., since it got last year. Indeed it "went" to such an extent that this small place managed to donate $4,500 worth of canned goods in all during 1917. Hamilton set the ball rolling with its Fruit Kitchen, which was opened soon after it broke out. Now the community canning centre has taken hold and bids fair to be a permanent institution. It is the most recent phase of the art of canning. From $800 to $600 is sufficient to buy all the tables, slicers, paring machines, seeders and sealers, together with the canning outfit proper to do several thousand quarts per day. Get your equipment this year and it will serve you on many a future occasion. The community canning centre has come to stay.

LAUNCHING OF THE WAR FUNDY

Fine Ship Takes Gracefully To the Water—Several Presentations

The War Fundy, built at Courtenay Bay by Grant & Horne, took gracefully to the waters on Saturday afternoon. Thousands of people had assembled to witness the launching and to the greater portion of them it was a novel experience. Just as the ship was to take the plunge Mrs. F. B. Carvell christened the vessel. When an attempt was made to swing the ship she grounded in the mud and it was found necessary to await the high tide of last night. She towed off last night without injury and was taken to Carleton.

Board of Trade Address.

As soon as the momentary excitement of the actual launching had subsided A. H. Wetmore, president of the board of trade, called Messrs. J. A. Grant and E. G. Horne, the builders, to the small dias that had been constructed and after a few preliminary remarks presented them with the following address and a silver cigarette case each, suitably engraved:

August 26, 1918.
Messrs. Grant & Horne,
Contractors, St. John (N. B.).

Gentlemen—The board of trade of St. John, deeply appreciating the spirit of enterprise and pushing forward to completion this staunch and splendid ship in the face of many initial difficulties and discouragements, begs you to accept the accompanying tokens of its appreciation.

Many years have elapsed since this locality last resounded with the sound of the ship carpenter's hammer, and it is a great satisfaction to the board that through your enterprise and determination not only has a fresh impetus been given to wooden shipbuilding here, but the port has been able to make a substantial contribution to the great national demand for overseas tonnage.

With the experience and knowledge that you and your workmen have gained from the construction of the present vessel and with the confidence that you have been able to make for the second ship, there is little doubt that its building will be accelerated and that you will have fewer obstacles to overcome.

Wishing your firm the fullest measure of success in this and subsequent undertakings and hoping for a successful career for the War Fundy,

We are,
Yours sincerely,
On behalf of the St. John Board of Trade,
A. H. WETMORE, President.
R. E. ARMSTRONG, Secretary.
J. A. Grant, the senior member of the firm, replied on behalf of the builders. He pointed out that the War Fundy had not been constructed in record time, but of one thing he was certain, that workmanship that had been placed upon was of a high standard and that every plank and part were honest and complete. He announced that the keel of a ship of similar dimensions would be laid today, and that the company hoped to be able to have the second ship ready for launching within six months of the date of the laying of the keel. The company had done its best and he wanted to publicly commend the master builder, superintendent, foremen and all the men for their honesty and patriotism in supporting the arm of the firm in the construction of the ship. In closing, he expressed his warmest appreciation of the kindly feeling expressed by the board of trade in its address.

At the conclusion of his speech he took occasion to present Mrs. F. B. Carvell, the sponsor for the ship, a beautiful serving tray, which bore a silver plate suitably engraved, to commemorate the occasion, and a unique feature of this gift was that it was fashioned entirely from the different kinds of wood used in the construction of the War Fundy, a sample of each type of wood being included in its manufacture. Mrs. Carvell, in a neat speech, thanked the donors.

R. C. Benson, the master builder, then made a presentation to Messrs. Grant and Horne on behalf of the men of the shipyard in a very neat speech, in which he said that he voted the sentiments of the men when he thanked the partners for their kindly interest in all the employees and he recounted the happy relationships that had existed during the period while the ship was under construction.

E. G. Horne replied on behalf of the firm and to the men who were present, thanking them for the manner in which

Neolin Soles

Good to your feet—waterproof and flexible

If Neolin Soles were merely longer-wearing soles they would not be worn by so many who can afford comfort—even luxury. But Neolin Soles add comfort and style to economy.

They are waterproof Soles—proof against rainy days and damp places. They conserve health and hold water-soaked shoes in shape.

They are flexible soles—easing tired feet; needing no breaking-in on new shoes. And this comfort they give on shoes at lower prices, as well as on the best of shoes.

For all their qualities, Neolin Soles should be on all shoes.

To-day everybody is interested in longer wear. Neolin gives it.

The workingman, postman, policeman, need foot-easy shoes as much as the business-man or the woman in the home. Children's health should be as carefully protected as that of their parents—by waterproof Neolin Soles. Shoe-stores have most styles of shoes built on Neolin Soles—the season's smartest last for men or women, sturdy shoes for factory or farm, comfortable shoes for the housewife, longer-wearing school shoes. Ask your dealer to show you shoes with Neolin Soles. Go, too, to your repairman, and have Neolin half-soles or full-soles nailed or sewn on your present shoes. But be sure it is Neolin—see that the name is on the bottom of the sole.

they had worked. This ended the official part of the programme, and the visitors crowded about the owners, congratulating them upon the success of their initial venture in the construction of ships. The War Fundy is the first ship to be launched from the shores of Courtenay Bay since the sea-going tug Lord Roberts, which was completed and launched in 1901.

The dimensions of the War Fundy are as follows: Length, 250 feet; beam, 45 feet, 6 inches; depth, 25 feet; draft, 8 feet forward and 18 feet aft; tonnage, 2,500. The keel was laid on August 12, 1917. James Gilchrist was the superintendent of the yard, and R. C. Benson the master builder.

FREEDOM OF ACTION IS PRESERVED BY CANADA

Ottawa, Aug. 25.—"The Canadian representatives," declared Sir Robert Borden, today, referring in the course of an interview, to the work of the imperial war conference, "carried out a definite policy of preserving complete freedom of action to the government and parliament of Canada in the policy and methods to be adopted for co-operation with other parts of the empire in any common purpose."

THE CZECHO-SLOVAKS

(Halifax Chronicle). Who are the Czechoslovaks, the troops so frequently mentioned in despatches relating to Siberia? They are composed, as a writer in the Boston Transcript states, very largely of Austrian forces which surrendered freely to the Russian General Brusiloff in the great offensive in 1917, and which were sent to Russian prisons beyond the Urals. Their strength was originally 900,000. When the Russian revolution broke out they were liberated from prison and began their march eastward for the avowed purpose of fighting alongside the Entente Allies against the Germans. The Czechs inhabit Bohemia, Moravia and Austrian Silesia, which under the present constitution are crown lands of the Austrian empire, and lie between Austria proper on the south and the German empire—Bavaria on the west, Saxony on the north, and Prussian Silesia on the east. The Slovaks live in the upper regions of Hungary, adjoining the Czechs to the east and southeast.

ST. JOHN AIRMAN'S WORK.

A letter from a friend of Flight Lieut. Frederick E. Power, who is on duty on the English coast, makes the interesting announcement that in the course of his duties recently Lieutenant Power was selected to act as air convoy to a great liner starting from a British port on a voyage across the Atlantic—quite an honor for the St. John aviator. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Power.

PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

In the St. John Patriotic Baseball League on Saturday afternoon, two games were played—one on the Barrack square between the Acadias and Military Headquarters team and one at Sussex between the Depot Battalion team and the Y.M.C.A. nine. In the former the Acadias won by a score of 6 to 1, and in the latter the Depot Battalion team won by a score of 18 to 11.

MRS. FRANK S. P. MACFARLANE

Early this morning, after a lingering illness, Mabel Gertrude MacFarlane, wife of Frank S. P. MacFarlane, of the customs store in Bay street, passed away, besides her husband, three sisters, Mrs. M. L. Seelye of Dipper Harbour, Mrs. Clarence McCready of Moncton and Mrs. A. Archibald of Truro. The funeral will take place tomorrow, privately, from the home of Henry MacFarlane, 115 St. David street.

BACK TO THE BRITISH NAVY.

Harry S. Harrington, a St. John boy, who was more than twenty-two months in the North Sea with the British watch-dogs, left here today after a delightful furlough home. The home lad looked very businesslike in his sailor top with arms decorated with various insignia meaning that he was qualified to handle big guns, torpedo tubes and do all sorts of things to Fritz when he gets the chance.

ASSAULT CHARGED.

Another Syrian assault case was partially aired this morning in the police court. The case seems to have grown out of trouble about two weeks ago. Josephine Zed now charges Annie George with striking her on the back with a stick. Some evidence was taken and the case set over until tomorrow morning, when witnesses for the defence will be present. Heber S. Keith appears for the plaintiff and Michael George for the defendant.

A $100 MEMBER.

On Saturday a gentleman visitor in the city called at the office of the president of the Navy League and said that he was so impressed with the arguments in the appeal for funds for the navy and of the excellent work being done by the Navy League that he wished to enroll himself as a life member and handed in the fee of $100 for which he was cordially thanked and received the silver badge which life members wear. This is considered most gratifying and augurs well for the appeal soon to be made. St. John now has three life members of the Navy League and the Fredericton branch two.

SAFELY ACROSS

Mrs. W. H. Banks of Rothesay has received a cable from her son, Walter, who went away with a siege battery draft. He arrived safely in England after a pleasant voyage. He wrote from camp at Fresham Pond Park, Surrey, Eng.

Mrs. Ira D. Farris of 254 Britain street yesterday received a cablegram from her son-in-law, Gunner F. W. Farris, informing her of his safe arrival in England. Gunner Farris was a member of a draft from a Siege Battery. He is a son of W. A. Farris of White Cove, Queens county.

S. Cooper, 950 Douglas avenue, received a cable this morning from his son, Leslie, announcing safe arrival in England, and "feeling fine." He is at Bourley Camp, Aldershot. The young man, who is the last of Mr. Cooper's three sons to go overseas, left Amherst recently with a draft for the Canadian Engineers.

PTE. P. DEVER IS KILLED IN ACTION

Had Enlisted in Boston—George Archibald Estey Missing Since August 10

Mrs. Alice Dever, 311 Brussels street, was advised this morning that her husband, Private Patrick Dever, had been killed in action on Aug. 12. Private Dever crossed overseas with the Highlanders battalion. He enlisted with the unit in Boston. Private Dever was twenty-eight years old. Besides his wife he leaves four brothers—Willie and Philip in France and Owen and Hugh in Boston; also two sisters, the Misses Maggie and Helen of Boston.

Pte. G. A. Estey.

Mrs. Alice Estey of 190 Millidge avenue has received word that her son, Pte. George Archibald Estey, of the artillery branch of the service has been missing since Aug. 10. The young soldier was a plumber's apprentice before he went to the war. He was wounded by gunshot in the hand not long ago, and now is missing after one of the big battles of recent weeks. As yet there are no particulars. He went overseas with the 140th Infantry battalion and transferred to the artillery. It is hoped that he will prove to be alive and that cheering word to that effect soon will reach his mother.

This family has done a full share in the war. The husband and father, William Estey, went overseas with Lieutenant Colonel A. E. Masie in the Army Service Corps and was invalided home after suffering from German gas and also sustaining injury. After being home only a few weeks he re-enlisted with the Construction Corps, and he has been across with that unit for nearly two years.

Arthur Estey, an uncle of the young soldier now missing, was one of the earliest volunteers and went across with Canada's first contingent. He was wounded some time ago but is still doing his share where the fighting is heavy.

Samuel J. Withers

George Withers, 103 Hazen street, has been advised that his brother, Acting-Corporal Samuel John Withers, has been wounded in the left leg with gunshot and admitted to the 49th Casualty Clearing Station. Corporal Withers went overseas a member of the Divisional Ammunition Column, and was later transferred to a siege battery. He is a member of one of St. John's most noted families in the war. The family distinguished themselves in the South African war and also in the present one.

J. P. DOHERTY TRAVELING FREIGHT AGENT OF C. P. R.

Relatives here have received the sad news that Frank J. Ap John of Edmonton, Alberta, was killed in action on August 6. His mother and three sisters survive. He was a grandson of the late James O. Stackhouse of this city.

Many people in the city will be interested to learn that J. P. Doherty of Montreal, who has been chief clerk for J. R. Clancy in the Canadian Pacific Ocean service, has been appointed success to the late James O. Stackhouse as agent of the C. P. R. over the New Brunswick division.

Mr. Doherty will enter upon his new duties about the last of the month. For many years he has been coming to St. John during the winter port season and he has a host of friends who will be pleased to learn of his appointment, who will unite in wishing him success in his new field of labor.

EVIDENCE IN LIQUOR CASE

Further hearing in the case of Dr. George O. Baxter, charged with having liquor in his office illegally, was taken up in the police court this morning. Kenneth J. MacRae and Daniel Mullin, R. C., appeared for the defendant and Kenneth A. Wilson for the prosecution.

Murray Baxter, son of Dr. Baxter, gave evidence that he had seen liquor bottles about his father's premises prior to seeing a case which was seized by the police. The prosecution closing their case, Mr. Mullin then read several sections of the act. In one of the act read that a registered physician could have liquor on his premises and could administer it to his patients as he deemed necessary. As to the quantity that he might have in his possession, Mr. Mullin contended that was left with the physician.

Mr. Wilson held that the manner in which the cases were addressed to the doctor was evidence in itself that the liquor was not meant for purely medicinal purposes. The case was set over until this afternoon.

C. P. R. CHANGE

Notice that George M. Bosworth, vice-president of the C. P. R. and manager of freight traffic, will retire on September 1 to become chairman of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Service Ltd., previously reported, was received at the C. P. R. headquarters here this morning. William R. MacInnes will succeed him. Mr. MacInnes will have charge of all matters connected with the company's traffic department.
