A STRONG, VIGOROUS MAN Is Liable to Break Down—Peru-na is Sure to Restore.

ALDERMAN FRANK DUNN

Hon. Frank Dunn, Alderman Twenty-Fourth District, writes from 232 East Fifty-Eighth Street, New York City: The Peru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O. Gentlemen: "There is no remedy for a broken-down system that I know of which will so effectively restore health as Peru-na. Whenever I am overworked or suffer from the consequences of a cold a few doses of Peru-na build me up again more quickly than anything I ever tried. I find it especially valuable for catarrh. Three bottles cured me three years ago of catarrh of the stomach and I have never had the least symptoms of it since."

Peru-na can be obtained for $1.00 a bottle at all first-class drug stores in Canada. The list of cities where it is sold is on the wrapper. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

"FIGHT THE ENEMY"

The Watchword of the Members for Pictou, N. S. Organization is Needed - A. C. Bell, M. P. Also Discusses Various Railway Projects and the Steel and Coal Industries.

(Montreal Gazette, 1st.)

"We will remain in opposition just as long as we deserve it; we will get back to the treasury benches when we again learn to fight the enemy," was the statement made yesterday at the Windsor by A. C. Bell, M. P. for Pictou, who is the parliamentary colleague of Sir Charles Hibbert, Pictou, N. S. Mr. Bell, who was provincial secretary in the short-lived ministry of Hon. J. S. D. Thompson, afterwards Sir John Thompson, prime minister of Canada, stated that he was doing a hearing power again. "We will never reach power again." All this the member for Pictou put down as nonsense, for he had not forgotten that there was still a large conservative vote in Quebec, and as for Nova Scotia he believes that effective organization will be able to carry that province in the near future.

MGR. MURPHY DEAD.

Was Connected for Thirty Years With St. Mary's Parish, Halifax.

HALIFAX, Nov. 4.—Rev. Monsignor Murphy died this morning at St. Mary's parish house. He was connected with St. Mary's parish for thirty years. He was fifty-eight years of age.

Edward F. Murphy was born near Charleville, County Cork, Ireland, on September 1st, 1843, and consequently was in the 58th year of his age. He was educated at All Hallows College, Dublin, and at the Sulpician college, Montreal. It was at the invitation of his uncle, the late Rev. Dr. Hannan, that young Murphy, then about 21 years of age, came out to this country. After completing his course at Montreal he was ordained to the priesthood in Halifax by Archbishop Connolly in 1866. He was attached to St. Mary's parish and in that parish he remained ever since, in 1887, on the death of Rev. Father Power, becoming its rector. In 1892, he celebrated the silver jubilee of his ordination and on that occasion was given the degree of D. D. On the death of Archbishop Connolly, Dr. Hannan succeeded to the see and Dr. Murphy became his private secretary. This office he also held under the present archbishop till about three years ago, when he was made promotor, with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor. He was vicar-general of the diocese in succession to the late Monsignor Carmody.

Rev. Mr. Murphy was considerable of a traveller, while he was a hard worker in St. Mary's parish and in the diocese of Nova Scotia. He made a lengthy visit to the Holy Land in company with Archbishop O'Brien in 1886. He was in Bermuda on several occasions, and frequently visited the United States and Canadian cities. He had six brothers, two of whom were clergymen—Father Gerald Murphy of St. Patrick's church, the other a Reformed minister. His father, the late Rev. Dr. Charles Hibbert, was in business in Halifax, and there are two in Ireland. There is one sister, now in Mexico, where she is the superior of a convent.

Rev. Mr. Murphy was a good citizen and an intelligent laborer. He was, as well as a good priest, he was warmly interested in St. Vincent de Paul society, and in all the branches of the church's work he was an active and intelligent laborer. In St. Mary's college, an educational institution once existed in Halifax, he was a professor and afterwards was its president.

THEY WERE VACCINATED.

And that Nearly Caused Civil War Last Night.—The Moral.

The streets were not rendered impassable last night by thronging crowds, but another case of smallpox had been reported, so a great part of the inhabitants were staying at home earnestly discussing the relative merits of carbolic acid and sulphur as disinfectants, or imbibing draughts of cooling cream of tartar water or making little bags of camphor to wear about their necks, the last being an old, well-known and infallible method of preventing any infection.

Mr. McINERNEY.

Mr. George V. McInerney, ex-M. P. for Kent, who is removing from Richmond to take up his residence in St. John, evidently enjoys the respect and esteem of the community which he leaves. During a public career of great usefulness and distinction Mr. McInerney has done honor to the county of Kent. The Montreal Times, in a well deserved tribute, expresses hope that in St. John "Mr. McInerney's splendid abilities will be more generously rewarded in a public way than they have been by the people of Kent." We rather think that Mr. McInerney is not coming to St. John in search of public rewards, but to seek a larger field of activity in the work of his profession. The people of Kent have twice elected him to the highest place in their gift, which is, after all, some recognition of his ability and worth. It seems that the professional opportunities in his gift are less than the political opportunities. St. John is not a large place, but such chances as she has, whether political, professional or social, are open to Mr. McInerney, who will be heartily welcomed to citizenship.

THE BATTLE OF BETHEL.

Fuller details of the engagement at Bethel go to show that it was not a victory for the Boers. The British lost heavily, but were able to hold their position against an all day attack of the concentrated Boer forces. In the end other forces came up and the Boers retired, having lost many more men than the British. This is the third attack in force which has been made within a short time on British positions. In no case have the Boers caused the inferior force to surrender or driven the defenders from the position. In every case the Boers have been obliged to withdraw, with a larger loss than they inflicted on their enemy. It must be admitted that Botha's and Delany's men have fought well, but they have not fought so well as their opponents.

ECCLIESIASTICAL PRECEDENCE.

A committee of the Ministerial Association at Ottawa has been struggling with the question of clerical precedence. The conclusion reached was that precedence among denominations should be based on the numbers adhering to each church. This is a democratic conclusion. But the Montreal Gazette points out some of its weaker features, and there are others which it does not mention.

Applied to the world at large, this rule would, according to the Gazette, give Buddhist priests precedence over the clergy of other faiths. In this country it would give one order of precedence to the Dominion were taken as the unit, and another if the count is made by provinces. It is not clear whether the Ottawa recommendation is intended to mean that the first place shall be given to Roman Catholic clergy in all official functions, or only in those of a purely federal character. This question would be of more importance in Ontario, where the Methodists are the leading denomination in point of numbers, than in other eastern provinces. For in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island, as in Quebec, the numerical advantage is with the Roman Catholic church. According to the census of 1891 the rule of numbers would give the Presbyterians precedence in Manitoba and the Church of England in British Columbia and the Northwest. When it is decided whether the classification by numbers shall be federal or provincial, or even municipal, and when the first place is assigned, the work of arranging the order of precedence will only be well begun.

ELIGIBLE FOR WHITEWASH.

The statement that Judge Hodgson had pronounced sentence of disqualification upon the seven Prince Edward Island persons who gave out liquor to voters on election day is not quite correct. The judge struck out the votes of these seven, and of ten others who distributed liquor. He had no power to disqualify. All that the law enabled him to do is, and that was to report these culprits for disqualification. The law provides that when the judge finds a person guilty of an offence of which the punishment is disqualification he shall report his finding to the speaker, who shall communicate the same to the house. The house shall then enter the report on its journals and give directions for giving effect to the verdict of the judge.

A STRIKING ELECTION TRIAL.

In these days of compromise, there is something refreshing in the result of the election trial just concluded at Georgetown, Prince Edward Island. The evidence in this case, and in others connected with the same election, was made public some time ago. It went to show that large quantities of liquor and considerable sums of money were sent out from Charlottetown to the constituencies, where the distribution went on all day in the most open and scandalous manner. No doubt it was assumed that after the election was over and the prohibitionist premier was well established in his seat, the offences would be overlooked. These cheerful hopes were vain. The parties who instituted proceedings declined to make terms, and the judge has given full effect to the law. Not only has the member in whose interest these offences were committed lost his seat, but his opponent gets it. There is no vacancy and no prospect for the unseated candidate to get in again by the same methods. The names of strikers, offenders are mentioned in the judgment. Seven of these lose their votes in the election and are disqualified from voting for eight years. The vote of nine others goes to the government candidate, a change into an opposition majority of twenty-one.

One hears on every hand of denunciation about the evils of bribery and corruption. These offences are no harder to
