QUESTION OF PAVEMENTS.

Director Cushing's Views on Subject Which is Causing General Interest Just Now.

The common council of St. John, during the current year, started to grapple with the problem of permanent street improvement, but did not prosecute it with much earnestness. During the coming winter season the question is expected to receive more attention as a system is likely to be adopted for the heavy traffic streets, operations to be carried out from time to time in accordance with the demands.

Speaking on the question recently, R. E. Cushing, the director of public works, said: "I hope in the near future to see the council adopt a plan of permanent street work. The matter has received considerable attention during the past year and recently a decision was reached to call for tenders for 12,000 yards of sheet asphalt, but there has been no conclusion to lay this material, the tenders being merely invited for the purpose of first learning the cost."

When asked his opinion regarding sheet asphalt use on heavy traffic streets, the director replied: "From evidence which I have collected, it is the best material for our streets where the grades don't exceed six feet in one hundred. Sheet asphalt is superseding other materials in many large cities in the United States and in Canada. It is a material which will be one of the chief pavements of the future. Its original cost is much greater than that of wooden paving, but the cost of maintenance is far less. In fact, its advocates claim that at the end of 10 years' use asphalt is cheaper than medium or wood paving."

Recent English papers say the question of substituting Canadian woods for the Baltic deals so extensively used in English cities and towns has been receiving the attention of their engineers. In London and the provinces, Canadian spruce has been in use for years, and the results compared have proven satisfactory. In fact, our woods have not been extensively used.

Respecting this Director Cushing says the wooden pavement is passing in England, as well as in other countries, consequently not much of a development may be looked for in exporting our woods for paving purposes. Director Cushing says makes a better paving than spruce, but it is difficult to obtain.

There is considerable agitation in the city for the reason of the existence of the shabby number of the six or eight hostels facing the square, "In the event of a fire little means of egress or escape would be offered for occupants of the tenements, and the fire escapes and getting mixed up in the shabby hostels," said the inspector, Inspector Maher agreed with opinions previously expressed on the subject of the shabby school building were burlesques. Referring to observations relative to the Kings county, Grand Union, Park and other hotels on the King square, Inspector Maher said that the fire escapes and other buildings on the King square should be improved in the rear where there were suitable means. On all the hotels on the north side of King square it would be necessary, according to his present plan, to compel the owners to place the appliances on the front of the buildings for the reason of the existence of the shabby number of the six or eight hostels facing the square.

Inspector Maher also drew attention to all public buildings and to all streets in which he is not compelled to provide fire escapes as stated in the common council.

The full text of the act is as follows: 1. In case any building, factory, hotel, theatre and houses of public entertainment, of three or more stories in height, within the city of St. John, shall be erected, or any such building, or any part thereof, or any fire escapes (constructed in such a manner as reasonably to prevent any person from being able to get out of the upper part of such building and above the roof, such stairs or fire escapes to be placed in such location and to be of such number and construction as the inspector of buildings at the time may determine and order.

2. The inspector of buildings, may at any time, by a notice in writing served upon the owner, lessee or occupant of any such building at his or their residence or public place of business, or either of them, require such owner, lessee or occupant to provide fire escapes as stated in the common council.

3. The inspector of buildings, may at any time, by a notice in writing served upon the owner, lessee or occupant of any such building at his or their residence or public place of business, or either of them, require such owner, lessee or occupant to provide fire escapes as stated in the common council.

TO ENFORCE THE LAW.

Authorities Demand Provision of Fire Escapes.

SCHOOL BOARD FIRST. Trustees Notified We Wednesday--Hotel Proprietors, Factory Owners, and Opera House Manager Will Be Informed Today--The Law and Its Features.

Wednesday the board of school trustees were informed by the inspector of buildings that all schools of three or more stories in height must be provided with proper fire escapes as prescribed by the law relating to conflagrations in St. John.

Today hotel keepers, factory owners and the manager of the Opera House will receive similar orders to comply with the law which specifies that the regulations must be carried out within ninety days.

The decision to enforce the law which was enacted by the legislature in March, 1900, is the outcome of the recent presentation from the grand jury to the common council, Monday the council passed an order instructing the inspector of buildings to enforce the law.

When called upon Wednesday Inspector Maher was busy occupying issuing orders to owners and occupants of buildings which will be required to provide suitable means of safety in the event of conflagration.

"I intend to enforce the law in accordance with the instructions of the common council and believe it to be desirable that it should be. At present the only buildings in St. John provided with proper appliances of escape are the cotton mill and general public hospital."

When asked what particular buildings would come under the law, the inspector mentioned the Royal, Dufferin, Victoria, New Victoria, Grand Union, Park and other hotels on the King square. Excepting those on King square the fire escapes thought the inspector of buildings would be attached in the rear where there were suitable means. On all the hotels on the north side of King square it would be necessary, according to his present plan, to compel the owners to place the appliances on the front of the buildings for the reason of the existence of the shabby number of the six or eight hostels facing the square.

Inspector Maher also drew attention to all public buildings and to all streets in which he is not compelled to provide fire escapes as stated in the common council.

The full text of the act is as follows: 1. In case any building, factory, hotel, theatre and houses of public entertainment, of three or more stories in height, within the city of St. John, shall be erected, or any such building, or any part thereof, or any fire escapes (constructed in such a manner as reasonably to prevent any person from being able to get out of the upper part of such building and above the roof, such stairs or fire escapes to be placed in such location and to be of such number and construction as the inspector of buildings at the time may determine and order.

2. The inspector of buildings, may at any time, by a notice in writing served upon the owner, lessee or occupant of any such building at his or their residence or public place of business, or either of them, require such owner, lessee or occupant to provide fire escapes as stated in the common council.

3. The inspector of buildings, may at any time, by a notice in writing served upon the owner, lessee or occupant of any such building at his or their residence or public place of business, or either of them, require such owner, lessee or occupant to provide fire escapes as stated in the common council.

4. Whenever, by refusal or neglect of the owner of any such building, the lessee or occupant thereof shall be placed such building at his own cost and expense four hundred flaps to the mile, or a distance of more than fourteen yards travelled through the air for every flap of the kind's wings.

THE SMALLPOX.

Many New Cases—Miss Clara Keller and Miss Flagg volunteer to do Duty in Epidemic Hospital.

There are now 27 cases of smallpox in the city and one in Chapel Grove, King's County.

Three new cases of smallpox were reported Tuesday. Two of the victims were inmates of houses where the disease existed previously, while the other was a patient in the General Public Hospital.

Tuesday's victims were sent to the epidemic hospital shortly after their cases were pronounced. Miss Isabel Wilson, of Victoria street, 16 years old, who was undergoing treatment at the institution under quarantine, was the first of the trio reported who developed the disease. The other two were Mrs. C. E. DeLob, mother of the young woman who died last week, and the other a child of Mrs. Beyer, who was sent to the epidemic hospital 10 days ago.

Following her daughter's death, Mrs. DeLob suffered a collapse of her nervous system, and has been in the epidemic hospital since her admission. She is now recovering. All the houses in quarantine are under the surveillance of the same physician, who also reported the new case in the Beyer house.

The period of quarantine for this house would have elapsed next Saturday. Mrs. Beyer and her children remain under quarantine in their home. In the DeLob house the head of the house and a son and daughter remain.

Four new cases of smallpox were sent to the Epidemic Hospital Wednesday. The fifth case for the day was reported in the afternoon, the sixth was reported in Fairville. The last mentioned is the first of the week where the disease broke out in a new district, the four pronounced during the day being inmates of the General Public Hospital and houses under quarantine.

The Fairville patients are Miss Julia Odell, a young woman who is at the home of her brother-in-law, a man named Shea, who lives near the C. P. R. station. She was reported as a suspect to the board of health by Dr. Grey Wednesday. Dr. Grey, who is in charge of the Fairville patients, ordered the house placarded.

The Odell girl, says Dr. Grey, was a diphtheria patient in the epidemic hospital at the time the first case of smallpox, that of the sailor Borden, was confined there. After being discharged the woman stopped for a short period at the Hamilton family where a case broke out a few days after she left. From the information which could be gathered at a late hour last night Miss Odell was in the Hamilton family for four days. Four days later the first case in the Hamilton family was reported. After her visit to Fairville to visit her brother-in-law, she returned to Chapel Grove where the existence of a case in that vicinity which is traced also to the hospital. The victim is Mrs. McKean, who is in the epidemic hospital at the time she is undergoing an operation. One or two days before the hospital was placed in quarantine the woman was discharged from the epidemic hospital and returned to her home in the Hamilton family where she is now residing.

Of the four patients sent from the General Public Hospital and two from houses under quarantine, the hospital cases are Aggie Stenwood, aged four years, daughter of Mrs. Stenwood, of Indiantown, and Miss Mary Burns, aged twenty-eight, of St. Martins. The two cases outside the hospital are now in the epidemic hospital, where they are being treated. Mrs. Borden thought, however, that the case is that of Joe Hamilton, aged three years. He also has a brother in the house.

Ten new cases of smallpox were reported Thursday, making a total of 27. There were patients in the General Public Hospital, and in the epidemic hospital.

Thursday the hospital authorities reported that in the epidemic department but more than one patient, a male, could be accommodated. In consequence Dr. Morris had three patients whom he had to retain in their homes.

Of the cases reported those from the general hospital were: Mrs. Bertha Knapp of Seville; Miss Julia Odell, a native of Seville; Miss Matilda Melville, of 305 Carmichael street.

Those from houses under quarantine: Louise DeLob, 17; Maggie Fawcett, 16; Bertrand Parker, 8; Rosie Parker, 8; Joe Hamilton, 3; John Hamilton, 14 months; and Miss Mary Burns, 28.

Washing tells the tale.

It proves the difference between Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear and those that are simply branded "Unshrinkable." "Guaranteed," etc. Stanfield's remains the same in shape and size, as soft and pliable as when purchased. Every garment bears the guarantee of the Truro Knitting Mills Co. to return your money if they shrink. No special directions for washing. As the pants receive more wear than the shirts, they are made of heavier material. Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear is sold on a positive guarantee against shrinking in the wash. Your money back if it does.

Sad Spectacle at the Depot--Tory Chief Had No Welcoming Friends.

R. L. Borden, M. P., leader of the Conservative opposition at Ottawa, passed through the city Tuesday, en route to Montreal, where he will be a guest at the annual dinner of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Borden could not be induced to talk politics to The Telegraph. He stated that business was good in Nova Scotia, and that the country was progressing. The mineral resources of the province were being developed, and the output was becoming greater. This especially applied to Cape Breton, where great quantities of iron ore were being produced. Mr. Borden thought, however, that the methods of gold mining and metallurgy could be greatly improved in the sister province. Nova Scotia abounded in gold, but much of the work in the past had been of a rather primitive character. The mining machinery and method of extracting the gold from the ore had not been improved, and much of the precious metal escaped and passed into the tailings and was lost. Mr. Borden thought that with modern metallurgical methods, the gold could be extracted completely from the ore, which would be a great advantage not only to the miner but also to the province, which would receive a larger return in royalties and thus an asset of the people would not be thrown away. Mr. Borden said that one concern in Nova Scotia had created a cyanide extraction plant and was reported to be doing well with the method. The cyanide process employed upon the tailings in the Trans-Canada and yields handsome returns. Mr. Borden has great faith in the gold mines of Nova Scotia and is hopeful that some day that province will rank as one of the great gold producers of the world.

Mr. Borden asked The Telegraph concerning the oil wells of Westmorland county, and expressed himself as being pleased at the prospect of their becoming a factor in the oil production of Canada. Notwithstanding that Mr. Borden spent 40 minutes at the station, no member of the Conservative party was present to greet him. In fact, some of the so-called Tory leaders without as much as offering him a kindly bon voyage. But these were the dark days of opposition, and Mr. Borden has no patronage to bestow.

St. John Man's Wedding. In the Catholic church at Ship Harbor, N. S., on Monday, Oct. 28, Thos. McNulty, of St. John, N. B., and Miss Margaret Keating, daughter of Thos. Keating, P. M., were united in matrimony. Rev. Father McManus, p. p., officiating. Miss Eliza Keating, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Thos. B. Keating, brother of the bride, was best man. The church looked brighter than ever with its decorations of white flowers, maple leaves and white ribbons in honor of the occasion. Under an arch of immaculate white the happy couple knelt and made their vows.

The bride looked lovely in a dress of white cashmere, silk and lace trimmings, with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses and maiden-hair fern. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was partaken of at the home of the bride by a number of invited guests. In the afternoon a reception was held, followed by a tea and dance at night.

Many valuable and useful presents attended the regard in which the bride was the bride's travelling dress was of old blue cloth with white silk and silver trimmings. They will live in St. John.

CHINA'S GREATEST STATESMAN, LI HUNG CHANG, IS NO MORE.

As He Lay Dying Paper Horses Were Brought by Friends for Transport of His Soul to Heaven.

Peikin, Nov. 7.—Li Hung Chang died at 11 o'clock this morning. Peikin, Nov. 6.—The physicians who visited Li Hung Chang at 10 o'clock last night found him unconscious and sinking extremely weak as the result of sitting up and working in defiance of their instructions. When they called this morning they found him unconscious and sinking rapidly. It was announced at noon that Li Hung Chang could hardly live three hours longer.

Lines have been so clearly marked that the work to be done is almost mechanical and is not likely to be retarded by Li Hung's death. A change in the Manchurian situation is expected, if he should die, and the United States has a very considerable interest in the outcome of that matter. Li Hung Chang is regarded here as strongly pro-Russian and it is possible that the death and the coming into power in China as the director of foreign affairs of another prince less friendly to Russia might hasten the day when Russia might relax her hold upon Manchuria and allow the country to be opened up to the commerce of the world.

THE EARTH'S CIRCLE

Circle, Out of Many Figures, Selected by God as the Best.

IMITATE THE GREAT ARCHITECT

The Circle of History and of Individuals—Men's Thoughts and Deeds Travel in the Lines of the Circle and Again and Again Recur as the Ages Pass by in Eternal Procession.

Washington, Nov. 3.—In this discourse Dr. Talangus shows that the good or evil we do returns to bless or blast us; text, Isaiah xl, 22. "It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth." While yet people thought that the world was flat and thousands of years before they found out that it was round Isaiah, in my text, intimated the shape of it—God sitting upon the circle of the earth. The most beautiful figure in all geometry is the circle. God made the universe on a plane, a circle, a sphere. There are in the natural world straight lines, angles, parallelograms, diagonals, quadrangles, but these are not God's favorites. Almost everywhere where you find him geometrizing you find the circle dominant, and if not the circle the circle's causeway, the circle's mold, the circle's pattern.

whirled around, and around whether we will or not, the victims of inexorable fate? No! So far from that I shall show you that we ourselves start the circle from the beginning and that it will surely come around again to us unless by divine intervention it be hindered. Those best or good actions may make the circuit of many years, but come back to us they will as certainly as that God sits on the circle of the earth. Jezebel, the worst woman of the Bible—Shakespeare copying his "Lady Macbeth" from her picture—slew Naboth because she wanted his vineyard. While the dogs were eating the body of Naboth Elijah the prophet put down his compass and marked a circle from the dogs clear around to the dogs that should eat the body of Jezebel, the murderer. "Impossible!" the people said. "That will never happen. Who is that being flung out of the palace window? Jezebel. A few hours after they came around, hoping to bury her. They found only the palms in the hands and the skull. The dogs that devoured Jezebel and the dogs that devoured Naboth. Oh, what a circle of eternal justice!" But it is sometimes the case that this circle sweeps through a century or through many centuries, and the world starts with a theory for government—that is, God was the president and emperor of the world. People got tired of a monarchy. They said: "We don't want God directly interfering with the affairs of the world. Give us a monarchy." The world had a monarchy. From a monarchy it is going to have a limited monarchy. After awhile the limited monarchy will be given up and the republicanism will be everywhere dominant and recognized. Then the world will get tired of the republican form of government, and it will start an anarchy, which is no government at all. And then all nations, finding out that man is not capable of righteously governing man, will cry out again for theocracy and say, "Let God come back and conduct the affairs of the world." Every step—monarchy, limited monarchy, republicanism, anarchy—only different steps between the first theocracy and the last theocracy or segments of the great circle of eternal justice.

NO MORE DELEGATES WILL GO TO WASHINGTON SEEKING RECIPROcity

At Manufacturers' Banquet, Some Important Things Were Said Last Night—Business of Convention at Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 6.—(Special)—Several important subjects were brought up at the afternoon session of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. The establishment of a national consular service for Canada, with consuls at the chief points of the commercial intelligence committee and endorsed by the association. The transportation committee recommended that the government be asked to subsidize a line of steamships from Eastern Canada to South Africa and Australia and also to appoint a permanent railway commission. The recommendations were approved. The secretary's report showed a total membership of 850 and the treasurer's report showed a good balance.

The following officers were elected: President, Robert Monroe, Canada Paint Company, Montreal; first vice-president, Cyrus A. Birge, Canada Screw Company, Hamilton; provincial vice-presidents, Ontario, W. K. George, Toronto; Quebec, J. J. McGill, Montreal; New Brunswick, C. J. Osman, The Albert Manufacturing Company, Hillsboro, N. B.; Manitoba, W. F. Thompson, Winnipeg; British Columbia, J. Hendrie, Vancouver; treasurer, G. Booth, Toronto.

The convention closed with a grand banquet at which nearly 500 guests sat down. Hon. Mr. Roland, of Montreal, presided. Among those present were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lord Strathcona, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. J. I. Tarte, R. L. Borden, Conservative leader. Interesting speeches were delivered by Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Mr. Fielding, Lord Strathcona, H. L. Borden and others. The premier said he believed in stability of the tariff but he did not believe the present tariff perfect. He announced that the Canadian government would send no more delegations to Washington to work for reciprocity, but he believed the delegations would come from Washington to Canada. He also favored mutual trade relations between the different parts of the empire. Lord Strathcona, Mr. Borden and Mr. Mr. Fielding also spoke in favor of closer relations between Canada and the other parts of the empire. Hon. Mr. Fielding expressed his belief that the tariff should be taken out of politics.

TO EXAMINE ALIENS AT CANADIAN PORTS.

New Agreement for Regulation—St. John a Point of Inspection.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Commissioner General Powderly, of the immigration bureau, has entered into an agreement with the principal steamship and road lines of Canada for the regulation of immigration to the United States through Canada. This agreement provides that aliens arriving in Canada destined to the United States shall be inspected in Halifax, N. S.; Quebec, Point Lévis, Vancouver, St. John, N. B., and Victoria, B. C., by United States commissioners, who will issue certificates to such as are entitled to enter this country and the holders of these certificates shall be enabled to enter the United States via any of these places without further examination. All aliens adjudged inadmissible shall be returned to the countries from which they came by the lines bringing them over. Masters of vessels bringing immigrants destined to the United States to Canadian ports shall furnish the United States commissioners access to complete manifests of all their alien passengers, the same as are now furnished by vessels entering the ports of the United States, and shall pay a head tax of $1 to the commissioner and tax to become a part of the immigration fund of the United States. Commissioners shall each give an indemnity bond of $10,000 to the United States.

NOVA SCOTIAN UNDER ARREST OUT WEST.

Charged With Forgery—Went Out on Farmers' Excursion.

Carberry, Man., Nov. 6.—(Special)—Harry Smith, a young Nova Scotian, was arrested near Brookdale and brought here today to stand preliminary trial for forgery. Smith and companion, Hurry Lorraine, came west together this fall, during the farmers' excursions. On reaching Carberry both made deposits in the Union Bank, Smith of $80 and Lorraine $40, for which each was given a deposit receipt. Some days ago a man appeared at the bank and presented a forged receipt and received $40. The rightful owner afterwards turned up for his money, and the arrest of Smith followed.

WHAT MAKES YOU COUGH?

Did you ever wonder just what it is that makes you cough? In a general way it is understood to be an involuntary effort of nature to eject something from the breath-ways. As a matter of fact, merely a slight throat inflammation caused by a cold will cause a cough to start, and the more you cough, the more you want to cough. If you allow the inflammation in the throat your cough will stop. Don't hit the sensitiveness of the throat with medicine containing a narcotic, but give it soothing and healing treatment. This is difficult, because the inflamed parts are in the way of the passage of food and drink. The true cough remedy is something that will protect the throat from the ill effect of catarrhal discharges and also from the irritation of swallowing food. Such a remedy is Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam. It has been used for many years with conquering success. It is a soothing compound prepared from bark and gum. Its balsamic effect is quickly felt and the work of healing promptly begun. If you once take Adams' Balsam for cough, you will never be satisfied without some of it at hand for any new cough. A trial size of the Balsam can be secured at any drugist for 10 cents. The regular size is 25 cents. In asking for the Balsam, be sure you get the genuine, which has "F. W. Kiesman & Co." blown in the bottle.
