Extra Years of Easy Riding

Many a bright, shiny-looking bicycle is a gay deceiver! It is merely built to sell. In a few short months it becomes a chipped, rusty-looking object that runs as hard as it looks.

On the other hand, C. C. M. Bicycles retain their looks and continue to run easily for years and years. Many in use for 10 to 20 years are still running well.

C. C. M. Bicycles depreciate more slowly than ordinary bicycles because they are made of better materials.

For example, C. C. M. case-hardened bearings are so hard a file cannot cut them. That is an assurance of extra long years of easy running.

C. C. M. smooth, highly-polished nickeling over rust-proof copper and C. C. M. brilliant, waterproof, triple enamelling mean a sparkling, bright finish with years of durability.

When you decide to buy a new model you can always obtain a good allowance for your used C. C. M.

This year's models have the new Hercules Positive Drive Brake—the Coaster Brake without a side arm. See them at your local dealer's.

Investigation in the United States shows that the per ton mile cost of hauling wheat and corn with motor trucks averages 15c as compared with 32c with horses. In the south hauling cotton by horse costs the planter 48c per ton mile, while the motor truck performs the same service for 15c per mile. In many sections of the country motor trucks are used for conveying live stock to the stockyards, as the shrinkage is much less. These figures are convincing arguments for Good Roads. Farmers in the United States are the largest users of motor trucks.

The Farmers' Sun expresses regret that the people of Ontario are so apathetic in regard to their own municipal affairs. What The Sun says is only too true. Very much of this apathy is due to the holding of our municipal elections in the middle of the holiday season, when everybody has other matters of more direct interest to attend to. Business men are rushed with the holiday trade, others with the Christmas and New Years festivities, and so on. If our municipal elections were held, as they should be, early in December, every municipality in the province would benefit thereby.—Forest Free Press.

For nearly 30 years the Salvation Army the world over has annually celebrated a Self-Denial Week. During that period special sacrifices are made by Salvationists in order that the Army's efforts may be carried on and extended in every field of endeavor. This year is Jubilee year. It will be marked by a Jubilee Self-Denial Week. As in previous years, so in this, the week of sacrificial giving will be preceded by week of prayer. This, too, will be in keeping with the spirit of the Jubilee. Grateful for the friendship and co-operation existing among all peoples, irrespective of creed or denomination, W. J. Richards, Commissioner of the Salvation Army in the Canada East Territory, invites all to join with the officers and soldiers of the Salvation Army in this week of prayer and meditation—April 18th to 24th.

OVERALLS

Application of the principle of the "overall movement" now spreading through the United States is the only method that will bring down the high cost of living. As long as people demand the best clothing they must be prepared to pay the exorbitant prices placed on it. There is only $6 or $7 worth of wool in a suit that sells at $75 or $80, the spinning and other processes of manufacture and the making of the suit eating up more than 75 per cent. of the ultimate cost. Style and quality of clothing is only a matter of custom or habit. Canadians could dress like Hottentots in summer, if they wished, and like Eskimos in winter, and use no fine worsteds at all. The old saying that "apparel oft proclaims the man" applies only when society sets definite standards to which those in its good graces obediently bow. The "overall movement" has the merit of introducing to general use a garment that does away with two of the three pieces belonging to a man's suit. Even if the overall manufacturers and dealers put prices up, the cost of one worsted suit would buy fifteen overalls. The enthusiastic and novelty-mongering Southerners who began the movement have had the satisfaction of seeing it spread to New York, the great cities of the Middle West, and even the Pacific States. In truth, the wages men who work in overalls as a regular thing have mounted so high, compared with those of brain-workers, that the latter will move up a notch in economic position, in the view of the former. When an engineer on a railroad draws as much as the Governor of a State, the Governor has a new standard to live up to. Even if in more conservative Canada the overall is not used in business offices and counting houses, it can replace the suit in many outdoor occupations. Drivers of delivery wagons, public utility employees, chauffeurs and others ought to wear them on general principle. What the world needs is more of the "overall" spirit in its whole economic mentality—for if a great reaction is not to follow from present inflation, there must be a return to common sense in expenditures, and a leveling down of values.—Mail and Empire.

Dr. Stevenson of London has introduced a bill in the Legislature in which it is proposed to take the privilege of issuing marriage licenses out of the hands of jewelers and others and placing it under the jurisdiction of municipal clerks. In Toronto and larger centres it is expected to furnish remunerative posts for returned soldiers.

RIOTS IN LONDONDERRY: TWO CONSTABLES SHOT AT ULSHER BORDER

Trouble in Derry Starts When Youths Attack Two Soldiers—Shooting of Mulholland Causes Sensation.

Londonderry, April 18.—Pierce rioting took place in Derry Saturday night and was continued into the earlier hours of this morning. Police, soldiers and civilians took part in the conflict, and many persons were injured and considerable damage done to property. A determined attack was made on the Lecky road police barracks in repelling which several casualties were caused by police fire.

The trouble was the aftermath of the desperate affray on Wednesday, when soldiers were obliged to open fire on a crowd. Last night's affair began with an attack by a band of youths on two soldiers who were passing along Riddle street. Beahored with iron bars and sticks, the two soldiers tried to escape down Carlisle road, but they were followed and roughly handled. They took refuge in their club in Carlisle street, but the building was attacked and the doors and windows smashed. Inside the club a terrible struggle took place, in which chairs and other furniture were used. In the end the attackers were repulsed and a barricade was constructed inside the building.

At this juncture isolated soldiers in the street waiting to enter the theatre were assailed. Unable to cope with the situation, the police on duty sought reinforcements, and a contingent of men arrived. A state of terror was created at this point by the rapid discharge of several revolver shots by members of the crowd, and the police returning, made another bayonet charge.

From the retreating crowd shots rang out again and the bayonet charges were renewed by the police, the crowd rushing wildly in front of the constabulary. Later on the military were requisitioned and 200 soldiers equipped with trench helmets and rifles reached the scene. For two hours the conflict raged fiercely, during which time the police, who were repeatedly stoned, made frequent bayonet charges. Eventually they cleared the thoroughfare's ends.

Dublin, April 18.—Sergt. Carol was killed and Constable Collins seriously wounded to-day while returning from Mass at the Kilmihil Church in Kilmihil, West Clare. The men were shot on the street at Dundaik, 4½ miles west of Dublin, Friday night, and died en route to the hospital.

The shooting of Mulholland has created a considerable sensation, as it is the first event of the kind that has been reported so near the Ulster border.

When the judges of the Assizes left Belfast yesterday afternoon for Dublin, they were for the first time accompanied all the way to the record by armed police.

BLIND MEN MARCH TOWARD LONDON

Pathetic Parade Along Country Roads of England.

London, April 18.—Strung out in pitiful array along the country roads of England, nearly 1,000 blind men were on a hike to London to lay their grievances before Premier Lloyd George.

They started on their slow Cozy trudge from Manchester Easter Monday. Collected from various towns in Lancashire, they were 60 strong when they left "Cottonopolis," but as they passed city after city their numbers were swelled by hundreds of other sightless unfortunates.

Large parties joined the pathetic parade at Birmingham and Leicester, and now they are approaching Wilkesden, where the poverty-stricken blind of London will join the ranks.

Right across England the marchers have met with wonderful demonstrations of sympathy. Collections have been made in the towns to help them on their way, and along the country roads farmers' wives have come to their aid with offerings of food and drink.

They plan a monster demonstration in Trafalgar Square, London, for April 25, and the following day they will seek an interview with the Prime Minister.

The object of their march is to attract public attention to the wretched conditions in which thousands of sightless people live. They urge the need of an adequate state allowance to remove them from the cares of mere existence.

FROST LEAVING WESTERN FARMS

Seeding About to Begin in Sask. and Manitoba.

A despatch from Edmonton says:—The snowfall which was general over the northern portion of the Province on Wednesday was followed by a mixture of rain and sleet, which also visited Lethbridge and southern portions on Thursday. The weather is quite mild, and it is the general belief that this moisture will help drive the frost from the ground. There can be no attempt by the farmers in Edmonton district and farther north to get out upon the land for at least two weeks, as there is still an average depth of frost in the ground of about twelve inches. The snow is falling farther north, but is reported to be melting almost as fast as it falls.

Prospects for seeding in the neighborhood of Calgary and farther south are brighter, and according to official announcement of the U. F. A. this will be begun next Monday. Some further stock losses have been reported at Lethbridge, although hay shipments during the past week have been the heaviest in months. Much hay is coming in from Washington, Minnesota and Nebraska points.

A despatch from Brandon says:—With bright sunshine and warm days the frost is rapidly leaving the ground in this district, and some farmers on the hill tops plan to be working their land on Monday, while in other sections many expect to commence operations before the middle of next week. During the past winter fifty six inches of snow fell in Brandon.

In the Portage Plains district conditions are gradually improving, and some seeding will be started next week.

BRITAIN EXPECTS 1,000,000 GUESTS

How They Will be Housed and Entertained.

A despatch from London says:—Britain is to receive more than 1,000,000 visitors during the next few months.

The influx, which promises to be the biggest on record, has already started, and steps have been taken by sixteen important international organizations to form a central clearing-house with headquarters in London to provide accommodation and entertainment for the guests, finding them hotel rooms and taking them over the country from Land's End to John o' Groat.

The general scheme embraces the placing of tourists with British families on the "paying-guest" principle. It is felt by the organizers that there are many families in London and elsewhere who may be glad to let their spare rooms on remunerative terms to overseas visitors, and to provide the necessary service and comfort. It would also promote friendship, and bring about a closer bond of sympathy among the English-speaking peoples.

Arrangements have been made to permit visitors from America to see Britain's beauty spots and historic places by means of especially conducted tours. The liners from New York will be met at Plymouth, Southampton and other ports, and motor excursions will be made to all places of interest in the counties nearest the port of arrival. The visitors will, under this scheme, reach London in easy stages.

Free help to find accommodation is provided by The Daily Mail Travel and Information Bureau, 130 Fleet-street, London, E.C. 4 (Paris Branch at 5, Rue Scrieb).
Readers are invited to make use of the Paris branch when passing through on their way to Italy, Switzerland, Spain, and the south of France. Current restrictions and regulations as to travel will be explained and other help given.

POSTAL TAX TO CONTINUE THIS YEAR

Yielded Revenue of $6,000,000 in 1919—Railways Demand Increase.

A despatch from Ottawa says:—Large increases in the cost of postal service will probably prevent a return this year to pre-war rates of postage. The tax of one cent on all letters which was imposed by the War Revenue Act of 1915 last year yielded a return of six million dollars. The stamp tax on commercial paper such as cheques, yielded a further ten million dollars. In the United States the postal war tax has been removed; in Canada similar action will likely be impossible because of the increased expenditure of the Post-office Department.

Further increases in expenses are threatened. The railways have notified the Post-office Department that they propose to increase the cost of carrying the mails by charging 37½ cents a mile for cars which have cost 17 cents a mile. This will entail an additional outlay by the country of about $4,000,000 a year. Increases in the salaries of postal employees will cost the country nearly two millions more than heretofore. Rural mail carriers, having organized and become affiliated with the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, recently sent a delegation to Ottawa to demand that their rates be standardized on a basis which will practically double them. Acceptance of this proposition would add about two million dollars to the cost of carrying mails in rural districts. Street car companies have also been asking for increases in rates for carrying letter carriers.

Over 6,000 Travellers On Five Ocean Liners

New York, April 18.—The Spring rush of transatlantic tourists began yesterday with the departure of 6,000 travellers on five liners. For the first time since the beginning of the world war Saturday sailings filled a number of piers of the various lines with departing travellers and their friends.

France Closing a Net Around Red Agitators

A despatch from Paris says:—France has begun to close a net around all aliens suspected of extremist propaganda. All "undesirables" will be deported. As a result, there is a great scurrying to cover among "Red" agitators and propagandists.

Lord Atholstan, prominent Montreal newspaperman, who has sailed for England. He will occupy a seat in the House of Lords, which will be the first time a Canadian has enjoyed this distinction.

FRENCH WITHDRAW FROM FRANKFORT

Colored Troops Were First to Retire From German Town.

Frankfort, April 18.—The French announced this morning that the withdrawal of the 37th Division of Wiesbaden had been completed with the exception of the Staff officers, who are leaving this afternoon.

So quietly was the withdrawal carried out that the people of Frankfort are still unaware that half the French occupation forces are gone.

The division included the Moroccan and Algerian troops, whose presence in Frankfort was greatly resented by the populace. No colored soldiers are here now.

Strikers Flock Back By Hundreds in East

New York, April 18.—The "outlaw" railroad strike blew up in the metropolitan district to-day, with the exception of a comparatively small group of irreconcilable switchmen, and three of the important roads, the Pennsylvania, the New York Central, and the New York, New Haven and Hartford resumed normal service.

The time limit for strikers to return to work expired at noon, and long before that hour men were flocking back by the hundreds, placing no reliance upon the frantic affirmations of agitators that if they "stuck it out" they would win in the end.

LEADERS OF U.S. RY. STRIKE ARRESTED

Thirty Taken Into Custody in Chicago Alone.

A despatch from Washington, D.C., says:—The Department of Justice has ordered widespread arrests of leaders in the unauthorized railroad strikes in general orders to United States attorneys, Attorney-General A. Mitchell Palmer has announced.

"District attorneys have been ordered to proceed as far as the evidence justifies, and arrests are being made in all parts of the country," the attorney said.

A despatch from Chicago says:—Thirty of the leaders of the insurgent switchmen, arrested here by Federal officers, face sentences of two years in the penitentiary, and fines of $15,000 each, according to United States attorneys.

They will be prosecuted under the provisions of the Lever Act, as they are accused of interfering with the movement of food and other necessities of life.

The "rebel leaders" as they are termed by the men of the railroad brotherhoods, who have been endeavoring to break the strike, were taken by surprise, when Government agents raided the headquarters of the insurgents and took in custody the men who have been most active in the work of tying up the railroads.

Turk Delegation to Sign Peace

A despatch from Paris says:—The Turkish delegation which will be sent to France for signing the Peace Treaty between the allies and Turkey is expected here before the end of April or during the first few days of May. The delegation will probably establish its quarters at the Hotel Despatch Reservoirs, Versailles.

Gen. Byng to be Chief of London Police Force

A despatch from London says:—The Daily Chronicle says that Lord Byng, formerly a Canadian Commander, will succeed General Macready as Chief of the London Police. General Macready has arrived in Ireland as the new Commander-in-Chief.

FOOD SUPPLY TO BE CUT OFF

If Germany Persists in Ignoring Terms of the Versailles Treaty.

A despatch from Paris says:—The Allies have reached an accord concerning the execution of the Treaty of Versailles, it is stated here, thus removing one of the causes of friction between France and Great Britain.

The agreement is aimed particularly at obtaining from Berlin strict execution of the disarmament clauses of the treaty, and provides for collective action toward this object. In the event of a refusal on the part of Germany to meet the clauses, it is proposed to cut off her food supplies.

Lord Derby held a long conference with Premier Millerand on the subject after the conference of the ambassadors. Although there is the greatest reluctance as to what occurred between the two, it is understood Lord Derby asked the French Government to adhere to and take part in the action.

The decision of the Allies was due, it is said, to evidence of Germany's bad faith. Latest reports from Allied observers were unanimous that the Ruhr movement never was Bolshevik in character. Opposition of the working classes to the treaty, supported by the Reichswehr with the reactionary designs, created the situation, these reports show.

Prince of Wales Invited to Alberta

A despatch from Calgary, Alberta, says:—The city of Calgary is inviting the Prince of Wales to spend a two-months' vacation in Alberta when returning to the Dominion. His Royal Highness has a ranch 60 miles southwest of Calgary, where he will raise ponies, sheep and cattle.

British Miners Accept Offer of Government

A despatch from London says:—The members of the Miners' Federation, by a majority of 65,185 votes, has decided to accept the Government's offer of a 20 per cent. increase on gross earnings. The decision of the men obviates the danger of a strike.

The Government's offer provides for a minimum flat advance of two shillings for all workers over 18 years of age, one shilling for workers between 16 and 18, and ninepence for workers under 16 years.
