

IF AN AD.

Is discontinued by a business house if it is like removing and leaving no notice of the new location.

London Advertiser.

VOL. XXVII, NO. 82.

MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 1890.

EVENING EDITION

WHOLE NO., 8538

WHAT WILL SHE DO?

Salisbury Waiting for Portugal to Make a Move.

Troublesome Questions for the British Tories.

Dr. Peters Once More.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Major Wissmann has telegraphed the German Government, confirming the reports of the safety of Dr. Peters.

Dr. Peters' Return.

London, Jan. 27.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talbot and his wife are passengers on the "Grand Line" steamer Aurora, which sailed for Liverpool for New York yesterday.

Storm of a Snow Storm.

There has been a snow storm in Hungary and Styria.

How are demolished and many lives have been lost. St. Martin's Cathedral at Pressburg was damaged by the storm.

Destructive Storms in Great Britain.

London, Jan. 27.—Gales continue with increasing strength and velocity.

Damage to property is general. Numberless houses have been unroofed. The River Shannon, in Ireland, and a number of rivers in Wales have overflowed their banks, flooding the adjacent country.

A Queenstown dispatch says: The western hurricane now prevailing is unprecedented in severity. The sea has caused much damage to the town. A number of small craft have been swamped. Outward-bound line steamers report fearful weather in the Irish Channel. The back Sildaw, from Piasua, encountered hurricanes for ten days and lost her first mate by drowning.

Pinto Shunted.

Lisbon, Jan. 27.—The Dia states that the Government has ordered Serpa Pinto upon a mission to Western Africa, and not permit him to return to Lisbon, lest the finger spirit may be recalled.

The Dia reports that a Portuguese vessel, the Province of Algarve, and says the trouble was not of republican origin, as rumored, but arose from the disorderly behavior of a number of soldiers who were experienced in the barracks in order to take part in the demonstration against the British ultimatum.

Three hundred paraders who marched through Lisbon Saturday shouting "Death to the English!" met with jeers and insults from the onlookers in the principal streets.

Emin Pasha.

London, Jan. 27.—The prolonged stay of Emin Pasha in Zanzibar, together with his manifest unwillingness to return to Europe, has led to the general belief that he is seeking a favorable opportunity to return to the interior of Africa. He still retains all his followers, who journeyed to Bagamoyo with him, and they have every evidence of their determination not to forsake him. In addition to these indications of his desire to go back to his province, he has preserved a reticence with regard to his experiences in the equatorial regions in Africa, inexplicable to his friends in the circumstances of Stanley's unrestrained reflections upon his steadfastness of purpose and qualities of leadership, aspirations which he would naturally hasten to disprove if he were contemplating residence in Europe for the future.

Troublesome Questions for the Tories.

London, Jan. 27.—Titles and free education are burning questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

Pressing questions among the Tories, and if the Irish land purchase scheme is less offensive to them because of its voluntary character, they do not relish the notion of offending the Ulster farmers by giving them titles and free education.

CANADA'S CAPITAL.

Grippe Gets Hold of the Minister of Militia—Lord Stanley Unwell.

(Special to the Advertiser.)

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 27.—Dr. Wilson, of Elgin, told me this morning that it is not at all likely that he will re-introduce this session his bill to relieve the action of trades unions from the charge of conspiracy. He withdrew it last year, it will be remembered, at the request of the Government, who promised to incorporate some measure with their labor legislation promised for this session. Hence Dr. Wilson thinks that if it is to come up as a private bill at this session it should be introduced by some supporter of the Government. If this is not done, however, Dr. Wilson will again put it on the notice paper.

The chat of the smoking-rooms and corridors seems to indicate that there will be trouble when Mr. Mulock's "loyalty to Britain" resolution comes up this afternoon. There are men in the House who are not convinced that Canadian independence is an impossible dream and who are not inclined to continue voting themselves thoroughly satisfied with the status quo.

Mr. J. W. R. Biggar, Toronto, city solicitor, is here in connection with the famous Godson case that is now before the Supreme Court. This is a charge of corruption against a city official who is said to have bribed from Contractor Godson.

An investigation was ordered before York County Judge, which Mr. Godson stopped with an injunction. This was appealed to the Supreme Court and makes the present case. Mr. Biggar represents the city, Mr. Aylsworth, Q.C., the Judge, and Mr. McCarthy, Q.C., the contractor.

Mr. Ellis, M.P. for St. John city, thinks that the Blair Government will have a clear majority in the Legislature, the more especially as the Opposition have not a cohesive policy or fixed leader.

Capital Notes.

Sir A. P. Caron has the grippe.

Official notice has been given that the motion picture of the "Grippe" is to be shown at the Grand Central Hotel, and that many were injured.

The steamer Yorkshire at Liverpool was flooded, but her bridges destroyed, and destroyed other damage. Three seamen were blown from the rigging, and two were drowned.

Many lives lost.

Menai Strait, in Wales, is rendered impassable by the fury of the gale. Many sailors have been swept overboard and drowned. The parade at Sand Gate is partially destroyed.

A wreck.

The ship Irex, bound from Greenock for Rio Janeiro, was wrecked off the Needles. Several of the crew were drowned. The survivors clung to the rigging all day Saturday and part of Sunday. It was impossible to send a life boat to the rescue, as no boat could live in the turbulent sea, but a life line was finally shot across the vessel by means of a rocket, and in this way the men were safely landed.

The Umbria's experience.

Capt. McKinnon, of the Umbria, reports that the vessel has ever experienced. Several passengers were injured by being thrown violently overboard, and it was finally rescued by means of a rocket, and in this way the men were safely landed.

Compelled to return.

London, Jan. 27.—The United States steamer "Umbria" having on board the remains of George H. Pendleton, late United States Minister to Germany, sailed from Dartmouth for New York yesterday, but was compelled to return owing to stress of weather.

Work and wages.

Trouble in the Dominion Printing Bureau—A Miners' Strike Postponed.

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—A conflict between the Government and the labor unions is threatening. A strike in the printing bureau is imminent, and the men are determined to demand the public printing shall not be done in any outside office. The men are very bitter against Superintendent Senechal and it is asserted that the trouble comes mainly from the tyranny of his administration. It is said that offensive regulations are imposed upon compositors, that the bureau has been filled with incompetents, favorites of the management, that tons of material have been bought which can never be utilized, and that a thorough inquiry into the affairs of the bureau will reveal a precious nest of scandals. The men demand that wages be increased from $11 to $13 per week. The demand will be made under the auspices of the International Typographical Union. J. J. Keady, of St. Catharines, organizer for Canada, is here to advise the local union.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—At a mass meeting of miners of Bochum, it was resolved, on account of the general elections, to defer the proposed strike until March 1.

The Hamburg strike is over, the men having accepted the shipowners' proposal restoring wages to 85 marks per month.

Chicago's Masonic Temple.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—The Masonic fraternity has just purchased a site here for the proposed $5,000,000 temple.

Death of Senator Rodier.

MONTREAL, Jan. 27.—Hon. Senator C. S. Rodier died at 11 o'clock last night at his residence, 68 Osborne street, in this city.

A New York Oil Well.

GLOVESVILLE, N.Y., Jan. 27.—Petroleum was struck Saturday morning on the farm of S. H. Kennedy, near Johnston. The well is being sunk by the Mohawk Heat, Light and Power Company, and promises a rich yield.

A Burglar's Choice.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Rogier Ryan, when being sentenced at Hamilton on Saturday, expressed a preference for spending three years in Kingston Penitentiary to eighteen months in the Central Prison, and the Police Magistrate gave him four years in the former.

A Boy Gets a $300 Verdict.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Henry Willis, a small boy, sued the corporation of Toronto and F. W. Nye, of the Rossin House block, for $1,000 damages for injury sustained in the fall from his elbow on Jan. 14 last by falling into a coal hole in the sidewalk. He got a verdict for $300.

Headache from Grippe, Influenza or colds instantly cured by Hodman's Harmless Headache Powders.

DANGERS OF THE DEEP.

No Word of the Missing Steamer Erin.

Tremendous Gales Sweep the Coast of Great Britain.

Perilous Passage of the Steamer Pennsylvania—Disasters Reported on Every Hand. A Number of Lives Lost.

STILL NO NEWS OF THE ERIN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Several ocean steamers came into port yesterday. They all reported more or less severe encounters with storms. Capt. Jurgensen, of the Sorbus, was knocked down and had his arm broken. None of the vessels saw anything of the missing steamer Erin.

London, Jan. 27.—Although almost everybody now convinced that the National Line steamer Erin has been lost, insurances were taken on her Saturday, though the enormous rate of 80 guineas per centage was charged.

THE PENNSYLVANIA'S PASSAGE.

HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 27.—The State Line steamer State of Pennsylvania, Capt. Mann, from Glasgow for New York, which put in here Saturday night, had continuous bad weather and head winds for eight days, during which she made little progress. The weather then cleared somewhat, but the navigation was very high, and on the 16th one of the vessels was carried away, and two others were smashed, and the head officer, on duty on the bridge, was seriously injured. Capt. Mann headed for St. John's, Nfld., but ran into the midst of ice fields, and saw occasional icebergs, causing him to change his course for Halifax. Among the saloon passengers are Jas. Wright and wife, bound for Seaford, Ont.

FOUR SEAMEN DROWNED.

London, Jan. 27.—Fierce gales continue. The bark Janet Crown has returned to Plymouth. She reports that two of her crew were washed overboard and drowned, and that many were injured.

The steamer Yorkshire at Liverpool was flooded, but her bridges destroyed, and destroyed other damage. Three seamen were blown from the rigging, and two were drowned.

Many lives lost.

Menai Strait, in Wales, is rendered impassable by the fury of the gale. Many sailors have been swept overboard and drowned. The parade at Sand Gate is partially destroyed.

A wreck.

The ship Irex, bound from Greenock for Rio Janeiro, was wrecked off the Needles. Several of the crew were drowned. The survivors clung to the rigging all day Saturday and part of Sunday. It was impossible to send a life boat to the rescue, as no boat could live in the turbulent sea, but a life line was finally shot across the vessel by means of a rocket, and in this way the men were safely landed.

The Umbria's experience.

Capt. McKinnon, of the Umbria, reports that the vessel has ever experienced. Several passengers were injured by being thrown violently overboard, and it was finally rescued by means of a rocket, and in this way the men were safely landed.

Compelled to return.

London, Jan. 27.—The United States steamer "Umbria" having on board the remains of George H. Pendleton, late United States Minister to Germany, sailed from Dartmouth for New York yesterday, but was compelled to return owing to stress of weather.

Work and wages.

Trouble in the Dominion Printing Bureau—A Miners' Strike Postponed.

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—A conflict between the Government and the labor unions is threatening. A strike in the printing bureau is imminent, and the men are determined to demand the public printing shall not be done in any outside office. The men are very bitter against Superintendent Senechal and it is asserted that the trouble comes mainly from the tyranny of his administration. It is said that offensive regulations are imposed upon compositors, that the bureau has been filled with incompetents, favorites of the management, that tons of material have been bought which can never be utilized, and that a thorough inquiry into the affairs of the bureau will reveal a precious nest of scandals. The men demand that wages be increased from $11 to $13 per week. The demand will be made under the auspices of the International Typographical Union. J. J. Keady, of St. Catharines, organizer for Canada, is here to advise the local union.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—At a mass meeting of miners of Bochum, it was resolved, on account of the general elections, to defer the proposed strike until March 1.

The Hamburg strike is over, the men having accepted the shipowners' proposal restoring wages to 85 marks per month.

Chicago's Masonic Temple.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—The Masonic fraternity has just purchased a site here for the proposed $5,000,000 temple.

Death of Senator Rodier.

MONTREAL, Jan. 27.—Hon. Senator C. S. Rodier died at 11 o'clock last night at his residence, 68 Osborne street, in this city.

A New York Oil Well.

GLOVESVILLE, N.Y., Jan. 27.—Petroleum was struck Saturday morning on the farm of S. H. Kennedy, near Johnston. The well is being sunk by the Mohawk Heat, Light and Power Company, and promises a rich yield.

A Burglar's Choice.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Rogier Ryan, when being sentenced at Hamilton on Saturday, expressed a preference for spending three years in Kingston Penitentiary to eighteen months in the Central Prison, and the Police Magistrate gave him four years in the former.

A Boy Gets a $300 Verdict.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Henry Willis, a small boy, sued the corporation of Toronto and F. W. Nye, of the Rossin House block, for $1,000 damages for injury sustained in the fall from his elbow on Jan. 14 last by falling into a coal hole in the sidewalk. He got a verdict for $300.

Headache from Grippe, Influenza or colds instantly cured by Hodman's Harmless Headache Powders.

BURNED!

Destructive Fires in Montreal and Sherbrooke—Other Serious Conflagrations.

MONTREAL, Jan. 26.—Fire broke out this noon in the Balmoral Hotel. The damage from water was heavy, and the total loss will amount to $25,000. The building is insured for between $85,000 and $105,000, and the furniture for $50,000.

ANOTHER BIG BLAZE IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Jan. 25.—At an early hour this morning, fire broke out in the foundry of Messrs. Parker, Dalhousie street. Though the fire departments did excellent service the blaze was not extinguished before $30,000 damage was done.

A $35,000 BLAZE.

Fire broke out this morning in the premises of the George Bishop Engraving Company, and damage to the amount of $35,000 was done. The building is only partially insured. The company is working in the rear of the building.

The fire was confined to three buildings. The National Bank building, insured for $5,200, is a total loss. Two, buildings, $7,000, is also a total loss. Not a brick is left standing. E. Boucher's building—loss, $500, and his stock possibly $1,000. Belanger Bros., printers, stock, $3,000. W. Gaboury, manager National Bank, furniture, $600. Deputy, jeweler, $200. Vineberg, general drygoods, loss unknown. Presby, photographer, $1,000. Two, furniture stock, $10,000. O'Dell's, jewelry and general goods, $7,000. Insurance agents estimate the loss at about $40,000, divided amongst the Liverpool, London and Globe, the Northern, Royal Canadian, Hartford, Western Assurance, Queen's, North British British and Mercantile and the Commercial Union.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 27.—The Nevada Building, on the corner of Fifth and Sycamore streets, a magnificent new seven-story structure, was completely gutted by fire. The occupants were Henderson-Achert Lithographing Company, George C. Lapham & Co., shoe manufacturers; Herman, Keck & Co., manufacturers of paper boxes; Hicks & Farley, hardware; H. B. Eckelman, shoe manufacturers; Ebersole & Co., real estate agents; Houston's Printing office, the Franklin laundry and Hoffman's barber shop. The loss on the building, which is owned by the Glenn estate, is about $75,000. The total loss is estimated at $80,000; insurance, $75,000.

AT SHERBROOKE.

SHERBROOKE, Que., Jan. 27.—A large fire broke out here Saturday morning. The building occupied by S. Twoz, furniture manufacturer, and the National Bank building, in which were the offices of the Bell Telephone Company and store of H. A. Odell, have been destroyed, and the adjoining buildings, including the Grand Central Hotel, were damaged. The books of the National Bank were saved. The origin of the fire is a mystery. Loss, heavy.

AT ELLENBURGH.

GARDNER, Man., Jan. 27.—Stevens' Block, occupied by a number of business firms, was burned Saturday afternoon. Loss, $85,000.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Jan. 27.—Fire broke out in a cargo of jute, on the bark Pythons yesterday morning, while she lay at her dock here. Several firemen were overcome by smoke, and narrowly escaped death, having been rescued while unconscious. To save the vessel it was necessary to scuttle her. Loss by fire, $25,000.

PORTSMOUTH LOST $100,000.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., Jan. 27.—A fire this morning in the Kittery navy yard destroyed the building occupied by the Construction and Repair Department as a machine and iron plate shop. Loss, $100,000.

THIRTY MEN WASHED OVERBOARD.

London, Jan. 27.—The British ship Loch Molard, Capt. Andrew, from Piasua, Nov. 2, has arrived at the wharf at Calcutta, and thirty of her crew were washed overboard after she struck and all perished.

FIVE MEN LOST.

The British ship John Cowan, Capt. Livingston, which returned to Plymouth Saturday in distress, lost a number of sails when off the Isle of Wight Thursday. Five of her crew were lost. Although the ship was almost dismantled the remainder of the crew succeeded in navigating her to Plymouth.

DROWNED.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—Michael Mara fell through a hole in the wharf at the foot of West Market into the bay Saturday evening. He was a married man, about 33 years of age, and lived at the east end of the city. He was employed at Messrs. Gurney's iron foundry.

A Boy and His Dog Drowned.

New York, Jan. 27.—William Wallace Mackfarland, aged 14, youngest son of W. W. Mackfarland, of the law firm of Tracy, Platt, Mackfarland & Boardman, started Saturday morning for skating on Bruyn's Pond, Gramercy Station, Staten Island. He was accompanied by his faithful dog "Bob," a magnificent St. Bernard. Neither returned home, and a search resulted in finding the bodies of boy and dog in the pond.

A Premium for Big Families.

QUEBEC, Jan. 27.—The Quebec Government, during the present session of the Local Legislature, will propose that to every man in the Province who has twelve living children shall be given 100 acres of land. At Trois Pistoles two families named Rouleau and Bozre have each 12 children. The Gingras, in Bellechasse, have 34, the Cretons, in L'Islet, have 27, and the Villancourts, in Kamouraska, have just had their 37th baptized.

A Bullet Aimed at a Bishop.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 27.—During confirmation services at St. John's Episcopal Church here last evening, an apparently demented young man arose from his seat, and pointing a revolver at Bishop Whitaker fired at him. The ball went wide. The man was arrested. He gave his name as David Alexander, of this city, and told a rambling story about a letter which induced him to make the attempt upon the venerable Bishop's life.

Mail vs. Empire.

TORONTO, Jan. 27.—The charge of criminal libel brought by Manager Harding of the Mail, against Manager David Creighton of the Empire, comes up the Police Court again to-day. On Saturday afternoon Editor Farrer, of the Mail, laid information before Hugh Miller, J.P., of alleged criminal libel on himself by Mr. Creighton and Mr. L. P. Kribs, manager and news editor of the latter paper. Summons were issued and served. These will come up to-day in the Police Court with the main charge.

Coughs, Colds, - Croup, Influenza.

Tolu Tar and Tamarack

Is the best of all remedies for a chronic or recent cold. For sale by all druggists.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

TOLU, TAR and TAMARACK

THE WEATHER.

Toronto, Jan. 26.—11 p.m.—A depression which has come from the Northwest States is now over the lake district, and is causing a light fall of rain or sleet in Ontario. Fair weather and moderate temperatures prevail in Eastern Canada. Colder weather and higher pressure are settling in over the Northwest.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES YESTERDAY.

For 24 hours ending 8 p.m.—(Observations taken at 3 a.m. and 8 p.m.)—Highest, 40°; lowest, 32°; mean (daily), 36°.

PROBABILITIES.

For the next 24 hours for the lakes: West to north winds; fair weather; slowly falling temperatures.

LONDON SOUTH.

Memorial Services in Knox Church—Death of an Old Resident.

SCOTLAND
Peterhead

Mr. and Mrs. T. Ross,

Operations have been begun for the erection of a Cat in the West of Scotland.

entertained on board by the citizens, at which ind of amusement"—"a wh oom with half-dressed wom machinery and she was dragged Down James Stark, senior

The Trustees of the Crick shall constitute a monument for James Crichton and his

Prince Malcolm Khan, conf and Decoration of Comm
Dr. P. S. Mair

and is a brother of Sheriff M shire.

light, entered into a eulogistic song. The lady that he said ought to too much reading in the pre e asked, read divorces, n

The first friction in the Su at least the first which ha ment of his estates from ... simply to let the Marquis and the management (which

It is reported that Mr. Ed made £26,000 out of "Sweet

A London fog which does

Colonel Townley, who died ay, at the age of 76, had 40 iving as a Queen's messenger.

state on the Hampshire I Maslemere and Liphook.

ct. 22, has been proved, mounting to upwards of £5

grave-clothes, and left the ed.

brigade at Aldershot; Colonel Queensne to command the barracks.

Southesk, and Miss Marion solemnized on the 2nd Jan

r. J. T. Davies, Llewellyn
r. James Thomson Mack rick and Dr. William S.

Dec. 31. Drink and jealousy use of all three crimes.

William Thomas Hook, aged 30, of Maidstone.

Lord Templetown's death

roughout the greater part of the year.

Lord Wolseley will succeed Lord Salisbury as commander of Saxe-Weimar as commander of the British expeditionary force.

£100 to the poor of evicted town of Tipperary.

The valuation of Belfast

A caretaker in Kilkenny has a band of about 30 armed

During a severe storm on the 1st inst. two women were killed.

sted Thomas Molyneux a n and a woman on a charc ix was in bed with his brother.

ad.

the great corn cure, Putnam's Corn Extractor. It works

Extractor, the sure, safe re for corns.

group. Ask for "Barkw her.

new stock, new store. M. rk butcher, Richmond
 undas

1

ARRIVE	DEPART
4:15 a.m.	4:35 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:10 a.m.	5:30 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

ARRIVE	DEPART
5:20 a.m.	5:40 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	12:15 p.m.
1:55 p.m.	2:15 p.m.
4:50 a.m.	5:10 a.m.
6:50 a.m.	7:10 a.m.
8:50 a.m.	9:10 a.m.
10:50 a.m.	11:10 a.m.
12:50 p.m.	1:10 p.m.
2:50 p.m.	3:10 p.m.
4:50 p.m.	5:10 p.m.
6:50 p.m.	7:10 p.m.
8:50 p.m.	9:10 p.m.
10:50 p.m.	11:10 p.m.

LATEST OLD WORLD NEWS.

SCOTLAND.

Mr. J. Wallace, Peterhead, (a Freeman of 55 years) standing died the other day. Owen Morgan King's Civil Life, recently stepped on some broken glass and thereafter died.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Ross, Keptie Angle, Arbroath, celebrated their diamond wedding on New Year's Day.

Operations have been begun at Beardsen for the erection of a Catholic college for Glasgow and the West of Scotland.

Peter Laing, the Elgin centenarian, was entertained on Jan. 6 at a public banquet by the citizens, at which the Provost presided.

At Crief New Year soiree for the poor Rev. W. Simpson called dancing "a low kind of amusement"—"a whirling about the room with half-dressed women."

James Macdonald, Dundee, Dundee, was killed in the Caledonian Linen Works. Her hair was caught in the machinery and she was dragged in.

Rev. James Macdonald, minister of Wulphart, Free Church, Greenock, died last night, in his 80th year. He retired from preaching about twenty years ago.

The Trustees of the Crichton Royal Institution for the reception of the insane at Dumfries are to devote £12,000 to the erection of a monument to the founders, Dr. James Crichton and his wife, who devoted to this purpose £100,000.

The Shah has, through his Ambassador, Prince Malak Khan, conferred the Order and Decoration of Commander of the Lion and Sun on Dr. R. S. Mair, physician to the Persian Embassy in London. Dr. Mair is a Persian himself, having been born in Persia, and is a brother of Sheriff Mair, of Lanarkshire.

Professor Blackie, in the course of a speech at a concert in Edinburgh the other night, entered into a eulogy of music and Scotch songs. The lady that despised Scotch song, he said, ought to go to England or Germany as soon as possible and leave the country. (Laughter.) There was far too much reading in the present age. Why, he asked, read divorcees, murders, etc., in the newspapers? Go, he said, into a corner and sing a Scotch song, as he himself did.

The first friction in the Sutherland family—at least the first which has become public—since the Duke on his first wife's death elevated his mistress to the position of Duchess, is the withdrawal of the management of his estates from the Marquis of Stafford, who has had control for several years. Meantime the Duke has taken the reins into his own hands, but, needless to say, is simply to let the Marquis down softly, and the management (which is by no means a sinecure) will in all probability soon be devolved to another.

It is reported that Mr. Edward Terry has made £26,000 out of "Sweet Lavender."

Mr. Quintin Hogg's Bible class at the Polytechnic, which numbers 600, is the largest in London.

A London for which does not disperse before night is said to reduce the receipts of the theatres £10,000.

Colonel Townley, who died but the other day, at the age of 76, had 40 years of active service as the Queen's messenger.

Mr. T. Sutherland, M.P. for Greenwich, has just purchased a beautiful residential estate on the Hampshire Downs, between Haslemere and Lipkirk.

The will of the Right Hon. Alexander, Earl of Leven and Belvidere, who died on Oct. 22, has been proved, the personality amounting to upwards of £525,000.

A young woman at Scarborough, named Sarah Ann Yeoman, who committed suicide the other day, previously prepared her grave-clothes, and left them lying on her bed.

The Queen has appointed Major-General Sir B. C. Russell to command a cavalry brigade at Aldershot; and J. C. Le Queux to command the troops at Shorncliffe.

The marriage of the Hon. Lancelot Douglas Carnegie, second son of the Earl of Southesk, and Miss Marion Barclay, daughter of the late Lord of the Isles, was solemnized on the 2nd January at Woodford, Essex.

The Queen has conferred baronetcies upon Mr. J. T. Davies, Llewellyn of Penllengar, and Dr. James Thomson Mackenzie, of Glenkiln, and Dr. William Scott, president of the Royal College of Surgeons.

Three wife-murders were hanged on Dec. 31. Drink and jealousy were the cause of all three crimes. The criminals were Robert West, 45, a travelling showman, and Frederick Brett, 29, a railway laborer, both executed at Leeds, and William Thomas Hook, aged 40, executed at Maidstone.

Nearly 100 members of the Dublin police are under medical treatment.

Lord Templeton's death makes a vacancy in the Irish representative peerage.

The linen trade has been prosperous throughout the greater part of the past year.

Mr. Hastings H. Crossley, professor of Greek in Queen's College, Belfast, has resigned.

Lord Wolsey will succeed Prince Edward of Saxe-Weimar as commander of the forces in Ireland.

The Tenants' Defense League has voted £200 to the poor of evicted tenants in the town of Tipperary.

A Belfast captain named Gordon has shot himself through the heart on the anniversary of his wife's death.

The valuation of Belfast has greatly increased during the past twelve months, during which period 2,250 new houses were erected.

A caretaker in Killybegs has been visited by a band of about 30 armed moonlighters, who attacked him and his family with stones.

During a severe storm on the night of the 4th inst. two women were killed by a tree being blown down upon them while driving home from market.

On the 7th inst. the Belfast police arrested Thomas Molyneux and two other men and a woman on a charge of being concerned in a burglary at a public house in Stanhope street. When apprehended Molyneux was in bed with his brother, who was dead.

The Victor's Crown
Should adorn the brow of the inventor of the great corn cure, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It works quickly, never makes a sore spot, and is just the thing you want. See that you get Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, the sure, safe and painless cure for corns.

"BARKWELL'S BRONCHIAL BALM" cures all kinds of coughs and colds, bronchitis and croup. Ask for "Barkwell's," take no other.

Dried beef, sausages, bolognas, black pudding, smoked hams, bacon and lard. New stock, new store. M. A. ANDREWS, pork butcher, Richmond street, near Dundas.

"WHAT IS IN A NAME?"

Dr. Talmage Preaches While the Steamer Waits.

A Name Which is About Every Name.

QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 26.—While the steamer from Liverpool was lying in this harbor a few hours to-day waiting for the mail many of the passengers went ashore. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D.D., was among the number, and took advantage of the opportunity to preach. His subject was "What is in a Name?" and his text Philippians, ii. 9: "A name which is about every name." The eminent preacher said:

On my way from the Holy Land, and while I wait for the steamer to resume her voyage to America, I preach to you from this text, which was one of Paul's rapturous and enthusiastic descriptions of the name of Jesus. By common proverb we have come to believe that there is nothing in a name, and so parents sometimes present their children for baptism regardless of the title given them, and not thinking that that particular title will be either a hindrance or a help, a strong mistake. You have no right to give to your child a name that is lacking in euphony, and that is not meaningful. It is a sin for you to call your child Jehoiakim or Tigham-Pleaser. Because you yourself may have an extraordinary name, it is no reason why you should give it to those who come after you. But how often you may look up into the face of Christ and say: "My Lord, Thou art a bright star, a morning star, a star forever." Wandering some day amid the ruins of life that know of no evening, and fall in crash and ruin, and amidst in golden and crystalline rock, and you wander up the round-backed river to where it first tingles its silver on the rock, and out of the chalice of life you may look up into the face of Christ and say: "My Lord, Thou art the fountain of living water."

A CHALLENGE.
I am staggered at the thought that the notwithstanding all the claims in the name of Jesus, and the fact that it is so easy a name, and so beautiful a name, and so potent a name, and so enduring a name, there are people who do not believe in it. I challenge those of you who are further from God than the close of this service and test with me whether God is good, whether Christ is gracious, and whether the Holy Spirit is omnipotent. I challenge you to come and kneel down with me at the altar of mercy. I will kneel on one side of the altar and you kneel on the other side of it, and neither of us will kneel until the other kneels. We will kneel in the words of the text, all honor to the name of Jesus, who pronouncing it, I pronounce it—the name that is above every name.

There are men who all their life long toil and strive to get over the influence of some unfortunate name. While we may, through right behavior and Christian demeanor, overcome the fact that we are named after the name of a despot, or an infidel, or a cheat, how much better it would have been if we all could have started life without any such incubus. When I find the apostle, in my text and in other parts of his writing, breaking out in exclamations of admiration in regard to the name of Jesus, I wonder what he meant. I wonder of the characteristics of that appellation. And O that the Saviour himself, while I speak, might fill me with his own presence, for we never can tell to others that which we have not ourselves felt.

AN EASY NAME.
First, this name of Jesus is an easy name. Sometimes we are asked to people whose name is so long and unpronounceable that we have sharply to listen, and to hear the name two or three times before we venture to speak it. But within the first two years the little child claps its hands, and looks up, and says: "Jesus." Can it be, and all the families represented here to-day, there is no household where the little ones speak of "father" and "mother" and "brother" and "sister," and not "the name which is above every name?" Sometimes we forget the titles of our very best friends, and we have to pause and think before we can recall the name. But can you imagine any freak of intellect in which you could forget the Saviour? That designation "Thou art Jesus" seems to fit the tongue in every dialect. When the voice in old age goes feeble and tremulous and indistinct, still this regal word has potent utterance.

Jesus, I love Thy charming name.
Thy name I sound it out so loud
That heaven and earth might hear.

A BEAUTIFUL NAME.
Still further, I remark it is a beautiful name. You notice, when you speak of the name of a person from the person who has the name. So there are names that are to me so suggestive that I do not want to hear them at all while those very names are attractive to London Advertiser.

Morning, Noon, Evening
THREE EDITIONS DAILY.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
By Mail, per year.....$5 00
By Mail, per month.....$5 00
IN LONDON.
Morning or Evening Editions (delivered), 10 cents per week.

THE WESTERN ADVERTISER.
By Mail, per year.....$1 00

ADVERTISING RATES
Made known on application at office. Address all communications to ADVERTISER PRINTING COMPANY,
LONDON, CANADA.

BRANCH OFFICES:
Toronto—C. Howland, 11 King Street
West.
Montreal and Maritime Provinces—A. McKim
& Co., Montreal, Que.

London, Monday, Jan. 27.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

It is now nineteen years and past since the Liberal Government of Ontario acceded to office, and for nearly eighteen years Oliver Mowat has been its continuous First Minister. Through five consecutive Parliaments he has sat at the first desk on the right of the Speaker's chair, and although he has grown gray in the country's service his strength is still "as the strength of ten." He has given to his country the best years of his life; and though he has crossed the line of three score and ten he is as hale and vigorous, and has as much capacity for hard work, as any other man in the local Legislature or the Federal Parliament, twenty years his junior. What other man, we should like to know, excepting perhaps Edward Blake or David Mills, could have given such a series of political addresses as those given to his Oxford constituents within the last few weeks by Oliver Mowat? One such speech would have exhausted the resources of most of our public men, even of those in the first rank. One speech exhausted W. R. Meredith; he told all he had to say on Provincial politics in his London effort, and we venture to say that should he lead his party in the coming campaign little will be heard from him excepting that one speech. But Mr. Mowat was able to take up a series of subjects of first-class importance and to discuss them with such ability, fairness and good judgment as to command the admiration of men of all parties. His last speech, dealing with the self-styled New Party, was an admirable specimen of Mr. Mowat's manner. Who else could have taken the trouble to search the records of the New Party as he did, to show what they have been saying, doing and pretending to do? or who else could have so thoroughly exposed the New Party as he has done, without saying an unkind or harsh word against them?

Looking at what Mr. Mowat has done, what he is capable of doing, his wisdom as a legislator and administrator, and the dignity with which he invests political discussion, it is no wonder that he enjoys the respect and confidence of the country in an increasing ratio from Parliament to Parliament. Mr. Meredith has certainly enjoyed a great advantage in having received his training as a legislator under the tutelage of Mr. Mowat. It has been to him a rare good fortune to have spent eighteen years taking political instruction at the hands of such a master; and if he is not yet all that we would like to see in the leader of an Opposition, we have but to consider how much worse he might have been but for his opportunities. Meantime, however, a number of very capable men have been trained up around Mr. Mowat fitted to wear his mantle, and with all due respect for Mr. Meredith we do not see any chance for him except as leader of the Opposition for the next 30 years.

On Thursday of this week the last session of the present Legislature—the sixth under Confederation—will be opened. It will no doubt be to some extent an eventful session. It will certainly be a fighting one, unless the Opposition have lost all its grit and pluck. Unless they can manufacture some political ammunition in the course of the next few months they may well despair of the campaign. The general record of the Government is so good that there is little chance of successful attack upon anything it has done or not done. Mr. Meredith and his newspaper organs know how futile it is to carry on a fair fight, and we may therefore expect to see issues raised that are not provincial in their scope. The London speech has given us an intimation of what is coming. Mr. Meredith, like Mr. McCarthy, will resort to the race and religion cry. Having singled out one class of voters to operate upon, and having tried to take the Irish vote and the Roman Catholic vote into his net by his "Facts for Irish Roman Catholic Electors," and having tried again to bag the Orange and Green by singing "O happy would I be with either worse or better dear Charmer away," he is now ready to swoop down upon Irish and French and Roman Catholics of every race as "the common enemy." We do not pretend to know how far he is supported in this policy by his followers in the House. Mr. Clancy, of Kent, will hardly join in the hue and cry; but as Mr. Clancy has already found the place so first time is asserted in many quarters he has decided to drop out at the end of the coming session, he does not count. Mr. Creighton is a harder seat for him to keep up his insinuation for Sir John at Ottawa, who refused to disallow the Jesuits' Estates Act, as well as for Mr. Meredith who is dancing with D'Alton McCarthy for his partner. But Mr. Creighton has little chance of being chosen for the next Legislature anyway, and he can best follow the lead of his newspaper, in a circle nowhere. The two Clarks may split, seeing that Edward is looking to Ottawa, and as for our own Mr.

Tooley he is bound to stay at home in the next Legislature, no matter what way he goes. On the whole, we think Mr. Meredith stands a better chance of wrecking his own party than of doing the Government any harm. It does indeed seem fatuous that he should presume to attack Mr. Mowat or his Government on the pretense that by any act of theirs the Protestant religion has been weakened or has suffered any wrong. What claim has Mr. Meredith to be regarded as a Protestant champion, we should like to know? What claim has he, indeed, to be regarded as an active Christian worker at all? Who has ever heard of him in that connection? Men who come forward in Parliament as the champion of any religious or sectarian cause are usually known as very sincere and zealous men, and no one has ever succeeded as such a champion unless his life conformed with his profession. Mr. Meredith as a champion of Protestant rights or Protestant ascendancy is only a charlatan, and he can deceive nobody.

The Government has no cause to fear the issues which the Opposition may raise. It will meet the House with as much spirit and vigor as at any time during the last nineteen years. It will, we feel confident, have a good bill of fare for the session. The speech will give members something to talk about and think about, but it will be along the lines of straight politics. Mr. Mowat has never yet met the Legislature without having ready some useful and important work for it to do, and we feel sure that the coming session will be no exception. Practical statesmen know what the country requires at the opportune time; and Mr. Mowat and his colleagues are practical statesmen of the right stamp.

It is not at all unlikely, we should think, that the honor of opening the debate on the address will be assigned to Mr. Charles Mackenzie, the new member for Lambton. Mr. Mackenzie showed some ability in the discussion of public questions in his election campaign that he well deserves to be recognized in this way by the Government, and we will be surprised if he does not from the start take high rank as a Parliamentary debater. A thorough business man of wide and accurate information, he may be expected to deal with all questions in a practical and businesslike way.

HUSTLING TELLS.
Mr. C. M. Simmons, of Lobo, has been elected as representative of the Provincial Association of Arts and Agriculture for the eleventh district. He received the votes of the three Middlesex societies. Mr. Simmons had two able opponents, both well-known agriculturists, and either of whom might have been expected to do credit to their constituents. But the Lobo man proved a regular hustler in placing his views before the public, through the agency of the Advertiser, and by oral demonstration, and he has his reward. Without a doubt, he will make himself heard at the board on the side of economy and retrenchment at the start, and as soon as possible in the movement for the abolition of the Provincial Show. Mr. Simmons has decided views on the subject of the show, and like many others of us has reached the conclusion that the Provincial Exhibition has passed its day of usefulness, and that its place is now amply filled by such central exhibitions as the Western Fair. He will have an opportunity of impressing this view on his fellow members at their meeting which will be held in the near future. It is probable, however, that the Legislature, at its ensuing session, will be called upon to ratify the discontinuance of the show, and the devotion of the grant until now appropriated for its management to some more useful purpose.

ONE MORE CHANCE.
Messrs. John McClary, D. Regan and Geo. M. Reid have been re-appointed license commissioners for London. We presume that as Mr. Meredith has put a plank in his platform to the effect that the granting of licenses is conducted so as to terrorize the trade, and has practically represented that the license commissioners, in the performance of their duties, have no conscience, he will take the earliest opportunity to impeach these gentlemen. The Legislature meets this week, and we would suggest to the leader of the forlorn Opposition that he cease to utter meaningless denunciations of the license commissioners in general, and for once descend to particulars. It is now many weeks since the ADVERTISER called upon Mr. Meredith or any of his friends to give one specific instance of unfairness on the part of the license commissioners of this city. Mr. Meredith has not opened his mouth. His local organ remains dumb. Not one of his friends has ventured a word in defense of the charges; not an iota of proof has been supplied. We therefore have reached the conclusion that Mr. Meredith talked at random in his recent speech; that he had no warrant for his assertions, and that they were devoid of foundation as were other portions of his attack on the Mowat Administration. Many journalists in other parts of the Province have followed our example, and have issued similar challenges in regard to their districts, with the same result. Still, we await Mr. Meredith's action in the Legislature. If he knows enough against the administration of license affairs by Messrs. McClary, Regan and Reid let him tell us what it is, and impeach these gentlemen for their misconduct, or hereafter keep a brittle on his tongue.

There is at least one respect in which the Provincial Election law is incomparably in advance of the Federal. This is in the matter of the principle of one man one vote. One of the great sources of expense in carrying on the great business of the Provincial Legislature is the cost of the election. It is the polling of this vote which has led to so much litigation and expense in the outside world. There is no sound principle on which a system gives a very material advantage to the candidate who has the most funds at his disposal, and the sooner it is done away with the better. (Toronto Telegram.)

The reform will never be brought about in Dominion elections so long as Macdonald, Carling & Co. rule the roost. It would deprive them of a means of making votes for their party, and a reform having that object in view will never be introduced by a Tory Administration. The Telegram had better change its tactics for once, and aid the Liberal leaders to attain power in the Dominion as well as in the Province, and the change will be brought about. Liberal rule is rule by the people and for the people, and not simply for the man with the long purse.

Here is the startling formula which a London correspondent of the Courier des Etats-Unis has taken from a little book just published in that city to teach ladies the arts of beauty:

Every morning a prolonged cold bath; every night before retiring the same exercise; a complete Turkish bath once a week; application to the face for two or three hours each day of a slice of raw veal, to keep off wrinkles; a pilation during an equal term of a mask composed of the white of eggs, honey and barley paste, to preserve the firmness of the skin; a vigorous rubbing of the eyelids two or three times a day with a sponge dipped in rose water mixed with whisky, to preserve the brilliancy of the eyes; a covering of cold cream for the hands before retiring, and keeping on gloves during sleep; a rest of from ten to twelve hours, because early rising reddens the eyes and mars the lines of the face; careful avoidance of all cares and every subject of an exciting nature; never to get angry; constant calm, for tears are the destruction of charms; smiles eternal, even in the teeth of disagreeable things; exercise on the bicycle.

Mrs. Langtry, so this correspondent says, takes a tremendous cold both every morning, after which she gets herself shampoored, to preserve the freshness of her skin; and Mrs. Frank Leslie draws the same effect out of a hot bath, into which she puts an extract from the branches of certain pine trees. The mask of raw veal and the bath are the essentials. But what woman who is not possessed of unlimited leisure could take time to carry out the various details set forth? A clean skin, plenty of exercise in the open air, abundance of sleep, and avoidance of worry, as far as possible, would seem to us to be the best agencies for promoting beauty, as, indeed, they are the most natural means, and without the aid of almost every woman. Let it not be forgotten that the foundation of Mrs. Langtry's beauty of face and feature was laid while she spent a goodly portion of her time romping in the highways and byways of the Isle of Jersey.

If our divorcees are not good the world over let us improve our facilities and insist that the graduates of our divorce courts shall be treated with the same respect and courtesy as ourselves upon them. (Chicago Times.)

Dye hear that, Ottawa boycotters? But how do the Chicago divorce millers mean to compel Canadians, for example, to treat with "distinguished regard" men and women who go to the city of the hugs solely to get rid of marital responsibilities of which Canadian law refuses to relieve them?

ANNEXATION my now be regarded as postponed until such time as the Toronto Mail is able to parcel up the Dominion and hand it over to C. O. D. It's a long cry to that hollow, though, Canadians prefer to remain Canadians, but they do not object to cultivate relations with their neighbors that may be jointly profitable.

HUNDREDS of boomers are camped in the snow near Pierre, S. D., awaiting the opening of the Sioux Reservation. It is safe to say that the majority of them are disgusted Oklahomans.

LADY admirers of the conspicuous and original will be interested in the fact now prevalent of dressing from head to foot in the tint of one's own hair. The peculiar shade of chestnut-brown hair and the fair and rough cloth of which ulster, jacket, paletot and gown are made.

A CO-OPERATIVE colony, on the plan laid down in Bellamy's "Looking Backward," is reported from Oregon, where 35 men, 6 women and a little brood of 33 children, all "radical socialists," have occupied 4,000 acres of land and have all gone to work for exactly the same pay, with exactly the same hours, and with various other pleasant little machine features.

Mrs. DAY, arrested in Michigan on the supposition that she was the famous "old Mrs. Bender" has become insane. The charge has weighed heavily on her mind and old age accompanied by the hardships of jail life has turned her mind. The physicians say she is hopelessly insane. Her trial, and that of her daughter are set for the March term of court. There are grave doubts as to whether any of the members of the notorious Bender family are now alive.

The long-debated question at Berlin of reintroducing the court dress for gentlemen worn at the time of Frederick the Great, comprising knee breeches, silk stockings and high-heeled shoes, has at length been decided. The Emperor William having issued an order that civilians of all ranks shall, on presenting themselves at court, wear this costume. The new order is to be observed for the first time on the birthday this week.

Frenchmen can properly be called "knights of the table." They are good judges in all their refinements and delicacies. In order to stimulate the appetite and keep the digestive organs in good order they give pre-eminence to ANGIOSTOMA BOTTES. When you buy them be sure it is the genuine article, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegfert & Son.

HIGHEST AWARD PARIS EXHIBITION. GOLD MEDAL & DIPLOMA of HONOUR THE ONLY GOLD MEDAL FOR TOILET SOAP.

Pears' Soap

FOR TOILET AND NURSERY.
Specially Prepared for the delicate skin of Ladies and Children and others sensitive to the weather, winter or summer.
Redness, Roughness, and Chapping prevented.
Fair white hands.
Bright clear complexion
Soft healthy skin.

LONDON BUSINESS HOUSES.

LONDON MACHINE TOOL COMPANY MANUFACTURERS OF LATHES, PLANERS, DRILLS, ETC. Send for catalogue.	FOREST CITY WIRE WORKS 271 King St., London. Awnings on the most improved plan. Satisfaction guaranteed. Wire work in all its branches; with Chain, Staircase, etc. R. DENNIS.	WM. MALLOCH & CO., MACHINISTS. MANUFACTURERS OF ELEVATORS, Pulleys, Shafting, Hangers and Special Machinery. Repairing a specialty. 319 DUNDAS STREET.	GLOBE LIGHTNING ROD COY (LIMITED) Manufacturers of all kinds of COPPER LIGHTNING RODS King Street East, London STORE, 180 KING ST.
STOVES In Endless Variety. The largest stock in the city to select from at low prices. In section invited. WM. STEVELY 302 RICHMOND ST. Furnace work a specialty.	TAKE THE ADVERTISER FOR ALL THE NEWS. WE HAVE A FINE ASSORTMENT OF SINGLE & DOUBLE HARNESS BLANKETS, LAP ROBES, Trunks, Valises, Purses, etc. A CALL SOLICITED. MCCORMICK & DAHL, 366 Richmond street.	FERGUSON & SONS, Undertakers & Embalmers. Largest, best and cheapest in Canada. Telephone connection Residence, 189 Dufferin Ave.	FERGUSON BROS., Wholesale and Retail Dealers in all kinds of LUMBER Laths, Shingles, Cedar Posts, etc. OFFICE—Corner York and Ridout streets, London. East End Branch, Hamilton road, east of Burwell street.

PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE

PHILLIPS' COD LIVER OIL

WITH THE WHEAT PHOSPHATES.
Miscible with Milk or Water and Just as Palatable.
Retainable on the most delicate Stomach, and digested with ease.
FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF Consumption, Bronchitis, Scrophulous and Wasting Diseases, Coughs, Colds and Lung Affections, AND AS A FLESH-MAKER IT HAS NO EQUAL.
For Sale by All Chemists.
PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA FOR DYSPEPSIA.
Phillips' Phospho-Muriate, The Tonic of Quinine Compound of the day.

1890.
Whittaker's Almanac,
Paper and Cloth.
Punch's Almanac,
Canadian Almanac,
OFFICE AND POCKET DIARIES.
JOHN MILLS,
Bookseller and News Agent, 404 Richmond St.

LEADING HOTELS.
HOTEL METROPOLE
(LATE SHAKESPEARE HOTEL),
Corner of King and York Streets
TORONTO.
This centrally situated hotel has been thoroughly refitted, and is now first-class in every particular. Rates $1.50 and $2.00, according to location. A call respectfully solicited.
JOHN McGRORY, Proprietor.

ROSSIN HOUSE
TORONTO.
Remodeled and refurnished. The most complete, luxurious and liberally managed hotel in Toronto. Immunity from noxious gases and ventilation traps and thorough plumbing known to sanitary science.

BAKER HOUSE,
Corner of Main and Wellington Streets,
GALT, - - - ONTARIO.
This house has recently been rebuilt and equipped in first-class style, with all the latest commercial and courteous attendants. A call respectfully solicited. A. F. BAKER, Proprietor.

IT WILL PAY YOU!
TO ADVERTISE IN THE LONDON ADVERTISER ITS VARIOUS EDITIONS,
MORNING, NOON and EVENING
CIRCULATE EVERYWHERE.

OUR WEEKLY EDITION
IS THE LARGEST IN WESTERN ONTARIO.

THE WINTER SEASON 1889-90
Being so extraordinarily mild, we have more Boys' and Men's Overcoats in stock than we care to carry over.

We have gone through them carefully, and have decided to rush them out at cost in many cases, and at 25 per cent less than cost in others. 400 in stock.

BURNS AND BAPTIST
154 DUNDAS STREET.

ADVERTISE IN THE ADVERTISER

PROBS.—The Weather be fair

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS
Strong's Pulmonary
OR COD LIVER
With Hypophosphites of Lime
A reliable remedy for Pulmonary Coughs, Colds and General Debility, recommended by the medical profession.

STRONG'S BAKING
25 CENTS PER POUND
Is without doubt one of the best baking powders now in use. Guaranteed pure. Made and sold only at

STRONG'S DRUG
151 DUNDAS STREET
Headquarters for HOME MEDICINES.
Marriage Licenses issued. LAWRENCE SPECTACLES reduced prices.

OFF FOR THE AN Sculler O'Connor Go
His Luck in Au

THE OAR.
William O'Connor is going he says, to row for the champion for stakes, without the champion reporter he said: "I am feeling and think I can give a pretty good account of the country I came from. I can try, for as I said it is the open to me unless I want to be small leave Toronto on Tuesday from San Francisco on the 10th of February. I will take an outfit with me so as to be as possible.

CURLING.
THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT
CHATHAM, Jan. 25.—The opening here last evening was a match between the President and the Chatham team, and resulted in a victory for the President by the following score:

President.	Vice-President.
J. E. Thomas.	W. R. H. H.
Robt. Gray.	Geo. C. H.
A. S. L. Mackintosh.	Geo. C. H.
A. Kirkland, skipper.	W. L. W.
W. Richards.	W. L. W.
P. Coate.	A. F. F.
Chas. Pegler, sen.	W. J. H.
G. S. Deeks, skipper.	W. J. H.
G. W. Cornell.	W. J. H.
W. T. Bray.	C. R. A.
John Wright.	A. M. R.
Dr. Bray, skipper.	C. R. A.

Total.....47 Total.....47

The Detroit Club's rink was Saturday night. Detroit and play a district medal match at shortly.
The annual match between the Vice-President's teams of Union Curling Club, took place and resulted in a victory for the Vice-President's team by the eight shots.
The Detroit Curling Club has their willingness to come to London's rink to compete for silver tankard. Thamesford failed to come to compete.
A Winnipeg dispatch says: bospital under the auspices of R. C. C. next month promises the greatest curling event ever held in Canada. It is expected that he in attendance. Last year so competed. Five or six rinks from Eastern Canada, among them from Hamilton, one from one from Scotland, and one from the United States. The United rinks will represent the United States.

FOOTBALL.
A manufacturer of footballs, "Secretary, Football Club," of Wales, soliciting orders. He requests the parish clerk to reply, which have no clubs of the kind here. Better Christians than to allow men to indulge in such wickedness. Let them read their Bibles, pray, and think of death." Attention to the football player to death" is timely. They generally the game is half over. But the parish clerk shows that Wales is poor place for a young man through college education. (Herald.)

BASEBALL.
SCOTT'S CATCH.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 25.—Stratton, of the Louisville Baseball Club, from Louisville last week, Jessie Anderson, and they were Jefferson City. The bride is the of a well-to-do farmer.

FLYS.
Baseball on skates is all the Chicago.

Secretary White has been notified Signawm and Bay City have been admitted as one club in International League.

Con. Murphy, who has signed Brooklyn Brotherhood, will be for damages. Murphy is still in the Syracuse club.

Syracuse is still on the ragged end. He professes to be waiting for way arrangements to go through $10,000 bond has not yet been paid.

Jack Reidy is sore because he held on the Buffalo International list. He says he has been declining two good offers, and that time he is let go all the teams with exception that Calahan, the pitcher, has not yet put his name in.

Secretary Fitzgerald, of the Brotherhood Club, denies that he is to play in Buffalo. Carney, he says, all probability play first base for The Buffalo Brotherhood team is with exception that Calahan, the pitcher, has not yet put his name in.

Chris Vander Ahe offers to sell Louis team for $5,000 cash, the to assume liabilities of $26,000. fifteen men under contract, among Chamberlain, McCarthy, Fuller and Duffer. Von der Ahe paid Combs $5,000 last season.

20 PER CENT OFF FOR
Beltz's Big Fur S

Our Stock of Ladies' Boas, Muffs, Cuffs, also Robes and Men's Coats, cleared out. BELTZ'S is determined to sell his fur at low prices will induce the mild weather has been dissipated we are bound to sacrifice.

BELTZ, Sign Black

PROBS.—The Weather To-day will be fair and colder.

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS USE

Strong's Pulmonic Balsam
OR COD LIVER OIL,
WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

A reliable remedy for Pulmonary Diseases, Coughs, Colds, General Debility, recommended by the medical profession.

STRONG'S BAKING POWDER
25 CENTS PER POUND.

Is without doubt one of the best of the many baking powders now in the market. Guaranteed pure. Made fresh daily, and sold only at

STRONG'S DRUG STORE
151 DUNDAS STREET.

Headquarters for HOMEOPATHIC MEDICINES.

Marriage Licenses issued at above address.

LAWRENCE SPECTACLES at reduced prices.

OFF FOR THE ANTIPODES

Sculler O'Connor Going to Try His Luck in Australia.

Opening Day of the Curling Season at Chatham—General Sporting News.

THE OAR.

William O'Connor is going to Australia, he says, to row for the championship and for stakes, without the championship. To a reporter he said: "I am feeling well now, and think I can give a pretty good account of the country I came from. At any rate I can try, for as I said it is the only course open to me unless I want to remain idle. I shall leave Toronto on Tuesday, and sail from San Francisco on the Mariposa on the 8th of February. I will take a warm boat and outfit with me as far as Canada as possible.

CURLING.

THE PRESIDENT'S VICTORY.

CHATHAM, Jan. 25.—The curling season opened here last evening with the annual match between the President and Vice-President, and resulted in favor of the President by the following score:

President, J. E. Thomas, 10; Vice-President, J. E. Thomas, 10.

St. L. Mackintosh, 10; St. L. Mackintosh, 10.

Kirkland, skip, 10; Kirkland, skip, 10.

W. Richards, 10; W. Richards, 10.

W. Lawrence, 10; W. Lawrence, 10.

A. F. Falls, 10; A. F. Falls, 10.

Chas. Peggie, 10; Chas. Peggie, 10.

G. R. Beck, skip, 10; G. R. Beck, skip, 10.

G. W. Cornell, 10; G. W. Cornell, 10.

W. T. Bray, 10; W. T. Bray, 10.

John Wright, 10; John Wright, 10.

Dr. Bray, skip, 10; Dr. Bray, skip, 10.

Total, 47; Total, 47.

SHOTS.

The Detroit Club's rink was opened on Saturday night. Detroit and Ancaster will play a district medal match at Woodstock shortly.

The annual match between the President and Vice-President's teams of the Guelph Union Curling Club, took place Saturday, and resulted in a victory for the President by eight shots.

The Detroit Curling Club have expressed their willingness to come to London at 24 hours' notice to compete for the Ontario silver tankard. Thameford is also prepared to come to compete.

A Winnipeg dispatch says: The curling bonspiel under the auspices of the Manitoba R. C. C. next month promises to be one of the greatest curling events ever held in Canada. It is expected that 100 rinks will be in attendance. Last year some 60 rinks competed. Five or six rinks are expected from Eastern Canada, among them one or two from Hamilton, one from Lindsay and one from Sarnia, and they were twenty rinks will represent the United States.

FOOTBALL.

A manufacturer of footballs wrote to the "Secretary, Football Club," of a town in Wales, soliciting orders. He received from the parish clerk a reply, which read: "We have no clubs of the kind here. We are better Christians than to allow our young men to indulge in such wicked pastimes. Let them read their Bibles and common prayers, and think of death." The advertisement to the football player to "think of death" is timely. They generally do before the game is half over. But the reply of the parish clerk shows that Wales is decidedly poor place for a young man to obtain a thorough college education. [Norristown Herald.]

BASEBALL.

SCOTT'S CATCH.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 27.—Scott Stratton, of the Louisville Baseball Club, eloped from Taylorville last week with Jessie Anderson, and they were married in Jefferson City. The bride is the daughter of a well-to-do farmer.

FLYS.

Baseball on skates is all the rage at Chicago.

Secretary White has been instructed to notify Saginaw and Bay City that they have been admitted as one club into the International League.

Con. Murphy, who has signed with the Brooklyn Brotherhood club, will let for damages. Murphy is under reserve by the Syracuse club.

Syracuse is still on the ragged edge, and now professes to be waiting for some railway arrangements to go through. The $10,000 bond has not yet been put up.

Jack Reidy is sore because he is being held on the Buffalo International reserve list. He says he has been compelled to decline two good offers, and thinks by the time he is let go all the teams will be filled.

Secretary Fitzgerald, of the Buffalo Brotherhood Club, denies that Jay Faatz is to play in Buffalo. Carney, he says, will in all probability play first base for Buffalo. The Buffalo Brotherhood team is complete with exception that Callahan, the young pitcher, has not yet put his name to a contract, although he has promised to do so.

Chris Van der Ahe offers to sell the St. Louis team for $5,000 cash, the purchaser to assume liabilities of $25,000. He has fifteen men under contract, among whom are Chamberlain, McCarthy, Stettins, Fuller and Butler. Von der Ahe said he paid Comiskey $5,000 last season, Latham

20 PER CENT. OFF FOR CASH

Beltz's Big Fur Sale.

Our Stock of Ladies' Boas, Muffs, Collars and Jackets, also Robes and Men's Coats, to be cleared out. BELTZ'S is determined to get rid of his furs, if low prices will induce the public. The mild weather has been disastrous, and we are bound to sacrifice.

BELTZ, Sign Black Bear

$3,500, Robinson $3,200, O'Neil $3,000, Milligan $2,800.

THE TURP.

Some of the turpemen around Louisville, Kentucky, have made a proposition to have racers race their old age in.

John Osborne, the well-known English jockey, was 57 years old on the 7th inst. The London Sportsman of that date says: "It is not often a veteran, after appearing in the pigskin in such capital form as that shown by Osborne last season, and we cordially wish him 'Many happy returns of the day.'"

If rumor speaks truly Brother Sam Jones has been "barrin' down" somewhat hard on our Kentucky friends. It is said that, at a meeting recently, the preacher spoke of "raising children," when the critic shouted out: "We raise horses and bring up children." "Yes," responded Jones, "you raise horses worth $50,000 apiece and bring up children worth about $3 a head." [New York Sportsman.]

There is said to be a large band of wild horses, led by a thoroughbred known to the stockmen as the "Outlaw Stud," ranging between Truckee, Nevada county, and Peavine, Nev. Years ago the stallion, a fine thoroughbred, escaped to the mountains, and has since defied capture. By desperate riding stockmen manage to get into the band and drive out the colts. The horses range on the highest peaks, beyond where cattle and sheep often go. They only go down the mountain as fast as they can gallop. They go back at their leisure, feeding.

The following was received at the Police Gazette office the other day from Montpelier, Idaho: "Tybalt, the trained mouse owned by Francis Dunlap, of this place, has trotted a mile in 3 minutes 30 seconds. The mouse was lassoed 13,000 feet above the sea, in the Teton Mountains, Wyoming Territory. He is 2 years 6 months old, stands 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighs 900 pounds. He is well broken to harness, can trot single or double and has shown great speed, and has been trained nineteen months.

ATHLETICS.

The four best highest jumpers in America differ very much in the way they have made their records. W. B. Page has done 6 feet 4 inches off level ground; Guy Richards, 5 feet 11 inches; I. D. Webster, 5 feet 11 inches, and R. K. Driver, 5 feet 11 inches. The present American and Canadian high jumper, has 5 feet 11 inches to his credit. Not only do these men differ in the way of jumping, but they differ in the way they take off from the bar at various distances. Page and Webster, although very different in physique, take off between six and seven feet away from the bar in clearing the neighborhood of six feet, while Richards would get as close as 4 feet 6 inches while trying the same height. Pritchard has an average take off at this height of about 5 feet 6 inches from the bar.

CHECKERS.

A CHALLENGE TO THE WORLD.

C. H. Freeman, of Providence, R. I., offers to make a match to play 30 games, restricted or unrestricted, against any man in the world for from $500 to $1,000 a side. Freeman stipulates that the match must be played at Providence, and begin within 60 days after signing articles of agreement. While in Australia or New Zealand, these gentlemen were returning home after completing a trip of inspection over the western extension from London to Detroit. The trip has been a very successful one, and the gentlemen are returning home with a wealth of information. It is expected to begin the passenger traffic immediately when the offices at the different points are filled.

A brief interview was obtained with Superintendent Tait, whom the ADVERTISER reporter found busily engaged with a huge pile of papers in one end of the car and who greeted the reporter with a pleasant "Good-day," which encouraged the intruding scribe to ask him what he thought of the new extension.

"It is everything that could be desired," "I suppose you will be able to make some pretty fast time, will you not?" "Oh, yes. It will be no difficult matter to run over this piece of road at the rate of 60 miles an hour. It can be done with perfect safety."

"Did you make any fast time on the present trip?" queried the reporter.

"No, we did not attempt any fast running; we were making a careful scrutiny of the road, and made stops at all the stations. We ran from Windsor to Tilbury, a distance of 22 miles, I suppose, in 45 minutes, making three stops, but of course that is not regarded as fast."

"About what time does the company intend to begin running through passenger trains over the extension?"

"Well, it is intended that the agents will be in all the important offices along the line by Monday, and it is proposed to commence running the regular passenger service on that date as far as Chatham is concerned."

"What about those bad spots that are mentioned?"

"They do not amount to anything. They are private property, and the company has been remedied as soon as the weather permits. It is a fine road; the ballasting is excellent, and all the bridges throughout the entire extension are built of steel with massive stone abutments. The contract for the second ferry slip at Windsor has been let, and the work is now in progress. All the stations along the line will be of a substantial nature; but those at Chatham and Windsor will be somewhat elaborate. They will be built of stone with a handsome facing, and will doubtless constitute the show buildings of those places."

"At this point the conversation was cut short by the conductor's call 'All

EAST LONDON.

Resignation of the Pastor of Adelaide Street Baptist Church—A Missionary from India at King Street Church—Other Notes.

At the close of the regular morning service yesterday in Adelaide Street Baptist Church, when the members remained to partake of the Lord's Supper, the pastor, Rev. Thomas S. Johnson, announced the fact that he had received a call from the Baptist Church at Brantford. This call he had for several reasons considered it his duty to accept, and therefore tendered his resignation of the London pastorate. Mr. Johnson's resignation was accepted with numerous expressions of regret. In surrendering his charge, Mr. Johnson recommended the church to secure, for a term at least, the services of Rev. H. C. Speller, of Beamsville, and it is probable that the gentleman named will supply the pulpit next Sunday. Mr. Johnson preached his last sermon last evening, and evening, his text at the earlier service being Ephesians, v., 25-27, in which the marriage relation is used to typify the close affiliation which should exist between the church and the world with Christ. The subject of the evening discourse was Christ's great commission—the marching orders to his church, given to Matthew, xxviii., 19-20. "In this commission," said the preacher, "it was set forth as the duty of each member of the church, in his or her own way, to bring the Gospel to every man and woman in the land, that they might hear, believe and be baptized." The reverend gentleman, at the close of his evening discourse, stated briefly that it was his last sermon as pastor. He had made no special reference to this fact because he did not believe in giving it undue importance—he tried to preach each sermon as he would like to preach his last one. The ordinance of baptism was administered to two candidates at the close of the sermon. At the Sunday school meeting in the afternoon Mr. Johnson's announcement of his intention to leave created marked evidences of emotion among both teachers and scholars. By Mr. Johnson's removal London loses one of its ablest and most faithful ministers of the Gospel. Mr. J. G. Shuff, druggist, East London, who has been indisposed for the past week, is out again.

James Smith of Ahmadnagar, India, delivered an excellent missionary discourse yesterday morning in King Street Presbyterian Church, taking for his subject "Missions in India," which proved highly interesting. The pastor, Mr. Johnson, described the past and present condition, and bright prospects of that country, and emphasized the fact that Christianity was gradually finding its way into the hearts of these benighted heathens. Mr. Smith, who is well known in this city, having been pastor of the above church for a short time, has been laboring in India for the past eight years as a missionary of the American Board, and he intends returning shortly to resume his work. In the evening, special evangelistic services were held in the same place and were conducted by Rev. Walter M. Roger and Mr. Thomas Cole, provincial secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

THEIR VERDICT.

A Bunch of C. P. R. Officials on a Tour of Inspection Over the Western Extension.

Attached to the rear end of the 5 o'clock C. P. R. train which arrived here on Saturday afternoon was Mr. Van Horne's official car, in which were Messrs. W. C. Van Horne, president, Thomas Tait, superintendent, H. Beatty, manager of lake traffic, W. Jennings, engineer, H. W. Armstrong, assistant engineer, Hon. R. H. Wells, solicitor for the company, and George Bury, private secretary to Mr. Van Horne. These gentlemen were returning home after completing a trip of inspection over the western extension from London to Detroit. The trip has been a very successful one, and the gentlemen are returning home with a wealth of information. It is expected to begin the passenger traffic immediately when the offices at the different points are filled.

A brief interview was obtained with Superintendent Tait, whom the ADVERTISER reporter found busily engaged with a huge pile of papers in one end of the car and who greeted the reporter with a pleasant "Good-day," which encouraged the intruding scribe to ask him what he thought of the new extension.

"It is everything that could be desired," "I suppose you will be able to make some pretty fast time, will you not?" "Oh, yes. It will be no difficult matter to run over this piece of road at the rate of 60 miles an hour. It can be done with perfect safety."

"Did you make any fast time on the present trip?" queried the reporter.

"No, we did not attempt any fast running; we were making a careful scrutiny of the road, and made stops at all the stations. We ran from Windsor to Tilbury, a distance of 22 miles, I suppose, in 45 minutes, making three stops, but of course that is not regarded as fast."

"About what time does the company intend to begin running through passenger trains over the extension?"

"Well, it is intended that the agents will be in all the important offices along the line by Monday, and it is proposed to commence running the regular passenger service on that date as far as Chatham is concerned."

"What about those bad spots that are mentioned?"

"They do not amount to anything. They are private property, and the company has been remedied as soon as the weather permits. It is a fine road; the ballasting is excellent, and all the bridges throughout the entire extension are built of steel with massive stone abutments. The contract for the second ferry slip at Windsor has been let, and the work is now in progress. All the stations along the line will be of a substantial nature; but those at Chatham and Windsor will be somewhat elaborate. They will be built of stone with a handsome facing, and will doubtless constitute the show buildings of those places."

"At this point the conversation was cut short by the conductor's call 'All aboard," and the train pulled rapidly out of the depot. The party proceeded direct to Montreal.

Commenting this morning the C. P. R. will run a mixed train between this city and Chatham, carrying passengers. It will leave London at 7:45 a.m.; Hyde Park, 8 o'clock; Melrose, 8:10; Komoko, 8:25; Carleton Place, 8:40; Longwood, 8:55; Appin, 9:15; North Glencoe, 9:30; North Newbury, 9:55; North Bothwell, 10:15; North Thameville, 10:35; Kent Bridge, 10:50; arriving at Chatham at 11:15 a.m. Return: Chatham, 11:30; Kent Bridge, 11:45; North Thameville, 12:05; North Bothwell, 12:25; Appin, 12:40; Carleton Place, 1:00; Komoko, 1:15; Melrose, 1:30; Hyde Park, 1:45, arriving at London at 7 o'clock p.m.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The "Fauntleroy" boom is said to be over.

Ellen Terry has had four husbands and only one is dead.

Louisa Litta has canceled her English engagements and come home.

Florence St. John, the original Erminie, having created the part in London.

Maggie Mitchell denies the report that she is to leave the stage next season.

Miss Rosina Vokes has subscribed handsomely towards the Infants' Home in Toronto.

Victoria Vokes has closed her season. Bad business, bad plays and ill health are the cause.

A petition for a pension to Arabella Goddard, the well-known pianist, has been refused in London.

Gerster has tried again to sing in public—at a Dresden Philharmonic concert—but the result was failure.

It is said that Joseph Jefferson gets a thousand dollars from the Century for each section of his reminiscences.

The czar of Russia has bestowed an annual pension of 3,000 rubles (about $1,000) upon Anton Rubinstein.

W. W. Coudock is playing in "The Great Metropolis." He is 55 years of age and has been on the stage 63 years.

Helen Danvers is going to dispose of "One of Our Girls" and its scenery. She has finally decided never to return to the stage.

John Maddison Morton, the venerable author of "Box and Cox," receives an annuity of £80 as the result of the benefit performance given recently in his behalf.

A bloodhound (?) in an "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company in a Pennsylvania town, recently, chewed up a lawyer by the name of Marks in that interesting drama. That was an intelligent dog, and should be cast frequently in order to give his audience of his fullness may be extended. [Rocheester Union and Advertiser.]

Sarah Bernhardt seems to have commanded unique success in Jules Barbier's "Joan of Arc." She has been through the same as one in a dream or under hypnotic influence, and is said to produce most striking and novel effects; but still more, Paris is moved by the patriotic fervor which runs at the top pitch through the play from first to last and which the actress accentuates so that excited crowds stand up and cheer themselves hoarse. Her receipts for two performances were $6,000.

NELLIE BLY'S TRIP.

Her Jaunt Around the World Completed in Less Than 73 Days—A Popular Welcome.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The official time, as announced by the World's timers for the arrival of Nellie Bly, was 3:51 o'clock, thus making her complete trip around the world in 72 days, 6 hours and 11 minutes. There was the strongest enthusiasm on her arrival. She was driven directly to the World office, in front of which more than 5,000 persons had congregated. The carriages moved briskly from the depot, but despite this they were accompanied by a shouting, seething mob of people. In ten minutes there were fully 10,000 people in Park Row cheering and waving handkerchiefs and stopping the immense traffic of that thoroughfare. The scenes at the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, at the ferry and in the streets, thence to the World office, were of like description. Very few persons have received so flattering a popular welcome in New York as Nellie Bly. It being a semi-holiday, and the arrival of the little lady tenderly certain, probably added to the enthusiasm, good-nature and size of the crowds.

Twenty-Three Weeks in Three Weeks.

COLUMBIA, Ga., Jan. 27.—Twenty-three weeks in three weeks have caused a wholesale discontinuance of passenger traffic on the Central road of Georgia, which is a part of the Richmond and West Point Terminal Company's system.

A Cure for Diphtheria.

[Hartford Journal.]

The following remedy was discovered in Germany and is said to be the best known. At the first indication of diphtheria in the throat of a child make the room close, then take a tin cup and pour into it a quantity of turpentine and equal parts. Then hold the cup over a fire so as to fill the room with fumes. The little patient, on inhaling the fumes, will cough up and spit out all the membranes matter and the diphtheria will pass off. The fumes of the turpentine loosens the matter in the throat, thus affording the relief that has baffled the skill of physicians. This remedy is simple, and parents should cut this out and preserve it.

Brass Plush Tables.

Piano Lamps.

Pearl Fish-Eating Sets in Walnut, satin lined.

Carvers in Stag, silver mounts.

Pearl Dessert Sets in Walnut, satin lined.

Bread Forks, ivory and solid silver.

Apostle Tea Spoons.

Chocolate Jugs.

Opera Glasses.

Hobbs Hardware Co.

LONDON.

Keep Warm.

If you want to be happy keep warm. Women are eaten up with neuralgia, say the doctors. No wonder. They sit still all the morning by a hot register, then tie the five-or-six-inch strips of bonnet over their hair, a bit of lace film over their bangs, put on kid boots with silk or thread stockings underneath, and dawdle along the pave with bitter winds of winter sulking their temples, their delicate ears, their throats, and the bases of what should be their brain. Their outraged nerves shrivel and quiver under the barbarous exposure. But no matter; their chest is well covered with fur cloaks and saks, but cold feet, the numb ears, the reddened temples, the exposed neck, will have their own story to tell. Then you won't wear flannel next to skin. Why? Because your waists will look too large, and it is the style to be as near in shapelessness to that delightful and lovely insect, the wasp, as humanity can be forced. Do you really like to ache and groan and to be laid aside every few days with agonizing headaches or panting laboring hearts? Strange, it true!—[Rose Terry Cooke.]

A Budding Monarchist.

[Boston Transcript.]

They beat the classes in some of the public schools nowadays in the rudiments of civil government at a very early age. And it seems that the young people get, on the whole, a pretty correct idea of the way we are governed. A teacher, who, by the way, is rather fond of English things, was orally instructing a class the other day in the foundation of political science. She had given her young pupils a very interesting lecture about the British system of government. And then she asked the boy at the head of the class:

"And now, Johnny, what are the men called who govern, or rule over, us in this country?"

"Kings," said Johnny, promptly.

"Oh, no, wait a minute, by whom are we governed?"

"Queens!"

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

"No! Next boy."

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE SICK HEAD

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cure

ACHE

Is the name of so many lives that is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure while others do not. Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not grip or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In value at 15 cents; five for 75. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.
Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

London, Monday, Jan. 27.

THE SCOTTISH SAINTS.

Be wise, my Muse! Scotland have a saint.
Not Burns nor Andrew be the soundest name;
But who may sing, or mould the clay, or paint.
Let them from men be known as men of sense.
Set forth their type. Not these from witful king.
Or pious priest would crave a service creed;
But, soaring with free way on native wing,
They drew from God the grace to help their need.
Forth from the world in Hebrew days
Saw vision truth, and owned most high
Revelation; but, that walked in lonely
Thought, the Spirit stirred their faithful
Breast, and sepiers monarchs dropt the shameful
At prophet's warning voice. Thus saith the Lord!

—John Stuart Blackie.

ANNETTE.

History of a Woman's Faithfulness.

What was her name, did you say?" asked the doctor, evincing anxiety for the first time.
"Helen—Helen Smith, I told you."
"Well, this beginning, I confess, to be a little of a strange coincidence. I married a Helen Smith—a young widow."
"Mine."
"How could I marry your widow?"
"Easy enough, I was killed in battle."
"Do talk sense, man, or we shall never get to the bottom of this."
"That's what the papers said at all events; and I had to much respect for the press to contradict them."
"Do you mean to say that you were reported dead, and wasn't it?"
"I wasn't—as you see, I'm still here."
"Were you a Lieutenant John Timothy Smith?"
"I was, and am still, John Timothy."
"And left a wife here—in this place—whom you had married after a remarkably short acquaintance?"
"Ah," Smith exclaimed excitedly, "I see you know the romance of my life. Go on, for heaven's sake; don't keep me in suspense."
"Excuse me, Major; it is a mere conjecture, that I married your widow."
"Wife, then. She and I acted in good faith to you, even if it were so, as I begin to suspect it was; but, unless you can give me some more direct proof than you have thus far, I will say no more, out of respect for the memory of the dead."
"She is dead. I expected—I knew it, and yet a few natural drops will fall for my poor wife. Excuse me, he said, wiping away his ever-ready solitary tear, "perhaps out of consideration for your feeling, I ought to say your poor wife. But, no, I cannot do that. Suppose I say your poor wife."
"This is too much, Major," said the doctor, getting angry; "you seem to have taken the most insane fancy for appropriating my family—first, you claim my daughter, now my wife, and next, perhaps, you will insist that I am your long-lost brother."
"Never! I don't want any brother nor mother, as I have both—but a son or a daughter, with a preference for a son. Ah!" he exclaimed excitedly, pulling out a long, flat pocketbook and fumbling in it nervously.
"What now?" inquired Rayburn, recovering his urbanity.
"The letter? Why did I never think of it before?"
"What letter?"
"Ah, here it is," said Smith, carefully unfolding a slip of paper, yellow with age and worn with long folding, "the letter to my mother—her last."
"Your mother's?"
"No, my wife's."
Smith handed it to the doctor, who had no sooner glanced at it than a shiver passed over his frame, he turned white, and in a faint voice gasped:
"My God!"
"You have seen it before?" eagerly demanded the Major.
"Yes; give me a moment to compose myself, and I will tell you all."
Though burning with anxiety to hear the doctor's story, the Major respected his emotion, and was silent until he recovered himself sufficiently to speak.
"I think," said the doctor, at last, "that this is conclusive evidence that we both married the same woman."
It was the Major who now muttered a faint:
"My God!"
The doctor resumed:
"I was a young doctor, just settled here, when one night I was hurriedly sent for to attend a lady—an extremely dangerous delivery, but the child was fine and strong."
"Girl, or boy?" broke in the Major, with feverish anxiety.
"Girl."
"Thank heaven, I know that much at last! But I would sooner it had been a boy to perpetrate the honored name of Smith. No matter; go on."
"Believing she was going to die the mother told me, in broken sentences her and story—how she had hastily rushed into marriage with a young army lieutenant, who had almost immediately left her—"

"At the call of duty, doctor—only at his country's call."

"Yes, she recognized that Major. He was reported dead soon after."

"So I was; so I was."

"He had left her well supplied with money, given her his home address, and had spoken frequently of his mother."

"I did, I did. My excellent mother."

"I myself thought, not then being skilled in such cases, that she could not recover; and was inexperienced enough to let her see from my manner how serious was her condition. Under the impression that she was nearing her end, she wrote your mother those few lines and gave them to me to post. How singular that I should now again see them, after all these years."

"My poor Helen. I mean—excuse me—your poor Helen; but go on."

"She made me promise that I would take care of her child until it was claimed; and, if it never should be, to adopt, and rear it as my own."

"And you did?"

"Smith seized the doctor's hand, and wrung it until he winced with pain."

"After he had succeeded in releasing his hand, the physician went on with his story."

"Helen did not die."

"Neither did I," interrupted Smith. "We would all be in a pretty pickle if she had lived until now."

"Sir! What a tone of levity in which to speak of my wife!"

"Your wife? Well, I like that. Who married her first, I should like to know? But, no matter."

"No," replied the gentle physician; "we will not quarrel over a dead woman."

"But my child—my daughter—is she alive?" inquired Smith. "Who—where is she? Let me clasp her to my heart."

"Not so fast, Major. You have waited for that so many years, surely you can have patience to hear me to the end."

"Go on, then; and be quick about it, for the love of mercy."

"Well, I will go on if you don't stop me with your interruptions. Youth is strong. After a long and painful illness, Mrs. Smith recovered. Meanwhile, I had fallen in love with my patient. She reciprocated my feeling. You cannot blame her; she was known so little of you, it was merely a passing fancy for both of you."

"On my side, I admit that it was. We married in haste and repented at leisure."

"How was it that you never sought to find your wife after you recovered from your wound—for I suppose you were wounded?"

"I was left for dead on the field of battle, a bullet-wound in the back of my head."

"I was picked up, among the Confederate wounded; I was first a patient, and, until the close of the war, a prisoner, within their lines. On my release, I was sent to my home, when it became plain that, though physically well (I must here make a confession, Doctor), the wound in my head had scattered my wits a little, and for years I was looked upon as slightly deranged. In charge of a skillful physician, my mother sent me to travel. I went all over the world, and have only lately returned, cured."

"Rayburn thought he was not so sure of that."

Smith continued:
"Memories which had had but a loose hold upon my brain for twenty years regained their power. I remembered my wife, my child. A parent's yearning sprang up, and I came here hoping to find my child. The rest you know."

"I have no more to tell," said the doctor, "except that, after a proper period of mourning, your widow became my wife. She was not fitted by nature to bear children, and died in giving birth to Blanche."

"Blanche? Why I thought—I secretly hoped all the time—that Blanche was my daughter."

"Had your memory been a little clearer as to dates, you would have seen that that is impossible. Blanche is two years younger than you."

"Who, who? Speak, speak—who?"

"Gladys,"

"Gladys?" echoed Smith, a look of disappointment passing over his face; "Gladys—Gladys my daughter?"

"She is, but does not suspect that she is not my own child. How shall I break it to her?"

"How tell her that I am not her father?"

(To be Continued)

FUN, FACTS AND FICTION

A Judicious Compound of Wit and Wisdom.

The way of the transgressor is hard, yet good people tell us it is the easiest thing in the world to follow it.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. It is the life and energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorew's Hair Restorer is the best. It keeps the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get it; you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorew's advertisement in another column.

In this age of sharp rivalry the man who permits his wits to go wool-gathering is very liable to get worsted.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confused with common Cathartics or Purgative Pills, as they are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

We sometimes hear of the spirit's "hope," but hope is no spirit; it's only an "expecter."

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband, but she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Little Liver Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her feel like a different person, at least so they say, and their husbands say so, too.

When a choir singer's salary is raised it helps him to lift up his voice.

What enhances the beauty of fine features more than a clear skin? Even plain features are made attractive to a good complexion. To secure this, purify your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has no equal. Price 25¢. Six bottles, $1.50.

In cutting the slits in gold pens a circular saw is used that is the smallest in the world. It is a tiny hard steel disc, about the size of a shilling, and it is no thicker than a piece of thin paper.

Hall's Hair Renewer eradicates and prevents the formation of dandruff, thickens the growth, and beautifies the hair as no other preparation will.

That he is compelled to do the washing and the general housework is a Missouri man's reason for asking a divorce from a wife with whom he has lived 38 years.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 50¢ a bottle.

A nugget of gold worth $57 was scratched up by chickens in the garden of Amelia Thompson at her home in Auburn, Cal.

Ought to Recommend Him.—Suitors. Perhaps, sir, you don't think I'm good enough to marry your daughter. Father—Perhaps I do. "Well, sir, I'd have you know that I've been refused by some of the finest young ladies in the land."

"In vino veritas" doesn't always come out right. Some men lie dreadfully when they are drunk.

Edward Bellamy, in "Looking Backward," says that 100 years hence the servant girl question will be solved, and housekeeping will be conducted without servants. This is encouraging, but 100 years seems like a long while to wait.

An electric wire is an ugly thing when anything crosses it.

The severity of the Russian climate is the reason, perhaps, that nearly every Russian name ends with a koff.

He could box and run and kick the ball with the athletic airs.

But he couldn't head the family call. To carry coal upstairs.

For 71 years William Hammond has worked in coal mines near Wilkesbarre. He is 79 years old.

Grasshoppers, as lively and contented as in harvest time, were to be seen last week in Manhattan, Pa., and Wilkesbarre, W. Va.

Little Lucy's Luck.

"I had a disease of the skin for which I tried everything she could think of but without effect, but the bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters I tried, I found relief. It gave me great satisfaction." Lucy VEX-ANUS (age 11), Boiesvain, Man.

Two caves capable of holding 200,000 men each have just been discovered in Australia.

A Winter's Tale.

Last winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagar's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. Mrs. C. NORMAN, Cornell, Ont.

The Honey-moon.—Young Bride (pointing)—Here, we have only been married two days, Clarence, and you're scolding me already! Husband—I know, my dear, but just think how long I've been waiting for the chance!

First Help for the Wounded.

In all cases of wounds, bruises, sores, cuts and sprains prompt action is necessary and the wisdom of those who keep Hagar's Yellow Oil on hand is demonstrated. It is a prompt, effective and reliable cure for all injuries, colds, rheumatism, sore throat, etc. Used internally or externally.

Two Schools of Training.—Mabel—Sunday school teacher says we mustn't complain of our lot, and that if we're good we'll get our reward hereafter. Maud—Mother says if I ain't good she'll break every bone in my body.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

Poets are like watches—a spring sets them going.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

A Missing Scientist.—Mrs. Globetrotter—What has become of Dr. Cureall, the great scientist, author of "How to Live Forever?" Mrs. Stayhome—Oh, he died some time ago.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

It Never Fails.

"A cold snap will come along to-night."

"How do you know?"

"Because I am just going out to have my hair cut."

Repartee.

The cornetist and the housekeeper of a seaside hotel were off on their wedding tour.

"My dove!" quoth he fondly.

"My sand-piper," she replied softly.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were cited up as favorable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of this wonderful discovery, the Pain's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Pain's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromeo Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Pain's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggists, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else had failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Pain's Celery Compound.

THE HUNT

Our Great Picture Going off fast.

Get a Copy

HEAVY PAPER

PRICE, 15 CTS.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Acheson, M.D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Eruptive Eruptions, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

For 71 years William Hammond has worked in coal mines near Wilkesbarre. He is 79 years old.

Grasshoppers, as lively and contented as in harvest time, were to be seen last week in Manhattan, Pa., and Wilkesbarre, W. Va.

Little Lucy's Luck.

"I had a disease of the skin for which I tried everything she could think of but without effect, but the bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters I tried, I found relief. It gave me great satisfaction." Lucy VEX-ANUS (age 11), Boiesvain, Man.

Two caves capable of holding 200,000 men each have just been discovered in Australia.

A Winter's Tale.

Last winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagar's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. Mrs. C. NORMAN, Cornell, Ont.

The Honey-moon.—Young Bride (pointing)—Here, we have only been married two days, Clarence, and you're scolding me already! Husband—I know, my dear, but just think how long I've been waiting for the chance!

First Help for the Wounded.

In all cases of wounds, bruises, sores, cuts and sprains prompt action is necessary and the wisdom of those who keep Hagar's Yellow Oil on hand is demonstrated. It is a prompt, effective and reliable cure for all injuries, colds, rheumatism, sore throat, etc. Used internally or externally.

Two Schools of Training.—Mabel—Sunday school teacher says we mustn't complain of our lot, and that if we're good we'll get our reward hereafter. Maud—Mother says if I ain't good she'll break every bone in my body.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

Poets are like watches—a spring sets them going.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

A Missing Scientist.—Mrs. Globetrotter—What has become of Dr. Cureall, the great scientist, author of "How to Live Forever?" Mrs. Stayhome—Oh, he died some time ago.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

It Never Fails.

"A cold snap will come along to-night."

"How do you know?"

"Because I am just going out to have my hair cut."

Repartee.

The cornetist and the housekeeper of a seaside hotel were off on their wedding tour.

"My dove!" quoth he fondly.

"My sand-piper," she replied softly.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were cited up as favorable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of this wonderful discovery, the Pain's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Pain's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromeo Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Pain's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggists, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else had failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Pain's Celery Compound.

THE HUNT

Our Great Picture Going off fast.

Get a Copy

HEAVY PAPER

PRICE, 15 CTS.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Acheson, M.D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eruption, Eruptive Eruptions, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

For 71 years William Hammond has worked in coal mines near Wilkesbarre. He is 79 years old.

Grasshoppers, as lively and contented as in harvest time, were to be seen last week in Manhattan, Pa., and Wilkesbarre, W. Va.

Little Lucy's Luck.

"I had a disease of the skin for which I tried everything she could think of but without effect, but the bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters I tried, I found relief. It gave me great satisfaction." Lucy VEX-ANUS (age 11), Boiesvain, Man.

Two caves capable of holding 200,000 men each have just been discovered in Australia.

A Winter's Tale.

Last winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagar's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. Mrs. C. NORMAN, Cornell, Ont.

The Honey-moon.—Young Bride (pointing)—Here, we have only been married two days, Clarence, and you're scolding me already! Husband—I know, my dear, but just think how long I've been waiting for the chance!

First Help for the Wounded.

In all cases of wounds, bruises, sores, cuts and sprains prompt action is necessary and the wisdom of those who keep Hagar's Yellow Oil on hand is demonstrated. It is a prompt, effective and reliable cure for all injuries, colds, rheumatism, sore throat, etc. Used internally or externally.

Two Schools of Training.—Mabel—Sunday school teacher says we mustn't complain of our lot, and that if we're good we'll get our reward hereafter. Maud—Mother says if I ain't good she'll break every bone in my body.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

Poets are like watches—a spring sets them going.

FOR DYSPEPSIA and Liver Complaint you have a printed guarantee on every bottle of Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

A Missing Scientist.—Mrs. Globetrotter—What has become of Dr. Cureall, the great scientist, author of "How to Live Forever?" Mrs. Stayhome—Oh, he died some time ago.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street, London.

It Never Fails.

"A cold snap will come along to-night."

"How do you know?"

"Because I am just going out to have my hair cut."

