July, 1909.

Report of Committee on Canada's National Missionary Policy, aubmitted and adopted at National Missionary Congress, Toronto, Saturday, April 3rd, 1909.

(1) Your committee recommends that the report of the Canadian Council of the Laymen's Missionary Movement to this Congress be received, approved and printed as part of the record of the proceedings of this Congress. (See extract herewith.)

(2) That the Canadian Council be continued, and its work extended, in the hope of enlisting the whole Church membership of Canada in active and sympathetic co-operation in carrying on the great missionary enterprise.

(3) That a permanent Secretary be employed by the Council, and that this Congress provide for the expense of the movement for a period of three years.

(4) That the methods of missionary education and finance, found so successful by the Council, be recommended for general adoption.

(5) That an Interdenominational Co-operating Committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement Le organized in every city, town and community, which shall keep in touch with the general movement, and co-operate with all ir 'ividual congregations in reaching and mrintaining their highest missionary efficiency.

(6) That the following statement be adopted, as expressing the conviction of the Congress with reference to the outstanding features of what may be called Canada's missionary policy :--

In view of the universality and finality of the Gospel of Christ, and of the spiritual needs of mankind, we believe that the Church of our generation should undertake to obey literally the command of Christ to preach the Gospel to every creature.

According to their several ability and o portunity, we believe that the laymen of the Churches are equally responsible with the ordained ministers to pray and to work for the coming of the Kingdom of God upon earth.

We believe that every Christian should recognize the world as his field, and to the fu'l measure of his ability work for its evangelization.

We recognize the clear duty of the Churches of Canada to evangelize all those in the Dominion, or who come to our shores, who have not been led into the Christian life, and also to provide for the adequate preaching of the Gospel to forty millions of souls in the non-Christian world.

We accept the estimates of our missionary leaders, that at least $1,300,-000 annually should be contributed towards our home mission work, and $8,200,000 annually to foreign mission work by the Churches represented in this Congress, aggregating a communicant membership of about nino hundred thousard.

We confidently believe that the spirit of unity and co-operation so manifected in this movement will find expression in practical methods of cosperation in both the home and foreign field, so that unnecessary duplication of work may be avoided.

- We believe that the call to make dominant and regnant in all human relationship, either personal, racial or national, the principles and spirit of Jesus Christ, presents to every man his supreme opportunity of development, usefulness and satisfaction, and we appeal to men everywhere to invest their intelligence, their influence, their energy and their possessions in the effort of combined Christianity to redeem the world.

Remembering that the promises of blessing are conditional upon obedience to the will of God, and recognizing the deep spiritual quickening which has already come to our Churches through the awakening of the missionary apirit, we call upon the whole of the Churches here represented to unite with us in discharging our personal and national missionary obligations.

Assembled in the first National Missionary Congress of modern times, and deeply persuaded of the power of combined and co-operative Christianity to solve all the problems of human society, we desire to unite with the Churches of our sister countries throughout Christendom as loyal servants of the King of Kings, in a comprehensive and adequate crusade for the winning of mankind to Jesus Christ, "Who is the Way, the Truth and the Life," "The desire of nations" and the "Light of the world."

Or a total for Foreign Missions of$ 704,649.10 From the best information obtainable, it would appear that the Churches of Canada, co-operating in this movement, should assume as their share of world responsibility the evangelization of not less than 40,000,000 people living in non-Christian lands. There are between 400 and 450 foreign missionaries now in the field msintained by the Churches and various Interdenominational mission-ada. This number of mission-ries should be increased to 1,600, and the annual contributions to $3.² And and ing the total annual missionary contributions necessary for the should be increased to 1,600, and the maintain church member. The Council, in carry the swork, has found the following methods most successful to the signest missionary efficiency in the individual church (1) The presentation b. (1) The presentation b. church, appointed in every church by the Governing, Board of the church. (3) A weekly offering for missions, placing the missionary enter-prise on its financial side on the same systematic basis as the other finances. (4) A thorough canvass of the members of the church by the Mission-ary Committee, in order that every member of the church may be helped to realize his personal interest and responsibility for the work. (5) Public education and agitation by laymen. Wherever laymen have caught the vision of the world's need, and their share of responsi-bility to meet this need, and have carried this message to their brother laymen, there has invariably come a general and sympathetic response. (6) A statement of the needs of the whole world, instead of a por-tion. The presentation of world responsibility, followsd by a statement of the share of the Church in that responsibility.

Literature Issued by the Laymen's Movement.

In the past two years there has been published an unusual number of pamphlets and books that are of interest to every Christian man who wishes to keep in touch with the thought and activities of his day. Officers of the Laymen's Movement have utilized these as they have been issued and have published a number for their own use. Selections have been made so that men might have them in convenient form, as indicated on the last page of this leaflet, and the Christian men of Canada will find them most interesting reading. No speaker on Mir onary topics, or student of Missions, can afford to be without them.

The Report of the Congress, Packages of Literature, and the pamphlets or books in single copies or in quantities, may be secured at the Toronto Office, 429 Confederation Life Building.
